HEre is to be noted, that such partes and chapters which be marked and noted with such semy circles at the head of the vearse or line, with such other textes, may be left vnread in the publique reading to the people, that therby other chapters and places of the scripture makyng more to their edification and capacitie may come in their roomes. And here let the minister of Christ and dispenser of the misteries of God, haue a due and weightie consideration, to reade this hie treasure of Gods worde with all reuerence and grauitie, truely, distinctly, and sensibly: for it is the mightie power of God to saluation to euery one that beleueth: So let the hearers also with all mekenesse and lowlinesse, receaue this worde that is thus grafted and grounded amongst them by the great mercie of God, which worde is able to saue their soules saith the holy Apostle saint Iames. For as both the reader and hearer be pronounced blessed by Christes owne mouth, who heare the worde of God and do fulfyll it: So be they pronounced both reader and hearer by the holy prophete Ieremie accursed, which do the worke of God fraudulently, and negligently; From the which he defende vs who bought vs with his most precious blood, To whom with the father and the holy ghost be all honour and glorie. Amen.

F all the ſentences pronounced by our ſauiour Chriſte in his whole doctrine, none is more ſerious or more worthy to be borne in remembraunce, then that which he ſpake openly in his Goſpell, ſaying: Scrutamini ſcripturas, quia vos putatis in ipſis vitam eternam habere, et ille ſunt que teſtimonium perhibent de me. Search ye the ſcriptures, for in them ye thinke to haue eternall lyfe, and thoſe they be which beare witnes of me. Iohn.v. Theſe wordes were firſt ſpoken vnto the Iewes by our ſauiour, but by hym in his doctrine ment to all: for they concerne all, of what nation, of what tongue, of what profeſſion ſoeuer any man be. For to all belongeth it to be called vnto eternall life, ſo many as by the witnes of the ſcriptures deſire to finde eternall life. No man, woman, or chylde, is excluded from this ſaluation, and therfore to euery of them is this ſpoké proportionally yet, and in their degrees and ages, and as the reaſon and congruitie of their vocation may aſke. For not ſo lyeth it in charge to the worldly artificer to ſearche, or to any other priuate man ſo exquiſitely to ſtudie, as it lyeth to the charge of the publike teacher to ſearche in the ſcriptures, to be the more able to walke in the houſe of God (which is the Church of the lyuyng God, the pyller and ground of trueth) to the i.Tim.iii. eſtabliſhing of the true doctrine of the ſame, and to the impugnyng of the falſe. And though whatſoeuer difference there may be betwixt the preacher in office, and the auditor in his vocation, yet to both it is ſaid, Search ye the ſcriptures, whereby ye may fynde eternall lyfe, and gather witneſſes of that ſaluation which is in Chriſte Ieſus our Lorde. For although the prophete of God Moyſes, byddeth the kyng when Deut.xvii. he is once ſet in the throne of his kingdome, to deſcribe before his eyes the volume of Gods lawe, according to the example whiche he ſhoulde receaue of the prieſtes of the leuiticall tribe, to haue it with him, and to reade in it all the dayes of his life, to thende that he might learne to feare the Lorde his God, and to obſerue his lawes, that his heart be not aduaunced in pryde ouer his brethren, not to ſwarue eyther on the ryght hande or on the left: yet the reaſon of this precept for that it concerneth all men, may reaſonably be thought to be commaunded to all men, and all men may take it to be ſpoken to them ſelfe in their degree. Though almightie God him ſelfe ſpake to his captayne Ioſue in preciſe wordes, Non recedat volumen legis huius ab ore tuo, ſed meditaberis in eo diebus ac noctibus &c. Let not the volume of this booke depart from thy mouth, but muſe therin both dayes and nyghtes, that thou mayeſt kepe and perfourme all thinges which be written in it, that thou mayeſt direct well thy way and vnderſtande the ſame: yet aſwell ſpake almightie God this precept to all his people in the directions of their wayes to himwarde, as he ment it to Ioſue: For that he hath care of all, he accepteth i.Pet.v. no mans perſon, his wyll is that all men ſhoulde be ſaued, his wyll is that all men ſhoulde come to the way Ephe.vi. of trueth. Howe coulde this be more conueniently declared by God to man, then when Chriſte his welbe- i.Tim.u. loued ſonne our moſt louing ſauiour, the way, the trueth, and the lyfe of vs all, dyd byd vs openly Searche the ſcriptures, aſſuring vs herein to finde eternall life, to finde full teſtification of all his graces and benefites towardes vs in the treaſure thereof? Therefore it is moſt conuenient that we ſhoulde all ſuppoſe that Chriſte ſpake to vs all in this his precept of ſearching the ſcriptures. If this celeſtiall doctour (ſo aucthoriſed by the father of heauen, and commaunded as his only ſonne, to be hearde of vs all) biddeth vs buſily to Search the ſcriptures: of what ſpirite can it proceede to forbid the reading and ſtudiyng of the ſcriptures? If the groſſe Iewes vſed to reade them, as ſome men thinke that our ſauiour Chriſt dyd ſhew by ſuch kynd of ſpeaking, their vſage, with their opinion they had therin to finde eternall lyfe, and were not of Chriſte rebuked or diſproued, either for their ſearching, or for the opinion they had, howe ſuperſtitiouſly or ſuperficially ſoeuer ſome of them vſed to expende the ſcriptures? Howe muche more vnaduiſedly do ſuche as boſt them ſelfe to be either Chriſtes vicars, or be of his garde, to lothe chriſten men from reading, by their couert ſlanderous reproches of the ſcriptures, or in their aucthoritie by lawe or ſtatute to contract this libertie of ſtudiyng the worde of eternall ſaluation? Chriſte calleth them not onlye to the ſingle readyng of ſcriptures (ſaith Chriſoſtome) but ſendeth them to the exquiſite ſearching of them, for in them is eternall lyfe to be founde, and they be (ſaith hym ſelfe) the witneſſe of me: for they declare out his office, they commende his beneuolence towardes vs, they recorde his whole workes wrought for vs to our ſaluation. Antechriſte therefore he muſt be, that vnder whatſoeuer colour woulde geue contrary precept or counſayle, to that whiche Chriſte dyd geue vnto vs. Very litle do they reſemble Chriſtes louing ſpirite mouing vs to ſearche for our comfort, that wyll diſcourage vs from ſuche ſearching, or that woulde wiſhe ignoraunce and forgetfulneſſe of his benefite to raigne in vs, ſo that they might by our ignoraunce raigne the more frankly in our conſciences, to the daunger of our ſaluation. VVho can take the light from vs in this miſerable vale of blindneſſe, and meane not to haue vs ſtumble in the pathes of perdition to the ruine of our ſoules? who wyll en- Pſal xxiii. uie vs this bread of lyfe prepared and ſet on the table for our eternall ſuſtenaunce, and meane not to famiſhe vs, or in ſteede thereof with their corrupt traditions and doctrines of man, to infect vs? All the whole ſcripture, ſaith the holy apoſtle Saint Paul inſpired from God aboue, is profitable to teache, to reproue, to reſourme, to inſtruct in righteouſneſſe, that the man of God may be founde and perfect, inſtructed to euery good worke. ii.Tim.

Searche therefore good reader (on Gods name) as Chriſte byddeth thee the holy ſcripture, wherein thou mayeſt finde thy ſaluation : Let not the volume of this booke (by Gods owne warrant) depart from thee,but occupie thy ſelfe therein in the whole iourney of this thy worldly pilgrimage,to vnderſtande thy

.al.i. way howe to walke ryghtly before hym all the dayes of thy lyfe. Remember that the prophete Dauid pro-
Pſal.cxix. nounceth hym the bleſſed man whiche wyll muſe in the lawe of God both day and night, remember that he calleth him bleſſed whiche walketh in the way of the Lorde,whiche wyll ſearche diligently his teſtimonies, and wyll in their whole heart ſeeke the ſame. Let not the couert ſuſpitious inſinuations of the aduerſaries driue thee from the ſearche of the holy ſcripture,either for the obſcuritie whiche they ſay is in them, or for the inſcrutable hidden miſteries they talke to be compriſed in them, or for the ſtraungnes and homlynes of the phraſes they woulde charge Gods booke with. Chriſte exhorteth thee therefore the rather for the difficultie of the ſame,to ſearche them diligently. Saint Paul wylleth thee to haue thy ſenſes exerciſed in them, Hedre.v. i.Cor.xiiii. and not to be a chylde in thy ſenſes,but in malice. Though many thinges may be difficult to thee to vnderſtande, impute it rather to thy dull hearing and reading, then to thinke that the ſcriptures be inſuperable, to them which with diligent ſearching labour to diſcerne the euill from the good. Only ſearche with an Math.vii. humble ſpirite,aſke in continuall prayer,ſeeke with puritie of life,knocke with perpetuall perſeueraunce,and crye to that good ſpirite of Chriſte the comforter: and ſurely to euery ſuche aſker it wyll be geuen, ſuch ſearchers muſt nedes finde,to them it wylbe opened. Chriſte him ſelfe wyll open the ſenſe of the ſcriptures, not Math.xi. Eſai.lxi. i.Cor.xii. Apoc.iii. Sapi.i. Iob.xiiii. Sapi i. to the proude,or to the wyſe of the worlde , but to the lowly and contrite in heart : for he hath the kay of Dauid, who openeth and no man ſhutteth,who ſhutteth and no man openeth. For as this ſpirite is a bening and liberall ſpirite,and wyll be eaſyly founde of them whiche wyll early in carefulneſſe ryſe to ſeeke hym, and as he promiſeth he wyll be the comforter from aboue to teache vs, and to leade vs into all the wayes of trueth,if that in humilitie we bowe vnto hym, deniyng our owne naturall ſenſes, our carnall wittes and reaſons: ſo is he the ſpirite of puritie and cleaunes,and will receede from him,whoſe conſcience is ſubiect to filthyneſſe of lyfe. Into ſuche a ſoule this heauenly wyſdome wyll not enter,for all peruerſe cogitations wyll Pſal.lxviii. ſeparate vs from God : and then howe buſyly ſoeuer we ſearche this holy table of the ſcripture, yet wyll it then be a table to ſuche to their owne ſnare,a trap, a ſtumbling ſtocke,and a recompence to them ſelfe. VVe ought therefore to ſearche to finde out the trueth, not to oppreſſe it, we ought to ſeeke Chriſte, not as Herode did vnder the pretence of worſhipping hym to deſtroy hym,or as the Phariſees ſearched the ſcriptures to diſproue Chriſte,and to diſcredite him,and not to folowe him : but to embrace the ſaluation whiche we may learne by them. Nor yet is it inough ſo to acknowledge the ſcriptures as ſome of the Iewes dyd,of the holyeſt of them,who vſed ſuche diligence,that they could number preciſely,not only euery verſe,but euery word and ſillable, how oft euery letter of the alphabete was repeated in the whole ſcriptures: they had ſome of them ſuche reuerence to that booke,that they woulde not ſuffer in a great heape of bookes, any other to lay ouer them,they woulde not ſuffer that booke to fall to the grounde as nye as they coulde, they woulde coſtly bynde the bookes of holy ſcriptures,and cauſe them to be exquiſitely and ornately written. VVhiche deuotion yet though it was not to be diſcommended,yet was it not for that intent, why Chriſte cõmended the ſcriptures,nor they therof alowed before God: For they did not call vpon God in a true fayth,they were not charitable to their neighbours,but in the middes of all this deuotion,they did ſteale, they were adulterers, they were ſlaunderers and backbiters, euen muche like many of our chriſtian men and women nowe a dayes,who glory much that they reade the ſcriptures, that they ſearche them and loue them, that they frequent the publique ſermons in an outwarde ſhewe of all honeſtie and perfection, yea they can pike out of the ſcriptures vertuous ſentenſes and godly preceptes to lay before other men. And though theſe maner of men do not muche erre for ſuch ſearching and ſtudiyng,yet they ſee not the ſcope and the principall ſtate of the ſcriptures,which is as Chriſte declareth it,to finde Chriſte as their ſauiour,to cleaue to his ſaluation and merites,to be brought to the lowe repentaunce of their liues, and to amende them ſelfe, to rayſe vp their fayth to our ſauiout Chriſte, ſo to thinke of him as the ſcriptures do teſtifie of hym. Theſe be the principall cauſes why Chriſte did ſende the Iewes to ſearche the ſcriptures : for to this ende were they wrytten, ſaith Iohn.xx. Saint Iohn, Hec ſcripta ſunt vt credatis, & vt credentes vitam habeatis eternam. Theſe were written to this intent, that ye ſhoulde beleue,and that through your beliefe ye ſhoulde haue euerlaſting life.

And here good reader,great cauſe we haue to extoll the wonderous wiſdome of God, and with great thankes to prayſe his prouidence,conſidering howe he hath preſerued and renued from age to age by ſpeci-
Hber.v. all miracle,the incomparable treaſure of his Churche. For firſt he did inſpire Moyſes, as Iohn Chriſoſtome doth teſtifie,to wryte the ſtonie tables,and kept him in the mountayne fourtie dayes to geue him his lawe: after him he ſent the prophetes, but they ſuffred many thouſande aduerſities, for battayles did folowe, all were ſlayne,all were deſtroyed,bookes were brent vp.He then inſpired agayne another man to repayre theſe miraculous ſcriptures, Eſdras I meane,who of their leauinges ſet them agayne together: after that,he prouided that the ſeuentie interpreters ſhoulde take them in hande : at the laſt came Chriſte him ſelfe, the Apoſtles did receaue them,and ſpread them throughout all nations, Chriſte wrought his miracles and wonders:
Cor x. and what folowed? after theſe great volumes the Apoſtles alſo did wryte as Saint Paul doth ſay, Theſe be

but that he woulde haue them continue whole and perfect to this day, to our singuler comfort and instruction, where other bookes of mortall wise men haue perished in great numbers. It is recorded that Ptolomeus Philadelphus kyng of Egypt, had gathered together in one librarie at Alexandria by his great coste and diligence, seuen hundred thousand bookes, wherof the principall were the bookes of Moyses, whiche reserued not much more, then by the space of two hundred yeres, were all brent and consumed in that battayle, when Cæsar restored Cleopatra agayne after her expulsion. At Constantinople perished vnder Zenon by one common fire, a hundred and twentie thousande bookes. At Rome when Lucius Aurel Antonius dyd raigne, his notable librarie by a lightning frō heauen was quite consumed: yea it is recorded that Gregorie the first, did cause a librarie of Rome cōtayning only certaine Paynims workes to be burned, to thintent the scriptures of God should be more read and studied. VVhat other great libraries haue there ben cōsumed but of late daies? And what libraries haue of olde throughout this realme almost in euery abbey of the same, ben destroyed at sundry ages, besides the losse of other mens priuate studies, it were to long to rehearse. VVherevpon seyng almightie God by his deuine pouidence, hath preserued these bookes of the scriptures safe and sounde, and that in their natiue languages they were first written, in the great ignoraunce that raigned in these tongues, and contrary to all other casualties, chaunced vpon all other bookes in mauger of all worldly wittes, who would so fayne haue had them destroyed, and yet he by his mightie hande, would haue them extant as witnesses and interpreters of his will toward mankind: we may soone see cause most reuerently to embrace these deuine testimonies of his wyll, to studie them, and to search them, to instruct our blinde nature so sore corrupted and fallen from the knowledge in whiche first we were created. Yet hauing occasion geuen somewhat to recouer our fall, and to returne againe to that deuine nature wherein we were once made, and at the last to be inheritours in the celestiall habitation with God almightie, after the ende of our mortalitie here brought to his dust agayne: These bookes I say beyng of suche estimation and authoritie, so muche reuerenced of them who had any meane taste of them, coulde neuer be put out of the way, neither by the spyte of any tiraunt, as that tiraunt Maximian destoyed all the holy scriptures whersoeuer they coulde be founde, and burnt them in the middes of the market, neither the hatred either of any Porphirian philosopher or Rhetoritian, neither by the enuie of the romanystes, and of such hypocrites, who from tyme to time did euer barke against them, some of them not in open sort of condempnation: but more cunningly vnder suttle pretences, for that as they say, they were so harde to vnderstande, and specially for that they affirme it to be a perilous matter to translate the text of the holy scripture, and therefore it can not be well translated. And here we may beholde the endeuour of some mens cauillations, who labour all they can to slaunder the translatours, to finde fault in some wordes of the translation: but them selfe will neuer set pen to the booke, to set out any translation at al. They can in their constitutions prouinciall vnder payne of excommunication, inhibite al other men to translate them without the ordinaries or the prouinciall counsayle agree therevnto: But they wyll be well ware neuer to agree or to geue counsayle to set them out. VVhiche their suttle compasse in effect, tendeth but to bewray what inwardly they meane, if they coulde bring it about, that is, vtterly to suppresse them: being in this their iudgement, farre vnlike the olde fathers in the primatiue Church, who hath exhorted indifferently all persons, aswell men as women, to exercise them selues in the scriptures, which by Saint Hieroms authoritie be the scriptures of the people. Yea they be farre vnlike their olde forefathers that haue ruled in this realme, who in their times, and in diuers ages did their diligence to translate the whole bookes of the scriptures, to the erudition of the laytie, as yet at this day be to be seene diuers bookes translated into the vulgar tongue, some by kynges of the realme, some by bishoppes, some by abbottes, some by other deuout godly fathers: so desirous they were of olde tyme to haue the lay sort edified in godlynes by reading in their vulgar tongue, that very many bookes be yet extant, though for the age of the speache and straungenesse of the charect of many of them almost worne out of knowledge. In whiche bookes may be seene euidently howe it was vsed among the Saxons, to haue in their Churches read the foure gospels, so distributed and piked out in the body of the euangelistes bookes, that to euery Sunday and festiuall day in the yere, they were sorted out to the common ministers of the Churche in their common prayers to be read to their people. Nowe as of the most auncient fathers the prophetes, Saint Peter testifieth that these holy men of God had the impulsion of the holy ghost, to speake out these deuine testimonies: so it is not to be doubted but that these latter holy fathers of the englishe Church, had the impulsion of the holy ghost, to set out these sacred bookes in their vulgar language, to the edification of the people, by the helpe whereof they might the better folowe the example of the godly Christians, in the begining of the Churche, who not only receaued the worde withall redinesse of heart, but also did searche diligently in the scriptures, whether the doctrine of the Apostles were agreable to the same scriptures. And these were not of the rascall sort (saith the deuine storie) but they were of the best and of most noble byrth among the Thessalonians, Birrhenses by name. Yea the prophetes them selues in their dayes, writeth S. Peter, were diligent searchers to inquire out this saluatiō by Christe, searching when and at what article of time this grace of Christes dispensation should appeare to the world. VVhat ment the fathers of the Church in their writinges, but the aduauncing of these holy bookes, where some do attribute no certaintie of vndoubted veritie, but to the canonicall scriptures. Some do affirme it to be a foolishe rashe boldnesse to beleue hym, who proueth not by the scriptures that whiche he affirmeth in his worde. Some do accurse all that is deliuered by tradition, not founde in the legall and euangelicall scriptures. Some say that our fayth must needes stagger, if it be not grounded vpon the auctoritie of the scripture. Some testifieth that Christe and his Churche ought to be aduouched out of the scriptures, and do contende in disputation, that the true Churche can not be knowen, but only by the holy scriptures: For all other thinges (saith the same auctor) may be founde among the heretikes. Some affirme it to be a sinfull tradition that is obtruded without the scripture. Some playnely pronounce, that not to knowe the scriptures, is not to knowe Christe. VVherefore let men extoll out the Churche practises as hyghly as they can, and let them set out their traditions and customes, their decisions in synodes and counsayles, with vaunting the presence of the holy ghost among them really, as some doth affirme it in their writing, let their groundes and their demonstrations, their foundations be as stable and as strong as they blase

For this we know, that al the propheticall scripture standeth not in any priuate interpretation of vayne names, of seuerall Churches, of catholique and vniuersall seas, of singuler and wylfull heades, whiche wyll chalenge by custome all decision to pertayne to them only, who be working so muche for their vayne superioritie, that they be not ashamed now to be of that number, Qui dixerunt linguam nostram magnificabimus, labia nostra a nobis sunt, quis noster dominus est: VVhiche haue sayd, with our tongue wyll we preuayle, we are they that ought to speake, who is lorde ouer vs. And whyle they shall thus contende for their straunge claymed aucthoritie, we will proceede in the reformation begun, and doubt no more by the helpe of Christe his grace, of the true vnitie to Christes catholique Churche, and of the vprightnesse of our fayth in this prouince, then the spanishe cleargie once gathered together in counsaile (only by the commaundement of their king, before whiche tyme the Pope was not so acknowledged in his auctthoritie which he now claymeth) I say as surely dare we trust, as they dyd trust of their fayth and vnitie. Yea no lesse cõfidence haue we to professe that, which the fathers of the vniuersall counsaile at Carthage in Affrike as they wryte them selfe did professe in their epistle writtẽ to Pope Celestine, laying before his face, the foule corruption of him selfe (as two other of his predicessours did the like errour) in falsifiyng the canons of Nicen counsayle, for his wrong chalenge of his newe claymed aucthoritie: Thus wrytyng. Prudentissime enim iustissimeque prouiderunt (Nicena et Affricana decreta) quecunque negotia in suis locis (vbi orta sunt) finienda, nec vnicuique prouintie gratiam sancti spiritus defuturam, qua equitas a Christi sacerdotibus et prudenter videatur, & constantissime teneatur, maxime, quia vnicuique concessum est, si iniuditio offensus fuerit cognitorum, ad concilia sue prouincie, vel etiam vniuersale prouocare. That (the Nicen and African decrees) haue most prudently and iustly prouided for all maner of matters to be ended in their teritories where they had their beginning, and they trusted that not to any one prouince shoulde want the grace of the holy ghost, wherby both the truth or equitie might prudently be seene of the christian prelates of Christe, and might be also by them most constantly defended, specially for that it is graunted to euery man (if he be greeued) by the iudgement of the cause once knowen, to appeale to the counsayles of his owne prouince, or els to the vniuersall. Except there be any man, which may beleue that our Lorde God would inspire the righteousnesse of examination, to any one singular person, and to denie the same to priestes gathered together into counsaile without number. &c. And there they do require the bishop of Rome to send none of his clarkes to execute such prouinciall causes, lest els say they, mought be brought in the vayne pride of the worlde into the Churche of Christe. In this antiquitie may we in this christian catholique Church of Englande, repose our selfe, knowyng by our owne annales of auncient recorde, that kyng Lucius whose conscience was muche touched with the miracles whiche the seruauntes of Christe wrought in diuers nations, thervpon beyng in great loue with the true fayth, sent vnto Eleutherius then byshop of Rome, requiring of hym the christian religion. But Eleutherius did redyly geue ouer that care to king Lucius in his epistle, for that the king as he wryteth, the vicar of God in his owne kingdome, and for that he had receaued the faith of Christe: And for that he had also both testamentes in his realme, he wylled him to drawe out of them by the grace of God, and by the counsaile of his wisemen, his lawes, and by that lawe of God to gouerne his realme of Britanie, and not so muche to desire the Romane and Emperours lawes, in the which some default might be founde saith he, but in the lawes of God nothing at all. VVith which aunswere the kinges legates, Eluanus and Medwinus sent as messengers by the king to the Pope, returned to Britanie agayne, Eluanus beyng made a byshop, and Medwine alowed a publique teacher: who for the eloquence and knowledge they had in the holy scriptures, they repayred home agayne to kyng Lucius, and by their holy preachinges, Lucius and the noble men of the whole Britanie receaued their baptisme. &c. Thus farre in the storie. Nowe therfore knowing and beleuing with Saint Paul, Quod quecunque prescripta sunt, ad nostram doctrinam prescripta sunt, vt per pacientiam & consolationem scripturarum spem habeamus: VVhatsoeuer is afore writtẽ, is written before for our instruction, that we through the pacience and comfort of scirptures might haue hope, the only suretie to our fayth and comscience, is to sticke to the scriptures. VVhervpon whyle this eternall worde of God be our rocke and anker to sticke vnto, we will haue pacience with all the vayne inuentions of men, who labour so highly to magnifie their tongues, to exalt them selues aboue al that is God. VVe wil take comfort by the holy scriptures against the maledictions of the aduersaries, and doubt not to nourishe our hope continually therewith, so to liue and dye in this comfortable hope, and doubt not to pertayne to the elect number of Christes Churche, howe farre soeuer we be excommunicated out of the synagogue of suche who suppose them selues to be the vniuersall lordes of all the world, Lordes of our fayth and consciences, at pleasure. Finally to commend further vnto thee good reader the cause in part before intreated, it shalbe the lesse needefull, hauing so nye folowing that learned preface, whiche sometime was set out by the diligence of that godly father Thomas Cranmer, late byshop in the sea of Canterburie, whiche he caused to be prefixed before the translation of that Byble that was then set out. And for that the copies thereof be so wasted, that very many Churches do want their conuenient Bybles, it was thought good to some well disposed men, to recognise the same Byble againe into this fourme as it is nowe come out, with some further diligence in the printing, and with some more light added, partly in the translation, and partly in the order of the text, not as condemning the former translation, whiche was folowed mostly of any other translation, excepting the originall text from whiche as litle variaunce was made as was thought meete to such as toke paynes therin: desiring thee good reader if ought be escaped, eyther by such as had the expending of the bookes, or by the ouersight of the printer, to correct the same in the spirite of charitie, calling to remembraunce what diuersitie hath ben seene in mens iudgementes in the translation of these bookes before these dayes, though all directed their labours to the glory of God, to the edification of the Churche, to the comfort of their christian brethren, and alwayes as God dyd further open vnto them, so euer more desirous they were to reformme their former humaine ouersightes, rather then in a stubborne wylfulnesse to resist the gyft of the holy ghost, who from tyme to tyme is resident as that heauenly

And yet may it be true that W. of Malſberie writeth, that Pelagianus and Deruianus were ſent after (as Coadiutours) with theſe learned men to the preaching of the Goſpell, whiche was neuer extinguiſhed in Britanie, frõ Joſeph of Aramathia his time, as to S. uenly teacher and leader into all trueth, by whose direction the Churche is ruled and gouerned. And let all men remember in them selfe howe errour and ignoraunce is created with our nature: let frayle man confesse with that great wyse man, that the cogitations and inuentions of mortall men be very weake, and our opinions sone deceaued: For the body so subiect to corruptiō doth oppresse the soule, that it can not aspire so hye as of dutie it ought. Men we be all, and that which we know, is not the thousand part of that we knowe not. VVhereupon saith saint Austen, otherwyse to iudge then the truth is, this temptation ryseth of the frailtie of man. A man so to loue and sticke to his owne iudgement, or to enuie his brothers, to the perill of dissoluing the christian communion, or to the perill of schisme, and of heresie, this is diabolicall presumption: but so to iudge in euery matter as the truth is, this belongeth onely to the angelicall perfection. Notwithstanding good reader, thou mayst be well assured nothing to be done in this translation eyther of malice or wylfull meaning in altering the text, eyther by putting more or lesse to the same, as of purpose to bryng in any priuate iudgement by falsification of the wordes, as some certaine men hath ben ouer bolde so to do, litle regarding the maiestie of God his scripture: but so to make it serue to their corrupt error, as in alleaging the sentence of saint Paule to the Romaines the .6. one certaine wryter to proue his satisfaction, was bold to turne the word of Santificationem into the word of Satisfactionem, Thus. Sicut exhibuimus antea membra uestra seruire immunditie et iniquitati ad iniquitatem, ita deinceps exhibeamus membra uestra seruire iustitiæ in satisfactionem. That is, as we haue geuen our members to vncleanesse, from iniquitie to iniquitie: euen so from hencefoorth let vs geue our members to serue righteousnesse into satisfaction: where the true worde, is into sanctification. Euen so likewise for the aduauntage of his cause, to proue that men may haue in their prayer fayth vpon saintes, corruptly alleageth Saint Paules text, Ad philemonem, Thus. Fidem quam habes in domino Iesu & in omnes sanctos, leauing out the worde Charitatem, which would haue rightly ben distributed vnto Omnes sanctos. As fidem vnto in domino Iesu. VVhere the text is, Audiens charitatem tuam & fidem quam habes in domino Iesu & in omnes sanctos. &c. It were to long to bryng in many examples, as may be openly founde in some mens wrytynges in these dayes, who would be counted the chiefe pillers of the Catholique fayth, or to note how corruptly they of purpose abuse the text to the comoditie of their cause. VVhat maner of translation may men thinke to looke for at their handes, if they should translate the scriptures to the comfort of Gods elect, whiche they neuer did, nor be not like to purpose it, but be rather studious only to seeke quarrels in other mens well doynges, to picke fault where none is: And where any is escaped through humaine negligence, there to crye out with their tragicall exclamations, but in no wyse to amende by the spirite of charitie and lenitie, that whiche might be more aptly set. VVhervpon for frayle man (compassed hym selfe with infirmitie) it is most reasonable not to be to seuere in condemning his brothers knowledge or diligence where he doth erre, not of malice, but of simplicitie, and specially in handeling of these so deuine bookes so profounde in sense, so farre passing our naturall vnderstanding. And with charitie it standeth, the reader not to be offended with the diuersitie of translatours, nor with the ambiguitie of translations: For as Saint Austen doth witnesse, by Gods prouidence it is brought about, that the holy scriptures whiche be the salues for euery mans sore, though at the first they came from one language, and thereby might haue ben spread to the whole worlde: nowe by diuersitie of manye languages, the translatours shoulde spreade the saluation (that is contayned in them) to all nations, by suche wordes of vtteraunce, as the reader might perceaue the minde of the translatour, and so consequently to come to the knowledge of God his wyll and pleasure. And though many rashe readers be deceaued in the obscurities and ambiguities of their translations, whyle they take one thing for another, and whyle they vse muche labour to extricate them selues out of the obscurities of the same: yet I thinke (saith he) this is not wrought without the prouidence of God, both to tame the proude arrogancie of man by his suche labour of searching, as also to kepe his minde from lothsomnesse and contempt, where if the scriptures vniuersally were to easie, he woulde lesse regarde them. And though (saith he) in the primatiue Churche the late interpreters whiche did translate the scriptures, be innumerable, yet wrought this rather an helpe, then an impediment to the readers, if they be not to negligent. For saith he, diuers translations haue made many tymes the harder and darker sentences, the more open and playne: So that of congruence, no offence can iustly be taken for this newe labour, nothing preiudicing any other mans iudgement by this doyng, nor yet hereby professing this to be so absolute a translation, as that hereafter might folowe no other that might see that which as yet was not vnderstanded. In this poynt it is conuenient to consider the iudgement that Iohn, once bysshop of Rochester was in, who thus wrote: It is not vnknowen, but that many thinges hath ben more diligently discussed, and more clearely vnderstanded by the wittes of these latter dayes, aswell concerning the gospels as other scriptures, then in olde tyme they were. The cause whereof is (saith he) for that to the olde men the yse was not broken, or for that their age was not sufficient exquisitely to expende the whole mayne sea of the scriptures, or els for that in this large field of the scriptures, a mā may gather some eares vntouched after the haruest men, howe diligent soeuer they were. For there be yet (saith he) in the gospels very many darke places, whiche without all doubt to the posteritie shalbe made muche more open. For why should we dispayre herein, seing the gospell (wryteth he) was deliuered to this intent, that it might be vtterly vnderstanded of vs, yea to the very inche. VVherfore, forasmuche as Christe sheweth no lesse loue to his Churche now, then hitherto he hath done, the auᵭhoritie wherof is as yet no whit diminished, and forasmuch as that holy spirite the perpetuall keper and gardian of the same Church, whose gyftes and graces do flowe as continually and as aboundantly as from the deginning: who can doubt, but that such thinges as remayne yet vnknowen in the gospell, shalbe hereafter made open to the latter wittes of our posteritie, to their cleare vnderstanding. (Thus farre this wryter.) Only good readers let vs oft call vpon the holy spirite of God our heauenly father, by the mediation of our Lorde and sauiour, with the wordes of the oᵭonary psalme of Dauid, who did so importunatly craue of God to haue the vnderstanding of his lawes and testament: Let vs humblye on our knees pray to almightie God, with that wyse kyng Solomon in his very wordes, saying thus.

O God of my fathers, and Lorde of mercies (thou that haſt made all thynges with thy worde, and didſt ordayne man through thy wiſdome, that he ſhoulde haue dominion ouer thy creatures which thou haſt made, and that he ſhoulde order the worlde according to holineſſe and righteouſneſſe, and that he ſhoulde execute iudgement with a true heart) geue me wiſdome whiche is euer about thy ſeate, and put me not out from among thy chyldren: For I thy ſeruaunt and ſonne of thy handmayden am a feeble perſon, of a ſhort time, and to weake to the vnderſtanding of thy iudgementes and lawes. And though a man be neuer ſo perfect among the children of men, yet if thy wiſdome be not with him, he ſhalbe of no value. O ſende her out therfore from thy holy heauens, and from the throne of thy maieſtie, that ſhe may be with me, and labour with me, that I may knowe what is acceptable in thy ſight: for ſhe knoweth and vnderſtandeth all thinges, and ſhe ſhall leade me ſoberly in my workes, and preſerue me in her power. A prologue or preface made by

Oncernyng two ſundry ſortes of people, it ſeemeth much neceſſarie that ſome thyng be ſayde in the entrie of this boohe by the way of a preface or prologue, wherby hereafter it may be both the better accepted of them which hitherto coulde not well beare it, and alſo the better vſed of them which heretofore haue miſuſed it. For truely ſome there are that be to ſlowe and neede the ſpurre, ſome other ſeme to quicke, and neede more of the bridle: ſome loſe their game by ſhort ſhotyng, ſome by ouer ſhotyng, ſome walke to much on the left hande, ſome to much on the ryght. In the former ſort be all they that refuſe to reade, or to heare redde the ſcripture in the vulgar tongue, much worſe they that alſo let or diſcourage the other from the readyng or hearyng therof. In the latter ſort be they which by their inordinate readyng, vndiſcrete ſpeakyng, contentious diſputyng, or otherwiſe by their licentious lyuyng, ſlaunder and hynder the worde of God moſt of all other, wherof they woulde ſeeme to be greateſt furtherers. Theſe two ſortes, albeit they be moſt farre vnlyke the one to the other, yet they both deſerue in effect lyke reproche. Neither can I well tell whether of them I may iudge the more offendour, hym that doth obſtinately refuſe ſo godly and goodly knowledge: or hym that ſo vngodly and ſo vngoodly doth abuſe the ſame. And as touchyng the former, I woulde marueyle much that any man ſhoulde be ſo mad, as to refuſe in darkneſſe, lyght: in hunger, foode: in colde, fire: for the worde of God is lyght: Lucerna pedibus meis, verbum tuum, Thy worde is a lanterne vnto my feete. It is foode: Non in ſolo pane viuit homo, ſed in omni verbo dei. Man ſhall not lyue by bread only, but by euery worde of God. It is fire: Ignem veni mittere in terram, & quid volo niſi vt ardeat? I am come to ſende fire on the earth, and what is my deſire but that it be kindled? I woulde marueyle (I ſay at this) ſaue that I conſider how much cuſtome & vſage may do. So that if there were a people as ſome write, de Cymeriis, which neuer ſawe the ſunne, by reaſon that they be ſituated farre towarde the North pole, and be incloſed and ouerſhadowed with hye mountaynes: it is credible and lyke inough, that yf by the power and wyll of God, the mountaynes ſhoulde ſinke downe and geue place, that the lyght of the ſunne myght haue entraunce to them, at the firſt ſome of them woulde be offended therwith. And the olde prouerbe affirmeth, that after tillage of corne was firſt founde, many delited more to feede of maſt and acornes wherwith they had ben accuſtomed, then to eate bread made of good corne. Such is the nature of cuſtome, that it cauſeth vs to beare al thinges well and eaſyly wherwith we haue ben accuſtomed, and to be offended with all thynges therunto contrary. And therfore I can well thinke them worthy pardon, which at the commyng abrode of ſcripture doubted and drewe backe. But ſuch as wyll perſiſt ſtyll in their wilfulneſſe I muſt needes iudge not only fooliſhe, frowarde and obſtinate: but alſo peeuiſhe, peruerſe, and indurate. And yet, if the matter ſhoulde be tryed by cuſtome, we myght alſo to aleage cuſtome for the readyng of the ſcripture in the vulgar tongue, and preſcribe the more auncient cuſtome. For it is not muche aboue one hundred yere ago, ſince ſcripture hath not ben accuſtomed to be read in the vulgare tongue within this realme, and many hundred yeres before that, it was tranſlated and red in the Sarones tongue, which at that time was our mother tongue, wherof there remaine yet diuers coppies founde lately in olde abbaies, of ſuche antique maner of writing and ſpeaking, that fewe men now ben able to reade and vnderſtand them. And when this language wared olde and out of common vſage, becauſe folke ſhould not lacke the fruite of reading, it was againe tranſlated into the newer language, whereof yet alſo many coppes remayne and be dayly founde. But nowe to let paſſe cuſtome, and to way as wiſe men euer ſhoulde, the thyng in his owne nature: let vs here diſcuſſe what it auayleth ſcripture to be had and redde of the lay and vulgar people. And to this queſtion I intende here to ſay nothyng: but that was ſpoken and written by the noble doctour and moſt morall diuine, ſaint Johan Chriſoſtome in his third ſermon de Lazaro, albeit, I wyll be ſome thing ſhorter, and gather the matter into fewer wordes and leſſe rome then he doth there, becauſe I woulde not be tedious. He exhorteth there his audience, that euery man ſhoulde reade by him ſelfe at home in the meane dayes and time, betweene ſermon and ſermon, to the intent they might both more profoundly fire in their mindes and memories that he had ſaide before vpon ſuch textes, whereupon he had alredie preached: and alſo that they might haue their mindes the more redie and better prepared to receaue and perceaue that which he ſhould ſay from thencefoorth in his ſermons, vpon ſuch textes as he had not yet declared and preached vpon, therfore ſaith he there: My comon vſage is to geue you warning before what matter I entende after to entreate vpon, that you your ſelues in the meane dayes may take the booke in hand, reade, waye, and perceaue the ſumme and effect of the matter, and marke what hath ben declared and what remaineth yet to be declared, ſo that thereby your minde may be the more furniſhed to heare the reſt that ſhalbe ſaide.

S. Chriſoſtome.

And

And that I exhort you(saith he)and euer haue & wil exhort you,that you(not only here in the Churche) geue eare to that that is sayd by the preacher: but that also when ye be at home in your houses,ye apply your selues from tyme to tyme to the readyng of holy scriptures: which thyng also I neuer lin to beate into the eares of them that be my familiers, and with whom I haue priuate acquaintaunce and conuersation. Let no man make excuse and say (saith he) I am busied about matters of the common wealth,I beare this office,or that,I am a craftes man, I must applie mine occupation, I haue a wyfe, my children must be fed, my housholde must I prouide for: Briefly,I am a man of the worlde, it is not for me to reade the scriptures, that belongeth to them that haue bidden the worlde farwell, which lyue in solitarinesse and contemplation, and haue ben brought vp and continually noselled in learnyng and religion. To this aunsweryng: What sayest thou man (saith he) is it not for thee to study and to reade the scripture, because thou art encumbred and distract with cares and businesse? So much the more it is behouefull for thee to haue defence of scriptures, howe much thou art the more distressed in worldly daungers. They that be free and farre from trouble and entermedlyng of worldly thynges, lyue in safegarde and tranquilitie, and in the calme, or within a sure hauen. Thou art in the middest of the sea of worldly wickednesse, and therfore thou needest the more of ghostly succour and comfort: They sit farre from the strokes of battayle, and farre out of gunne shoote, and therfore they be but seldome wounded. Thou that standest in the forefront of the hoast, and nyest to thine enemies, must needes take nowe and then many strokes, and be greeuously wounded, and therfore thou hast most neede to haue thy remedies and medicines at hande. Thy wyfe prouoketh thee to anger, thy chylde geueth thee occasion to take sorowe and pensiuenesse, thine enemies lye in wayte for thee, thy friende (as thou takest hym) sometyme enuieth thee, thy neyghbour misreporteth thee or picketh quarels agaynst thee, thy mate or partener vndermineth thee, thy lorde, iudge, or iustice, threatneth thee, pouertie is paynefull vnto thee, the losse of thy deare and welbeloued causeth thee to mourne, prosperitie exalteth thee,aduersitie bringeth thee lowe: Briefly,so diuers and so manifolde occasions of cares, tribulations, and temptations, beset thee and besiege thee rounde about. Where canst thou haue armour or fortresse agaynst thine assaultes? where canst thou haue salues for thy sores, but of holy scripture? Thy flesshe must needes be prone and subiect to fleshly lustes, which dayly walkest and art conuersaunt among women, seest their beauties set forth to the eye, hearest their nice and wanton wordes, smellest their baulme, ciuet, and,muske, with many other lyke prouocations and stirringes: except thou hast in a redinesse wherwith to suppresse and auoyde them, which can not elswhere be had, but only out of the holy scriptures. Let vs reade and seke all remedies that we can, and all shalbe litle inough. Howe shall we then do, yf we suffer and take dayly woundes, and when we haue done, wyll sit styll and searche for no medicines? Doest thou not marke and consider howe the smith, mason, or carpenter,or any other handy craftesman, what neede soeuer he be in, what other shift so euer he make, he wyll not sell nor lay to pledge the tooles of his occupation: for then howe shoulde he worke his feate, or get his lyuyng therby? Of lyke mynde and affection ought we to be towardes holy scripture. For as mallets, hammers, sawes, chesils, axes, and hatchets, be the tooles of their occupation: So be the bookes of the prophetes, and Apostles,and all holy writers inspired by the holy ghost,the instrumentes of our saluation. wherfore let vs not sticke to bye and prouide vs the Byble,that is to say,the bookes of holy scripture: and let vs thinke that to be a better iewell in our house then either golde or siluer. For lyke as theeues be loth to assault an house where they knowe to be good armour and artillerie: so whersoeuer these holy and ghostly bookes be occupied, there neither the deuyll nor none of his angels dare come neare. And they that occupy them be in much safegarde,and haue a great consolation,and be the redier vnto all goodnesse,the slower vnto all euyll: and yf they haue done any thyng amisse, anone euen by the syght of the bookes their consciences be admonished, and they ware sory and ashamed of the fact. Peraduenture they wyll say vnto me: howe and yf we vnderstande not that we reade, that is conteyned in the bookes? what then? Suppose thou vnderstande not the deepe and profounde misteries of scriptures, yet can it not be but that much fruite and holinesse must come and growe vnto thee by the readyng: for it can not be that thou shouldest be ignorant in all thynges alyke. For the holy ghost hath so ordered and attempred the scriptures,that in them aswell publicanes,fishers,and sheepheardes, may fynde their edification, as great doctours their erudition. For those bookes were not made to vayne glorie, lyke as were the writynges of the gentile Philosophers and Rethoritians,to the intent the makers shoulde be had in admiration for their hye styles and obscure maner and writyng, wherof nothyng can be vnderstanded without a maister or an exposytour: But the Apostles & prophetes wrote their bookes so, that their speciall intent and purpose myght be vnderstanded and perceaued of euery reader, whiche was nothyng but the edification of amendement of the lyfe of them that reade or heare it. who is it that readyng or hearyng read in the Gospell, Blessed are they that be meeke, Blessed are they that be mercifull,Blessed are they that be of cleane heart,and such other lyke places, can perceaue nothyng except he haue a maister to teache hym what it meaneth? Likewyse the signes & miracles with all other histories of the doynges of Christe or his Apostles, who is there of so simple wit & capacitie, but he may be able to perceaue and vnderstande them? These be but excuses and clokes for the rayne, & coueringes of their owne idle slouthfulnesse: But styll ye wyll say I can not vnderstande it. what maruayle? Howe shouldest thou vnderstande,yf thou wylt not reade,nor loke vpon it? Take the bookes into thyne handes, reade the whole story, and that thou vnderstandest, kepe it well in memorie: that thou vnderstandest not,reade it agayne,and agayne: yf thou can neither so come by it, counsayle with some other that is better learned. Go to thy curate & preacher,shewe thy selfe to be desirous to know & learne: and I doubt not but God seyng thy diligence and readinesse (if no man els teache thee) wyll hym selfe vouchsafe with his holy spirite to illuminate thee, & to open vnto thee that which was locked frō thee.

Remember

Remember the Eunuch of Candace Quene of Ethiopia, which albeit he was a man of a wylde and barbarous countrey, and one occupied with worldly cares and businesse, yet rydyng in his charret, he was readyng the scripture. Nowe consider, yf this man passyng in his iourney was so diligent as to reade the scripture: what thynkest thou of lyke was he wont to do sittyng at home? Agayne he that letteth not to reade, albeit he dyd not vnderstande: what dyd he then trowest thou, after that when he had learned and gotten vnderstandyng? For that thou mayest wel knowe that he vnderstoode not what he redde: hearken what Philip there saith vnto hym, Vnderstandest thou what thou readest? And he nothyng ashamed to confesse his ignorance, aunswered: Howe shoulde I vnderstande hauyng no body to shewe me the way? Lo, when he lacked one to shewe hym the way, and to expounde to hym the scriptures, yet dyd he reade: and therfore God the rather prouided for hym a guide of the way, that taught hym to vnderstande it. God perceaued his wyllyng and towarde mynde, and therfore he sent hym a teacher by a by. Therfore let no man be negligent about his owne healthy and saluation: Though thou haue not Philip alwayes when thou wouldest, the holy ghost which then moued and stirred vp Philip, wyll be redy and not fayle thee yf thou do thy diligence accordyngly. All these thynges be written vnto vs for our edification and amendement, which be borne towardes the latter ende of the worlde. The readyng of the scriptures is a great and strong bulwarke or fortresse agaynst sinne: the ignorance of the same, is a greater ruine and destruction of them that wyll not knowe it. That is the thyng that bryngeth in herisie, that is it that causeth all corrupt and peruerse lyuyng, that is it that bryngeth all thynges out of good order. Hitherto all that I haue sayde, I haue taken and gathered out of the forsayde sermon of this holy doctour saint John Chrisostome: Nowe yf I shoulde in lyke maner bryng foorth what the selfe same doctour speaketh in other places, and what other doctours and writers say concernyng the same purpose, I myght seeme to you to write another Byble, rather then to make a preface to the Byble. Wherfore in fewe wordes to comprehende the largenesse and vtilitie of the scripture, howe it contayneth fruitfull instruction and erudition for euery man, yf any thyng be necessary to be learned, of the holy scripture we may learne it. If falshood shalbe reproued, therof we may gather wherwithall. If any thyng be to be corrected and amended, yf there neede any exhortation or consolation, of the scripture we may well learne. In the scriptures be the fat pastures of the soule, therin is no venimous meate, no vnholsome thyng, they be the very daintie and pure feedyng. He that is ignorant, shall fynde there what he shoulde learne. He that is a peruerse sinner, shall there fynde his dampnation to make hym to tremble for feare. He that laboureth to serue God, shall fynde there his glorie, and the promissions of eternall lyfe, exhortyng hym more diligently to labour. Herein may princes learne howe to gouerne their subiectes: Subiectes obedience, loue, and dreede to their princes: Husbandes howe they shoulde behaue them vnto their wiues, howe to educate their children and seruauntes: And contrary the wiues, children, and seruauntes, may knowe their duetie to their husbandes, parentes, and maisters. Here may all maner of persons, men, women, young, olde, learned, vnlearned, riche, poore, prestes, lay men, lordes, ladyes, officers, tenauntes, and meane men, virgins, wiues, widdowes, lawyars, marchauntes, artificers, husbandmen, and all maner of persons of what estate or condition soeuer they be, may in this booke learne all thinges what they ought to beleue, what they ought to do, & what they should not do, aswell concernyng almightie God, as also concernyng them selues and all other. Briefly, to the readyng of the scripture none can be enemie, but that either be so sicke that they loue not to heare of any medicine, or els that be so ignorant that they knowe not scripture to be the most healthfull medicine. Therfore as touchyng this former part, I wyll heare conclude, and take it as a conclusion: sufficiently determined & appointed that it is conuenient and good the scriptures to be redde of al sortes and kyndes of people, and in the vulgar tongue, without further allegations or probations for the same, which shall not neede, since that this one place of John Chrisostome is inough and sufficient to perswade all them that be not frowardly & peruersly set in their owne wylfull opinion, specially nowe that the kinges highnesse being supreme head next vnder Christe of this Churche of Englande, hath approued with his royal assent the setting foorth hereof, which only to all true & obedient subiectes ought to be a sufficient reason for the alowaunce of the same, without further delay, reclamation, or resistaūce, although there were no preface nor other reason herein expressed. Therfore nowe to come to the seconde and latter part of my purpose: here is nothyng so good in this worlde, but it may be abused, and turned from vnhurtfull & wholsome, to hurtfull and noysome. What is there aboue better then the sunne, the moone, and the starres? Yet was there that toke occasion by the great beautie and vertue of them, to dishonour God, and to defile them selues with idolatrie, geuyng the honour of the lyuyng God and creatour of all thynges, to such thynges as he had created. What is there here beneath better then fire, water, meates, drynkes, metals of golde, siluer, iron, and steele? Yet we see dayly great harme and much mischiefe done by euery one of these, aswell for lacke of wisdome & prouidence of them that suffer euyll, as by the malice of them that worke the euyll. Thus to them that be euyll of them selues, euery thyng setteth forwarde and increaseth their euyll, be it of his owne nature a thyng neuer so good: lyke as contrarywise, to them that studie and endeuoure them selues to goodnesse, euery thyng preuayleth them, and profiteth vnto good, be it of his owne nature & thyng neuer so bad, as S. Paul sayd, Rom.viii. Huis qui diligunt deum, omnia cooperantur in bonum, All thinges do bryng good successe, to such as do loue God, euen as out of most venimous wormes is made triacle, the most soueraigne medicine for the preseruatiō of mans healthy in time of daunger. Wherfore I would aduise you al that come to the reading or hearing of this booke, which is the worde of God, the most precious iewell and most holy relique that remayneth vpon earth: that ye bryng with you the feare of God, and that ye do it with all due reuerence, & vse your knowledge therof, not to vayne glorie of friuolous disputation: but to the honour of God, encrease of vertue, and edification both of your selues and other. And to the intent that my wordes may be the more

The conclusion.

The kynges highnesse hath alowed the scripture as necessarie for vs.

There is nothyng but it may be abused more regarded, I wyll vse in this part the authoritie of saint Gregorie Nazianzene, like as in the other I vsed of saint John Chrisostome. It appeareth that in his tyme there were some (as I feare me there be also nowe at these dayes a great number) which were idle bablers, and talkers of the scripture out of season and all good order, and without any increase of vertue, or example of good lyuyng: to them he writeth all his first booke, de theologia. Wherfore I shall briefly gather the whole effect, and recite it here vnto you. There be some (saith he) whose not only eares and tongues, but also their fistes be whetted and redy bent all to contention and vnprofitable disputation, whom I woulde wishe as they be vehement and earnest to reason the matter with tongue, so they were all redy and practiue to do good deedes. But forasmuch as they subuertyng the order of all godlinesse, haue respect only to this thyng, howe they may vnde and loose subtile questions, so that nowe euery market place, euery ale-house and tauerne, euery feast house, briefly euery company of men, euery assembly of women, is fylled with such talke: Since the matter is so (saith he) and that our fayth and holy religion of Christe begynneth to ware nothyng els but as it were a sophistrie or a talkyng craft, I can no lesse do but say some thyng therunto. It is not fyt (saith he) for euery man to dispute the hygh questions of diuinitie, neither is it to be done at all tymes, neither in euery audience must we discusse euery doubt: but we must knowe when, to whom, and howe farre we ought to enter into such matters. First it is not for euery man, but it is for such as be of exact and exquisite iudgementes, and such as haue spent their tyme before in studie and contemplation, and such as before haue clensed them selues as well in soule as body, or at the least endeuoured them selues to be made cleane. For it is daungerous (saith he) for the vncleane to touche that thyng that is most cleane, lyke as the sore eye taketh harme by lokyng vpon the sunne. Secondarily, not at all tymes, but when we be reposed, and at rest from all outwarde dregges and trouble, and when that our heades be not encumbred with other worldy and wandryng imaginations: as yf a man shoulde mingle balme and dirt together. For he that shall iudge and determine such matters and doubtes of scriptures, must take his tyme when he may apply his wittes therunto, that he may therby the better see and discerne what is trueth. Thirdly, where, and in what audience. There and among those that haue ben studious to learne: And not among such as haue pleasure to trifle with such matters, as with other thynges of pastime, which repute for their chiefe delicates, the disputation of hygh questions, to shewe their wittes, learnyng, and eloquencie in reasonyng of hygh matters. Fourthly, it is to be considered howe farre to wade in such matters of difficultie. No further (saith he) but as euery mans owne capacitie wyll serue hym, and agayne no further then the weakenesse or intelligence of the other audience may beare. For lyke as to great noyse hurteth the eare, to much meate hurteth the mans body, heauy burthens hurt the bearers of them, to much rayne doth more hurt then good to the grounde, briefly in all thynges, to much is noyous: euen so, weake wittes and weake consciences may soone be oppressed with ouer harde questions. I say not this to dissuade men from the knowledge of God, and readyng or studyng of the scripture: For I say that it is as necessarie for the lyfe of mans soule, as for the body to breathe. And yf it were possible so to liue, I woulde thinke it good for a man to spende all his life in that, and to do none other thyng. I commende the lawe which biddeth to meditate and studie the scriptures alwayes both nyght and day, and sermons & preachynges to be made both mornyng, noone, and euentyde, and God to be lauded and blessed in all tymes, to bed warde, from bed, in our iourneys, and all our other workes. I forbyd not to reade, but I forbyd to reason. Neither forbyd I to reason so farre as is good and godly: but I alowe not that is done out of season, and out of measure and good order. A man may eate to much of hony be it neuer so sweete, and there is tyme for euery thyng, and that thyng that is good, is not good yf it be vngodly done. Euen as a flowre in wynter is out of season, and as a womans apparell becommeth not a man, neither contrarywise, the mans the woman, neither is weepyng conuenient at a bridale, neither laughyng at a buriall. Nowe yf we can obserue and kepe that is comely and tymely in all other thynges: shall not we then the rather do the same in the holy scriptures? Let vs not runne foorth as it were wilde horses, that can suffer neither bridle in their mouthes, nor sitter on their backes. Let vs kepe vs in our boundes, and neither let vs go to farre on the one side lest we returne into Egypt, neither to farre ouer the other, lest we be caryed away to Babylon. Let vs not syng the song of our Lorde in a straunge lande, that is to say, let vs not dispute the worde of God at all aduentures, aswell where it is not to be reasoned, as where it is, and aswell in the eares of them that be not fyt therfore, as of them that be. If we can in no wyse forbeare but that we must needes dispute, let vs forbeare thus much at the least, to do it out of tyme and place conuenient: And let vs entreate of those thynges which be holy, holyly: and vpon those thynges that be misticall, mistically: and not to vtter the deuine misteries in the eares vnworthy to heare them, but let vs knowe what is comely, aswell in our silence and talkyng, as in our garmentes wearyng, in our feedyng, in our gesture, in our goynges, in all our other behauyng. This contention and debates about scriptures and doubtes therof (specially when such as do pretende to be the fauourers and studentes therof can not agree within them selues) doth most hurt to our selues, and to the furtheryng of the cause and quarrels that we woulde haue furthered aboue all other thinges. And we in this (saith he) be not vnlike to them that being mad, set their owne houses on fire, and that slay their owne children, or beate their owne parentes. I maruayle much (saith he) to recount wherof commeth all this desire of vayne glorie, wherof commeth all this tongue itche, that we haue so much delyght to talke and clatter? And wherin is our communication? Not in the commendation of vertuous and good deedes, of hospitalitie, of loue betwene christian brother and brother, of loue betwene man and wyfe, of virginitie and chastitie, and of almes towarde the poore: Not in psalmes and godly songes, not in lamentyng for our sinnes, not in reprehendyng the affections of the body, not in prayers to God, we talke of scripture, but in the meane tyme we subdue not our flesshe by fastyng, watchyng, and weepyng, we make not this lyfe a meditation of death, we do not striue to be lordes ouer our appetites and affections, we go not about to pull downe our proude and hygh myndes, to abate our sumishe and rancorous stomackes, to restrayne our lustes and bodyly delectations, our vndiscrete sorowes, our lasciuious mirth, our inordinate lokyng, our insatiable hearyng of vanities, our speakyng without measure, our inconuenient thoughtes, and briefly, to reformme our lyfe and maners: but all our holinesse consisteth in talkyng. And we pardon eche other from all good lyuyng, so that we may sticke fast together in argumentation, as though there were no mo wayes to heauen but this alone, the way of speculation and knowledge (as they take it) but in very deede it is rather the way of superfluous contention and sophistication. Hytherto haue I recited the mynde of Gregorie Nazianzene in that booke whiche I spake of before. The same aucthour sayth also in an other place, that the learnyng of a christian man ought to begyn of the feare of God, to ende in matters of hye speculation: and not contrarily to begyn with speculation, and to ende in feare. For speculation (saith he) either hye cunnyng or knowledge, yf it be not stayed with the bridle of feare to offende God, is daungerous, and inough to tumble a man headlong downe the hyll. Therfore saith he, the feare of God must be the first begynnyng, and as it were an A.B.C. or an introduction to all them that shall enter into the very true and most fruitful knowledge of holy scriptures. Where as is the feare of God, there is (saith he) the kepyng of the commaundementes: and where as is the kepyng of the commaundementes, there is the clensyng of the flesshe: which flesshe is a cloude before the soules eye, and suffereth it not purely to see the beame of the heauenly lyght. Where as is the clensyng of the flesshe, there is the illumination of the holy ghost, the ende of all our desires, and the very lyght wherby the veritie of scriptures is seene and perceaued. This is the mynde and almost the wordes of Gregorie Nazianzene doctour of the Greeke Churche, of whom saint Jerome saith: that vnto his tyme the latine Churche had no writer able to be compared and to make an euen matche with hym. Therfore to conclude this latter part, euery man that commeth to the readyng of this holy booke, ought to bryng with hym first and formost this feare of almightie God, and then next, a firme and stable purpose to reformme his owne selfe accordyng thervnto, and so to continue, proceede, and prosper from tyme to tyme, shewyng hym selfe to be a sober & fruitfull hearer and learner: which yf he do, he shall proue at the length well able to teache, though not with his mouth, yet with his lyuyng and good example, which is sure the most liuely and effectuous fourme and maner of teachyng. He that otherwise intermedleth with this booke, let hym be assured that once he shall make a count therfore, when he shall haue sayde to hym as it is written in the prophete Dauid, Peccatòri dicit deus. &c. Vnto the vngodly sayde God: Why doest thou preache my lawes, and takest my testament in thy mouth? Whereas thou hatest to be reformed, and hast ben partaker with adulterers. Thou hast let thy mouth speake wickednesse, and with thy tongue thou hast set forth deceipt. Thou sattest and spakest agaynst thy brother, and hast slaundered thyne owne mothers sonne. These thynges hast thou done, and I held my tongue, and thou thoughtest wickedly that I am euen such a one as thy selfe: But I will reproue thee, and set before thee the thynges that thou hast done. O consider this ye that forget God, lest I plucke you away, and there be none to deliuer you. Who so offereth me thankes and prayse, he honoureth me: and to hym that ordereth his conuersation ryght, will I shewe the saluation of God. Psal. 50.

3421. and 6. monethes Sedechias raigned. 11. yeres, and then was slayne , the citie of Hierusalem with the temple rased downe, and the people led captiue into Babylon, where they remayned. 70. yeres. 4. Re. 25.

3975. and 6. monethes * After the 70. yeres of captiuitie, Cyrus the first monarke of the Persians, set the people at libertie againe, and suffered them to returne into their owne lande . It was reuealed to Daniel the prophete, that there shoulde be 70. weekes of yeres, (which is 490. yeres) reckening from the commaundement geuen to buyld the citie , vntill Iesus Christ. Dani. 9. And this commaundement was geuen by Darius Longimanus the twentith yere of his empire. Nehem. 2. which was. 64. yeres after the aforesayde deliueraunce. VVherfore reckening the sayde . 64. yeres after the deliueraunce, and adding therto the. 70. weekes aforesayde reuealed vnto Daniel , we shall finde that from the sayde deliueraunce vntill the death of Christ , there is fiue hundreth fiftie and foure yeres.

5510. and 6. monethes From the natiuitie of Christ to this present yere, we recken a thousande , fiue hundred sixtie & eyght: from which number if we subtract the yeres from his birth vntil his death (which is three and thirtie) we shall finde that from the end of the sayd seuentie weekes of Daniel, vntil this present yere, it is. 1535. yeres.

All whiche aforesayde beyng well examined and reckened , ye shall finde that since the creation of the world to this present yere of. 1568. the yeres amount to. 5503 . yeres, and fixe monethes.

* Abraham was taken from Hur in Chaldea the place of his birth , the 70. yere of his age , and came to dwell in Charran where his father dyed: then beyng. 75 . yeres , came to the lande of Chanaan. Genes. 12 . Fiue and twentie yeres after, he begat Isaac . Gene. 21. So he that reckeneth the yeres of the peregrination of Abraham and his successours, till the deliueraunce of Egypt , beginning at that time that he departed out of his countrey , he shall finde 430. yeres mentioned Exod. 24. but beginning their reckening at the birth of Isaac , they shall finde onely 400. yeres . And thus ought Gene. 15. and Act. 7. treating therin , to be vnderstanded .

* The yeres that the people were gouerned by those that the scripture called Iudges, including from Iosua to Samuel, (excepting the time of the oppression vnder the Ammonites) amounteth to. 357. yeres. Now it is sayd Act 13. that this time amounteth to about. 450. yeres . Where is to be noted, that this place hath ben corrupted, and in stede of three hundreth, they haue set foure hundreth: whiche reading of. 300. agreeth very well with that whiche is contayned in the scriptures touching the sayde yeres.

" Or, Ahaziahu.

* Amasias raigned 29. yeres, the 15. yere of the sayde Ieroboam , and began to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria. 4. Re. 14. So the 29. yeres of the raigne of Amasias finished the 15. yere of the sayd Ieroboam now it is manifest that Azarias the sonne of Amazias began to raigne but the. 27. yere of the sayde Ieroboam. 4. Reg. 15 then it foloweth , that betweene the ende of the raigne of Amasias, and the beginning of Azarias , there falleth out eleuen yeres, that are left out.

* There is difference betweene authors touching the beginning of the 70. wekes of Daniel : some begin the sayde weekes from the first yere of Cyrus other from the tenth yere of Darius Longimanus , and some other from the sixte yere of the same : but it is likelyest that it shoulde be the 20. yere , because that that whiche is written Daniel . 9 . hath relation to Nehemias the seconde.

Where in this Kalender be appoynted almost to all the dayes of every moneth names of saintes (as they call them) this we haue done (gentle Reader) not for that we accompt them all for saintes, of whom we repute some not for good: or yet for that eyther (howe holy soeuer they be) we iudge any deuine worship or honour to be referred to them: but rather that they shoulde be as notes and markes of some certayne matters, whose appoynted tymes to knowe, as it may do much good: so to be ignoraunt of the same, may do to men much hurt. And this is the reason of this fact and purpose. Farewell.

2 And the earth was without fourme, and was voyde: & darknes [was] vpon the face of the (a) deepe, and the (b) spirite of God moued vpon the face of the waters.

(a) The deepe, the waters, & the heauen, signifie that rude body that was afterwarde garnished with lyghtes.
(b) The holy ghost dyd preserue that confused body.

3 And God sayde, let there be light: and there was light.

4 And God sawe the lyght that it was good: and God deuided the lyght from the darknes.

5 And God called the light day, and the darknes night: "and the euenyng & the mornyng were the "first day.

" Hebre. One day.
" Hebre. And the euenyng was, and the mornyng was, the first daye.

6 And God said: *let there be a "firmament betwene the waters, and let it make a diuision betwene waters and waters.

The.2. day.

Ierem.x.c.
" Hebre. A stretchyng out, or setting abroad

7 And God made the (c) firmament, and set the diuision betwene the waters which [were] vnder the firmament, and the waters that [were] * aboue (d) the firmament: and it was so.

(c) All that rowme, wherein the aier, the sunne, moone, and starres be, is so named. Pſal.cxlviij.
(d) It is the power of god, that holdeth vp ỳ cloudes.

8 And God called the firmament the heauen: and the euenyng and the mornyng were the seconde day.

9 And God saide: let the (e) waters vnder the heauen be gathered togethers into one place, and let the drye lande appeare: and it was so.

The.3. day.

(e) That is, all the waters which were in the lowest partes of the aier.

10 And God called the drye lande ỳ earth, and the gatheryng together of waters called he the seas: and God sawe that it was good.

11 And God sayde: (f) let the earth bryng

foorth [both] budde and hearbe apt to seede, and fruitfull trees yeeldyng fruite after his kynde, which hath seede in it selfe vpon the earth: and it was so.

(f) The goodnes o God in prouidyng for man s beast, before they were made.

12 And the (g) earth brought foorth [both] bud and hearbe apt to seede after his kynde, and tree yeeldyng fruite, whiche hath seede in it selfe, after his kynde.

(g) Fruitfulnesse in trees and hearbes, was before sun or moone was made.

13 And God sawe that it was good. And the euenyng and the mornyng were the thirde day.

14 And God sayde: *let there be lyghtes in the firmament of the heauen, that they may deuide the day and the nyght, and let them be for (h) signes, & seasons, and for dayes, and yeres.

Psal.136.b. Deut. iii.b. The.4.day

(h) These lyghtes were not made to serue Astronomers phantasies: but for signes in natural thinges, and tokens of gods mercie or wrath.

15 And let them be for lyghtes in the firmament of the heauen, that they maye geue light vpō the earth: and it was so.

16 And God made two great lyghtes: a greater lyght to rule the day, and a lesse lyght to rule the nyght, and [he made] starres also.

17 And God set them in the firmament of the heauen, (i) to shyne vpon the earth,

(i) The true vse of the heauenly bodyes is oft repeated, lest men shoulde abuse them. Iere.xxxi.d

18 And to *rule the day and nyght, and to make difference betweene the lyght and the darknesse: and God saw that it was good.

19 And the euenyng and the mornyng were the fourth day.

20 And God sayde: let the Waters bryng foorth mouyng creature that hath lyfe, and foule that may flee vpon the earth in the open firmament of heauen.

The.5.day.

21 And God created great Whales, and euery lyuyng & mouing creature, Which the Waters brought foorth after theyr kynde, & euery fethered foule after their kynde: and God saw that it was good.

22 And God (k) blessed them, saying: Be fruiteful, and multiplie, and fyll the Waters of the sea, and let foule multiplie in the earth.

(k) God gaue them vertue to fructifie and bryng foorth the lyke.

23 And the euenyng and mornyng were the fift day.

The.6.day.

25 God made the beast of the earth after his kynde, and cattell after his kynde, and euery thyng that creepeth vpon the earth after his kynde: and God sawe that it was good.

26 (l) God saide: *let vs make man in (m) our image, after our lykenesse, and let them haue rule of the fisshe of the sea, & of the foule of the ayre, and of cattell, & of all the earth, and of euery creepyng thyng that creepeth vpon the earth.

(l) One God, and three persons. Colos.ii.b.

(m) Man is created lyke vnto God in perfecte nature, which by sinne he afterwarde corrupted. (n) We ought to labour to repayre this image so oft repeated. V Visd.ii.d. Eccle 17.a. Math xix.a

27 So God created man in his (n) owne image, in the image of God created he him, *male and female created he them.

28 And God blessed (o) them, and God sayde vnto them: *be fruitefull, & multiplie, and replenishe the earth, & subdue it, and haue dominion of the fisshe of the sea, and foule of the ayre, & of euery lyuing thing that moueth vpon the earth.

(o) Lawfull procreation is the blessyng of God. Gen.viii.c.

29 And God sayde: beholde, I haue geuen you euery (p) hearbe bearing seede, which is in the vpper face of all ỹ earth, and euery tree in the which is the fruite of a tree bearing seede, *[that] they may be meate vnto you:

(p) Gods prouision for mans foode, may teache vs sobriete in all our d Gen.ix.a. Exod.iii.c.

30 To euery beast of the earth also, and to euery birde of the aire, and to euery such thyng that creepeth vpon ỹ earth, which doth "liue, I haue geuen euery greene hearbe for meate: and it was so.

" Hebr. Hath a lyuyng soule. Eccle.39.c. Mark.7.d.

31 *And God sawe euery thyng that he had made: and beholde, it was exceedyng good. And the euenyng & the mornyng were the sixth day.

¶ The .ij. Chapter.

2 The day of rest is blessed. 4 A repeatyng of thynges foretolde in the first. 6 The cloude from the earth as a well to water it. 7 He rehearseth agayne the fashionyng of man. 8 Man in the paradise of pleasure. 10 The wood of lyfe, the wood of knowledge. 11. 13. 14 The ryuers names. 16 God forbyddeth man the tree of knowledge of good and euyll. 19 Adam geueth names vnto all lyuyng thynges. 22 Woman is created. 23 The institution of holy mariage.

1 THe heauens also & the earth were finished, & all the hoast of them.

(n) No more newe creatiōs of creatures are to be looked for: yet God styll continually gouerneth and preserueth all thynges. Iob.xvii.

2 And in the seuenth day God ended (a) his worke Whiche he had made. And the seuēth day he rested from all his worke which he had made.

Exod.xx.b. Hebre iiii.a

3 And God (b) blessed the seuenth daye, & sanctified it: because that in it he had rested from all his worke Whiche God ordeyned to make.

(b) The seuenth daye consecrated to the seruice of God, for man in his perfect state.

4 These are the generations of the heauens, uens and of the earth When they were created, in the day When the Lord God made the earth and the heauens.

5 And euery plant of the fielde before it was in the earth, and euery herbe of the fielde before it grewe. For the Lord God had not [yet] caused it to rayne vpon the earth, neither [was there] a man to tyll the grounde.

6 But there went vp a mist from the earth, & watered the Whole face of the grounde.

B 7 The Lorde God also dyd shape man, [euen] (c) dust frō of the grounde, & breathed into his nosethyrlles the breath of lyfe, and man was a lyuyng soule.

8 And the Lord God (d) planted a " garden eastwarde in *Eden, and there he put the man whom he had shapen.

9 Moreouer, out of the grounde made the Lorde God to growe (e) euery tree, that was fayre to syght, and pleasaunt to eate: The tree (f) of lyfe in the myddest of the garden, and the tree of (g) knowledge of good and euyll.

10 And out of Eden there went foorth a flood to water the garden, and from thence it was deuided, and became into foure heades.

11 The name of ỳ first is *Pison, the same is it that compasseth the Whole landeof (h) Hauilah, where there is golde:

12 And the golde of the lande is very good. There is also Bdellium, and the Onix stone.

13 The name of the seconde ryuer is Gyhon: the same is it that compasseth the Whole lande of (i) Ethiopia.

14 The name of ỳ thirde ryuer is " Hidekel, & it goeth toward the east side of Assiria: & the fourth ryuer is Euphrates.

15 And the Lord God toke the man, and put hym in the garden of Eden, that he myght (k) worke it, and kepe it.

16 And the Lorde God (l) commaunded the man, saying: eating, thou shalt eate of euery tree of the garden:

17 But as touching the tree of knowlege of good and euyll thou shalt not eate of it: For in What daye so euer thou eatest therof, thou shalt dye the (m) death.

18 And the Lord God sayde: It is not good ỳ the man should be alone, I wyll make hym an (n) helpe "lyke vnto hym.

19 And so out of the grounde the Lorde God had shapen euery beast of the field, and euery foule of the ayre, and brought it vnto man, that he myght see howe he woulde call it. For lykewyse as man hym selfe named euery lyuyng thyng, euen so was the name therof.

20 And the man (o) gaue names to all cattell, and foule of the ayre, & euery beast of the fielde: but for man founde he not an helpe lyke vnto hym.

21 The Lord God caused a deepe sleepe to fall vpon Adam, and he slept, and he toke one of his ribbes, and closed vp the place With flesshe in steade therof.

22 And the ribbe Which the lord god had taken from man, "made he a Woman, & (p) brought her vnto the man.

C
(i) Thus comprayneth also the regions of the Widianites and Arabians.
" Or, Tigris.
(k) God lyketh neither idlenesse nor negligence.
(l) Thus man for all his great gyftes shoulde learne obedience to God.

(m) By death, is signified all the miseries where in Adam wrapped him selfe by his fall from God.
(n) what the husband ought to thynke of his wyfe: and what the wife oweth to her husbande.
Heb. As before hym.

D
(o) Man shewed himselfe Lorde of all beastes, by geuyng them names.

(r) The shame of nakednes is a token of our nature corrupted.

This figure is spoken of in the .x. vearse of this Chapter before, and representeth the situation of Gods garden.

If there be any kyngdome vnder heauen that is excellent in beautie, in aboundaunce of fruites, in plenteousnes, in delytes and other gyftes: they which haue written of countreys, do prayse aboue all, the same that this figure representeth. Wherfore, with the prayses of those wryters, Moyses exalteth this paradise, as duly belonging vnto it. And it is very well lyke, that the region or kingdome of Eden hath ben situated in that countrey, as it appeareth in the .xxvii. Chapter of Esaias the .xii. vearse, and in the .xxvii. of Ezechiel the .xviii. vearse. Moreouer, where as Moyses sayde that a flood dyd proceede from that place: I do interprete it, from the course of the waters, as yf he shoulde haue sayde that Adam dyd inhabite in the flooddes syde, or in the lande which was watered of both sydes. Howebeit, there is no great matter in that, eyther that Adam hath inhabited vnder the place where both flooddes come together towarde Babylon and Seleucia, or aboue: It is sufficient ꝑ he hath ben in a place watered of waters. But the thing is not darke nor hard to vnderstande howe this floodde hath ben deuided in foure heades. For they be two flooddes which be gathered in one, then they seperate them selues in diuers partes. So in theyr ioynyng and flowyng together, it is but a floodde, wherof there is two heades into two chanels from aboue, and two towarde the sea, when it begynneth to seperate it selfe abrode. But to declare vnto you the diuersities of the ryuers names, besydes their vsuall and principall appellations, and howe they be called as they passe through eche prouince, with the interpretations of the same, I thynke it rather tedious and combresome, then profitable. Wherfore the simple sense of Moyses is, that the garden wherof Adam was the owner, was watered with waters, because that the course of this floodde was there, whiche was deuided into foure heades.

The. iij. Chapter.

1 The serpent begyleth the woman. 6 The transgression of the commaundement. 8 When Adam and Heua knewe their offences, they fledde from the face of God, excusyng their fault. 14 The serpent is cursed. 15 The seede Jesus is promised a sauiour. 1 AND the serpent was suttiller then euery beast of the fielde which ỹ lord God hadde made, and he sayde vnto the woman: yea, hath (a) God saide, ye shall not eate of euery tree of the garden?

(a) The deuyll first wold make Heua doubt of gods good wyll towarde her.

2 And the woman sayde vnto the serpent: We eate of ỹ fruite of the trees of the garden.

3 But as for the fruite of the tree which is in the myddes of the garden, God hath sayde, ye shall not eate of it, neither shal ye touche of it, (b) lest peraduenture ye dye.

(b) Heua rehearseth not gods punyshmẽt according to his worde. i.Cor.xi.a.

4 And *the serpent sayde vnto the woman: ye (c) shall not dye the death.

(c) Frõ doubtyng, the deuyll bryngeth to denying.

5 For God doth knowe, that the same day that ye eate therof, your eyes shall be opened, and (d) ye shalbe cuẽ as gods, knowyng good and euyll.

(d) Sathan tempteth the woman also with ambitiõ.

6 And so the woman, seing that the same tree was good to eate of, and pleasaunt to the eyes, and a tree to be desired to make one wise, tooke of the fruite therof, and dyd (e) eate, and gaue also vnto her husbande beyng with her, and he dyd eate.

(e) The acte of sinne followeth the mysere biteing of gods worde.

7 (f) Then the eyes of them both were opened, and they knewe that they were naked, and they sowed (f) fygge leaues together, & made them selues apernes.

(f) The corruption of all the nature of man by sinne. (f) Such are the clokes we make to couer our synne.

8 And they heard the voyce of the Lord God, walkyng in the garden in ỹ coole of the day: and Adam and his wyfe (g) hyd themselues from the presence of the lord God amongst ỹ trees of the garden.

(g) The corruption of mans nature after synne, here appeareth.

9 And the Lorde called Adam, & sayde vnto hym: Where art thou?

10 Which sayde: I hearde thy voyce in the garden, and was afrayde (h) because I was naked, and hyd my selfe.

(h) Adam playeth the hypocrite.

11 And he sayde; Who tolde thee that thou wast naked? Hast thou not eaten of the same tree, concernyng the which I commaunded thee that thou shouldest not eate of it?

12 And Adam said: The woman whom thou gauest [to be] with me, (i) she gaue me of the tree, and I dyd eate.

(i) Adam burdeneth God and the woman with his fault.

13 And the Lord God sayd vnto the woman: * Why hast thou done this? And the woman sayde: the serpent begyled me, and I dyd eate.

* Or, howe.

14 And the lord god said vnto ỹ (k) serpent:

(k) In the minister is ỹ author of this mischefe punyshed.

Because thou hast done this, thou art cursed aboue all cattel, and aboue euery beast of the fielde: vpon thy belly shalt thou go, and dust shalt thou eate all the dayes of thy lyfe.

(l) The continuall fyght of the chyldē of God. Christe.

15 I wyll also put (l) enmitie betweene thee & the woman, betweene thy seede and her seede: and (m) it shall treade downe thy head, and thou shalt treade vpon his hecle.

(m) Victorie is promysed by Christe, to mans comfort

16 But vnto the woman he sayde: () I wyll very much multiplie thy sorowe, and thy griefes of chylde bearyng, In sorowe shalt thou bring foorth chyldren: thy desire (shalbe) to thy husbande, and he shall haue the *rule of thee.

i.Cor.xiiii.f

(n) He shulde haue ben his wyfes schoolmaister, and preferred gods voyce before his wyues.

17 Unto Adam he sayde: Because thou hast hearkened vnto (n) the voyce of thy wyfe, and hast eaten of the tree concernyng the whiche I commaunded thee, saying, thou shalt not eate of it, cursed is the grounde for thy sake, in sorowe shalt thou eate of it all the dayes of thy lyfe.

(o) It is not the age of the earth, but the increase of synne, that maketh the earth more baraynе.

18 Thorne also and thistle shall it bryng foorth (o) to thee, and thou shalt eate the hearbe of the fielde.

19 In the sweatte of thy face shalt thou eate thy breade, tyll thou be turned agayne into the ground, for out of it wast thou taken: For dust thou art, and into dust shalt thou be turned agayne.

(p) Eua setteth foorth the benefite of lyfe, which he receaued at Gods hands.

20 And Adam called his wyfes (p) name Heua, because she was the mother of all lyuyng.

(q) It was gods gift, that Adam thus prouided for hym selfe.

21 Unto Adam also and to his wyfe dyd the Lorde God (q) make garmentes of skynnes, and he put them on.

(r) God wold haue man and his posteritie to remember the cause of their miserie.

22 And the Lorde God sayde: Beholde, the man is become as one of vs, (r) in knowing good and euyll: And now lest peraduenture he put foorth his hande, and take also of the tree of lyfe and eate, and lyue for euer. (f)

(f) You may supplie the sentence with these wordes: let vs calle hym foorth.

23 Therefore the Lorde God sent hym foorth frō the garden of Eden, to worke the grounde whence he was taken.

(t) Adam coulde neuer in this lyfe obteyne felicitie which he lost by synne.

24 And so he (t) droue out man, and at the east side of the gardē of Eden he set Cherubins, and a fierie two edged sworde, to kepe the way of the tree of lyfe.

¶ The. iiij. Chapter.

2 And she proceading, brought foorth his brother Habel, (b) and Habel was a keper of sheepe, but Cain was a tyller of the grounde.

(b) Though Adam was Lorde of all the earth, yet he brought vp his chyldren not idelly.

3 And in processe of dayes it came to passe, that Cain brought of the fruite of the grounde, an (c) oblation vnto ỹ lorde:

(c) These chyldren were taught to worshyp God of their father.

4 Habel also brought of the firstlynges of his sheepe, & of the fatte thereof: and the Lorde had respect (D) vnto *Habel, and to his oblation.

Hebr xi a. (D) The faith of Habel made his oblatiō acceptable.

5 But vnto Cain and to his offeryng he had no respect: (E) for the whiche cause Cain was exceedyng wroth, and his countenaunce abated.

(E) The goodnesse of God towarde the godly greueth the wicked.

6 And the Lorde saide vnto Cain: Why art thou wroth? and why is thy countenaunce abated?

7 If thou do well, shalt " thou not (F) receaue? and yf thou doest not well, lyeth not thy sinne at the doores? Also vnto (G) thee shall his desire be, and thou shalt haue dominion ouer hym.

" Or, Shall ther not be an acceptation. (F) That is, God will accept thy sacrifice also, if thei be offred faithfully. (G) Cain had no iuste cause of enuie, seing his auctoritie ouer Habel remayned sure vnto hym.

8 And Cain (H) talked with Habel his brother: and it came to passe *When they were in the fielde, Cain rose vp agaynst Habel his brother, & slewe hym.

VVisd. x. Math. xxiii i. Para. iii. Iudges. xi. (H) Hypocrites dissemble kyndly spoke sayre.

9 And the Lorde said vnto Cain: Where is Habel thy brother? which sayde (I) I wote not: Am I my brothers keper?

(I) With impietie & mischiefe is hoolyshnesse toyned.

10 And he sayde: What hast thou done? (K) the voyce of thy brothers blood cryeth vnto me out of the grounde.

(K) God hath great care for his holy saintes.

11 (L) And nowe art thou cursed from the earth, which hath opened her mouth to receaue thy brothers blood from thy hande.

(L) The very earth abhorreth shedyng of blood.

12 If thou tyll the grounde, she shall not yeelde vnto thee her strength. (M) A fugitiue and a vacabound shalt thou be in the earth.

(M) A fearefull conscience fyndeth reste no where.

13 And Cain sayde vnto the Lord: " My iniquitie is more (N) then that it may be forgeuen.

" Or, My punyshement is greater thē that I may beare.

14 Beholde, thou hast cast me out this day from the vpper face of the earth, & from thy face shall I be hyd, (O) fugitiue also and a vacabounde shall I be in the earth: and it shall come to passe, that euery one that fyndeth me shal slay me.

(N) See the degrees by the whiche Cain fell into desperation. (O) A great punyshment not to be vnder the tuition of God.

C

15 And the Lorde said vnto him: (P) Verely whosoeuer slayeth Cain, he shalbe punished seuen folde. And the Lorde set a marke vpon Cain, lest any man fyndyng hym shoulde kyll hym.

(P) God wold haue Cain remayne for an example of his vengeaunce vpon murtherers.

16 (Q) And Cain went out from the presence of the Lorde, & dwelt in the lande of Nod, eastwarde from Eden.

(Q) The excommunication or banishment of Cain.

17 (R) Cain also knewe his wyfe, whiche conceaued and bare Henoch, and buyldyng a citie, he called the name of the same citie after the name of his sonne Henoch.

(R) Temporall gyftes whiche God bestowed vpō Cain and his posterite.

18 Vnto ỹ same Henoch was borne Jrad: Jrad begat Mehuiael, Mehuiael begat Methusael, Methusael begat Lamech.

19 (S) And Lamech toke vnto hym two wyues, the name of the one was Ada, and the name of the other was Sella.

(S) For what soeuer cause this was doll, it was against the institution of matrimonie

20 And Ada bare Jabel, which was the father of such as dwel in the tentes, and of such as haue cattell.

D

21 His brothers name was Jubal, which was the father of such as handle Harpe and Organ.

22 And Sella also bare Thubalcain, which wrought cunnyngly euery craft of brasse and of iron, the sister of Thubalcain was Noema.

23 (T) And Lamech saide vnto his wiues Ada and Sella: Heare my voyce ye wyues of Lamech, hearken vnto my speache: for I haue slayne a man to the woundyng of my selfe, & a young man to myne owne punishment.

(T) Lamech a tyrant regardeth no mans councell: but thynketh that he maye more fately persecut the iust men then Cain.

24 If Cain shalbe auenged seuen folde, truely Lamech seuentie tymes & seuen tymes.

25 Adam knewe his wyfe agayne, and she bare a sonne, and called his name Seth: For God [sayde she] hath appoynted me another seede in steade of Habel whom Cain slewe.

26 And vnto the same Seth also there was borne a sonne, and he called his name Enos: then began men to make (V) inuocation in the name of the Lorde.

1 AND it came to passe, that when men (a) began to be multiplied in the vpper face of the earth, there were daughters borne vnto thē:

(a) This corruption began long before Noahs tyme.

2 And the (b) sonnes of God also sawe the daughters of men that they were fayre, & they toke them wyues, such as theyliked, from among them all.

(b) The sonnes of ỹ godly toyned them selues with ỹ daughters of the wicked, without all feare of God.

3 And the Lorde sayde: (c) My spirite shall not alwayes stryue with man, because he is fleshe: yet his dayes shalbe (c) an hundreth and twentie yeres.

(c) Tyme of repentaunce graūted to the wicked world

4 But there were Giantes in those dayes in ỹ earth: (d) yea & after that the sonnes of God came vnto the daughters of mē, and hadde begotten chyldren of them, the same became myghtie men of the worlde, and men of renowme.

(d) Tirannie and oppressio an other cause of the flood.

5 (e) But God sawe that the malice of man was great in the earth, and all the imagination of the thoughtes of his *heart [was] only euyll euery day.

(e) God sawe not only ỹ ouwardе needes of mē naught, but their heartes set vpon wickednesse altogether, so that ther was no hope they would amend Gen.viii.d. Mat xv.b.

6 And it repented the Lord that he had made man vpon the earth, (f) & he was touched with sorowe in his heart.

(f) Our sinnes & the punyshment thereof greeueth God

7 And

7 And the Lorde sayde: I wyll from the vpper face of the earth, destroy man whom I haue created, from man vnto cattell, vnto worme, and vnto foules of the ayre: for it (g) repenteth me that I haue made them.

(g) Moyses writeth of god to our vnderstandyng.

8 But Noah (h) founde grace in the eyes of the Lorde.

(h) That is, God fauoured him and was merciful vnto hym.

9 These are the generations of Noah: Noah [was] a iust man, and perfect in his (i) generations: And Noah walked with God.

(i) In those most corrupt tymes, Noah continued iust and vpright.

10 Noah begat three sonnes, Sem, Ham, and Japheth.

11 The earth also was corrupt (k) before God, and the same earth was fylled with crueltie.

(k) To the eyes of the worlde, the wycked seemed as pure as Noah.

12 And God loked vpon the earth, and beholde (l) it was corrupt: for all flesshe had corrupt his way vpon earth.

(l) Because all the inhabitaunce had corrupted both religion & life.

13 And God sayd vnto Noah: the (m) ende of all flesshe is come before me, for the earth is fylled with crueltie through them, and beholde I wyl destroy them with the earth.

(m) God by his threatninges, stirreth Noah to greater care and feare.

14 Make thee an Arke of (n) Pine trees: Habitations shalt thou make in the arke, and shalt pitch it within and without with pitche.

(n) Gopher a very lyght kinde of wood

15 And of this fashion shalt thou make it: The length of the arke [shalbe] three hundreth cubites, the breadth of it fiftie cubites, & the height of it thirtie cubites.

16 A Wyndowe shalt thou make in the arke, and (o) in a cubite shalt thou finishe it aboue: but the doore of the arke shalt thou set in the syde therof. With three loftes one aboue another shalt thou make it.

(o) The length of the wyndowe was a cubite.

17 And beholde, (p) I, euen I do bryng a fludde of waters vpon the earth, to destroy all flesshe wherin is the breath of lyfe vnder heauen, and euery thyng that is in the earth shall perishe.

(p) It seemed to the worlde then, a thing vnpossible.

18 (q) With thee also wyll I make (r) my couenaunt: and thou shalt come into the arke, thou and thy sonnes, thy wife, and thy sonnes wyues with thee.

() The vse of the arke.

(q) That Noah should be safe, though all the worlde perisshe.

(r) Gods promyse made Noah more redy to do gods commaundement.

19 And of euery lyuyng thyng of all flesshe, (f) a payre of euery one shalt thou bryng into the arke to kepe them alyue with thee, they shalbe male & female.

(f) Not one payre alone, as appeareth in the next Chapter.

20 Of fethered foules also after their kinde, and of all cattell after their kinde: of euery worme of the earth after his kynde, two of euery one shall come vnto thee, to kepe [them] alyue.

21 And take thou with thee (t) of all meate that is eaten, and thou shalt lay it vp with thee, that it may be meate for thee and them.

(t) God could haue fed al miraculously: but he woulde haue meanes vsed.

22 *Noah (u) therfore dyd according vnto all that God commaunded hym [euen] so dyd he.

(a) Temporall benefites God bestoweth vpon the chyldren, for the fathers godlines sake. 1.Pet.iii.a.

2 Of euery cleane beast thou shalt take with thee seuen and seuen, the male and his female, but of (b) vncleane cattell two, the male and his female.

(b) Not seuen payre, but three, and one for sacrifice.

3 Of foules also of the ayre seuen and seuen, the male and the female, to kepe seede alyue vpon the face of all the whole earth.

4 For after (c) seuen dayes, I wyl rayne vpon the earth fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes: & all substaunce that I haue made, wyll I destroy from the vpper face of the earth.

(c) God wold not haue Noah to be in doubt of any circumstaunce

5 *Noah therfore did according vnto (d) all that God commaunded him.

Mat.24.d. Luk.xvii.f. i.Pet.iii.d.

(d) Noah obeyed not in one thing, but in all that god commaunded.

6 And Noah was (e) six hundreth yere olde, when the fludde of water came vpon the earth.

(e) Age dyd not make Noah the slower to obey Gods wyll.

7 And Noah came, and his sonnes, and his wyfe, and his sonnes wyues with him to the arke, because of the waters of the fludde.

8 Of cleane beastes, and of vncleane beastes, and of foules, and of euery such as creepeth vpon the earth,

9 There (f) came two & two vnto Noah vnto the arke, the male and the female, as God had commaunded Noah.

(f) As to Adam, so nowe to Noah, god caused all cattell to come.

10 And so it came to passe after seuen dayes, that the waters of the flud were vpon the earth.

11 In the sixe hundreth yere of Noahs lyfe, in the (g) seconde moneth, the seuenteene day of ỹ moneth, in the same day were all the fountaynes of the great deepe broken vp, and the wyndowes of heauen were opened.

15 The (o) princes also of Pharao sawe her, and cōmended her before Pharao, and the woman was taken into Pharaos house.

16 And (p) he entreated Abram well for her sake: and he had sheepe and oxen, and he asses, menseruauntes, & maydeseruauntes, she asses and camelles.

(p) Princes are liberall to them that satisfie their affections.

17 But the (q) Lorde plagued Pharao and his house with great plagues, because of Sarai Abrams wyfe.

18 And Pharao callyng Abram, sayde: Why hast thou done this vnto me:

19 Why diddest thou not tel me, that she was thy wyfe: Why saydest thou, she is my sister: and so (r) I might haue taken her to be my wyfe: Nowe therfore beholde, there is thy wyfe, take her, and go thy way.

(r) Though Pharao was innocent touching Abram, yet he and his court wanted not sinne.

A 1 And so Abram (a) gat hym vp out of Egypt, he and his wife, and al that he had, and Lot with hym, toward the South.

(a) Neither riches nor other impedismentes of Egypt, hindered Abram from folowing gods callyng.

2 And Abram was "bery ryche in cattell, in siluer, and in golde.

" Hebr. Heauy: or loden.

3 And he went forth on his iourney, from the south tovvarde Bethel, vnto the place where his tent had ben at the begynnyng, betvvene Bethel and Hai:

4 Euen (b) vnto the place of the aulter * vvhiche he had made there at the first, and there Abram (c) called on the name of the Lorde.

(b) Men are delited with those places, where they haue tasted of Gods graces. Gen. xii. c.

(c) Abram continued all one man in his religion.

5 Lot also vvhiche vvent vvith Abram, had sheepe, cattell, and tentes.

6 And (d) the lande was not able to beare them, that they might dvvell together: for theyr * substaunce was great, so that they coulde not (e) dvvell together.

(d) Riches, oftymes breaketh frendshyp betvvixt great men. Gen 36. b.

(e) Lest wealth should hurt Abram, thus God prouided.

7 And there fell a stryfe betvvene (f) the heardmen of Abrams cattell, and the heardmen of Lottes cattell: Moreouer, the Chanaanites, and Pherisites dvvelled at that tyme in the lande.

(f) Other mens strife, shoulde not make the godly fall out.

8 Then sayde (g) Abram vnto Lot: let there be no strife I pray thee betvveene thee and me, and betvveene my heardmen and thyne, for we (h) be brethren.

(g) Though they dvvelt among their enemies, yet the stryfe was not abated.

(h) An example howe to pacifie them that are fallen out.

9 Is not the vvhole lande before thee: Seperate thy selfe I pray thee from me: yf thou vvilt take the left hande, (i) I vvyll go to the ryght: or yf thou depart to the ryght hande, I vvyll go to the left.

(i) To yelde part of mans ryght, it is a remedie against strife.

10 And so Lot lyfting vp his eyes, beheld all " the countrey of Jordane, vvhiche vvas vvell vvatred euery vvhere before the Lorde destroyed Sodome and Gomorrh, euen as the garden of the Lorde, lyke the lande of Egypt as thou commest vnto Soar.

" Or, playne.

11 Then Lot (k) chose all the playne of Jordane, and toke his iourney from the east, and so departed the one [brother] from the other.

(k) Lot declineth very inconsiderately.

12 Abram dvvelled in the lande of Chanaan, and Lot abode in the cities of the playne, and pitched his tent vntill Sodome.

13 But the (l) men of Sodome [were] wicked, and exceedyng sinners agaynst the Lorde.

(l) Lots choyse was not very lucky, who had none such neighbours.

14 And the Lorde saide (m) vnto Abram, after that Lot was departed frō hym: Lyft vp thyne eyes nowe, and loke frō the place where thou art, northwarde, southward, eastwarde, and westward:

(m) God comforteth Abraham in his griefe for the departure of Lot.

15 For all the "lande which thou seest, wyll I geue vnto thee, and to thy seede for euer.

Gen xiii.b. Deut.34.a.

16 And I wyl make thy seede as the dust of the earth: so that yf a man can number the dust of the earth, then shall thy seede also be numbred.

17 Arise, and (n) walke about in the lande, after the length of it, & after the breadth of it: for I wyll geue it vnto thee.

(n) Though Abraham had no quietnes in this lande, yet he satisfied hym selfe with Gods worde. " Hebr. Set with trees.

6 And (g) Abraham went apace into the tent vnto Sara, & sayde: Make redy at once three "pecks of fine meale, kneade [it] and make cakes vpon the hearth.

7 And Abraham runnyng vnto his beastes, fet a (i) calfe tender and good, and gaue it vnto a young man, and he hasted to make it redy at once.

8 And he toke butter and mylke, and the calfe which he had prepared, and set it before them, and stoode hym selfe by them vnder the tree: & (k) they dyd eate.

9 And they sayde vnto hym: Where is Sara thy wife? he answered, behold, in the tent.

Gen. xvii.c. Rom.ix.b.
10 And he sayde: *I wyll certaynely returne vnto thee (l) according to the time of lyfe: and lo, Sara thy wyfe shall haue a sonne. That heard Sara in the tent doore, which was behynde hym.

11 Abraham and Sara were both olde, and well stryken in age: and it ceassed to be with Sara after the maner as it is with Women.

12 Therefore Sara (m) laughed within her selfe, saying: Nowe I am waxed olde shal I geue my selfe to lust, and my *Lorde olde also?

13 And God said vnto Abraham: Wherfore dyd Sara laugh, saying, shall I of a suertie beare a chylde, which am olde?

14 Is any thing "vnpossible to God? Accordyng to the tyme appoynted wyll I returne vnto thee [euen] according to the time of life: & Sara [shall] haue a sonne.

15 Thē Sara denied it, saying: I laughed not: (n) for she was afrayde. And he sayde: it is not so, but thou laughedst.

16 And the men rysyng vp from thence, loked toward Sodome: and Abraham went with them to bryng them on the way.

17 And the Lorde sayde: shall I (o) hyde from Abraham that thing which I do, 18 Seyng that Abraham shall surely be a great and a myghtie nation, and *all the nations of the earth shalbe blessed in hym?

19 I knowe this also, that he wyll commaunde (p) his chyldren and his housholde after him, that they kepe the Way of the Lord, and to do iustice and iudgement, that the Lorde may bryng vpon Abrahā that he hath spoken vnto him.

20 And the lorde sayde: (q) because the crye of Sodome and Gomorrhe is great, and because their sinne is exceding greeuous:

21 I wyll go downe nowe, and see whether they haue (r) done altogether accordyng to that crye whiche is come vnto me: and yf not, I wyll knowe.

22 And the men departed thence, & went to Sodomeward: but Abraham stoode yet before the Lorde.

23 And Abraham drewe neare, and said: Wylt thou also destroye the righteous with the wicked?

24 "If there be (s) fiftie ryghteous within the citie, wylt thou destroye and not spare the place for the sake of fiftie ryghteous that are therein?

25 That be farre from thee that thou shouldest do after this maner, and slaye the ryghteous with the wicked, & that the ryghteous should be as the wicked, that be farre from thee: Shall not the iudge of all the worlde do accordyng to ryght?

Rom. iii.

26 And the Lorde sayde: If I fynde in Sodome fiftie ryghteous within the citie, I wyll (t) spare all the place for their sakes.

27 And Abraham aunsweryng, sayde: (v) beholde I haue taken vpon me to speake vnto the Lorde, whiche am but dust and asshes.

28 If there shall lacke fiue of fiftie ryghteous, wylt thou destroy all the citie for [lacke] of fiue? And he saide: If I fynde there fourtie and fiue I wyl not destroy them.

29 And he proceaded to speake vnto hym agayne, and sayde: what yf there shall be fourtie founde there? He aunswered: I wyll not do it for fourties sake.

30 He sayde vnto hym agayne: O let not my lord be angry that I speake: What yf there shall thirtie be founde there? And he sayde: I wyll do nothyng yf I fynde thirtie there.

10 But the men put foorth their hande, and pulled Lot into the house to them, and shut to the doore.

11 *And the men that were at the doore of the house (g) they smote with blyndenesse both small and great, so that they were weryed in sekyng the doore.

12 And the men sayde vnto Lot: Hast thou here any besides: (h) sonne in lawe, and thy sonnes, and thy daughters, and whatsoeuer thou hast in the citie, bryng them out of this place:

14 And Lot went out, and spake vnto his (k) sonnes in lawe which maried his daughters, saying: Stande vp, get ye out of this place, for the Lorde wyll ouerthrowe this citie. But he seemed as though he had mocked, vnto his sonnes in lawe.

29 And it came to passe, that when God destroyed the cities of that region, (f) he thought vpon Abraham, and sent Lot out from the middest of the ouerthrow, when he ouerthrewe the cities, in one of the whiche Lot dwelled.

30 And Lot departed out of Soar, and dwelled in the mountayne with his two daughters: (t) for he feared to tary in Soar, but dwelled in a caue, he and his two daughters.

31 And the " elder said vnto the younger: (b) our father is olde, and there is not a man in the earth to come in vnto vs after the maner of all the worlde.

32 Come, let vs geue our father wine to drynke, and lye with hym, that we may "saue seede of our father.

33 And so they gaue their father wine to drinke that night: and the elder daughter went and lay with her father, and (x) he perceaued it not neither when she laye downe, neyther when she rose vp.

¶ The .xx. Chapter.

1 Abraham is a soiourner in Gerar, where his wyfe is taken by force. 3 Abimelech is chydden, 4 his prayer. 7 God sayeth Abimelech from doyng amysse. Abraham a prophete. 9 Abimelech chideth Abrahā himselfe. 12 Sara the niece of Thare by his sonne, & the niece of Abraham by his brother. 14 Abimelech rendereth the wyfe with giftes. 17 Abraham prayeth for Abimelech.

1 AND Abraham (a) departed thence towarde the south countrey, & dwelled betweene Cades and Sur, and soiourned in Gerar.

(a) God dyd thus teache hym that he was but a straūger here.

2 And Abraham sayde of Sara his wyfe, (b) she is my syster: And Abimelech kyng of Gerar sent, and fet Sara away.

(b) Abraham once agayne geueth more to his owne counsell, then to the prouidence of God.

3 But God came to Abimelech by night in a dreame, and saide to hym: See, (c) thou art but a dead man for the womans sake whiche thou hast taken away, for she is a mans wyfe.

(c) We may learne howe greatly adulterie displeaseth God.

4 But Abimelech had not yet touched her: and he sayde, Lorde wylt thou slay ryghteous people?

5 Saide not he vnto me, she is my syster? yea and she her selfe sayde, he is my brother: With (d) a single heart, and innocent handes haue I done this.

(d) He dyd neither purposely nor tirannicallye take another mans wyfe.

6 And God sayde vnto him in a dreame: I wote well that thou dyddest it in the singlenesse of thy heart: I kept thee also that thou shuldest not sinne (e) against me, and therefore suffred I thee not to touche her.

(e) The sinne agaynst our neighbour, is sinne also agaynst God.

7 Nowe therefore delyuer the man his wyfe agayne, for he is a prophete, and he shall pray for thee, that thou mayest lyue: (f) But and yf thou delyuer her not agayne, be sure that thou shalt dye the death, [both thou] and all that thou hast.

(f) In Gods threatninges, is included the doctrine of repentaūce.

8 Therefore, Abimelech rysyng vp betimes in the morning, called all his seruauntes, and tolde all these sayinges in their eares: and (g) the men were sore afrayde.

(g) A good kyng syndeth many good Courtiours.

9 Then Abimelech called Abraham, & sayde vnto hym: What hast thou done vnto vs? & what haue I offended thee, that thou hast brought on me & on my kingdome so [(h) great a sinne? thou hast done deedes vnto me that ought not to be done.

(h) The kyng doth not excuse hymselfe altogether of a fault, as the hypocrites woulde.

10 And Abimelech saide vnto Abraham: What sawest thou that thou hast done this thyng?

11 Abrahā aunswered: For I "thought [thus] surely (i) the feare of God is not in this place, and they shal slaye me for my wyues sake.

" Or, sayde.

(i) Men are redy to al mischiefe where the feare of God is not.

12 Yet in very deede she is my sister, for she is ỹ daughter of my father, though she be not the daughter of my mother, and she became my wyfe.

13 And after God caused me to wander out of my fathers house, I sayde vnto her: this kyndnesse shalt thou shewe vnto me, in all places where we come, that thou *say of me, he is my brother.

14 Then (k) toke Abimelech sheepe and oxen, men seruauntes and women seruauntes, & gaue [them] vnto Abraham, and delyuered hym Sara his wyfe agayne.

(k) The princely maner beside of Abimelech, and his liberalitie.

15 And Abimelech sayde: beholde my lande lyeth before thee, dwell where it pleaseth thee best.

16 But vnto Sara he saide: See I haue geuen thy brother a thousand peeces of syluer: beholde, (l) it is as a couering of thyne eyes vnto all that are with thee, and to all [other:] and thus she was reproued.

(l) The gift was not only for ornamentes for Sara and her company: but an argument to other of her honestie, and his innocencie

17 And so Abraham prayed vnto God, & God (m) healed Abimelech, and his wife, and his maydens, & they bare chyldren.

(m) The sinne of a prince is punished in many.

18 For the Lorde had closed vp all the wombes of the house of Abimelech, because of Abrahams wyfe.

(a) For Isahac was borne beside the order of nature.

1 THe Lord (a) visited Sara as he had promised, and did vnto her accordyng as he had spokē.

2 For Sara conceaued, and bare Abraham a sonne in his olde age, euen the same season whiche the Lorde had appoynted.

(d) It is the duetie of the mother, if she may, to nurse her childe, as appeareth. 1. Tim. v.

(f) Sara goeth not about to ouer rule her husbande: for all this businesse was done by the motion of the holy ghost

11 And this saying was very greeuous in Abrahams sight, because of his sonne.

12 And God sayde vnto Abraham, let it not be greeuous in thy sight, because of the lad and of thy bonde woman: In al that Sara hath said vnto thee, heare her voyce, for (g) in Isahac shall thy seede be called.

(g) The children of Isahac shall only be accompted the posteritie of Abraham.

13 Moreouer, of the sonne of the bonde woman wyll I make a nation, because he is thy seede.

17 And God (k) hearde the voyce of the lad, and the angell of God called to Hagar out of heauen, and said vnto her, What ayleth thee Hagar? feare not: for God hath hearde the voyce of the lad where he lyeth.

23 And nowe therefore, sweare vnto me euen here by God, that thou wylt not "hurt me, nor my children, nor my childrens children: but that thou shalt deale with me and the countrey where thou hast ben a straunger, accordyng vnto the kyndnesse that I haue shewed thee.

B (d) He should haue shunned, & not followed his fathers fault.

8 And after he had ben there a long time, Abimelech king of the Philistines loked out at a windowe, & (e) sawe Isahac sportyng with Rebecca his wyfe.

(e) Thinges can not long be kept close by dissimulation.

9 And Abimelech called Isahac, and said: beholde, she is of a suretie thy wife, and why saydest thou, she is my sister? To whom Isahac aunswered: because I thought that I might peraduenture haue dyed for her sake.

C 10 Abimelech (f) said: Why hast thou done this vnto vs? one of the people myght lyghtly haue lyne by thy wyfe, and so shouldest thou haue brought (g) sinne vpon vs.

(f) The heathenishe king reproueth Isahac of his foolishe dissimulation.

(g) The breakinge of wedlocke amonge all nations, was counted a great faute.

11 And so Abimelech charged al his people, pie, saying: he that toucheth this man or his wyfe, shall dye the death.

12 Then Isahac sowed in that lande, and receaued in the same yere "an hundred folde: and the Lorde " blessed hym.

13 And the man waxed myghtie, & went foorth, and grewe tyll he was exceeding great.

14 For he had possessiō of sheepe, of oxen, and a myghtie housholde: and therfore the (h) Philistines had enuie at hym.

15 For the Philistines (i) stopped and fylled vp with earth all the welles which his seruauntes had digged in his father Abrahams tyme.

16 And Abimelech sayde vnto Isahac: Get thee from vs, for thou art mightier then we a great deale.

17 Therefore Isahac departed thence, and " abode in the valley of Gerar, and dwelt there.

18 And Isahac returning, digged againe the welles of water which they digged in the dayes of Abraham his father, which the Philistines had stopped after the death of Abraham, & named them after the same names by the which his father had named them.

19 Isahacs seruauntes digged in the valley, and (k) founde a well of "springyng water.

20 And the heardmen of Gerar did striue with Isahacs heardmen, saying: the water is ours. Then called he the well "contention, because they stroue with hym.

21 And they digged another well, and stroue for that also: and he called the name of it "ennitie.

22 And then he departed thence, & digged another well, for the which they stroue not. Therfore called he it "roomth, saying: the Lorde hath made vs nowe roome that we may encrease vpon the earth.

23 And he went vp thence to Beer-seba.

24 And the Lorde appeared vnto hym the same night, and (l) sayde: I am the God of Abraham thy father, feare not, for I am with thee, and wyl blesse thee and multiple thy seede for my seruaunt Abrahams sake.

25 And he builded an (m) aulter there, and called vpon the name of the Lorde, and pitched his tent: and there Isahacs seruauntes dygged a well.

26 Then (n) came Abimelech to him from Gerar, and Ahuzath his friende, and Phicol the captaine of his armie.

27 And Isahac sayde vnto them: wherfore come ye to me, seyng ye hate me, and haue put me away from you?

28 Whiche aunswered: "we sawe most certainly that the Lord was with thee, and we sayde: let there be nowe an oth betwixt vs, euen betwixt vs and thee, and let vs make a league with thee:

29 That thou shouldest do vs no hurt, as we haue not touched thee, and as we haue done vnto thee nothyng but good, & sent thee away in peace: for thou art nowe the blessed of the Lorde.

30 And (o) he made them a feast, and they dyd eate and drynke.

31 And they rose vp betymes in the morning, and sware one to another: And Isahac sent them away, and they departed from hym in peace.

32 And the same daye Isahacs seruauntes came and tolde hym of a well which they had dygged, and sayde vnto hym, we haue founde water.

33 And he called it Sebah: and the name of the citie is called (p) Beer-seba vnto this day.

¶ The. xxvij. Chapter.

The blessyng spoke of here, was not a comon prayer, but lawfull authoritie, whereby the grace of Gods election was testified, and Isahac put in possession of Gods promise.

¶ The.xxvij. Chapter.

A 1 AND it came to passe, that whē Isahac waxed olde, & his eyes were dimme, so that he could not see, he called Esau his eldest sonne, & saide vnto hym, my sonne: And he sayde vnto hym: here am I.

2 And he sayde: Beholde, I am nowe olde, and knowe not (a) the daye of my death.

(a) The knowledge of our mortalitie shoulde cause vs to see all thynges in order.

3 Nowe therefore take I pray thee thy weapons, thy quyuer and thy bowe, and get thee to the fielde, that thou mayest take me some venison.

4 And make me well tastyng meates, such as I loue, and bryng it to me, that I may eate, (b) that my soule may blesse thee before that I dye.

(b) Though Isahac dyd somethyng of affection: yet he kepthfully thought to resigne ouer to his sonne, the ryght of the promised inheritaunce.

5 But Rebecca hearde when Isahac spake to Esau his sonne: And Esau wēt into the fielde to hunt venison, and to bryng it.

(c) Such peculier examples, are not to be folowed of vs.

6 And (c) Rebecca spake vnto Iacob her sonne, saying: Beholde, I haue hearde thy father talkyng with Esau thy brother, and saying:

B 7 Bring me venison, and make me daintie meate, that I may eate, and blesse thee before the Lorde, afore my death.

(d) She settelled her selfe vppon Gods promise, and not weyed the daungers that myght folowe

8 Nowe therfore my sonne (d) heare my voyce in that which I cōmaunde thee.

9 Get thee to the flocke, and bryng me thence two good kyddes frō the goates, and I wyll make of them pleasaunt meates for thy father, such as he loueth.

10 And thou shalt bryng it to thy father that he may eate, and that he may blesse thee before his death.

11 Then said Iacob to Rebecca his mother: Beholde, Esau my brother is a heary man, and I am smoothe:

12 My father shall peraduenture feele mee, and I shall seeme vnto hym as though I went about to begyle hym, and so shall I bryng a curse vpon me, and not a blessyng.

C 13 And his mother sayde vnto him, Upon me be the curse my sonne: only heare my voyce, and go and fetche me them.

(e) Iacob was not without fault, who myght haue taried vntyll god had chaūged his fathers mynde.

14 And [Iacob] (e) went, and fet them, and brought them to his mother: and his mother made pleasaunt meate, such as she knewe his father loued.

15 And Rebecca fet "goodly rayment of her eldest sonne Esau, whiche were in the house with her, and put them vpon Iacob her younger sonne:

" Or, costly

16 And she put the skynnes of the kiddes vpon his handes, and vpon the smoothe of his necke.

17 And she put that pleasaunt meate and bread, whiche she had prepared, in the hande of her sonne Iacob.

18 When he came to his father, he sayde: my father: And he aunswered, here am I: who art thou, my sonne:

19 And Iacob sayde vnto his father: I am Esau thy eldest sonne, I haue done accordyng as thou baddest me: aryse I pray thee, syt, and eate of my venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

20 And Isahac said vnto his sonne: how D commeth it that thou hast founde it so quickly my sonne: He aunswered: (f) the lorde thy God brought it to my handes.

(f) One fault bryngeth another when Gods worde is once forsaken.

21 Then sayde Isahac vnto Iacob: Come neare, and I wyll feele thee my sonne, whether thou be my very sonne Esau, or not.

22 Then went Iacob to Isahac his father, and he felt hym, and sayde: The voyce is Iacobs voyce, but the handes are the handes of Esau.

(g) His ignoraunce hyndered not Gods decree.

23 And (g) he knewe him not, because his handes were heary as his brother Esaus handes: and so (h) he blessed hym.

(h) That is, he concluded with hymselfe that ỹ blessing was sure to Iacob.

24 And he asked him: art thou my sonne Esau: And he sayde: that I am.

25 Then sayde he: Bryng me, & let me eate of my sonnes venison, that my soule may blesse thee. And he brought hym, and he ate: and he brought hym wine also, and he dranke.

(i) We muste not so much beholde the outwarde doynges here, as the promision of God, who would by such weakenesse haue his election declared.

26 And his father Isahac said vnto him: (i) Come neare, and kysse me, my sonne.

(k) Isahac retopled that he hath nowe a successour in Gods promises.

27 And he went vnto him, & kyssed him, and he smelled the sauour of his rayment, and blessed hym, & saide: (k) See, the smell of my sonne, is as the smell of a fielde which the Lorde hath blessed.

(l) Under these worldly blessinges, the godly fathers embraced the heauenly promises.

28 God geue thee (l) of the deawe of heauen, and of the fatnesse of the earth, and plentie of corne and wine.

29 People be thy seruauntes, and nations bowe to thee: be lorde ouer thy brethren, and thy mothers children stowpe with reuerence vnto thee: cursed be he that curseth thee, and blessed be he that blesseth thee.

30 Assoone as Isahac had made an ende of blessyng Jacob, & Jacob was scarse gone out from the presence of Isahac his father, then came Esau his brother from his huntyng.

31 And (m) he also had made a pleasaunt meate, and brought it vnto his father, and saide vnto his father: let my father aryse, and eate of his sonnes venison, that thy soule may blesse me.

32 Then his father Isahac sayde vnto hym: Who art thou? He answered: I am thy sonne, thy first borne Esau.

33 And Isahac was greatly astonied out of measure, and sayde: Which [is he] and where [is he] then that hath hunted venison and brought it me, and I haue eaten of al before thou camest: and haue blessed hym, yea (n) & he shalbe blessed.

34 When Esau hearde the wordes of his father, he cryed aloude & bitterly, aboue measure, and sayde vnto his father: blesse me, *I also am [thy sonne] O my father.

35 Who answered. Thy brother came with subtiltie, and hath taken awaye thy blessyng.

36 And he said agayne: Is not he rightly named Jacob? (o) for he hath vndermyned me nowe two tymes. [First] he toke away my birthright: and see, nowe hath he taken away my blessyng also. And he sayde: hast thou kept neuer a blessyng for me?

37 Isahac answered, and sayde vnto Esau: Beholde, I haue made hym thy Lorde, & all his brethren haue I made his seruauntes: Moreouer, with corne and wine haue I stablished him, what shall I do vnto thee nowe my sonne?

38 And Esau sayde vnto his father: hast thou but that one blessyng my father? blesse me, I am also [thy sonne] O my father. So lyfted vp Esau his voyce, (p) and wept.

39 Then Isahac his father answered, and sayde vnto hym: beholde, (q) thy dwellyng place shalbe the fatnesse of the earth, and of the deawe of heauen from aboue.

40 And through thy sworde shalt thou liue, and shalt be thy brothers seruaunt: and it shal come to passe, that thou shalt get the maisterie, & thou shalt loose his yoke from of thy necke.

41 And Esau hated Jacob, because of the blessyng that his father blessed hym withall. And Esau sayde in his heart: The dayes of sorowyng for my father are at hande, then will I (r) slaye my brother Jacob.

42 And these wordes of Esau her elder sonne were tolde to Rebecca: And she sent, & called Jacob her younger sonne, & saide vnto him: Beholde, thy brother Esau as touchyng thee doth comforte hym selfe [full purposyng] to kyll thee.

43 Nowe therefore my sonne heare my voyce: make thee redy, and (t) flee to Laban my brother at Haran,

44 And tary with him awhyle vntyl thy brothers fiercenesse be swaged, 45 And vntyll thy brothers wrath turne away from thee, & he forget the thinges which thou hast done to hym: then will I sende and fet thee away from thence: (t) Why should I be desolate of you both in one day?

46 And Rebecca spake to Isahac: I am weery of my lyfe (v) for the daughters of Heth. If Jacob take a wyfe of the daughters of Heth, such as these [which are] of the daughters of the lande, what good shall my lyfe do me?

(m) Esaus workes seme to be better then Jacobs were: So the blessyng came of the meere gyft of God.

(n) What Gods ministers promise by his worde, that shalbe sure.

The. xxviij. Chapter.

1 Isahac forbyddeth Jacob to take a wyfe of the maydens of Chanaan, whereunto Jacob obeyeth. 9 Esau against his fathers wyl taketh a wife of the daughters of Ismael. 11 Jacob goyng into Haran, seeth a ladder in a dreame. 13 Chanaan is promised to Jacob. 16 God comforteth Jacob. 17 The house of God. 19 Bethel. Luza. 20 The vowe of Jacob. He asketh foode and clothyng.

A 1 AND so Isahac called Jacob, and (a) blessed him, and charged him, and sayde vnto hym: See thou take not a wyfe of the daughters of Chanaan:

(a) Gods promises may be often repeated, to the confirmation of the godlyes faith.

2 Arise, and get thee to "Mesopotamia, to the house of Bethuel thy mothers father, and there take thee a wyfe of the daughters of Laban thy mothers brother.

3 And God almyghtie blesse thee, and make thee to encrease, & multiplie thee, that thou mayest be a (b) number of people:

(b) He hath respect to the number of gentiles which should be ioyned to ỹ faithfull of Iacobs house.

4 And geue the blessing of Abraham vnto thee, and to thy seede with thee, that thou mayest receaue to inherite ỹ lande wherein thou art a straunger, whiche God gaue vnto Abraham.

5 Thus Isahac sent foorth Jacob: and he went towarde Mesopotamia, vnto Laban, sonne of Bethuel the Syrian, and brother to Rebecca Jacob and Esaus mother.

(c) An example of hypocrites as here set foorth, who seke no true meanes of repentaunce, or amendement.

6 (c) When Esau sawe that Isahac had blessed Jacob, and sent hym to Mesopotamia to fet hym a wyfe from thence, and that as he blessed him, he gaue him a charge, saying, thou shalt not take a wyfe of the daughters of Chanaan:

B 7 And that Jacob had obeyed his father and mother, and was gone to Mesopotamia:

8 And Esau seyng also that the daughters of Chanaan pleased not Isahac his father:

(d) He careth more to please his father thē God: he thinketh of no fault but one, & yet he doth not correct ỹ throughly.

9 Then (d) went Esau vnto Ismael, and toke vnto the wyues [which he had] Mahalah the daughter of Ismael Abrahams sonne, the sister of Nebaioth to be his wyfe.

10 Jacob departed from Beer-seba, and went towarde Haran.

11 And he came vnto a certayne place, & taryed there all night, because the sunne was downe: and toke of the stones of the place, and put vnder his head, and layde hym downe in the same place to sleepe.

12 And he dreamed, and beholde there stoode (e) a lather vpō the earth, and the toppe of it reached vp to heauen: and see, the angels of God went vp & downe vpon it.

(e) It may signifie christ, by whose meditation all graces come downe to vs, and all helpe.

13 Yea, and God from aboue leaned vpon it, and sayde: I am the Lord God of Abraham thy father, and the God of Isahac, (f) the land which thou sleepest vpon, wyll I geue thee and thy seede.

(f) Isahac ministerre in blessyng his sonne, is confirmed by god, who geueth hym this land for a pledge of the spirituall inheritaunce. (g) Christe promised.

14 And thy seede shalbe as the dust of the earth, and thou shalt spreade abrode to the west, to the east, to the north, and to the south: and in thee, and in (g) thy seede, shall all the kynredes of the earth be blessed.

15 And see, I am with thee, and wyll be thy keper in all [places] whyther thou goest, and wyll bryng thee agayne into this lande: For I wyl not (h) leaue thee, vntyll I haue made good that whiche I haue promised thee.

(h) God taketh all the charge of his elect, and neuer forsaketh them.

16 When Jacob was awaked out of his sleepe, he sayde: Surely the Lorde is in this place, and I knewe it not.

(i) Where God appeareth by the ministerre of angels or men accordyng to his worde, there he is sayd to dwell.

17 And he was afrayde, and saide: howe dreadefull is this place: it is none other but euen the (i) house of God, & it is the gate of heauen.

18 And Jacob rose vp early in the morning, and toke the stone that he hadde

(g) Iacob would not through idelnesse charge his vncle.

16 Laban had two daughters, the elder called Lea, and the younger Rachel.

17 Lea was tender eyed: but Rachel was beautifull and well fauoured.

18 And Iacob loued Rachel, and sayde: I wyll serue thee seuen yere for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 Laban aunswered: (h) It is better that I geue her [vnto] thee, then that I shoulde geue her to another man: abide with me.

20 And Iacob serued seuen yere for Rachel: and they seemed vnto hym but a fewe dayes, for the loue he hadde to her.

11 And Jacob kyssed Rachel, and lift vp his voyce and wept.

12 And Jacob tolde Rachel that he was her fathers (e) brother, and that he was Rebeccaes sonne: Therefore ranne she and tolde her father.

15 And Laban said vnto Jacob: Though thou be my brother, shouldest thou therfore (g) serue me for naught? Tell me what shall thy wages be?

16 Laban had two daughters, the elder called Lea, and the yonger Rachel.

17 Lea was tender eyed: but Rachel was beautifull and well fauoured.

18 And Jacob loued Rachel, and sayde: I wyll serue thee seuen yere for Rachel thy younger daughter.

19 Laban aunswered: (h) It is better that I geue her [vnto] thee, then that I shoulde geue her to another man: abide with me.

¶ The. xxxj. Chapter.

1 The chyldren of Laban do grudge at Jacobs richesse. 3 God commaundeth Jacob to returne into his countrey. 5 Jacob declareth Gods benefites to hymwarde. 7 God saueth Jacob that Laban do hym no harme. 16 Jacob returneth into his countrey Laban not wyttyng therof. 19 Rachel hath stollen her fathers idolles. 23 Laban pursueth Jacob. 24 The care of God for Jacob that Laban do hym no harme. 26 Laban chydeth Jacob. 30 He complayneth that his idolles be stolen. 34 Rachel, her fathers idols beyng hydden, begyleth hym. 38 Jacob declareth to Laban his trueth, his diligence, his trauayle. 44 A league betwene Laban and Jacob.

1 AND he heard the wordes of (a) Labans sonnes saying, Jacob hath take away all that was our fathers, and of our fathers [goodes] hath he gotten all his glorie.

2 And Jacob beheelde the countenaunce of Laban, and beholde, it was not towardes hym "as it was wont to be.

3 And (b) the Lorde sayde vnto Jacob: turne agayne into the lande of thy fathers, and to thy kynrede, and I wyll be with thee.

(b) Though he was in great feare and doubt, yet he durst not returne without gods commaundement.

4 Therfore Jacob sent, & called Rachel and Lea to the fielde vnto his flocke,

5 And sayde vnto them: I see your fathers countenaũce that it is not toward me as it was wont to be: but the God of my father hath ben with me.

6 And ye knowe howe I haue serued your father to the best of my power.

7 But your father hath deceaued me, and chaunged my wages (c) ten tymes: but God suffred hym not to hurt me.

8 (d) When he sayde, the spotted shalbe thy wages: then al the sheepe bare spotted. And when he sayd, the ringstraked shalbe thy rewarde: then bare all the sheepe ringstraked.

9 Thus hath God taken away the increase of your fathers flocke, and geuen it to me.

B 10 But in rammyng tyme, I lifted vp myne eyes, and sawe in a dreame, and beholde, the " Rammes leaped vpon the sheepe that were ringstraked, spotted, and partie.

11 And the angell of God spake vnto me in a dreame, saying: Iacob: And I aunswered: here am I.

12 And he sayd: lift vp nowe thyne eyes, and see all the Rammes leapyng vpon the sheepe that are ringstraked, spotted, and partie: for I haue (e) seene all that Laban doth vnto thee.

13 I am the God of Bethel, where thou annoyntedst the stone set vp on an ende, and where thou vowedst a vowe vnto me: nowe therefore arise, and get thee out of this countrey, and returne vnto the lande where thou wast borne.

14 Then aunswered Rachel, and Lea, and said vnto him: haue we had as yet any portion or inheritaunce in our fathers house?

15 Doth not he count vs euen as straungers? for he hath solde vs, & hath quite deuoured also (f) our money.

16 Therfore all the ryches whiche God hath taken from our father, that is ours and our chyldrens: nowe then (g) whatsoeuer God hath sayde vnto thee, that do.

C 17 Then Iacob rose vp, & set his sonnes and wyues vp vpon camelles:

18 And caryed away all his flockes, and all his substaunce whiche he had procured, the increase of his cattell which he had gotten in " Mesopotamia, for to go to Isahac his father vnto the lande of Chanaan.

19 But Laban (h) was gone to sheare his sheepe: and Rachel had stolen her fathers (i) images.

20 And Iacob stale away the heart of Laban the Syrian, in that he tolde him not that he fled.

21 So fled he, and all that he had, and made hym selfe redy, and passed ouer the ryuer, and set his face straycht towarde the mounte Gilead.

22 Upon the thirde day after, was it told Laban that Iacob fled.

23 Then he toke (k) his brethren with him, and folowed after him seuen daies iourney, & ouertoke him at the mounte Gilead.

24 And (l) God came to Laban the Syrian in a dreame by nyght, and sayd vnto him: take heede that thou speake not to Iacob ought " saue good.

25 And Laban ouertoke Iacob, and Iacob had pitched his tent in the mounte: And Laban with his brethren, pitched also vpon the mounte Gilead.

26 And Laban said to Iacob: What hast thou done? for thou hast stollen away my heart, and caryed away my daughters as though they had ben taken captiue with the sworde.

D 27 Wherfore wentest thou away secretly " vnknowen to me, (m) and diddest not tell me, that I myght haue let thee go thy way with mirth and songues, with tymbrell and harpe?

28 And hast not suffred me to kysse my chyldren and my daughters? thou hast a foole nowe in so doyng.

29 For it is (n) in my hand " through God to do you hurt: But the God of your father spake vnto me yesternight, saying: Take heede that thou speake not to Iacob ought saue good.

30 And nowe though thou wouldest nedes be gone away, because thou sore longest after thy fathers house, yet wherfore hast thou stollen my (o) gods?

31 Iacob aunswered and sayde to Laban: because I was afrayde, & thought that peraduenture thou wouldest take away thy daughters from me.

32 But with whomsoeuer thou findest thy gods, (p) let hym dye. Here before our brethren, seeke that thyne is by me, and take it to thee: But Iacob wyst not that Rachel (q) had stolen them.

33 Then went Laban into Iacobs tent, and into Leas tent, and into the two maydseruaunts tentes: but found them not. Then went he out of Leas tent, and entred into Rachels tent:

34 And Rachel had taken the images, and put them in the camelles strawe, & sate downe vpon them: And Laban (r) tossed vp all ỹ tent, but found them not.

(f) So this superstition remayned in Jacobs house tyll after the destruction of Sichem.

36 And Jacob was wroth, and chode with Laban. Jacob also answered and sayd to him: What haue I trespassed? or what haue I offended thee, that thou doest sore pursue after me?

37 Thou hast tossed vp all my stuffe, and what hast thou founde of all thy housholde stuffe? put it here before thy brethren and my brethren, that they may iudge betwixt vs both.

38 Behold, this twentie yere haue I ben with thee, thy sheepe and thy goates (t) haue not ben barren, and the rammes of thy flocke haue I not eaten.

(t) This was gods benefite, yet bestowed vpon Laban for Jacobs sake: so Jacob counteth it his.

39 Whatsoeuer was torne [of beastes] I brought it not vnto thee, but made it good my selfe: of my hande diddest thou require it that was stolen by day or nyght.

40 I was in suche case, that by day the heate consumed me, and the frost by nyght, and my slepe departed from mine eyes.

41 Thus haue I ben twentie yere in thy house, and serued thee fourteene yeres for thy two daughters, and sixe yere for thy sheepe, and thou hast chaunged my rewarde ten tymes.

42 And except the God of my father, (u) the God of Abraham, and the feare of Isahac had ben with me, surely thou haddest sent me away nowe all emptie: but God beheilde my tribulation and the labour of my handes, and rebuked [thee] yesternyght.

(u) God would not haue the seruaunt defrauded of his iust rewarde, 43 And Laban answered and sayd vnto Jacob: these daughters are my daughters, and these chyldren are my chyldren, & these sheepe are my sheepe, and all that thou seest is myne: and what can I do this day vnto these my daughters, or vnto their chyldren which they haue borne?

(b) Beyng spitie in his conscience of his cuyll entreatyng of Jacob, he wil subtelly prouide for him selfe.

45 Then toke Jacob a stone, and set it vp on ende.

46 And Jacob sayde vnto his brethren: gather stones. And they toke stones, and made an heape: and they dyd eate there vpon the heape.

(y) He nowe condemneth the sinne of Polygamie, whereof he was afore the aucthour.

51 And Laban sayde moreouer to Jacob: beholde this heape, and this stone set vp on ende, Whiche I haue layde betwixt me and thee, 52 This heape be witnesse, and also this stone set vp on ende, that I wyll not come ouer this heape to thee, and thou shalt not come ouer this heape and this stone set vp on ende vnto me, to do any harme.

53 The God of Abraham, and the (3) God of Nachor, and the God of their father, be iudge betwixt vs. And Jacob (aa) sware by the feare of his father Isahac.

(3) This was a wicked fact, to ioyne his false gods with the true God, and to iudge the false to be the elder God.

(aa) Jacob wouldo not sweare so corruptly as Laban wouldo haue had him.

54 Then Jacob dyd sacrifice vpon the mounte, and called his brethren to eate bread: and they did eate bread, and taryed all nyght in the hyll.

55 And early in the morning Laban rose vp, and kyssed his sonnes and his daughters, and (bb) blessed them: and Laban departyng, went into his place agayne.

1 BVt Jacob went foorth on his iourney, and (a) the angelles of God came and met him.

(a) God wold certaynely perswade hym of his protectiõ, in the feare he was in of Esau.

2 And when Jacob saw them, he sayde: this is gods hoste, & called the name of the same place, (b) Mahanaim.

(b) That is, two armies or campes.

3 And Jacob sent messengers before him to Esau his brother, vnto the lande of Seir, the " fielde of Edom:

" Or, region.

4 And he commaunded them, saying: Thus shall ye speake to my (c) Lorde Esau, thy seruaunt Jacob sayeth thus: I haue ben a straunger with Laban, and haue stayed there vnto this time.

(c) By graunting to Esau this temporall dominion, he looseth not his spirituall benediction.

5 And haue oxen, asses, and sheepe, menseruauntes, and Womenseruauntes: and haue sent to shewe [it] my Lord, that I may finde grace in thy sight.

6 And the messengers came agayne to Jacob, saying: We came to thy brother Esau, and he commeth to meete thee, and hath foure hundred men with him.

7 But Jacob was greatly afrayde, and wist not whiche way to turne him selfe: and deuided the people that was with him, and the sheepe, and oxen, and camelles, into two companies:

8 And sayd, if Esau come to the one part and smite it, the other shall saue it selfe.

(d) Thus his faith ouercame his feare thus prayer is the Godly mans refuge in trouble.

9 And Jacob said agayne: (d) O God of my father Abraham, and God of my father Isahac, Lorde whiche saydest vnto me, returne vnto thy countrey, and to thy kinred, & I will do well with thee:

" I am lesse

10 I am " not worthy of the least of all the (e) mercyes and trueth whiche thou hast shewed vnto thyseruaunt: for with my staffe came I ouer this Jordane, & nowe haue I gotten two companies.

(e) All Gods benefites, come of mere benevolence and fauour.

11 Deliuer me from the hand of my brother Esau, for I feare hym, lest he will come and smyte me, [yea] (f) the mother with the chyldren.

(f) Proverbially speache, meaning to leaue nothing vnbridled.

12 Thou saydest, I will surely do thee good, and make thy seede as the sande of the sea, whiche can not be numbred for multitude.

13 And he taryed there that same nyght, and toke of that whiche came to hande, (g) a present for Esau his brother:

(g) Though he was certaynely perswaded of Gods helpe, yet he vseth suche meanes as he couldo, and committeth the successe to God.

14 Two hundred shee gotes, and twentie hee gotes, two hundred sheepe, & twentie rammes,

15 Thirtie milche camelles with theyr coltes, fourtie kine, and ten bulles, twentie shee asses, and ten foales:

16 And deliuered them into the handes of his seruauntes, euery droue by them selues, and sayde vnto his seruauntes: go foorth before me, and put a space betwixt droue and droue.

17 And he commaunded the formost, saying: If Esau my brother meete thee, and aske thee, saying, Whose art thou: and whyther goest thou: and whose are these [that go] before thee:

18 Thou shalt say, they be thy seruaunt Jacobs, and it is a present sent vnto my Lorde Esau, and beholde, he him selfe commeth after vs.

19 And so commaunded he the seconde, and the thirde, and all that followed the droues, saying: on this maner see that you speake vnto Esau when ye meete hym.

20 And say moreouer: beholde, thy seruaunt Jacob also commeth after vs: for he sayde, I will appease " his wrath with the (h) present that goeth before me, and afterward I will see him my selfe, peraduenture he will receaue " me to grace.

(h) Accepting and receauing of presentes, are not cupll. " My face.

21 So went the present before hym: and he taryed al that night in the company.

22 And he rose vp the same nyght, and toke his two wyues, & his two mayde seruauntes, and his eleuen sonnes, and went ouer the forde * Jaboc.

24 And Jacob was left hym selfe (i) alone: and there wrastled a man with hym, vnto the breakyng of the day.

(i) He sought a solitarie place for prayer: where god declared vnto hym that manye troubles remayned, yet he shuld ouercome all.

the hucklebone of Jacobs thigh loosed out of ioynt as he wrastled with him.

26 And he said: let me go, for the day breaketh. Whiche answered: I will not let thee go, except (1) thou blesse me.

27 And he sayde vnto hym: What is thy name? He answered: Jacob.

28 He sayde: thy name shalbe called no more Jacob, but "Israel: For as a prince hast thou wrasteled with God, and with men, and hast preuayled.

29 And Jacob asked him, saying: tell (m) me thy name. And he sayde: Wherefore doest thou aske after my name? And he blessed hym there.

30 And Jacob called the name of the place "Peniel: for I haue (n) seene God face to face, and my life is preserued.

31 And as he went ouer Peniel, the sunne rose vpon hym, and he halted vpon his thigh.

32 And therefore it is that the children of Israel eate not of the sinnowe that shranke in that place of the thigh, vnto this day: because that he touched the hucklebone of Jacobs thigh, about the sinnowe that shranke.

6 Then came the handmaydens forth, and their children, and dyd their obeysaunce.

11 Oh take my blessyng that is brought thee: (e) for God hath had mercy on me, and I haue inough. And so he compelled him, and he toke it, 12 And he saide: let vs take our iourney, and go, I wyll go before thee.
13 (f) Jacob answered him: my lord, thou knowest that the children are tender, and the small and great cattell with young vnder my handes, which if men should ouerdryue but euen one day, all the flocke wyll dye.
14 Oh let my Lorde go before his seruaunt, and I wyll dryue fayre and softly, according as the cattell that goeth before me, and the children be able to endure, vntill I come vnto my Lord vnto Seir.
15 And Esau sayd: I will leaue some of my folke with thee. And he answered: What needeth it? I shall finde grace in the sight of my Lorde.
16 So Esau went his way agayne that same day vnto Seir.
17 And Jacob toke his iourney towarde Suchoth, and buylt him an house, and made boothes for his cattell: and therefore is it, that the name of the place is called (g) Suchoth.
18 And Jacob came to Sale, a citie of Sichem, (h) whiche is in the lande of Chanaan, after that he was come from Mesopotamia, and pitched before the citie.

Here is set forth a very greeuous temptation, wherewith Jacob is moued.

1 The rauishing of Dina. 8 Hemor requireth Dina for a wyfe for his sonne. 11 The sonnes of Jacob do guylefully require the Sichemites to be circumcized. 20 The oration of Hemor to the people. 25 Simeon and Leui do murther the circumcized Sichemites. 30 They be blamed of Jacob their father.

A 1 DIna the daughter of Lea, whiche she bare vnto Jacob, went out (a) to see the daughters of the lande.
2 whom Whē Sichem the sonne of Hemor the Heuite Lorde of the countrey sawe, he toke her, & lay with her, and "forced her.
3 And his heart laye vnto Dina the daughter of Jacob, and he loued that damsell, and spake "kyndly vnto her.
4 And Sichem spake vnto his father Hemor, saying: get me this mayden vnto my wyfe.
5 And Jacob heard that he had defiled Dina his daughter, (his sonnes beyng with their cattell in the fielde) and Jacob (b) helde his peace vntill they were come.
6 And Hemor the father of Sichem, (c) went out vnto Jacob to common with hym.
7 And when the sonnes of Jacob (comming out of the fielde) hearde it, it greeued them, and they were not (d) a little wroth, because he had wrought folly in Israel, in that he had lien with Jacobs daughter, which thing ought not to be done.
8 And Hemor communed with them, saying: the soule of my sonne Sichem, longeth for your daughter, I pray you (e) geue her him to wyfe.
9 And make maryages with vs, and geue your daughters vnto vs, and take our daughters vnto you.
10 And ye shall dwell with vs, and the lande shalbe before you: dwell, and do your busines therein, and haue possessions therin.
11 And Sichem said, vnto her father and vnto her brethren: let me finde grace in your eyes, and whatsoeuer ye appoint me, that wyll I geue.
12 Aske freely of me both (f) dowry and gyftes, and I wyll geue according as ye say vnto me, so that ye geue me the damsell to wyfe.
13 But the sonnes of Jacob answered to Sichem and Hemor his father, talking amongest themselues deceiptfully, because because he had defiled Dina their sister.

14 And they sayde vnto them: We can not do this thing, that We shoulde geue our sister to one that is (g) vncircumcised, for that Were an abomination vnto vs.
15 But in this Will We consent vnto you: if ye Wyll be as We be, & all the " males amongest you be (h) circumcised:
16 Then Wyll We geue our daughters vnto you, and take your daughters to vs, and Will dWell With you, and be one people.
17 But and if ye Wyll not hearken vnto vs to be circumcised, then Wyll We take our daughter, and go our Wayes.
18 Their Wordes pleased Hemor, and Sichem his sonne.
19 And the young man deferde not for to do the thing, because he had a lust to Jacobs daughter: he Was also most set by, of all that Was in his fathers house.
20 Then Hemor and Sichem his sonne Went vnto the (i) gate of their citie, and communed With the men of their citie, saying:
21 These men (k) lyue peaceably among vs, and dWell in the lande, and do their occupation therein: and beholde, the lande is large inough for them, We Will take their daughters to Wiues, & geue them our daughters.
22 Only herein Will they consent vnto vs for to dWell With vs, and to be one people: if all the males that are among vs be circumcised, as they are circumcised:
23 Shall not their goodes and their substaunce, and all their cattell (l) be ours: let vs only consent vnto them, and they Will dWell With vs.
24 And vnto Hemor & Sichem his sonne, (m) hearkened all that Went out at the gate of his citie: and all the males Were circumcised, Whatsoeuer Went out at the gate of his citie.
25 And the thirde day, Whyles they were sore, two of the sonnes of Jacob, Simeon & Leui Dinas (n) brethren, toke eyther of them his Worde, and Went into the citie boldely, and slue all that Was male, 26 And slue also Hemor and (o) Sichem his sonne With the edge of the Worde, and toke Dina out of Sichems house, and Went their Way.
27 And the sonnes of Jacob commyng vpon " the dead, (p) spoyled the citie, because they had defiled their sister.
28 And toke their sheepe, oxen, and their asses, and Whatsoeuer Was in the citie, and also in the fieldes.
29 And (q) all their goodes, and all their children, and their Wiues, toke they captiue, and made hauocke of all that Was in the house.
30 But Jacob sayde to Simeon & Leui: ye haue troubled me, and made me " to be abhorred of the inhabitours of the land of the Chanaanite and the Pherezite: and I beyng fewe in number, they shall gather thē selues together against me, and slay me, and so shall I and my house be destroyed.
31 And they answered: shoulde (r) he deale With our sister, as With an harlot?

¶ The. xxxv. Chapter.

1 God commaundeth Jacob to go vp into Bethel, and to buylde an aulter. 2 Jacob commaundeth the idols to be taken away. 5 God putteth Jacobs enemies in feare. 6 Jacob commeth into Bethel. 7 The house of God. 8 Debora dyeth. 10 God nameth Jacob Israel agayne. 12 Chanaan is promised hym agayne. 15 Bethel. 16 Rachel bringing forth Beniamin, dyeth. 19 Ephratha. 21 The graue of Rachel. 22 Ruben lyeth With his fathers concubine. 23 The sonnes of Jacob. 27 Jacob commeth to Isahac. 29 Isahac dyeth.

A 1 AND (a) God sayd vnto Jacob: aryse, and get thee vp to Bethel, and dWell there, and make there an aulter vnto God that appeared vnto thee When thou fleddest from the face of Esau thy brother.
2 Then sayde Jacob vnto his householde, and to all that Were With hym: put away the straunge gods that are among you, and be cleane, and chaunge your garmentes.

(a) God Wyll continually procure & health of his Churche, as he doth Jacobs in this miserable case.
(b) He exhorteth his household to repentaunce, and outwarde professyng of the same.

3 For we wyll aryse and go vp to Bethel, and I wyll make an aulter there vnto God, whiche hearde me in the day of my affliction, and was with me in the way whiche I went.

4 And they gaue vnto Jacob all the (c) straunge gods whiche they had in their hand, and al their earinges which were in theyr eares, and Jacob hyd them vnder an oke whiche was by Sichem.

5 And when they departed, the feare of God fel vpon the cities that were round about them, and they did not pursue the sonnes of Jacob.

6 So came Jacob to Luz, whiche is in the lande of Chanaan (the same is Bethel) he and all the people that was with him.

7 And he (d) builded there an aulter, and called the place, the God of Bethel, because that god appeared vnto him there when he fled frō the face of his brother.

8 But Debora Rebeccas nurse died, and was buryed beneath Bethel vnder an oke: and the name of it was called, the "oke of lamentation.

9 And God appeared vnto Jacob agayne, after he came out of Mesopotamia, and (e) blessed him.

10 And God sayd vnto him: thy name is Jacob, notwithstanding thou shalt be no more called Jacob, but Israel shalbe thy name: & he called his name Israel.

11 And God sayd vnto him: I am God almightie, be fruitefull and multiplie: a nation, and (f) a multitude of nations shall spring of thee, yea and kinges shall come out of thy loynes.

12 And the lande which I (g) gaue Abraham and Isahac, wil I geue vnto thee, and vnto thy seede after thee wyll I geue that lande also.

13 And so God departed from him, in the place where he had talked with him.

14 And Jacob set vp on ende in the place where he talked with him [euen] a stone set he vp on ende, & powred drinke offering theron, & powred also oyle theron.

15 And Jacob called the name of the place where God spake with hym, (h) Bethel.

16 And they departed from Bethel: and when he was but a fielde breadth from "Ephrath, Rachel began to trauell, and in trauayling, she was in perill:

17 And as she was in paynes of her labour, the midwife saide vnto her: feare not, for this sonne is thyne also.

18 Then as her soule was a departing (i) (for she died) she called his name "Benoni, but his father called hym "Beniamin.

19 And thus died Rachel, and was buried in the way to Ephrath, whiche is Beth-lehem.

20 And Jacob (k) set vp a stone on ende vpon her graue: whiche is called Rachels grauestone vnto this day.

21 And Israel went thence, and pitched his tent beyonde the towre of Eder.

22 And as Israel dwelt in that land, Ruben went and (l) lay with Bilha his fathers concubine: And it came to Israels eare. The sonnes of Jacob were twelue in number.

23 The sonnes of Lea: Ruben Jacobs first borne sonne, and Simeon, & Leui, and Juda, and Isachar, and Zabulon.

24 The sonnes of Rachel: Joseph and Beniamin.

25 And the sonnes of Bilha Rachels handmayde: Dan and Nephthali.

26 And the sonnes of Zilpha Leas handmayde: Gad and Aser: These are the sonnes of Jacob which were borne him in Mesopotamia.

27 And so Jacob came (m) vnto Isahac his father to Mamre, vnto Ciriath-arba, (n) whiche is Hebron, where Abraham and Isahac dwelt.

28 And the dayes of Isahac were an hundred and fourescore yeres.

29 And Isahac decayed away, and dyed, and was layde vnto his people, beyng olde and full of dayes: and his sonnes Esau and Jacob buryed him.

(g) Gods promise is as certayne as ỹ thyng that is done alredie.

God performeth his worldy promise which he made by his minister Isahac to Esau: but all this glorie beyng out of ỹ kyngdome of God, commeth to naught.

5 Moreouer, when Joseph (e) had dreamed a dreame, he tolde it his brethren, which hated hym yet the more.
(e) The dreames that came frō god, had singuler notes whereby they were discerned from other.

B 6 And he said vnto them: Heare I pray you this (f) dreame which I haue dreamed.

(f) Moyses woulde shewe howe none of these thynges came by chaunce.

7 Beholde, we were byndyng sheaues in the fielde: and lo, my sheafe arose and stoode vpright, & beholde, your sheaues stoode rounde about, and made obeysaunce to my sheafe.

8 To whom his brethren sayde: Shalt thou be a kyng in deede on vs? or shalt thou in deede haue dominion ouer vs? (g) And they hated hym yet the more, because of his dreames and of his wordes.

(g) Gods graces to the godly are an occasion that the wicked hate them.

9 And he dreamed yet another dreame, and tolde it his brethren, saying: behold I haue had one dreame more, and beholde, the sunne, and the moone, & xi. starres made obeysaunce to me.

10 And when he had tolde it to his father and his brethren, his father rebuked hym, and sayde vnto him: what is this dreame that thou hast dreamed? Shall (h) I and thy mother and thy brethren in deede come to bowe to thee?

(h) By the chiefe of the familie, the whole is meant. Not that euery one shoulde do thus: for his mother was dead.

11 And his brethren enuied hym: but his father noted the saying.

12 His brethren also went to kepe his fathers cattell in Sichem.

13 And (i) Israel sayde vnto Ioseph: do not thy brethren kepe in Sichem? come, and I wyll sende thee to them.

16 He aunswered: I seke my (k) brethren, tell me I praye thee where they kepe [cattell]

17 And the man sayde, They are departed hence: for I haue hearde them say, let vs go vnto Dothan. Thus went Ioseph after his brethren, and founde them in Dothan.

22 And Ruben sayde moreouer vnto them: shed no blood [but] cast hym into this pit that is in the wyldernesse, and laye no hande vppon hym: [this he sayde] namely that he myght ryd hym out of their handes, and delyuer hym to his father agayne.

23 And when Ioseph was come vnto his brethren, they strypt hym out of his coate, his partie coloured coate that was vpon hym.

24 And they toke hym, and (o) cast hym into an emptie pit, wherein was no water.

(o) This was worse then murther before God: though it was openly done.

25 And they sate (p) them downe to eate bread: and as they lyft vp their eyes and loked about, and behold there came a company of Ismaelites from Gilead, and their camelles laden with spicerie, bawme, and mirrhe, and were goyng downe ta cary it to Egypt.

(p) They were vnsensible without any sence or conscience of sinne.

26 And Iuda sayde vnto his brethren: what (q) auayleth it yf we slay our brother, and kepe his blood secrete?

(q) Thus shoulde all sinners say, what commoditie doth sinne bryng?

27 Come on, and let vs sell hym to the Ismaelites, and let not our hande be vpon him: for he is our brother and our flesshe. And his brethren were content.

E 28 Then as the (r) Madianites marchaunt men passed by, they drewe and lyft Ioseph out of the pit, and solde him vnto the Ismaelites for twentie peeces of syluer. And they brought Ioseph into Egypt.

(r) These marchauntmē of the Ismaelites & Madianites were ioyned together in marchaundyse.

30 And went agayne vnto his brethren, saying: the lad is not [yonder] wo is me, whyther shall I go?

31 And they toke Iosephes coate, and kylled a kyd, and dipped the coate in the blood.

32 And they sent that partie coloured coate, and caused it to be brought vnto their father, and sayde: (s) This haue we founde, see whether it be thy sonnes coate, or no.

35 But all (b) his sonnes & all his daughters rose vp to comfort hym: neuertheless (g) he woulde not be comforted, but sayde, I wyll go downe into the graue vnto my sonne, mournyng: And thus his father wept for hym.

1 Joseph is sold to Putiphar. 2 God is with Joseph. 5 God blesseth Putiphar for Josephs sake. 8 Joseph denyeth whordome vnto his Lady his mistresse. 14 Joseph accused of whordome of his Lady, is imprisoned. 21 God taketh compassion vpon Joseph.

A 1 Oseph was brought vnto Egypt, and Putiphar, a Lorde of Pharaos, and his chiefe steward, an Egyptian, bought hym of the Ismaelites, whiche had brought hym thyther.

2 And God was with Joseph, and he became a (a) luckie man, continuyng in the house of his maister the Egyptian.

(f) The more benefite the godly receaue, the lesse will they be deceyt.

(g) Adultery and vnthankfulnesse, bothe great sinnes before God.

10 And after this maner spake she to Joseph day by day: but he hearkened not vnto her to sleepe (h) neare her, or to be in her company.

(h) The good auoydeth the occasion of sinne.

11 And on a certaine conuenient day, Joseph entred into the house to do his businesse, and there was none of the houshold by, in the house.

17 And she tolde him with these wordes, saying: This Hebrue seruaunt whiche thou hast brought vnto vs, came vnto me to do me shame.

1 AND it came to passe after these "thynges, that (a) the butler of ye king of Egypt and his baker, had offended their lorde the kyng of Egypt.

(a) These were two noble men, that were chiefe in their offices.

2 And Pharao was angry agaynst his two officers, agaynst the chiefe butler and the chiefe baker.

3 And put them in warde in his chiefe stewardes house, euen in the prison and place where Joseph was bounde.

(b) Josephes maister beliue after better aduisement, was reconciled to hym.

4 And the (b) chiefe steward gaue Joseph a charge with them, & he serued them: and they continued a season in warde.

5 And they dreamed eyther of them in one night, both the butler and the baker of the kyng of Egypt, whiche were bounde in the prison house, eyther of them his dreame, & eche mans dreame of a sundry interpretation.

B 6 When Ioseph came in vnto them in the morning, and (c) loked vpon them, beholde they were sadde.

(c) Prisoners are not lightly to be loked vpon and considered.

7 And he asked Pharaos chiefe officers that were with hym in his maisters warde, saying: Wherfore loke ye so sadly to day?

8 They answered him: We haue dreamed a dreame, and haue no man to declare it. And Ioseph sayde vnto them: do not (d) interpretinges belong to God? tell me I pray you.

(d) Astrologers and witches are condempned.

9 And the chiefe butler tolde his dreame to Ioseph, and saide vnto him: In my dreame, me thought there stoode a vine before me,

10 And in the vine [were] three braunches, and it was as though it budded, & her blossomes shot forth: and the clusters therof brought forth ripe grapes.

11 And I had Pharaos cup in my hand, and toke of the grapes and pressed them in Pharaos cuppe, and deliuered Pharaos (e) cuppe into his hande.

(e) Some thinke that the kyng prouided this way, what maner wyne shoulde be that pere.

12 And Ioseph sayde vnto hym, this is the interpretatiō of it. The three braunches (f) are three dayes.

(f) That is, signifie: such maner speaches are often in Moyses in the next chapter, and otherwhere.

13 For within three dayes shall Pharao " lyft (g) vp thine head, and restore thee into thine office agayne, and thou shalt deliuer Pharaos cup into his hande after the olde maner when thou wast his butler.

" Or, number.

(g) That is, take thee out of prison.

14 But (h) thynke on me when thou art in good case, and shewe mercy [I praye thee] vnto me, and make mention of me to Pharao, & bring me out of this house:

(h) It was not vnlawful, for his paines to desire this kyndenesse agayne.

15 For I was priuily by stealth taken away out of the lande of the Hebrewes: and here also haue I done nothyng at all wherfore they shoulde haue put me into this dungeon.

C 16 When the chiefe baker sawe that the interpretatiō was (i) good, he sayd vnto Ioseph: me thought also in my dreame that I had three " whyte wycker baskettes on my head, (k) Teachers must speake as God hath reuealed, both sowre & sweet thynges, and that boldely.

18 And (k) Ioseph answered and saide: this is the interpretation thereof. The three baskettes, are three dayes: For within three dayes shall Pharao take thy head from thee, and shall hang thee on a tree, and the birdes shall eate thy flesh from of thee.

D 19 And it came to passe the thirde day, which was Pharaos birth day, that he made a feast vnto all his seruaunte: and he " lyfted vp the head of the chiefe butler, and of the chiefe baker among his seruauntes:

" Or, taken.

20 And restored the chiefe butler vnto his butlership agayne, whiche also reached the cuppe into Pharaos hande.

21 But he hanged the chiefe baker, euen as Ioseph (l) had interpreted vnto him.

(l) The Ioseph was prouided a true prophete of God, as it is Psal. cxlvij.

22 Neither dyd the chiefe butler (m) remember Ioseph, but (n) forgat hym.

2 And there came out of the ryuer seuen goodly kyne, and fat fleshed, and fedde in a medowe.

3 And seuen other kyne came vp after them out of the ryuer, euyll fauoured, and leane fleshed, & stoode by the other kyne vpon the brynke of the ryuer.

6 And agayne, seuen thinne eares, blasted with the east winde sprang vp after them.

7 And the seuen thinne eares deuoured the seuen ranke & full eares. And Pharao awaked, and see [it was] a dreame.

8 And when the morning came, his spirite was troubled, and he sent and called for all the southsayers of Egypt, and all the wyse men thereof: and Pharao tolde them his dreame, but there was (c) none of them that coulde interprete it vnto Pharao.

(c) He was worthye to be forgotten, who knowing his dreame to be of God, sought so vaine scholemasters.

9 Thē spake the chiefe butler vnto Pharao, saying: I do remember my faultes this day:

10 Pharao beyng angry with his seruauntes, put in Warde in the chiefe stewardes house both me, and the chiefe baker.

11 And we dreamed both of vs in one nyght, and eche mans dreame of a sundry interpretation.

(d) This had been thanke worthie, yf it had not been for feare another shoulde haue tolde it.

12 And there was with vs (d) a young man, an Hebrue borne, seruaunt vnto the chiefe stewarde: to whom when we tolde them, he declared our dreames to vs, accordyng to eyther of our dreames.

13 And as he declared them to vs, euen so it came to passe: For he restored me to myne office agayne, and hanged hym.

14 Pharao (e) sent therfore and called Ioseph: and they brought him hastyly out of the dungeon. And he shaued himselfe and chaunged his rayment, and came vnto Pharao.

(e) Whō men contempne in prosperitie, hym they are glad to heare in aduersitie.

15 And Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph: I haue dreamed a dreame, & no man can interprete it: & I haue heard say of thee that assoone as thou hearest a dreame, thou canst interprete it. ℂ

16 Ioseph aunswered Pharao, saying: "Not I, (f) but God shall geue Pharao an aunswere of peace.

" Or, without me.

(f) He geueth all the glorie to God, yet denyeth not his ministerie.

17 And Pharao sayde vnto Ioseph: In my dreame me thought I stoode by a ryuers syde, 18 And there came out of the ryuer seuen fat fleshed and well fauoured kyne, and fedde in a medowe.

19 And then seuen other kyne came out after them, poore, and very yll fauoured and leane fleshed, such as I neuer saw in all the lande of Egypt, they were so "yll fauoured.

" Or, so leane.

20 And the seuen leane and yll fauoured kyne, did eate vp the first seuen fat kine:

21 And when they had "eaten them vp, a man coulde not perceaue that they had eaten them, but they were styll yll fauoured as they were at the begynnyng: and I awoke.

" Come into the inwarde parts of them.

22 And I saw againe in my dreame, and beholde, seuen eares sprang out of one stalke, full and fayre.

" Or, small. 23 And beholde, seuen eares agayne "withered, thinne, and blasted with the east wynde, sprang vp after them.

24 And the thinne eares deuoured the seuen good eares: and I haue tolde the southsayers, but there was no man that coulde tell what it meaneth.

25 And Joseph aunswered Pharao: [both] Pharaos dreames are (g) one, God hath shewed Pharao what (h) he is about to do.

(g) In signification and meanyng.
(h) God doth not only foresee thynges to come, but also doth rule the same: thus Joseph would begyn to teach Pharao some godlynesse.

26 The seuen good kyne, are seuen yeres, and the seuen good eares are seuē yeres also: and it is but one dreame.

27 Lykewyse the seuen thinne and euyll fauoured kine that came vp after them, are seuen yeres, and the seuen emptie & blasted eares with the east wynde, shalbe seuen yeres of famine.

28 This worde which I haue sayde vnto Pharao, is it that (i) God is about to do, and sheweth it vnto Pharao.

(i) Lest Pharao shoulde thinke any thyng of his idols: or that God is only a beholder of the worlde, and not a doer.

29 Beholde there come seuen yeres of great plenteousnes throughout all the lande of Egypt.

30 And agayne, there shall arise after them seuen yeres (k) of famine, and all the plenteousnes shalbe forgotten in the lande of Egypt: and the famine shall consume the lande.

(k) God is merciful euer, euen in his punishmentes.

31 Neither shall the plenteousnes be knowen in the lande, by reason of that famine that [shall come] after: for it shalbe exceedyng great.

32 And as concernyng that the dreame was doubled vnto Pharao the seconde tyme: beholde, the thyng is certainly prepared of God, and God wyll (l) shortly bryng it to passe.

(l) We are very negligēt in gods iudgmentes, yf we remember not that the tyme is at hande.

33 Nowe therfore (m) let Pharao prouide for a man of vnderstandyng, and Wisedome, & set him ouer the land of Egypt.

(m) Gods true prophetes tell remedies for the punishmentes that God wyll sende.

34 And let Pharao do this also, that he make "officers ouer the lande, & take vp the fift part of the inheritaunce in ỹ land of Egypt in the seuen plenteous yeres.

" Visitours or ouerseers

35 And (n) let them gather all the foode of these good yeres that come: and laye vp corne vnder the hande of Pharao, and let them kepe foode in the cities.

(n) For in plentie, there is much spoile and waste, and Gods blessinges are abused.

36 And so shall that foode be for store in the lande agaynst the seuen yeres of famine, Which shall come in the lande of Egypt, that ỹ lande perishe not through famine.

37 And the saying seemed good in ỹ eyes of Pharao, and in the eyes of all his seruauntes.

38 Then saide Pharao vnto his seruauntes: May there be founde a man suche as this is, (o) in whom the spirite of God is?

(o) Suche gyftes of God ought to be loked for in them ỹ should be placed in office.

39 And Pharao saide vnto Joseph: Forasmuch as (p) God hath shewed thee all this, there is no man of vnderstandyng or of wisedome lyke vnto thee.

(p) Though he speake of God & prayse his gyftes, yet he yeldeth not hym selfe to hym altogether.

40 Thou therfore shalt be ouer my house, and accordyng to thy worde shall all my people be "ruled: only in the [kynges] seate wyll I be aboue thee.

" Armed or fedde.

41 And Pharao sayde agayne vnto Joseph: beholde, I haue set thee ouer all the lande of Egypt.

42 And Pharao toke of his (q) ryng from his hande, and put it vpon Josephes hande: & arayed him in cloth of raynes, & put a golden cheyne about his necke.

(q) In such pompes, pride & daintie must be auoyded. For the godly may vse such honor, though he greedely seke not after them.

43 And set hym vpon the best charet he had saue one: and they cried before him, (r) tender father, and made hym ruler ouer all the lande of Egypt.

" The seconde.
(r) This word Abrech, semeth rather to be an Egyptian word then an Hebrue: it is as much also in Hebrue, as bowe ỹ knee.

44 And moreouer Pharao said vnto Joseph: (s) I am Pharao, and without thee shal no man (t) lyft vp his hande or foote in all the lande of Egypt.

(s) As yf he saide: as true as I am king: or by my matchle.
(t) That is, do no publike ouerte.

45 And Pharao called Josephes name "Zaphnath Paaneach, & he gaue hym to (u) wyfe Asnath the daughter of Potipherah "priest of On. Then went Joseph ouer the lande of Egypt.

" A man to whom secretes are reuealed.

46 (And he was (x) thirtie yere olde when he stoode before Pharao king of Egypt) And Joseph departyng from the presence of Pharao, (p) went throughout all the lande of Egypt.

(u) Beyng in a straunge land farre of, he coulde not haue a wyfe from his owne kinrede.
" Or, Prince.
(x) So God gaue hym special grace to beare 13. yeres straitude: and that he a poore man shoulde rule without great enuie.
(p) He toke great paynes in his office hym selfe, whe he might haue done it by other.

47 And in the seuen plenteous yeres, the earth brought foorth great store for to lay vp.

48 And he gathered vp all the foode of the seuen plenteous yeres which were in the lande of Egypt, and layed vp the foode in the cities: the foode of the fieldes that grew rounde about euery citie, layed he vp in the same.

49 And Joseph (3) layed vp corne in store lyke vnto the sande of the sea, in multitude out of measure, vntyll he left numbryng: for it was without number.

(3) I singular care of the cōmon wealth and very busyne diligence appeareth in Joseph.

50 And vnto Joseph were borne two sonnes before the yeres of famine came: which (aa) Asnath the daughter of Potipherah priest of On, bare vnto hym.

(aa) She was not base olde maisters daughter: as the writyng of the name doth declare.

51 And

51 And Joseph called the name of the first sonne, "Manasse: for God [sayde he] hath made me forget al my labour, and all my fathers housholde.

" That is, forgetfulnesse.

52 The name of the seconde called he " Ephraim, for (bb) God [sayd he] hath caused me to be fruitefull in the lande of my trouble.

" That is, increasinges

(bb) This thankfulnesse towards god, he testifieth by his sonnes names.

53 And when the seuen yeres of plenteousnesse that was in the land of Egypt, were ended, 54 Then came the seuen yeres of dearth, according as Joseph had sayde, and the dearth was in all landes: but in all the lande of Egypt, was there yet foode.

55 And when the lande of Egypt also began to hunger, the people cryed to (cc) Pharao for bread. And Pharao sayde vnto al the Egyptians, go vnto Joseph: and what he sayeth to you, that do.

(cc) The Prince should be as a comon nurse of his people.

56 And the dearth was throughout all the lande: and Joseph opened all the barnes wherein was corne, and solde vnto the Egyptians: for the famine waxed sore in the lande of Egypt.

57 And all countreys came into Egypt to Joseph, for to bye [corne] because that the famine was so sore in all landes.

¶ The. xlij. Chapter.

1 Jacob sendeth his sonnes into Egypt to bye foode. 7 Joseph agnised his brethren. 9 They are tempted of him. 17 They be thrust into prison. 21 The brethren of Joseph do submit them selues, as knowledging their offences. 24 Joseph weepeth, Simeon is committed to warde. 29 They returne to their father, to fetch Beniamin. 35 They finde money in the mouth of their sackes. 38 Jacob wyll not deliuer Beniamin.

A " Breakyng

1 AND Jacob seing that there was " corne in Egypt, sayde vnto his sonnes: Why gape ye one vpon another?

2 And he said: behold, I haue heard that there is corne in Egypt: get you downe thyther, and bye vs corne from thence, that we may liue, and not dye.

3 So went Josephes ten brethren downe to bye corne in Egypt.

4 But Beniamin Josephes brother, would not Jacob sende with his other brethren: for he saide, lest peraduenture destruction come vpon hym.

5 And the sonnes of Israel came to bye corne among other that came: for there was dearth in the lande of Chanaan.

(a) Moyses openeth together Josephes honour & his diligence in doing his duetie.

6 And Joseph was (a) gouernour in the lande, and solde to all the people of the lande. And Josephes brethren came and (b) bowed them selues with their faces downe to the grounde before him.

(b) Not knowyng, fulfyl the prophecies of God. Gen. xxxvii.

7 When Joseph sawe his brethren, he knewe them, and made (c) hym selfe straunge vnto them, & spake (d) roughly vnto them, saying: Whence come ye? They answered, out of the lande of Chanaan to bye vitayle.

(c) This dissimulation we must not take for an example

(d) Not of anger, nor of mynde to reuenge: but for their trial and repentaunce.

D

8 And Joseph knewe his brethren, but they knewe not him.

9 And Joseph remembred his dreames whiche he dreamed of them, and sayde vnto them: ye are (e) spyes, and to see where the lande is " weake, is your commyng.

(e) The Egyptians commonlye called ♀ Philistines thenes: for they lyued much by spoyle and warre.

10 And they sayde vnto hym: nay my Lord, but to bye vitayle thy seruauntes are come.

" The secretes of the lande.

11 We are all one mans sonnes, and " meane truely, and thy seruauntes are no spyes.

" Are true.

12 And he sayde vnto them agayne: nay but (f) euen to see where the lande is weake, is your comming.

(f) Great men thinke it sufficient for thē to affirme a thyng without addyng any reason.

13 And they said: We thy seruauntes are twelue brethren, the sonnes of one man in the lande of Chanaan, and beholde, the youngest is this day with our father, & one, no man woteth where he is.

14 And Joseph saide vnto them: (g) that is it that I spake vnto you when I sayd, ye are spyes.

(g) Because of the absence of two of the brethren, it was suspicious.

15 Hereby ye shalbe proued: [by] the lyfe (h) of Pharao, ye shall not go hence, except your youngest brother come hither.

(h) It was heard in so corrupt a court and countrey, to be altogether vndefiled

16 Sende out one of you, whiche may fet your brother, and ye shalbe kept in prison, that your wordes may be proued whether there be any trueth in you: or els [by] the (i) lyfe of Pharao, ye are but spyes.

(i) Custome maketh small faultes not to be thought vpon.

17 And he put them altogether in warde three dayes.

18 And Joseph said vnto them the thirde day: this do & liue, [for] I (k) feare God.

D

(k) The feare of God, is the beginnyng of a faythful and sincere dealing 19 If ye be true men, let one of your brethren be bonde in the house of your prison: and go ye, carry corne to put away the famine from your housholde.

20 But bryng your youngest brother vnto to me, and so shal your wordes be tryed true, and ye shall not dye: & they dyd so.

21 And one sayde to another: We haue verely (m) sinned agaynst our brother, in that we sawe the anguishe of his soule, when he besought vs, and we would not heare him: and therfore is this (n) trouble come vpon vs.

(m) Affliction brought them to the conscience of their sinne, done. 13. yeres before.
(n) Sinne is the cause of affliction.

22 And Ruben aunswered them, saying: sayd I not vnto you, that you shoulde not sinne against the lad, and ye would not heare: and see, nowe his blood is required.

23 They were not aware that Joseph vnderstoode them: for he spake vnto them by an interpreter.

24 And he turned from them and wept: and turned to them agayne, and communed with them, and toke out Simeon from amongest them, and (o) bounde him before their eyes.

(o) This was not of malice, but because he would be surely certified of ỹ state of his fathers house, and of Beniamin.

25 And Joseph commaunded to fill their sackes with corne, & to put euery mans money in his sacke, and to geue them vitayle to spende by the way: and thus dyd he vnto them.

26 And they laded their asses with the corne, and departed thence.

27 And as one of them opened his sacke for to geue his asse prouender in the (p) Inne, he espied his money, for it was in his sackes mouth.

(p) The Hebrue worde signifieth a place where one abideth all nyght.

28 And he said vnto his brethren, my money is restored me agayne, for lo, it is euen in my sacke. And their heart " fayled them, and they were astonyed, and sayd one to another, why hath (q) God dealt thus with vs?

" Went foorth.

(q) He that hath cõscience of sinne, seeth that affliction commeth from God.

29 And they came vnto Jacob their father, vnto the lande of Chanaan, & tolde him all that befell vnto them, saying:

30 The man, euen the Lord of the lande, spake roughly to vs, and toke vs for spyes of the countrey.

31 And (r) we sayd vnto him: We meane truely, We neuer were spyes.

(r) They tell here, no more thẽ they thought made for their owne honestie and fame.

32 We be twelue brethren, sonnes of our father: one is away, and the youngest is this day with our father in the lande of Chanaan.

33 And the Lorde of the countrey sayde agayne vnto vs, Hereby shall I know that ye meane truely: leaue one of your brethren here with me, and take [foode] to put away the famine frõ your householdes, and get you away.

34 And bring your youngest brother vnto me, that I may knowe that you are no spyes, but meane truely: so wyll I deliuer you your brother, and ye shall occupie in the lande.

35 And as they emptied their sackes, beholde, euery mans bundell of money was in his sacke: And when both they and their (t) father sawe the bundelles of money, they were afrayde.

F

(t) Joseph meant not to grieue his father: yet so wyse mens dedes ende otherwise then they minded.

36 And Jacob their father sayde vnto them: (t) Me haue ye robbed of my children, Joseph is away, and Simeon is away, & ye will take Beniamin away: all these thinges are agaynst me.

(t) He was also tempted with the decay of Gods promise, whiche shoulde continue in his seede, that nowe dayly decayed.

37 Ruben said vnto his father: (v) slay my two sonnes, yf I bring hym not to thee agayne: deliuer him to my hande, and I will bring him to thee agayne.

(v) Not that he thought his father myght do so lawfully: but that he would take away his fathers suspicion.

38 And he said: My sonne shall (x) not go downe with you, for his brother is dead, and he is left alone: if destruction come vpon hym by the way whiche ye go, ye shall bring my gray head with sorowe vnto the graue.

(x) Affection blyndeth him, that he yet seeth not what is best to be done.

¶ The. xliij. Chapter.

1 The brethren of Joseph are sent backe with Beniamin, and gyftes. 6 The troubles of Jacob. 16 Joseph commaundeth a banket to be made redy for his brethren in his house. 23 Simeon is brought out of prison. 24 The feete of Josephs brethren be washed. 30 Joseph weepeth. 32 His brethren do eate with him. It is vnlawfull for the Egyptians to eate with the Hebrewes.

A 1 AND the dearth was great in the lande.

2 And it came to passe (a) when they had eaten vp the corne which they had brought out of the lande of Egypt, their father sayde vnto them: go agayne [and] bye vs a litle foode.

(a) This was in ỹ ende of the seconde yere of dearth

3 Juda aunswered him, and sayd, The man did solemply protest vnto vs saying: ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

4 If thou wylt sende our brother with vs, we wyll go downe, and bye thee foode.

5 But

5 But yf thou wylt not sende hym, we wyll not go downe: for the man sayde vnto vs, (b) ye shall not see my face, except your brother be with you.

6 And Israel sayd: wherefore dealt ye so cruelly with (c) me, as to tell the man that ye had yet a brother?

7 They aunswered, The man asked vs straytely of "our [state] and of our kinrede, saying: Is your father yet alive? haue ye [not another] brother? And we tolde hym accordyng to the "tenour of these wordes: Could we by any meane knowe, that he would say, bryng your brother downe with you?

8 The sayd Juda vnto Israel his father: sende the lad with me, that we may arise and go, and that we may liue, & not dye, yea both we & thou, & also our "meany.

9 (d) I wylbe suretie for hym, of my handes shalt thou require hym: yf I bryng hym not to thee agayne, and set him before thine eyes, then let me beare the blame for euer.

10 Truely except we had made this tarying, by this we had returned the seconde tyme.

11 And their father Israel sayde vnto them: if it must nedes be so, nowe then do thus. Take of the "best fruites of the lande in your vesselles, and bryng ỹ man (e) a present, a curtsie of bawme, and a curtsie of hony, spyces and mirre, nuttes and almondes.

12 And take double (f) money in your hande, & the money that was brought agayne in your sackes, take it agayne with you, peraduenture it was some ouersight.

13 Take also your brother with you, and arise and go agayne vnto the man.

14 And (g) God almightie geue you mercye in the sight of the man, that he may deliuer you your other brother, & [this] Beniamin: and thus I am as one that is quite robbed of his chyldren.

15 Thus toke they the present, and twyse so muche more money in their hande, with Beniamin, and rose vp, and went downe to Egypt, & stode before Joseph.

16 When Joseph sawe Beniamin with them, he sayd to the ruler of his house: bryng these men home, and slay, and make redy, for these men shall "dyne with me at noone.

17 And the man did as Joseph bad, and brought them into Josephes house.

18 When the men were brought into Josephes house, (h) they were afrayde, and said: because of the money that came in our sackes mouthes at the first tyme, are we brought in, that he may "seeke occasion agaynst vs, and violently lay handes vpon vs, to bryng vs in bondage, and our asses also.

19 Therefore came they to the man that was the ruler ouer Josephes house, and communed with him at the doore of the house, 20 And sayde: oh sir, (i) we came downe hyther at the fyrst tyme to bye foode.

21 And as we came to an Inne, we opened our sackes, and behold, euery mans money was in the mouth of his sacke, [euen] our money in ful wayght, and we haue brought it againe in our hande.

22 And other money haue we brought also in our handes to bye foode: but we can not tell who put our money in our sackes.

23 And he sayd: peace be vnto you, feare not: your (k) God, and the God of your father, hath geuen you that treasure in your sackes: I had your money. And he brought Simeon out to them.

24 And the man led them into Josephes house, and gaue them water to washe their feete, & gaue their asses prouender.

25 And they made redy their present against Joseph came at noone: for they hearde [say] that they should eate bread there.

26 When Joseph came home, they brought the present into the house to hym, whiche was in their handes, and bowed them selues to the grounde before him.

27 And he asked them of their "welfare, and sayd: Is your father, that old man whiche ye tolde me of, in good health? and is he yet aliue?

28 They aunswered: Thy seruaunt our father is in good health, & is yet alyue. And they (l) bowing them selues, made their obeysaunce.

29 And he lifting vp his eyes, beheld his brother Beniamin his mothers sonne, and sayd: is this your younger brother of whom ye spake vnto me? And he said: God be (m) mercyfull vnto thee my sonne.

¶ The .xliiij. Chapter.

1 Joseph commaundeth his cuppe to be put in the sacke of Beniamin. 4 The cuppe is attached in the sacke of Beniamin. 13 Joseph accuseth his brethren of theft. 18 The oration of Judas vnto Joseph.

A 1 AND he commaunded the ruler of his house, saying: fill the mens sackes with foode, as much as they can cary, & put euery mans money in his sackes mouth:

(a) Simplicitie in dealyng is cõmaunded to euery man: there such examples are not to be followed, whiche were done vpon some singuler motion of God.

2 And put (a) my cup, my siluer cup in the sackes mouth of the youngest, and his corne money also. And he did according to the worde that Joseph had sayde.

3 And in the morning assoone as it was lyght, the men were let go, they, and their asses.

4 And when they were out of the citie, and not yet farre away, Joseph sayde vnto the ruler of his house: vp, and followe after the men, & when thou doest ouertake them, thou shalt say vnto them: Wherfore haue ye rewarded euyl for good?

5 Is not that the cuppe in the whiche my Lord drinketh? and "for the which he (b) consulteth with the prophecters? Ye haue euill done that ye haue done.

"In the which he prophecieth.

(b) He went not to the cunsurers for any matter: but this is sayde by dissimulatiõ, to increase the enuie.

6 And when he ouertoke them, he sayd the same wordes vnto them.

7 And they aunswered him: (c) Wherfore sayeth my Lorde suche wordes? God forbid that thy seruauntes should do so.

(c) A good cõscience maketh thẽ bolde to excuse them selues.

8 Beholde the money which we founde in our sackes mouthes, we brought agayne vnto thee, out of the land of Chanaan: howe then shoulde we steale out of thy Lordes house eyther siluer or golde?

B

9 With whomsoeuer of thy seruauntes it be founde, (d) let him dye, and we also wyll be my Lordes bondmen.

(d) Men should be discrete & wyse, in defendyng their innocencie.

10 And he said, Nowe also let it be according vnto your wordes: he with whom it is founde, shalbe my seruaunt, and ye shalbe blameles.

11 And at once euery man toke downe his sacke to the ground, and euery man opened his sacke.

12 And he (e) searched, and began at the eldest, and left at the youngest: and the cuppe was founde in Beniamins sacke.

(e) This seruaunt was as cloase a dissembler as his maister.

13 Then they rent their clothes, and laded euery mã his asse, and went againe vnto the citie.

14 And Juda and his brethren came to Josephes house (for he [was] yet there) and they fell before him on the ground.

C

15 And Joseph sayde vnto them: What deede is this that ye haue done? Wote ye not that suche a man as I "do consult with (f) prophecters?

"Or, do prophecie.

(f) Though he dyd not the thyng: he shoulde not haue nourished the opinion that he had dyd.

16 Then sayde Juda: What shall we say vnto my lorde? what shall we speake? or howe shall we "cleare our selues? (g) God hath founde out the wickednes of thy seruauntes: beholde, we are my lordes seruauntes, both we, yea, and he also with whom the cup is founde.

17 And he aunswered, God forbid that I shoulde do so: but the man with whõ the cup is found, he shalbe my seruaunt, and get ye hence vp in peace vnto your father.

18 Then Juda went vnto him, and said: (h) Oh my lorde, let thy seruaunt [I pray thee] speake a worde in my lordes eares, and be not inflamed with wrath agaynst thy seruaunt, "for (i) thou art euen as Pharao.

brother of the sayd lad is dead, and he is all that is left of his mother, and his father loueth him.

21 And thou saidest vnto thy seruauntes: bryng him vnto me, that I may set my eyes vpon him.

22 And we aunswered my Lorde, that the lad could not go from his father, for if he shoulde leaue his father, he were but dead.

(k) As if he had ben the cause that Beniamin came in to Egypt: and therfore shuld be mercyfull.

23 Then saydest (k) thou vnto thy seruauntes: except your youngest brother come with you, loke that ye see my face no more.

24 And when we came vnto thy seruaunt our father, we shewed hym the wordes of my Lorde.

25 And our father sayde vnto vs: go agayne, and bye vs a litle foode.

¶ The. l. Chapter.

1 Iacobs body is annoynted. 3 The waylyng of Egyptians. 7 Ioseph buryeth his father in Chanaan, with a great retinue and mournyng. 10 Funeral rites are celebrate for Iacob. 15 The brethren of Ioseph do pray for pardon. 18 Ioseph remitteth all iniuries vnto his brethren, and speaketh gentelly vnto them. 20 Ioseph foresheweth the deliueraunce of his brethren. 26 Ioseph dyeth.

A 1 AND Ioseph fell vpon his fathers face, and wept (a) vpon him, and kyssed hym.

(a) Naturall sorowe yf it be in measure, is not to be reprehended.

2 And Ioseph cõmaunded his seruauntes the phisitians (b) to imbawme his father. And the phisitians enbawmed Israel.

(b) This was to the godly then an outwarde token of incorruption: but to y ignoraunt a vayne ceremonie.

3 And fourtie dayes were continued (for so long doth the imbawmyng last) and the Egyptians (c) mourned for him thre score and ten dayes.

(c) This was a ceremoniall mournyng.

4 And when the dayes of mournyng were ended, Ioseph spake vnto ỹ house of Pharao, saying: If I haue founde fauour in your eyes, speake I pray you in the eares of Pharao, saying:

5 My father made me sweare, & sayde, Lo I dye, bury me in the graue which I haue made me in the lande of Chanaan. Nowe therfore let me go vp I pray thee, and bury my father, and then wyl I come agayne.

6 And Pharao sayde: Go vp, and bury thy father, (d) according as he made thee sweare.

B (d) Among the vnbeleuers reuerẽce was had vnto an othe.

7 And Ioseph went vp to bury his father, and with hym went all the seruaũtes of Pharao that were the elders of his house, and all the elders of the lande of Egypt:

8 And all the house of Ioseph and his brethren, and his fathers house: onlye their children, and their sheepe, & their cattell, left they behynde in the lande of Gosen.

9 And there went with hym also charettes and (e) horsemen: and it was an exceedyng great companie.

(e) These went for their defence against theeues and others.

10 And they came to the corne floore of Atad, which is beyonde Iordane, and there they made a great and exceedyng sore lamentation: and he mourned for his father seuen dayes.

11 And when the inhabiters of the lande [euen] the Chanamites, sawe the mournyng in the corne floore of Atad, they sayde: This is a great mournyng vnto the Egyptians. Wherefore the name of the place is called, The mournyng of the Egyptians, & it is beyond Iordane.

12 And his sonnes dyd vnto hym accordyng as he had commaunded them. C

13 For his sonnes caryed hym into the lande of Chanaan, & buryed hym in the caue of the fielde Machpelah, whiche fielde Abraham bought to be a place to bury in of Ephron the Hethite, before Mamre.

14 And

14 And Joseph returned into Egypt agayne, he and his brethren, and all that went vp with hym to bury his father, assoone as he had buryed hym.

15 And when Josephes brethren sawe that their father was dead, they saide: (f) Joseph may peraduenture hate vs, & rewarde vs againe all the euyll whiche we dyd vnto hym.

16 And they dyd sende a message vnto Joseph, saying: Thy father dyd commaunde before he dyed, saying:

17 This wyse shall ye say vnto Joseph, Forgeue [I pray thee] the trespasse of thy brethren, and their sinne: for they rewarded thee euyll. And nowe we praye thee forgeue the trespasse of the seruauntes (g) of the God of thy father. And Joseph wept when they spake vnto hym.

18 Also his brethren came vnto hym, and fell flat before his face, saying: beholde, we be thy seruauntes.

19 To whom Joseph sayde: Feare not, "am I God?

20 Ye thought euil against me, but (h) God turned it vnto good, to bring to passe as it is this day, and to saue muche people alyue.

21 Feare not therefore, (i) nowe I wyll norysshe you and your chyldren. And he comforted them, and spake "kyndly vnto them.

22 Joseph dwelt in Egypt, he and his fathers house: and Joseph lyued (k) an hundred and ten yeres.

23 And Joseph sawe Ephraims children euen vnto the thirde generation: and vnto Machir the sonne of Manasses, were chyldren " borne on Josephes knees.

24 And Joseph sayde vnto his brethren, I (l) dye, & God wyll surely visite you, and bring you out of this lande, vnto the lande whiche he sware vnto Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob.

25 And Joseph toke an othe of the chyldren of Israel, saying: God wyll not fayle but visite you, and ye shall cary my (m) bones hence.

26 And so Joseph dyed when he was an hundred and ten yeres olde: And they imbawmed hym with spyces, puttyng hym in a chest in Egypt.

The seconde booke of Moyses, in Latin with a Greke worde called Exodus, and in Hebrewe Uelle schemoth.

The first Chapter.

1 The sonnes of Jacob gone into Egypt. 8 The newe Pharao oppresseth the people of Israel. 15 The mydwyfes fearyng God do saue the male chyldren of the Hebrues. 20 God prouideth for the mydwyfes which feare the Lorde.

(n) The name of the booke is in Hebrue called specially Schemoth of the seconde worde of it, which is names, and in Greke Exodus, which betokeneth an issue or goyng out, because it principally entreateth of the goyng out and deliuerance of the children of Israel.

THese are the names of the children of Israel, whiche came into Egypt with Jacob, euery mã came with his housholde:

2 Ruben, Simeon, Leui, and Juda:

3 Isachar, Zabulon, and Beniamin,

4 Dan and Nephthali, Gad & Aser.

5 All the soules that came out of the line of Jacob, were seuentie:

6 But Joseph was in Egypt alredy, & Joseph dyed, and all his brethren, and all that generation.

7 And the children of Israel were fruitfull, "encreased, multiplied, & (a) waxed exceedyng myghtie, and the lande was full of them.

8 But there arose vp a newe kyng in Egypt, which (b) knewe not Joseph:

9 And he sayde vnto his folke, Beholde, the people of the chyldren of Israel are (c) greater and myghtier then we.

10 Come on, let vs deale wyttyly with thẽ, lest they multiplie, & lest it come to passe, that if there be any warre, they ioyne them selues vnto our enemies, & fight agaynst vs, & so get them vp out of ẏ land.

11 Therfore dyd they set taske maisters ouer them, to kepe thẽ vnder with burthens: And they buylt vnto Pharao treasure cities, Pithom & Raamses.

12 But the more they vexed them, the more they (d) multiplied and grewe: so that they abhorred at the syght of the chyldren of Israel.

13 And the Egyptians helde the children of Israel in bondage without mercie,

B

(a) As fishe or wormes.

(a) God maketh his seruauntes myghtie, to beare the affliction that folowed.

(b) The Egyptians were vnthankefull people.

(c) The wicked enuie the prosperitie of the godly.

(d) God wonderfully increaseth his Churche in persecutions.

C 14 And they made their lyues bytter vnto them in that cruell bondage, in claye, and bricke, and all maner of worke in the fielde: for all their bondage wherein they serued them was ful of tiranny.

(e) Tirannes vse diuers wayes to oppresse the Churche.

15 And the kyng of Egypt (e) spake vnto
the mydwyfes of the Hebrues women:
(of which the one was named Siphrah and the other Puah) and sayde:

16 When ye do the office of a mydwyfe to the women of the Hebrues, and see in the "birth tyme that it is a boy, ye shall kyl it: but if it be a daughter, it shal liue.

" seates.

17 Notwithstanding, the mydwifes feared God, (f) and dyd not as the kyng of Egypt commaunded them, but saued the men chyldren.

(f) It was better to obey God then man.

18 And the kyng of Egypt called for the mydwyfes, and sayde vnto them: why D haue ye dealt on this maner, and haue saued the men chyldren?

19 And the mydwyfes aunswered Pharao: that ỹ Hebrues women are not as the women of Egypt: for they are more liuely women, and are deliuered yer the mydwyfes come at them.

20 And (g) God dealt well therefore with the mydwyfes: and the people multiplied and waxed very myghtie.

(g) He rewarded their constancie and not their lyng

21 And it came to passe, that because the midwifes feared God, (h) he made them houses.

(h) God increaseth their families and housholdes.

22 And Pharao charged all his people, saying: All the men chyldren that are borne, cast into the ryuer, and saue the mayde chyldren alyue.

¶ The. ij. Chapter.

God for his names sake, wyll deliuer his Churche from the affliction of tirannes.

2 Moyses is borne. 3 He is hydden in a basket & cast into a place where sedge groweth. 10 Moyses is adopted of the daughter of Pharao. 11 Moyses murthereth an Egyptian which smote an Hebrue. 13 Betweene them that are at stryfe, he woulde set an attonement. 15 Moyses fleeth from Pharao. 16 He defendeth maydens from the iniurie of shepheardes. 21 He maryeth Sephora to wyfe. 23 The chyldren of Israel do crye vnto God in trouble, and he regardeth them.

A 1 AND there went a man out of the house of Le-ui, and toke to wyfe a daughter of Leui.

2 And the wyfe conceaued and bare a sonne: and when (a) she sawe that it was a proper childe, she hyd him three monethes.

(a) The faith of Moyses parentes. Hebr. xi.

3 And when she coulde no longer hyde hym, she toke a basket [made] of bull russhes, and dawbed it with slyme and pitche, and layed the chylde therein, and put it in the flagges by the riuers brinke

4 And his sister stoode a farre of, to wit what woulde come of it.

5 And the daughter of Pharao came downe to washe her selfe in the ryuer, and and her maydens walked along by the ryuers ſyde: And when ſhe ſawe the baſket among the flagges, ſhe ſent her mayde to fetch it.

6 And when ſhe had opened it, ſhe ſawe it was a chylde: and beholde, the babe wept. And (b) ſhe had compaſſion on it, and ſayde: it is one of the Hebrues chyldren.

(b) God taketh his, by the handes of their enemies

7 Then ſayde his ſiſter to Pharaos daughter: ſhall I go and call to thee a nurſe of the Hebrues women, to nurſe thee the chylde?

B

8 Pharaos daughter aunſwered her: go. And the mayde ranne and called the (c) chyldes mother.

(c) God reſpecteth to the faithful aboundauntly that ſuffreth they looſe for his ſake.

9 To whom Pharaos daughter ſayde: Take this chylde away, and nurſe it for me, and I wyll rewarde thee. And the woman toke the chylde, & nurſed it vp.

10 The chylde grewe, and ſhe brought it vnto Pharaos daughter, and it was made her ſonne. And ſhe called ỹ name of it "Moyſes: becauſe [ſayde ſhe] I toke hym out of the water.

" Moſeh.

11 And in thoſe dayes, when Moyſes was waxed great, (d) he went out vnto his brethren, & loked on their burdens, and ſpyed an Egyptian ſmytyng an Hebrue which was one of his brethren.

(d) The godly preferre the Churche of God before the court of the wicked.

12 And he loked rounde about, and when he ſawe no man by, (e) he ſlewe the Egyptian, and hyd hym in the ſande.

(e) Such hereticall deedes of the godlye men, are not to be followed.

13 And when he was gone out another day, beholde, two men of the Hebrues ſtroue together: And he ſaide vnto him that dyd the wrong, Wherefore ſmyteſt thou thy felowe?

C

14 He aunſwered: (f) Who made thee a man of auctho[r]itie and a iudge ouer vs? "intendeſt thou to kyll me, as thou kylledſt the Egyptian? And Moyſes feared and ſayde: Of a ſurete this thyng is knowen.

(f) Unthankfulneſſe towarde a godly magiſtrate.

" Speakeſt.

15 And Pharao heard of it, (g) and went about to ſlaye Moyſes. And Moyſes fleyng from the face of Pharao, dwelt in the lande of Madian: and he ſate downe by the welles ſyde.

(g) Worldlye trouble foweth often the godlye executyng their vocation.

16 The " priеſt of Madian had vij. daughters, which came and drewe [water] and filled the troughes for to water their fathers ſheepe.

" Prince or head.

17 And the ſhepheardes came and droue them away: but Moyſes ſtoode vp and helped them, and watred their ſheepe.

18 And when they came to Raguel their father, he ſayde: Howe came it to paſſe that ye are come ſo ſoone to day?

19 And they aunſwered: A man of Egypt deliuered vs from the handes of the ſhepheardes, and ſo drewe vs water, and watered the ſheepe. D

20 He ſaide vnto his daughters: & Where is he? Why haue ye ſo left the man? Call hym, that he may eate bread.

21 And Moyſes was content to dwell with the man: & he gaue Moyſes Sephora his daughter:

22 Which bare him a ſonne, and he called his name Gerſhom: For he ſaide, (h) I haue ben a ſtraunger in a ſtraunge land.

(h) Thus he continued the remembrance of the redemption promiſed.

23 And in proceſſe of tyme the kyng of Egypt dyed, and the chyldren of Iſrael ſyghed by the reaſon of (i) bondage, and cryed.

(i) Their bondage warryng ouer, compelled them to ſeke to God.

24 And their complaynt came vp vnto God from the bondage: and God heard their moue, and God remembred (k) his couenaunt with Abraham, Iſahac, and Jacob.

(k) Gods free promiſe was the cauſe he hearde the Iſraelites.

25 And God loked vpon the chyldren of Iſrael, and God had reſpecte vnto them.

¶ The. iij. Chapter.

1 Moyſes feedeth the ſheepe of his father in lawe. 2 God in the middeſt of a buſſhe ſpeaketh to Moyſes of deliueryng Iſrael. 5 The earth holy. 12 God with Moyſes. 13 The name of God. 14 God teacheth Moyſes how and in what ſort he woulde that he ſhould deliuer his people.

A 1 Moyſes kept the ſheepe of Jethro his father in lawe, priеſt of Madian: and he droue the flocke to the backeſyde of the deſert, and came to the mountayne of God (a) "Horeb.

(a) This hyll was called alſo Sinai, vpon another part of it. "Chorebah.

2 And the angell of the Lorde appeared vnto hym in a flambe of fire out of the middes of a buſſhe: And he loked, and beholde (b) the buſſhe burned with fire, and the buſſhe was not conſumed.

(b) Though the Churche be greeuouſlye afflicted, yet the preſence of God keepeth it from deſtruction.

3 Therfore Moyſes ſayde: I wyll go nowe and ſee this great ſyght, howe it commeth that the buſſhe burneth not.

4 And when ỹ Lorde sawe that he came for to see, God called vnto him out of the middes of the bushe, & sayde: Moyses, Moyses: And he answered, here am I.

(c) By this externall ceremonie he was put in mynde humblye and reuerently to heare God.

5 (c) And he said: Draw not nigh hither, put thy shoes of thy feete, for the place whereon thou standest, is holy ground.

6 And he sayde: I am the God of thy father, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob. And Moyses hid his face, for he was afrayde to loke vpon God.

(d) God seeth the afflictions of his church, when by differyng punishement, he seemeth to neglect them.

7 And the Lorde saide: I (d) haue surely seene the trouble of my people which are in Egypt, and haue heard their crie from the face of their talke maisters: for I knowe their sorowes,

(e) This certayne promise of successe shoulde prouoke good magistrates to obey Gods callyng.

8 And am come downe (e) to deliuer thē out of the hande of the Egyptians, and to bryng them out of that lande, vnto a good lande & a large, vnto a lande that floweth with mylke and hony, euen vnto the place of the Chanaanites, and Hethites, and Amorites, and Pherizites, and Heuites, and of the Jebusites.

9 Nowe therfore beholde the complaint of the chyldren of Israel is come vnto me: and I haue also seene the oppressiō wherwith ỹ Egyptians oppressed them.

10 Come thou therfore, and I wyll sende thee vnto Pharao, that thou mayest bryng my people the chyldren of Israel out of Egypt.

(f) This refusall was of humilitie, and not disobedience.

11 And Moyses saide vnto God: (f) What am I to go vnto Pharao, and to bryng the chyldren of Israel out of Egypt?

12 And he aunswered. For I wyll be with thee: and this shalbe a token vnto thee that I haue sent thee, (g) After that thou hast brought the people out of Egypt, ye shall serue God vpon this mountayne.

(g) By a signe ỹ should come, Moises is confirmed in his vocation, as were Dauid and Joh. Baptist.

13 And Moyses sayde vnto God: behold [when] I come vnto the chyldren of Israel, and shall say vnto them: the God of your fathers hath sent me vnto you. And if they saye vnto me, what is thy name? What answere shall I geue thē?

(h) This is read in the futuretence in Hebrue.

14 And God aunswered Moyses: (h) I am that I am. And he said: This shalt thou say vnto the chyldren of Israel, (i) I am, hath sent me vnto you.

(i) All thynges haue their beyng & power of God.

15 And God spake further vnto Moyses, Thus shalt thou say vnto the chyldren of Israel: (k) The Lorde God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob hath sent me vnto you: This is my name for euer, and this is my memoriall into generation and generation.

(k) God wouldo haue them rest vpon his free promise, which they had almost forgotten.

16 Go, and gather the elders of Israel together, and thou shalt saye vnto them, The Lorde God of your fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, and the God of Jacob appeared vnto me, and sayde: In visityng, haue I visited you, and know that which is done to you in Egypt.

17 And I haue sayde: (l) I wyll bryng you out of the tribulation of Egypt, vnto the land of the Chanaanites, and Hethites, and Amorites, and Pherizites, and Heuites, and Jebusites, euen into a land which floweth with milke & hony.

(l) The afflicted ought to hange vpon the prouidēce of God.

18 And they shall heare thy voyce: Then both thou and the elders of Israel shall go vnto the kyng of Egypt, and say vnto him: The Lord God of the Hebrues hath (m) met with vs, and nowe let vs go [we beseche thee] three dayes iourney into the wyldernesse, and (n) do sacrifice vnto the Lorde our God.

(m) For God otherwayes then they hoped, profesſed hym selfe to be their deliuerer.

(n) This was truth, though God declared not to the tyrant farther of his councell.

19 And I am sure that the king of Egypt wyl not let you go, "no not in a mightie hande.

" Or, But by a strong hande.

20 And I wyll stretche out my hande, & smyte Egypt with al my wonders whiche I wyll do in the middes therof, and after that he wyll let you go.

21 And (o) I wyll get this people fauour in the syght of the Egyptians, so that when ye go, ye shall not go emptie:

(o) God can turne ỹ hartes of the most cruel enimy.

22 But a wyfe shall borowe of her neighbour, and of her that soiourneth in her house, "iewels of syluer, and iewels of golde, and rayment: and ye shall put them on your sonnes and daughters, & shall (p) robbe the Egyptians.

" Vessels.

(p) This was no iniurie in them which had a speciall commaundement therof by God, who hath the ordering of all mens goodes.

¶ The. iiij. Chapter.

1 God geueth three signes vnto Moyses, wherewith he may testifie vnto Pharao that he is sent a deliuerer from God. 3 A rodde turned into a serpent, and the serpent into the rodde agayne. 6 The hande of Moyses leprous. 10 Moyses layeth for hym selfe slowenesse of toung. 14 God angred with Moyses, geueth hym Aaron for an oratour. 19 Moyses goeth forward into Egypt. 24 God wyll destroy Moyses. 25 Sephora circumciseth her sonne. 27 By the commaundement of God Aaron goeth agaynst Moyses to meete hym.

A (a) Though Moyses contempne not Gods calling, yet difficultnes therof, troubled him much.

1 MOyses aunswered, and saide: (a) See, they wyll not beleue me, nor harken vnto my voyce: but wyll saye, The Lorde hath not appeared vnto thee.

2 And the Lorde sayde vnto him: What is that [which is] in thine hande? He aun-swered: a " rodde.

" Or, sherbearders staffe.

3 And he sayde: Cast it on the grounde.
And he cast it on the grounde, (b) and it became a serpent: and Moyses fled frō the syght of it.

(b) Whereby he was assured that he should be fearfull to others, though he was but contemptible in the worlde.

4 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses:
Put foorth thy hande, and take it by the tayle. And therefore he put foorth his hande, and caught it: and it became a rodde in his hande.

(c) Inclinable ouer to Moyses to worke the like signes

5 (c) By this thing shall they beleue, that the Lord God of their fathers, the God of Abraham, the God of Isahac, & the God of Jacob hath appeared vnto thee.

6 And the Lorde sayde furthermore vnto hym: Thrust thyne hande into thy bosome. And he thruste his hande into his bosome: and when he toke it out a-gayne, beholde his hande was leprous, euen as snowe.

7 And he sayde: Put thine hande into B thy bosome againe. And he put his hand into his bosome agayne: and plucked it out of his bosome, and behold, it (d) was turned agayne as his [other] flesh.

(d) God sheweth howe he wyll restore Moyses and the people to their olde dignitie.

8 Therfore yf they wyll not beleue thee, neither heare ŷ voyce of the first signes, yet wyll they beleue for the voyce of the seconde signes.

9 But & if they wyl not beleue these two signes, neither hearken vnto thy voyce:
thou shalt take of the water of the riuer and powre it vpon the drye lande, and the water which thou takest out of the riuer shalbe [turned] (e) into blood vpon the drye lande.

(e) They might learne that it was in Gods hand to turne all the commodities of the Egyptians to their owne destruction.

10 Moyses sayd vnto the Lorde: Oh my Lord, I am neither yesterday nor yer yesterday a man (f) eloquēt, neither sence thou hast spoken vnto thy seruaunt: but I am slowe mouthed, & slowe tounged.

(f) God choseth instrumentes of his glorie otherwyse then man.

11 And the Lorde sayd vnto hym: Who hath made mans mouth? or who ma-keth the dumbe, or deafe, the seyng, or the blynde? Haue not I the Lorde?

(g) God wyll graunt sufficient meanes to ŷ ende which he commaundeth.

12 And nowe go, and (g) I wyll be with thy mouth, and teache thee what thou shalt say.

13 He said: oh my Lorde, sende I pray thee, by the hande of hym whom thou wylt sende.

14 And the Lorde was (h) angry with Moyses, and sayde: Do not I knowe Aaron thy brother the "Leuite, that he can speake? For lo, he commeth foorth to meete thee: and when he seeth thee, he wyll be glad in his heart.

(h) God would haue his voyce obeyed.
" Of Leui.

C

15 Therfore thou shalt speake vnto him, and put these wordes in his mouth, and I wilbe with thy mouth, and with his mouth: and wyll teache you what you ought to do.

16 And he shalbe thy spokesman vnto the people, and he shalbe [euen] he shal-be to thee in steade of " a mouth, and (i) thou shalt be to him, in steade of God.

" Or be shalbe the interpretour, and thou shalt be his guyde.
(i) Two vertues in a gouernour, wisdome and eloquence.

17 And thou shalt take this rodde in thy hande, wherewith thou shalt do miracles.

18 Therfore Moyses went and returned to Jethro his father in law againe, and said vnto him: Let me go I pray thee nowe, and turne agayne vnto my brethren which are in Egypt, and see whether they be yet aliue. And Jethro said to Moyses: go in peace.

19 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses in Madian, Go and returne agayne into Egypt: for all the men are dead whiche went about to " kill thee.

" Seeke the soule.

20 And Moyses toke his wyfe, and his sonnes, and put them on an asse, and went agayne to Egypt: And Moyses toke the rodde of God in his hande. (k)

(k) Which he carped, not to rule his sheepe, but to other vses nowe appointed by God.

21 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses:
When thou art entred and come into Egypt agayne, see that thou do (l) all the wonders before Pharao whiche I haue put in thy hand: but I wyll hold his heart, & he shal not let the people go.

(l) Moyses should not geue ouer, though Pharao yelded not at the beggynnyng.

D

22 And thou shalt saye vnto Pharao:
Thus sayeth the Lorde, Jsrael is my sonne [euen] my first borne sonne.

23 And I sayde vnto thee, that thou let my sonne go, that he may serue me. And if thou refuse to let him go: beholde, I do slay thy sonne [euen] thy first borne.

24 And it came to passe by the way in the Inne that the Lorde met hym, and would haue (m) killed hym.

(m) God can not beare to be depriued of his worshippe for mans labe: as Moyses did in not circumcising his childe.

25 And Sephora toke a stone, and cut away the foreskin of her sonne, and cast it at his feete, and sayd: a blooddy husbande art thou vnto me.

(n) That is, the Lord that would haue killed hym.

26 Then (n) he let hym go, and she sayde:
a blood-

a blooddy husbande, because of her circumcision.

27 Then sayd the Lorde vnto Aaron: go meete Moyses in the wyldernesse. And he went and met him in the mounte of God, and kissed him.

(o) God hereby commendeth the ministerie of man.

28 And (o) Moyses tolde Aaron all the wordes of the Lorde whiche had sent him, and all the signes whiche he had charged him withall.

29 So went Moyses and Aaron, and gathered all the elders of the children of Israel.

30 And Aaron told all the wordes which the Lord had spoken vnto Moyses: and did ꝑ miracles in the sight of the people.

31 And the people beleued. (p) And when they hearde that the Lorde had visited the children of Israel, and had looked vpon their tribulation, they bowed thẽ selues, and worshipped.

(p) It was such a beliefe as tribulation afterwarde consumed awaye.

¶ The. v. Chapter.

1 Moyses and Aaron go vnto Pharao. 15 The gouernours ouer Israel crye out vnto Pharao. 20 Moyses and Aaron accused of the people. 22 Moyses complayneth to God.

A 1 MOyses and Aaron went in afterward and told Pharao, Thus sayeth the Lorde God of Israel: let my people go, that they maye " holde a feast vnto me in the wyldernesse.

" Worshippe God solomely.

2 And Pharao sayde: (a) Who is the Lorde that I shoulde heare his voyce, and let Israel go? I knowe not the Lorde, neyther will I let Israel go.

(a) This superstitious tiranne will not be accounted to worship false Gods.

3 And they sayde, The God of the Hebrewes is " called ouer vs: let vs go we pray thee three dayes iourney into the desert, and do sacrifice vnto the Lorde our God: (b) lest he smyte vs with pestilence or with the sworde.

" Or, We worship the God of the Hebrues.

(b) He that dyd let them from the true worshippe of God, shoulde much more be punished.

4 Then saide the kyng of Egypt vnto them: Wherfore do ye, Moyses and Aaron let the people from their workes? get you vnto your burthens.

5 And Pharao sayde furthermore: beholde, there is much people nowe in the lande, and you make them leaue theyr burthens.

(c) The godly ought not to be offended yf afflictions encrease, when god beginneth to deliuer thẽ.

6 And Pharao (c) cõmaunded the same day, ꝑ taskmaisters which were amongest the people and the officers, saying:

7 Ye shall geue the people no more strawe to make bricke withal, as ye did in tyme passed: let them go and gather them strawe them selues.

8 And the number of bricke which they were wont to make in tyme passed, lay vnto their charges also, and minishe nothing therof: for they be idell, and therfore crye, saying: We will go, and do sacrifice vnto our God.

9 They must haue more worke layed vpon them, that they may labour therin, and not regarde (d) vayne wordes.

(d) The true worshippe of God is called of the wicked, vanitie.

10 Then went the taskemaisters of the people, and the officers out, and tolde the people, saying: Thus sayeth Pharao, I will geue you no more strawe.

11 Go your selues and gather you strawe where ye can finde it: yet shall none of your labour be minished.

12 And so were (e) the people scattered abrode throughout all ꝑ land of Egypt, for to gather stubble in steade of strawe.

(e) This intollerable labour was layde on the people, that they myght driue awaye Moyses and Aaron.

13 And the taskemaisters hasted them forwarde, saying: fulfyll your worke, your dayly taskes in their due tyme, as if you had strawe.

14 And the officers of the children of Israel which Pharaos taskemasters had set ouer them, were beaten. And they sayde vnto them: wherfore haue ye not fulfilled your taske in makyng of bricke both yesterday and to day, as well as in tymes past? ℂ

15 The officers also of the children of Israel, came ☞ (f) complayned vnto Pharao, saying: wherfore dealest thou thus with thy seruauntes?

(f) In this tiranne there is neither mercie nor humanitie.

16 There is no strawe geuen vnto thy seruauntes, and they say vnto vs, make bricke: and thy seruauntes are beaten, " and the fault is thyne owne people.

" Or, They deale euill with thy people.

17 He sayde: you are (g) idle, idle are you: and therfore you say, We will go, and do sacrifice vnto the Lorde.

(g) Idlenesse is layde to their charge that are oppressed with labour.

18 Go therfore nowe, ☞ worke, and there shall no strawe be geuen you, ☞ yet shall ye deliuer the whole tale of bricke.

19 And the officers of the children of Israel did see that they were in worse case, after it was sayde, ye shall minishe nothyng of your bricke, of your dayly taske in due tyme:

20 And they met Moyses and Aaron, whiche which ſtoode in their way as they came out from Pharao.

21 And ſaide vnto them: (b) The Lorde looke vpon you & iudge you, which hath made the ſauour of vs "to be abhorred in the eyes of Pharao, and in the eyes of his ſeruauntes, and haue put a ſworde in their hande to ſlay vs.

(b) They miſiudging gods grace by the preſent ſucceſſe, become vnthankefull to men, and murmure to God.

22 (i) Moyſes returned vnto the Lorde, and ſayd: Lorde, wherfore haſt thou ſo euyll intreated this people? And wherfore haſt thou ſent me?

23 For ſince I came to Pharao to ſpeake in thy name, he hath fared foule with this folke, and yet thou haſt not deliuered thy people at all.

(i) Moyſes imbecillitie appeareth in yt he is weary of his vocation, and complayneth of Gods ſlowneſſe in deliuering his people.

¶ The .vj. Chapter.

1 God remembreth his promiſſes. 5 God promiſeth deliueraunce, and the land of Chanaan. 9 The people of Iſrael be not contented with the warninges of Moyſes. 10 Moyſes and Aaron are ſent to Pharao. 14 The deſcentes of Ruben. 16 The deſcent of Leui. 20 Amram the father of Moyſes and Aaron. 23 Aaron the father of Nadab and Abiu. 25 Eleazer father of Phinees. 29 Moyſes is commaunded to ſpeake to Pharao.

A 1 Then the Lorde ſayde vnto Moyſes: Nowe (a) ſhalt thou ſee what I wyll do vnto Pharao: for in a mightie hande ſhal he let them go, and in a mightie hande ſhall he dryue them out of his lande.

(a) Moyſes haſte is gently blamed.

2 And God ſpake vnto Moyſes, and ſaid vnto him: I am (b) Iehouah.

(b) By this name of his ſubſtaunce, God declareth that he is the performer of his promiſe, and ſo wylbe.

3 I appeared vnto Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob as an almightie God: (c) but in my name Iehouah was I not knowen vnto them.

(c) The greater knowledge & light this people had: the rather ſhoulde they haue obeyed.

4 Moreouer (d) I made a couenaunt with them, to geue them the lande of Chanaan, the land of their pilgrimage, wherein they were ſtraungers.

(d) As the couenaũt was of Gods free grace: ſo alſo was this redemption.

5 And therefore I haue alſo heard the groning of the childrẽ of Iſrael, whom the Egyptians kepe in bondage, and haue remembred my couenaunt.

6 Wherfore ſay vnto the children of Iſrael: I am Iehouah, I wil bryng you out from the burthens of the Egyptians, and will ryd you out of their bondage, and will deliuer you in a ſtretched out arme, and in great iudgementes.

(e) The ende of their deliuerance was in the continuaunce of Gods grace.

7 And I will take you (e) for my people, and wilbe to you a God: And ye ſhall knowe that I am the Lord your God which bryng you out from the burthens of the Egyptians.

B

8 And I will bryng you into the lande, concerning the whiche I did lift vp my hand to geue it vnto Abraham, Iſahac, and Iacob, and wyll geue it vnto you for a poſſeſſion: (f) [for] I am Iehouah.

(f) That they myght knowe howe his power ouercommeth all letters and ſtoppes.

9 And Moyſes tolde the children of Iſrael euen ſo: but they (g) hearkened not vnto Moyſes for anguiſhe of ſpirite and

(g) It is daungerous in affliction not to heare Gods promiſes.

10 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying:

11 Go in, and ſpeake vnto Pharao king of Egypt, that he let the children of Iſrael go out of his lande.

12 And Moyſes ſpake before the Lorde, ſaying: behoulde, the children of Iſrael hearken not vnto me: howe then ſhall Pharao heare me, whiche am of "vncircumcized lippes?

"Or, which haue an impediment in my ſpeache: or rude.

13 And (h) the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes and vnto Aaron, & gaue them a charge concerning the children of Iſrael, and concerning Pharao king of Egypt, that "they ſhoulde bring the children of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt.

(h) It appeareth that this redemption came altogether of Gods mercie: ſeyng that Moyſes was vnwylling, & the people carcieſſe.

"Or, He ſhould let go.

14 [These be the heades of their fathers houſes. (i) The children of Ruben ỹ firſt borne ſonne of Iſrael, are theſe: Hanoch and Phallu, Heſron, and Charmi: theſe be the children of Ruben.

(i) Ruben & Simeon beyng elder then Leui are rehearſed, that hereby he might ſpeake of Leui more commodiouſly.

15 The children of Simeon: Jemuel, and Jamin, Ohad, & Jachin, Sohar, and Saul the ſonne of the Chanaanitiſhe woman: theſe are the kinredes of Simeon.

16 Theſe alſo are the names of the children (k) of Leui in their generations: Gerſon, and Cehath, and Merari: Leui liued an hundred thirtie and ſeuen yere.

(k) It was neceſſarie to be knowen ỹ the miniſter of this redemption was of Abrahams ſtocke.

17 The ſonnes of Gerſon: Libni, and Simi by their kinredes.

18 The children of Cehath: Amram, & Iſhar, and Hebron, and Uziel. And Cehath liued an hundred thirtie and three yere.

19 The children of Merari: Mahli, and Muſi: theſe are the kinredes of Leui by their geuerations.

(l) Moyſes gloryeth not in his kinrede, who was borne of vnlawfull marryage.

20 Amram toke Iochebed (l) his fathers ſiſter to wyfe, and ſhe bare hym Aaron and and Moyſes: and Amram liued an hundred and thirtie and ſeuen yeres.

21 And the chyldren of Iſhar: Corah, Nepheg, and Sichri.
22 The chyldren of Uſiel: Miſael, Elzaphan, and Zithri.
(m) Aarons wyfe was of the tribe of Iuda.
23 And Aaron toke (m) Eliſeba, daughter of Aminadab, and ſiſter of Nahaſon to wyfe, whiche bare hym Nadab, and Abihu, Eleazar, and Ithamar.
24 The chyldren of Corah: Aſſir, and Elcanah, and Abiaſaph: theſe are the kinredes of the Corahites.
25 Eleazar Aarons ſonne, toke him one of the daughters of Putiel to wyfe, whiche bare hym Phinees: and theſe are the principal fathers of the Leuites throughout their kinredes.
26 This is that Aaron and Moyſes to whom (n) the Lorde ſayd: " Leade the chyldren of Iſrael out of the lande of Egypt, according to theyr armies.
(n) It was gods ſingular worke that they ſhoulde leade out ſuch great armies.
" Or, ſaue, " Myght let go.
27 Theſe are that Moyſes and Aaron, which ſpake to Pharao king of Egypt, that " they might bryng the chyldren of Iſrael out of Egypt.
28 And in the day when the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes (o) in the lande of Egypt, 29 He ſpake vnto hym, ſaying: I am the Lorde: ſpeake thou vnto Pharao the king of Egypt all that I ſay vnto thee.
(o) God not only in the deſert of Madian, but alſo in Egypt ſpake to Moyſes.
30 And Moyſes ſayde before the Lorde: beholde, I am of vncircumcized lippes, & how ſhall Pharao geue me audience?

¶ The. vij. Chapter.

1 Moyſes with Aaron is ſent vnto Pharao. 3 God cauſeth ſignes, that he onlye may be knowen mightie. 10 The rodde of Moyſes is turned into a ſerpent. 11 The enchaunters do the ſame. 19 Water turned into blood. 22 The enchaunters do the ſame.

1 AND the Lorde ſayde vnto Moyſes: behold, I haue made thee Pharaos (a) God: and Aaron thy brother ſhalbe thy prophete.
(a) God communicateth his auctoritie and power with his miniſters.
2 Thou ſhalt ſpeake all that I commaunde thee, and Aaron thy brother ſhall ſpeake vnto Pharao, that he ſende the chyldren of Iſrael out of his lande.
(b) God was no cauſe of Pharaos ſinne, though he executed this iuſt iudgement vpon hym.
3 And (b) I will harden Pharaos heart, and multiplie my miracles & my Wonders in the lande of Egypt.
4 But Pharao ſhall not hearken vnto you, that I may ſet my hande vpon Egypt, and bryng out myne armies, and my people the chyldren of Iſrael out of the land of Egypt in great iudgmentes.
5 And the Egyptians ſhall knowe that I am the Lord, when I ſtretch foorth my hande vpon Egypt, and bryng out the chyldren of Iſrael frō among them.
(c) True obedience to do only ý which God willeth to be done.
6 (c) Moyſes and Aaron did as the Lord commaunded them, [euen] ſo did they.
(d) The prayſe was Gods, who by fearefull olde men, wrought ſo meruteouſly
7 Moyſes was (d) foureſcore yere olde, and Aaron foureſcore and three, when they ſpake vnto Pharao.
8 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes and Aaron, ſaying:
9 If Pharao ſpeake vnto you, ſaying, ſhewe a miracle for you: thou ſhalt ſay vnto Aaron, Take thy rod, and caſt it before Pharao, that it may be a ſerpent.
10 Then went Moyſes and Aaron in vnto Pharao, and dyd euen as the Lorde had commaunded: and Aaron caſte foorth his rodde before Pharao, and before his ſeruauntes, and it [turned] to a ſerpent.
11 Then Pharao called for the (e) wyſe men, and enchaunters: and thoſe ſorcerers of Egypt dyd in like maner With their ſorcerie.
(e) The deuil to robbe God of his glorie, geueth his ſeruauntes goodly titles.
12 For they caſt downe euery man his rod, and they [turned] to ſerpentes: but Aarons rodde did eate vp their roddes.
13 And he helde Pharaos heart that he hearkened not vnto them, euen as the Lorde had ſayde.
14 The Lorde alſo ſayde vnto Moyſes: Pharaos heart is " hardened, he refuſeth to let the people go.
" Made heauie, or burthened.
15 Get thee vnto Pharao in the morning, loe, he Wyll come vnto the Water, and thou ſhalt ſtand vpō the ryuers brincke agaynſt he come: and the rodde Whiche was turned to a ſerpent, ſhalt thou take in thyne hande:
16 And thou ſhalt ſay vnto hym: the Lorde God of the Hebrewes hath ſent me vnto thee, ſaying: Let my people go, that they may ſerue me in the wyldernеſſe: and beholde, hytherto thou Wouldeſt not heare.
17 Thus ſayeth the Lord, In this thou ſhalt knowe that I am the Lorde: beholde, (f) I Wyll ſmyte With the rodde that that is in my hande, the waters whiche are in the ryuers, and they shalbe turned to blood.
(f) The wicked that are not moued with Gods threates, are vnreclaymable.

18 And the fishe that is in the riuer, shall dye: and the ryuer shall " corrupt, and it shall greeue the Egyptians to drinke of the water of the ryuer.

19 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses: say vnto Aaron, Take thy rodde, and stretche out thyne hand (g) ouer the waters of Egypt, ouer their streames, ouer their riuers and pondes, and all pooles of water whiche they haue, that they may be blood, and that there may be blood throughout all ỹ lande of Egypt, both in [besselles] of wood, & also of stone.

20 And Moyses and Aaron did euen as the Lorde commaunded: and he lyfte vp the rodde, and smote the (h) waters that were in the ryuer in the sight of Pharao, and in the sight of his seruauntes: and (i) all the water that was in the ryuer, turned into blood.

21 And the fishe that was in the ryuer dyed: and the ryuer corrupted, and the Egyptians coulde not drinke of the waters of the ryuer, and there was blood throughout all the lande of Egypt.

22 (k) And the enchaunters of Egypt dyd lykewyse with their sorceries, and he heardened Pharaos heart, neyther did he hearken vnto them, as the Lorde had sayde.

23 And Pharao turned him selfe, and went agayne into his house, and (l) set not his heart therevnto.

24 And the Egyptians (m) dygged rounde about the ryuer for water to drinke: for they coulde not drinke of the water of the ryuer.

25 And it continued seuen dayes after that the Lorde had smyten the ryuer.

(g) The corruption of the most necessary meane of lyfe, shoulde haue taught them to obey God.

(h) The waters wherein the Israelites chyldren were drowned, are nowe turned to the Egyptians sorowe. The firste plague.

(i) They shoulde haue knowen gods hande in that thyng, wherin lay their wealth and saftie.

(k) The faithfull ouercame this temptation through gods worde confirmed by a heauenly vision.

(l) Gods workes are not lyghtly to be considered.

(m) These circumstances declare that this was no vayne illusion

¶ The.viij. Chapter.

2 Frogges. 8 Pharao prayeth Moyses to pray for hym. 12 Moyses prayeth for Pharao. 15 Pharao is hardened. 16 Lyce in man and beast. 20 Flyes, or all kynde of wylde fierce and noysome beastes. 25 Pharao intreateth Moyses to pray for hym. 32 Pharao is hardened.

A 1 THE Lorde spake vnto Moyses, go vnto Pharao & tell hym, Thus sayeth the Lord: Let my people go, that they may serue me.

2 And if thou refuse to let them go, beholde, I wyll smyte all thy borders (a) with frogges:

3 And the ryuer shall scraule with frogges, whiche shall go vp and come into thine house, and into thy priuie chaumber where thou slepest, and vpon thy bed, & into the house of thy seruauntes, and vpon thy people, and into thyne ouens, and vpon al thy vitayles in store:

4 And (b) the frogges shall come vp vpon thee, and on thy people, and vpon all thy seruauntes.

5 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses: say vnto Aaron, stretch foorth thyne hande with thy rod ouer the streames, ouer the ryuers, and ouer the pondes: and cause frogges to come vp vpon the lande of Egypt.

6 And Aaron stretched his hande ouer ỹ Waters of Egypt, & the frogges came vp and couered the lande of Egypt.

7 And (c) the sorcerers did likewise with their sorcerie, and brought frogges vp vpon the lande of Egypt.

8 Then Pharao called for Moyses and Aaron, and sayde: pray (d) ye vnto the Lorde that he maye take away the frogges from me, and from my people: and I will let the people go, that they may do sacrifice vnto the Lorde.

9 And (e) Moyses sayde vnto Pharao: glory herein because of me, and [appoynt] When I shall pray for thee, and for thy seruauntes, and for thy people to dryue away the frogges from thee and thy houses: and they may remayne but in the ryuer onlye.

10 He sayd: to morowe. (f) And he sayde, euen as thou hast said: that thou mayest knowe that there is none like vnto the Lorde our God.

11 And so the frogges shall depart from thee, and from thy houses, from thy seruauntes, and from thy people: and shall remayne in the ryuer onlye.

12 Moyses and Aaron went out from Pharao, and Moyses (g) cryed vnto the Lorde, as touching the frogges whiche he had brought against Pharao.

13 And the Lorde dyd according vnto the saying of Moyses: and the frogges dyed out of the houses, out of the courtes and fieldes.

(a) Ingnominius punishment vpon the contemners of God.

(b) God can arme his creatures at his wyll against the wicked.

The second plague.

(c) Thus God wyll exercise his seruauntes with aduersaries to their triall.

(d) Hypocrites feared with Gods iudgement, pretend a certayde repentaunce.

(e) He is wylled to forsake his arrogancie, and reioyce in the mercie of god, which he shuld attayne by the prayer of gods seruauntes.

(f) He meaneth not the differyng of Moyses prayer: but to haue respite that nyght, for the peoples deliuerie.

(g) The wicked are deliuered from temporall punishment, by the prayer of the faythfull.

14 And

14 And they gathered them together vpon heapes, and the lande " had an euill smell [through them.]

" Stanke.

15 But when Pharao sawe that he had rest geuen him, he hardened his heart, and hearkened not vnto them, as the Lorde had sayde.

16 And the Lord sayd vnto Moses, Say vnto Aaron: Stretche out thy rod, and smyte the dust of the lande, that it may be [turned] (h) to lyce throughout all the lande of Egypt.

(h) God moste easilye ouerthroweth the strength of man. The thirde plague.

17 And they did so: for Aaron stretched out his hande with his rodde, and smote the dust of the earth, whiche turned to lyce in man and beast: so that all the dust of the lande [turned] (i) to lyce throughout all the lande of Egypt.

(i) The smallest beastes haue strength inough to hurt, beyng armed by God.

18 And the enchaunters " assayed likewise with their enchauntmētes to bring foorth lyce, (k) but they coulde not: and the lyce were both vpon men & beastes.

" wrought.

(k) Satans ministers shalbe confounded when God hath proued the fayth of his seruauntes.

19 Then sayd the enchaunters vnto Pharao: (l) this is the finger of God. And Pharaos heart remayned obstinate, and he hearkened not vnto them, euen as the Lorde had sayde.

(l) They woulde not confesse ouercome of any man, therfore they confesse Gods power against themselues.

20 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: ryse vp early in the mornyng, and stand before Pharao, lo, he wyll come foorth (m) vnto the water, and thou shalt say vnto him, Thus sayeth the Lorde: Let my people go that they may serue me.

(m) God woulde haue al this matter done publikly.

D 21 Els if thou wylt not let my people go, behold, I will send " all maner of flyes both vpon thee and thy seruauntes, and thy people, & into thy houses: and the houses of the Egyptians shalbe full of flyes, and the ground wheron they are.

" Swarmes of flees.

" Or, Separate.

22 And the land of Gosen where my people are, will I " cause to be wonderfull in that day, (n) so that there shal no flyes be there: wherby thou shalt know that I am the Lorde in the myddest of the earth.

(n) Benefites and plagues are in Gods onlye hande, wherein the false Gods can do nothyng.

23 And I will put a " diuision betweene my people and thine: and euen to (o) morowe shall this miracle be done.

" Redemption.

(o) God graunteth a tyme of repentaunce.

24 And the Lord dyd euen so, & (p) there came an intollerable swarme of flyes into the house of Pharao, and into his seruauntes houses, and into all the land of Egypt: and the land was corrupt with these flyes.

(p) This miracle was wrought without the meanes of the rodde. The fourth plague.

25 And Pharao called for Moyses and Aaron, and sayd: (q) Go, and do sacrifice vnto your God in this lande.

(q) This compelled obedience robbeth god of a great part of his honour, who should not in one part of the Realme, but in the whole, haue ben truely worshipped.

26 And Moyses answered, It is not meete that we so do: for we must offer vnto the Lorde our God, that [which is] (r) an abhomination vnto the Egyptians. Lo, if we sacrifice that which is an abhomination vnto the Egyptians before their eyes, wyl they not stone vs?

(r) The true worshipping of God ought not to be made a laughyng stocke to the gentiles.

27 We wyll go three dayes iourney into the desert, and sacrifice vnto the Lorde our God, as he hath (f) cōmaunded vs.

(f) Gods will in his worshipping is onely to be followed.

28 And Pharao sayd: I will let you go, that ye may sacrifice vnto the Lorde your God in the wylderneſſe, but go not farre away: (t) pray for me.

(t) The wicked in their necessitie pretende great religion.

29 And Moyses sayd, beholde, I will go out from thee, and pray vnto the Lord, that the flyes may depart from Pharao, and from his seruauntes, and from his people to morowe: but (b) let Pharao from hence foorth deale deceiptfully no more, that he wyll not let the people go, to sacrifice vnto the Lorde:

(b) Moyses constantly rebuketh the kyng of his lyes.

30 And Moyses went out from Pharao, and (x) prayed vnto the Lorde.

(x) Moyses by Gods speciall motion, promised the kynges the declaration of his punishment.

31 And the Lorde did accordyng to the saying of Moyses: and the flyes departed from Pharao, and from his seruauntes, and from his people: and there remayned not one.

32 And Pharao hardened his heart once more (y) at this time, and dyd not let the people go.

(y) For al Gods punishmentes, he yet remayned rebellious against God.

¶ The.ix. Chapter.

1 Death of cattell. 8 Boyles. 13 Hayle. 27 Pharao acknowledgeth his offence, and beseecheth Moyses to pray for hym. 33 When Moyses prayeth, the hayle ceaseth.

A 1 The Lorde sayd vnto Moyses, go in vnto Pharao, and thou shalt tell hym, Thus sayeth the Lorde God of the Hebrues: Let my people go, that they may serue me.

2 If thou refuse to let them go, and wylt holde them styll,

3 Beholde, the (s) hande of the Lorde is vpon thy flocke which is in the fielde, [for] vpon horses, vpon asses, vpon camelles, vpon oxen, and vpon sheepe, there there shalbe a mightie great mozayne.

4 And the Lozde shall do wonderfully betweene the beastes of Jsrael, and the beastes of Egypt, so that there shall nothyng dye of all that pertayneth to the chyldzen of Jsrael.
(b) He was obstinate in his malice ꝑ no tyme could dyspng to repentaunce.
5 And the Lozde (b) appoynted a tyme, saying: to mozowe the Lozde shall fynishe this wozde in the lande.
6 And the Lozde dyd that thyng on the mozowe, and (c) all the cattell of Egypt dyed: but of the cattell of the chyldzen of Jsrael, dyed not one.
(c) This speache signifieth a very great number or the moste part.
The fifth plague.
7 And Pharao sent, and beholde, there was not one of the cattell of the Jsraelites dead: And the heart of Pharao hardened, and he did not let the people go.
B
8 And the Lozd said vnto Moyses and Aaron: take your handes full of asshes out of ꝑ furnace, & Moyses shal sprynckle it vp into the ayze in ꝑ sight of Pharao:
9 And it shalbe dust in all the lande of Egypt, and shalbe swelling sozes with blaynes both on man & beast throughout all the lande of Egypt.
10 And they toke asshes out of the furnace, and stoode before Pharao: and Moyses (d) sprynkled it vp into the ayze, and there were swellyng sozes with blaynes, both in men and in beastes:
(d) Seyng Pharao amended not by mention, god graunteth no tyme, executeth his iudgements.
The sirth plague.
11 And (e) the sozcerers could not stande before Moyses because of the blaynes: fo2 there were botches vpon the enchaunters, and vpon al the Egyptians.
(e) Satans ministers ouercome, yet ceasse not tyll with shame they be dzuen backe.
12 And the Lozde hardened the heart of Pharao, and he hearkened not vnto them, as ꝑ Lozd had said vnto Moyses.
13 And the Lozde sayde vnto Moyses: rise vp early in the mozning, and stande before Pharao. and thou shalt tell him, Thus sayeth the Lozde God of the Hebzues: Let my people go, that they may serue me:
C
14 Oz els J wyll at this tyme sende all my plagues vpon thine heart, and vpon thy seruauntes, and on thy people, that thou mayest knowe that there is none lyke me in all the earth.
15 Foz now J will stretch out my hand, that J may smyte thee and thy people with pestilence, and thou shalt perysshe from the earth.
(f) God wolde haue hym knowe that he coulde quicke haue destroyed him, yet for other causes he reserued hym.
(g) Made thee stande.
16 And in very deede (f) foz this cause haue J (g) kept thee, foz to shewe thee my power, and that my name may be declared throughout all the wozlde.
17 Yet exaltest thou thy selfe agaynst my people, that thou wylt not let them go:
18 Beholde, to mozowe this time J wyl sende downe a (g) mightie great hayle, euen suche a one as was not in Egypt since the foundation thereof was layde, vnto this tyme.
(g) The circumstances shewe ꝑ this hayle was not naturall.
19 Sende therfoze nowe, and gather thy beastes, & all that thou hast in the fielde: Foz vpon all the men and the beastes whiche are founde in the fielde, and not brought home, shall the hayle fall, and they shall dye.
20 And as many as (h) feared the wozde of the Lozde amongest the seruauntes of Pharao, made their seruauntes and their beastes flee into the houses.
(h) This feare came not of true repentaunce and obedience to God.
21 But he that regarded not the wozde of the Lozd, left his seruauntes and his beastes in the fielde.
22 And the Lozde sayde vnto Moyses: stretche foozth thyne hande vnto heauen, that there may be hayle in all the lande of Egypt, vpon man, and vpon beastes, and vpon all the hearbes of the fielde throughout the lande of Egypt.
23 And Moyses stretched foozth his rod vnto heauen, and the Lozd (i) thundzed and hayled, and the fire ranne a long vpon the grounde, and the Lozde hayled in the lande of Egypt.
The seuẽth plague.
(i) Al elementes are redy to obey at Gods commaundement.
24 So there was hayle, and fire mingled with the hayle, so greeuous, and such as there was none throughout al the land of Egypt since people inhabited it.
25 And the hayle smote throughout all the lande of Egypt all that was in the fielde, both man & beast: and the hayle smote all the hearbes of the fielde, and broke all the trees of the fielde.
26 Only in the lande of Gosen where the chyldzen of Jsrael were, was there no hayle.
27 And Pharao sent and called foz Moyses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them, J (k) haue nowe sinned: the Lozde is righteous, and J & my people are vngodly.
E
(k) This confessiõ came not of fayth, but of the greatnesse of Gods plague: so it was hypocriticall.
28 Pray ye vnto the Lozde, that these thundzinges of God and hayle may be sufficient, and J will let you go, and ye shall tary no longer.
29 Moyses sayd vnto him: (l) Assoone as J am out of the citie, J wyll spreade abzode my handes vnto the Lozde, and the thunder shall ceasse, neyther shall there be any more hayle: that thou mayest knowe howe that the earth is the the Lordes.

30 But I knowe that thou and thy seruauntes yet feare not the (m) face of the Lorde God.

(m) Moyses stoutlye condemneth the kyng and all his court of vngodlynes.

31 And so the flaxe and the barlye were smytten, for the barly was shot vp, and the flaxe was boulled:

32 But the wheate and the rye were not smytten, (n) for they were "late sowen.

(n) These seede were not so forward in ripping as the other. " Hidde.

33 And Moyses went out of the citie frō Pharao, and spread abrode his handes vnto the Lorde: and the thunder and hayle ceassed, neyther rayned it vpon the earth.

34 And when Pharao (o) sawe that the rayne, and the hayle, and thunder were ceassed, he sinned yet more, and hardened his heart, he and his seruauntes:

(o) Whe gods plagues ceasse, the wicked arme themselues against God.

35 And the heart of Pharao was hardened, neyther woulde he let the chyldren of Israel go, as the Lorde had sayd by the hande of Moyses,

¶ The. x. Chapter.

1 God hardeneth Pharao. 4 Moyses threatneth Pharao, locustes. 16 Pharao acknowledging his sinne, requireth that prayer be made for him. 19 Moyses prayeth for Pharao. 21 Darknesse so grosse, that it might be felt.

A 1 AND the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, go in vnto Pharao: for I haue hardened his heart, & the heart of his seruauntes, that I might shewe these my signes before hym,

2 And that thou tell in the audience of thy sonne, & of thy sonnes sonne what thinges I haue done in Egypt, and the miracles which I haue done amongest them: that they may know howe that I am the Lorde.

3 And so Moyses and Aaron came vnto Pharao, and said vnto him, Thus sayeth the Lord God of the Hebrues: How long wilt thou refuse to submit thy selfe vnto me? Let my people go, that they may serue me.

4 Or elsif thou refuse to let my people go, beholde, to morowe wyll I bring greshoppers into thy coastes:

5 And they shall couer the face of the earth, that it can not be seene: and they shall eate the residue which remayneth vnto you and is escaped from the hayle, and they shall eate euery greene tree that beareth you fruite in the fielde.

6 And they shall fill thy houses, and all thy seruauntes houses, and the houses of all the Egyptians, after suche a maner, as neyther thy fathers, nor thy fathers fathers haue seene since the tyme they were vpon the earth vnto this day. And he turned him selfe about, and went out from Pharao.

7 And Pharaos seruauntes sayde vnto him: howe long shall he be " hurtfull vnto vs? Let the men go, that they may serue the Lorde their God: knowest thou not yet that Egypt is destroyed?

" A snare.

8 And Moyses & Aaron were brought againe vnto Pharao, and he sayde vnto them, (a) Go and serue the Lorde your God: but who are they that shall go?

(a) Gods enemies when they be tyed that they can not haue all their will, seke yet some bymeanes to ouerthrowe Gods kyngdome.

9 And Moyses answered: We will go with our young, and with our olde, yea, and with our sonnes, & with our daughters, and with our sheepe, and with our oxen we must go: for we must holde a feast vnto the Lorde.

10 And he said vnto them: Let the Lord be so with you, as I will let you go, and your chyldren: take heede, for ye haue some mischiefe in hande.

11 Nay not so, but go they that are men, and serue the Lorde: for that was your desire. (b) And they were thrust out of Pharaos presence.

(b) Man is carefull to haue Gods commaundement in all poyntes duly obserued, thynge rather to be hated for Gods sake, then to consent to a thing vnfaithfull.

12 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses:
Stretch out thyne hand ouer the lande of Egypt for greshoppers, that they may come vpon the land of Egypt, and eate all the hearbes of the lande, and all that the hayle left behynde.

13 And Moyses stretched foorth his rod ouer the lande of Egypt, and the Lorde brought an (c) east winde vpon the lande all that day, and all that nyght: and in the morning the east winde brought the greshoppers.

The eyght plague.

(c) Herby we learne that bulk emperours moyloure weather, as chiefe to be ascribed to the iuste iudgement of God, and not to any natural cause.

14 And the greshoppers went vp ouer all the lande of Egypt, and remayned in all quarters of Egypt very greeuously:
before them were there no suche greshoppers, neither after them shalbe.

15 For they couered all the face of the earth, so that the lande was darke, and they did eate al the hearbes of the land,
and

and all the fruites of the trees whatsoeuer the hayle had lefte: there was no greene thyng left in the trees & hearbes of the fielde throughout ỹ land of Egypt.
16 Therefore Pharao called for Moyses and Aaron in haste, and sayde: I haue sinned agaynst the Lord your God, and agaynst you:
17 And nowe forgeue me my sinne only this once, and pray vnto the Lord your God that he may take awaye from me this death only.
18 And [Moyses] went out from Pharao, and prayed vnto the Lorde.
19 And the Lorde turned a myghtie strong West wynde, and it toke awaye the grashoppers, and cast them into the red sea: so that there was not one grashopper in all the coastes of Egypt.
20 And the Lorde hardened Pharaos heart, so that he woulde not let the children of Israel go.
21 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Stretche out thy hande vnto heauen, that there may be vpon the lande of Egypt darknesse which may be felt.
The nynth plague. Palpable darknesse.
22 And Moyses stretched forth his hand vnto heauen: and there was a thicke darkenesse vpon all the lande of Egypt three dayes long.
23 No man sawe another, neither rose vp from the place where he was by the space of three dayes: But al the children of Israel had light where thei dwelled.
24 And Pharao called for Moyses, and sayde, Go, and serue the Lorde: onlye let your sheepe & your oxen abyde, and let your children go with you.
25 (d) And Moyses sayde: Thou must geue vs also offeringes and burnt offeringes, for to do sacrifice vnto the Lorde our God.
(d) Moyses will not yelde an ynche for nothyng that Pharao could do, in suche thynges as God commaunded.
26 Our cattell also shall go with vs, and there shall not one hoofe be left behynd, for therof must we take to serue ỹ Lorde our God: neither do we knowe with what we must do seruice vnto the Lord vntyll we come thyther.
27 But the Lorde hardened Pharaos heart, and he woulde not let them go.
28 (e) And Pharao sayde vnto hym: Get thee from me, and take heede vnto thy selfe that thou seest my face no more: for whensoeuer thou commest in my syght, thou shalt dye.
(e) The wicked, the nigher they be to their destruction, the more furions commonly they be. Therfore, the godly in such cases ought to be of good hope.
29 And Moyses sayde: Let it be as thou hast sayde, I wyll see thy face no more.

¶ The. xj. Chapter.

1 The Lorde commaundeth the Hebrewes to robbe the Egyptians. 4 The death of the first borne of all thynges.

A 1 AND the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Yet wyl I bringe one plague more vpõ Pharao, and vpon Egypt, and after that, he wyll let you go hence: when he shal let you go quite, he shall vtterly dryue you hence.
(a) We must not take this for an example to spoyle our neyghbour, that was enioyned by especial cõmission for the true punishement of the Egyptians. August. 39. q.
2 (a) Speake thou therfore in the eares of the people, that euery man borowe of his neighbour, and euery woman of her neighbour, iewels of syluer, and iewels of golde.
3 And the Lorde shall geue the people fauour in the syght of the Egyptians: Moreouer, Moyses was a very great man in the lande of Egypt in the syght of Pharaos seruauntes, and in the syght of the people.
4 And Moyses sayde, Thus sayth the Lorde: At mydnyght, wyll I go out into the myddest of Egypt,
5 And all the first borne in all the land of Egypt shall dye, euen frõ the first borne of Pharao (b) that sytteth on his seate, vnto the first borne of the mayde seruaunt that is behynde the myll, and all the first gendred of the cattell.
(b) That succeedeth after him in the imperial crowne as heyre apparaunt. For by sytting, is meant, bearyng rule, or welding of any office. 3. Reg. ii.
6 And there shalbe a great crye throughout all the lande of Egypt, such as there was neuer none lyke, nor shalbe.
7 But amongst the children of Israel shal not a dogge moue his tounge, from a man vnto a beast: that ye may knowe how that the Lord putteth a difference betweene the Egyptians and Israel.
8 (c) And these thy seruauntes shal al come downe vnto me, and fall before me, and say: Get thee out, and all the people that are vnder thee, and then wyll I depart. And he went out from Pharao " with an angry countenaunce.

9 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses:

Pharao shall not heare you, that my wonders may be multiplied in the land of Egypt.
10 And Moyses and Aaron dyd all these wonders before Pharao: And the Lord hardened Pharaos heart, so that he woulde not let the chyldren of Israel go out of his lande.

1 The charge and maner of eatyng of the Passouer. 26 A charge is geuen parentes to teache their chyldren the misterie of the Passouer. 29 The murder of the first borne of Egypt. 31 Pharao casteth out the chyldren of Israel. 35 The Jewes do robbe the Egyptians of golden and syluer vessels. 37 The chyldren of Israel do go out. 40 They dwelt in Egypt foure hundreth and thirtie yeres. 43 The maner of celebratyng the Passouer.

A 1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron in the lande of Egypt, saying:
2 This moneth shalbe vnto you ỹ begynnyng of monethes, and the first moneth of the yere shall it be vnto you.
3 Speake ye vnto all the congregation of Israel, saying: In the tenth daye of this moneth, euery man take vnto hym a (a) lambe according to ỹ house of the fathers, a lambe throughout euery house.
(a) God ordeyned this ceremonie for a token & pledge of their deliuerance.
4 If the household be to litle for ỹ lambe, let hym take his neyghbour whiche is next vnto his house, according to the number of the soules, euery one of you according to his eatyng shal make your compt for a lambe.
5 And let the lambe of yours be without blemishe, a male of a yere olde [whiche] ye shal take out from among the sheepe, and from among the goates.
6 And ye shall kepe hym in vntyll the fourteenth day of the same moneth: and euery assemble of the congregation of Israel shall kyll hym about " euen.
" Or, Twyligh.
B 7 (b) And they shall take of the blood and stryke it on the two [syde] postes, and on the vpper doore post, euen in the houses where they shall eate hym.
b) The Churche is nowe vnpurified from the synagogue of the vnfaithfull, by the worde of God, and by the sacramẽts.
8 And they shall eate the flesh the same nyght, rost with fire, and with vnleauened bread: and with sowre herbes they shall eate it.
9 See that ye eate not therof rawe, nor sodden with water, but roste with fire: the head, feete, and purtenaunce therof.
10 And ye shall let nothyng of it remayne vnto the morning: That which remayneth of it vntyll the morowe, shall ye burne with fire.
11 Of this maner shall ye eate it: With your loynes girded, and your shooes on your feete, and your staffe in your hand, (c) and ye shall eate it in haste: for it is the Lordes passouer.
(c) This was the passouer of the Jewes: but our passouer lambe is chryst as wytnesseth Paul. 1. Cor. 5.
12 For I wyll passe through the lande of Egypt this same nyght, and wyll smyte all the first borne of Egypt from man to beast, and vpon all the gods of Egypt I wyll execute iudgement: I [am] the Lorde.
13 And the blood shalbe vnto you a token in the houses wherin you are: and whẽ I see the blood, I wyll passe ouer you, and the plague shall not be vpon you to destroy you when I smyte the lande of Egypt.
14 And this day shalbe vnto you a remẽbraunce: and you shall kepe it an holy feast vnto the Lorde throughout your generations, ye shall kepe it holy for an ordinaunce for (d) euer.
C
(d) Ever is not here taken for a time without ende. As for a long season indefinitely, as in Gen. 3.
15 Seuen dayes shal ye eate vnleauened bread, so that euen the first day ye put away leauen out of your house: For who so euer eateth leauened bread from the first daye vntyll the seuenth daye, that soule shalbe rooted out of Israel.
16 The first day shalbe a holy conuocation, and the seuenth day shalbe an holy conuocation vnto you: there shalbe no maner of worke done in thẽ, saue about that only which euery man must eate, that only may ye do.
17 And ye shal obserue the feast of vnleauened bread: for this same day haue I brought your armies out of the lande of Egypt, therefore ye shall obserue this day and all your chyldren after you, by an euerlastyng decree.
18 The first moneth, and the fourteenth daye of the moneth, at euen ye shall eate eate vnleauened bread, vnto the .xxi. day of the same moneth at euen againe.

19 Seuen dayes shal ther be no leauened bread founde in your houses: and whosoeuer eateth leauened bread, that soule shalbe rooted out from the congregatiō of Israel, whether he be straunger or borne in the lande.
20 (e) Ye shall eate nothyng leauened: but in all your habitations shall ye eate vnleauened bread.
21 Moyses called for the elders of Israel, and sayde vnto them: Choose out, and take you to euery housholde of you a lambe, and kyll the passouer.
22 And take a bunche of Isope and dip it in the blood that is in the bason, & strike the vpper post of the doore, and the two syde postes, with the blood that is in the bason: & none of you go out at the doore of his house vntyll the morning.
23 For the Lord wyll passe ouer to smyte the Egyptians: and when he seeth the blood vpon the vpper doore post and the two syde postes, he wyll passe ouer the doore, and wyll not suffer the destroyer to come into your house to plague you.
24 Therfore shall ye obserue this thyng for an ordinaunce to thee & thy sonnes for euer.
25 And when ye be come to the lande whiche the Lorde wyll geue you, according as he hath promised, ye shall kepe this seruice.
26 And when your chyldren aske you, what maner of seruice is this ye do?
27 Ye shall saye, it is the sacrifice of the Lordes passouer, whiche passed ouer the houses of the chyldren of Israel in Egypt, and he smote the Egyptians, and saued our houses. And the people bowed them selues, and worshipped.
E 28 And the chyldren of Israel went and dyd as the Lorde hadde commaunded Moyses and Aaron, euen so dyd they.
The tenth plague. 29 And at mydnyght the Lorde smote the first borne in the lande of Egypt, frō the first borne of Pharao that sate on his seate, vntyl the first borne of the captiue that was in prison, and all the firste gendred of cattell.
30 And Pharao rose in the nyght, he and his seruauntes, and all the Egyptians, and there was a great crye in Egypt: for there was not a house where there was not one dead.
31 And he called vnto Moyses and Aarō by nyght, saying: Ryse vp, and get you out from amongst my people, both you and also the chyldren of Israel: and go, and serue the Lorde as ye haue sayde.
32 And take your sheepe and your droues with you as ye haue sayde: and depart, and blesse me.
33 And the Egyptians were fierce vpon the people, that they myght sende them out of the lande in haste: for they sayde, We be all [but] dead men.
34 And the people toke there dowgh before it was sowred, whiche they had in store, being bounde in clothes vpon their shoulders.
35 And the chyldren of Israel dyd according to the saying of Moyses: and they borowed of the Egyptians iewels of siluer, and iewels of golde, and rayment.
36 And the Lord gaue the people fauour in the syght of the Egyptians, so that they graunted such thynges as they required: And they robbed the Egyptians.
37 (f) And the children of Israel toke their iourney from Rameses to Suchoth, sixe hundred thousand men of foote, besyde chyldren.
38 And a great multitude of sundry other nations wēt also with them, and sheepe and oxen, and exceedyng much cattell.
39 And they baked vnleauened cakes of the dowgh whiche they brought out of Egypt, for it was not sowred: For they F were thrust out of Egypt, and could not tary, nether had they prepared for them selues any prouision of meate.
40 The dwellyng of the chyldren of Israel which they dwelled in Egypt, was foure hundred and thirtie yeres.
41 And when the foure hundred & thirtie yeres were expired, euen the selfe same day departed al the hoastes of the Lord out of the lande of Egypt.
42 It is a nyght to be obserued vnto the Lorde, in the whiche he brought them out of the lande of Egypt: This is that nyght of the Lorde, whiche all the chyldren of Israel must kepe throughout their generations.
43 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses and Aaron, This is the lawe of passouer: there shall no straunger eate thereof.
44 But euery seruaunt that is bought for money, after that thou hast circumcised hym, shall eate therof.

(e) By leuen is meant corruption either of lyfe or doctrine, of all such to be eschewed, as be partakers of the dredefull mischiefes, as Mat. xvi. 1 Cor. 5. Gal 5

(f) If they greue so amongest their enemies, beyng so small a number at their firste commyng to Egypt, let vs also be of good hope, that god wyll encrease his Church, be it neuer so much oppressed.

 45 A straunger

45 A straunger & an hired seruaunt shall not eate therof.

G 46 In one house shall it be eaten, thou shalt carry none of the flesshe out of the house, neither shall ye breake a bone therof.

47 All the congregation of Israel shall obserue it.

48 If a straunger also dwell among you, and wyl holde passouer vnto the Lord, let him circumcise all that be males, and then let him come and obserue it, and he shalbe as one that is borne in the lande: for no vncircumcised person shall eate therof.

49 One maner of lawe shalbe vnto hym that is borne in the lande, and vnto the straunger that dwelleth among you.

50 And all the chyldren of Israel dyd as the Lorde commaunded Moyses and Aaron, euen so dyd they.

51 And the selfe same day, dyd the Lorde bryng the chyldren of Israel out of the lande of Egypt with their armies.

¶ The.xiij. Chapter.

1 The first borne thynges must be sanctified vnto God. 3 The remembraunce of the deliueraunce must be celebrate. 8 Chyldren must be taught that they were deliuered frō the tirannie of Pharao. 12 All first borne thynges be Gods. 14 Chyldren must be taught why thynges first borne be seperate vnto the vse of God. 17 Why the Lord dyd leade about the chyldren of Egypt by the desert. 19 Moyses caryeth the bones of Joseph. 21 The pyller of cloude and of fire.

A (a) A lawe for ỹ offeryng of the fyrste begotten vnto God, who were deliuered not from death only, but from bondage.

1 AND the Lord (a) spake vnto Moyses, saying:

2 (b) Sanctifie vnto me al the first borne, What so euer openeth the wombe among ỹ chyldren of Israel, aswell of man as of beast, for it is mine.

Sanctifie. That is, offer.

3 (c) And Moyses saide vnto the people: ye ought to remember this day in whiche ye came out of Egypt out of ỹ house of "bondage: for through a myghtie hande the Lorde brought you from thence: there shall no leauened bread be eaten.

(b) We also must offer our first borne vnto God, that is, our first & principall care must rende to Gods honour and auaunce-ment of his kyngdome, seyng our deliueraunce farre passeth that of the Iewes.

4 This daye came ye out, in the moneth (d) Abib

(c) If so many ceremonies were ordayned for a memorie of their deliueraunce: God also requireth nothyng more at our handes thē to be mind full of his benefites.

5 When the Lorde hath brought thee into the lande of the Chanaanites, Hethites, Amorites, Heuites, and Jebusites, which he sware vnto thy fathers that he would geue thee, a lande Wherin mylke and hony floweth: thou shalt kepe this seruice in this same month.

" Seruaūtes.

6 Seuen dayes thou shalt eate vnleauened bread, and in the seuenth daye it is the feast of the Lorde.

(d) This was about April, when corne began to ripen in that countrey.

B 7 Unleauened bread shalbe eaten seuen dayes, and there shal no leauened bread be seene nor yet eaten with thee in al thy quarters.

8 (e) And thou shalt shewe thy sonne in that day, saying: This is done because of that whiche the Lorde dyd vnto me when I came out of Egypt.

(e) God wylleth ỹ cause of the ceremonie to be vttered at the celebra-tion therof.

9 (f) And it shalbe as a signe vnto thee vppon thyne hande, and as a remembraunce betweene thyne eyes, that the Lordes lawe may be in thy mouth: for in a strong hande the Lorde brought thee out of Egypt.

(f) Sacramentes make to this purpose: That Gods worde myght be the deeper rooted in our hartes, so that thence myght flowe a sincere confession of the mouth.

10 Kepe therfore this ordinaunce in his season from yere to yere.

11 And it wyll come to passe that ỹ Lord shal bryng the land of the Chanaanites, which he sware vnto thee and to thy fathers, and shall geue it thee.

12 And then thou shalt appoynt vnto the Lorde all that openeth the matrice, and euery firstlyng that commeth of a beast which thou hast, yf it be a male, it shalbe the Lordes.

13 And euery firstlyng of an asse, thou shalt redeeme with a lambe: yf thou redeeme hym not, thou shalt breake his necke: All the first borne amongst thy chyldren also shalt thou bye out.

C "to come

14 And when thy sonne aske thee in time to "come, saying: What is this? Thou shalt saye vnto hym: With a myghtie hande the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt, out of the house of bondage.

15 And when Pharao was very loth to let vs go, the Lorde slewe all the first borne in the lande of Egypt, aswell the first borne of man, as the firstlyng of beast: Therefore I sacrifice vnto the Lorde all the males that open the matrice: but all the first borne of my chyldren I redeeme.

16 This ſhalbe as a token vppon thyne hande, & as a remembraunce betweene thyne eyes, that the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt through a myghtie hande.

17 It came to paſſe, that when Pharao D had let the people go, God caryed them not through the way of the lande of the Philiſtines, which was the more nygh way. But God ſaide: leſt peraduenture the people (g) repent whē they ſee warre, and ſo turne agayne to Egypt.

18 But God led the people about through the way of the wylderneſſe of the redde ſea, and the chyldren of Iſrael went vp "harneſſed out of the lande of Egypt.

19 And Moyſes toke the bones of Joſeph with him: for he made the children of Iſrael ſweare, ſaying: God wyl ſurely viſite you, and ye ſhall take my bones away hence with you.

20 And they toke their iourney from Sucoth, and abode in Etham in the edge of the wylderneſſe.

21 And the Lorde went before them by day in a pyller of a cloude to leade them the way, and by nyght in a pyller of fire to geue them lyght, that they myght go both by day and nyght.

22 (h) The piller of the cloude departed not by daye, nor the pyller of fire by nyght, out of the ſyght of the people.

g Repentyng this worde declareth the great weakenes of the Iſraelites, for all the wonders that were wrought

" By fiue in a ranke.

(h) God neuer faylyth his people, whō he appoynteth beyonde the compaſſe of mans reaſon, euen in their deſperateſt caſe.

¶ The. xiiij. Chapter.

1 God commaundeth to pitche their pauilions in a daungerous place, that he may be the more glorified. 4 God hardeneth the heart of Pharao. 5 Pharao purſueth Iſrael. 10 The Iſraelites diſpayryng of deliueraunce do grudge. 13 Moyſes promiſeth them their ſafetie by God. 15 Moyſes crying to God, is cōmaunded to deuide the ſea with his rod. 19 The angell folowyng the tentes of Iſrael, they paſſe through the middes of the ſea. 24 God drowneth Pharao with his armie. 31 The Iſraelites do feare God when they ſee the miracle.

A 1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying:

2 Speake to the chyldrē of Iſrael, that they turne & pitch their tentes before Pi-hahiroth betweene Migdol and the ſea, ouer againſt Baal-ſephon, and before that ſhall they pitche by the ſea.

3 For Pharao wyll ſay of the chyldren of Iſrael: they are tangled in the lande, the wylderneſſe hath ſhut them in.

4 And I wyll harden Pharaos heart, that he ſhall folowe after you, and I wyll get me honour vpon Pharao, and vpon al his hoaſt: The Egyptians alſo ſhall knowe that I am the Lorde. And they dyd euen ſo.

5 And it was tolde the kyng of Egypt that the people fledde. And the heart of Pharao and of his ſeruauntes turned againſt the people, and they ſaid: why haue we done this, that we haue let Iſrael go out of our ſeruice?

6 And he made redy his charette, and toke his people with hym.

B 7 And toke fiue hundred choſen charets, and all the charets of Egypt, and capitaynes vpon euery one of them.

8 And the Lorde hardened the heart of Pharao kyng of Egypt, and he folowed after ỹ chyldren of Iſrael: but the childrē of Iſrael went out with an hye hande.

9 And the Egyptians folowed after thē, and al the horſes and charettes of Pharao, and his horſemen, and his hoaſt ouertoke them pitchyng of their tent by the ſea beide Pi-hahiroth before Baal-ſephon.

10 And when Pharao drewe nygh, the chyldren of Iſrael lift vp their eyes, and beholde, the Egyptians folowed after them, and they were ſore afrayde: and the chyldren of Iſrael cryed out vnto the Lorde.

11 But they ſayde vnto Moyſes: (a) becauſe there were no graues in Egypt, haſt thou therfore bought vs away for to dye in the wilderneſſe: wherfore haſt thou ſerued vs thus for to carry vs out of Egypt?

(a) See the inconſtauncie and vnkynde dealyng of the people: They burden Moyſes their gyde, not cōſidering the power of God, but the commō courſe of thynges naturall.

12 Dyd not we tel thee this in Egypt, ſaying, let vs be n reſt, that we maye ſerue the Egyptians? For it had ben better for vs to haue ſerued the Egyptians, then for to dye in the wylderneſſe. C

13 (b) And Moyſes ſaide vnto the people: Feare ye not, ſtande ſtyll, and beholde the ſaluation of the Lorde whiche he wyll ſhewe to you this day: For ye that haue ſeene the Egyptians this day, ſhal ſee them no more forever.

(b) Moyſes nothyng diſcouraged, goeth forwarde manfully in his callyng, a worthie paterne for the godly alwayes to embrace.

(c) When we be hardest bestedde, our strength shall stand in hope & quiet silence, God mightily fyghtyng for vs.

14 (c) The Lorde shall fyght for you, and ye shall holde your peace.

15 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Wherfore (d) cryest thou vntome? speake vnto the children of Israel that they go forwarde.

(d) This crye is to be vnderstand, not of the sounde of his voyce, but of the earnest affection of his heart.

16 But lyft thou vp thy rod, and stretche out thy hande ouer the sea, and deuide it a sunder, and let the children of Israel go on drye grounde throughthe middes of the sea.

C 17 And beholde I [euen] I wyll harden the heart of the Egyptians, and they shall folowe after them: and I wyll get me honour vpon Pharao, and vpon all his hoast, and vpon his charettes, and vpon his horsemen.

(e) Gods dredful iudgement is executed agaynst them that resist his vyght hande.

18 (e) And the Egyptians shal know that I am the Lorde, when I haue gotten me honour vpō Pharao, vpon his charets, and vpon his horsemen.

(f) A notable example of Gods prouidence.

19 (f) And the angell of God which went before the hoast of Israel, remoued and went behynde them: and the pyller of the cloude went from before their face, and stoode behynde them,

20 And came betweene the tentes of the Egyptians, and the tentes of Israel, and it was a cloude and darkenesse, and gaue lyght by nyght: and all the nyght long the one came not at the other.

21 And Moyses stretched out his hande ouer the sea, & the Lorde caused the sea to go backe by a very strong east wynde all that nyght, and made the sea drye [lande] and the waters were deuided.

22 (g) And the children of Israel went into the middest of the sea vppon the drye [grounde,] and the waters were a wall vnto them on their vyght hande and on their left hande.

(g) Thus the Israelites there arysith lyght in darknesse, and in the middest of death, they fynde lyfe.

23 And the Egyptians folowed, & went in after them (h) to the myddest of the sea, euen all Pharaos horses, his charettes, and his horsemen.

(h) See the vayne confidence of the vngodly, to their vtter vndoyng, presumyng of their owne strength

24 (i) And in the mornyng watche, the Lord loked vnto the hoast of the Egyptians out of the pyller of the fire and of the cloude, and troubled the hoast of the Egyptians,

(i) This is the angell mentioned before, to witt, the sonne of God, not otherwyse to be called by the name Jehous

25 (k) And toke of his charet wheeles, and caryed them away violently: So that the Egyptians sayde, (l) Let vs flee frō the face of Israel, for the Lord fighteth for them agaynst the Egyptians.

(k) Gods prouidence stretcheth to the least thinges that is: so that Charet wheeles can not be out of the reache.

(l) Late repentaunce helpeth not the vngodly, whose heart is not chaunged.

26 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Stretche out thyne hande ouer the sea, that the waters may come againe vpon the Egyptians, vpon their charets, and vpon their horsemen.

27 And Moyses stretched foorth his hand ouer the sea, and it came agayne to his course early in the mornyng, and the Egyptians fled agaynst it: and the Lorde ouerthrewe the Egyptians in the middest of the sea.

The last plague.

28 And the water returned, and couered the charettes, and the horsemen, and all the hoast of Pharao that came into the sea after them, so that there remayned not not one of them.

29 But the children of Israel walked vpon drye [lande] through the middest of the sea, and the waters were a wall vnto them on the right hande of them, and on the left.

30 Thus the Lorde deliuered Israel the selfe same daye out of the hande of the Egyptians: and Israel sawe the Egyptians dead vpon the sea syde.

31 (m) And Israel sawe that myghtie power which the Lorde shewed vpon the Egyptians: and the people feared the Lorde, and beleued the Lorde and his seruaunt Moyses.

(m) The benefites that we receaue of God, and his iudgementes against the wicked, tende all to this purpose, that we shoulde stande in feare of hym, and be strengthened in the fayth of his promises.

¶ The .xv. Chapter.

1 Moyses and the Israelites do geue thankes to God for their conquest. 25 God must be hearkened vnto. Sickines. God the healer. 27 They come into Elim.

A 1 Then Moyses & the children of Israel sange this sounge vnto the Lorde, and sayde (a) on this maner: I wil sing vnto the Lorde, for he hath triumphed gloriously, the horse and hym that rode vpon hym hath he ouerthrowen in the sea.

(a) Moyses appointeth this song to all the people, that they myght be stirred vp by one and others example. For that sticketh better in mynde that is songe in the maner of a dittie, then that that is pronounced in prose.

2 The Lorde is my strength and praise, and he is become my saluation: he is my God, and I wyll glorifie hym, my fathers God, and I wyll exalt hym.

(b) whether we be destitute of worldlye ayde, or els haue it at hyll: this ought be alwayes our comfort, that God hym selfe fyghteth for vs, our only stay & defence: whose office semeth to leane vs to the cruel rage of our foes, that feared (as it were) with a bugge, we myght flee vnto his lappe. Cyrillus.

3 (b) The Lorde is a man of warre, the Lorde is his name.

4 Pharaos charets and his hoast hath he cast into the sea, his chosen captaynes also are drowned in the red sea.

5 The deepe waters hath couered them, they sunke to the bottome as a stone.

6 Thy ryght hande Lorde is become glorious in power, thy ryght hande Lorde hath all to dasshed the enemie.

7 And in thy great glorie thou hast ouerthrowē them that rose vp against thee: thou sendest forth thy wrath, whiche consumed them euen as stubble.

B 8 Through the wynde of thy nosethrils the water gathered together, ꝑ fluddes stoode styll as an heape, and the deepe water congeled together in the heart of the sea.

(c) Vnder diuers formes of speache the hyneker to set out Goddes power, he declareth this miracle of the waters that deuided by the blast of wyndes, made a wape open for the Israelites.

9 (c) The enemie sayde, I wyll folowe [on thē] I wyll ouertake [them] I wyll deuide the spoyle, and my lust shalbe satisfied vppon them: I wyll drawe my swoorde, myne hande shall destroy them.

10 Thou diddest blowe with thy wynde, the sea couered thē, they sanke as leade in the myghtie waters.

11 Who is like vnto thee O Lorde amongst gods? who is like thee, so glorious in holynesse, fearefull in prayses, shewyng wonders?

12 Thou stretchedst out thy right hande, the earth swalowed them.

13 Thou in thy mercie hast caryed this people which thou hast redeemed, and hast brought them in thy strength vnto thy holy habitation.

14 (d) The nations shal heare, & be afraide, sorowe shall come vpon Palestina.

(d) He sheweth howe this proofe of Gods mightie power, not onely for the tyme present, but also hereafter shalbe of great efficacie, and force, as Deut.ii.

15 Then the dukes of the Edomites shalbe amazed, and the myghtyest of the Moabites tremblyng shall come vpon them, al the inhabiters of Chanaan shal waxe faynt hearted.

16 Feare & dreade shal fall vpon them, in the greatnesse of thine arme they shalbe as styll as a stone, tyll thy people passe through, O Lorde, whyle this people passe through which thou hast gotten.

C 17 Thou shalt bryng them in, and plant them in the mountayne of thine inheritaunce, the place Lord which thou hast made for to dwell in, the sanctuarie, O Lord, which thy handes haue prepared 18 (e) The Lorde shall raigne for euer and euer.

(e) Lest we shoulde at any tyme be discouraged, let vs styll flee to these promises: & seeyng Satan our cheefe enemie is ouercome, let vs neither feare hym, nor anye of his garde any more.

19 For Pharao on horsebacke went in with his charettes and horsemen into the sea, and the Lorde brought the waters of the sea vpon them: But the children of Israel went on drye [land] in the middest of the sea.

20 And Miriam a prophetisse, the sister of Aaron, toke a tymbrell in her hande, and all the women came out after her with tymbrelles and daunces.

21 And Miriam sang before them: Sing ye vnto the Lorde, for he hath triumphed gloriously: the horse and his rider hath he ouerthrowen in the sea.

22 And so Moyses brought Israel from the redde sea, and they went out into the wylderneste of Sur: and they went three dayes long in the wilderneste, and founde no waters.

23 And when they came to Marah, they coulde not drynke of the waters of Marah, for they were bytter: therefore the name of the place was called Marah.

24 (f) And the people murmured agaynst Moyses, saying: What shall we drinke?

25 And he cryed vnto the Lorde, and the Lorde "shewed hym a tree, (g) whiche when he had cast into the waters, the waters were made sweete: There he made them an ordinaunce and a lawe, and there (h) he proued hym, 26 And sayde: If thou (i) wylt hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, & wylt do that which is right in his sight, and wylt geue eare vnto his commaundementes, and kepe all his ordinaunces: then wyll I put none of these diseases vpon thee, which I haue brought vpon the Egyptians: for I am the Lord that healeth thee.

27 And the children of Israel came to Elim, where were twelue welles of water, and threescore and ten palme trees: and they pitched their tentes there by the waters.

(f) A sodayne chaunge of the vnconstant & vnkynde people, neither considering Moyses by whose ministerie they had receaued such benefites, nor remembryng the straunge wonders that God hadde wrought for them alredy. " Taught.

(g) Herby we learne howe the prayer of fayth can preuayle. Whervnto, by the example of Moises, howsoeuer ye world murmureth at vs, and distrusteth gods goodnes, let vs flee.

(h) Gods temptation tendeth to this ende, that the secretes of mens heartes may be proued and reuealed to the worlde.

(i) The cause of all miserie that we suffer, is in our selues: whom God neuer forsaketh, cleauing stedfastly vnto hym.

¶ The. xvj. Chapter.

1 They come into the desert of Sin. 3 They murmure for foode. 8 He grudgeth agaynst God, who grudgeth agaynst his ministers, 10 God speaketh to Moyses in a cloude. 13 It rayneth quayles and Manna. 20 Manna beyng kept doth stynke and rotte. 22 On the Sabboth it was not lawfull so much as to dresse meate. 25 In the Sabboth God rayneth not Manna. 28 God rebuketh the Israelites, because they kept not the Sabboth. 32 Manna is reserued for a testimonie vnto their successours. 36 Gomor, Ephi.

AND they toke their iourney from Elim, & all the congregation of the chyldren of Israel came to the Wildernes of Sin, whiche is betweene Elim & Sinai, the fyfteenth day of the seconde moneth after their departyng out of the lande of Egypt.

2 And the whole congregation of the chyldren of Israel murmured agaynst Moyses and Aaron in the Wylderneſſe.

3 And the chyldren of Israel sayde vnto them: Woulde to God we had dyed by the hande of the Lorde in the lande of Egypt, whē we sate by the flesshe pottes, and when we dyd eate bread our bellies full: for ye haue brought vs out into this Wilderneſſe, to kyl this whole multitude with hunger.

4 Then sayde the Lorde vnto Moyses: Beholde, I (a) wyll rayne bread from heauen to you, and the people shall go out & gather a certaine rate euery day, that I may proue them whether they wyll walke in my lawe, or no.

(a) In myracle of Gods especiall prouidence towardes his people.

(b) We nede not to feare lest we should either hunger or lacke, whyle we feare God.

5 (b) The fyrst day they shall prepare for them selues that which they will bring in, and let it be twyse as muche as they gather in dayly.

6 And Moyses and Aaron sayde vnto the chyldren of Israel: At euen ye shall know that it is the Lord which brought you out of the lande of Egypt.

B 7 And in the morning ye shal see the glorye of the Lorde, because he hath heard your grudgynges agaynst the Lorde: And what are we, that ye haue murmured agaynst vs:

8 And Moyses sayde: At euen shall the Lord geue you flesshe to eate, and in the morynng bread inough, for the Lorde hath heard your murmuringes which ye murmure agaynst him: for what are we: Your murmurings are not against vs, but agaynst the Lorde.

9 And Moyses spake vnto Aaron: say vnto al the congregation of the children of Israel, come foorth before the Lord: for he hath hearde your grudgynges.

10 And as Aaron spake vnto the whole congregation of the chyldren of Israel, they looked towarde the wylderneſſe, and beholde, the glory of the Lorde appeared in the cloude.

11 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

12 I haue hearde the murmuringes of the children of Israel, tell them therfore and say: at euen ye shall eate flesshe, and in the morynng ye shalbe fylled with bread, (c) and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde your God.

(c) God worketh al that he doth for this ende, that the knowledge of him may stick depelier in our myndes.

13 And at euen the quailes came vp and couered the tentes, and in the morynng the deawe lay rounde about them.

C 14 And when the deawe was gone, beholde, vpon the grounde in the wylderneſſe there lay a small rounde thyng, as small as the hoare frost on the ground.

15 And when the children of Israel saw it, they said euery one to his neighbour, it is "Manna: for they wist not what it was. And Moyses said vnto thē: This is the bread whiche the Lorde hath geuen you to eate.

" Man, which sygnifieth gift.

16 This is the worde whiche the Lorde hath commaunded: (d) gather of it euerye man for him selfe for to eate, a gomer full for euery man, according to the number of your soules, and take euery man for them whiche are in his tentes.

(d) Hauyng receaued gifts at gods hand, we haue nede of lessons for the due vse of the same, els shoulde we abuse them to our destruction.

17 And the children of Israel did euen so, and gathered some more, some lesse.

18 And when they did meate it with a gomer, vnto him that gathered much, remayned nothyng ouer, and vnto hym that had gathered litle, was there no lacke: euery man gathered sufficient for his eatyng.

19 And Moyses sayde vnto them: (e) see that no man let ought remayne to the morynng.

(e) This doctrine al o pertaineth to vs, who are bydden to aske but our dayly foode, and forbydden to be carefull for to morowe.

20 Notwithstanding, (f) they hearkened not vnto Moyses: but some of them left of it vntill the morynng, and it waxed (g) full of wormes, & corrupted: and Moyses was angry with them.

(f) The faithlesse disobedience of the people.

(g) So God punisheth thē y greedily gather goodes, trustyng rather to their owne riches and diligence, then to his goodnes and prouidence.

21 And they gathered all morynnges euery man as muche as sufficed for his eatyng: and assoone as the heate of the sunne came, it moult.

22 And the fyrst day they gathered twise as muche bread, two gomers for one man: and all the rulers of the congregation came and tolde Moyses.

D

23 He sayd vnto them, This is that whiche the Lorde hath sayd: To morowe is the rest of the holy sabboth vnto the Lorde, bake that whiche you will bake to day, and sethe that ye will sethe, and that whiche remayneth, lay vp tyll the morynng.

24 (h) And they layed it vp till the morning as Moyses bad: and it did not corrupt, neyther bred there any worme therein.

(h) That good that is gathered according to Gods will, is kept safe for them that vse it with a good conscience. That that is gathered otherwyse commeth to naught.

25 And Moyses sayde: eate that to day, for it is the sabboth vnto the Lorde, to day ye shall not finde it in the fielde.

26 Sixe dayes ye shall gather it, and in the seuenth day whiche is the sabboth, in it there shalbe none.

27 (i) Notwithstandyng, there went out some of the people in the seuenth day for to gather, and they founde none.

(i) Vnlawfull couetyng is frustrate.

28 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Howe (k) long refuse ye to kepe my commaundementes and my lawes:

(k) The obstinate frowardnes of the people reprehended

29 See, the Lorde hath geuen you a sabboth, therfore he geueth you the fyrst day bread for two dayes: byde therfore euerye man at home, and let no man go out of his place the seuenth day.

30 And the people rested the seuenth day.

31 And the house of Israel called the name therof (l) Manna: and it was like coriander seede, but yet whyte, and the taste of it was lyke wafers made with honye.

(l) Manna was a figure of Christe, the heauēly foode of our soules.

32 And Moyses sayd: this is that which the the Lorde commaundeth, fill a gomer of it, whiche may be kept for your chyldren after you, that they may see the bread wherwith I haue fed you in the wylderneſſe when I brought you out of the lande of Egypt.

33 And Moyſes ſpake vnto Aaron: Take a pot, and put a gomer full of Manna therein, and lay it vp before the Lorde, to be kept for your children after you.

34 As the Lorde commaunded Moyſes, ſo Aaron layde it vp before the teſtimonie to be kept.

35 And the chyldren of Iſrael dyd eate Manna (m) fourtie yeres, vntil they came to a land inhabited, and ſo they did eate Manna, euen vntill they came vnto the borders of the lande of Chanaan.

36 A gomer, is the tenth part of an epha.

(m) So God yf we folowe his calling, not for a ſpace only, but all ỹ tyme of our pilgremage miniſtreth thynges neceſſarie for the ſame preſent, and to come, vntil we come to our inheritaunce, that is to ſay, his kyngdome.

¶ The.xvij. Chapter.

1 They come vnto Raphidim. 2 They grudge for want of water. 4 Moyſes prayeth to God. 6 Water is geuen out of the rocke. 7 To tempt God. 8 The Amalekites be ſlayne of the childrē of Iſrael. 10 Joſue. 14 God foretelleth the deſtruction of the Amalekites.

AND all the congregation of the children of Iſrael went on their iourneys frō the wylderneſſe of Sin, after the commaundement of the Lorde, and pitched in Raphidim, there was no water for the people to drinke.

2 (a) And ỹ people dyd chyde with Moyſes, and ſayde: geue vs water to drinke. Moyſes ſaid vnto them: Why chyde you with me: Wherfore do ye tempt ỹ Lorde:

3 There the people thirſted for water, and ỹ people murmured againſt Moyſes, and ſaide: Wherefore haſt thou thus brought vs vp out of Egypt, to kil me, & my children, and my cattell with thyrſt:

4 And Moyſes cryed vnto the Lorde, ſaying: What ſhall I do vnto this people, they be almoſt redy to ſtone me:

5 And the Lorde ſaid vnto Moyſes: Go before the people, and take with thee of the elders of Iſrael: & thy rod wherewith thou ſmoteſt the ryuer take in thine hande, and go.

6 Beholde, I ſtande before thee vpon the rocke that is in Horeb, & thou ſhalt ſmyte the rocke, and there ſhall come water out thereof, that the people may drinke. And Moyſes dyd euen ſo before the eyes of the elders of Iſrael.

7 And he called the name of the place (b) Maſſah, and Meribah, becauſe of the chiding of the children of Iſrael, and becauſe they tempted the Lorde, ſaying: Is the Lorde amongeſt vs, or not:

8 Then came Amelec and fought with Iſrael in Raphidim.

9 And Moyſes ſayde vnto " Joſua: Chooſe

(a) God is not ſledde to, olde benefites be not remembred: only they conſider the man, whoſe auctoritie they call vnto queſtion.

(b) To proue thus example in our hartes, Dauid mentioneth it. Pſal. 95. ſaying, harden not your hearts. &c.

" Ieho.ſua

Chose vs out men, and go fight with Amelec, and to morowe I will stande on the toppe of the hill, and the rodde of God shalbe in my hande.

10 Iosua did as Moyses bad hym, and fought with Amelec: and Moyses and Aaron, and Hur, went vp to the toppe of the hyll.

11 And it came to passe, that when Moyses held vp his hande, (c) Israel had the better: and when he let his hande downe, Amelec had the better.

(c) The feruent prayer of the godly, of howe great force it is, hereby it is well knowen.

12 But Moyses hands were heauie, and therfore they toke a stone and put it vnder him, and he sat downe theron: and Aaron and Hur stayed vp his handes, the one on the one side, and the other on the other side: And his handes remayned stedye, vntill the goyng downe of the sunne.

13 And Iosua discomforted Amelec and his people with the edge of the sworde.

14 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Wryte (b) this for a remembraunce in a booke, and commit it into the eares of Iosua, for I will vtterly put out the remembraunce of (c) Amelec from vnder heauen.

(b) This slaughter of ỹ Amelekites was but the begynnyng of Gods vengeaunce, as it appeareth. Deut. xv. and 1. Samuel. xv.

(c) In example to be tremebled at, of thẽ that persecute gods Church.

15 And Moyses made an aulter, and called the name of it: "The Lorde is he that worketh miracles for me.

"Iehouah Nissi, that is, the Lord, my banner.

16 For he said: the () hande is on the seate of God, the Lord wil haue warre with Amalec frõ generation to generation.

() This Hebrue phrase meaneth as much, as if he should say God sweareth by his throne.

¶ The. xviij. Chapter.

1 Iethro commeth to see Moyses, and the wyfe and children of Moyses. 8 Moyses declareth the deliueraunce of the children of Israel to his father in lawe. 10 Iethro confessing the God of Israel, offereth sacrifice. 15 To seeke God. 16 Moyses appoynteth other iudges with hym, and what maner ones they be.

A 1 IEthro ỹ priest of Madian Moyses father in lawe, heard of all that god had done for Moyses, and for Israel his people, and that the Lord had brought Israel out of Egypt.

2 Therefore he toke Sephora Moyses wyfe, after he had sent her backe,

3 And her two sonnes, of which the one was called Gershom: for he sayde, I haue ben an aliaunt in a straunge land:

4 The name of the other was Eliezer: for the God of my father [sayde he] was mine helpe, and deliuered me from the sworde of Pharao.

5 And Iethro Moyses father in lawe, came with his two sonnes, & his wife, vnto Moyses into ỹ wildernesse, where he abode by the mounte of God.

9 And he saide vnto Moyses: I thy father in lawe Iethro am come to thee, and thy wyfe also, and her two sonnes with her.

B 7 And Moyses went out to meete his father in lawe, and did obeysaunce, and kyssed hym: and eche asked other of his "health, and they came into the tent.

"Peace.

8 And Moyses tolde his father in lawe all that the Lorde had done vnto Pharao and to the Egyptians for Israels sake, and al the trauaile that had "come vpon them by the way, and howe the Lorde deliuered them.

"Had found them.

9 And Iethro reioyced ouer al the goodnesse which the Lorde had done to Israel, and because he had deliuered them out of the handes of the Egyptians.

10 And Iethro sayd: blessed be the Lord which hath deliuered you out of ỹ hand of the Egyptians, and out of the hand of Pharao, which hath also deliuered his people from ỹ captiuitie of ỹ Egyptians.

11 Nowe I knowe that the Lorde is greater then all gods: for in the thyng whereby they dealt cruelly with them, were they destroyed them selues.

12 And Iethro Moyses father in lawe toke burnt offeringes and sacrifices, to offer to God: And Aaron and all the elders of Israel came to eate bread with Moyses father in lawe before God.

13 And on the morowe Moyses sate to iudge the people: and the people stoode about Moyses from morning vnto euẽ.

14 And when Moyses father in lawe saw all that he dyd vnto the people, he sayd: What is this that thou doest vnto the people? why sittest thou thy selfe alone, and all the people stande about thee from morning vnto euen?

C

15 And Moyses sayde to his father in lawe: because the people come vnto me to seeke counsayle of God.

16 When they haue a matter, they come vnto vnto me, and I iudge betweene euery man & his neyghbour, & shew them the ordinaunces of God and his lawes.

17 And Moyses father in lawe sayde vnto hym: It is not well that thou doest.

18 Thou both weryest thy selfe, and this people that is with thee: For this thing is of more wayght, then thou art able to perfourme thy selfe alone.

19 Heare therfore nowe my voyce, and I wyll geue thee councell, and God shalbe with thee: Be thou vnto the people to Godwarde, that thou mayest bring the causes vnto God:

20 And thou shalt teache them ordinaunces and lawes, and shew them the way wherein they must walke, & the worke that they must do.

D 21 Moreouer, thou shalt seeke out among all the people, men of actiuitie [and] such as feare God, true men hating couetousnes, and place [of these] ouer the [people] rulers of thousandes, rulers of hundrethes, rulers of fiftithes, and rulers of tennes, 22 (a) And let them iudge the people at all seasons: and euery great matter that commeth, let them bryng vnto thee, but let them iudge all small causes themselues, and so shall it be easier for thy selfe, and they shall beare a [burthen] with thee.

(a) Iethro admoneth of godly vse to embraced true wisdome teacheth vs not to attribute to much to our selues but to submit our wisdome, counsaill, and prouidence vnto God.

23 If thou shalt do this thing, and God charge thee withall, thou shalt be able to endure, and yet the people shall come to their place in peace.

24 (b) And so Moyses obeyed the voyce of his father in lawe, and dyd all that he had sayde.

(b) Though Iethro were not to be compared, yet Moyses followeth his counsaile. So we also must followe whatsome instructions, whosoeuer putteth them in our mynde.

25 And Moyses chose actiue men out of all Israel, and made them as heades ouer the people, namely rulers of thousandes, rulers of hundrethes, rulers of fiftithes, and rulers of tennes, 26 And they iudged the people at all seasons: but brought the harde causes vnto Moyses, and iudged all small matters themselues.

27 And Moyses let his father in lawe depart: and he went into his owne lande.

¶ The. xix. Chapter.

1 They come to mount Sinai. 5 The people of Israel, the people of God. 6 A priestly kingdome, an holy nation. 7 Moyses declareth the worde of God. 9 God woulde that credite should be geuen to Moyses wordes. 10 The people is commaunded to be sanctified. 12 He that toucheth the mountayne, is stoned. 14 The people is sanctified. 16 God appeareth in thunder and lightning, to be feared of the people. 22 The priestes are sanctified. 24 The people and priestes may not touche the hyll.

* The maner and place of the lawe published is set forth, that so great a benefite myght be receaued with due reuerence. (a) That they departed out of Raphidim, whiche was a great way from Sinai.

1  N* the thirde moneth when the chyldren of Israel were gone out of the lande of Egypt, (a) the same day came they into the wyldernesse of Sinai.

2 For they were departed from Raphidim, and were come to the desert of Sinai, and had pitched their tentes in the wyldernesse, and there Israel campped before the mounte.

(b) God wouldest haue his benefites rehearsed, that the people myght therof be myndefull. (c) Seyng they haue seene by experience exceeding loue that God beareth them, the more vnkynde they be, if they refuse to obey his wyll.

3 But Moyses went vp vnto God, and the Lorde called vnto hym out of the mountayne, saying: Thus shalt thou (b) say vnto the house of Iacob, and tell the chyldren of Israel,

4 Ye haue (c) seene what I did vnto the Egyptians, and toke you vp vpon (b) Eagles wynges, and haue brought you vnto my selfe.

5 Nowe therefore yf ye wyll heare my voyce in deede, and kepe my couenaunt, ye shall be [as] a deare " treasure vnto me aboue all nations: (c) for al the earth is myne.

" A deare and a precious thyng, of all men greatly desired.

(b) The Eagle careth her young ones vpon her wynges, fearyng onely mans violence, whiche rather then they should take harme, she would receaue the harme in her owne body. In Exodo therof, serued the cloude that kept of the Egyptians force.

6 Ye shalbe vnto me also a (f) kingdome of priestes, & an holy people: And these are the wordes whiche thou shalt say vnto the chyldren of Israel.

(c) As God sayeth, for though all the earth be mine, yet ye in especiall maner.

(f) No prophane kyngdom dependyng of outwarde sway, but a priestly and a sacred kyngdome. 1. Pet. 2. b. 9. It is applyed to vs the true Israelites.

7 Moyses came and called for the elders of the people, and layde before theyr faces all these wordes whiche the Lorde commaunded hym.

8 And the people aunswered altogether, and sayde: (g) All that the Lorde hath sayd, we will do. And Moyses brought the wordes of the people vnto ỹ Lord.

(g) A fayre promise, but not performed in y ende. Considering therfore our weakenes, let vs often call to minde what we promised God in our Baptisme, & be confirmed.

9 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moyses: Io, I come vnto thee in a thicke cloude, (h) that the people may heare me talkyng with thee, and beleue thee for euer. Moyses shewed the wordes of the people vnto the Lorde.

(h) For it standeth vs much vpon, that Gods ministers be of due credite & authoritie, and to haue euident tokens of Gods presence, lest the worde be deceaued.

10 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Go vnto the people, and (i) sanctifie thē to day and to morowe, and let them (k) washe theyr clothes.

(i) Be naturally vncleane, we must be first sanctified, yer Gods worde can be rooted in vs. (k) Outward signe of the inward puretie required, as was ỹ forbearing of flyes [illegible]

11 And be redy against the thirde day, for the thirde day "the Lorde wyll come downe in the sight of all the people vpon mount Sinai.

12 (i) And thou shalt set boundes vnto the people rounde about, & say: take heede to your selues that ye go not vp into the mount, or touche the border of it: whosoeuer toucheth the mounte, shall surely dye.

13 There shall not an hande touche it, els he shalbe stoned, or shot through: whether it be beast, or man, it shall not liue: when the " trumpet bloweth long, then may they come vp into the mountayne.

¶ 14 And Moyses went downe from the mount vnto the people, and sanctified them, and they washed their clothes.

15 And he sayd vnto the people: be redy agaynst the thirde day, and come not at [your] wyues.

16 And the thirde day in the mornyng there was (m) thunder and lyghtnyng, and a thicke cloude vpon the mount, and the voyce of the trumpet exceedyng loude, so that all the people that was in the hoast was afrayde.

17 And Moyses brought the people out of the tentes to meete with God, and they stoode at the neather part of the hil.

18 And mount Sinai was altogether on a smoke, because the Lorde descended downe vpon it in fire, and the smoke thereof, ascended vp as the smoke of a furnace, and all the mount quaked exceedyngly.

19 And when the voyce of the trumpet blewe long, and waxed louder and louder, Moyses spake, and God aunswered hym by a voyce.

20 And the Lorde (n) came downe vpon mount Sinai, euen in the toppe of the hill: & when the Lord called Moyses vp into the top of the hil, Moyses went vp.

21 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moyses: (o) Go downe, charge the people, lest they breake out from their boundes to see the Lorde, and so (p) many of them perishe.

22 And let the priestes also whiche come to the Lorde sanctifie them selues, lest the Lorde destroy them.

23 And Moyses said vnto the Lord: The people can not come vp into the mount Sinai, for thou chargest vs, saying: set boundes about the hill, and sanctifie it.

24 And the Lord sayd vnto him: Away, and get thee downe, & thou shalt come vp, thou and Aaron with thee: but let not the (q) priestes and the people presume for to come vp vnto the Lord, lest he destroy them.

25 And so Moyses went downe vnto the people, and tolde them.

(i) The lorde wyll come downe, for I wyll come downe.

(i) Men must be no bolder in gods matters then he geueth them leaue, nor farther curious, then he reuealeth in his worde.

" Or, Cornet.

(m) The lawe was geuen with terrour, that men seeyng Goddes glorie, myght submit them selues.

(n) God is sayde to descende, because he sheweth hym to vs in more ample maner, and geueth manyfest tokens of his presence.

(o) Howe nedefull then be magistrates in a common weale to stay the wylfulnes of the people.

(p) God forbiddeth them for their owne cõmoditie, lest his bryghtnes shoulde ouerwhelme them

(q) The priestes them selues must kepe thẽ within their boundes, who as they passe other in dignitie, so must they gene thẽ example of sober lyfe.

6 And shewe mercy vnto (i) thousandes in them that loue me, and kepe my commaundementes.

7 (k) Thou shalt not take the name of the Lorde thy God in vayne: for the Lorde will not holde him giltlesse that taketh his name in vayne.

8 Remember the sabboth day that thou (l) sanctifie it.

20 And Moyses sayde vnto the people: feare not, for God is come to proue you, and that his feare may be before your

And the people (cc) stoode a farre of: and Moyses went into the (dd) thicke cloude where God was.

22 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Thus thou shalt say vnto the children of Israel: Ye haue seene that (ee) I haue talked with you from out of heauen.

23 Ye shall not make therfore (ff) with me gods of siluer, neyther shall ye make ye gods of golde.

(a) That is, the first partition of this booke after the Hebrues, called the iudiciall part, that is, orders taken for the dissoluyng of controuersies. Deut. xv.

1 These (a) are the lawes whiche thou shalt set before them.

2 * If thou bye a seruaunt that is an Hebrue, sixe yeres he shall serue, & in the seuenth, he shall go out free [paying] nothyng.

(b) Albeit God made this lawe for defence of liberte, yet so would he haue it kept, that the maister myght not be endammaged: for we muste not do good to one, with anothers harme.

3 If he came alone, he shall go out alone: and yf he came maryed, his wyfe shall go out with hym.

4 (b) And if his maister haue geuen hym a wyfe, and she haue borne him sonnes or daughters: then the wyfe and her children shalbe her maisters, and he shall go out alone.

5 And yf the seruaunt say: I loue my maister, my wyfe, and my children, I wyll not go out free:

6 (c) His maister shall bryng hym vnto the iudges, and set hym to the doore or the doorepost, and his maister shal bore his eare through with a naule, and he shalbe his seruaunt (d) for euer.

7 And if a man sell his daughter to be a seruaunt, she shal not go out as the men seruauntes do.

8 If she please not her maister, who hath [nowe] promised her mariage, then shall he let her redeeme her selfe: To sell her vnto a straunge nation shall he haue no power, seyng (e) he despised her.

9 If he haue promysed her vnto his sonne to wyfe, he shall deale with her as men do with their daughters.

10 And if he take hym another wyfe: yet her

(c) This might be done for two causes: first, lest maisters shold retayne their seruaunts at their owne pleasure, and that all men myght know that they continued bondemen of their owne accorde. Secondly lest many taking bondage in good part, myght feare the lyberty roche, and the more set by their liberte.

her foode, her rayment, and duetie of maryage shall he not minishe.

11 And if he do not (f) these three vnto her, thē shal she go out free & pay no money.

12 (g) He that smyteth a man, that he dye, shalbe slayne for it.

13 If a man lay not awayte, but God deliuer (him) into his hande, then I wyll poynt thee a *place whither he shal flee.

14 If a man come presumpteously vpon his neyghbour to slay hym with guyle, thou shalt take him from myne aulter that he dye.

15 He that smyteth his father or his mother, let hym " be slayne for it.

16 He that stealeth a man, and selleth him, if he be proued vppon hym, shalbe slayne for it.

17 And he that curseth his father or mother, shalbe put to death for it.

18 *If men stryue together, and one smite "another with a stone, or with his fyste, and he dye not, but lyeth in his bed:

19 If he rise agayne, and walke without vpon his staffe, then shall he that smote hym go quite, saue only he shall beare his charges for leesyng his tyme, and shall paye for his healyng.

20 And if a man smyte his seruaunt or his mayde with a rod, & they dye vnder his hande, he shalbe greeuously punished.

21 And if he continue a day or two, (h) it shal not be reuēged, for he is his money.

22 If men striue, & hurt a woman with chylde, so that her fruite depart from her, and yet no destruction folow: then he shalbe sore punished according as the womans husbande wyll laye to his charge, and he shall pay as the dayes men wyll appoynt hym.

23 And if any destruction folowe, (i) then he shall geue life for life,

24 Eye for eye, tothe for tothe, hande for hande, foote for foote, 25 Burnyng for burnyng, Wounde for Wounde, stripe for stripe.

26 (k) And if a man smyte his seruaunt or his mayde in the eye, that it perishe, he shall let them go free for the eyes sake.

27 Also if he smyte out his seruaunt or his maydes tothe, he shall let them go out free for the tothes sake.

28 If an ore " gore a man or a woman, that they dye, * then the ore shalbe stoned, and his flesh shall not be eaten: but the owner of the ore shall go quite.

29 If the ore were wont to pushe with his horne in time past, and it hath ben tolde his maister, and he hath not kept him, but that he hath killed a man or a woman: (l) then the ore shalbe stoned, and his owner shall dye also.

30 If there be set to hym a sūme of money, then he shal geue for the redeeming of his life whatsoeuer is layde vpō him.

31 And whether he haue gored a sonne or a daughter, accordyng to the same iudgement shall it be done vnto him.

32 But if it be a seruaunt or a mayde that the ore hath gored, then he shall geue vnto their maister thirtie sicles, and the ore shalbe stoned.

33 If a man open a well, or digge a pitte, and couer it not, and an ore or an asse fall therein:

34 The owner of the pitte shall make it good, & geue money vnto their maister, and the dead beast shall be his.

35 If one mans ore hurt another, that he dye: then they shall sell the lyue ore, and deuide the money, and the dead ore also they shall deuide.

36 Or if it be knowen that the ore hath vsed to pushe in tyme past, & his maister hath not kept hym: he shall paye ore for ore, and the dead shalbe his owne.

(f) That is, if he neyther marry to hym selfe, nor to his sonne, nor let her redeeme her self out of bondage.

(g) Wilfull murder of set purpose, he enquireth of the maner, & the penaltie therof, and of certayne other trespasses punishable by death.

(h) In these cruell lawes, we muste not seeke for absolute perfectiō, whiche God tempered according to the rudenesse of ỹ people, amongst whom many thinges were to be winked at for the tyme.

(i) The execution hereof pertayneth to magistrates: For priuate wreche is forbidden. Math.v.

(k) They that cannot rule seruauntes with moderatiō, as thoughe vnworthy of them, must let them go free.

¶ The. xxiiii. Chapter.

1 Moyses is commaunded to go vp vnto the mounte. 4 Moyses wryteth the wordes of God into one volume, and readeth them vnto the people.

A 1 AND he said vnto Moyses: Come vp vnto the Lorde, thou and Aaron, Nadab and Abihu, & the threscore and ten elders of Israel, and ye shall worship a farre of.

2 And Moyses hym selfe alone shall go vnto the Lorde: but they shall not come nygh, neither shall the people go vp with hym.

3 And Moyses came and tolde the people all the wordes of the Lorde, and all the iudgementes: And all the people answered with one voyce, and sayde: All the wordes whiche the Lorde hath sayde wyll we do.

4 And Moyses wrote all the wordes of the Lord, and rose vp early, and set hym an aulter vnder the hill, and. xii. stones, according to the. xii. tribes of Israel.

5 And sent young men of the children of Israel, whiche brought burnt offeringes, and offered peace offeringes of oxen vnto the Lorde.

(a) The reason of this ceremonie is declared in the. ix. to the Hebrewes.

6 And Moyses toke halfe of the (a) blood, and put it in basins, and the other halfe he sprinckled on the aulter.

B 7 And he toke the booke of the couenaũt, & read it in the audience of the people: And they sayd, All that the Lord hath sayd, wyll we do, and be obedient.

8 And Moyses toke the blood, & sprinckled it on the people, and sayd: Beholde, this is the blood of the couenaũt which the Lorde hath made with you vpon all these wordes.

9 Then went Moyses and Aaron, Nadab, and Abihu, and the threscore and ten elders of Israel vp.

10 And they saw the God of Israel: and there was vnder his feete as it were a worke of a Saphire stone, & as it were the heauen when it is cleare.

(b) God neither destroyed them, nor shewed hym selfe terrible as to the people. Chap. 3.

11 And (b) he layde not his hande vpon the nobles of the children of Israel: and they saw God, and did eate and drinke.

12 And the Lord said vnto Moyses: Come vp to me into the hill, and be there, and I wyll geue thee tables of stone, and a law & cõmaundementes which I haue written, that thou mayest teache them.

13 And Moyses rose vp, and his minister Iosuah: and Moyses went vp into the hill of God,

C 14 And said vnto the elders, Tary ye here vntill we come agayne vnto you: Beholde, here is Aaron and Hur with you. If any man haue any matters to do, let hym come to them.

Hebr. who is a master of wordes.

15 And Moyses went vp into the mount, and a cloude couered the hyll.

16 And the glory of the Lord abode vpon the moũt Sinai, & the cloude couered it six dayes: & the seuenth day he called vnto Moses out of ỹ middes of the cloude.

17 And the sight of the glory of the Lord, was like consumyng fire on ỹ top of the hill, in the eyes of ỹ children of Israel.

18 And Moyses went into the middes of the cloude, and gate hym vp into the moũtaine: & Moyses was in the mount fourtie dayes and fourtie nyghtes.

15 Thou shalt also take one Ramme, and Aaron and his sonnes shall put theyr handes vpon the head of the Ramme.

16 And when thou hast slaine the Rãme, thou shalt take his blood, and sprinckle it rounde about vpon the aulter:

17 And cut the Ramme in peeces, and washe the inwardes of hym, and his legges, and put them vnto the peeces, and vnto his head.

¶ The .xxxii. Chapter.

1 The Israelites do pray vnto the golden calfe. 7 God warneth Moyses of the sinne of the people. 9 The people of Israel of a stiffe necke. 11 Moyses intreateth God for Israel, citing his promises. 15 Moyses descendeth of the hyll. The tables described of God. 19 Moyses beyng angry breaketh the tables, and the calfe. 21 He chideth his brother Aaron. 27 The Idolaters be murdered of the Leuites at Moyses commaundement. 30 Moyses rebuketh the offence of the people. 31 He wyll be putten out of the booke of lyfe, and haue the peoples offence pardoned. 33 They that be writen in the booke of God.

AND when ỳ people sawe that (a) it was lõg or Moyses came downe out of the mountaine, they gathered them selues together " vnto Aaron, and sayd vnto hym, Up, make vs Gods to go before vs: for we wote not what is become of this Moyses, the man that brought vs out of the lande of Egypt.

(a) Hebr. He made a confusion. For it is a confusion vnto the people when they be destitute of a gouernour.

2 And Aaron sayd vnto them: Plucke of the golden earynges which are in the eares of your wiues, of your sonnes, & of your daughters, & bring them vnto me.

3 And all the people plucked of the golden earinges which they had in their eares, and brought them vnto Aaron.

4 And he receaued them of their handes, & " fashioned it with a grauer, & made of it a calfe of molten mettel: and they said, These be thy gods O Israel, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt.

" Or, cast it in a mould.

5 And when Aaron sawe that, he made an an aulter before it, and Aaron made proclamation, saying: To morowe is the holy day of the Lorde.

6 And they rose vp in the morning, and offered burnt offeringes, and brought peace offeringes also: and the people sat them downe to eate and drinke, and rose vp agayne to play.

¶ 7 And the Lord sayd vnto Moyses: Go get thee downe, thy people which thou broughtest out of the lande of Egypt, hath marred all.

8 They are turned quickly out of the way whiche I commaunded them: for they haue made them a calfe of moulten mettall, and haue worshipped it, and haue offred therunto, saying: These be thy goddes O Israel, whiche haue brought thee out of the lande of Egypt.

9 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moyses, I haue seene this people: and beholde, it is a stynecked people.

10 And nowe suffer me, that my wrath may ware whot against them, and consume them: and I wyll make of thee a mightie people.

11 And Moyses besought the Lorde his God, and sayd: O Lord, why doth thy wrath ware whot agaynst thy people whiche thou hast brought out of the lande of Egypt with great power, and with a mightie hande?

12 Wherfore should the Egyptians speake and say: For a mischiefe dyd he bryng them out, euen for to slay them in the mountaynes, & to consume them from the face of the earth? Turne from thy fierce wrath, and repent of this euyll [deuise] agaynst thy people.

13 Remember Abraham, Isahac, and Israel thy seruauntes, to whom thou swarest by thy owne selfe, and saydest vnto them: I wyll multiplie your seede as the starres of heauen, and all this lande that I haue spoken of wyll I geue vnto your seede, and they shall inherite it for euer.

¶ 14 And the Lorde refrayned hym selfe from the euill whiche he sayd he would do vnto his people.

15 And Moyses turned his backe, & went downe from the hyll, & the two tables of the testimonie were in his hande.

16 And the same tables were written in both the leaues, [euen] on the one side, & on the other, were they written: And these tables were the worke of God, and the writing was the writing of God, grauen in the tables.

17 And when (a) Iosuah hearde the noyse of the people as they showted, he sayde vnto Moyses: [there is] a noyse of warre in the hoast.

(a) Iosuah accompanyed Moyses in ye mount, although there was not like reuelation to him as to Moyses.

18 And he aunswered: It is not the crie of them that haue the masterie, nor of thē that haue the worse: [but] I do heare the noyse of them that sing.

19 And assoone as he came nigh vnto the hoast, he sawe the calfe, and the daunsing: and Moyses wrath waxed whot, and he cast the tables out of his handes, and brake them beneath the hyll.

20 And he toke the calfe whiche they had made, and burned it in the fire, & stampt it into pouder, & strawed it in the water, & made the childrē of Israel drinke of it.

21 And Moyses said vnto Aaron: what did this people vnto thee, that thou hast brought so great a sinne vpon them? ¶

22 And Aaron aunswered, Let not the wrath of my Lorde ware fierce: thou knowest the people that they are [euen] set on mischiefe.

23 For they sayde vnto me: Make vs goddes to go before vs, for we wote not what is become of Moyses, the man that brought vs out of ye land of Egypt.

24 And I said vnto them: Let them that haue gold, plucke it of: And thei brought it vnto me, and I did cast it into the fire, and therof came out this calfe.

25 Moyses therfore sawe that the people were naked (and that Aaron had made them naked vnto their shame, amongest their enemies)

26 And Moyses stode in the gate of the hoast, and sayd: who [pertayneth] to the Lorde, [let hym come] vnto me. And all the sonnes of Leui gathered thē selues together vnto hym.

27 And he said vnto them, Thus sayeth the Lord God of Israel: Put euery mā his sworde by his side, and go in and out from gate to gate throughout the hoast, and slay euery man his brother, & euery man his companion, and euery man his neighbour.

28 And the chyldrē of Leui dyd as Moyses had said: And there fel of the people ye same day about three thousande men. ¶

29 And Moyses sayd: "Fill your handes vnto the Lord this day, euery man vpō his sonne, & vpō his brother, & that there may be geuen you a blessing this day. "Or, consecrate.

30 And on the morowe Moyses said vnto ye people, Ye haue sinned a great sinne:

And nowe I will go vp vnto the Lord, peraduenture I may purchase an attonement for your sinne.

31 Moyses therefore went agayne vnto the Lorde, and sayde: (b) Oh, this people haue sinned a great sinne, and haue made them gods of golde.

32 And nowe forgeue them their sinne: or if thou wylt not, wype me I pray thee out of thy (c) booke whiche thou hast written.

33 And the Lorde sayd vnto Moyses: (d) I wyll put hym out of my booke that hath sinned agaynst me.

34 And nowe go thou, bryng the people vnto the place whiche I said vnto thee, behold, mine angell shal go before thee: Neuerthelater, in that day when I visite, I wyl (e) visite their sinne vpō them.

35 And the Lorde plagued (f) the people, because they made the calfe whiche Aaron made.

(d) I will make it knowen that he was neuer any of the electe.

To finde grace before God. 17 Moyses is mercyfully heard. 18 He desireth to see the glory of God. 22 He is bydden to stande in a rocke.

A 1 AND the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Depart and go vp hence, thou and the people whiche thou hast brought out of the lande of Egypt, vnto the land which I sware vnto Abraham, Isahac, & Jacob, saying, vnto thy seede wyll I geue it.

2 And I will send an angell before thee, and I wyll cast out the Chanaanites, the Amorites, & the Hethites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Jebusites:

(a) By mylke, vnderstand all necessarie thinges: by hony, all delicates & pleasaunt thinges.

3 Vnto a lande that floweth with (a) mylke and hony. For I wyll not go amongest you my selfe: for ye are a styfnecked people, lest I consume thee in the way.

4 And when the people hearde this euil tidinges, they sorowed: and no man dyd put on his best rayment.

5 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses: Say vnto the chyldren of Israel, ye are a styfnecked people: I must come once sodaynly vpon you, and make an ende of you: therefore nowe put thy goodly rayment from thee, that I may wyt what to do vnto thee.

6 And the children of Israel layde their goodly rayment from them, euen by the mount Horeb.

B 7 And Moyses toke the tabernacle, and pitched it without the hoast a farre of from the hoast, and called it the tabernacle of the congregation: And so it came to passe that euery one whiche woulde pray vnto the Lorde, went out vnto the tabernacle of the congregation whiche was without the hoast.

8 And when Moyses went out vnto the tabernacle, all the people rose vp, and stode euery man at his tent doore, and loked after Moyses, vntill he was gone into the tabernacle.

9 And assoone as Moyses was entred into the tabernacle, the cloudie piller descended, and stode at the doore of the tabernacle, and he talked with Moyses.

10 And all the people sawe the cloudie piller stand at the tabernacle doore, and they rose vp and worshipped euery man in his tent doore.

11 And the Lord spake vnto Moyses (b) face to face, as a man speaketh vnto his freende. And he turned agayne into the hoast: but the young man Josuah his seruaunt the sonne of Nun, departed not out of the tabernacle.

(b) Graciously fauourably & louyngly, for no man can se God as this life.

12 And Moyses said vnto the Lord: See, thou sayest vnto me, Leade this people forth: & thou hast not shewed me whō thou wylt send with me. And thou hast sayd moreouer, I knowe thee by name, & thou hast also found grace in my sight.

13 Nowe therfore, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, then I pray thee shew me thy (c) way, that I may know thee, and that I may finde grace in thy sight, and consider also that this nation is thy people.

15 He sayd vnto hym: If thy presence go not with me, cary vs not hence.

16 For

16 For howe shall it be knowen here, that I and thy people haue founde fauour in thy sight, but in that thou goest with vs? If thou goest with vs, shall not I and thy people haue preeminence before all the people that are vpon the face of the earth?

17 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: I wyll do this also that thou hast sayd, for thou hast founde grace in my sight, and I knowe thee by name.

18 And he sayde: I beseche thee shewe me thy glorie.

19 who aunswered: I wyll make all my (d) good go before thee, & I wyll (e) call in the name of Iehouah before thee: and wyl shewe mercy to whom I wyll shewe mercy, and wyll haue compassion, on whom I wyll haue compassion.

20 And he said furthermore, Thou mayest not see my face: for there shall no man see me, and lyue.

21 And the Lorde sayd: Beholde, there is a place by me, and thou shalt stande vpon a rocke.

22 And whyle my glory goeth foorth, I wyll put thee in a clyft of the rocke, and will put my hand vpon thee, whyle I passe by.

23 And I wyll take away myne hande, and thou shalt see my backe partes: but my face shall not be seene.

¶ The .xxxix. Chapter.

1 The decking of Aaron. 2 The Ephod, or couering of the shoulders. 8 The Pettorale, or furniture for the brest. 22 The coate. 30 The holy plate. 31 The people offereth the Lorde all that he commaunded to be done.

AND of the blewe silke, purple, & scarlet, they made vestmentes of ministration, to do seruice in the holy place: and made the holye garmentes for Aaron as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

2 And he made the Ephod of golde, blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and whyte twyned silke.

3 And they dyd beate the golde into thinne plates, and cut it into wyers to worke it in the blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and in the fine whyte with brodered worke.

4 And they made two sydes for it, to close them vp by the two edges.

5 And the broderyng of the girdle that was vpon it, was of the same stuffe, and after the same worke, of golde, blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and twyned whyte silke, as the Lord cõmaunded Moyses.

6 And they wrought Onyx stones closed in ouches of golde, and graued as signettes are grauen, with the names of the children of Israel.

7 And he put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, that they shoulde be stones for a remembraunce of the children of Israel, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

8 And he made the brestlap of brodered worke lyke the worke of the Ephod, euen of gold, blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and twyned whyte silke.

9 It was foure square: and they made the brestlap double, an hande breadth long, and an hande breadth brode.

10 And they fylled it with foure rowes of stones. The first rowe, a Sardius, a Topazius, and a Smaragdus.

11 The seconde rowe, a Rubie, a Saphire, and a Diamonde.

12 In the thirde rowe, a Lyncurius, an Achates, and an Amethyst.

13 In the fourth rowe, a Turcas, an Onyx, and a Jaspis: and they were closed in ouches of golde in their inclosers.

14 And the twelue stones were grauen as signets, with the names of the children of Israel, euery stone with his name, accordyng to the twelue tribes.

15 And they made vpon the brestlap two fastenyng chaynes of writhen worke and pure golde.

16 And they made two ouches of golde, and two golde ringes: and put the two ringes in ẏ two corners of the brestlap.

17 And they put the two chaynes of golde in the two ringes in the corners of the brestlap.

18 And the two endes of the two chaynes they fastened in the two ouches, and put them on the shoulders of the Ephod, vpon the forefront of it.

19 And they made two ringes of golde, and put them on the two corners of the brestlap vpon the edge of it [which was] on the inside by the Ephod.

20 And they made two golden ringes, and put them on the two sydes of the Ephod, beneath on the fore syde of it, and ouer agaynst his felowe, aboue vpon the broderyng of the Ephod.

21 And they strayned the brestlap by his ringes vnto the ringes of the Ephod, with a lase of blewe silke, that it myght be vpon the broderyng of the Ephod, & that the brestlap shoulde not be loosed from of the Ephod, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

22 And he made the tunicle vnto the Ephod of wouen worke, altogether of blewe silke:

23 And there was a hole in the myddest of the tunicle, as the coller of a partlet, with a bande rounde about the coller, that it shoulde not rent.

24 And in the tunicle they made hemmes with pomgranates of blewe silke, purple, scarlet, and whyte twyned silke.

25 And they made litle belles of pure golde, and put them amongst the pomgranates rounde about vpon the edge of the tunicle.

26 A bell and a pomgranate, a bell and a pomgranate rounde about the hemmes of the tunicle to minister in, as the Lord commaunded Moyses.

27 And they made coates of fine whyte silke of wouen worke, for Aaron and his sonnes.

28 And

31 And tyed vnto it a lase of blewe silk, to fasten it an hye vpon the mitre, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.
32 Thus was all the worke of the tabernacle [euen] of the tabernacle of the congregation finished: And the children of Israel did according to al that the lorde commaunded Moyses, euen so did they.
33 And they brought the tabernacle vnto Moyses [euen] the tabernacle and all his furniture, his taches, his boordes, his barres, his pillers, & his sockettes.

41 The ministryng vestmentes to serue in the holy place, & the holy vestmentes for Aaron the priest, and his sonnes raymentes to minister in, in ỹ priestes office:
42 Accordyng to all that the Lorde commaunded Moyses, euen so the chyldren of Israel made all the worke.
43 And Moyses dyd loke vpon all the worke: and beholde, they had done it as the Lorde had commaunded, euen so had they done it: and Moyses blessed them.

The

¶ The. vj. Chapter.

1 Of othes. 2 The clensing of hym that toucheth vncleane thynges. 6 The purgation of an othe. 15 And of sinne done by ignorauce.

IF a soule sinne, and heare the voyce (a) of swearing, and is a witnesse, whether he hath seene or knowen of it, if he do not vtter it, he shall beare his sinne.

(a) This is diuersly expoũded, because ỹ Hebrue worde hath a double signification: this is ỹ sense as some thinketh. If a Judge doth minister an othe to any priuate man, to declare the truth of any thyng that he hath seene, & do it not, he sinneth: other this. If any man see his neighbour cõmit any sinne, 3 which is by ỹ lawe of God execrable or detestable, and did consile it, & not open it as muche as in hym did lye, he did sinne: some other taketh it thus. All such as dyd heare any mãs curse, banne, and abuse the name of God, & dyd not opẽ it vnto the magistrate, dyd sinne: the first sense is best liked.

2 Either if a soule touche any vncleane thyng, whether it be the carion of an vncleane beast, or a carion of vncleane cattell, or a carion of vncleane creeping thynges, and is not ware of it: beholde, he is vncleane, and hath offended.

Either if he touche any vncleanesse of man, whatsoeuer vncleanesse it be that a man is wont to be defiled withall, and is not ware of it, and commeth to ỹ knowledge of it, he hath trespassed.

4 Either if a soule sweare, and pronounceth with his lippes to do euill or to do good, whatsoeuer it be that a man shall pronounce with an othe, and the thyng be hyd from hym, and commeth to the knowledge of it, and hath offended in one of these:

5 when he hath sinned in one of these thinges, he shall confesse that he hath sinned in that thyng.

6 Therfore shall he bryng his trespasse offering vnto the Lorde, for his sinne whiche he hath sinned, a female from the flocke, a lambe or a shee goate, for a sinne offering: And the priest shal make an attonement for hym concerning his sinne.

B Leuit.xii.d. Luke.ii.d.

7 *And if he be not able to bryng a sheepe, he shall bryng for his trespasse whiche he hath sinned, two turtle doues, or two young pigeons vnto the Lorde: one for a sinne offering, & the other for a burnt offering.

8 And he shall bryng them vnto ỹ priest, which shall offer the sinne offering first, and wryng the necke a sunder of it, but plucke it not cleane of.

9 And he shall sprinckle of the blood of the sinne offering vpon the side of the aulter, and the rest of the blood shall he powre by the bottome of the aulter: for it is a sinne offering.

10 And he shall offer the seconde for a burnt offering, as the maner is: and so shall the priest make an attonement for hym for the sinne whiche he hath sinned, and it shalbe forgeuen hym.

11 And if he be not able to bryng two turtle doues, or two young pigeons, then he that hath sinned shall bryng for his offering the tenth part of an Epha of fine floure for a sinne offering: but put none oyle thereto, neither put any frankensence theron: for it is a sinne offering.

12 Then shall he bryng it to the priest, and the priest shall take his handfull of it for a remembraunce thereof, & burne it vpon the aulter, to be a sacrifice for the Lord made by fire: for it is a sinne offering.

13 And the priest shall make an attonement for hym as touchyng his sinne that he hath sinned in one of these, and it shalbe forgeuen hym: And the remnaunt shalbe the priestes, as a meate offering.

14 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, ¶ saying:

15 If a soule trespasse and sinne thorowe ignorauce in thinges that are consecrated vnto the Lorde, let hym bryng for his trespasse vnto the Lord, a Ramme without blemishe out of the flockes, valued in money at two sicles, after * the sicle of the sanctuarie, that it may be for a trespasse offering. Exod.xxx.

16 And he shall make amendes for the harme that he hath done in the holy thyng, & let hym put the fift part more thereto, and geue it vnto the priest: And the priest shall make an attonement for hym, with the Ramme that is for the trespasse, and it shalbe forgeuen hym.

17 If a soule sinne, and commit any of these thinges whiche are forbydden to be done by the cõmaundementes of the Lorde, and (b) wyst it not, & hath offended, and beare his sinne: (b) And doth afterwarde knowledge hym selfe to haue offended, and thinketh hym selfe to be giltie of that sinne.

18 Then shall he bryng a Ramme without blemishe out of the flocke, that is esteemed to be worth a trespasse offering, vnto the priest: And the priest shall make an attonement for hym concerning his ignorauce, wherein he erred, and was not ware, and it shalbe forgeuen hym.

19 This is a trespasse offering, for the trespasse committed against the Lorde.

Ex.xxviii g

11 And put of his rayment, and put on other, and carry the asshes out without the hoast vnto a cleane place.

12 The fire vpon the aulter shall burne styll, & neuer be put out: But the priest shall laye wood on it euery day in the morning, and put the burnt sacrifice vpon it, and he shall burne theron the fat of the peace offeringes.

(a) Christ prefigured Christe by it doth purge heate, and consume: so Christe by his death and passion purgeth sinners, consumeth sinnes, and in his holy spirit heateth and warmeth all faythfull. Num.xv. Leuit.iii.

13 (a) The fire shall euer burne vpon the aulter, and neuer go out.

14 * This is the lawe of the meate offering, which Aarons sonnes shall bryng before the Lord, euen before the aulter:

15 And one of them shall take his handfull of the floure of the meate offering, and of the oyle, and al the franckensence whiche is vpon the meate offering, and shall burne it vnto a remembraunce vpon the aulter for a sweete sauour, euen a memoriall of it vnto the Lorde.

16 And of the rest therof, shall Aaron and his sonnes eate: vnleauened shall it be eaten in the holy place, euen in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation they shall eate it.

17 It shall not be baken with leauen: I haue geuen it vnto them for their portion of my sacrifices made by fire: It is most holy, as is the sinne offering, and the trespasse offering.

18 All the males among the chyldren of Aaron shall eate of it: It shalbe a statute for euer in your generations concerning the sacrifice of the Lorde made by fire: let euery one that toucheth it, be holy.

19 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

20 This is the offering of Aaron, and of his sonnes, whiche they shall offer vnto the Lord in the day when he is annoynted: The tenth part of an Epha of floure for a meate offering perpetuall, halfe of it in the morning, and halfe therof at nyght.

D 21 In the frying panne it shalbe made with oyle, and when it is fryed, thou shalt bryng it in: and the baken peeces of the meate offeringes shalt thou offer for a sweete sauour vnto the Lorde.

22 And the priest of his sonnes, that is annoynted in his steede, shall offer it: It is the Lordes ordinaunce for euer, it shalbe burnt altogether.

23 For euery meate offering that is made for for the priest, shalbe burnt altogether, and shall not be eaten.

24 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

25 Speake vnto Aaron, and vnto his sonnes, and say, This is the lawe of the sinne offering: In the place where the burnt offering is kylled, shall the sinne offering be kylled before the Lorde, for it is most holy.

Osee.iiij.b. 26 *The priest that offereth it, shall eate it: In the holy place shall it be eaten, euen in the court of the tabernacle of the congregation.

27 Whatsoeuer shall touche the flesshe thereof, shalbe holy: and when there droppeth of the blood therof vpon any garment, thou shalt washe that whereon it droppeth, in the holy place.

28 *But the earthen pot that it is sodden in, shalbe broken: And yf it be sodden in a brasen pot, it shalbe scoured, & rensed in the water. Leui..xv.d

29 All the males among the priestes shal eate therof, for it is most holy.

30 And no sinne offeryng whose blood is brought into the tabernacle of the congregation to reconcile withall in the holy place, shalbe eaten: but shalbe burnt in the fire.

¶ The. vii. Chapter.

1 Trespasse offerynges. Sinne offerynges. 11 Of peace offerynges.
23 The fat and the blood may not be eaten.

1 LIkewyse this is the lawe(a) of the trespasse offering: it is moste holy.

(a) Because it was altogether burnt & fire, or that ỹ priestes only did eate it.

2 In the place where they kyll the burnt offering, shall they kyll the trespasse offering also, & the blood thereof shall he sprinckle rounde about vpon the aulter.

3 All the fat thereof shall he offer, the rumpe, and the fat that couereth the inwardes,

4 And the two kydneys, and the fat that is on them, and vpon the flankes, and the kall that is on the liuer shalt thou take away with the kydneys.

5 And the priest shall burne them vpon the aulter, to be a sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde: for it is a trespasse offering.

6 All the males among the priestes shall eate thereof: it shalbe eaten in the holy place, for it is most holy.

7 As the sinne offering is, so is the trespasse offering, one lawe serueth for both: that wherwith the priest shall make attonement, shalbe his.

8 And the priest that offereth any mans burnt offering, shall haue the skynne of ỹ burnt offering whiche he hath offred.

9 And all the meate offering that is baken in the ouen, and that is dressed in the panne, and in the frying panne, shalbe the priestes that offereth it.

10 And euery meate offering that is mingled with oyle, and that is drye, shall pertayne vnto all the sonnes of Aaron, and one shall haue as muche as another.

11 This is the law of the peace offering, whiche he shall offer vnto the Lorde.

12 If he offer it to geue thankes, he shall bryng vnto his(b) thanke offering vnleauened cakes mingled with oyle, and vnleaueued wafers annoynted with oyle, and cakes mingled with oyle of fine floure fryed.

(b) The Hebrewe worde signifieth to praise & geue thankes. this sacrifice they vsed, when any mā knowledged himself to be a sinner and confessed his sinne vnto the lorde, willing to reconcile him selfe vnto him.

13 He shall bryng his offering, with cakes of vnleauend bread for his peace offeringes, to geue thankes:

14 And of all the sacrifice he shall offer one for an heaue offering vnto the Lorde, and it shalbe the priestes that sprinckled the blood of the peace offeringes.

15 And the flesshe of his peace offeringes for thankes geuing, shalbe eatē the same day that it is offred: And let hym leaue nothyng of it vntill the morowe.

16 But if the offering of his sacrifice be a vowe, or of his owne free wyll, it shalbe eaten the same day that he offereth his sacrifice: and if ought remayne vntill the morowe, it may be eaten.

17 But as muche of the offered flesshe as remayneth vnto the thirde day, shalbe burnt with fire.

18 And if any of the flesh of his peace offeringes be eaten in the thirde day, then shall he that offereth it obtayne no fauour, neither shall it be reckened vnto him, but shalbe an abhomination: therfore the soule that eateth of it, shal beare his sinne.

19 And the flesshe that toucheth any vncleane thing, shal not be eaten, but burnt with fire: and of this flesshe all that be cleane, shall eate therof.

20 But if any soule eate of the flesshe of the peace offering that pertayneth vnto the Lord, hauing his vnclennesse vpon him: the same soule shall be cut of from among his people.

D 21 Moreouer, the soule that doth touche any vncleane thyng, that is of the vncleannesse of man, or of any vncleane beast, or any abhomination that is vncleane, and then eate of the flesshe of the peace offering whiche pertayneth vnto the Lorde: that soule shal be cut of from his people.

22 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

Leuit.iii.e. 23 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say: Ye shall eate no maner fat of beeues, of sheepe, and of goates.

24 Neuerthelater, the fat of the beast that dyeth alone, and the fat of that which is torne with wilde beastes, shalbe occupied in any maner of vse: but ye shall in no wyse eate of it.

25 For whosoeuer eateth the fat of the beast, of which men vse to bryng an offering made by fire vnto the Lorde: that soule that eateth it, shall be cut of from his people.

Gen ix.a. Leuit.vii.c and.xix.f. Deut xii.b. i.Reg.xiiii.e 26 Moreouer, ye* shall eate no maner of blood, whether it be of foule or of beast, in any your dwellynges.

27 Whatsoeuer soule it be that eateth any maner of blood, the same soule shall be cut of from his people.

E 28 And the Lorde talked with Moyses, saying:

29 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say: He that bringeth his peace offeryng vnto the Lorde, let hym bryng his gift vnto the Lord of his peace offering:

30 Let his owne handes bryng the offeringes of the Lorde made by fire: euen the fat with the brest shal he bryng, that the brest may be waued for a waue offering before the Lorde.

31 And the priest shall burne the fat vpon the aulter, and the brest shalbe Aarons and his sonnes.

32 And the ryght shoulder shall ye geue vnto the priest for an heaue offeryng of your peace offerynges.

33 The same that offereth the blood of the peace offeringes and the fat among the sonnes of Aaron, shall haue the right shoulder for his part:

34 For the* waue brest and the heaue shoulder haue I taken of the chyldren of Israel, euē of their peace offeringes, and haue geuen them vnto Aaron the priest, & vnto his sonnes, by a statute for euer frō among the chyldren of Israel. Nu.xviii.

35 This is the annoynting of Aaron, and the annoynting of his sonnes cōcerning the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fire, in the day when he offred them to be priestes vnto the Lorde. F

36 And these be the [portions] whiche the Lorde commaunded to be geuen them in the day of their annoynting from among the chyldren of Israel, by a statute for euer in their generations.

37 This is the law of the burnt offering, and of the meate offering, and of the sacrifice for sinne and trespasse, for consecrations, and for the peace offering:

38 Whiche the Lord commaunded Moyses in the mount of Sinai, whē he commaunded the children of Israel to offer their sacrifices vnto the Lorde in the wylderneſſe of Sinai. F

¶ The. viij. Chapter.

6 The annoyntyng of Aaron and his sonnes.

A Ex.xxviii.a

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

2 Take* Aaron and his sonnes with hym, and the vestures, and the annoynting oyle, and a bullocke for a sinne offering, and two Rammes, and a basket of vnleauened bread:

3 And gather thou all the congregation together vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

4 And Moyses dyd as the Lorde commaunded him: and the people were gathered together vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

5 And

5 And Moyses sayd vnto the congregation: This is the thing which the Lord commaunded to be done.
6 And Moyses brought Aaron and his sonnes, and washed them with water:
B 7 And put vpon him the coate, and gyrded hym with a gyrdle, and put vpon hym the robe, and put the Ephod theron, whiche he gyrded with the brodered garde that was in the Ephod, and bounde it vnto him therewith.
8 And he put the brestplate theron, and put in the brestplate the Urim and the Thummim.
9 And he put the cap of estate vpon his head, and put vpon the cap, euen vpon the forefront, the golden plate, the holy crowne, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.
Exo.xxxd 10 *And Moyses toke the annoyntyng oyle, and annoynted the tabernacle and al that was therin, and sanctified them.
11 And sprinckled therof vpon the aulter seuen tymes, and annoynted the aulter and all his vesselles, the lauer and his foote, to sanctifie them.
12 And he powred of the annoynting oyle vpon Aarons head, & annoynted hym, to sanctifie hym.
13 And Moyses brought Aarons sonnes, and put coates vpon them, and gyrded them with gyrdles, and put bonettes vpon their heades, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.
C Exo.xxix.a 14 *And he brought the Bullocke for the sinne offering: and Aaron & his sonnes put their handes vpon the head of the Bullocke for the sinne offering.
15 And Moyses slewe hym, and toke the blood, which he put vpon the hornes of the aulter rounde about with his finger, and purified the aulter, and powred the blood at the bottome of the aulter, & sanctified it, to make reconciliatiō vpō it.
16 And he toke all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kydneys and their fat, and Moyses burned it vpon the aulter.
17 But the Bullocke, & his hide, his flesh, and his dounge, he burnt with fyre without the hoast, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.
18 And he brought the Ramme for the burnt offering, and Aaron & his sonnes put their handes vpon the head of the Ramme, 19 Whiche Moyses killed, and sprinckled the blood vpō the aulter rounde about.
20 And Moyses cut the Ramme into his peeces, and burnt the head, the peeces, and the fat.
21 And washed þ inwardes & the legges in water, & Moyses burnt the Ramme euerywhyt vpon the aulter: for it was a burnt sacrifice for a sweete sauour, and an offering made by fire vnto the Lord, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. D
22 *And he brought the other Ramme, namely the Ramme of consecrations: and Aaron and his sonnes put their handes vpon the head of the Ramme, Exo.xxixd
23 which Moyses slewe, and toke of the blood of it, and put it vpon the tip of Aarons right eare, and vpon the thumbe of his ryght hande, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote.
24 And Moyses brought Aarons sonnes, and put of the blood on the tippe of the right eare of them, & vpon the thumbes of their right handes, & vpon the great toes of their ryght feete: and Moyses sprinckled the blood vpon the aulter rounde about.
25 *And he toke the fat, and the rumpe, and all the fat that was vpon the inwardes, and the kall of the liuer, and the two kydneys with their fat, and the ryght shoulder. Exo.xxixd
26 And out of the basket of vnleauened bread that was before the Lorde, he toke one vnleauened cake, and a cake of oyled bread, and one wafer, & put them on the fat, and vpon the right shoulder:
27 And put altogether vpon Aarons handes, & vpon his sonnes handes, and waued it a waue offering before the Lord.
28 And Moyses toke them from of their handes, and burnt them vpon the aulter for a burnt offering: These were consecrations for a sweete sauour and sacrifice made by fire vnto the Lorde. E
29 *And Moyses toke the brest, and waued it for a waue offering before the Lorde: for of the Ramme of consecrations, it was Moyses part, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses. Exo.xxix.c
30 And Moyses toke of the annoynting oyle, and of the blood which was vpon the aulter, & sprinckled it vpon Aaron and vpon his garmentes, and vpon his sonnes and on his sonnes garmentes with him: and sanctified Aaron and his vestures, and his sonnes and his sonnes vestures with hym.

31 And Moyses sayde vnto Aaron and his sonnes: Boyle the flesshe at the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation, and there * eate it with the bzead that is in the basket of consecration, and as I commaunded, saying, Aaron and his sonnes shall eate it.

Exo.xxix.f.

32 And that whiche remayneth of the flesshe and of the bzead, shall ye burne with fyze.

33 And ye shall not depart from the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation seuen dayes, vntyll the dayes of your consecrations be at an ende: foz seuen dayes shall he fill your hande.

34 As he did this day: euen so the Lozde hath commaunded to do, to make an attonement foz you.

35 Therefoze shall ye abyde at the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation day and nyght seuen dayes long, and kepe the watch of the Lozd, and ye shal not dye: foz so I am commaunded.

36 And so Aaron and his sonnes, dyd all thinges whiche the Lozde commaunded by the hande of Moyses.

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

8 The fyrst offeringes of Aaron. 22 Aaron blesseth the people. 23 The glozie of the Lozde is shewed.

1 AND in the eyght day, Moyses called Aaron and his sonnes, and the elders of Israel.

2 And he sayd vnto Aarō: Take thee a young Calfe foz a sin offering, and a Ramme foz a burnt offering, both without blemishe, and bzyng them befoze the Lozde.

3 And vnto the chyldzen of Israel thou shalt speake, saying: Take ye an hee Goate foz a sinne offering, and a Calfe & a Lambe both of a yere olde, without blemishe, foz a burnt sacrifice.

4 Also a Bullocke & a Ramme foz peace offeringes, to offer befoze the Lozd, and a meate offering mingled with oyle: foz to day the Lozd will appeare vnto you.

5 And they bzought that whiche Moyses commaunded, befoze the tabernacle of the congregation: and all the congregation came and stode befoze the Lozd.

6 And Moyses sayd: This is the thyng whiche the Lozd commaunded that ye should do, & the glozy of the Lozde shall appeare vnto you.

Hebre v.a. and. vii.d.

7 * And Moyses sayde vnto Aaron: Go vnto the aulter, and offer the sacrifice foz thy sinne, & thy burnt offering, and make an attonement foz thee and foz the people: & thou shalt offer the offering of the people, and make an attonement foz them, as ꝑ Lozd cōmaunded.

8 Aaron therfoze went vnto the aulter, and slewe the Calfe of the sinne offering, whiche was foz him selfe.

9 And the sonnes of Aaron bzought the blood vnto him, and he dypt his finger in the blood, and put it vpon the hoznes of the aulter, and powzed the blood at the bottome of the aulter.

10 But the fat and the two kydneys, and the kall of the liuer of the sinne offering he burnt vpon the aulter, as the Lozde commaunded Moyses.

11 The flesh and the hyde he burnt with fyze without the hoast.

12 And he slewe the burnt offering, * and Aarons sonnes bzought vnto hym the blood, whiche he sprinckled rounde about vpon the aulter.

Leuit.iii.a.

13 And they bzought the burnt offering vnto hym with the peeces therof, & the head: and he burnt [them] vpō the aulter.

14 And he dyd washe the inwardes and the legges, and burnt them vpon the burnt offeryng in the aulter.

15 And then he bzought the peoples offering, taking the Goate whiche was the sinne offering foz the people, & slewe it, & offered it foz sinne, as he dyd the first.

16 And bzought the burnt offering, and offered it as the maner was.

17 * And he bzought the meate offering, and filled his hande therof, and burnt it vpon the aulter, beside the burnt sacrifice of the mozning.

Leuit.iiii.a.

18 He slewe also the Bullocke and the Ramme foz the peace offering, whiche was foz the people: and Aarons sonnes bzought vnto hym the blood, which he sprinckled vpon the aulter round about:

19 And the fat of the Bullocke, and of the Ramme, the rumpe, and that couereth the inwardes, and the kidneyes, and the kall of the liuer.

20 And they put the fat vpon the breastes, and he burnt the fat vpon the aulter:

22 And Aaron lift vp his hande ouer the people, and blessed them, & came downe frō offering of the sinne offering, burnt offering, and peace offeringes.

23 And Moyses and Aaron went into the tabernacle of the congregation, & came out, and blessed the people: and the glorie of the Lorde appeared vnto all the people.

24 *And there came a fire out from before the Lorde, and consumed vpon the aulter the burnt offering & the fat: which when all the people sawe, they gaue thankes, and fell on their faces. ii.Par.vii.a. ii.Mac.ii.b.

¶ The. x. Chapter.

1 Nadab and Abihu are slayne. 6 Israel mourneth for them. 9 The priestes are forbidden wyne.

1 AND* Nadab and Abihu, the sonnes of Aaron, toke eyther of thē his censar, and put fire therein, and put cense therevpon, and offred (a) straunge fire before the Lorde, which he commaunded them not. A Leui.xvi.a. Exo.xxx.b

2 And there went a fire from the Lord, and consumed them, and they dyed before the Lorde.

3 Then Moyses sayde vnto Aaron: This is it that the Lorde spake, saying: I will be (b) sanctified in them that come nye me, and before all the people I wylbe glorified. And Aaron held his peace.

4 And Moyses called Misael and Elsaphan the sonnes of Oziel, the vncle of Aaron, & sayd vnto them: Come neare, cary your brethren from before the sanctuarie, out of the hoast.

5 And they went to them, & caryed them in their coates out of the hoast, as Moyses had sayde.

6 And Moyses sayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar & Ithamar his sonnes: (c) Uncouer not your heades, neither rent your clothes, lest ye dye, and lest wrath come vpon all the people: But let your brethren the whole house of Israel, bewayle the burnyng which the Lorde hath kyndled.

7 And go not ye out from the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye dye: for the annoynting oyle of God is vpon you. And they dyd as Moyses sayde.

8 And the Lorde spake vnto Aaron, saying:

9 Thou shalt not drinke wine nor strong drinke, thou nor thy sonnes that are with thee, when ye go into the tabernacle of the congregation, lest ye dye: Let it be a lawe for euer throughout your generations.

10 And that ye may put difference betweene holy and vnholy, betweene vncleane and cleane:

11 And that ye may teache the chyldren of Israel all the statutes which the Lorde hath spoken vnto them by the handes of Moyses. B

12 And Moyses sayde vnto Aaron, and vnto Eleazar, and Ithamar his sonnes that were left: Take the meate offering that remayneth of the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire, and eate it without leauen beside the aulter: for it is most holy.

13 Ye shall eate it in the holy place, because it is thy duetie, & thy sonnes duetie, of the sacrifices of the Lord made by fire: for so I am commaunded.

14 And the waue brest and heaue shoulder shall ye eate in a cleane place, thou and thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee: For they be thy duetie, and thy sonnes duetie, geuen out of the peace

(a) Signifieth not appointed by the Lorde, though commanded of hym vpon a wrong entent, where it is written: Offred before God. Straunge fire is either of an other matter then God commaunded, or of an other place then the brasen altar, or of two sortes of fire, whereof God is spoke before at the Tabernacle, or they were not apointed to take fire there: for, to offer fumes vpon the aulter (which is the office of the priestes) was not forbidden vnto them.

(b) I wilbe sanctified, that is, I will appeare holy. Some do say: I will punishe them that be nigh vnto me. A question is, where God spake this that Moyses aleageth? Some of the Hebrues do say in the.19. of Exodus: And let the priestes also which come vnto the Lorde, sanctifie them selues, least the Lorde destroy them. Some other, when he sayde to Moyses in the.29. of the same booke. And I wyll meete with the children of Israel, and the place shalbe sanctified in my glory. Hereof they vnderstande this place thus, as though God should say: neither will I spare the priestes whiche are nighest me, if they stray and do amysse, that is, I wyll punishe them, I will punishe other muche more. And thus by shewing his might and power, he will be feared, aduaunced, praysed, and sanctified, euen in them whiche be nighest: For I vtterly will (sayeth God) that priestes whiche do the ministerie of my sacrifices, do them accordyng to my word, and not after their owne humane reason.

(c) Here is the common vse of lamentyng the dead amongest the Israelites set foorth, whiche Aaron and his sonnes be forbydden, lest it might appeare that they dyd grudge agaynst Gods iudgement. Of this reade the.xxi. Chapter, the tenth vearse.

15 The heaue shoulder & the waue brest shall they bryng in with the sacrifices made by fire of the fat, to waue it for a waue offering before the Lorde: and it shalbe thyne and thy sonnes with thee by a lawe for euer, as the Lorde hath commaunded.
16 And Moyses sought the goate that was offred for sinne, & see, it was burnt. And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar the sonnes of Aaron whiche were left aliue, saying:
17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the sinne offering in the holy place: seing it is most holy, & God hath geuen it you, to beare the sinne of the congregation, to make agreement for them before the Lorde.
18 Beholde, ẏ blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye shoulde haue eaten it in the holy place, as I commaunded.
19 And Aaron sayde vnto Moyses: Beholde, this day haue they offered their sinne offering, and their burnt offering before the Lorde: (b) and suche thinges are come vnto me, if I had eaten the sinne offering to day, shoulde it haue ben accepted in the sight of the Lorde?
20 And when Moyses hearde that, he was content.

(b) I haue not left this vnbone of any contempt or negligẽce, but both my chyldren be dead: and how could I be merie in suche a woefull & lamentable case of my chyldren.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Of beastes, fisshes, and byrdes: whiche be cleane, and whiche be vncleane.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them:
2 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say: * These are the beastes whiche ye shall eate, among all the beastes that are on the earth.
Gen. vii. a. Deut. xiiii. a Actes x c.
3 Whatsoeuer parteth the hoofe, and is clouen footed, and chaweth cud among the beastes, that shall ye eate.
4 Neuertheles, these shall ye not eate, of them that chawe cud, and deuideth the hoofe: [onlye] as is the Camell, whiche chaweth cud, but he deuideth not the hoofe, therefore is he vncleane vnto you.
5 Euen so the Conie whiche chaweth the cud, but deuideth not the hoofe, he is vncleane to you.
6 And the Hare, though he chaweth the cud, yet because he deuideth not ẏ hoofe, he is therefore vncleane to you.
7 And agayne the Swyne, though he deuide the hoofe, and is clouen footed, yet he chaweth not the cud, he is vncleane to you.
8 Of their flesshe shall ye not eate, and their carkasses shall ye not touche: but let them be vncleane to you.
9 These shall ye eate, of all that are in the waters: whatsoeuer hath finnes and skales in the waters, seas, and riuers, that shall ye eate.
10 And all that haue not finnes nor skales in the sea and riuers, of all that moue and liue in the waters, let them be abhomination vnto you.
11 They I say, shalbe an abhomination vnto you: ye shall not eate of their flesh, but abhorre their carkasses.
12 Let all that haue no finnes nor skales in the waters, be abhominable vnto you.
13 These are they whiche ye shall abhorre among the foules, and that ought not to be eaten, for they are an abhomination: The Egle, the Goshauke, and the Dispray,
14 The Vultur, and the Kyte after his kinde,
15 And all Rauens after their kinde,
16 The Estrich, the nyght Crowe, the Cockowe, and the Hauke after his kynde,

17 The

17 The Falcon, the Cormorant, the great Owle,
18 The Backe, the Pellicane, the Pye,
19 The Storke, the Jay after his kinde, the Lapwyng, and the Swalowe.
20 Let all foules that creepe and go vpon all foure, be an abhomination vnto you.
21 Yet these may ye eate, of euery creepyng thyng that hath wynges, and go vpon foure [feete]: euen those that haue not bowynges aboue vpon their feete, to leape withall vpon the earth.
D 22 Euen these of them ye may eate: the Arbe after his kinde, the Selaam after his kinde, the Hargol after his kinde, and the Hagab after his kinde.
23 All [other] foules that creepe and haue foure feete, shalbe abhomination vnto you.
24 In such ye be vncleane: and whosoeuer toucheth the carkasse of them, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen:
25 And whosoeuer beareth the carkasse of them, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
26 And euery beast that hath hoofe, and is not clouen footed, nor chaweth cud, such are vncleane vnto you: euery one that toucheth them, shalbe vncleane.
27 And whatsoeuer goeth vppon his pawes, among all maner beastes that go on all foure [feete] such are vncleane vnto you: and who so doth touche their carkasse* shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen. * Leu. vi. d.
28 And he that beareth the carkasse of them, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen: for such are vncleane vnto you.
€ 29 And let these also be vncleane to you, among the thynges that creepe vpon the earth: the Weasel, and the Mouse, and the Toade after ther kinde:
30 The Hedhogge, the Stellio, the Lacert, the Snayle, and the Moole.
31 These are vncleane to you among all that creepe: whosoeuer doth touche them when they be dead, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.
32 And whatsoeuer any of the dead carkasses of them doth fall vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it be vessell of wood, or rayment, or skinne, or sacke, or whatsoeuer vessell it be that any worke is wrought in: and it must be plunged in the water, and it shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen, and so shall it be cleansed.
33 All maner of earthen vessell wherinto any of them falleth, shalbe vncleane, with all that therein is,* and it shalbe broken. * Leu. vi. d.
34 All maner meate also that is vsed to be eaten, yf any such water come vpō it, shalbe vncleane: And all maner drynke that is vsed to be drunke in all maner such vessels, shalde vncleane.
35 And euery thyng that their carkasse falleth vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it be ouen or kettle, let it be broken: For they are vncleane, and shalbe vncleane vnto you.
36 Neuerthelater, yet the fountaynes, F and welles, and collection of waters, shalbe cleane styll: but that which toucheth their carkasses, shalbe vncleane.
37 If the dead carkasse of any such fall vpon any seede vsed to sowe, it shall yet be cleane styll:
38 But and yf any water be powred vpon the seede, and a dead carkasse fall theron, it shalbe vncleane vnto you.
39 If any beast of which ye may eate, dye, and any man touche the dead carkasse thereof, he shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.
40 He that eateth of the dead carkasse of it, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen: And he also that beareth the carkasse of it, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
41 Let euery creepyng thyng that creepeth vpon the earth be an abhomination, and not be eaten. G
42 Whatsoeuer goeth vpon the brest, and whatsoeuer goeth vpon foure, or that hath mo feete among all creepyng thynges that creepe vpon the earth: of that see ye eate not, for they are abhominable.
43 Ye shall not make your soules abhominable with nothyng that creepeth, neither make your selues vncleane with them, that ye shoulde be defyled therby.
44 For I am the Lorde your God: Be sanctified therfore, and ye shalbe holy, for I am holy: and ye shall not defyle your soules with any maner of creepyng thyng that creepeth vpon the earth:
45 For

offeringes of the children of Israel.
15 The heaue shoulder & the Waue brest shall they bryng in with the sacrifices made by fire of the fat, to Waue it for a Waue offering before the Lorde: and it shalbe thyne and thy sonnes with thee by a lawe for euer, as the Lorde hath commaunded.
16 And Moyses sought the goate that was offred for sinne, & see, it was burnt. And he was angry with Eleazar and Ithamar the sonnes of Aaron which were left aliue, saying:
17 Wherefore haue ye not eaten the sinne offering in the holy place: seing it is most holy, & God hath geuen it you, to beare the sinne of the congregation, to make agreement for them before the Lorde.
18 Beholde, ẏ blood of it was not brought in within the holy place: ye shoulde haue eaten it in the holy place, as I commaunded.
19 And Aaron sayde vnto Moyses: Beholde, this day haue they offered their sinne offering, and their burnt offering before the Lorde: (b) and suche thinges are come vnto me, if I had eaten the sinne offering to day, shoulde it haue ben accepted in the sight of the Lorde?
20 And when Moyses hearde that, he was content.

(b) I haue not left this vndone of any contempt or negligẽce, but both my children be dead: and how could I be merie in suche a woful & lamentable case of my children.

The xi. Chapter.

1 Of beastes, fisshes, and byrdes: whiche be cleane, and whiche be vncleane.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them:
2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say: * These are the beastes whiche ye shall eate, among all the beastes that are on the earth.
Gen. vii. a. Deut. xiiii. a Actes x c.
3 Whatsoeuer parteth the hoofe, and is clouen footed, and chaweth cud among the beastes, that shall ye eate.
4 Neuertheles, these shall ye not eate, of them that chawe cud, and deuideth the hoofe: [onlye] as is the Camell, whiche chaweth cud, but he deuideth not the hoofe, therefore is he vncleane vnto you.
5 Euen so the Conie whiche chaweth the cud, but deuideth not the hoofe, he is vncleane to you.
6 And the Hare, though he chaweth the cud, yet because he deuideth not ẏ hoofe, he is therefore vncleane to you.
7 And agayne the Swyne, though he deuide the hoofe, and is clouen footed, yet he chaweth not the cud, he is vncleane to you.
8 Of their flesh shall ye not eate, and their carkasses shall ye not touche: but let them be vncleane to you.
9 These shall ye eate, of all that are in the waters: whatsoeuer hath finnes and skales in the waters, seas, and riuers, that shall ye eate.
10 And all that haue not finnes nor skales in the sea and riuers, of all that moue and liue in the waters, let them be abhomination vnto you.
11 They I say, shalbe an abhomination vnto you: ye shall not eate of their flesh, but abhorre their carkasses.
12 Let all that haue no finnes nor skales in the waters, be abhominable vnto you.
13 These are they whiche ye shall abhorre among the foules, and that ought not to be eaten, for they are an abhomination: The Egle, the Goshauke, and the Ospray,
14 The Vultur, and the Kyte after his kinde,
15 And all Rauens after their kinde,
16 The Estrich, the nyght Crowe, the Cockowe, and the Hauke after his kynde,

17 The

17 The Falcon, the Cormorant, the great Owle,
18 The Backe, the Pellicane, the Pye,
19 The Storke, the Jay after his kinde, the Lapwyng, and the Swalowe.
20 Let all foules that creepe and go vpon all foure, be an abhomination vnto you.
21 Yet these may ye eate, of euery creepyng thyng that hath wynges, and go vpon foure [feete]: euen those that haue not bowynges aboue vpon their feete, to leape withall vpon the earth.
D 22 Euen these of them ye may eate: the Arbe after his kinde, the Selaam after his kinde, the Hargol after his kinde, and the Hagab after his kinde.
23 All [other] foules that creepe and haue foure feete, shalbe abhomination vnto you.
24 In such ye be vncleane: and whosoeuer toucheth the carkasse of them, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen:
25 And whosoeuer beareth the carkasse of them, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
26 And euery beast that hath hoofe, and is not clouen footed, nor chaweth cud, such are vncleane vnto you: euery one that toucheth them, shalbe vncleane.
27 And whatsoeuer goeth vppon his pawes, among all maner beastes that go on all foure [feete] such are vncleane vnto you: and who so doth touche their carkasse * shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.
28 And he that beareth the carkasse of them, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen: for such are vncleane vnto you.
E 29 And let these also be vncleane to you, among the thynges that creepe vpon the earth: the weasel, and the Mouse, and the Toade after ther kinde:
30 The Hedhogge, the Stellio, the Lacert, the Snayle, and the Moole.
31 These are vncleane to you among all that creepe: whosoeuer doth touche them when they be dead, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.
32 And whatsoeuer any of the dead carkasses of them doth fall vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it be vessell of wood, or rayment, or skinne, or sacke, or whatsoeuer vessell it be that any worke is wrought in: and it must be plunged in the water, and it shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen, and so shall it be cleansed.
33 All maner of earthen vessell wherinto any of them falleth, shalbe vncleane, with all that therein is, * and it shalbe broken. Leu.vi.d.
34 All maner meate also that is vsed to be eaten, yf any such water come vpõ it, shalbe vncleane: And all maner drynke that is vsed to be drunke in all maner such vessels, shalbe vncleane.
35 And euery thyng that their carkasse falleth vpon, shalbe vncleane, whether it be ouen or kettle, let it be broken: For they are vncleane, and shalbe vncleane vnto you.
36 Neuerthelater, yet the fountaynes, F and welles, and collection of waters, shalbe cleane styll: but that which toucheth their carkasses, shalbe vncleane.
37 If the dead carkasse of any such fall vpon any seede vsed to sowe, it shall yet be cleane styll:
38 But and yf any water be powred vpon the seede, and a dead carkasse fall theron, it shalbe vncleane vnto you.
39 If any beast of which ye may eate, dye, and any man touche the dead carkasse thereof, he shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.
40 He that eateth of the dead carkasse of it, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen: And he also that beareth the carkasse of it, shall washe his clothes, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
41 Let euery creepyng thyng that creepeth vpon the earth be an abhomination, and not be eaten. G
42 Whatsoeuer goeth vpon the brest, and whatsoeuer goeth vpon foure, or that hath mo feete among all creepyng thynges that creepe vpon the earth: of that see ye eate not, for they are abhominable.
43 Ye shall not make your soules abhominable with nothyng that creepeth, neither make your selues vncleane with them, that ye shoulde be defyled therby.
44 For I am the Lorde your God: Be sanctified therfore, and ye shalbe holy, for I am holy: and ye shall not defyle your soules with any maner of creeping thyng that creepeth vpon the earth:
45 For

45 For I am the Lorde that brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to be your God: ye shalbe holy therfore, for I am holy.
46 This is the lawe of beastes & foules, and of euery lyuyng creature that moueth in the waters, and of euery creature that creepeth vpon the earth, 47 That there may be a difference betweene the vncleane and cleane, and betweene the beast that may be eaten, and the beast that ought not to be eaten.

¶ The .xij. Chapter.

2 A lawe howe women shoulde be purged after their delyueraunce.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say: yf a woman hath conceaued seede, and borne a man chylde, she shalbe vncleane seuen dayes: euen according to the dayes of the seperation of her infirmitie shall she be vncleane.
3 And in the eyght day, the flesshe of the childes* foreskinne shalbe cut away.
4 And she shall then continue in ỹ blood of her purifiyng three and thirtie dayes: She shall touche no halowed thyng, nor come into the sanctuarie, vntyll the tyme of her purifiyng be out.
5 If she beare a mayde chylde, she shalbe vncleane two weekes, accordyng as in her seperation: and she shall continue in the blood of her purifiyng three score and sixe dayes.
6 *And when the dayes of her purifiyng are out, whether it be for a sonne or for a daughter, she shall bryng a lambe of one yere olde for a burnt offeryng, and a young pigeon or a turtle doue for a sinne offeryng, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, vnto the priest:
7 Which shall offer them before the Lord, and make an attonement for her, and she shalbe purged of the issue of her blood. *And this is the lawe for her that hath borne a male or female.
8 But and yf she be not able to bryng a lambe, she shall bryng *two turtles or two young pigeons, the one for ỹ burnt offering, & the other for a sinne offering: And the priest shall make an attonemẽt for her, and she shalbe cleane.

¶ The .xiij. Chapter.

1 The priestes must haue a consideration, and iudge who are lepers.
47 Of the leperous garmentes.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses & Aaron saying:
2 The man that shall haue in the skinne of his flesshe, a swellyng, either a scabbe, or a glistryng whyte, and the plague of leprosie be in the skinne of his flesshe, he shalbe brought vnto Aaron the priest, or vnto one of his sonnes the priestes.
3 And the priest shall loke on the sore in the skinne of his flesshe: and when the heere in the sore is turned to whyte, and the sore also seeme to be lower then the skinne of his flesshe, it is a plague of leprosie: and the priestes shall loke on hym, and iudge hym vncleane.
4 If there be a whyte plecke in ỹ skinne of his flesshe, and seeme not to be lower then the skinne, nor the heere thereof is turned vnto whyte, the priest shall shut vp [hym that hath] the plague seuẽ dayes.
5 And ỹ priest shall loke vpon him againe the seuenth day: and if the plague seeme to him to abide styll, & the plague growe not in the skinne, the priest shall shut vp [hym that hath] ỹ plague, seuen dayes mo.
6 And

6 And the priest shal loke on him agayne the seuenth day: Then yf the plague be darker, and not growen in the skynne, the priest shall iudge hym cleane, for it is but a scabbe: And he shall washe his clothes and be cleane.

7 But yf the scabbe growe in the skynne after that he is seene of the priest and iudged cleane, he shalbe seene of the priest agayne.

8 If the priest see that the scabbe be growen abrode in the sainne, the priest shall make hym vncleane: [for] it is a leprosie.

B 9 When the plague of the leprosie is in a man, he shalbe brought vnto the priest.

10 And the priest shall see hym: And yf the swellyng be whyte in the skynne, and haue made the heere whyte, and there be rawe flesshe in the swellyng, 11 It wilbe an olde leprosie in the skynne of his flesshe, and the priest shall make hym vncleane, and shall not shut hym vp, seyng he is vncleane.

12 If a leprosie breake out abrode in the skynne, and couer all the skynne from his head to his foote whereseoeuer the priest loketh, 13 Then the priest shall consider: and yf the leprosie haue couered all his flesshe, he shall iudge the plague to be cleane, because it is all turned into whytenesse, and he shalbe cleane.

14 But and if there be rawe flesshe on hym when he is seene, he shalbe vncleane.

15 And the priest shal see the rawe flesshe, and declare hym to be vncleane: for the rawe flesshe is vncleane, seyng it is a leprosie.

16 Or yf the rawe flesshe turne agayne C and chaunge vnto whyte, he shall come to the priest:

17 And the priest shall see him: & behold, yf the sore be chaunged vnto whyte, the priest shall iudge the plague cleane, and he shalbe cleane.

18 The flesshe also in whose skinne there is a byle, and is healed, 19 And in the place of the byle there appeare a whyte rysyng, either a shynyng whyte and somewhat reddishe, it shall be seene of the priest.

20 And yf when the priest seeth hym, it appeare lower then the skynne, and the heere therof be chaunged vnto whyte, the priest shall iudge hym vncleane: for it is a plagne of leprosie, broken out of the byle.

21 But and yf the priest loke on it, and D there be no whyte heeres therin, and yf it be not lower then the skynne, but be darker, the priest shall shut hym vp seuen dayes.

22 And yf it spreade abrode in the skynne, the priest shall make hym vncleane, seyng it is a sore.

23 But and yf the spot stande styll and growe not, it is a scarre of a byle, and therfore the priest shall declare hym to be cleane.

24 If there be any flesshe in whose skynne there is a hotte burnyng, and the quicke flesshe that burneth haue a whyte spot, somewhat reddishe or whyte,

25 The priest shall loke vpon it: and yf the heere in that bright spot be chaũged to whyte, and it appeare lower then the skynne, it is a leprosie broken out of the burnyng, and therfore the priest shall iudge hym vncleane, seyng it is ỹ plague of leprosie.

26 But yf the priest loke on it, and there be no whyte heere in the bryght spot, and be no lower then the other skynne, but be darker, the priest shall shut hym vp seuen dayes.

27 And the priest shall loke on hym the seuenth day: and yf it be growen abrode in the skynne, the priest shall iudge hym vncleane, seyng it is ỹ plague of leprosie.

28 And yf the spot stande styll in it, and growe not in the skynne, but is darke, it is a rysyng of the burnyng, and the priest shall therfore declare hym cleane, seyng it is a scarre of the burnyng.

29 If man or woman hath a sore vpon the head or the bearde,

30 The priest shall see the sore: and yf it appeare lower then the skynne, and there be in it a yelowe heere and thinne, the priest shall iudge him vncleane, seing that the same frettyng is a token of leprosie vpon the head or bearde.

31 And yf the priest loke on the sore of the fret, and it seeme not lower then the skynne, and that the heere is not blacke, the priest shall shut vp the frettyng sore seuen dayes.

32 And in the seuenth day the priest shall loke on the sore: and yf the fret be not growen, and there be in it no yelowe heere, and the fret seeme not lower then the skynne,

33 He shalbe shauen, but the fret shall he not shaue: and the priest shall shut vp

the fret seuen dayes mo.
34 And in the seuenth day the priest shall loke on the fret: and yf the fret be not growen in the skynne, nor seeme lower then the other skynne, the priest shall clense him: & he shall washe his clothes, and be cleane.
35 But if the fret growe in the skynne after his clensyng, 36 The priest shall loke on hym: and yf the fret be growen in the skynne, the priest shall not seeke for yelowe heere, for he is vncleane.
37 But if he see the fret stande still, & that there is blacke heere growen vp therein, the fret is healed, & he shalbe cleane, & the priest shal declare him to be cleane.
38 If there be many white spottes in the skinne of the flesshe of man or woman, 39 The priest shall loke vpon it: and yf the spottes in the skynne of their flesshe be somewhat darke and whyte withal, it is a frekell growyng in the skynne: therfore he is cleane.
40 And the man whose heere is fallen of his head, he is baulde, yet cleane.
41 And he that hath his heere fallen of on the part of his head towarde his face, is forehead baulde, yet cleane.
42 If there be in ỹ baulde head or baulde forehead a whyte reddishe sore, there is leprosie sprong vp in his baulde head or baulde forehead.
43 And the priest shall loke vpon hym: & yf the rysyng of the sore be whyte reddishe in his baulde head or baulde forehead, after the maner of leprosie which is in the skynne of the flesshe,
44 Then he is a leprous man & vncleane: And the priest shal make him vncleane, for the plague therof is in his head.
45 The leper in whom the plague is, shal haue his clothes rent, & his head bare, & shall put a couerynge vpon his lippes, and shall crye: vncleane, vncleane.
46 And as long as the disease lasteth vpon hym, he shalbe defiled and vncleane: he shall dwell alone, euen * without the campe shall his habitation be.
47 The garment also that the plague of leprosie is in, whether it be a woollen garment or a lynnen garment,
48 whether it be in the warpe or woofe of lynnen or of woollen, either in a skin, or any thyng made of skynne:
49 If the disease be light greene, or somewhat reddishe in the garmēt or skinne, whether it be in the warpe or woofe, or any thyng that is made of skinne: then it is a plague of leprosie, & shalbe shewed vnto the priest.
50 The priest therfore shal see the plague, and shut it vp seuen dayes.
51 And he shall loke on the plague the seuenth day: which, yf it be increased in the garment, whether it be in ỹ warpe or woofe, or in a skinne, or in any thyng that is made of skinne, it is the leprosie of a frettyng sore, it is vncleane.
52 And he shall burne that garment, eyther warpe or woofe, whether it be woollen or lynnen, or any thyng that is made of skinne wherin the plague is, for it is a frettyng leprosie, it shalbe burnt in the fire.
53 If the priest see that the plague is not growen in the garment, either in the warpe or woofe, or in whatsoeuer thing of skinne it be,
54 The priest shall commaunde them to washe the thyng wherin the plague is, and he shall shut it vp seuen dayes mo.
55 And the priest shall loke on the plague agayne after that it is washed: and yf the plague haue not chaunged his colour, and is spread no further abrode, it is vncleane, thou shalt burne it in the fire: for it is fret inwarde, whether it be bauld behynd [in the head] or before.
56 And yf the priest see that the plague is darker after that is is washed, he shall cut it out of the garment or out of the skinne, or out of the warpe, or out of the woofe.
57 And yf it appeare styll in the garment, either in the warpe, or in the woofe, or in any thyng made of skinne: it is a spreadyng plague, thou shalt burne that wherin the plague is, with fire.
58 Moreouer the garment, either warpe or woofe, or whatsoeuer thing of skinne it be which thou hast washed, yf the plague be departed therfrom, it shalbe washed once agayne, and then it shalbe cleane.
59 This is the lawe of the plague of leprosie in a garment whether it be woollen or lynnen, either in the warpe or woofe, or in any thyng of skinnes, to make it cleane or vncleane.

Num. v. a. 4. Reg. 15. a.

¶ The. xiiij. Chapter.

3 The clensyng of the leper, 34 and of the house that he is in.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
2 *This is the lawe of the leper in the day of his clensyng: He shalbe brought vnto the priest,
3 And the priest shal go out without the campe, and the priest shall loke vpon hym, and yf the plague of leprosie be healed in the leper,
4 Then shall the priest commaunde to take for hym that is clensed, two lyue birdes and cleane, and ceder wood, and a scarlet [lase] and ysope.
5 And the priest shall commaunde that one of the birdes be killed in an earthen vessell, and vpon runnyng water.
6 And he shall take the lyuyng birde, with the ceder wood, the scarlet [lase] and the ysope, and shall dippe them, and the liuing birde in the blood of the slaine birde vpon the runnyng water.
7 And he shall sprinckle vpon hym that must be clensed of his leprosie seuen tymes, and clense hym, and shall let the lyuyng birde go free into the fielde.
8 And he that is clensed shall washe his clothes, and shaue of all his heere, and washe hym selfe in water, that he may be cleane: And after that shall he come into the hoast, and shall tary without his tent seuen dayes:
9 But in the seuenth day, he shall shaue of all his heere, [namely] his head, his beарde, and his browes, euen all his heere shalbe shauen of: And he shall washe his clothes, and also washe his flesh in water, and he shalbe cleane.
10 In the eyght day he shall take two hee lambes without blemishe, and an ewe lambe of a yere olde without blemishe, and three tenth deales of fine flowre for a meate offeryng myngled with oyle, and a (a) logge of oyle.
11 And the priest that maketh him cleane, shall bryng the man that is to be made cleane, & those thynges, before the Lord at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.
12 And the priest shall take one lambe, and offer hym for a trespasse offeryng, & the logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offeryng before the Lorde.
13 And he shal slea the lambe in the place where the sinne offeryng and the burnt offeryng are slayne, euen in the holy place: for as the sinne offeryng is the priestes, euen so is the trespasse offering, seyng it is most holy.
14 And the priest shall take of the blood of the trespasse offering, and put it vpon the tippe of the ryght eare of hym that is to be clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote.
15 The priest shall take of the logge of oyle, and powre it into the paulme of his left hande:
16 And he shall dippe his ryght finger in the oyle that is in his left hande, and sprinckle of the oyle with his finger seuen tymes before the Lorde.
17 And of the rest of the oyle that is in his hande, shall the priest put vpon the tippe of the ryght eare of hym that is for to be clensed, and vpon the thumbe of his ryght hande, and vpon the great toe of his ryght foote, euen vpon the blood of the trespasse offeryng.
18 And the remnaunt of the oyle that is in the priestes hande, he shal powre vpō the head of hym that is for to be clensed: and the priest shall make an attonement for hym before the Lorde.
19 And the priest shall offer the sinne offeryng, and make an attonement for hym that is to be clensed from his vncleannesse, and then shall he kyll the burnt offeryng.
20 And the priest shall offer the burnt offeryng and the meate offeryng vpon the aulter: and the priest shall make an attonement for hym, & he shalbe cleane.
21 *If he be poore and cannot get so much, he shall take one lambe for a trespasse offering, to waue it for his attonement, and a tenth deale of fine flowre mingled with oyle for a meate offeryng, and a logge of oyle,
22 And two turtle doues, or two young pigeons, such as he is able to get: Whereof the one shalbe for a sinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng.
23 And he shall bryng them the eyght day for his clensyng vnto the priest before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation congregation before the Lorde.

24 And the priest shall take the lambe that is for the trespasse offeryng, & the logge of oyle, and waue them for a waue offeryng before the Lorde.
25 And he shal kill the lambe for the trespasse offeryng, and the priest shall take of the blood of the trespasse offeryng, and put it vpon the tippe of his right eare that is to be clensed, and vpon the thombe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote.
26 And the priest shall powre of the oyle into the paulme of his owne left hande:
27 And the priest shall with his right finger, sprinckle of the oyle that is in his left hand, seuen tymes before the Lord.
28 And the priest shal put of the oyle that is in his hande, vpon ỹ tippe of the right eare of hym that is to be clensed, & vpon the thombe of his right hande, and vpon the great toe of his right foote, euen in the place where the blood of the trespasse offeryng was put.
29 And ỹ rest of the oyle ỹ is in the priestes hande, he shal put vpon the head of him that is to be clensed, that he may make an attonement for him before the Lord.
30 And he shall offer one of the turtle doues, or of the young pigeons, such as he can get:
31 Such [I say] as he is able to get: the one for a sinne offering, & the other for a burnt offeryng, with ỹ meate offeryng: And ỹ priest shall make an attonement for hym ỹ is to be clensed before ỹ Lord.
32 This is the lawe of hym in whom is the plague of leprosie, and whose hande is not able to get that which pertaineth to his clensyng.
33 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, saying:
34 When ye be come vnto the lande of Chanaan, which I geue you in possession, and yf I put the plague of leprosie in a house of the land of your possession:
35 He that oweth the house shall come, & tell the priest, saying: Me thinke that there is as it were a plague in ỹ house.
36 Then the priest shall cõmaunde them to emptie the house, before the priest go into it to see the plague, that all that is in the house be not made vncleane: and thẽ must the priest go in, to see the house.
37 And he shall see the plague: and yf the plague be in the walles of the house, & that there be hollowe strakes, greenish or reddishe, which seeme to be lower then the wall it selfe:
38 Then the priest shall go out of ỹ house, to the doore of the house, and shut vp the house seuen dayes.
39 And the priest shall come agayne the seuenth day, & yf he see that the plague be increased in the walles of the house,
40 Then the priest shall cõmaunde them to take away ỹ stones in which ỹ plague is, and let them cast them into a foule place without the citie,
41 And he shall commaunde the house to be scraped within rounde about, and powre out the dust that they scrape of, without the citie into a foule place.
42 And they shall take other stones, and put thẽ in the place of those stones, and other morter to plaster ỹ house withall.
43 And if the plague come againe, & breake out in the house after that he hath taken away the stones and scraped the house, & after that he hath plastered the house,
44 Then the priest shall come and see it: & yf that the plague hath growen further in the house, it is a frettyng leprosie in the house, it is therfore vncleane.
45 And he shall breake downe the house, and the stones of it, and the timber therof, and all the morter of the house: and he shall cary them out of the citie into a foule place.
46 Moreouer, he that goeth into ỹ house all the whyle that it is shut vp, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.
47 He also that sleepeth in the house, shal washe his clothes: he lykewyse that eateth in ỹ house, shall washe his clothes.
48 And yf the priest come and see that the plague hath spread no further in ỹ house after that it is newe plastered: the priest shall iudge that house cleane, because the plague is healed.
49 And let hym take to clense the house withall, two birdes, ceder wood, and a scarlet [lase] and ysope.
50 And he shal kill one of the birdes in an earthen vessell, & vpon runnyng water:
51 And take the ceder wood, and the ysope, and the scarlet [lase] with the lyuyng birde, and dippe them in the blood of the slayne birde, and in the runnyng water, & sprinckle the house seuẽ tymes.
52 And he shall clense the house with the blood of ỹ birde, & with the running water, with the liuing birde, with the ceder wood, & the ysope, and the scarlet [lase].

53 But

53 But he shall let the lyuyng birde flee out of the towne into the brode fieldes, & so make an attonement for the house, and it shalbe cleane.
54 This is the lawe for all maner plague of leprosie and fret,
55 And of the leprosie of garment & house,
56 For a swellyng, for a scabbe, and for a shynyng whyte, 57 To teache when it must be made vncleane, and cleane: this is the lawe of leprosie.

¶ The .xv. Chapter.

2 19 The maner of purgyng the vncleanesse both of men and women.
31 The children of Israel must seperate them selues from vncleanesse.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, saying:
2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them: Whosoeuer hath a runnyng issue out of his flesshe, is vncleane by reason of that issue.
3 And this shalbe his vncleanesse in his issue: if his flesshe runne, or yf his flesshe be stopped from his issue, then it is vncleanesse.
4 Euery bed Wheron he lyeth that hath the issue, is vncleane: and euery thyng wheron he sitteth, is vncleane.
5 Whosoeuer toucheth his bed, shall washe his clothes and bath hymselfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
6 And he that sitteth on any thing wheron he sat that hath the issue, shal washe his clothes, and bath him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euenyng.
7 He that toucheth the flesshe of him that hath the issue, shall washe his clothes, and bathe hym selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
8 If he also that hath the issue, spyt vpon hym that is cleane, he shall washe his clothes, and bath him selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
9 And what saddle soeuer he rydeth vpon that hath ỹ issue, shalbe vncleane.
10 And whosoeuer toucheth any thyng that was vnder hym, shalbe vncleane vnto the euen: And he that beareth any such thynges shall washe his clothes, and bathe hym selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
11 And whosoeuer he toucheth that hath the issue, and haue not washed his handes in water, shall washe his clothes and bathe hym selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
12 *The vessell of earth that he toucheth which hath the issue, shalbe broken: and all vessels of wood shalbe rensed in water.
13 When he also that hath any issue, is clensed of his issue, he shall number him seuen dayes for his clensyng, and washe his clothes, and bathe his flesshe in runnyng water, and so shall he be cleane.
14 And the eyght day he shall take to hym two turtle doues, or two young pigeons, and come before the Lorde vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, & geue them vnto the priest.
15 And the priest shall offer them, the one for a sinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng: and the priest shall make an attonement for hym before the Lorde, as concernyng his issue.
16 If any mans seede depart frō hym in his sleepe, he shall washe all his flesshe in water, and be vncleane vntyll ỹ euen.
17 And euery garment, and euery skinne wherin is such seede of sleepe, shalbe washed with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
18 And if he ỹ hath such an issue of seede, do lye with a woman, they shall both washe them selues with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
19 Also yf a woman shall haue an issue, [and] her issue in her flesshe shalbe blood, she shalbe put apart seuen dayes: Whosoeuer toucheth her, shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.
20 And all that she lyeth vpon in ỹ tyme of her seperation, shalbe vncleane: lyke as euery thing also that she sitteth vpon, is vncleane.
21 Whosoeuer toucheth her bed, shall washe his clothes, and bathe hym selfe with water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
22 And Whosoeuer toucheth any thyng that she sat vpon, shall washe his clothes, and bathe hym selfe in water, and be be vncleane vntyll the euen.

23 So that whether he touche her bed, or any vessell wheron she hath sytten, he shalbe vncleane vntyll the euenyng.
Leuit 18.c. 24 *And yf a man lye with her, and her seperation come vpon hym, he shalbe vncleane seuen dayes: and all the bedde wheron he lyeth shalbe vncleane.
25 Also if a woman haue an issue of her blood many dayes, out of the tyme of her seperation, or if it runne beyond her seperation, let all the dayes of the issue of her vncleanenesse, be euen as ỹ dayes of her seperation, [for] she is vncleane.
26 Euery bedde whereon she lyeth as long as her issue lasteth, shalbe vnto her as the bedde of her seperation: and whatsoeuer she sitteth vpon shalbe vncleane, as the vncleanenesse of her seperation.
27 And whosoeuer toucheth any of these shalbe vncleane, and shall washe his clothes, and bathe hym selfe in water, and be vncleane vntyll the euen.
28 But if she be cleansed of her issue, she shall count her seuen dayes: and after that, she shalbe cleane.
29 And in the eyght day, she shall take vnto her two turtles, or two young pigeons, and bryng them vnto the priest, before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.
30 And the priest shall offer the one for a sinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng, and make an attonement for her before the Lord, as concernyng the issue of her vncleanenesse.
31 Thus shall ye syft the chyldren of Israel from their vncleanenesse, that they dye not in their vncleanenesse: if they defyle my tabernacle that is among the.
32 This is the lawe of hym that hath an issue, and of hym whose seede runneth from hym in his sleepe, and is defyled therin:
33 Also of her that for her seperation is put apart, & of whosoeuer hath a runnyng issue, whether it be man or woman, and of hym that lyeth with her which is vncleane.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses *after the death of ỹ two sonnes of Aaron, when they offered before ỹ Lorde, and dyed.
Leuit.x.a.

4 He shall put the holy lynnen coate vpon hym, and shall haue lynnen breeches vpon his flesh, and shalbe girded with a lynnen girdle, and with a lynnen cap shall he be attired. These are holy garmentes: therfore shall he washe his flesh in water when he doth put them on.
5 And he shall take of the congregation of the childrē of Israel, two hee goates for a sinne offeryng, and a ramme for a burnt offeryng.
6 And Aaron shall offer his bullocke for his sinne offering, *and make an attonement for hym and for his house.
B Hebr.ix.b.
7 And he shall take the two hee goates, and present them before the Lorde at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

14 *And he shall take of the blood of the bullocke, and sprincle it with his finger vpon the mercy seate eastward: and before the mercy seate shall he sprincle of the blood with his finger seuen tymes.

16 And he shall reconcile the holy place from the vncleannesses of the chyldren of Israel, and from their trespasses in all their sinnes: And so shal he do for the tabernacle of the congregation that is set among them, euen among their vncleannesses.

17 *And let there be no body in the tabernacle of the cõgregation when he goeth in to make an attonement in the holy place, vntyll he come out, and haue made an attonement for hym selfe, and for his housholde, and for all the congregation of Israel.

A lawe for the priestes.

1 AND the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses, Speake vnto the priestes the sonnes of Aaron, & say vnto them: Let none be defiled by a corse among his people:
2 But by his kynsman that is nye vnto him, [that is] by his mother and his father, by his sonne, and his daughter, and his brother,
3 And by his sister a mayde that is (a) nye vnto hym, whom no man hath knowē: for her shall he be defiled.
4 But he shall not be defiled vpon hym that hath auctoritie among his people, to pollute him selfe.
5 Let them not make *baldnesse vpon their head, nor shaue of ỹ lockes of their bearde, nor make any cuttinges in their flesh.
6 They shalbe holy vnto their God, and not pollute the name of their God, for the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fire, [and] the bread of their God they do offer, therfore they shall be holy.
7 *Let them not take a wyfe that is an whore, or polluted, nor put from her husband: for such a one is holy vnto his god.
8 Thou shalt sanctifie hym therfore, for he offereth vp the bread of thy God: he shall therefore be holy vnto thee, for I the Lorde which sanctifie you, am holy.
9 If a priestes daughter fall to play the whore, she polluteth her father, therefore must she be burnt with fire.
10 He that is the hie priest among his brethren, vpon whose head the annoynting oyle was powred, and that consecrated his hand to put on ỹ vestments, shal not vncouer his head, nor rent his clothes:
11 *Neither go to any dead body, nor make hym selfe vncleane by his father or his mother.
12 Neither shall go out of the sanctuarie, nor pollute the holy place of his God, for the crowne of the annoynting oyle of his God, is vpon him: I am the Lord.
13 *He shall take a mayde vnto his wife.
14 But a wydowe, a deuorsed woman, or a polluted, or a harlot, these shall he not marrie: but shall take a mayde of his owne people to wyfe.
15 Neither shal he defile his seede among his people: for I am the Lorde whiche sanctifie hym.
16 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
17 Speake vnto Aaron, and say: Whosoeuer of thy seede in their generations hath any deformitie, let hym not preasse for to offer bread vnto his God:
18 *For whosoeuer hath any blemishe, shall not come neare: as if he be blynde or lame, or that hath a " bruised nose, or that hath any misshapen member:
19 Or is broken footed, or broken handed,
20 Or is crooke backt, or bleare eyed, or haue a webbe or other blemishe in his eyes, or be skuruie, or skabbed, or hath his stones broken:
21 No man that hath a blemishe, & is of the seede of Aaron the priest, shall come nye to offer the sacrifices of the Lorde made by fire: when he hath a deformitie, let hym not preasse to offer the bread of his God.
22 Let him eate the bread of his God, euen of the most holy, and of the holy:
23 Only let him not go in vnto ỹ vayle, nor come nye the aulter, because he is deformed, that he pollute not my sanctuarie: for I am the Lorde that sanctifie them.

3 Who ought to abstayne from eating the thinges that were offered. 19 Howe, what, and when they shoulde be offered.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
2 Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, that they be seperated from the holy thinges of the childzen of Israel, and that they pollute not my holy name in those thinges Whiche they halowe vnto me: I am the Lorde.
3 Say vnto them: Whosoeuer he be of all your seede among your generations after you, that goeth vnto the holy thinges Whiche the childzen of Israel halowe vnto the Lorde, hauing his vncleannes vpon hym, that soule shall be cut of from out of my sight: I am the Lorde.
4 *What man soeuer of the seede of Aaron is a leper, oz hath a running issue, he shall not eate of the holy thinges, vntyll he be cleane: And Who so toucheth any man that is vncleane [by reason] of a dead body, oz a man whose seede ranneth from hym in his sleepe,
5 Oz Whosoeuer toucheth any creeping thyng, Whereby he may be made vncleane, oz a man, of Whom he may take vncleannes, Whatsoeuer vncleannes he hath:
6 The same soule that hath touched any suche, shalbe vncleane vntyll euen, and shall not eate of the holy thynges, vntyll he haue washed his flesshe with water.
7 And When the sunne is downe, he shalbe cleane, and shall afterwarde eate of the holy thynges, forasmuche as it is his foode.
8 *Of a beast that dyeth alone, oz is rent With Wylde beastes, Wherby he may be defiled, he shall not eate: I am the Lorde.
9 Let them kepe therefore myne ordinaunce, lest they for the same lade sinne vpon them, and dye for it, if they defile it: I the Lorde sanctifie them.
10 There shall no straunger eate of the holy thing, neither a ghest of ỹ prestes, neither shall an hyred seruaunt eate of the holy thyng.
11 But if the preest bye any soule With money, he shall eate of it, like as he that is borne in his house: they shall eate of his meate.
12 If the prestes daughter also be marred vnto a straunger, she may not eate of the halowed heaue offeringes:
13 Notwithstanding, if ỹ prestes daughter be a wydowe oz deuorsed, and haue no chylde, but is returned vnto her fathers house agayne, she shall eate of her fathers meate, aswell as she dyd it in her youth: But there shall no straunger eate therof.
14 If a man eate of the holy thyng vnwittingly, he shal put the fifth part therunto, and geue it vnto the preest With the halowed thyng.
15 And the prestes shall not defile the holy thynges of the childzen of Israel, Which they offer vnto the Lorde:
16 To lade them selues With mysdoyng and trespasse While they eate their holy thinges: for I the Lorde do halowe them.
17 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
18 Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, and vnto all the childzen of Israel, and say vnto them: Whatsoeuer he be of the house of Israel, oz straunger in Israel, that Wyll offer his sacrifice for all his vowes, and for all his freeWyll offeringes Whiche they Wyll offer vnto the Lorde for a burnt offering:
19 Ye shall offer at your pleasure, a male Without blemishe, of the beefes, of the sheepe, oz of the goates.
20 But Whatsoeuer hath a blemishe, that shall ye not offer: for it shal not be acceptable for you.
21 And Whosoeuer bryngeth a peace offering vnto the Lorde, to accomplyshe his vowe, oz a freeWyll offering in beefes oz sheepe, it shalbe perfite to be accepted, there shalbe also no blemishe therein.
22 Blynde, oz broken, oz lame, oz hauyng a wen, oz skuruie, oz scabbed, ye shall not offer suche vnto the Lorde, nor put a burnt offering of any suche vpon the aulter vnto the Lorde.
23 A bullocke oz a sheepe that hath any member superfluous oz lackyng, mayest thou offer for a freeWyll offering: but for a vowe it shall not be accepted.

24 Ye

24 Ye shall not offer vnto the Lord that which is bruised, or crushed, or broken, or cut away, neither shal you make any offeryng therof in your lande.
25 Neither of a straungers hande shall ye offer the bread of your God of any such, because their corruption is in thē, and they haue deformitie in thē selues: and therfore shall they not be accepted for you.
26 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
27 When a bullocke, or a sheepe, or a goate is brought forth, it shalbe seuen dayes vnder the damme: And from the eyght day and thencefoorth, it shalbe accepted for a burnt sacrifice vnto the Lorde.
28 And whether it be cowe or ewe, ye shall not kyll it and her young both in one day.
29 When ye wyll offer a thanke offeryng vnto the Lorde, offer it wyllyngly:
30 And the same day it must be eaten vp, so that ye leaue none of it vntyll the morowe: I am the Lorde.
31 Therfore shall ye kepe my cōmaundementes and do them: I am the Lorde.
32 Neither shal ye pollute my holy name, but I wyll be halowed among the children of Israel: I am the Lorde which halowe you, 33 And that brought you out of the lande of Egypt to be your God: I am the Lorde.

15 And ye shall count vnto you from the morowe after the Sabboth, euen from the day that ye brought the sheafe of the waue offeryng, seuen Sabbothes they shalbe complet:

¶ The. xxiiij. Chapter.

1 The oyle for the lampes. 15 He that blasphemeth must be stoned. 17 He that kylleth shalbe kylled. &c.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
2 * Commaunde the chyldren of Israel that they bryng vnto thee pure oyle olyue beaten for the lyght, to cause the lampes to burne continually,
3 Without the vayle of Witnesse in the tabernacle of the congregation shall Aaron dresse them both euenyng and mornyng before the Lorde alwayes: Let it be a lawe for euer in your generations.
4 He shall dresse the lampes vpon ỹ pure candlestycke before ỹ Lord perpetually.
5 And thou shalt take fine floure, and bake twelue cakes therof, two tenth deales shalbe in one cake.
6 And thou shalt set thē in two rowes, sixe on a rowe, vpon the pure table before the Lorde.
7 And put pure frankensence vpon the rowes, that they may be bread of remembraunce, and an offeryng made by fire vnto the Lorde.
8 Euery Sabbath he shall put them in rowes before the Lorde euermore, of the chyldren of Israel shall they be offered for an euerlastyng couenaunt.
9 And they shalbe Aarons and his sonnes, which shall eate them in the holy place: For they are most holy vnto hym of the offerynges of the Lorde made by fire, by a perpetuall statute.
10 And the sonne of an Israelitishe wife, whose father was an Egyptian, went out among the chyldren of Israel: And this sonne of the Israelitishe wyfe and a man of Israel stroue together in the hoast.
11 And the Israelitishe womans sonne (a) blasphemed the name of the Lorde, and cursed, and they brought hym vnto Moyses: His mothers name was Selomith, which was the daughter of Dibri, of the tribe of Dan.
12 And they * put hym in warde, that the minde of ỹ Lorde might be shewed thē.
13 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
14 Bryng the cursed speaker without the hoast,

(a) This place is diuersly expounded, but of the learnedst sort thus, that is, that the sonne of the Egyptian cursed the other, and wished hym an euyll ending or some calamitie, and that not simply, but by the name of God. He sayde not only I wisshe thee an euyll, but added and in open wordo named the name of God, saying: The Lorde geue thee a vengeaunce, or the Lord destroy thee euerlastingly. Thus to wish harme by the name of God, is to misuse & prophane ỹ name of God, and is a blasphemie agaynst the first table and seconde commaundement.

hoast, and let all that hearde hym, put their handes vpon his head, and let all the multitude stone hym.

15 And thou shalt speake vnto ỹ children of Israel, saying: Whosoeuer curseth his God, shall beare his sinne.

16 And he that blaspheməth the name of the Lorde, let him be slayne, and all the multitude shall stone hym to death: whether he be borne in the lande, or a straunger, when he blaspheməth the name of the Lorde, let hym be slayne.

D 17 And* he that kylleth any man, let hym dye the death. Exod.xxi.b

18 And he that kylleth a beast, let hym make hym good, beast for beast.

19 And yf a man cause a blemishe in his neighbour: as he hath done, so shall it be done to hym.

5 That which groweth of the owne accorde of thy haruest, thou shalt not reape, neither gather the grapes that thou hast left behynde: for it is a yere of rest vnto the lande.

6 And the rest of the lande shalbe meate for you, euen for thee, for thy seruaunt, & for thy mayde, for thy hired seruaunt, and for the straunger that soiourneth with thee:

7 And for thy cattell, and for the beastes that are in thy lande, shall all the encrease therof be meate.

B 8 And thou shalt number seuen Sabbathes of yeres vnto thee, euen seuen tymes seuen yere, and the space of the seuen Sabbathes of yeres wylbe vnto thee nine and fourtie yeres.

9 And then thou shalt cause to blowe the trumpet of the Jubilee in the tenth day of the seuenth moneth, euen in ỹ day of attonement shal ye make the trumpe blowe throughout all your lande.

10 And ye shall halowe that yere, euen the fiftieth yere, and proclayme libertie throughout all the lande vnto all the inhabiters therof: for it shalbe a Jubilee vnto you, and ye shall returne euery man vnto his possession, and euery man vnto his kinred agayne.

11 A yere of Jubilee shal that fiftieth yere be vnto you: Ye shall not sowe, neither reape that which groweth of it selfe, neither gather the grapes that are left:

12 For that yere of Jubilee shalbe holy vnto you: but ye shall eate of the encrease therof out of the fielde.

13 In the yere of this Jubilee ye shall returne euery man vnto his possession agayne.

14 If thou sellest ought vnto thy neyghbour, or byest ought of thy neyghbours hande, ye shal not oppresse one another.

15 But according to the number of yeres after the Jubilee yere thou shalt bye of thy neighbour: and accordyng vnto the number of yeres of the fruites he shall sell vnto thee.

16 According vnto the multitude of yeres he shall encrease the price therof, and according to the fewnesse of yeres, he shal minishe the price of it: for the (a) number of fruites doth he sell vnto thee.

(a) Doth he selleth vnto thee ỹ moneth which may rise of the grounde all those yeres vntill the yere of Jubile.

17 Oppresse not ye therfore euery man his his neighbour, but thou shalt feare thy God: For I am the Lorde your God.

18 Wherfore ye shall do after myne ordinaunces, and kepe my lawes, and do them, and ye shall dwell in the lande in safetie.

19 And the lande shall geue her fruite, and ye shall eate your fyll, and dwell therin in safetie.

20 And yf ye shall say, What shall we eate the seuenth yere: for we shall not sowe, nor gather in our increase:

21 I wyll sende my blessyng vpon you in the sixt yere, and it shall bryng foorth fruite for three yeres.

22 And ye shall sowe the eyght yere, and eate yet of olde fruite vntyll the ninth yere: euen vntill her fruites come ye shall eate of olde store.

D 23 The lande shall not be solde to (a) waste: for the lande is myne, & ye be but straungers and sotourners with me.

24 In all the lande of your possession, ye shal (b) graunt a redemption for ỹ lande.

25 If thy brother be waxed poore, and hath solde away of his possession, and yf any of his kinne come to redeeme it, let hym bye out that which his brother solde.

26 And yf he haue no man to redeeme it, and his hande hath gotten and founde as much as may be sufficient to bye it out agayne:

27 Thẽ let hym count howe long it hath ben solde, and delyuer the rest vnto the man to whom he solde it, that he may returne to his possession agayne.

28 But and yf his hande can not get sufficient to restore to the other agayne, thẽ that which is solde shal remayne in the hande of hym that hath bought it, vntyll the yere of Iubilee: and in the Iubilee it shall come out, and he shall returne vnto his possession agayne.

29 And yf a man sell a dwellyng house in a walled citie, he may bye it out agayne within a whole yere after it is solde: within a yere may he redeeme it.

E 30 But and yf he bye it not out agayne within the space of a full yere, then the house that is in the walled citie, shalbe stablished, as translated to hym that bought it and his successours after hym, & shall not go out in the Iubilee.

31 But the houses of vyllages, which haue no walles rounde about them, are counted as the fielde of the cõtrey: and therefore they may be bought out agayne, and shal go out in the Iubilee.

32 Notwithstandyng, the cities of the Leuites, and the houses of the cities of their possession, may the Leuites redeeme at all seasons.

33 And yf a man purchase of the Leuites, the house that was solde, and the citie of their possession, shall go out in the yere of Iubilee: for the houses of the cities of the Leuites, are their possession among the children of Israel.

34 But the fielde of the suburbes of their cities may not be solde: for it is their perpetuall possession.

35 If thy brother be waren poore and fallen in decay with thee, thou shalt relieue hym as a straunger or sotourner, that he may lyue with thee. F

36 *And thou shalt take none vsurie of hym, or vantage: but thou shalt feare thy God, that thy brother may lyue with thee. Exod.22.d. Deut.23.d. Ezech.22.e.

37 Thou shalt not geue hym thy money vpon vsurie, nor lende him thy victuels for encrease.

38 I am the Lorde your God, which brought you out of the lande of Egypt, to geue you the lande of Chanaan, and to be your God.

39 *If thy brother that dwelleth by thee be waxen poore, and be solde vnto thee, thou shalt not compell hym to serue as a bonde seruaunt: Exod 21 a. Deut.15.c

40 But as an hired seruaunt, and as a sotourner he shalbe with thee, and shall serue thee vnto the yere of Iubilee.

41 And then shall he depart from thee, both he and his children with hym, and shall returne vnto his owne kinred agayne, and vnto the possession of his fathers shall he returne.

42 For they are my seruauntes, which I brought out of the lande of Egypt, and shall not therfore be solde as bondmen.

43 Thou shalt not rule ouer hym cruelly, but shalt feare thy God.

44 Thy bondseruaunt and thy bondemayde which thou shalt haue, shalbe of the heathen that are rounde about you: of them shall ye purchase seruauntes and maydes.

45 Moreouer, of the children of ỹ straungers that are sotourners among you, of them shall ye bye, & of their families that are with you, which they begat in your lande: these shalbe your possession.

46 And

46 And ye shall take them as inheritaũce for your children after you, to possesse them for an inheritaunce, they shalbe your bondmen for euer: but ouer your brethren the children of Israel, ye shall not rule one ouer another cruelly.

G 47 If a sojourner or straunger ware riche by thee, and thy brother that dwelleth by hym ware poore, and sell hym selfe vnto the straunger or sojourner by thee, or to the stocke of the straungers kinne:

48 After that he is solde, he may be redeemed agayne: one of his brethren may redeeme hym:

49 Either his vncle, or his vncles sonne may bye hym out: or any that is nye of kinne vnto hym of his kinred, may redeeme hym: either yf his hande can get so much, he may be bought out.

50 And he shall recken with hym that bought hym, from the yere that he was solde in, vnto the yere of Jubilee: and the price of his beyng, shalbe accordyng vnto the number of yeres, according to the tyme of an hired seruaunt shall he be with hym.

51 If there be yet many yeres behynde, accordyng vnto them let hym geue againe for his deliueraunce, of the money that he was bought for.

52 If there remayne but fewe yeres vnto the yere of Jubilee, let hym count with hym agayne: and accordyng vnto his yeres, geue hym agayne for his redemption.

53 And he shalbe with hym yere by yere as an hired seruaunt: and the other shal not raigne cruelly ouer him in thy sight.

54 If he be not redeemed thus, he shall go out in the yere of Jubilee, both he and his children with hym:

55 For vnto me the children of Israel are seruauntes, they are my seruauntes which I brought out of the lande of Egypt: I am the Lorde your God.

¶ The. xxvj. Chapter.

3 They are blessed that kepe those thynges that God biddeth. 14 A curse to them that breake them.

A Dent. v. a.

1 YE shall *make you no idols nor grauē image, neither reare you vp any piller, neither shall ye set vp any image of stone in your lande to bowe downe vnto it: for I am the Lorde your God.

2 Ye shall kepe my Sabbathes, and reuerence my sanctuarie: for I am the Lorde.

3 If ye walke in my ordinaunces, and kepe my commaundementes, & do thē:

4 I wyll sende you rayne in due season, and the lande shall yeelde her increase, and the trees of the fielde shall geue their fruite:

5 And your thresshyng shal reache vnto the vintage, & the vintage shall reache vnto sowyng tyme: and ye shall eate your bread in plentе ouslnesse, and dwell in your lande safely.

6 And I wyll sende peace in the lande, and ye shall lye downe without any man to make you afrayde: And I wyll ridde cuyll beastes out of the lande, and there shall no sworde go throughout your lande.

7 And ye shall chase your enemies, and they shal fall before you vpon ẏ sworde.

8 *And fiue of you shall chase an hundred, and an hundred of you shall put ten thousande to flight: & your enemies shall fall before you vpon the sworde. Iosu xxiii.

9 For I wyll haue respect vnto you, and make you increase, and multiplie you, and set vp my couenaunt with you. B

10 And ye shall eate olde store, and cary out olde, because of the newe.

11 *And I wyll make my dwellyng place among you, and my soule shal not lothe you. ii. Cor. vi. a.

12 I wyll walke among you, and wilbe your God, and ye shalbe my people.

13 I am the Lorde your God which brought you out of the lande of Egypt, that ye shoulde not be their bondmen, and I haue broken the chaynes of your yoke, and made you go vpright.

14 *But and if ye wyll not hearken vnto me, nor wyll not do after these commaundementes: Deut. xxi. Malach. ii.

15 And yf ye shall dispise myne ordinaunces, either if your soule abhorre my lawes, so that ye wyll not do all my commaundementes, but breake my couenaunt,

16 I also wyll do this vnto you: For I wyll wyll bryng vpon you fearefulneſſe, conſumption, and the burnyng ague to conſume your eyes, and gender ſorowe of heart: And ye ſhall ſowe your ſeede in vayne, for your enemies ſhall eate it.

17 And I wyll ſet my face agaynſt you, & ye ſhall fall before your enemies: they that hate you ſhal raigne ouer you, *and ye ſhall flee whē no man folowēth you.

18 And yf ye wyl not yet for all this hearken vnto me, then wyll I puniſhe you ſeuen tymes more for your ſinnes:

19 And wyll breake the pride of your power, and I wyll make your heauen as iron, and your earth as braſſe.

20 And your labour ſhalbe ſpent in vayne: for your lande ſhall not geue her increaſe, neither ſhall the trees of the lande geue their fruites.

21 And if ye walke contrarie vnto me, and wyll not hearken vnto me, I wyll bryng ſeuen tymes mo plagues vpon you, accordyng to your ſinnes.

22 I wyll alſo ſende in wylde beaſtes vpon you, which ſhall robbe you of your children, and deſtroy your cattell, and make you fewe in number, and cauſe your hye wayes to be deſolate.

23 And if ye may not be reformed by theſe thynges, but ſhall walke contrary vnto me:

24 Then wyll I alſo walke contrarie vnto you, and wyl puniſhe you yet ſeuen tymes for your ſinnes.

25 And I wyll ſende a ſworde vpon you, that ſhall auenge my couenaunt: And when ye are gathered together within your cities, I wyll ſende the peſtilence among you, and ye ſhalbe delyuered into the hande of the enemie.

26 And whē I haue broken the (a) ſtaffe of your bread (b) ten wyues ſhall bake your bread in one ouen, and they ſhall deliuer you your bread agayne by wayght, ye ſhall eate, and not be ſatiſfied.

27 And if ye wyl not yet for all this hearken vnto me, but walke agaynſt me:

28 I wyll walke contrary vnto you alſo in indignation, and wyll chaſtiſe you ſeuen tymes more for your ſinnes.

29 *And ye ſhall eate the fleſhe of your ſonnes, and the fleſhe of your daughters ſhall ye deuour.

30 I wyll deſtroy your hye places, and cut away your images, and caſt your carkaſſes vpon ỹ bodyes of your idols, and my ſoule ſhall abhorre you.

31 And I wyll make your cities deſolate, and bring your ſanctuarie vnto naught, and wyll not ſmell the ſauour of your ſweete odours.

32 I wyll bryng the lande vnto a wilderneſſe, and your enemies which dwell therin ſhall wonder at it.

33 And I wyll ſtrowe you among the heathen, and wyll drawe out a ſworde after you: and your lande ſhalbe waſte, and your cities deſolate.

34 Then ſhall the lande enioy her Sabbathes as long as it lyeth voyde, and ye ſhalbe in your enemies lande: euen then ſhall the lande reſt and enioy her Sabbathes.

35 As long as it lyeth voyde, it ſhall reſt: becauſe it dyd not reſt in your Sabbathes when ye dwelt vpon it.

36 And vpon them that are left alyue of you, I will ſende a fayntneſſe into their heartes in the landes of their enemies: and the ſounde of a ſhakyng leafe ſhall chaſe them, and they ſhall flee as fleyng from a ſworde: they ſhall fall, no man folowyng vpon them. F

37 They ſhall fall one vpon another as it were before a ſworde, euen no man folowyng vpon them, and ye ſhall haue no power to ſtand before your enemies.

38 And ye ſhall periſhe among the heathen, and the lande of your enemies ſhall eate you vp.

39 And they that are left of you, ſhal pine away in their vnrighteouſneſſe [euen] in your enemies landes, & in the miſdeedes of their fathers ſhall they conſume with them.

40 And they ſhal confeſſe their miſdeedes and the miſdeedes of their fathers, for their treſpaſſe which they haue treſpaſſed agaynſt me, and for that alſo that they haue walked contrary vnto me.

41 Therfore, I alſo wyll walke contrarie vnto them, and wyl bring them into the lande of their enemies: And then at the leaſt way their vncircumciſed heartes ſhalbe tamed, and they ſhall willingly accept their "ſinne.

42 Then I wyll remember my couenaunt with Jacob, and my couenaunt with Iſahac, and my couenaunt with Abraham wyll I remember, and wyll thynke on the lande. G

43 The lande alſo ſhalbe left of them, and ſhall enioy her Sabbathes whyle ſhe lyeth waſte without them: And they ſhall shall willingly accept their sinne, because they dispised my lawes, & because their soule abhorred my ordinaunces.

" That is, the punith-ment for their ſinne.

44 And yet for all that, when they be in the lande of their enemies, *I wyll not cast them away, neither wyll abhorre them to destroy them vtterly, and to breake my couenaunt with them: for I am the Lorde their God.

Deut.xxxi.e.

45 I wyll for their sakes remember the couenaunt of olde, when I brought the out of the lande of Egypt in the sight of the heathen, that I myght be their God: I am the Lorde.

46 These are the ordinaunces, and iudgementes, and lawes, which the Lorde made betweene hym and the children of Israel in mount Sinai by the hande of Moyses.

¶ The. xxvij. Chapter.

1 Of diuers vowes, and of tithes. 28 A thyng seperate from the vse of man, can not be solde, nor redeemed: but, remayneth to the Lorde.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them: If any man wyl make a (a) singuler vowe of a person vnto the Lorde, by thy estimation,

(a) As of his sonne or his daughter.

3 Then thy estimation shalbe [thus]: Of the male from twentie yeres olde vnto sixtie, shalbe by thy estimation fiftie *sicles of siluer, after the sicle of the sanctuarie:

Num.iii.g.

4 And if it be a female, then thy valuation shalbe thirtie sicles.

5 And from fiue yeres to twentie, thy valuation shalbe of the male twentie sicles, and of the female ten sicles.

6 And from a moneth vnto fiue yeres, thy estimation shalbe of the male at fiue sicles of siluer, and the female at three sicles of siluer.

7 And from sixtie yeres olde and aboue, if he be a male, then thy price shalbe fifteene sicles, and for the female ten sicles.

8 But if he be poorer then thou hast esteemed hym, he shall present hym selfe before the priest, and the priest shall value hym: accordyng as the hande of hym that vowed is able to get, euen so shall the priest value hym.

9 If it be a beast of which men bryng an offeryng vnto the Lorde, all that any man geueth of such vnto the Lord, shalbe holy.

10 He shall not alter it, nor chaunge it, a good for a bad, or a bad for a good: And if he chaunge beast for beast, then both the same beast and it also wherwith it was chaunged, shalbe holy.

11 If it be any maner of vncleane beast, of which men do not offer a sacrifice vnto the Lorde, he shall set the beast before the priest:

12 And the priest shall value it, whether it be good or bad: and as the priest setteth it, so shall it be.

13 But if he wyll bye it agayne, he shall geue the fift part more aboue that it was set at.

14 If any man dedicate his house to be holy vnto the Lorde, the priest shall set it, whether it be good or bad: and as the priest hath set it, so shall it stande.

15 And when he that sanctified it wyll redeeme his house, let hym gene the fift part of the money that it was iudged at therto, and it shalbe his.

16 If a man halowe a peece of his inherited lande vnto the Lorde, thou shalt value it accordyng to the seede therof: An Homer of barly seede shalbe set at fiftie sicles of siluer.

17 If he halowe his fielde immediatly frō the yere of Jubilee, it shalbe worth accordyng as thou doest esteeme it.

18 But and if he halowe his fielde after the Jubilee, the priest shall recken vnto hym the money, accordyng to the number of the yeres that remayne, vnto the yeres of Jubilee folowyng, and it shalbe abated by thy estimation.

19 If he that consecrated the fielde wyll redeeme it agayne, let hym put the fift part of the price that thou didst value it at therunto, and it shalbe his.

20 And if he wyll not redeeme the fielde, but selleth the fielde to another man: he [that vowed] may redeeme it no more.

21 But when the fielde goeth out in the yere yere of Jubilee, and it shalbe holy vnto the Lord, euen as a fielde seperate from common vses, and it shalbe the priestes possession.

E 22 If a man sanctifie vnto the Lorde a fielde which he hath bought, and is not of the grounde of his inheritaunce:

23 The priest shal recken vnto him what it is worth vnto the yere of Jubilee, and he shall geue the price that it is set at the same day, as a thyng consecrate vnto the Lorde.

24 And in the yere of Jubilee, the fielde shall returne vnto him of whom it was bought, to hym whose inheritaunce of lande it was.

xxx b 25 And all thy valuation shalbe according to the sicle * of the sanctuarie: One sicle contayneth twentie gerahs.

xxx d. 26 *But the first borne of the beastes that is the Lordes first borne, may no man sanctifie, whether it be oxe or sheepe, for it is the Lordes alredie.

27 If it be an vncleane beast, he shall redeeme it as thou shalt set it at, and geue the fift part more therto: Or if it be not redeemed, it shalbe solde accordyng to thy estimation.

28 Notwithstandyng, nothyng seperate from the common vse that a man doth seperate vnto the Lorde of all that he hath, whether it be man or beast, or lande of his inheritaunce, may be solde or redeemed: for euery thyng seperate from the common vse, is most holy vnto the Lorde.

29 Nothing seperate from the common vse, Whiche shalbe seperate from man, shalbe redeemed, but dye the death. F

30 Euery tithe of the lande also, both of the seede of the lande, and of the fruite of the trees, is the Lordes, and is sanctified vnto the Lorde.

31 And if a man wyll redeeme ought of his tithes, let hym adde the fift part thereto.

32 And euery tythe of oxe and of sheepe, and of euery beast that goeth vnder the (a) rod, euen euery tenth shalbe holy vnto the Lorde.

(a) That is, euery tenth as it ryseth by tale, whether it be male or female without acception or respect.

33 He shall not looke if it be good or bad, nor chaunge it: els if he chaunge it, both it and that it was chaunged withall, shalbe halowed, and may not be redeemed.

34 These are the commaundementes Whiche the Lorde commaunded by Moyses vnto the chyldren of Israel in mount Sinai.

¶ The ende of the thirde booke of Moyses.

The fourth booke of Moyses, called in the Hebrewe Vaiedabbar, and in the Latin Numeri.

¶ The first Chapter.

This fourth booke of Moyses, is called the booke of Numbers: because in the begynnyng of it, Moyses & Aaron dyd number the chyldren of Israel, & that by their tribes

1 All that are apt for battaile, are numbred. 49 The tribe of Leui must minister in the tabernacle.

1 AND the Lord spake vnto Moyses in the Wildernesse of Sinai, in the tabernacle of the congregation, the first day of the seconde moneth in the second yere after they were come out of the lande of Egypt, saying:

Exo.xxx.b Nu.xxvi.a. ii.Reg.24.a

2 Take ye the summe of all the multitude of the children of Israel, after their kinredes & housholdes of their fathers, with the number of their names, all that are males, head by head,

3 From twentie yeres olde and aboue, euen all that go foorth to the warre in Israel: thou and Aaron shall number them throughout their armies.

4 And with you shalbe men of euery tribe, such [as are] the heades of the houses of their fathers.

5 And these are the names of the men that shall stand with you: of [the tribe of] Ruben, Elizur, the sonne of Sedeur.

6 Of Simeon, Selumiel the sonne of Suri Saddai.

7 Of Juda, Nahesson, the sonne of Amminadab.

8 Of Issachar, Nathanael the sonne of Zuar.

9 Of Zabulon, Eliab the sonne of Helō.

15 Of Nephthali, Ahira ẏ sonne of Enan.

16 There were of great fame in the congregation, princes of the tribes of their fathers, and heades ouer thousandes in Israel.

17 And Moyses & Aaron toke these men whiche are expressed by their names.

18 And they called all the congregation together the first day of the second moneth, and they were reckened throughout their kinredes and houses of their fathers, accordyng to the number of their names, from twentie yeres olde and aboue, head by head.

19 As the Lorde commaunded Moyses, euen so he numbred them in the wildernesse of Sinai.

20 So were the chyldren of Ruben, Israels eldest sonne, throughout their generations, and their kinredes, and houses of their fathers, accordyng to the number of their names, head by head, all males from twentie yeres old & aboue, as many as did go foorth to the warre:

21 The number of them that were of the tribe of Ruben, was fourtie & fiue thousande, and fiue hundred.

22 Of the chyldren of Simeon throughout their generations, & their kinredes, and houses of their fathers, the summe of thē in the number of names head by head, all the males from twentie yeres and aboue, whosoeuer myght go foorth to the warre:

23 The summe of them that were of the tribe of Simeon, fiftie & nine thousande and three hundred.

24 Of the chyldren of Gad throughout their generations, and their kinredes, & housholdes of their fathers, the number of the names from twentie yeres & aboue, all that went foorth to ẏ warre:

25 The number of them that were of the tribe of Gad, was fourtie and fiue thousand, fiue hundred and fiftie.

26 Of the chyldren of Juda throughout their generations, and their kinredes, and houses of their fathers, the number of names frō twentie yeres & aboue, all that were able to go foorth to ẏ warre:

27 The number of them that were of the tribe of Juda, was threscore and fourteene thousande, and fiue hundred.

28 Of the chyldren of Issachar throughout their generations, & their kinredes, & houses of their fathers, the number of names from twentie yeres and aboue, whiche went all foorth to the warre:

29 The

29 The number of them that were of the tribe of Isachar, was fiftie and foure thousande and foure hundred.
30 Of the chyldren of Zabulon, throughout their generations, & their kinredes, and houses of their fathers, the number of names from twentie yeres and aboue, all whiche were able to go fooꝛth in the hoast:
31 The number of them that were of the tribe of Zabulon, was fiftie and seuen thousande and foure hundred.
32 Of the chyldren of Joseph [namely] of the chyldren of Ephraim throughout their generations, and their kinredes and houses of their fathers, the number of names from twentie yeres & aboue, all that went out to the warre:
33 The number of them that were of the tribe of Ephraim, was fourtie thousand and fiue hundred.
34 Of the chyldren of Manasse throughout their generations, & their kinredes, and houses of their fathers, the number of names from twentie yeres olde and aboue, all that went out to the warre:
35 The number of them that were of the tribe of Manasse, was thirtie and two thousande and two hundred.
36 Of the chyldren of Beniamin throughout their generations, & their kinredes and houses of their fathers, the number of names from twentie yeres and aboue, all that went fooꝛth to the warre:
37 The number of them that were of the tribe of Beniamin, was thirtie and fiue thousande, and foure hundred.
38 Of the chyldren of Dan throughout their generations, and kinredes, and houses of their fathers, the number of names from twentie yeres olde and aboue, all that went fooꝛth to the warre:
39 The number of them that were of the tribe of Dan, was thereforе and two thousande and seuen hundred.
40 Of the chyldren of Asar throughout their generations, and their kinredes, and houses of their fathers, the number of the names from twentie yeres and aboue, all that went out to the warre:
41 The number of them that were of the tribe of Aser, was fourtie and one thousande and fiue hundred.
42 Of the chyldren of Nephthali throughout their generations, and their kinredes, and houses of their fathers, the number of names from twentie yeres and aboue, all that myght go fooꝛth to the warre:
43 The number of them that were of the tribe of Nephthali, was fiftie and three thousande and foure hundred. G
44 These are the summes whiche Moyses and Aaron numbred, and the princes of Israel, those twelue men which were euery one foꝛ the house of their fathers.
45 So were all the numbers of the chyldren of Israel throughout the houses of their fathers, from twentie yeres and aboue, all that went fooꝛth to the warre in Israel:
46 All they I say, were in number* sixe hundred thousand, and three thousand, fiue hundred and fiftie. *Exod.xii.f. Num.xi.e.
47 But the Leuites after the tribes of their fathers, were not numbred among them.
48 Foꝛ the Looꝛde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
49 Only thou shalt not number the tribe of Leui, neither take the summe of them among the chyldren of Israel.
50 But thou shalt appoynt the Leuites ouer the tabernacle of wytnesse, & ouer all the vessels therof, and ouer all thinges that are in it: yea, they shall beare the tabernacle, and all the vessels therof, and they shall minister in it, and shall dwell rounde about the tabernacle.
51 And whē the tabernacle goeth fooꝛth, the Leuites shall take it doꝛwne: and when the tabernacle is to be pitched, the Leuites shal set it vp: and if any straunger come nye, he shall dye.
52 And the chyldren of Israel shall pitch their tentes', euery man in his owne campe, and euery man vnder his owne standerd throughout their hoastes.
53 But the Leuites shall pitche rounde about the tabernacle of wytnesse, that there be no wrath vpon the congregation of the chyldren of Israel: and the Leuites shall kepe the watche of the tabernacle of wytnesse.
54 And the chyldren of Israel dyd accoꝛdyng to all that the Looꝛde commaunded Moyses, euen so dyd they.

¶ The. ij. Chapter.

2 The order of the tentes. The heades of the kinredes of Israel.

A 1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, saying:

2 Euery man of the chyldren of Israel shal pitche vnder his owne standerd, & vnder the ensigne of their fathers houses: farre of about the tabernacle of the congregation shall they pitche.

3 On the east side towarde the rising of the sunne, shall they of the standerd of the hoast of Juda pitche, throughout their armies: And Nahesson the sonne of Aminadab, shalbe captayne of the sonnes of Juda.

4 And his hoast & the number of them, threscore and fourteene thousande and sixe hundred.

46 And so al the numbers of the Leuites, which Moyses, Aaron, and the Lordes of Israel numbred after their kinredes and housholdes of their fathers:
47 From thirtie yeres olde and vp, vnto fiftie yeres, euery one that came to do his duetie, office, seruice, and charge in the tabernacle of the congregation. So 48 the numbers of them were seuen thousande, fiue hundred, and fourescore.
Accordyng to the worde of the Lorde dyd [Aaron] number them by the hande of Moyses, euery one accordyng to their seruice and charge: Thus [were] they of that tribe numbred, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

¶ The .v. Chapter.

7 The knowledgyng of sinne. 8 The cleansyng of sinne.
12 The lawe of gelousie.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
Commaunde the children of Israel that they * put out of the hoast euery leper, and euery one that hath an issue, & whosoeuer is defiled by the dead:
Both male and female shal ye put out, euen out of the hoast shall ye put them, that they defile not their (a) tentes, among which I dwell.
And the children of Israel dyd so, and put them out of the hoast: euen as the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, so dyd the children of Israel.
And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
Speake vnto the children of Israel: When a * man or woman shall commit any sinne that men cõmit, and trespasse agaynst the Lorde: when that person shall trespasse,
Then they shall knowledge their sinne which they haue done, and let hym restore againe the hurt that he hath done, with his principall, and put the fift part of it more therto, and geue it vnto hym whom he hath trespassed agaynst.
But and if the man haue no (b) kinsman to restore the hurt vnto, let the trespasse be made good vnto the Lorde, and it shalbe the priestes, beside the Ramme of the attonement, wherby an attonement shalbe made for hym.
And euery heaue offering that is made of the holy thynges of the children of Israel which they bring vnto the priest, shalbe his.
And euery mans halowed thynges shalbe his: Whatsoeuer any man geueth the priest, it shalbe his.
And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them: If any mans wyfe go aside, and trespasse agaynst hym,
So that another man lye with her fleshly, and it be hid from the eyes of her husbande, and is kept close that she is defyled, and there is no witnesse against her, neither she taken with the maner,
And the spirite of gelousie commeth vpon hym, so that he is gelous ouer his wyfe which is defyled: or if the spirite of gelousie come vpon hym, so that he is gelous ouer his wyfe which is yet vndefyled:
Then let the man bring his wyfe vnto the priest, and bring her offeryng with her, the tenth part of an (c) Epha of barly meale: but let hym put no oyle vpon it, nor put frankensence theron, for it is an offeryng of gelousie, an offeryng for a remembraunce, caulyng the sinne to be thought vpon.
And the priest shall bryng her, and set her before the Lorde.
And the priest shall * take holy water in an earthen vessel, and of the dust that is in the floore of the tabernacle, the priest shal take it, and put it into ỹ water.
And let the priest set the woman before the Lorde, and vncouer the womans head, and put the offering of memoriall in her handes, which is the gelousie offeryng: and the priest shall haue bytter and cursed water in his hande.
And the priest shall charge her by an othe, and say vnto the woman: If no man haue lyen with thee, neither hast gone aside to vncleannesse without thy husbande, then haue thou no harme of this bitter and cursed waters.
But and if thou hast gone aside from thyne husbande, and art defiled, and some man hath lyen with thee beside thyne husbande:
Then

(c) Epha conteyneth three bushels. The tenth deale of an Epha conteyneth onlye, so muche as fourtie egge shelles can comprise. An Hin is a measure of thinges liquid conteining as much as xii. logges, eche logge holdeth as much as 6. egshels can holde. But Omer, or Gomer, which is also called Corus in Latine, conteineth the measure of three Ephaes, that is as much as a thousande two hundred and fourescore and ten eggeshelles can conteine.

21 (Then ỹ preest shal charge the woman with an othe of cursing, & the preest shall say vnto the woman) the Lorde make thee accursed and detestable for the othe among the people, When the Lord doth make thy thigh to rot, & thy belly swell.
22 These cursed waters go into the bowels of thee, that they may make thy belly swell, and thy thigh to rotte. And let the woman say, Amen amen.
D 23 And let the preest write these curses in a booke, and shall blot them out with the bitter waters:
24 And geue the woman those bitter and cursed waters to drinke, ỹ those cursed and bitter waters may enter into her.
25 And then the preest shall take the gelousie offeryng out of the womans hande, and waue it before the Lorde, and bryng it vnto the aulter.
26 And the preest shall take an handfull of the offeryng for a memoriall, & burne it vpon the aulter, and then make the woman drynke the waters:
27 And when he hath made the woman drynke the waters, if she be defiled and haue trespassed agaynst her husbande, then shall the cursed and bytter waters go into her, and her belly shal swell, and her thigh shall rotte: and the woman shalbe a curse among her people.
28 And yf the woman be not defiled, but is cleane, she shall haue no harme, but shall conceaue and beare.
29 This is the lawe of gelousie, When a wyfe goeth aside from her husbande, and is defiled:
30 Or when the spirit of gelousie cõmeth vpon a man, and he beyng gelous ouer his wyfe, doth bryng her before ỹ Lord:
And the preest shall do to her accordyng
vnto all this lawe, 31 And the man shalbe guiltelesse, and this woman shall beare her sinne.

¶ The .vi. Chapter.

2 The lawe of the consecration of the Nazarites. 24 The blessyng of the people.

K 1 AND the Lorde spake
2 vnto Moyses, saying:
Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say vnto them: Whẽ either man or woman doth seperate them selues to bowe a bowe of (a) a Nazarite, to seperate them selues vnto the Lorde:
3 He shall seperate him selfe from * wine and strong drynke, and shall drynke no vineger of wine or of strong drinke, nor shall drinke whatsoeuer is pressed out of grapes, and shall eate no freshe grapes, neither yet dried.
4 As long as his abstinence endureth, shall he eate nothyng that is made of the vine tree, or of the cornels, or of the huske of the grape.
5 And as long as he boweth and is seperated, there shall no rasure come vpon his head, vntyll his dayes be out in the which he seperateth hym selfe vnto the Lorde, he shalbe holy, and shall let the lockes of his heere growe.
B 6 As long as he seperateth hym selfe vnto the Lorde, he shall come at no dead body.
7 He shall not make hym selfe vncleane at the death of his father, mother, brother, or sister: because that the consecration of his God is vpon his head, 8 All the dayes of his seperation, he is holy vnto the Lorde.
9 And if any man dye sodenly before him, or he be ware, the head of his consecration shalbe defiled: and he shall shaue Act.xxi.
his head the day of his cleansyng, euen
the seuenth day shall he shaue it.
10 And the eyght day he shall bryng two turtles, or two young pigeons, to the preest, before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.
11 And the preest shall offer the one for a sinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng: and make an attonement for hym as concernyng that he sinned by the dead, and shall halowe his head the same day.
12 And he shall consecrate vnto the Lord the tyme of his seperation, & shall bring a lambe of a yere olde for a trespasse offeryng: but the dayes that were before are lost, because his consecration was defiled.
13 This is the lawe of the Nazarite:
when the tyme of his consecration is out, he shalbe brought vnto the dooze of the tabernacle of the congregation:
14 And he shall bryng his offeryng vnto
the Lorde, an hee lambe of a yere olde without blemishe for a burnt offeryng,
and

(a) The Lorde hath left free this vowe to the discretion & wyll of persons, without limitting any certayne tyme for the observation of it. They who kept this vowe, were as the light of godlinesse and holinesse among other, and holden for the most excellent in honour and vertue: and therof haue they taken ỹ name of Nazarees. For the Hebrue worde Nazir, wherof the worde of Nazarees cõmeth, signifieth seperate.

and a shee lambe of a yere olde without blemishe for a sinne offering, & a ramme without blemishe also for peace offerynges, 15 And a basket of vnleauened bread, euen cakes of fine floure mingled with oyle, and wafers of vnleauened bread annoynted with oyle, with their meate offerynges and drynke offerynges.
16 And the priest shall bryng them before the Lorde, and offer his sinne offeryng and his burnt offeryng.
17 And shall prepare the ramme for a peace offering vnto the Lorde, with the basket of vnleauened bread: and the priest shall make also his meat offeryng and his drynke offeryng.
18 And the Nazarite shal shaue the head of his consecration at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and shal take the heere of the head of his consecration, and put it in the fire which is vnder the peace offeryng.
19 And the priest shall take the sodden shoulder of the ramme, and one vnleauened cake out of the basket, and one vnleauened wafer also, and put them vpon the handes of the Nazarite, after he hath shauen his consecration.
20 And the priest shall waue them before the Lorde: And these holy thynges shalbe the priestes, with the waue brest and the heaue shoulder: and then the Nazarite may drynke wine. D
21 This is the lawe of the Nazarite which hath vowed his offeryng vnto the Lorde for his consecration, besides those thynges that his hande can get: according to the vowe which he vowed, euen so he must do after the lawe of his consecration.
22 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
23 Speake vnto Aaron and his sonnes, saying: On this wyse ye shall blesse the chyldren of Israel, and say vnto them:
24 The Lorde blesse thee, and kepe thee:
25 The Lorde make his face shine vpon thee, and be mercyfull vnto thee:
26 The Lorde lyft vp his countenaunce vpon thee, and geue thee peace.
27 And they shall put my name vpon the chyldren of Israel, and I wyll blesse them.

¶ The .viii. Chapter.

2 The order of the lampes. 4 The fourme of the candlesticke. 6 The cleansyng and offeryng of the Leuites. 24 The age of the Leuites when they be receaued into seruice, or dimissed.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
2 Speake vnto Aaron, and say vnto hym:* when thou settest vp the lampes, the seuen lampes shal geue light towarde ye forefront of the candlesticke.
Exo.xxv.d.
3 And Aaron dyd euen so, and lyghted the lampes thereof towarde the forefront of the candlesticke, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.
4 And this was the worke of the candlesticke, euen of golde beaten out with the hammer, both the shaft and the flowres therof was beaten out with ye hammer: accordyng vnto the paterne which the Lorde had shewed Moyses, euen so he made the candlesticke.
5 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
6 Take the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and cleanse them.
7 And thus shalt thou do vnto them, when thou cleansest them: Sprinckle water of purifiyng vpon them, and let them shaue all their flesh, and let them washe their clothes, and so make themselues cleane.
B 8 Then let them take a young bullocke with his meate offeryng [euen] fine floure mynged with oyle, and another young bullocke shalt thou take for a sinne offeryng.
9 And thou shalt bryng the Leuites before the tabernacle of the congregation, thou shalt gather the whole multitude of the children of Israel together,
10 And bryng the Leuites before the Lorde, and the children of Israel shall put their handes vpon the Leuites.
11 And Aaron shall waue the Leuites before the Lorde for a waue offeryng of the children of Israel, that they may execute the ministration of the seruice of the Lorde.
12 And the Leuites shal put their handes vpon the heades of the bullockes: and thou shalt offer the one for a sinne offeryng, and the other for a burnt offeryng vnto the Lorde, that thou mayest make an attonement for the Leuites.
13 And thou shalt set the Leuites before Aaron and his sonnes, and waue them for a waue offeryng vnto the Lorde.
14 And thus thou shalt seperate the Leuites from among the children of Israel, and the Leuites shalbe myne.
15 After that, shall the Leuites go in, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation: And thou shalt cleanse them, & waue them for a waue offering:
16 For they are geuen and deliuered vnto me from among the children of Israel for such as open euery wombe, euen for the first borne of all the children of Israel haue I taken them vnto me.
17 * For all the first borne of the children of Israel are mine, both man and beast: since the day that I smote euery first borne in the lande of Egypt, I sanctified them for my selfe.
Exod.xiii. Luk.ii.d.
18 And I haue taken the Leuites for all the first borne of the children of Israel.
19 And haue geuen the Leuites as a gift to Aaron and his sonnes from among the children of Israel, to do the seruice of the children of Israel in the tabernacle of the congregation, and to make an attonement for the children of Israel: that there be no plague among the children of Israel, if the children of Israel come nye vnto the sanctuarie.
20 And Moyses, and Aaron, and all the congrecongregation of the children of Israel, dyd with the Leuites: accordyng vnto all that the Lorde cõmaunded Moyses concernyng the Leuites, euen so did the children of Israel vnto them.

21 And the Leuites were purified, and washed their clothes: And Aaron waued them as a waue offeryng before the Lorde, and made an attonement for them, to cleanse them.

22 After that, went the Leuites in, to do their seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation before Aaron and his sonnes: as the Lorde had cõmaunded Moyses concernyng the Leuites, euen so they dyd vnto them.

23 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

24 This is it that belongeth vnto the Leuites: *From twentie and fiue yeres olde and vpwarde, they shall go in to wayte vpon the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation. Nu.xxiii.e.

25 And from the age of fiftie yeres, they shall ceasse waytyng vpon the seruice therof, and shall serue no more:

26 But shall minister with their brethren in the tabernacle of the congregation, to kepe thynges committed to their charge: but shall do no more seruice. Thus therfore shalt thou do vnto the Leuites touchyng their charge,

¶ The. ix. Chapter.

2 The Passouer. 13 Punishment for such as kepeth it not. 15 Of the cloude.

AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses in the wildernesse of Sinai, in the first moneth of the seconde yere, after they *were come out of the lande of Egypt, saying:

2 Let the children of Israel celebrate the Passouer at the tyme appoynted thervnto:

3 Euen ỹ fourteenth day of this moneth at euen: ye shall kepe it in his season accordyng to all the ceremonies of it, and according to all the maners therof, shall ye kepe it.

4 And Moyses spake vnto the children of Israel, that they should celebrate the Passouer.

5 And they kept the Passouer the foureteenth day of the first moneth at euen in the wildernesse of Sinai: according to all that the Lorde cõmaunded Moyses, euen so dyd the children of Israel.

6 And certayne men were defiled by a dead man, that they myght not kepe the Passouer the same day, and they came before Moyses & Aaron the same day.

7 And those men sayde vnto hym, We are defiled by a dead man: Wherfore are we kept backe, that we may not offer an offeryng vnto the Lorde in due season, among the children of Israel?

8 And Moyses sayd vnto them: Stande styll, and I wyll heare what the Lorde wyll commaunde concernyng you.

9 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

10 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and say: If any man be vncleane by the reason of a coarse, or be in a way farre distaunt from you and from your generations, he shall kepe the Passouer vnto the Lorde.

11 The fourteenth day of the seconde moneth at euen let them kepe it: and eate it with vnleauened bread, & sowre hearbes.

12 Let them leaue none of it vnto the morning, *nor breake any bone of it: But accordyng to all the ordinaunce of the Passouer, let them kepe it. Exod.xii.g. Ioh.xix.f.

13 But the man that is cleane, and is not in a iourney, and yet was negligent to kepe the Passouer: the same soule shall be cut of from his people, because he brought not the offeryng of the Lorde in his due season, that man shall beare his sinne.

14 And if a straunger dwell among you, and wyll kepe the Passouer vnto the Lorde: according to the ordinance of the Passouer and maner therof, so shall he do. Ye shall haue one lawe both for the straunger, and for hym that was borne in the same lande.

15 And the same day that the tabernacle was reared vp, a *cloude couered the tabernacle, [namely] the tabernacle of the testimonie: and at euen, there was vpon the tabernacle, as it were the appearaunce of fire, vntyll the morning. Exod xl.c. 3 Reg 8.b.

16 So it was allway: the cloude couered it by day, and the appearaunce of fire by nyght.
17 And when the cloude was taken vp from the tabernacle, then the childzen of Israel iourneyed: and in the place where the cloude abode, there the childzen of Israel pitched their tentes.
18 At the mouth of the Lozde the childzē of Israel iourneyed, and at the mouth of the Lozde they pitched: And as long as the cloude abode vpon the tabernacle, they lay styll:
19 And when the cloude taryed styll vpon the tabernacle long tyme, the childzen of Israel kept the watche of the Lozde, and iourneyed not.
20 And when the cloude abode a fewe dayes vpon the tabernacle, they abode in their tentes, accozdyng to the commaundement of the Lozde: and they iourneyed also at the commaundement of the Lozde.
21 And when the cloude abode vpon the tabernacle from euen vnto the mozning, & was taken vp in the mozning, then they iourneyed: whether it was by day oz by nyght that the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed.
22 Oz if the cloude taryed two dayes, oz a moneth, oz a yere vpon the tabernacle and remayned theron, the childzen of Israel remayned styll and iourneyed not: And assoone as the cloude was taken vp, they iourneyed.
23 At the mouth of the Lozd they rested in the tentes, and at the cōmaundement of the Lozde they iourneyed, kepyng the watche of the Lozde at the commaundement of the Lozd by the hande of Moyses.

¶ The .x. Chapter.

2 The trumpettes of siluer, and their vse. 11 The Israelites depart from Sinai. 14 The captaynes of the hoast are numbzed. 30 Hobab refuseth to go with Moyses.

1 AND the Lozde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
2 Make thee two trumpettes of siluer: of an whole peece shalt thou make them, that thou mayest vse them to call the congregation together, and when the campe shall iourney.
3 And when they shal blowe with them, all the multitude shall resozt to thee before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.
4 And if they blowe but one trumpet, then the pzinces which are heades ouer the thousandes of Israel shall come vnto thee.
5 But if ye blowe an alarme, the hoastes that lye on the east partes shall go fozwarde.
6 And if ye blowe the alarme the second tyme, the hoast that lyeth on the south side shall take their iourney: foz they shall blowe an alarme when they take their iourneyes.
7 But when the congregation is to be gathered together, they shall blowe without an alarme.
8 And the sonnes of Aaron the pziestes shall blowe with their trumpettes, and ye shall haue them as a lawe foz euer in your generations.
9 And if ye go to warre in your lande agaynst your enemies that vexe you, ye shall blowe an alarme with the trumpettes, and ye shalbe remembzed before the Lozde your God, to be saued from your enemies.
10 Also in the day of your gladnesse, and in your feast dayes, & in the begynnyng of your monethes, ye shall blowe the trumpettes ouer your burnt sacrifices and peace offerynges, that they may be a remembzaunce foz you before your God: I am the Lozde your God.
11 And it came to passe the twentith day of the seconde moneth in the seconde yere, that the cloude was taken vp from of the tabernacle of the testimonie.
12 And the childzen of Israel toke their iourney out of the desert of Sinai, and the cloude rested in the wildernesse of Pharan.
13 And they first toke their iourney at the mouth of the Lozde by the hande of Moyses.
14 In the first place went the standerde of the hoast of the childzen of Juda accozdyng to their armies: whose captayne was Nahasson the sonne of Aminadab.
15 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the childzen of Isachar, was Nathanael the sonne of Zuar.
16 And ouer the hoast of the tribe of the childzen chyldren of Nephthali, was Ahira the 28 These are the iourneys of the chyl- F dren of Israel throughout their ar-

29 And Moyses sayde vnto Hobab the sonne of Raguel the Madianite, which was Moyses father in lawe: We go vnto the place of whiche the Lorde sayde,
I wyll geue it you. Come thou therefore with vs, and we wyll do thee good:
for the Lorde hath promised good vnto Israel.
30 And he answered hym: I wyll not go, but wyl depart to mine owne lande, and to my kinred.
31 He said: Oh nay, leaue vs not, for thou knowest our mansions in the wyldernesse, and thou mayest be to vs in steade of eyes.
32 And if thou go with vs, looke what goodnesse the Lorde sheweth vnto vs, the same wyll we shewe vnto thee.
33 And they departed from the mount of the Lorde three dayes iourney, and the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde went before them in ỹ three dayes iour-ney, to search out a resting place for thẽ.
34 And the cloude of the Lorde was vppon them by day, when they went out of the campe.
35 And when ỹ arke went forth, Moy- Psal.lxviii.a ses sayde: *Rise vp Lorde, and let thine enemies be scattered, and let them that hate thee, flee before thee.
36 And when the arke rested, he sayde:
Returne O Lord, vnto the many thou-

¶ The. xj. Chapter.

1 The people murmureth. 4 They desire flesshe. 6 They lothe Manna. 11 The wauering fayth of Moyses. 16 The Lorde deuideth the burthen of Moyses to seuentie of the auncientes, and they prophesie. 31 It raigneth quayles. 33 The flesshe rauenners are punished.

AND When * the people dyd wickedly, it was a displeasure in the eares of the Lorde:
And when the Lorde heard it, his countenaunce was prouoked to wrath, and the fire of the Lord burnt among them, and consumed them that were the vttermost of the hoast.
2 And the people cryed vnto Moyses:
And when Moyses made intercession vnto the Lorde, the fire quenched.
3 And he called the name of the place
Taberah, because the fire of the Lorde burnt among them.
4 And a number of people that was among them fell a lustyng, and turned them selues, and wept (euen as dyd also the chyldren of Israel) and sayd: Who shall geue vs flesshe to eate?
5 We remember the fishe which we did eate in Egypt for naught, & the cucumbers, & melons, leekes, onions & garlick.
6 But now our soule is dryed away: for we can see nothing els, saue Manna.
7 The Manna was as * coriander seede, Exod.xvi.g
and to see to lyke (a) Bedellion.
8 And the people went about and gathered it, & grounde it in milles, or beat it in mortars,

nozters, and baked it in pannes, and made cakes of it: And the taste of it, was lyke vnto the taste of freshe oyle.

9 And when the deawe fell downe vpon the hoast in the nyght, the Manna fell vpon it.

10 And when Moyses heard the people weepe throughout their housholdes, euery man in the dooze of his tent, the wrath of the Lozd was kindeled exceedingly, and it greeued Moyses also.

11 And Moyses sayde vnto the Lozde: Wherefoze hast thou dealt cruelly with thy seruaunt? And wherefoze haue I not founde fauour in thy sight, seyng that thou puttest the wayght of all this people vpon me?

12 Haue I conceaued all this people? Oz haue I begotten them, that thou shouldest say vnto me, Cary them in thy bosome as a nurse beareth the suckyng chylde, vnto the lande which thou swarest vnto their fathers?

13 Where shoulde I haue flesshe to geue vnto all this people, whiche weepe before me, saying: Geue vs flesshe that we may eate.

14 I am not able to beare all this people alone, seyng it is to heauie foz me.

15 If thou deale thus with me, kyll me I pray thee, if I haue founde fauour in thy sight, ꝑ I see not my wretchednesse.

Ezec viii.d. 16 And the Lozde sayde vnto Moyses: * Gather vnto me threscoze and ten men of the elders of Israel, which thou knowest that they are the elders of the people & officers ouer them: and thou shalt bryng them vnto the tabernacle of the congregation, that they may stande there with thee:

17 And I wyll come downe, and talke with thee there, and take of the spirite which is vpon thee, and put vpon them, and they shall beare the burthen of the people with thee, lest thou be constrayned to beare it alone.

Exod xvi.c. 18 And say thou vnto the* people, Be halowed agaynst to mozowe, and ye shall eate flesshe: foz your whyning is in the eares of the Lozde, seyng ye sayd, Who shall geue vs flesshe to eate? We were happy in Egypt: Therefoze the Lozde wyll geue you flesshe, and ye shall eate.

19 Ye shall not eate one day noz two, noz fiue dayes, neither ten, noz twentie dayes:

20 But euen a moneth long, vntill it come out at the nostrels of you, and it shalbe lothsome vnto you, because that ye haue cast the Lozde aside whiche is among you, and haue wept before hym, saying: Why came we thus out of Egypt?

21 And Moyses sayde: * Sixe hundred thousand footemen are there of the people, among which I am: And thou hast sayd, I wyll geue them flesh, that they may eate a moneth long. D Exod. xii.

22 Shall the sheepe & the oxen be slayne foz them, to finde them? either shall all the fishe of the sea be gathered together foz them, to suffise them?

23 And the Lozde sayde vnto Moyses: Shall * the Lordes hande be waxed shoze? Thou shalt see nowe whether my wozd shal come to passe vnto thee oz not. Esai l.a. and.lix.a

24 And Moyses went out, and tolde the people the saying of the Lozde: and gathered the threscoze and ten elders of the people, and set them rounde about the tabernacle.

25 And the Lozd came downe in a cloude, and spake vnto him, and toke of the spirite that was vpon him, and gaue it vnto the threscoze & ten elders: And when the spirite rested vpon them, they prophesied, and dyd not ceasse.

26 But there remayned two of the men in the hoast, the name of the one was Eldad, and the name of the other Medad: And the spirite rested vpon them, (and thei were of them that were writen, and went not out vnto the tabernacle) and they prophesied in the hoast.

27 And there ran a young man, and tolde Moyses, and sayd: Eldad and Medad do prophesie in the hoast.

28 And Iosuah the sonne of Nun the seruaunt of Moyses, one of his young men aunswered, and sayde: My lozde Moyses,* forbyd them. E Luk.ix.g.

29 And Moyses sayd vnto hym: Enuiest thou foz my sake? *Woulde God that all the Lozdes people could prophesie, and that the Lozde woulde put his spirite vpon them. Ioel iii.g. i.Cor.xiii.d

30 And Moyses gate hym into the hoast, he and the elders of Israel.

31 And there went foozth a wynde from the Lozde, and * brought quayles from the sea, & let them fall about the hoast, euen a dayes iourney rounde about on euery side of the hoast, and [they did flee in the ayre] as it were two cubites hye ouer the earth. Exod.xvi.d

32 And the people stoode vp all that day, and all that nyght, and all the next day, and they gathered quayles: And he that gathered litle, gathered ten homers ful: And they spread them abrode for their vse, rounde about the hoast.

33 *And whyle the flesshe was yet betweene their teeth, & yer it was chewed vp, the wrath of the Lorde was kindled against the people, & the Lorde *smote the people with an exceedyng great plague. Psal.78.d.

34 And he called the name of the place, The graues of lust: because the buried the people that lusted there.

35 And the people toke their *iourney from the graues of lust vnto Hazeroth, and abode at Hazeroth. Num.33.c.

¶ The. xij. Chapter.

1 Aaron and Miriam grudge agaynst Moyses. 10 Miriam is stryckē with leprosie, and healed at the prayer of Moyses.

A 1 AND *Miriam and Aaron spake agaynst Moyses, because of the women of Ethiopia whiche he had taken: for he had takē to wife one of Ethiopia. Deut.24.b.

2 And they sayde: Hath the Lorde in deede spoken onlye through Moyses? Hath he not spoken also by vs? And the Lorde hearde it.

3 (But Moyses was a very *meeke man, aboue all the men of the earth.) Ecclesiast.xlv.a.

4 And the Lorde spake at once vnto Moyses, vnto Aaron, and to Miriam: Come out ye three vnto *the tabernacle of the congregation. And they came out all three. Exod.xxxix.g

5 And the Lorde came downe in the *pyller of the cloude, and stoode in the doore of the tabernacle, and called Aaron and Miriam. And they went out both of them. Deut.xxxi.b Exod.xxxix.g

6 And he sayde, Heare my wordes: If there be a prophete of the Lordes among you, I will be knowen of him in a vision, and will speake vnto hym in a dreame.

7 My seruaunt Moyses is not so, which is faythfull in all myne house.

8 Unto hym will I speake *mouth to mouth in a vision, not in darke speaches and similitudes of the Lord shall he see: wherfore then were ye not afrayde to speake against my seruaunt Moyses? Exod.33.b.

9 And the Lord was moued vnto wrath agaynst them, and he went his way.

10 And the cloude departed from the tabernacle, and beholde Miriam was become leprous, as it were snowe: And Aaron looked vpon Miriam, and beholde, she was leprous. ii.Par.26.d.

11 And Aaron saide vnto Moyses: Alas my Lorde, I beseche thee put not the sinne vpon vs whiche we haue foolishlye committed and sinned.

12 Oh, let her not be as one dead, of whō the flesshe is halfe consumed when he commeth out of his mothers whom.

13 And Moyses cryed vnto the Lorde, saying: Heale her nowe, O God, I beseche thee.

14 And ỹ Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: If her father had (a) spit in her face, should she not be ashamed seuē dayes? Let her be shut out of the hoast seuen dayes, and after that, let her be receaued in againe.

15 And Miriam was shut out of the hoast seuen dayes: and the people remoued not, tyll she was brought in agayne.

16 *And afterwarde the people remoued from Hazeroth, and pitched in the wylderneſſe of Pharan. Nu.xxiii.d.

(a) If her father vpon displeasure should spit in her face, she may not presume to come into his presence by the space of seuē dayes: howe muche more shall she not presume to come vnto me.

¶ The. xiij. Chapter.

1 Certayne men are sent to searche the lande of Chanaan. 24 They bryng of the fruite of the lande. 31 Caleb comforteth the people, against the discouraging of the other spies.

A 1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses saying:

2 *Sende men out to searche the lande of Chanaan, whiche I geue vnto the chyldren of Israel: of euery tribe of their fathers shall ye sende a man, and let them all be suche as are rulers among them.

3 And Moyses at the commaundement of the Lorde, sent foorth out of the wylderneſſe of Pharan, suche men as were all heades of the chyldren of Israel.

4 [Their names are these. Of the tribe of Ruben, Sammua the sonne of Zacur.
5 Of the tribe of Simeon, Saphat the sonne of Hori.
6 Of the tribe of Juda, Caleb the sonne of Jephune.
7 Of the tribe of Issachar, Igal the sonne of Joseph.
8 Of the tribe of Ephraim, Osea the sonne of Nun.
9 Of the tribe of Beniamin, Palti the sonne of Raphu.
10 Of the tribe of Zabulon, Gaddiel the sonne of Sodi.
11 Of the tribe of Joseph, namely of the tribe of Manasse, Gaddi the sonne of Susi.
12 Of the tribe of Dan, Amiel the sonne of Gemalli.
13 Of the tribe of Aser, Sethur the sonne of Michael.
14 Of the tribe of Nephthali, Nahabi the sonne of Vaphsi.
15 Of the tribe of Gad, Guel the sonne of Machi.]

16 These are the names of the men which Moyses sent to spie out the land: And Moyses called the name of Osea the sonne of Nun, Josuah.
17 And Moyses sent them foorth to spie out the lande of Chanaan, and said vnto them: Get you vp this way southward, that ye may go vp into the hie countrey, 18 And see the lande what maner thing it is, and the people that dwelleth therin, whether they be strong or weake, either fewe or many:
19 And what the land is that they dwell in, whether it be good or bad, and what maner of cities they be that they dwell in, whether they dwell in tentes or walled townes:
20 And what maner of lande that is, whether it be fat or leane, and whether there be trees therin or not. Be of good courage, and bryng of the fruite of the lande: And it was about the tyme that grapes are first rype.

21 And so they went vp, and searched out the lande from the wildernesse of Zin, vnto Rehob, as men come to Hemath.
22 And they ascended vnto the south, and come vnto Hebron, where Ahiman was and Sesai, and Thalmai, the sonnes of Anac. Hebron was buylt seuen yeres before Zoan in Egypt.
23 And they came vnto the ryuer of Escol, and cut downe there a braunch with one clouster of grapes, and twayne bare it vpon a staffe: and [they brought] also of the pomgranates, and of the figges.
24 And the place was called the riuer Escol, because of ỹ clouster of grapes whiche the children of Israel cut downe thence.
25 And they turned backe agayne from searching of ỹ lande after fourtie dayes.
26 And they went, and came to Moyses and Aaron, and vnto all the multitude of the children of Israel in the wyldernesse Pharan to Cades, and brought them them worde, and also vnto all the congregation, and shewed them the fruite of the lande.

27 And they tolde hym, and sayde: We came vnto the lande whyther thou sendedst vs, & surely it floweth with milke and hony, and here is of the fruite of it.

28 Neuertheles, the people be strong that dwell in the lande, and the cities are walled and exceedyng great: and moreouer, we sawe the chyldren of Anac there.

29 The Amalechites dwell in the south countrey: and the Hethites, and the Jebusites, and the Amorites dwell in the mountaynes: & the Chanaanites dwell by the sea, and by the coast of Jordane.

30 And Caleb stylled the people before Moyses, saying: Let vs go vp at once, and possesse it, for we be able to ouercome it.

31 But the men that went vp with him, sayde: We be not able to go vp agaynst the people, for they are stronger then we.

32 And they brought vp an euyll report of the lande whiche they had searched, saying vnto the children of Israel: The lande whiche we haue gone through to searche it out, is a lande that eateth vp the inhabitours therof, and the people that we sawe in it, are men of a great stature.

33 And there we sawe also giauntes the chyldren of Anac [whiche come] of the giauntes: And we seemed in our sight as it were grashoppers, and so we dyd in their sight.

¶ The .xiiij. Chapter.

2 The people murmure agaynst God. 10 And woulde haue stoned Caleb and Josuah.
37 The searchers of the lande dye. 45 Amalech kylleth the Israelites.

1 AND all the multitude of the people cried out, and wept throughout that nyght.

2 And all the chyldren of Israel murmured agaynst Moyses and Aaron, and the whole congregation sayde vnto them: Wouldе God that we had dyed in the lande of Egypt, either that we had dyed in this wyldernesse.

3 Wherfore hath the Lorde brought vs vnto this lande to fall vpon the sworde, and that our wyues and our chyldren should be a pray: Were it not better that we returne vnto Egypt agayne:

4 And they sayd one to another: Let vs make a captayne, and returne vnto Egypt agayne.

5 Then Moyses & Aaron fell (a) on their faces before all the assemblie of the congregation of the chyldren of Israel.

6 And Josuah the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Jephune [whiche were] of them that searched the lande, rent their clothes:

7 And spake vnto al the companie of the chyldren of Israel, saying: The lande whiche we walked through to searche it, is a very good lande.

8 If the Lord haue a loue to vs, he will bryng vs into this lande and geue it vs, whiche is such a lande as floweth with mylke and hony.

9 But in any wyse rebell not ye agaynst the Lorde,* neither feare the people of the lande, for they are but (b) bread for vs: Their shielde is departed from them, and the Lorde is with vs, feare them not therfore. * Deut.xx.a. (b) We shall easyly ouercome them.

10 But all the congregation bade stone them with stones: And the glory of the Lorde appeared in the tabernacle of the congregation before all the chyldren of Israel.

11 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Howe long do this people prouoke me, and how long wyll it be yer they beleue me, for all the signes which I haue shewed among them:

12 I will smyte them with the pestilence and destroy them, and wyll make of thee a greater nation and mightier then they.

13 And Moyses sayde vnto the Lorde: Then the Egyptians shall heare it, (for thou broughtest this people in thy might from among them.)

14 And it wylbe tolde to the inhabiters of this lande also: for they haue hearde lykewyse, that thou Lorde art among this people, and that thou Lorde art seene seene face to face, and that thy cloude Exo.xiii.c. standeth ouer them, & that * thou goest before them by day tyme in a pyller of a cloude, and in a pyller of fire by nyght.

15 If thou shalt kyll all this people as they were but one man: then the nations whiche haue heard the fame of thee, wyll say:
16 Because the Lord is not able to bryng in this people into the lande whiche he sware vnto them, therefore he hath slaine them in the wylderneſſe.
17 And nowe I beseche thee, let the power of my Lord be great, accordyng as thou hast spoken, saying:
18 The Lorde is long yer he be angrie, and of great mercy, and suffreth iniquitie and sinne, and leaueth no man innocent, and visiteth the vnrighteousneſſe of the fathers vpon the chyldren, in the thirde and fourth generations.
19 Be mercyfull I beseche thee vnto the sinne of this people accordyng vnto thy great mercy, as thou hast forgeuen this people from Egypt, euen vntyll nowe.
20 And the Lorde sayde: I haue forgeuen it, according to thy request.
D 21 But as truely as I liue, all the earth
shalbe filled with the glory of the Lord.
22 But all those men whiche haue seene my glory, and my miracles whiche I did in Egypt and in the wilderneſſe, and haue tempted me nowe this ten tymes, and haue not hearkened vnto my voyce:
23 Shall not see the lande whiche I sware vnto their fathers, neither shall any of them that prouoked me see it.
Iosue.xxiii.b 24 But my seruaunt * Caleb, because he had another maner of spirite, (and because he hath followed me vnto the vt-most) hym wyll I bryng into the lande which he hath walked in, and his seede shall inherite it.
25 And also the Amalechites and Cha-naanites, remayne in the valley: To morowe turne you, and get you into the wylderneſſe, euen by the way of the red sea.
26 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, saying:
27 Howe long doth this euyll multitude murmure agaynst me? I haue heard the murmuringes of the chyldren of Israel with the whiche they murmure agaynst me.
28 Tell them therefore: As truely as I liue sayeth the Lorde, I wyll do vnto you euen as ye haue spoken in myne eares:
29 Your carkasses shall fall in the wylderneſſe: And all you that were tolde E throughout your numbers from twen-tie yeres and aboue, whiche haue murmured against me,
30 Shall not come into the lande ouer which I lifted vp myne hand to make you dwell therin, saue Caleb the sonne of Jephune, and Josuah the sonne of Nun.
31 But your chyldren whiche ye sayde shoulde be a pray, them I wyll bryng in, and they shall knowe the lande whiche ye haue refused.
32 And your carkasses shall fall in this wylderneſſe.
33 And your chyldren shall wander in the wilderneſſe fourtie yeres, and suffer for your whordome, vntyll your car-kasses be wasted in the wylderneſſe.

whiche ye searched out the lande, euen

35 I the Lorde haue sayde, that I wyll do it vnto all this euyll congregation that are gathered together against me:
For in this wilderneſſe they shalbe consumed, and there they shall dye.
36 And the men whiche Moyses sent to F searche the lande, and whiche (when they came agayne) made all the people to murmure against hym, and brought vp a sclaunder vpon the lande:

the Lorde.
38 But Josuah the sonne of Nun, and Caleb the sonne of Jephune, whiche were of the men that went to searche the lande, liued styll.
39 And Moyses tolde these sayinges vnto all the chyldren of Israel, and the people toke great sorowe.
40 And they rose vp early in the morning, and gate them vp into the toppe of the mountayne, saying: * Lo, We be here, Deut.i.f. and wyll go vp vnto the place of which the Lorde sayde: ○ For we haue sinned.
41 And Moyses sayde: Wherefore transgresse ye thus the worde of the Lorde?
it wyll not come well to passe.

○ They confesse their sinne by resisting against God, but consider not that offende in flying vp into Gods commaundement.

42 Go

42 Go not vp therefore, for the Lorde is not among you: that ye be not ſlayne before your enemies.
43 For the Amalechites and the Chananites (a) are there before you, & ye wyll fall vpon the ſworde, becauſe ye are turned away from the Lorde, & the Lorde wyll not be with you.
44 But they preſumed obſtinatly to go vp into the hyll top: Neuerthelater, the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde and Moyſes, departed not out of the hoaſt.
45 Then the Amalechites and the Chanaanites which dwelt in that hill, came downe, and ſmote them, and conſumed them euen anto Horma.

¶ The. xv. Chapter.

2 The drinke offeringes of them that enter into the lande. 30 The punishment of hym that ſinneth of arroganie or pride. 32 Of hym that gathered ſticks on the Sabbath day.

1 AND the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying:
2 Speake vnto the children of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them: *when ye be come into the lande of your habitations, whiche I geue vnto you:
3 And will make an offering by fire vnto the Lorde, namely a burnt offering, or a ſacrifice to fulfill a vowe, or a free offering, or in your principall feaſtes, to make a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde, of the heard, or of the flocke:
4 Then *let hym that offereth his offering vnto the Lord, bryng alſo a meate offering of a tenth deale of floure, mingled with the fourth part of an hin of oyle.
5 And the fourth part of an hin of wine for a drinke offering ſhalt thou prepare with the burnt offering, or any other offering, for one lambe.
6 Or if it be a ramme, thou ſhalt prepare for a meate offering two tenth deales of floure, mingled with the thirde part of an hin of oyle.
7 And for a drinke offering, thou ſhalt offer the thirde part of an hin of wine, for a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.
8 And when thou prepareſt a bullocke for a burnt offering, or for a ſacrifice to fulfill a vowe or peace offering vnto the Lorde:
9 Let him bring with a bullocke a meate offering of three tenth deales of floure, mingled with halfe an hin of oyle.
10 And thou ſhalt bryng for a drinke offering, euen halfe an hin of wine, for an offering made by fire of a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.
11 After this maner ſhall it be done for a bullocke, or for a ramme, or for a lambe, or a kid, 12 Accordyng to the number that ye ſhall prepare, ſo ſhall ye do to euery one, accordyng to their number.
13 All that are borne of the countrey, ſhal do theſe thynges after this maner, to offer an offering made by fire of a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde.
14 And if a ſtraunger ſoiourne with you, or whoſoeuer be among you in your generations, and wyll offer an offering made by fire of a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lorde: euen as ye do, ſo he ſhall do.
15 One ordinaunce ſhalbe both for you of the cõgregation, and alſo for the ſtraunger that dwelleth [with you:] It ſhalbe an ordinaunce for euer in your generations: as ye are, ſo ſhall the ſtraunger be before the Lorde.
16 One lawe and one maner ſhall ſerue, both for you, and for the ſtraunger that ſoiourneth with you.
17 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying:
18 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and ſay vnto them: *when ye be come into the land to the which I bring you, (Deut.viii.e.)
19 Then when ye wyll eate of the bread of the lande, ye ſhall offer vp an heaue offering vnto the Lorde.
20 Ye ſhall offer vp a cake of the firſt of your dowe for an heaue offering: *as ye do the heaue offering of the barne, euen ſo ye ſhall heaue it. (Leu.xxiii.b)
21 Of the firſt of your dowe ye ſhall geue vnto the Lorde an heaue offering in your generations.
22 And if ye haue erred, and obſerue not all theſe commaundementes which the Lorde hath ſpoken vnto Moyſes, 23 Euen all that the Lorde hath commaunded maunded you by the hande of Moyſes, from the [firſt day that the Lorde commaunded Moyſes, and hence forwarde among your generations.

24 If ought be committed ignorauntly of the congregation, al the multitude ſhall offer a bullocke for a burnt offering, to be a ſweete ſauour vnto the Lord, with the meate offering and drinke offering therto accordyng to the maner, and an hee goate for a ſinne offering.

25 And the prieſt ſhall make an attonement for all the multitude of the chyldren of Iſrael, and it ſhalbe forgeuen them, for it is ignoraunce: And they ſhal bryng their offering, a ſacrifice made by fire vnto the Lord, & their ſinne offering before the Lorde for their ignoraunce.

26 And it ſhalbe forgeuen vnto all the congregation of the chyldren of Iſrael, and vnto the ſtraunger that dwelleth among you, ſeyng all the people were in ignoraunce.

27 * If any one ſoule ſinne through ignoraunce, he ſhall bryng a shee goate of a yere olde for a ſinne offering. Leuit.iiii.c

28 And the prieſt ſhall make an attonement for the ſoule that ſinneth ignorauntly, when he ſinneth by ignoraunce before the Lorde to reconcile hym, and that it may be forgeuen hym. E

29 And both thou that art borne of the chyldren of Iſrael, and the ſtrannger that dwelleth among you, ſhall haue one lawe Who ſo doth ſinne thorowe ignoraunce.

30 But the ſoule that doth ought (a) preſumptuouſly, whether he be borne in the lande or a ſtraunger, the ſame blaſphemeth the Lorde: and that ſoule ſhalbe cut of from among his people. (a) The Hebrewe, by an hygh hande, that is, bold, arrogantly, and contemptuouſly.

31 Becauſe he hath deſpiſed the worde of the Lorde, and hath broken his commaundement, that ſoule therefore ſhalbe vtterly cut of, and his (b) ſinne ſhalbe vppon hym. (b) That is, he ſhall ſuffer for his vngodlie.

32 And whyle the chyldrē of Iſrael were in the wylderneſſe, they founde a man that gathered ſtickes vpon the * Sabbath day. Exo.xxi.c.

33 And they that founde hym gathering ſtickes, brought hym vnto Moyſes and Aaron, and vnto all the congregation.

34 * And they put hym in warde, ſeyng it was not declared (c) what ſhoulde be done to hym. Leui 24.d. (c) Seeing it was not decreed what death he ſhould dye.

35 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moyſes: Let the man dye, & let all the multitude ſtone him with ſtones without ẏ hoaſt. F

36 And all the multitude brought hym without the hoaſt, and ſtoned hym with ſtones, and he dyed, as the Lorde commaunded Moyſes.

37 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying: Deut.xxi.

38 Speake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, and byd them, that they * make them fringes in the borders of their garmentes throughout their generations, and put vpon the fringe of the borders a ribande a ribande of blewe silke.

39 And the fringe shalbe vnto you to loke vpon, that ye may remember all the cõmaundementes of the Lorde, and do them: and that ye seeke not after your owne heart, or your owne eyes, after the which ye vse to go a whoryng.
40 But ye shall remember rather, and do all my commaundementes, and be holy vnto your God.
41 I am the Lorde your God, which brought you out of the lande of Egypt, for to be your God: I am the Lorde your God.

The.xvj. Chapter.

The rebellion of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram. 31 They perishe with their companie.

A I ND* Corah the sonne of Isaar, the sonne of Caath, the sonne of Leui, went a part with Dathan and Abiram, the sonnes of Eliab, & On the sonne of Peleth, the sonne of Ruben:
2 And they rose vp before Moyses, with certayne of the children of Israel, two hundred & fiftie, which were captaynes of the multitude, famous in the congregation, and men of renoune.
3 And they gathered them selues together agaynst Moyses and Aaron, and sayde vnto them: Ye take much vpon you, seyng all the multitude are holy euery one of them, and the Lorde is among them: why lyft you your selues vp aboue the congregation of the Lorde?
4 And when Moyses hearde it, he fell vpon his face,
5 And spake vnto Corah and vnto all his company, saying: To morowe the Lord wyll shewe who are his, who is holy, and who ought to approche nye vnto hym: and whom he hath chosen, he will cause to come neare vnto hym.
6 This do therfore: Take you firepannes, both Corah & all his companie, 7 And do fire therin, and put incense in them before the Lorde to morowe: And the man whom the Lorde doth chose, the same shalbe holy: Ye take much vpon you ye sonnes of Leui.
8 And Moyses sayd vnto Corah: *Heare I pray you, ye sonnes of Leui, 9 Seemeth it but a small thyng vnto you, that the God of Israel hath seperated you from the multitude of Israel, and brought you to hym selfe, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the Lorde, and to stande before the multitude, and to minister vnto them?
10 He hath taken thee to hym, and all thy brethren the sonnes of Leui with thee: and seeke ye the office of the priest also?
11 For which cause both thou and all thy companie are gathered together against the Lorde: And what is Aaron, that ye murmure agaynst hym?
12 And Moyses sent, and called Dathan and Abiram the sonnes of Eliab: Which sayde, We wyll not come vp.
13 Is it a small thyng, that thou hast brought vs out of the land that floweth with mylke and honie, to kyll vs in the wildernesse: except thou make thy selfe lorde and ruler ouer vs also?
14 Moreouer, thou hast not brought vs vnto a lande that floweth with mylke & honie, neither geuen vs inheritaunce of fieldes and vineyardes: wylt thou put out the eyes of these men? We wyll not come vp. C
15 And Moyses wared very angry, and sayde vnto the Lorde, Turne not thou vnto their offeryng: I haue not taken so much as an asse from them, neither haue I hurt any of them.
16 And Moyses sayde vnto Corah: Be thou & al thy company before the Lord, both thou, they, and Aaron, to morowe.
17 And take euery man his censer, and put incense in them, and bryng ye before the Lorde euery man his censer, euen two hundreth and fiftie censers: thou also and Aaron, euery one his censer.
18 And they toke euery man his censer, and put fire in them, and layde incense theron, and stoode in the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation with Moyses and Aaron.
19 And Corah gathered all the congregation agaynst them, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation: And the glorie of the Lorde appeared vnto all the congregation.

20 And

20 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron, saying:

21 Seperate your selues from among this congregation, that I may consume them at once.

22 And they fell vpon their faces, and sayde: *O God, the God of spirites of all fleshe, hath not one man sinned: Wilt thou be wroth with all the multitude?

Num.xvii.a

23 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

24 Speake vnto the congregation, and say: Get you away from about the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, & Abiram.

25 And Moyses rose vp, and went vnto Dathan and Abiram: and the elders of Israel folowed hym.

D 26 And he spake vnto the congregation, saying: Depart I pray you from the tentes of these wicked men, and touche nothyng of theirs, lest ye perishe in all their sinnes.

27 And so they gate them from the tabernacle of Corah, Dathan, and Abiram, on euery syde: And Dathan & Abiram came out, & stoode in the dooze of their tentes, with their wiues, their sonnes, and their litle childzen.

28 And Moyses sayde: Hereby ye shall knowe that the Lorde hath sent me to do all these wozkes, foz I haue not done them of myne owne mynde.

29 If these men dye the common death of all men, oz if they be visited after the visitation of all men, then the Lorde hath not sent me:

a) That is yf the Lorde do a thyng not seene before.

30 But and if the Lorde make a (a) newe thyng, and the earth open her mouth, and swallowe them vp with all that they haue, and they go downe quicke into the pit: then ye shall vnderstande that these men haue prouoked ỹ Lorde.

E 31 And assoone as he had made an ende of speaking al these wordes, *the ground cloue asunder that was vnder them:

Deut xi.a. Num.26 b. Psal.xxv.c.

32 And the earth opened her mouth, and swalowed them vp, and their houses, and all the men that were with Corah, and all their goodes.

33 And they and all that they had went downe alyue vnto the pit, and the earth closed vpon them: and they perished from among the congregation.

34 And all Israel that were about them, fled at the crye of them: And they sayde, lest the earth swalowe vs vp also.

35 And there came out a fire from the Lorde, and consumed the two hundzed and fiftie men that offered incense.

36 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

37 Speake vnto Eleazar the sonne of Aaron the priest, that he take vp the censers out of the burnyng, and scatter the fire here and there, foz they are halowed, 38 The censers of these sinners (b) agaynst their owne soules: let them make of them brode plates foz a coueryng of the aulter: Foz they offered them before the Lorde, and therfoze they are halowed, and they shalbe a signe vnto the childzen of Israel.

(b) That here destroyed the selues by their owne synne beyng the causers of their owne deathes.

39 And Eleazar the priest toke the brasen censers, which they that were burnt had offered, and made brode plates foz a (c) coueryng of the aulter, F

(c) To be a remembraunce vnto the childzen of Israel, of Gods mightie hand agaynst rebellion.

40 To be a remembraunce vnto the childzen of Israel, that no straunger which is not of the seede of Aaron, come neare to offer incense before the Lorde, that he be not lyke vnto Corah and his companie, as the Lorde sayde to hym by the hande of Moyses.

41 But on the mozowe, all the multitude of the childzen of Israel murmured agaynst Moyses and Aaron, saying: Ye haue kylled the people of the Lorde.

42 And whē the multitude was gathered agaynst Moyses and Aaron, they loked towarde the tabernacle of the congregation: And beholde, the cloude couered it, and the glozie of the Lorde appeared.

43 And Moyses and Aaron came before the tabernacle of the congregation.

44 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

45 Get you from among this congregation, that I may consume thē quickly. And they fell vpon their faces.

46 And Moyses sayd vnto Aaron: Take a censer, and put fire therin out of the aulter, and powze on incense, and go quickly vnto the congregation, & make an attonement foz them: Foz there is wrath gone out from the Lorde, and there is a plague begunne. G

47 And Aaron toke as Moyses cōmaunded hym, and ranne into the middes of ỹ congregation: and beholde, the plague was begunne among the people, and he put on incense, and made an atonement foz the people.

48 And whē he stoode betweene the dead and and them that were alyue, the plague was stayed.

49 They that dyed in the plague, were fourteene thousand and seuen hundred, beside them that dyed about the conspiracie of Corah.

50 And Aaron went againe vnto Moyses before the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and the plague was stayed.

The.xvij. Chapter.

9 Aarons rodde budded and beareth blossomes, wherby his priesthod is confirmed.

A 1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

2 Speake vnto the children of Israel, and take of euery one of them a rodde, after the houses of their fathers, of all their princes accordyng to the familie of their fathers, euen twelue roddes: and write euery mans name vpon his rodde.

3 And write Aarons name vpon the rodde of Leui: for euery rodde shalbe for ỹ head of the house of their fathers.

4 And put them in the tabernacle of the congregation, before [the arke] of the testimonie, where I wyll declare my selfe vnto you.

5 And the mans rodde whom I chose, shall blossome: And I wyll make ceasse from me the grudgynges of the children of Israel, wherby they grudge agaynst you.

6 And Moyses spake vnto the children of Israel, and all the princes gaue hym a rodde, one rodde for euery prince, accordyng to their fathers houses, euen twelue roddes: and the rodde of Aaron was among their roddes.

7 And Moyses put the roddes before the Lorde in the tabernacle of witnesse. B

8 And on the morowe, Moyses went into the tabernacle of witnesse: and beholde, * the rodde of Aaron for the house of Leui was budded, and brought forth buddes, bare blossomes, and rype almondes. Hebr.ix.a

9 And Moyses brought out all ỹ roddes from before the Lorde, vnto all the children of Israel: and they loked vpon them, and toke euery man his rodde.

10 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Bryng Aarons rodde agayne before the witnesse, to be kept for a token to the rebellious children, and that their murmuryng may ceasse from me, and that they dye not.

11 And Moyses dyd as the Lorde commaunded hym, euen so dyd he.

12 And the children of Israel spake vnto Moyses, saying: Beholde, we are wasted away and perished, we all come to naught.

13 Whosoeuer cõmeth nye, or approcheth to the tabernacle of the Lord, shall dye: Shall we vtterly consume away, and dye?

¶ The. xviij. Chapter.

1 The office of the Leuites. 8 The tithes and first fruites must be geuen them. 20 Aarons heritage.

A 1 AND the Lorde sayde vnto Aaron: Thou & thy sonnes, and thy fathers house with thee, shal beare the iniquitie of the sanctuarie: And thou and thy sonnes with thee, shall beare the iniquitie of your priestes office.

2 *And thy brethren of the tribe of Leui, & of thy fathers household thou shalt bryng with thee, that they may be ioyned vnto thee, and minister vnto thee: but thou and thy sonnes with thee [shal minister] before the tabernacle of witnesse.

3 They shall kepe thy charge, euen the charge of all the tabernacle: only let them not come nye the vessels of the sanctuarie and the aulter, that they and ye also dye not.

4 And they shalbe ioyned with thee, and kepe the charge of the tabernacle of the congregation for all the seruice of the tabernacle:

tabernacle: and let no straunger come nye vnto you.
5 Therfore shall ye kepe the charge of the sanctuarie, and the charge of the aulter, that there fall no more wrath vpon the children of Israel:
6 Beholde, I haue taken your brethren the Leuites from among the children of Israel, which as a gyft of yours are geuen vnto the Lorde, to do the seruice of the tabernacle of the congregation.
7 Therfore shalt thou & thy sonnes with thee kepe your priestes office for all thynges that pertayne vnto the aulter and within the vayle: And ye shal serue, for I haue geuē your priestes office vnto you as a gift, and therfore ẏ straunger that commeth nye, must be slayne.
8 And the Lorde spake vnto Aaron: Beholde, I haue geuen thee the keping of myne heaue offerynges, of all the halowed thynges of the children of Israel [euen] vnto thee I haue geuen thē for the annoyntyng, and to thy sonnes for an ordinaunce for euer.
9 This shalbe thyne of the most holy thynges [reserued] from the fire [of the aulter.] All their sacrifices for all their meate offerynges, sinne offerynges, or trespasse offerynges, which they bryng vnto me, that shalbe most holy vnto thee, and to thy sonnes.
10 In the most holy place shalt thou eate it, and all that are males shall eate of it, let it be holy vnto thee.
Leuit.vi.d. 11 And this also is thyne: *the heaue offerynges of their gyftes, throughout all the waue offerynges of the children of Israel: I haue geuen them vnto thee, & thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee, to be a dutie for euer: and all that are cleane in thy house, shall eate of it.
(a) That is, the chiefe & the best. 12 All the (a) fat of the oyle, & al the fat of the wine, & of the wheate, which they shall offer vnto the Lorde for first fruites, the same haue I geuen vnto thee.
13 And whatsoeuer is first rype in their lande which they bryng vnto the Lord, shalbe thyne, and all that are cleane in thyne house, shall eate of it.
C 14 All thinges seperate from the common vse in Israel, shalbe thyne.
15 All that breaketh the matrice in all fleshe that men bryng vnto the Lorde, whether it be of men or beastes, shalbe thyne: Neuerthelater, the first borne of man shalt thou redeeme, & the first borne of vncleane beastes shalt thou redeeme.
16 Those that are to be redeemed, shalt thou redeeme from ẏ age of a moneth, accordyng to thyne estimation, for the money of fiue sicles, after the sicle of the sanctuarie, which is twentie gerahs.
17 But the first borne of a cowe, sheepe, & goate, shalt thou not redeeme, for they are holy: therfore thou shalt sprinckle their blood vpon the aulter, and shalt burne their fat as a sacrifice made by fire, for a sweete sauour vnto the Lord.
Leuit.vii.d 18 And the flesh of them is thyne, * as the waue brest and the right shoulder: these are thyne.
19 All the heaue offerynges of holy thynges which the children of Israel offer vnto the Lord, haue I geuen thee & thy sonnes and thy daughters with thee, to be a duetie for euer: let it be a (b) salted couenaūt for euer before ẏ Lord, both vnto thee, & to thy seede with thee.
(b) That is, sure, stable, & incorruptible.
Deut.18.a. Eccle.41.g. 20 And ẏ Lord spake vnto Aaron: *Thou shalt haue no inheritaūce in their lande, neither shalt thou haue any part amōg them: I am thy part & thy inheritaunce among the children of Israel.
21 Beholde, I haue geuen the children of Leui all the tenth in Israel to inherite, for the seruice which they serue in the tabernacle of the congregation.
22 Neither must the children of Israel hencefoorth come nie ẏ tabernacle of the congregation, lest they beare sinne, & die.
23 But the Leuites shal do ẏ seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation, & beare their sinne: It shalbe a lawe for euer in your generations, that among ẏ childrē of Israel they possesse no inheritaunce.
24 But the tithes of the childrē of Israel which they pay as an heaue offeryng vnto the Lord, I haue geuen ẏ Leuites to inherite: and therfore I haue sayde vnto them, Among the children of Israel ye shall possesse no inheritaunce.
25 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
D 26 Speake vnto the Leuites, and say vnto them: When ye take of the children of Israel the tithes which I haue geuen you of thē for your inheritaunce, ye shal take an heaue offering of ẏ same for the Lorde, euen the tenth part of that tithe.
27 And this your heaue offeryng shalbe reckened vnto you, euen as though it were of the corne of the barne, or as the fulnesse of the wine presse.

28 Of this maner ye shall therfore offer an heaue offeryng vnto the Lorde, of all your tithes which ye receaue of the children of Israel, and ye shall geue therof the Lordes heaue offeryng to Aaron the priest.
29 Of all your giftes ye shall offer all the Lordes heaue offeryng, euen all the fat of the same, [to wit] the holy thynges therof.
30 Therfore thou shalt say vnto them: when ye haue taken away the fat of it from it, it shalbe counted vnto the Leuites, as if it were ỹ increase of the corne floore, or the increase of the winepresse.
31 And ye shall eate it in all places, both ye and your householdes, for it is your rewarde for your seruice in the tabernacle of the congregation.
32 And ye shall beare no sinne by the reason of it, when ye haue offered from it the fat of it: neither shall ye pollute the holy thynges of the children of Israel, lest ye dye.

¶ The .xix. Chapter.

2 Of the redde Cowe. 14 The lawe of hym that dyeth in a tent, 16 and of hym also that toucheth any vncleane thyng.

1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses & Aaron, saying:
2 This is the ordinaunce of the lawe which the Lord hath commaunded, saying: Speake vnto the children of Israel that they bring thee a redde cowe without spot, and wherin is no blemishe, and vpon which neuer came yoke.
3 And ye shall geue her vnto Eleazar the priest, that he may bryng* her without the hoast, and cause her to be slayne before his face:
4 And let Eleazar the priest take of her blood with his finger, and sprinckle it directly before the tabernacle of the congregation seuen tymes.
5 And cause the cowe to be burnt in his sight, with* her skinne, flesh, & blood: and the doung of her shal he burne also.
6 And let the priest take Cedar wood, and hysope, and scarlet [lase] and cast it in the middes of the burnyng of the cowe.
7 Then let the priest washe his clothes, and he shall bathe his flesh in water, and then come into the hoast, and the priest shalbe vncleane vntyll the euen.
8 And he that burneth her shall washe his clothes in water, & bathe his flesh in water, and be vncleane vntyll euen.
9 And a man that is cleane, shall gather vp the asshes of the cowe, and lay them without the hoast in a cleane place, and it shalbe kept for the multitude of the children of Israel * for a water of seperation: It is a sinne offeryng.
10 Therfore he that gathereth the asshes of the cowe, shall washe his clothes, and remayne vncleane vntill euen: And it shalbe vnto the children of Israel, and vnto the straũger that dwelleth among them, a statute for euer.
11 *He that toucheth the dead body of any man, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes. Num.xxi.c. Eccle.24.d. Agge.ii.c.
12 And he shall purifie hym selfe with this water the thirde day, & the seuenth day he shalbe cleane: But if he purifie not hym selfe the thirde day, then the seuenth day he shall not be cleane.
13 Whosoeuer toucheth the dead coarse of any man that is dead, & purgeth not hym selfe, defileth the tabernacle of the Lorde, and that soule shalbe cut of from Israel, because the water of seperation was not sprinckled vpon hym: he shalbe therfore vncleane, his vncleanesse is yet vpon hym.
14 This is the lawe of a man that dyeth in a tent: All that come into the tent, and all that is in the tent, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.
15 And all the vessels that be open, which haue no coueryng bounde vpon them, shalbe vncleane.
16 And whosoeuer toucheth one that is slayne with a sworde in the fieldes, or a dead person, or a bone of a dead man, or a graue, shalbe vncleane seuen dayes.
17 Therfore, for an vncleane person they shal take of the burnt asshes of the sinne offeryng, and runnyng water shalbe put therto in a vessell.
18 And let a cleane person* take hysope, & dippe it in the water, and sprinckle it vpon the tent, and vpon all the vessels, and on the persons that were therin, and vpon hym that touched a bone, or a slaine person, or a dead body, or a graue. Psal.li.b.
19 And

19 And the cleane person shall sprinckle vpon the vncleane the thirde day and the seuenth day: And the seuenth day he shall purifie hym selfe, and washe his clothes, & bathe hym selfe in water, and shalbe cleane at euen.
20 But the man that is vncleane, and purifieth not him selfe, the same soule shalbe cut of from among the congregation: because he hath defiled the sanctuarie of the Lorde, and the water of seperation hath not ben sprinckled vpon hym, therfore shall he remayne vncleane.
21 And it shalbe a perpetuall lawe vnto them, that he that sprinckleth the water of seperation, shall washe his clothes: and he that toucheth the water of seperation, shalbe vncleane vntyll euen.
22 And whatsoeuer the vncleane person toucheth, shalbe vncleane: And the soule that toucheth [the thyng that was touched of the vncleane person] shalbe vncleane vntyll euen.

A 1 AND the children of Israel came with the whole multitude into the desert * of Zin in the first moneth, and the people abode at Cades: And there died Miriam, and was buryed there.
Num 33.d.
2 But there was no water for the multitude: and they gathered them selues together agaynst Moyses and Aaron.
3 And the people chode with Moyses, and spake, saying: Woulde God that we had perished when our brethren dyed before the Lorde.
4 Why haue ye brought the congregation of the Lorde into this wildernesse, that both we and our cattell shoulde dye in it?
Exo.xviia. 5 *Wherfore haue ye made vs to come vp out of Egypt, to bryng vs into this euyll place, which is no place of seede, nor of fygges, nor vines, nor pomgranates, neither is there any water to drynke?
6 And Moyses and Aaron went from the presence of the congregation, vnto the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, and fel vpon their faces, and the glorie of the Lorde appeared vnto them.
B 7 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:
8 Take the rodde, and gather thou and thy brother Aaron the congregation together, and speake vnto the rocke before their eyes, and it shall geue foorth his water: And thou shalt bryng them water out of the rocke, to geue the companie drynke, and their beastes also.
9 *And Moyses toke the rodde from before the Lord, as he commaunded hym.
Exod xvii.
10 And Moyses and Aaron gathered the congregation together before the rocke, and [Moyses] sayde vnto them: Heare ye rebelles, must we fetch you water out of this rocke?
11 And Moyses lyft vp his hande, and with his *rodde he smote the rocke two tymes, and the water came out aboundauntly, and the multitude dranke, and their beastes also.
Psal.78.b
12 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses and Aaron: Because ye beleued me not, to sanctifie me in the eyes of the children of Israel, therfore ye shall not bryng this congregation into the lande which I haue geuen them.

14 And Moyses * sent messengers from Cades vnto the kyng of Edom, thus sayeth thy brother Israel: Thou knowest all the trauayle that we haue had.
15 Our fathers went downe into Egypt, & we haue dwelt in Egypt a long tyme: and the Egyptians vexed vs and our fathers.
16 And when we cryed vnto the Lorde, he hearde our voyce, and sent an angell, and hath fet vs vp out of Egypt: And beholde, we are in Cades, euen in the vttermost citie of thy border.

18 And Edom aunſwered hym: Thou ſhalt not go by me, leſt I come out agaynſt thee with the ſworde.

19 The children of Iſrael ſayd vnto him, we wyll go by the beaten way: and if I and my cattell drynke of thy water, I wyll pay for it: I wyll but only (without any harme) go through on my feete.

D 20 He aunſwered: Thou ſhalt not go through. And Edom came out agaynſt hym with much people, and with a mightie power.

21 And thus Edom denied to geue Iſrael paſſage through his countrey: wherfore Iſrael turned away from hym.

22 And the children of Iſrael departed from Cades, and came vnto mount Hor, with all the congregation.

23 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes and Aaron in mount Hor, harde by the coaſt of the lande of Edom, ſaying.

24 Aaron ſhalbe gathered vnto his people: for he ſhall not come into the lande which I haue geuen vnto the children of Iſrael, becauſe ye diſobeyed my mouth at the water of ſtrife.

25 Take Aaron and Eleazar his ſonne, and bryng them vp into mount Hor.

26 And cauſe Aaron to put of his garmentes, and put them vpon Eleazar his ſonne: and Aaron ſhalbe gathered vnto his people, and ſhall dye there.

27 And Moyſes dyd as the Lorde commaunded: and they went vp into mount Hor, in the ſight of all the multitude.

28 And Moyſes toke of Aarons clothes, and put them vpon Eleazar his ſonne, *and Aaron dyed there in the toppe of the mount: And Moyſes and Eleazar came downe out of the mount. Deut.x.b.

11 And they departed from Oboth, and pitched at the heapes of Abarim, euen in the Wildernesse which is before Moab, on the east syde.

12 And they remoued thence, and pitched vpon the riuer of Zared.

13 And they departed thence, and pitched on the other syde of Arnon, which is in the Wildernesse, and commeth out of the coastes of the Amorites: for Arnon is the border of Moab, betweene Moab and the Amorites.

C 14 Wherfore, it shalbe spoken in the booke of the Warres of the Lord, what thyng he dyd in the red sea, and in the riuers of Arnon, 15 And at the streame of the riuers, that goeth downe to the dwellyng of Ar, and lyeth vpon the border of Moab.

16 From thence [they returned] vnto Beer: The same is the Well wherof the Lord spake vnto Moyses: Gather the people together, and I will geue them water.

17 Then Israel sang this song: Spryng vp well, syng ye vnto it:

18 The princes digged this well, the captaynes of the people digged it with the lawe geuer, and with their staues. And from the Wildernesse they went to Mathana:

19 And from Mathana to Nahaliel, and from Nahaliel to Bamoth, 20 And from Bamoth of the valley that is in the fielde of Moab, vnto the top of the hyll that loketh towarde Jesimon.

21 And Israel sent messengers vnto D Sehon kyng of the Amorites, saying:

Deut.ia. Iosue.xii. Deut.iii.d.

25 And Israel toke all these cities, and dwelt in all the cities of the Amorites in Hesbon, and in all the townes that long therto.

26 For Hesbon was the citie of Sehon the kyng of the Amorites, which fought before agaynst ỹ kyng of the Moabites, and toke all his lande out of his hande, euen vnto Arnon.

27 Wherfore they that speake in prouerbes, say: Come to Hesbon, and let the citie of Sehon be built and repayred.

28 For there is a fire gone out of Hesbon, E and a flambe from the citie of Sehon, and hath consumed Ar in Moab, and the lordes of Bamoth in Arnon.

29 Wo to thee Moab, O people of Chamos ye are vndone: he hath suffered his sonnes to be pursued, & his daughters to be in captiuitie vnto Sehon the kyng of the Amorites.

30 Their empire is lost from Hesbon vnto Dibon, and we made a Wildernesse euen vnto Nopha, which reacheth vnto Medaba.

31 And thus Israel dwelt in the lande of the Amorites.

32 And

32 And Moyses sent to searche out Jaezer, and they toke the townes belonging therto, & rooted out the Amorites that were therein.

33 *And they turned, and went vp towarde Basan: And Og the kyng of Basan came out agaynst them, he and all his people to fight at Edrai.

34 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: feare hym not, for I haue deliuered hym into thy hande, and all his people and his lande, and thou shalt do to him as thou diddest vnto Sehon the king of the Amorites whiche dwelt at Hesbon.

35 They smote hym therefore, and his sonnes, and all his people, vntyll there was nothyng left hym, and they conquered his lande.

¶ The. xxij. Chapter.

1 Kyng Balac sendeth for Balaam, whose name in the Hebrues is written Bileam. 12 God forbyddeth Balaam to curse the Israelites. 21 The angell standeth in his way. 28 Balaams asse speaketh.

1 AND the children of Israel departed and pitched in the fieldes of Moab, on the other side of Jordane from Jericho.

2 And *Balac the sonne of Ziphor, sawe all that Israel had done to ỹ Amorites.

3 And the Moabites were sore afrayde of the people, because they were many, and they were stroken with feare of the children of Israel.

4 And Moab sayde vnto the elders of Madian: Nowe shall this companie "lycke vp all that are rounde about vs, as an ore licketh vp the grasse of ỹ fielde. And Balac the sonne of Ziphor, was kyng of the Moabites at that tyme.

5 He sent messengers therefore vnto *Balaam the sonne of Beor to Pethor, which is by the riuer of the lande of the children of his folke, to call him, saying: Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, and beholde they couer the face of the earth, & dwell (a) ouer against me. Deut.23. ii Pet.ii.c. (a) Not farre from me, euen harde by me.

6 Come nowe therefore I pray thee, and curse me this people, for they are to mightie for me, so peraduenture I myght be able to smyte them, & to driue them out of the lande: For I wote that he whom thou blessest, is blessed, and whom thou cursest is cursed.

7 And the elders of Moab, and the elders of Madian departed, hauyng the [rewarde] of the southsaying in their hande: And they came vnto Balaam, and tolde hym the wordes of Balac. B

8 He answered them: Tary here this nyght, and I wyll bryng you worde, euen as the Lorde shall say vnto me. And the lordes of Moab abode with Balaam.

9 And God came vnto Balaam, and sayd: What men are these with thee?

10 And Balaam sayd vnto God: Balac the sonne of Ziphor kyng of Moab hath sent vnto me [saying:]

11 Beholde, there is a people come out of Egypt, and couereth the face of the earth: Come nowe therefore, and curse them for my sake, if so peraduenture I may be able to ouercome them in battayle, and to dryue them out.

12 And God said vnto Balaam: Go not thou with them, neither curse the people: for they are blessed.

13 And Balaam rose vp in the morning, and sayd vnto the lordes of Balac, Get you vnto your lande: for the Lord wyll not suffer me to go with you.

℄ 14 And the lordes of Moab rose vp, and went vnto Balac and sayde: Balaam would not come with vs.

15 And Balac sent againe a greater company of lordes, and more honourable then they.

16 Whiche came to Balaam, and tolde hym, Thus sayeth Balac the sonne of Ziphor: Oh let nothyng let thee, but come vnto me:

17 For I wyll greatly promote thee vnto great honour, and wyll do whatsoeuer thou sayest vnto me: come I pray thee, curse this people for my sake.

18 And Balaam aunswered and said vnto the seruauntes of Balac: If Balac Nu.xxiii.c. woulde geue me his house full of syluer and golde, I can not go beyonde the worde of the Lorde my God, to do lesse or more:

19 Nowe therefore I pray thee, tarie ye here this nyght, that I may wit what the Lorde wyll say vnto me more.

20 And God came vnto Balaam by night, and sayde vnto hym: If the men come to call thee, ryse vp and go with them: but loke what I say vnto thee, that shalt thou do.

D 21 And Balaam rose vp early, and sadled his asse, & went with the lordes of Moab.

(D) He went more to hurt and damage the children of Israel, and for his hyer & euer sake, thē for any affection he had to obay God, as after. 32. dearle.

22 And the wrath of God was kindled, because he went: And the angell of the Lorde stoode in the way to be agaynst hym, as he rode vpon his asse, and his two seruauntes were with hym.

23 And when the asse sawe the angell of the Lord stand in the way, and hauyng his sworde drawen in his hand, the asse turned aside out of the way, and went out into the fielde: And Balaam smote the asse, to turne her into the way.

24 But the angell of the Lorde stoode in a path betweene the vineyardes, and there was a wall on the one syde, and another on the other.

25 And when the asse sawe the angell of the Lorde, she thrust her selfe vnto the wall, & crusht Balaams foote agaynst the wall: and he smote her agayne.

26 And the angell of the Lord went further, & stoode in a narowe place, where was no way to turne either to the right hande, or to the left.

27 And when the asse sawe the angell of the Lorde, she fell downe vnder Balaam: and Balaam was wroth, & smote the asse with a staffe.

28 And the Lorde opened the mouth of ℄ the asse, and she sayde vnto Balaam: What haue I done vnto thee, that thou hast smytten me nowe three tymes?

29 And Balaam sayd vnto the asse, Because thou hast mocked me: I would also there were a sworde in myne hande, for euen nowe woulde I kyll thee.

30 And the asse sayd vnto Balaam: Am not I thine asse, whiche thou hast rydden vpon since the first tyme vnto this day? was I euer wont to do so vnto thee? He sayde, nay.

31 And the Lord opened the eyes of Balaam, and he saw the angel of the Lord standing in the way, hauing his sworde drawen in his hande: He bowed hym selfe therefore, and fell flat on his face.

32 And the angell of the Lorde said vnto him: Wherfore hast thou smytten thine asse these three times? Beholde, I came out to withstande thee, because [thyne heart] hath declined out of the way before me.

33 And the asse saw me, and turned from me nowe three times: or els if she had not turned fro me, I had surely slayne thee, and saued her aliue.

34 Balaam sayde vnto the angell of the Lorde: I haue sinned, for I wyst not that thou stoodest in the way agaynst me: Nowe therefore if it displease thee, I wyll turne home agayne.

35 The angell of the Lorde sayde vnto Balaam, Go with the men: but what I say

I say vnto thee, that shalt thou speake. And so Balaam went with the lordes of Balac.

36 And when Balac heard that Balaam was come, he went out to meete hym, vnto a citie of Moab, whiche is in the border of Arnon, euē in the vtmost coast.

37 And Balac sayd vnto Balaam: Dyd I not sende for thee to call thee? And wherfore camest thou not vnto me: Am I not able in deede to promote thee vnto honour?

38 And Balaam made answere vnto Balac, Lo, I am come vnto thee, and can I nowe say any thyng at all? The worde that God* putteth in my mouth, that shall I speake. Nu.xxiii.c.

39 And Balaam went with Balac, and they came vnto a citie of streates.

40 And Balac offered oxen and sheepe, and sent [thereof] to Balaam, and to the lordes that were with hym.

41 And on the morowe Balac toke Balaam, and brought hym vp into the hye places of Baal, that thence he might see the vtmost part of the people.

2 And Balac dyd as Balaam sayde: And Balac and Balaam offred on euery aulter an oxe and ramme.

3 And Balaam sayd vnto Balac: Stand by thy sacrifice, and I will go, if happly the Lorde will meete me: and whatsoeuer he sheweth me, I wyll tell thee. And he went vp hyer.

4 But God met Balaam, & [Balaam] sayd vnto hym: I haue prepared seuen aulters, and haue offred vpon euery aulter an oxe and a ramme.

5 And the Lorde put a saying in Balaams mouth, and sayde: Go agayne to Balac, and say on this wyse.

6 And when he went agayne vnto him, lo, he stoode by his burnt sacrifice, he and all the lordes of Moab.

7 And he toke vp his parable, and sayd: B xxii.a. *Balac the king of Moab hath brought me frō Mesopotamia, out of the mountaynes of the east, [saying] Come, curse Jacob for my sake, come and defie Israel.

11 And Balac sayd vnto Balaam: what hast thou done vnto me? I toke thee to curse myne enemies, and beholde thou hast blessed them altogether.

12 He answered and sayd: Must I not take heede to speake that whiche the lorde hath put in my mouth?

13 And Balac sayde vnto hym: Come I pray thee with me vnto another place, whence thou mayest see them, and thou shalt see but the vtmost part of them, and shalt not see them all: curse them out of that place for my sake.

14 And he brought hym into a fielde, ℭ where men myght see farre of, euen to the toppe of an hyll, and buylt seuen aulters, and offred an oxe and a ramme on euery aulter.

15 And he said vnto Balac: Stande here by thy burnt sacrifice, whyle I meete [the Lorde] yonder.

¶ The .xxvij. Chapter.

1 The lawe of the heritage of the daughters of Zalphaad. 12 The lande of promiſe is ſhewed vnto Moyſes. 18 In whoſe ſteade is appoynted Joſuah.

A Nu.xxvi.d. and.36.a. Joſu.xvi.a.

1 Then came the daughters of * Zalphaad the ſonne of Hepher, the ſonne of Gilead, the ſonne of Machir, the ſonne of Manaſſe, of the kinred of Manaſſe the ſonne of Joſeph: whoſe names were Maala, Noha, Hagla, Melcha and Thirza.

2 And ſtode before Moyſes and Eleazar the prieſt, and before the lordes, and all the multitude by the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation, ſaying:

(a) As all men dye for that they are ſinners: ſome reade, died for his ſinne, and expounde it thus: not for any particuler ſinne that he had done, but for that generall ſinne that the people of the Jewes had cõmitted, in murmuring againſt Moyſes, for which they entred not into the lande of promiſe.

3 Our father dyed in the Wyldernelle, and * was not in the company of them that gathered them ſelues together agaynſt the Lorde in the congregation of Corah: but (a) dyed in his owne ſinne, and had no ſonnes.

4 Wherefore then is the name of our father taken away from among his kinred, becauſe he hath no ſonne? * Geue vnto vs therefore a poſſeſſion among the (b) brethren of our father.

(b) Brethren are here taken for kinſmen.

5 And Moyſes brought their (c) cauſe before the Lorde.

(c) That is, their matter to be iudged, to know what he ſhoulde determine, as he did at wrayghtie matters.

6 And the Lorde ſpake vnto Moyſes, ſaying.

7 The daughters of Zalphaad ſpeake ryght: thou ſhalt geue them a poſſeſſion to inherite among their fathers brethren, and ſhalt turne the inheritaunce of their father vnto them.

8 And thou ſhalt ſpeake vnto the chyldren of Iſrael, ſaying: If a man dye and haue no ſonne, ye ſhall turne his inheritaunce vnto his daughter. B

9 If he haue no daughter, ye ſhall geue his inheritaunce vnto his brethren.

10 If he haue alſo no brethren, ye ſhall geue his inheritaunce vnto his fathers brethren.

11 And if his father haue no brethren, ye ſhall geue his inheritaunce vnto hym that is next to him of his kinred, and he ſhall poſſeſſe it: And this ſhalbe vnto the chyldren of Iſrael a lawe of iudgement, as the Lorde hath commaunded Moyſes.

12 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moyſes: * Get thee vp into this mount Abarim, and beholde the lande whiche I haue geuen vnto the chyldren of Iſrael: Deut.iii.d. and.34.a.

13 And whē thou "haſt ſeene it, thou ſhalt be (c) gathered vnto thy people alſo, as Aaron thy brother was gathered. "Heb. And thou ſhalt ſee it.

14 For ye were diſobedient vnto my mouth in the deſert of Zin, in the ſtryfe of the congregation, neither dyd ye ſanctifie me in the (d) waters before their eyes: * That is, the water of ſtryfe in Cades

(c) That is, dye as other haue done before thee.

(d) You did not exalt my name nor my power and omnipotencie before the children of Iſrael when they ſtrued with Cades in the wylderneſſe of Zin.

15 And Moyſes ſpake vnto the Lorde, ſaying:
16 Let the Lord God of the ſpirites of all fleſhe ſet a man ouer ỹ congregation,
17 Which may go (c) out & in before them, and leade them out and in, that the congregation of the Lord be not as ſheepe which haue not a ſheephearde.
18 And the Lorde ſayde vnto Moyſes: Take thee Joſuah the ſonne of Nun, a man in whom is the ſpirite, and put thyne handes vpon hym, 19 And ſet hym before Eleazar the prieſt, and before all the congregation: and geue hym a charge in their ſight.
20 And put of thy [d] prayſe vpon him, that all the companie of the children of Iſrael may be obedient.
21 And he ſhall ſtande before Eleazar the prieſt, which ſhall aſke counſell for hym after the (e) iudgement of Urim, before the Lorde: And accordyng vnto his Worde, ſhall they go (f) out and in, both he and all the children of Iſrael with him, and all the congregation.
22 And Moyſes dyd as the Lorde commaunded him: and he toke Joſuah, and ſet hym before Eleazar the prieſt, and before all the congregation:
23 *And put his handes vpon hym, and gaue hym a charge, as the Lorde commaunded through the hand of Moyſes.

6 If she had an husbande, when she vowed or pronounced ought out of her lippes, wherwith she bounde her soule:

B 7 And her husbande hearde it, and helde his peace therat the same day he hearde it: then her vowes shall stande, and her bondes wherwith she bounde her soule, shall stande in effect.

8 And if her husbande disalowe her the same day that he hearde it, then he shall make her vowe which she hath vpon her, and the openyng of her lippes wherwith she bounde her soule, of none effect, and the Lorde shall forgeue her.

9 But euery vowe of a widowe, and of her that is deuorsed, that they haue bounde their soule withall, shall stande in effect with them.

11 And her husbande hearde it, and helde his peace concernyng her, & disalowed her not: then all her vowes shal stande, and euery bonde wherwith she bounde her soule, shall stande.

12 But if her husbande disanulled them the same day ẏ he hearde them: then nothyng that proceedeth out of her lippes in vowes and bondes wherwith she bounde her soule, shall stande in effect: for her husbande hath disanulled them, and the Lorde shall forgeue her.

13 All vowes and othes that binde to (c) humble the soule, may her husbande stablische or breake.

A 1 AND the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

Nu. xxv.d 2 *Auenge the children of Israel of the Madianites, & afterwarde shalt thou be gathered vnto thy people.

3 And Moyses spake vnto the folke, saying: Harnesse some of you vnto warre, and let them go vpon the Madianites, & auenge the Lorde of the Madianites.

4 Of euery tribe a thousande, throughout all the tribes of Israel, shal ye sende to the warre.

5 And there were deliuered out of the thousandes of Israel, twelue thousand prepared vnto warre, of euery tribe a thousande.

16 Beholde, these caused the children of Israel through the councel of Balaam, to commit trespasse agaynst the Lorde in the busines of (c) Peor, and there followed a plague among the congregation of the Lorde.

17 Nowe therfore, *slay all the men children, and kyl the women that haue lien with men fleshly.

18 But all the women children that haue not lien with men carnally, kepe alyue for your selues.

19 And ye shall remayne without the hoast seuen dayes, all that haue kylled any person, *and all that haue touched any dead body, and purifie both your selues and your prisoners the thirde day and the seuenth.

23 And all that may abide the fire, ye shal make it go through the fire, and it shalbe cleane: Neuertheless, it shalbe purified with water of seperation: And all that suffereth not the fire, ye shall make go through the water:

24 And washe your clothes the seuenth day, and ye shalbe cleane, and afterwarde come into the hoast.

25 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

26 Take the summe of the pray that was taken, both of the persons and of cattell, thou and Eleazar the priest, and the chiefe fathers of the congregation:

27 And deuide the pray into two partes, betweene them that toke the warre vpon them and went out to battayle, and all the congregation.

28 And take a tribute vnto the Lorde of the men of warre which went out to battayle: one soule of fiue hundred, both of the persons, and of the beefes, and of the asses, and of the sheepe. E

29 And ye shall take it of their halfe, and geue it vnto Eleazar the priest, as an heaue offeryng of the Lorde.

49 And sayde vnto Moyses: Thy seruauntes haue taken the summe of the men of warre which are vnder our authoritie, and there lacketh not one man of vs:

50 We haue therfore brought a present vnto the Lord what euery man found, of iewels of golde, bracelets, chaynes, rynges, eare rynges, and spangles, to make an attonement for our soules before the Lorde.

51 And Moyses and Eleazar the priest, toke the golde of them, all the wrought iewels.

The. xxxij. Chapter.

2 To Ruben and Gad and to halfe the tribe of Manasses, is promised the possession beyonde Iordane eastwarde. 7 The Rubenites and the Gadites be rebuked of Moyses. 16 Their promises vnto Moyses.

(a) Ruben was the sonne of Lea Iacobs wyfe, & Gad was sonne to Zilpah her handmayde.

1 THe childrē (a) of Ruben & the children of Gad had an exceeding great multitude of cattell: And when they sawe the lande of Iazer, & the lande of Gilead, that it was an apt place for cattell,

2 The children of Ruben, and the children of Gad, came & spake vnto Moyses and Eleazar the priest, and vnto the lordes of the congregation, saying:

3 The lande of Ataroth & Dibon, Iazer and Nemrah, Hesbon and Elealeh, Sabam, and Nebo, and Beon:

4 Which countrey the Lorde smote before the congregation of Israel, is a lande meete for cattell, and we thy seruauntes haue cattell.

5 Wherfore said they: If we haue found grace in thy sight, let this lande be geuē vnto thy seruauntes to possesse, & bryng vs not ouer Iordane.

6 And Moyses sayde vnto the children of Gad and of Ruben: Shall your brethren go to warre, and ye shall sit here?

7 Wherfore discourage ye the heart of the children of Israel, that they shoulde not go ouer into the lande which the Lorde hath geuen them?

8 *Thus dyd your fathers when I sent them from Cades Barnea to see ỹ lande. Num.13.

9 For when they went vp euen vnto the riuer of Eschol, and sawe the lande, they discouraged discouraged the heart of the children of Israel, that they should not go into the lande which the Lord hath geuē them.

10 And the Lordes wrath was kindled the same tyme, and he sware, saying:
11 *None of the men that came out of Egypt, frō twentie yeres olde & aboue, shall see the lande which I sware vnto Abraham, Isaac, and Jacob, because they haue not wholly followed me:
12 Saue Caleb the sonne of Jephune the Kenesite, and Josuah the sonne of Nun: for they haue constantly followed the Lorde.
13 And the Lorde was verie angry with Israel, and made them wander in the wildernesse fourtie yeres, vntyll all the generation that had done euyll in the sight of the Lorde, were consumed.
14 And beholde, ye are rysen vp in your fathers steade, as an increase of sinfull men, to augment the fierce wrath of the Lorde towarde Israel:
15 For if ye turne away from after hym, he wyll yet agayne leaue the people in the wildernesse, (b) and ye shall destroy all this folke.
16 And they went neare hym, and sayde: We wyll builde sheepe foldes here for our sheepe & for our cattell, and [walled] cities for our children:
17 But we our selues wyl go redy armed before the children of Israel, vntyll we haue brought them vnto (c) their place: And our children shall dwell in the fensed cities, because of the inhabiters of the lande.
18 We wyll not returne vnto our houses, vntyll the children of Israel haue inherited, euery man his inheritaunce:
19 Neither wyll we inherite with them on yonder side Jordane forwarde, because our inheritaunce is fallen to vs on this side Jordane eastwarde.
20 And Moyses sayde vnto them: If ye wyll do this thyng, and go harnessed (d) before the Lorde to warre, 21 And will go all of you in harnesse ouer Jordane before the Lord, vntil he haue cast out his (e) enemies from his sight,
22 And vntyll the lande be subdued before the Lorde: then ye shall returne, and be without sinne (f) before the Lorde and before Israel, and this lande shalbe your possession before the Lorde.
23 But and if ye wyll not do so, beholde, ye haue sinned agaynst the Lorde: and be sure (g) your sinne wyll finde you out.
24 Nowe therfore, builde cities for your children, and foldes for your sheepe, and do that ye haue spoken.
25 The children of Gad, and the children of Ruben, spake vnto Moyses, saying: Thy seruauntes wyll do as my Lorde commaundeth.
26 Our children, our wyues, our sheepe, and our cattell, shall remayne here in the cities of Gilead:
27 But thy seruauntes wyll go all harnessed for the warre, and vnto battayle before the Lorde, as my Lorde sayth.
28 And for their sakes, Moyses commaunded Eleazar the priest, & Josuah the sonne of Nun, and the chiefe fathers of the tribes of the children of Israel,
29 And Moyses sayde vnto them: If the children of Gad, and the children of Ruben wyl go with you ouer Jordane, all armed, to fyght before the Lorde, then when the lande is subdued before you, ye shall geue them the lande of Gilead to possesse:
30 But and if they (h) wyll not go ouer with you in harnesse, they shall haue their possessions among you in the lande of Chanaan.
31 And the children of Gad, and the children of Ruben, aunswered, saying: As (i) the Lorde hath sayde vnto thy seruauntes, so wyll we do:
32 *We wyll go harnessed before ỹ Lorde into the lande of Chanaan, that the possession of our inheritaunce may be geuen vs on this side Jordane.
33 And Moyses gaue vnto the children of Gad, and to the children of Ruben, and vnto halfe the tribe of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, the kyngdome of Sehon kyng of the (k) Amorites, and the kyngdome of Og kyng of Basan, the lande with the cities therof, in ỹ coastes and cities of the countrey roumde about.
34 And the children of Gad built Dibon, and Ataroth, and Aroer, 35 And Atoth, Sophan, Jaaser, and Jogbea,
36 Bethnimra, and Betharan, fensed cities: & they built foldes for the sheepe.
37 And the children of Ruben built Hesbon, Eleale, Kiriathaim, 40 And Moyses gaue Gilead vnto Machir the sonne of Manasse, and he dwelt therin.

41 And * Iair the sonne of Manasse went and toke the smal townes therof, and called them (1) Hauoth Iair.

2 Commaunde ye chyldren of Israel, that they geue vnto the Leuites of the (a) inheritaunce of their possession, * cities to dwell in: And ye shal geue also vnto the cities of the Leuites, suburbes harde by their cities rounde about them.

3 The cities shall they haue to dwell in, and the suburbes for their cattell, and for their possession, & al maner of beastes of theirs.

4 And the suburbes of the cities whiche ye shall geue vnto the Leuites, shall reache from the wall of the citie outwarde, a thousande cubites rounde about.

5 And ye shall measure without the citie of the east syde, two thousande cubites: and of the south syde, two thousande cubites: and of the West side, two thousand cubites: and of the north side, two thousande cubites also, and the citie shalbe in the middes: and these shalbe the suburbes of their cities.

6 And from among the cities whiche ye shall geue vnto the Leuites, * there shal be sixe cities for refuge, whiche ye shall appoynt [to that intent] that he whiche kylleth, may flee thyther: And to them ye shall adde fourtie and two cities mo. Iosu.xx.a.

7 So that all the cities whiche ye shall geue the Leuites, may be fourtie and eyght, them [shall ye geue] with their suburbes. 25

8 And these cities whiche ye shall geue, shalbe out of the possession of the chyldren of Israel. They that haue many, shall geue many: but of them that haue fewe, ye shall take fewe. Euery one shal geue of his cities vnto the Leuites, accordyng to the inheritaunce whiche he inheriteth.

9 And the Lorde spake vnto Moyses, saying:

10 Speake vnto the chyldren of Israel, and say vnto them: * When ye be come ouer Jordane into the lande of Chanaan: Deut.xix.a Iosu.xx.a.

11 Ye shall appoint you cities, to be cities of refuge for you: that he whiche sleeth a person vnwares, may flee thyther.

12 And these cities shalbe vnto you a refuge from the (b) auenger of blood: that he which killeth, dye not, vntill he stand before the (c) congregation in iudgement.

(b) The next of kin to the parte slayne, whiche ought to followe the suite.

(c) The Hebrues vnderstande by the congregation, the Senatours and chiefe Iudges in the cities.

13 And of these cities which ye shal geue, sixe cities shall ye haue for refuge.

14 Ye shal geue three (d) on this side Iordane, and three in the land of Chanaan, whiche shalbe cities of refuge.

(d) In the possession of the Rubenites, Gadites, and the halfe tribe of Manasses.

15 And these sixe cities shalbe a refuge, both for the children of Israel, and for the straunger, & for hym that dwelleth among you: that all they whiche kyll any person vnwares, may flee thyther.

16 *And if any man smyte another with an instrument of iron that he dye, then is he a murtherer, and the murtherer shall dye for it.

Exod.xxi.d

17 If he smyte hym with throwyng a (e) stone, that a man may dye with, and if he dye, he that smote hym is a murtherer: let the same murtherer be slayne therefore.

(e) So dangerous, that a man may dye thereof.

18 Or if he smyte hym with a handweapon of wood that a man may dye with, then if he dye, he is a murtherer: let the same murtherer be slaine therfore.

19 (f) The reuenger of blood him selfe shal slay the murtherer: when he meeteth hym, he shall slay hym.

(f) He that is next to his kin to him that is murthered.

20 But if he thrust hym of hate, or hurle at hym by laying of wayte, that he dye, 21 Or smyte hym with his hande of enmitie that he dye: he that smote hym shall dye the death, for he is a murtherer: the reuenger of the blood shall slay the murtherer when he meeteth hym.

22 But if he pusshed hym vnaduisedly, and not of hate, or cast vpon hym any thing, and not in laying of wayte,

23 Or any maner of stone that a man may dye with, and saw him not, and he caused it to fall vpon hym, and he dye, and was not his enemie, neither sought hym any harme:

24 Then the congregation shal iudge betweene the slayer and the reuenger of blood, according to these lawes.

25 And the congregation shall deliuer the slayer out of the hande of the reuenger of blood, and the congregation shall restore hym to the citie of his refuge, whyther he was fled: and he shal abide there vnto the death of (g) the hye priest, whiche was annoynted with the holy oyle.

(g) This was a figure of Christ, by whose death our sinnes are pardoned.

26 But if the slayer come without the borders of his citie of refuge, whyther he was fled:

27 And the reuenger of blood finde hym without the borders of the citie of his refuge, and the reuenger of blood kyll the slayer, he shalbe giltlesse:

28 Because he shoulde haue bydden in the towne of his refuge vntill the death of the hye priest: and after the death of the hye priest, the slayer should returne vnto the lande of his possession.

29 So these thynges shalbe (h) a lawe of iudgement vnto you, throughout your generations, in al your dwellinges.

(h) That is, to iudge wyth full of cause murthers.

30 Whoso kylleth any person, the [Iudge] shall put the murtherer to death thorowe wytnesses: but one wytnesse shall not testifie agaynst any person, to cause hym to dye.

31 Moreouer, ye shal take no recompence for the lyfe of the murtherer whiche is worthy to dye: but he shalbe put to death.

32 And ye shall take no recompence for him that is fled to the citie of his refuge, that he shoulde come againe and dwell in the lande before the death of the hye priest.

33 So ye shall not pollute the lande whiche ye shall dwell in, for blood defileth the lande: and the lande can not be clensed of the blood that is shed therin, but by the blood of hym that shed blood.

34 Defile not therefore the lande whiche ye shal inhabite, for I am in the middes therof: [euen] I the Lord dwell among the children of Israel.

¶ The. xxxvj. Chapter.

1 An order for the mariage of the daughters of Zelaphead. 7 The inheritaunce could not be geuen from one tribe to another.

AND the chiefe fathers of the families of the chyldren of Geliad, the sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasse, of the kinred of the sonnes of Joseph, came foorth and spake before Moyses, and before the princes the chiefe fathers of the chyldren of Israel,

2 And sayd: The Lorde commaunded (a) my Lorde to geue the land to inherite by lot to the chyldren of Israel: and my Lorde was commaunded by the Lord, to geue the inheritaunce of Zelaphead our brother, vnto his daughters.

3 If they be maryed to any of ỹ sonnes of (b) the other tribes of the chyldren of Israel, then shall their inheritaunce be taken from the inheritaunce of our fathers, and shalbe put to the inheritaunce of the tribe which they are receaued into, and so shal it be taken from the lot of our inhertaunce.

4 And when the Jubilee of the children of Israel commeth, then shall their inheritaunce be put vnto the inheritaunce of the tribe wherinto they are receaued, and so shall their inheritaunce be taken away from the inheritaunce of the tribe of our fathers.

5 And Moyses commaunded the chyldren of Israel, according to the worde of the Lorde, saying: The tribe of the sonnes of Joseph haue (c) sayd well.

6 This therefore doth the Lorde commaunde the daughters of Zelaphead, saying: Let them be wyues, to whom they them selues thinke best: only to the familie of the tribe of their father shall they marry.

7 So shall not the inheritaunce of the children of Israel remoue from tribe to tribe: for euery one of the chyldren of Israel shall ioyne hym selfe to the inheritaunce of the tribe of his fathers. B

8 And euery daughter that possesseth any inheritaunce (d) in any tribe of the chyldrē of Israel, shalbe wyfe vnto one of the kinred of the tribe of her father, that the chyldren of Israel may enioy euery man the inheritaunce of his father.

(d) Whiche shalbe when there is no male chylde to inherite.

9 Neither ought the inheritaunce to go from one tribe to another: but euery one of the tribes of the chyldren of Israel shalbe ioyned to his owne inheritaunce.

10 And as the Lord commaunded Moyses, euen so dyd the daughters of Zelaphead:

11 For Mahela, Thirza, Hagla, Milcha, and Noa the daughters of Zelaphead, were maryed vnto their fathers brothers sonnes.

12 They were wyues vnto the families of the sonnes of Manasse the sonne of Joseph, and so their inheritaunce remayned in the tribe of the kinred of their father.

13 These are the (e) cōmaundementes and lawes whiche the Lorde commaunded by the hande of Moyses vnto the chyldren of Israel, in the fieldes of Moab, by Jordane [towarde] Jericho.

(e) That is, concerning the ceremoniall and iudiciall lawes.

¶ The ende of the fourth booke of Moyses.

The fifth booke of Moyses, called in the Hebrewe, Elle haddebarim, and in the Latin,

Deuteronomium.

The first Chapter.

1 A briefe rehearsall of thinges done before from Horeb vnto Cades Barnea. 32 Moyses reproueth the people for their incredulitie. 44 The Israelites are ouercome by the Amorites, because they fought agaynst the commaundement of the Lorde.

A 1 THese be the wordes whiche Moyses spake vnto all Israel on (a) the other side Jordan in the wyldernesse, in ẏ playne ouer agaynst the red sea, betweene Pharan & Thophel, Laban, Hazeroth, and Disahab.

(a) In the countrey of Moab: and this wyldernesse was betweene the plaine of Moab & the sea.

2 There are eleuen dayes iourney from (b) Horeb, by the way of mount Seir, vnto Cades Barnea.

(b) Moyses repeateth agayne the lawe whiche was geuen fourtie yeres before, so ẏ the youth yᵗ his people were either vnborne, or to young to iudge: for which second repetitiō, this booke is called in greke Deuteronomi, that is, the second lawe.

3 And it came to passe in the first day of the eleuenth moneth, in the fourtie yere, that Moyses spake vnto the chyldren of Israel, accordyng vnto all that the Lord had geuen hym in commaundement vnto them:

4 After he had slayne Sehon the king of the Amorites whiche dwelt in Hesbon, & Og king of Basan whiche dwelt at Astaroth in Edrai.

5 On the other side Jordane in the land of Moab, began Moyses to declare this lawe, saying:

6 The Lorde our God spake vnto vs in (c) Horeb, saying: Ye haue dwelt long inough in this mount.

(c) In the second yere & second moneth.

B 7 Turne you and take your iourney, and go to the mount of the Amorites, and vnto all the places nye therevnto, both vnto the playne, and hilles, and dales, to the south, to the seas side, to the lande of Chanaan, and vnto Libanon, euen vnto the great riuer, the riuer Euphrates.

8 Beholde, I haue set the lande before you: Go in and* possesse the land which the Lord sware vnto your fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, to geue vnto them, & to their seede after them.

Gen.xv.d. and xvii.b.

(d) By the counsel of Jethro my father in lawe.

9 And (d) I spake vnto you in the same time, saying: I am not able to beare you my selfe alone.

10 For the Lorde your God hath multiplied you: so that you be this day as the starres of heauen in number.

11 (The Lord God of your fathers make you a thousand times so many mo as ye are, and blesse you as he hath promised you.)

12 Howe can* I my selfe alone, (e) beare your cumbraunce, your charge, & your stryfe that is among you?

Exo.xviii.c. (e) Meaning ẏ Moyses had an harde gouernaunce among them.

13 Bryng you men of wysdome, and of vnderstanding, and expert, accordyng to your tribes, and I wyll make them rulers ouer you.

14 And ye answered me, & sayde: That which ẏ hast spoken, is good for vs to do.

C

15 And so out of your tribes (f) I toke the chiefe men of wysdome, and that were expert, and made them rulers ouer you, captaynes ouer thousandes, & captaines ouer hundredes, captaines ouer fiftie, and captaines ouer ten, and officers among your tribes.

(f) To signifie, that expert and knowen men in gouernesse ought to be take to gouerne.

16 And I charged your Iudges that same tyme, saying: Heare the cause of your brethren, and* iudge righteously betweene euery man and his brother, and the straunger that is with hym.

Ioshue.viii.d.

17 Ye shall haue no respect of any person in iudgement, * but you shall heare the small aswell as the great: You shall not feare the face of any man, for the iudgement (g) is Gods. And the cause that is to harde for you, referre it vnto me, and I wyll heare it.

Leuit.xix.c. Pro.xxiiii.d.

(g) And man is but Gods minister.

18 And I cōmaunded you the same season, all the thinges which ye should do.

19 And when we departed from Horeb, we went thorow all that great and terrible wyldernesse, as ye haue seene by the way of the mountayne of the Amorites, as the Lorde our God commaunded vs: and we came to Cades Barnea.

(h) So that it is to be reputed to their selues, that they enioyed not the vttermost lande.

20 And (h) I sayd vnto you: Ye are come vnto ẏ mountaine of ẏ Amorites, which the Lorde our God doth geue vnto vs.

21 Beholde, the Lorde thy God hath set the lande before thee: go vp and possesse it, as the Lord God of thy fathers hath sayd vnto thee: feare not, neither be discouraged.

D

Deut.xx.a.

22 And ye came vnto me euery one, and sayde: * We wyll sende men before vs, to searche vs out the land, and to bryng vs worde agayne What way we must go vp by, & vnto what cities we shall come.

Num.xiii.a.

23 And

23 And the saying pleased me well: and I toke twelue men of you, of euery tribe one.

24 Whiche departed, & went vp into that mountayne, and came vnto the (m) valley Eschol, and searched it out,

25 And toke of the lande in their handes, and brought it vnto vs, and brought vs word agayne, and (n) sayd: It is a good lande whiche the Lorde our God doth geue vs.

26 Notwithstandyng, ye woulde not go vp, but were disobedient vnto the word of the Lorde your God, 27 And murmured in your tentes, and said: Because ỹ Lord (o) hateth vs, therfore hath he brought vs out of the lande of Egypt, to deliuer vs into the hande of the Amorites, and to destroy vs.

28 Whyther shal we go vp: Our brethren haue discouraged our heart, saying: *the people is greater and taller then we, the cities are great, and walled euen vp to heauen, and moreouer we haue seene the sonnes of the (p) Anakims there.

29 Then I sayde vnto you: Dreade not, nor be afraide of them.

30 The (q) Lorde your God which goeth before you, he shall fight for you, according to all that he dyd vnto you in Egypt before your eyes:

31 And in the wylderneſſe, where thou hast seene howe that the Lord thy God bare thee, euen as a man doth beare his sonne, in al the way which ye haue gone by, vntill ye came vnto this place:

32 And yet in this thing ye did not beleue the Lorde your God.

33 He went in the way before you, to searche you out a place to pitche your tentes in, * in fyre by nyght, ỹ ye myght see what way to go, & in a cloude by day.

34 And the Lorde hearde the voyce of your wordes, & was wroth, and sware, saying:

35 *There shall not one of these men, and of this frowarde generation, see that good lande whiche I sware to geue vnto your fathers:

36 Saue Caleb the sonne of Jephune, he shall see it, *and to him wyll I geue the lande that he hath troden vpon, and to his chyldren, because he hath followed the Lorde.

37 *Also the Lorde was angry with me for your sakes, saying: Thou also shalt not go in thyther.

38 But Josuah the sonne of Nun which (r) standeth before thee, he shal go in thyther. Encourage hym therfore: for he shall cause Israel to inherite the lande.

39 Moreouer, (t) your chyldren, which ye sayde should be a pray, and your sonnes whiche in that day had no knowledge betweene good and euyll, they shall go in thyther, and vnto them wyll I geue it, and they shall enioy it.

40 But as for you, turne your face, and take your iourney into the Wilderneſſe, euen by the way of the red sea.

41 Then ye answered and sayde vnto me, *We haue sinned agaynst the Lord: (t) We wyll go vp and fight, according to all that the Lorde our God commaunded vs. And when ye had gyrde on euery man his weapons of warre, ye were redie to go vp into the hyll.

42 And the Lord sayd vnto me: Say vnto them, go not vp, neither fight, for (u) I am not among you: lest ye fall before your enemies.

43 And I tolde you these thynges, & you woulde not heare, but disobayed the worde of the Lord, and went presumptuously vp unto the hyll.

44 And the Amorites whiche dwelt in that mountayne, came out against you, and chased you as bees vse to do, and destroyed you in Seir, euen vnto Horma.

45 And ye came agayne, and wept before the Lorde: but the Lorde (x) would not heare your voyce, nor hearken vnto you.

46 And so ye abode in Cades a long season, according vnto the tyme that ye remayned [before.]

(u) He sheweth that our strength standeth in Gods assistaunce.

(x) The cause was, for that they lamented not their sin but for ỹ losse of their brethren, and so were hypocrites in their lamenting.

¶ The .ij. Chapter.

That whiche was done from the tyme they departed from Cades Barnea, vnto the battayle agaynst the kynges, Sehon and Og.

A 1 THen we (a) turned our face, & toke our iourney into the (b) Wyldernesse, euen by the way of the red sea, as the Lorde spake vnto me: And we compassed (c) mount Seir a long tyme.

(a) They shewed their obedience after Gods chastisyng..
(b) The desert of Zin.
(c) This mountaine appertayne to the Idumeans whiche came of Esau

2 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying:
3 Ye haue compassed this mountayne long inough, turne you northwarde.
4 And warne thou ỳ people, saying: Ye shall go through the (d) coast of your brethren the chyldren of Esau which dwelt in Seir, and they shalbe afraide of you.

(d) At their return thither, for before they were repelled by the Iourneans. Num. 20. 21.

5 Take ye good heede vnto your selues therfore: Ye shall not prouoke them, for I wyll not geue you of their lande, no not so much as a foote breadth, *because I haue geuen mount Seir vnto Esau to possesse.

Gen. xxiii b

6 Ye shall bye meate of them for money, to eate, and ye shall procure water of them for money, to drinke.

B 7 For the Lorde thy God hath blessed thee in all the workes of thy hande, and (e) knoweth thy walkyng through this great Wylderneſſe this fourtie yeres, and the Lorde thy God hath ben with thee, so that thou hast lacked nothing.

(e) Knowyng is here taken for fauouryng, as in many other places of Scripture.

8 And when we were departed from our brethren the chyldren of Esau which dwelt in Seir, through the way of the (f) Wyldernesse from Elath, & from Ezion Gaber, We turned and went by the way of the Wyldernesse of Moab.

(f) Or, desert.

9 And the Lorde sayd vnto me: *Thou shalt not fight agaynst the Moabites, neither prouoke them to battayle: for I wyll not geue thee of their lande to possesse, because I haue geuen Ar vnto the chyldren of Loth to possesse.

(g) Giaunts, the worde signifieth terrible men.
(h) Giauntes which came of one Anak. Num, 13. 23.

10 The (g) Emims dwelt therin in tymes past, a people great, many, and tall, as the (h) Anakims, 11 Whiche also were taken for giauntes as the Anakims, whom the Moabites call Emims.
12 The Horims also dwelt in Seir before tyme, whom the chyldren of Esau chased out, & destroyed them before them, and dwelt in their steade, as Israel did vnto the lande of his possession, Whiche the Lorde gaue them.
13 Nowe ryse vp [sayde I] and get you ouer the riuer Zared: and We went ouer the riuer Zared.
14 The space in Whiche We came from Cades Barnea, vntill We were come ouer the riuer Zared, was thirtie and eyght yeres, vntyll all the generation of the men of warre were wasted out from among the hoast, as the Lorde sware vnto them. C
15 *For in deede the hande of the Lorde was against them to destroy them frō among ỳ (i) hoast, til they were cōsumed.

(i) That were of the age of twentie yeres & vpward.

16 And so it came to passe, that all the men of warre were consumed and dead from among the people.
17 And the Lord spake vnto me, saying:
18 Thou shalt go thorowe Ar, the coast of Moab, this day:
19 And when thou commest nye vnto the chyldren of Ammon, thou shalt not lay siege vnto thē, nor moue warre against them: For I wyll not geue thee of the lande of the chyldren of Ammon any possession, but I haue geuen it vnto the chyldren of Loth to possesse.
20 That also was taken for a lande of giauntes, and giauntes dwelt therin in olde tyme, whom the Ammonites call (k) Zamzummims.

(k) Called Zamzummims, that is to say, wicked and abhominable. But they couered their wickednes with a godly name, callyng them selues Rephaims, that is, Physitions or mayne seruers, to cure & relieue diseases. Gene. 16. b.

21 A people that was great, many, and tall, as the Anakims: But the Lorde destroyed them before them, and they succeeded them in their inheritaunce, and dwelt in their steade:
22 As he dyd for the chyldren of * Esau, Whiche dwell in Seir, for whom he destroyed the Horims before them, and they possessed them, and dwelt in their steade vnto this day.
23 And the Auims which dwelt in Hazarim, euen vnto Azza, the (l) Caphthorims Whiche came out of Caphthor, destroyed them, and dwelt in their steade.

(l) That were men of Cappadocia, as some write: Iosephus writeth that this people is vnknowen. Nu. xxv. f.

24 Rise ye vp therefore, & take your iourney ouer the ryuer Arnon: Beholde, *I haue geuen into thy hande Sehon the Amorite, king of Hesbon and his lande: begin to possesse it, and prouoke hym to battayle.
25 This day Will I beginne to sende the feare and dread of thee vpon al nations that are vnder all the heauen, so that they Whiche heare speake of thee, shall tremble tremble and quake before thee.

26 And so I sent messengers out of ỹ Wildernes of Kedemoth, vnto Sehon king of Hesbō, with Wordes of peace, saying:
27 *Let me passe through thy lande, I wyll go along by the hye Way, I wyll neither turne vnto the ryght hande, nor to the left.
28 Thou shalt sell me meate for money, for to eate, & geue me Water for money, for to drinke: Only I wyll go through on my feete, 29 As the (m) children of Esau, Which dwel in Seir, and the Moabites which dwel in Ar, dyd vnto me, vntyll I be come ouer Jordane, into the lande which the Lorde our God geueth vs.
30 But Sehon ỹ kyng of Hesbon Woulde not let vs passe by hym: for the Lorde thy God hardened his spirite, and made his heart obstinate, because he Woulde deliuer him into thy hande, as it is come to passe this day.
31 And the Lord said vnto me: Beholde, I haue begunne to geue Sehon & his lande before thee: begynne to possesse and inherite his lande.
32 *Then both Sehon and all his people came out agaynst vs to fight at Jaza.
33 And the Lorde set hym before vs, and we smote hym, and his sonnes, and all his people.
34 And We toke all his cities the same season, and slue the men, Women, and children of all the cities, and let nothyng remayne, 35 Saue the cattell onely We caught vnto our selues, and the spoyle of the cities which We toke.
36 From Aroer which is by the brinke of the riuer of Arnon, and from the citie that is in the riuer, vnto Gilead, there was not one citie to strong for vs: The Lorde our God deliuered all (n) vnto vs.
37 Only vnto the lande of the children of Ammon thou camest not, nor vnto euery place of the (o) riuer Jabock, nor vnto the cities in the mountaynes, nor vnto whatsoeuer the Lorde our God forbad vs.

¶ The .iij. Chapter.

Thynges that chaunsed from the victorie of the two kynges, Sehon, and Og, vnto the institution of Josuah in Moyses steade.

1 Then We turned, and went vp the Way to Basan: *And Og the kyng of Basan came out agaynst vs, he and all his people, to fyght at Edrai.
2 And the Lorde sayde vnto me: Feare hym not, for I wyll deliuer hym, and all his people, and his lande, into thy hande, and thou shalt do vnto hym, as thou diddest vnto Sehon kyng of the Amorites, which dwelt at Hesbon.
3 And so the Lorde our God deliuered into our handes Og also the kyng of Basan, and all his folke: And We smote hym vntyll none was left hym alyue.
4 And We toke all his cities the same season, neither Was there a citie which We toke not from them, euen threescore cities throughout the region of Argob, of the kyngdome of Og in Basan.
5 All these cities also were made strong With hye Walles, gates, & barres, beside vnWalled townes a great meany,
6 And We vtterly destroyed them, as We dyd vnto Sehon kyng of Hesbon, bryngyng to naught all the cities, with men, Women, and (a) children:
7 But all the cattell and the spoyle of the cities, We toke for our selues.
8 And thus We toke the same season out of the hande of two kynges of the Amorites, the land that Was on the other side Jordane, from the riuer of Arnon, vnto mount Hermon;
9 (Which Hermon the Sidons call Sirion, and the Amorites call it Senir)
10 All the cities that lay in the playne, and all Gilead, and all Basan vnto Selcha and Edrai, cities of the kyngdome of Og in Basan:
11 For only Og kyng of Basan, remayned of the remnaunt of the giauntes, Whose bed Was a bed of (b) iron: And is it not yet at Rabbath among ỹ children of Ammon: Nine cubites doth the length therof contayne, and foure cubites the breadth of it, after the cubite of a (c) man.
12 And so We conquered this lande the same tyme, from Aroer which is by the riuer of Arnon, vnto halfe mount Gilead, *and the cities therof gaue I vnto the Rubenites and Gadites.
13 And

(a) As God commaunded them.

(b) The more this giaunt was, the more was gods goodnes and power to be magnified for the conquest.

(c) Of the common stature.

Num.32.f. Deut.29.b. Iosu.xii.b.

13 And the rest of Gilead, and all Basan of the kyngdome of Og, gaue I vnto the halfe tribe of Manasse: euen all the region of Argob, with all Basan, which is called the lande of giauntes.

14 Iair the sonne of Manasse, toke all the countrey of Argob, vnto the coastes of Gessuri & Maachati, and called them after his owne name, Basan Hauoth Iair, (b) vnto this day.

15 And I gaue Gilead vnto Machir.

16 And vnto the Rubenites and Gadites I gaue Gilead vnto the riuer of Arnon, halfe the valley and beyonde, euen vnto the riuer (c) Jabock, which is the border of the children of Ammon:

17 The (f) playne also, and Jordane, and the coast therof, from (g) Cenereth, euen vnto the sea which is in the playne, euen the salt sea vnder the springes of the hyll, eastwarde.

18 *And I commaunded you the same tyme, saying: The Lorde your God hath geuen you this lande to enioy it: ye shall go harnessed before your brethren the children of Israel, all that are meete for the warre.

19 Your wyues only, your children, and your cattell (for I knowe that ye haue much cattell) shall abyde in your cities which I haue geuen you, 20 Vntyll the Lorde haue geuen rest vnto your brethren as well as vnto you, and vntyll they also possesse the lande which the Lorde your God hath geuen them beyonde Jordane: and then shall ye returne agayne, euery man vnto his possession which I haue geuen you.

21 *And I commaunded Josuah hym selfe the same tyme, saying: Thyne eyes haue seene all that the Lorde your God hath done vnto these two kynges: euen so shall he do vnto all kyngdomes whither thou goest. D Num.27.d.

22 Ye shall not feare them: for the Lorde your God he shall fyght for you.

23 And I besought the Lorde the same tyme, saying:

24 O Lorde God, thou hast begunne to shewe thy seruaunt thy greatnesse and thy mightie hande: for where is there a God in heauen or in earth, that can do after thy workes, and like to thy power?

25 I pray thee let me go ouer, and see the good lande that is beyonde Jordane, that goodly (h) mountayne, & Libanon.

26 *But the Lorde was angry with me for your sakes, and would not heare me. And the Lorde sayde vnto me: Be content, speake no more vnto me of this matter.

27 *Get thee vp into the top of the hyll, & lift vp thyne eyes westwarde, northwarde, southwarde, and eastwarde, and beholde it with thyne eyes: for thou shalt not go ouer this Jordane.

27 But charge Josuah, and encourage hym, and bolden hym: *For he shall go before this people, and he shall deuide vnto thē the lande which thou shalt see.

29 And so we abode in the valley ouer agaynst the house of Peor.

¶ The .iiij. Chapter.

1 In exhortation to obserue the lawe without addyng therto or diminishyng. 6 Therin standeth our wisdome. 9 We must teache it to our children. 15 No image ought to be made to worship. 26 Threatninges agaynst them that forsake the lawe of God. 37 God chose the seede, because he loued their fathers. 43 The three cities of refuge.

A 1 NOwe therfore harken O Israel, vnto the ordinaunces and lawes which I teache you, for to (a) do them, that so ye may lyue, and go in, & possesse the lande which the Lorde God of your fathers geueth you.

(a) He sheweth that this doctrine standeth in practise, and not in bare knowledge.

2 (b) Ye shall put nothyng vnto the Worde which I commaunde you, neither shall you take ought from it, that ye may kepe the cōmaundementes of the Lord your God which I commaunde you.

(b) God will be serued accordyng to his worde.

3 (c) Your eyes haue seene what ỳ Lorde dyd agaynst Baal Peor: for all the men that folowed (d) Baall Peor, the Lorde thy God hath destroyed from among you.

4 But ye that cleaue vnto the Lord your god, are aliue euery one of you this day.

5 Beholde I haue taught you ordinaunces and lawes, such as the Lorde my God cōmaunded me, that ye should do euen so in the lande whither ye go to possesse it.

6 Kepe them therfore and do them, for that is (e) your wisdome and vnderstandyng

(c) He sheweth them by gods plagues, shewed on other idolatres.

(d) The God of the Moabites and Ammonites. This worde Baal, doth signifie maister or patrone.

(e) He sheweth that men are to geue themselues to the studye of the scripture, for euen that doth make them wise.

standyng in the syght of the people, that they may heare all these ordinaunces, and say: Surely it is a wise and vnderstandyng people, it is a great nation.

7 For what other nation is so great that gods come so nye vnto, as the Lorde our God is nye (f) vnto vs in all thinges as oft as we call vnto hym:

8 Yea, and what nation is so great, that hath ordinaunces & lawes so righteous, as all this lawe which I set before you this day:

9 Take heede to thy selfe therefore, and kepe thy soule diligently, that thou forget not the thynges which thyne eyes haue seene, and that they depart not out of thy heart all the dayes of thy life: but *teache them thy sonnes, & thy sonnes sonnes.

10 Specially the day that thou stoodest before the Lorde thy God in Horeb, when the Lorde sayd vnto me: Gather me the people together, & I wyll make them heare my wordes, that they may learne to feare me all the dayes that they shall lyue vpon the earth, *and that they may teache their children.

11 Ye came* and stoode also vnder the mountayne, and the mountayne (g) burnt with fire euen vnto the middes of heauen, and there was darkenesse, cloudes, and mist.

12 And the Lorde spake vnto you out of the middes of the fire, and ye hearde the voyce of the wordes: *but sawe no similitude, saue hearde a voyce only.

13 And he declared vnto you his couenaunt which he commaunded you to do [euen] ten commaundementes, which he wrote vpon two tables of stone.

14 And the Lorde commaunded me that same season that I shoulde teache you ordinaunces & lawes, which ye ought to do in the lande whyther ye go to possesse it.

15 Take therfore good heede vnto your selues as pertaynyng vnto your soules, (h) (for ye sawe no maner of image in the day that the Lorde spake vnto you in Horeb, out of the middes of fire)

16 Lest ye marre your selues, & make you a grauen image, & picture of any maner of figure, whether it be the likenesse of man or woman.

17 The likenesse of any maner of beast that is on the earth, or the likenesse of any maner fethered foule that fleeth in the ayre,

18 Or the likenesse of any maner worme that creepeth on the earth, or the likenesse of any maner fishe that is in the waters beneath the earth:

19 Yea, and lest thou lift vp thyne eyes vnto heauen, and when thou seest the sunne, the moone, and the starres, with all the hoast of heauen, shouldest be driuen to worship them, & serue them, and shouldest worship and serue the thynges, which the Lorde thy God hath made to serue all nations vnder the whole heauen. Deut.vii.a. Sapi 14.a. Iob.xxxi.c. Gen.i.b.

20 But the Lorde hath taken you, and brought you out of the (i) iron furnace, euen out of Egypt, to be vnto hym a people & inheritaunce, as ye be this day. (i) Most harde and cruel bondage.

21 Furthermore, the Lorde was angry with me for your wordes, and sware that I shoulde not go ouer Iordane, and that I shoulde not go in vnto that good lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee to inheritaunce. D

22 But I must dye in this lande, and shal not go ouer Iordane: But ye shall go ouer, and possesse that good lande.

23 Take heede vnto your selues, that ye forget not ỹ appoyntment of the Lorde your God which he made with you, & that ye make you no grauen (k) image or likenesse that the Lorde thy God hath forbidden thee. (k) To represent God, or to worship it. this so often forbidden of images declareth howe detestable idolatrie is in gods sight: and also that God did foresee that ỹ people should abandone thē selues to suche wickednes.

24 For the Lorde thy God, is a (l) consumyng fire, and a (m) ielous God. (l) To them that come not to hym in reuerence and feare, but contrarywise resist hym. (m) So that he will not suffer his honour to be geuen to any other.

25 When thou shalt beget children, and thy children beget children, and shalt haue remayned long in the lande, ye do wickedly, & make any maner of grauen *image, and worke euyll in the sight of the Lorde thy God, to prouoke hym to anger:

26 I call heauen and earth to record agaynst you this day, that ye shall shortly perishe from of ỹ lande wherunto you go ouer Iordane to possesse it: Ye shall not prolong your dayes therin, but shall vtterly be destroyed:

27 And the Lord shall scatter you among the people, and ye shalbe left fewe in number among the nations whyther the Lorde shall bryng you. E

28 And there ye shall serue gods which are the worke of mans hande, wood and stone, which neither see, nor heare, nor eate, nor smell.

29 *If from thence thou shalt seke the Deu.xxx.a.

Lorde thy God, thou ſhalt finde hym, if thou ſeke hym with all thy heart, and with all thy ſoule.

30 When thou art in tribulation, & when all theſe thynges that be here ſpoken of, are come vpon thee, euen in the latter dayes yf thou turne to the Lorde thy God, & ſhalt be obedient vnto his voyce:

31 (For the Lorde thy God is a mercifull God) he wyll not forſake thee, neither deſtroy thee, *nor forget the appoyntment of thy fathers, which he(n) ſware vnto them.

(n) God confirmeth his promiſes by an othe, to thend we may be the more certified of the hope of our ſaluation.

33 Dyd euer any people heare the voyce of God ſpeakyng out of the middes of a fire, as thou haſt hearde, and yet lyued?

34 Or hath God aſſayed to go and take hym a people from among nations, by temptations, by ſignes, by wonders, by warre, by a mightie hand, by a*ſtretched out arme, & by great ſightes, accordyng vnto all that the Lorde your God dyd vnto you in Egypt before your eyes?

Pſal.136.b.

35 Vnto thee it was ſhewed, that thou mighteſt knowe that the Lord is God, and that there is none other but he.

36 *Out of heauen he made thee heare his voyce, that he might inſtruct thee: & vpon earth he ſhewed thee his great fire, and thou heardeſt his worde out of the middes of the fire.

39 Underſtande therfore this day, and conſider it in thyne heart, that the Lorde he is God in heauen aboue, and vpon the earth beneath, neither is there any other.

40 Thou ſhalt kepe therefore his ordinaunces and his commaundementes which I commaunde thee this day, that it may go well with thee, and with thy children after thee, and (p) that thou mayeſt prolong thy dayes vpon ẏ earth, which the Lorde thy God geueth thee for euer.

(p) God promiſeth reward to men, not by that they deſerue it, but to make them chearefull in well doing, and to ſhew that they ſhal not ſerue him in vayne.

¶ The v. Chapter.

5 Moyses is the meane betweene God and the people. 6 The lawe is repeated. 23 The people are afrayde at Gods voyce. 29 The Lorde wisheth that the people woulde feare hym. 32 They must neither decline to the ryght hande, nor left.

A 1 AND Moyses called all Israel, and sayde vnto them: Heare O Israel the ordinaũces and lawes which I speake in your eares this day, that ye may learne them, and (a) fulfill them in deede.

2 The Lord our God made a couenaunt with vs in Horeb.

3 The Lorde (b) made not this couenaunt with our fathers, but with vs: euen with vs, which are all here alyue this day.

4 The Lorde talked with you (c) face to face in the mount, out of the middes of the fire:

5 And I stoode betweene the Lorde and you the same tyme, and shewed you the worde of the Lord: For ye were afrayde at the sight of the fire, and went not vp into the mount, and he sayde:

6 (d) I am the Lorde thy God, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, from the house of bondage.

B 7 Thou shalt haue none other Gods in my presence.

8 Thou shalt (e) make thee no grauen image, or any likenesse of that which is in heauen aboue, and that is in earth beneath, and that is in the waters beneath the earth.

9 Thou shalt neither bowe thy selfe vnto them, nor serue them: for I the Lord thy God, am a ielouse God, visityng the wickednesse of the fathers vpon the children, euen vnto the third and fourth generation among them that hate me:

10 And shewe mercie vpon thousandes, among them that loue me, and kepe my commaundementes.

c 11 *Thou shalt not take the name of the Lorde thy God in vayne: for the Lorde wyll not holde him giltlesse that taketh his name in vayne.

12 Kepe the Sabbath day, that thou sanctifie it as the Lorde thy God hath commaunded thee.

C 13 *Sixe dayes thou shalt labour, and do all that thou hast to do:

14 But the *seuenth day is the Sabbath of the Lorde thy God: thou shalt not do any worke, thou nor thy sonne, nor thy daughter, nor thy man seruaunt, nor thy mayde, nor thine oxe, nor thine asse, nor any of thy cattell, nor the straunger that is within thy gates: that thy man seruaunt, and thy mayde, may rest as well as thou.

15 Remember that thou wast a seruaunt in the lande of Egypt, and howe that the Lorde thy God brought thee out thence, through *a mightie hande and a stretched out arme: For which cause the Lorde thy God commaunded thee to kepe the Sabbath day. Psal.136.b.

16 *Honour thy (f) father & thy mother, as the Lorde thy God hath commaunded thee: that thy dayes may be prolonged, and that it may go well with thee in the lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee. Exod xx.b.

(f) By this name father, he comprehendeth also all those that are in degree of superiorities: as princes, magistrates, maisters, and maistresses.

17 Thou (g) shalt not slay.

18 Thou shalt not commit adulterie.

19 Thou shalt not steale.

20 Thou shalt not beare false witnesse agaynst thy neyghbour.

(g) He forbiddeth not onlye the outwarde act, but also all rancour & outrage against our neighbour

D 21 *Thou shalt not lust after thy neyghbours wyfe, thou shalt not couet thy neyghbours house, his fielde, his seruaunt, or his mayde, his oxe, his asse, or ought that thy neyghbour hath. Rom.vii.b.

22 These wordes the Lorde spake vnto all your multitude in the mount, out of the middes of the fire, of the cloude, and of the darkenesse, with a great voyce, and (h) added nothyng: and wrote them in two tables of stone, and deliuered them vnto me.

(h) That we should do the lyke.

23 And it came to passe, that when ye hearde the voyce out of the middes of the darkenesse (for the mountayne dyd burne with fire) then ye came vnto me, with the captaynes of your tribes, and your elders,

24 And ye sayde: Beholde, the Lorde our God hath shewed vs his glorie and his greatnesse, and *we haue heard his voyce out of the middes of the fire: we haue seene this day that God doth talke with man, and he yet lyueth. Exod. xix.d

25 Nowe therfore why shoulde we dye: that this great fire shoulde consume vs: If we heare the voyce of the Lord our God,

God any moze, We ſhall dye:

(i) The ſcripture doth oftē vſe this word (fleſhe) to ſhewe that mā is a brittle and fraple thyng.

26 Foz What (i) fleſhe hath it ben that euer heard the voyce of the lyuyng God ſpeakyng out of the middes of the fire (as we haue done) and yet dyd lyue?

27 Go thou and heare all that the Lozde our God ſayth, and tell thou vnto vs all that the Lozd our God ſayth vnto thee, * and We Wyll heare it, and do it.

Exod.xix.a

28 And the Lozde heard the voyce of your Wozdes When ye ſpake vnto me, and the Lozde ſayde vnto me: I haue heard the voyce of the Wozdes of this people, Which they haue ſpoken vnto thee: they haue Well ſayde all that they haue ſpoken.

Ier.xxiiii.b.

29 * Oh that there Were ſuch an heart in them that they Woulde feare me, & kepe all my cōmaundementes alWay, that it myght go Well With them, and With their chilren foz euer?

30 Go, and ſay vnto them, Get you into your tentes agayne:

31 But ſtande thou here by me, and I Wyll tell thee all the cōmaundementes, ozdinaunces, & laWes, Which thou ſhalt teache them, that they may do them in the lande Which I geue thē to poſſeſſe.

32 Take heede therfoze that ye do in deede as the Lozd your God hath commaunded you, and (k) turne not aſide, either to the right hande, oz to the left:

(k) ye ſhall neither put any thyng to my Wozd, nor take therefro.

33 But Walke in all the Wayes Which the Lozde your God hath cōmaunded you, that ye may lyue, and that it may go Well With you, and that ye may pzolong your dayes in the lande Which ye ſhall poſſeſſe.

The. vj. Chapter.

1 THeſe are the cōmaundemētes, ozdinaunces, and laWes, Which the Lozde your God commaunded me to teache you, that ye might do them in the lande Whither ye go to poſſeſſe it:

Deut.x.c.

2 Namely, that thou mighteſt * feare the Lozd thy God, & kepe all his ozdinaunces and his commaundementes Which I commaunde thee, thou & thy ſonne, & thy ſonnes ſonne all the dayes of thy lyfe: that thy dayes may be pzolonged.

3 Heare therfoze O Iſrael, and take heede that thou do it, that it may go Well With thee, & that ye may encreaſe mightily, euen as the Lozde God of thy fathers hath pzomiſed thee, a lande that (a) floweth With mylke and honie.

(a) Which hath great ſtore of all thynges partetynyng to mans lyfe.

4 Heare O Iſrael, the Lozde our God is Lozde only.

Deut.xi.d.

6 * And theſe Wozdes Which I commaunde thee this day, ſhalbe in thine heart:

7 And thou ſhalt ſhewe them vnto thy chilzen, and ſhalt talke of them When thou art at home in thine houſe, and as thou Walkeſt by the Way, & When thou lyeſt doWne, and When thou riſeſt vp.

8 And thou ſhalt binde them foz a ſigne vpon thine hande, and they ſhalbe as frontlettes betWeene thine eyes, 9 And thou ſhalt Wzite them vpon the (b) poſtes of thy houſe, & vpon thy gates.

10 And When the Lozde thy God hath bzought thee into the lande Which he ſWare vnto thy fathers, Abzaham, Iſahac, and Jacob, and ſhall geue to thee great & goodly cities Which thou buildedſt not,

11 Houſes full of all maner of goodes Which thou filledſt not, & Welles digged Which thou diggedſt not, vineyardes and oliue trees Which thou plantedſt not, and When thou haſt eaten & art full:

12 Then beWare leſt thou forget ỹ Lozde Which bzought thee out of the lande of Egypt from the houſe of bondage.

Deut.x.d.

13 * Thou ſhalt feare the Lozde thy God and ſerue hym, and ſhalt (c) ſWeare by his name.

(c) By lawfull sWearing that the Lord is our God.

14 See that ye Walke not after ſtraunge gods, the gods of the nations Which are about you:

C

15 (Foz the Lozde thy God is a ielous God among you) leſt the countenaunce of the Lozde thy God be moued to Wzath agaynſt thee, and deſtroy thee from the face of the earth.

Matth.iiii.b.

16 * Ye ſhall not tempt the Lozde your God,

God, as ye dyd in the place of temptation.

17 But you shall diligently kepe the commaundementes of the Lord your God, & his testimonies, and his ordinaunces which he hath commaunded thee:

18 And thou shalt do that which is right & good in the (b) sight of the Lorde: that thou mayest prosper, & that thou mayest go in & possesse that good lande whiche the Lorde sware vnto thy fathers, 19 To cast out all thyne enemies before thee, as the Lorde hath sayde.

20 And (c) when thy sonne asketh thee in tyme to come, saying: What meaneth these testimonies, ordinaunces, and lawes, which the Lorde our God hath commaunded you:

21 Then thou shalt say vnto thy sonne: We were Pharaos bondmen in Egypt, and the Lorde brought vs out of Egypt with a mightie hande:

22 And the Lorde shewed signes, and wonders, great and euyll vpon Egypt, vpon Pharao, and vpon all his housholde, before our eyes:

23 And brought vs out from thence, to bring vs in and to geue vs the lande which he sware vnto our fathers.

24 And he hath commaunded vs to do al these ordinaunces, & to feare the Lorde our God for our wealth all the dayes of our life, as it is come to passe this day.

25 Moreouer, this shalbe our (f) righteousnesse before the Lorde our God, yf we take heede, & kepe all these commaundementes, as he hath commaunded vs.

(f) No man can perfectly fulfill ỹ lawes therefore we must haue recourse to Christe, by fayth in whom we are reputed for iust.

¶ The. vij. Chapter.

1 The Israelites may make no couenaunt with the Gentiles. 5 They must destroy their idols. 8 The election dependeth on the free loue of God. 19 The experience of the power of God ought to confirme vs. 25 To auoyde all occasion of idolatrie.

1 When the Lorde thy God shall bring thee into ỹ lande whither thou goest to possesse it, and hath cast out many nations before thee: Namely the Hethites, the Gergesites, the Amorites, the Chanaanites, the Pherezites, the Heuites, and the Jebusites, seuen nations, greater and mightier then thou:

2 *And when the Lorde thy God hath set them before thee, thou shalt smyte them, and vtterly destroy them, & make no couenaunt with them, nor haue compassion on them.

3 Thou shalt make no mariages with them: neither geue thy daughter vnto his sonne, nor take his daughter vnto thy sonne.

4 For they will deceaue thy sonne, that he should not followe me, and they shall serue straunge gods: and then will the wrath of the Lorde ware hot agaynst thee, and destroy thee sodenly.

5 But thus ye shall deale with them: (a) Ye shall ouerthrowe their aulters, & breake downe their pillers, cut downe their groues, and burne their grauen images with fire:

6 *For thou art an holy people vnto the Lorde thy God, *the Lorde thy God hath chosen thee, to be a speciall people vnto hym selfe, aboue all nations that are vpon the earth.

7 The Lorde dyd not set his loue vpon you, nor chose you because ye were mo in number then any people (for ye were the fewest of all people) B

8 But because the Lorde loued you, and because he would kepe the *othe which he had sworne vnto your fathers, therfore hath the Lorde brought you out through a mightie hande, and deliuered you out of the house of bondage, euen from the hande of Pharao kyng of Egypt. Gen.xxii.e.

9 Understande therfore, that the Lorde thy God he is God, a true God, *which kepeth appoyntment and mercy vnto them that loue hym and kepe his commaundementes, euen throughout a thousande generations: Exod.xx.a.

10 And rewardeth them that hate hym to their (b) face, so that he bringeth them to naught, and doth not deferre the tyme, but rewardeth hym that hateth hym before his face.

(b) Manifestly, or in this lyfe.

11 Kepe thou therfore the commaundementes, and ordinaunces, and lawes, whiche I commaunde thee this day, that thou do them.

(c) This couenaunt is grounded vpō his free grace: therfore in recompensing their obedience he hath respect to his mercy, & not to their merites.

12 If ye hearken vnto these lawes, and obserue & do them: the Lorde thy (c) God also also shall kepe vnto thee the appoyntment and the mercy whiche he sware vnto thy fathers.

13 He wyll loue thee, and blesse thee, and multiplie thee: he wyll also blesse the fruite of thy wombe, and the fruite of thy lande, thy corne, thy wine, and thine oyle, and the increase of thy kine, and the flockes of thy sheepe, in the lande whiche he sware vnto thy fathers to geue thee.

℣ 14 Thou shalt be blessed aboue all nations: there shalbe neither man nor woman vnfruitfull among you, nor any of your cattell shalbe barren.

Exo.xxiii.d 15 Moreouer the Lord wyll take away from thee all maner infirmities, and Exod.ix.a. wyll put none of the euyll diseases of Egypt (whiche thou knowest) vpon thee: but will sende them vpon all them that hate thee.

16 Thou shalt consume all the nations which the Lorde thy God shall deliuer thee: thine eye shall haue no pitie vpon them, neither shalt thou serue their gods, for that shalbe thy decay.

17 If thou say in thyne heart: these nations are mo then I, howe can I cast them out:

Deut.xx.a. 18 *Thou shalt not feare them: but remember what the Lorde thy God dyd Iosu.viii.a. vnto Pharao and vnto all Egypt.

19 The great temptations which thyne eyes saw, and the signes and wonders, and the mightie hande, and stretched out arme, whereby the Lorde thy God brought thee out: euen so shall the Lord thy God do vnto all nations of whom thou art afrayde.

20 *Moreouer the Lorde thy God wyll sende (d) hornets among them, vntil they that are left and hide them selues from thee be destroyed.

Exo.xxiii.d Ios.xxiiii.c (d) There is not so smalle creature whiche I wyll not arme to fight on thy syde against them.

21 Thou shalt not feare them: for the Lorde thy God is among you, a mightie God and a terrible.

22 For the Lorde thy God wyll put out these nations before thee by a litle and a litle: * thou mayest not consume them at once, lest the (e) beastes of the fielde increase vpon thee.

Exo.xxiii.d (e) So that is your commoditie that God accomplisheth not his promise so soone as we would wishe.

23 But the Lorde thy God shall geue them ouer before thee, and shall destroy them with a mightie destruction, vntyll he haue brought them to naught.

The xlviii. Chapter.

2 God humbleth the Israelites to trye what they haue in their heart. 5 God chastiseth them as his children. 14 The heart ought not to be proude for Gods benefites. 19 The forgetfulnesse of Gods benefites causeth destruction.

7 For the Lorde thy God bryngeth thee into a good lande, a lande in the whiche are riuers of water, and fountaines and deapthes that spring out of valleys and hylles:

9 A lande wherin thou shalt eate bread without scarcenes, neither shalt thou lacke any thyng: a land whose (p) stones are iron, and out of whose hylles thou shalt digge brasse.

10 When thou hast eaten (q) therfore & filled thy selfe, thou shalt blesse the Lorde thy God for the good lande whiche he hath geuen thee.

11 Beware that thou forget not the Lorde thy God, that thou wouldest not kepe his cōmaundementes, his lawes, and his ordinaunces, whiche I com-maunde thee this day:

13 And when thy beastes and thy sheepe are waxen many, and thy siluer and golde is multiplied, and all that thou hast is encreased:

14 Then beware lest thyne (t) heart ryse, and thou forget the Lorde thy God, whiche brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and from the house of bondage:

15 And whiche was thy guyde in the great and terrible wylderneſſe [wherein were] fiery serpentes, scorpions, and drouth without any water: But he brought out water for thee, euen out of the rocke of flint.

16 He fed thee in the wylderneſſe with Manna, which thy fathers knewe not, euen for to humble thee, and to proue thee, and that he might so do thee good at thy latter ende,

17 Lest thou shouldest say in thine heart, *my power (g) and the myght of myne owne hande hath prepared me this a-boundaunce:

18 But remember the Lorde thy God, for it is he whiche geueth thee power to get (h) substaunce, for to make good the promise whiche he sware vnto thy fa-thers, as appeareth this day.

¶ The .ix. Chapter.

4 God doeth them not good for their owne righteousnesse, but for his owne sake. 7 Moyses putteth them in remembraunce of their sinnes. 17 The two tables are broken. 26 Moyses prayeth for the people.

1 HEare O Israel, thou passest ouer Jordane (a) this day, to go in and possesse nations great and mightier then thy selfe, cities great and walled vp to heauen:

2 A people great & tall, euen the children of the Anakims, whiche thou knowest of, & of whom thou hast heard say, Who wyll stand before the children of Anac?

3 Understande therefore this day, that the Lorde thy God is euen he whiche goeth ouer before thee as a consuming (b) fire, he shall destroy them, and he shall bryng them downe before thy face: So thou shalt caste them out, and bryng them to naught quickly, as the Lorde hath sayde vnto thee.

4 (c) Speake not thou in thyne heart, after that the Lorde thy God hath cast them out before thee, saying, for my ryghte-ousnesse the Lorde hath brought me in, to possesse this lande: but for the wic-kednesse of these nations the Lord hath cast them out before thee.

(c) If we deserue not worldly thyn-ges, much lesse spirituall thynges.

5 It is not for thy righteousnesse sake, or for thy right heart, that thou goest to possesse their lande: * But for the wic-kednesse of these nations, the Lord thy God doth cast them out before thee, euē to performe the worde whiche the Lord thy God sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob.

Leui. xx.d.

6 Understand therfore that it is not for thy righteousnes sake, that the Lorde thy God doth geue thee this good lande to possesse it, seyng thou art a (e) stifnecked people.

(e) As an vntractable ore that refuseth the yoke.

7 Remember (f) & forget not, howe thou prouokedst the Lorde thy God in the wildernesse, since the day that thou diddest depart out of the lande of Egypt, vntyll ye came vnto this place, ye haue rebelled agaynst the Lorde.

(f) This he saith, for that it is most necessarie to haue men brought to the acknowledgyng of their sinnes.

8 Also in Horeb" ye prouoked the Lord to anger, so that the Lorde was wroth with you, euen to haue destroyed you.

" Or Sinai. Exo. xvii. b. and. xxxii. c

9 When I was gone vp into the mount, to receaue the tables of stone, the tables of the couenaunt which the Lord made with you, and I abode in the mount fourtie dayes & fourtie nightes, whē I neither did eate bread nor drinke water.

10 And the Lorde deliuered me two tables of stone, written with the (g) finger of God, and in them was contayned all the wordes whiche the Lorde laide vnto you in the mount out of ỹ middes of fire, in the day when ye came together.

(g) After a diuine maner, & not by the deuice of man.

11 And when the fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes were ended, the Lorde gaue me the two tables of stone, the tables of the couenaunt.

12 And the Lord sayde vnto me: *Arise, and get thee downe quickly from hence, for thy people which thou hast brought out of Egypt, haue (h) marred all: They are turned at once out of the waye which I commaunded them, and haue made them a moulten image.

Exod 32. b.

(h) When doynges are corrupt, when they depart from their obedience to god.

13 Furthermore, the Lorde spake vnto me, saying: I haue seene this people, and beholde it is a stifnecked people.

14 (i) Let me alone, that I may destroy them, & put out the name of them from vnder heauen, and I wyll make of thee a mightie nation, & greater then they be.

(i) Meaning that godly mens prayers do stay Gods vengeaunce.

15 And I turned me, and came downe from the hyll, euen from the hyll that burnt with fire, and the two tables of the couenaunt were in my handes.

16 And I loked, and beholde ye had sinned against the Lorde your God, and had made you a moulten calfe, and had turned at once out of the way whiche the Lorde had commaunded you.

17 *And I toke the two tables, and cast them out of my two handes, and brake (k) them before your eyes.

Exod. 32. d.

(k) Moyses did this of a godly zeale, & not of any humaine passion.

18 *And I fell downe flat before the Lord euen as at the first time, & fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes I did neither eate bread nor drinke water, because of all your sinnes which ye sinned, in doyng wickedly in the sight of the Lorde in that ye prouoked hym vnto wrath.

Exod. 34. d. and. 34. d.

19 (For I was afrayde, that for the wrath and fiercenes wherwith the Lord was moued agaynst you, he would haue destroyed you) But the Lorde heard me at that tyme also.

20 The Lorde was very angry with Aaron also, euen to haue (l) destroyed hym: and I made intercession for Aaron also the same tyme.

(l) This sheweth how daungerous a thing it is for rulers to suffer wickednesse to be committed.

21 And I toke your sinne, the calfe which ye had made, and burnt hym with fire, and stamped hym, and grounde hym very small, euen to dust: and I cast the dust therof into the brooke that descended out of the (m) mount.

D

(m) Horeb, or Sinai.

22 Also at the burnyng place, at the place of temptyng, and * at the sepulchres of lust, ye prouoked the Lorde to anger.

Num. xi.

23 Likewise when the Lorde sent you from Cades Barnea, saying, go vp and possesse the lande which I haue geuen you: * you rebelled against the worde of the Lorde your God, and neither beleued him, nor hearkened vnto his voyce.

Actes. vii. f.

24 You haue ben rebellious vnto the Lorde since the day that I knewe you.

25 And I fell downe flat before the (n) Lorde fourtie dayes & fourtie nightes, as I fell downe before: for the Lorde sayde, he woulde destroy you.

(n) Declaryng hereby, that God wyll haue vs to continue in prayer.

26 I made intercession therfore vnto the Lord, and sayd: *O Lord God, destroy not thy people and thyne inheritaunce whiche thou hast deliuered through thy great goodnesse, and whiche thou hast brought out of Egypt thorowe a myghtie hande.

Exod. 34. a.

27 (o) Remember thy seruauntes, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, and looke not vnto the stubbernesse of this people, nor to their wickednesse and sinne:

(o) That is, thy promise made to them.

28 Lest the lande whence thou broughtest them, say, The Lorde is not able to bryng them into the land which he promised them, and because he hated them, therefore hath he caryed them out to slay them in the wyldernesse.

29 Beholde, they are thy people, & thyne inheritaunce, whiche thou broughtest out in thy myghtie power, and in thy stretched out arme.

5 The seconde tables put in the arke. 8 The tribe of Leui is dedicate to the seruice of the tabernacle. 12 What the Lorde requireth of his. 16 The circumcision of the heart. 17 God regardeth not the person. 21 The Lorde is the prayse of Israel.

AT the same season the Lorde sayde vnto me: hewe thee two tables of stone lyke vnto the first, and come vp vnto me into the mount, and make thee an arke of wood.

2 And I wyll wryte in the tables, the wordes that were in the first tables whiche thou brakest, and thou shalt put them in the arke.

3 And I made an arke of (a) Sittim wood, and hewed two tables of stone* lyke vnto the first, and went vp into the mountayne, hauyng the two tables in myne hande.

4 And he wrote in the tables* according to the first wrytyng, the ten commaundementes whiche the Lord spake vnto you in the mount out of the myddes of the fire, in the day when (b) you were gathered together: and the Lorde gaue them vnto me.

5 And I departed, and came downe from the hyll, and *put the tables in the arke whiche I had made, and there they be, as the Lorde commaunded me.

6 *And the chyldren of Israel toke their iourney from Beroth of the chyldren of Jakan to Mosera, where (c) Aaron dyed and was buryed, and Eleazer his sonne became preest in his steade.

7 From thence they departed vnto Gudgodah: and from Gudgodah to Jethebath, a lande whiche hath riuers of waters.

8 *The same season the Lorde seperated the tribe of Leui, to beare the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde, and to stande before the Lorde, and to minister vnto hym, and to blesse (d) in his name vnto this day.

9 *Wherefore the Leuites haue no part nor inheritaunce with their brethren: but the Lorde (e) is their inheritaunce, as the Lorde thy God hath promised them.

10 *And I taryed in the mount, euen as at the first time, fourtie dayes and fourtie nyghtes: and the Lorde hearde me at that tyme also, and the Lorde would not destroy thee.

11 And the Lorde sayde vnto me: Arise, and go fooreth in the iourneys before the people, that they may go in and possesse the lande whiche I sware vnto their fathers to geue vnto them.

12 And now Israel, what doth the Lord thy God require of thee, * but to feare the Lorde thy God, and to walke in all his wayes, to * loue hym, and to serue the Lord thy God with all thyne heart, and with all thy soule:

13 Namely, that thou kepe the cõmaundementes of the Lorde, and his ordinaunces whiche I commaunde thee this day for thy wealth.

14 Beholde, heauen and the heauen of heauens, is the Lordes thy God, and the earth with all that therin is. ℭ

15 Notwithstandyng, the Lorde had a delight in thy fathers to loue them, and chose their seede after them, euen you aboue all nations, as thou seest this day.

16 (f) Circumcise therefore the foreskinne of your heart, and be no more stifnecked.

17 For the Lorde your God, is God of Gods, and Lorde of Lordes, a great God, a mightie and a terrible, * whiche regardeth no mans person, nor taketh rewarde.

18 He doth right vnto the fatherlesse and wydowe, and loueth the straunger, to geue hym foode and rayment.

19 *Loue ye therfore the straunger also: for ye were straungers your selues in the lande of Egypt.

20 *Thou shalt feare the Lord thy God, and hym only shalt thou serue, to hym shalt thou cleaue, and sweare by his name.

21 He is thy prayse, & thy God that hath done for thee these great and terrible thinges whiche thyne eyes haue seene. ℭ

22 Thy fathers went downe into Egypt *with threscore and ten persons: and nowe the Lorde thy God hath made thee & multiplied thee as the (g) starres of heauen.

8 Therefore shall ye kepe all the commaundementes whiche I commaunde thee this day, that ye may (c) be strong and go in and possesse the lande whyther ye go to possesse it:

9 And that ye may prolong your dayes in the lande whiche the Lorde sware vnto your fathers, to geue vnto them and to their seede, a lande that floweth with mylke and honie.

Deut.viii.d.

10 * For the lande whyther thou goest to possesse it, is not as the lande of Egypt that ye came out of, where thou sowedst thy seede, and (d) wateredst it with thy feete, as a garden of herbes.

11 But the lande whyther ye go ouer to possesse it, is a lande that hath hylles and valleys, and drinketh water of the rayne of heauen.

12 This lande doth the Lorde thy God care for, and the eyes of the Lorde thy God are alwayes vpon it, from the beginning of the yere, vnto the ende of the yere.

13 If (e) you shall hearken therefore vnto my commaundementes which I commaunde you this day, that ye loue the Lorde your God, and serue hym with all your heart, and with all your soule:

15 And I will sende grasse in thy fieldes for thy cattel, that thou mayest eate and fyll thy selfe.

16 But beware that your (g) heart deceaue you not, and ye turne aside, and serue straunge gods, and worshyp them:

Deu.xviii.e

31 * Nay, thou shalt not do so vnto the Lorde thy God: for all abhominations, and that which the Lorde hateth, the same haue they done vnto their gods.

(n) This declareth the extreme horrour of idolatrie, by which the paynims committed most vnnaturall villanie.

5 The inticers to idolatrie must be slayne, seeme they neuer so holy. 6 So neare of kinred or frendship. 12 Or great in multitude or power.

1 IF there aryse among (a) you a prophete or a dreamer of dreames, and geue thee a signe, or a wonder.

2 And that signe or wonder whiche he hath sayde come to passe, and then say: Let vs (b) go after straunge gods (which thou hast not knowen) and let vs serue them:

3 Hearken not thou vnto the wordes of that prophete or dreamer of dreames: For the Lorde thy God proueth you, to knowe whether (c) ye loue the Lorde your God with all your heart and with all your soule.

4 Ye shall walke after the Lorde your God, and feare him, kepe his commaundementes, and hearken vnto his voyce, you shall serue hym, & cleaue vnto hym.

5 And that prophete or dreamer of dreames shal die (d) because he hath spoken to turne you away from the Lorde your God whiche brought you out of the lande of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the house of bondage, to thrust thee out the way which the Lorde thy God commaunded thee to walke in) and therefore thou shalt put the euyll away from thee.

6 If (e) thy brother, the sonne of thy mother, or thine owne sonne, or thy daughter, or the wyfe that lieth in thy bosome, or thy frende whiche is as thyne owne soule vnto thee, entice thee secretely, saying: Let vs go and serue straunge gods (which thou hast not knowen, nor yet thy fathers)

7 And they be any of the gods of the people whiche are rounde about you: whether they be nye vnto thee or farre of frō thee, from the one ende of the earth vnto the other:

8 Thou shalt not consent vnto hym, nor hearken vnto hym, thyne eye shall not pitie hym, neither shalt thou haue compassion on hym, nor kepe hym secrete:

9 *But cause him to be slayne: (f) Thyne hande shalbe first vpon him to kill him, and then the handes of all the people.

Deu.xvii b. (d) Thou shalt cast the first stone at hym.

10 And thou shalt stone hym with stones that he dye: because he hath gone about to thrust thee away from the Lord thy God, whiche brought thee out of the lande of Egypt, and from the house of bondage.

11 And all Israel shall heare and feare, and shall do no more any suche wickednesse, as this is among you.

12 If thou shalt heare say in one of thy cities, whiche the Lorde thy God hath geuen thee to dwell in,

13 That certaine men beyng the children of Belial, are gone out frō among you, and haue moued the inhabiters of their citie, saying: let vs go and serue straunge gods, whiche ye haue not knowen:

14 Then thou must seeke, & make searche and enquire diligently: And behold, if it be true, & the thing of a suretie, that such abhomination is wrought among you: ℂ

15 Then thou shalt smyte the dwellers of that citie with the edge of the sworde, and destroy it vtterly, & all that is therin, and euen the very cattell therof, with the edge of the sworde:

16 And gather all the spoyle of it into the middes of the streate therof, and burne with fire both the citie and all the spoyle therof euery whyt for (g) the Lorde thy God: and it shalbe an heape for euer, and shall not be buylt agayne.

(e) In the honour of God, shewyng that god is honoured, in destroying them that rob hym of his honour. (f) Thou shalt saue no part of that spoyle.

17 And (h) there shal cleaue naught of the damned thyng in thyne hande, that the Lorde may turne from the fiercenesse of his wrath, and shew thee mercy, and haue compassion on thee, and multiplie thee, as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers.

18 *Therefore shalt thou hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to kepe all his commaundementes whiche I commaunde thee this day, that thou do that whiche is right in the eyes of the Lorde thy God.

AT the terme of seuen yeres, thou shalt make a freedome.

2 *And this is the maner of the freedome: who so euer(a) lendeth ought with his hande vnto his neighbour, may not aske agayne (that which he hath lent) of his neighbour or of his brother, because it is called the Lordes free yere:

3 Yet of a straunger thou mayst call it home agayne: but *he that is thy brother, hym shall thine hande remit.

4 Neuertheless, there(b) shalbe no begger among you: for the Lorde shall blesse thee in the lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee for an inheritaunce:

5 So that thou hearken vnto the voyce of the Lord thy God, to obserue and do all these commaundementes which I commaunde thee this day:

6 For the Lorde thy God hath blessed thee, as he hath promised thee, *and thou shalt lende vnto many nations, but thou thy selfe shalt not borowe: And thou shalt raigne ouer many nations, and they shall not raigne ouer thee.

7 If one of thy *brethren among you be poore within any of thy gates in thy lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee: thou shalt not harden thine heart, nor shut to thine hande from thy poore brother:

8 But thou shalt open thine hande vnto hym, and lende hym sufficient for his neede which he hath.

9 Beware that there be not a wicked thought in thine heart, that thou wouldest say, the seuenth yere, the yere of freedome is at hande: and therfore it greeueth thee to loke on thy poore brother, and geuest hym naught, and he then crye vnto the Lorde agaynst thee, and it be sinne vnto thee:

10 Thou shalt geue hym, and let it not greeue thine heart to geue vnto hym: Because that for this thyng the Lorde thy God shall blesse thee in all thy workes, and in all that thou puttest thine hande to.

11 *The lande shall neuer be without (c) poore: and therfore I cõmaunde thee, saying, Thou shalt open thine hande vnto thy brother that is needy & poore in thy lande.

12 *If thy brother an Hebrue sell hym selfe to thee, or an Hebrue woman, and serue thee sixe yeres, in the seuenth yere thou shalt let hym go free from thee.

13 And when thou sendest hym out free from thee, thou shalt not let hym go away emptie:

14 But(d) shalt geue hym of thy sheepe, of thy corne, and of thy Wine, and geue hym of that wherwith the Lorde thy God hath blessed thee.

15 And remember that thou wast a seruaunt in the lande of Egypt, and the Lorde thy God deliuered thee thence: and therfore I commaunde thee this thyng to day.

16 And if he say vnto thee, *I wyll not go away from thee: because he loueth thee and thine house, and is well at ease with thee:

17 Then shalt thou take an aule, & nayle his eare to the doore therwith, and let hym be thy seruaunt for euer: And vnto thy mayde seruaunt thou shalt do likewise.

18 And let it not greeue thine eye, when thou lettest him go out free frõ thee, for he hath ben worth a double hired seruaunt to thee in his seruice sixe yeres: And the Lord thy God shall blesse thee in all that thou doest.

19 *All the first males that come of thy cattell and of thy sheepe, thou shalt halowe vnto the Lorde thy God: Thou shalt do no worke with the first borne bullocke, nor sheare the first gendred of thy sheepe.

20 Thou shalt eate it before the Lorde thy God yere by yere, in the place which the Lorde shall choose, both thou and thy housholde.

21 If there be any blemishe therin: as if it be lame, or blynde, or haue any other euyll fauouredneste, thou shalt not offer it vnto the Lorde thy God:

22 But shalt eate it within thine owne gates, the vncleane and cleane person shal eate it alike, as the Roe & the Hart.

1 When the Lord thy God *hath rooted out the nations whose lande the Lorde thy God geueth thee, and thou succeedest in their inheritaunce, and dwellest in their cities, and in their houses:

2 Thou shalt (a) seperate three cities for thee in the middes of the lande Which the Lorde thy God geueth thee to possesse it:

3 Thou shalt (b) prepare the way, and deuide the coastes of thy lande Which the Lorde thy God geueth thee to inherite, into three partes, that *whosoeuer (c) committeth murther, may flee thyther.

4 For this cause must the slayer flee thyther, that he may lyue: who so kylleth his neighbour ignorauntly, and hated hym not in tyme passed:

5 And whē a man goeth vnto the wood with his neighbour to hewe wood, and as his hande fetcheth a stroke with the axe to cut downe the tree, the head slippeth from the helue, and smyteth his neighbour that he dyeth: the same shall flee vnto one of the same cities, and lyue:

6 Lest the auenger of the blood folowe after the slayer whyle his heart is hot, & ouertake hym because the wayes is long, and slay hym, and yet there is no cause (d) worthy of death in hym, in as much as he hated hym not in tyme passed.

7 Wherfore I commaunde thee, saying: Thou shalt appoynt out three cities for thee.

8 And if the Lorde thy God (e) enlarge thy coastes (as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers) and geue thee all the lande which he sayde he woulde geue vnto thy fathers:

9 Thou shalt kepe all these commaundementes to do them, Which I commaunde thee this day, that thou loue the Lorde thy God, and walke in his wayes euer: and adde three cities mo for thee beside these three,

10 That innocent blood be not shed in thy lande, Which the Lord thy God geueth thee to inherite, and (f) so blood come vpon thee.

11 But and if any man hate his neyghbour, and lay awayte for hym, and ryse agaynst hym, and smyte hym that he die, & then fleeth vnto any of these cities:

12 The (g) elders of his citie shall sende and fetch hym thence, and deliuer hym into the handes of the auenger of blood, that he may dye.

13 (h) Thine eye shall not spare hym, but thou shalt (i) put away [the crye of] innocent blood from Israel, that it may go well with thee.

14 Thou shalt not remoue thy neyghbours (k) marke, Which they of olde time haue set in thine inheritaunce, that thou shalt inherite in the lande Which the Lorde thy God geueth thee to enioy it.

15 *One witnesse shall not rise agaynst a man for any maner trespasse, or for any maner sinne, or for any maner fault that he offendeth in: * but at the mouth of two witnesses or of three witnesses shall the matter be stablished.

16 *If a false witnesse rise vp agaynst a man, to accuse hym of trespasse:

17 Then both the men which stryue together, shall stande (l) before the Lorde, before the priestes and the iudges which shalbe in those dayes:

18 And the iudges shall make diligent inquisition: and if the witnesse be founde false, and that he hath geuen false witnesse agaynst his brother:

19 Then shall ye do vnto hym, as he had thought to do vnto his brother, & thou shalt put euyll away from the middes of thee.

20 And other shall heare, and feare, and shall hencefoorth commit no more any such wickednesse among you.

17 Thou shalt not peruert the ryght of the straũger, (b) nor of the fatherlesse, nor take a wydowes rayment to pledge:

18 But remember that thou wast a seruaunt in Egypt, and howe the Lorde thy God deliuered thee thence: And therfore I commaunde thee to do this thyng.

19 *When thou cuttest downe thyne harueste in thy field, and hast forgot a sheafe in the fielde, thou shalt not go agayne to fet it: But it shalbe for the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wydowe: that the Lorde thy God may blesse thee in all the workes of thyne hande.

20 When thou beatest downe thine olyue tree, " thou shalt not search ỹ boughes agayne, to gather vp that thou lefteste behinde thee: but it shalbe for the straũger, the fatherlesse, and the wydowe.

" Or, gatherest thyne olyues.

21 When thou gatherest the grapes of " thy vineyarde, thou shalt not gather the grapes cleane after thee: but leaue them for the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wydowe.

" Or, grapes of the wyne.

22 And remember that thou also wast a seruaunt in the lande of Egypt: & therfore I cõmaunde thee to do this thyng.

¶ The .xxv. Chapter.

3 The beatyng of the offenders. 5 To rayse vp seede to the kinseman. 11 In what case a womans hande must be cut of. 13 Of iust waightes and measures. 19 To destroy the Amalekites.

1 IF there be strife betweene men, they shall come vnto the lawe, and let the Iudges geue sentence betweene them: and iustifie (a) the righteous, & condemne the vngodly.

2 And if any man be vngodly, and worthy of stryppes, then let the Iudge cause him to lye downe and to be beaten (b) before his face, accordyng to his trespasse, vnto a certayne number.

3 *Fourtie stripes he shall geue hym, and not passe: lest if he shoulde exceede, and beate hym aboue that with many stripes, thy brother should appeare despised and vile before thyne eyes.

4 *Thou shalt not moosell the oxe that treadeth out the corne.

5 *If brethren dwell together, and one of them dye, and haue no chylde, the wyfe of the dead shall not marry without vnto a straunger: but his " kinsman shall go in vnto her, & take her to wife, and occupie the rowme of his kinsman.

6 And the eldest sonne whiche she beareth, shall succeede in the name of his brother whiche is dead, that his name be not put out of Israel.

7 And if the man wyll not take his kinswoman, then let her go vp to the gate vnto the elders, and say: My kinsman refuseth to stirre (c) vp vnto his brother a name in Israel, neither wyll he marry me.

8 Then the elders of his citie shall call hym, and commune with hym: and if he stande and say, I wyll not take her:

9 Then shall his kinswoman come vnto hym in the presence of the elders, and loose his shoe of his foote, and spit in his face, and aunswere, and say: So shal it be done vnto that man, that doth not (d) buylde vp his brothers house.

10 And his name shalbe called in Israel, the vnshodhouse.

11 If (e) when men striue together one with another, the wife of the one drawe neare for to ryd her husbande out of the handes of hym that smyteth hym, and put foorth her hande and take hym by the secretes:

12 Thou shalt cut of her hande, and let not thyne eye pitie her.

13 Thou shalt not haue in thy bagge* two maner of wayghtes, a great and a small:

Leui. xix. g. Mich. vi. c.

14 Neither shalt thou haue in thine house diuers measures, a great and a small.

15 But thou shalt haue a right and iust waight, and a perfect and a iust measure shalt thou haue: that thy dayes may be lengthed in the lande which the Lorde thy God geueth thee.

16 For all that do such thynges, and all that do vnright, are abhomination vnto the Lorde thy God.

(a) That will not beget a childe to beare his kinsmans name.

(b) This ordinaunce declareth, that vnshamefastnesse in a woman is horrible, and therfore worthy of sharpe punishment.

17 *Remember what Amalech dyd vnto thee by the way, when ye were come out of Egypt.

18 How he met thee by the way, and smote the hyndmost of you, all that were feeble and came behynde, when thou wast faynted and weerie, and he feared not God.

19 Therfore when the Lorde thy God hath geuen thee rest from all thine enemies rounde about, in the lande which the Lord thy God geueth thee to inherite and possesse: see that thou put out the (b) remembraunce of Amalech from vnder heauen, and forget not.

12 When thou hast made an ende of tithing all the tithes of thyne encrease the thirde yere, which is the yere of tithing: thou shalt geue it vnto the Leuite, the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wydowe, that they may eate within thy gates, and fill them selues:

13 And (d) thou shalt say before the Lord thy God: I haue brought the halowed thinges out of thine house, and haue geuen them vnto the Leuite, the straunger, the fatherlesse, and the wydowe, according to all thy commaundementes whiche thou hast commaunded me: I haue not transgressed thy commaundementes, nor forgotten them.

(d) Then he protest with pure conscience hauing respect to God and not them to men.

52 And he shall kepe thee in, in all the cities, vntyll he haue cast downe thy hye walles and strong holdes, wherin thou trustedst, throughout all the lande: And he shall besiege thee in al thy cities throwout all the lande whiche the Lorde thy God hath geuen thee.

iiii. Reg vi. f 53 *And thou shalt eate the fruite of thine owne body, the flesshe (p) of thy sonnes, and of thy daughters, which the Lord thy God hath geuen thee, in that straitnesse and siege, wherewith thyne enemie shall inclose thee.

(p) This came to passe in Samaria, in the dayes of Eliseus the prophete, iii. Reg. vi. and in Hierusalem when it was besieged by the Emperour Titus, fourtie & two yeres after Christe.

55 For feare of geuyng vnto any of them of the flesshe of his children, whom he shall eate: because he hath nothyng left hym in that straitnesse and siege, wherwith thine enemie shall besiege thee in all thy cities.

56 Yea, and the woman that is so tender and delicate, that she dare not aduenture to set the sole of her foote vpon the grounde, for softnesse and tendernesse, shalbe greeued to loke on her husbande that lieth in her bosome, & on her sonne, and on her daughter,

(q) She shalbe so vexed with hunger, that she shall thinke it longer her childe be borne, that she might eate it. 57 And on her (q) afterbyrth that is come out from betweene her feete, and her children whiche she shall beare: For when all thinges lacke, she shall eate them secretly, duryng the siege & straitnesse wherewith thyne enemies shall besiege thee in thy cities.

Exod. xv. d. 58 *If thou wylt not kepe and do all the wordes of this lawe that are written in this booke, and feare this glorious and fearefull name, The Lorde thy God:

59 (r) The Lord wyll sende vnto thee and thy seede, great plagues, and of long continuaunce, euyll sicknesses, and of long duraunce:

(r) Some reade the text wyll seperate thy plagues meaning from other plagues so that this shalbe more greeuous and more notable.

60 Moreouer, he will bryng vpon thee all the diseases of Egypt, and those whiche thou wast afrayde of shall cleaue vnto thee.

61 And all maner sicknesses, and all maner plagues whiche are not written in the booke of this lawe, wyll the Lorde bryng vpon thee, vntyll he bryng thee to naught.

62 And ye shalbe lefte fewe in number, where before ye were as the (t) starres of heauen in multitude: because thou wouldest not hearken vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God.

(t) He alludeth to the promise made to Abraham. Gen. xv.

63 *And it shall come to passe, that as the Lord reioyced ouer you, to do you good, and to multiplie you: euen so he will reioyce ouer you, to destroy you, & to bring you to naught, and ye shalbe wasted from of the lande whyther thou goest to enioy it.

Iere. xxxi. c

64 And the Lord shal scatter thee among all nations, from the one ende of the worlde vnto the other: and there thou shalt serue straunge gods, whiche thou nor thy fathers haue knowen, euen wood and stone.

G

65 And among these nations thou shalt finde no ease, neither shall the (t) sole of thy foote haue rest: But the Lorde shal geue thee there an vnquiet heart, and dasing eyes, and sorowe of minde.

(t) Thou shalt be a vagabonde.

66 And thy life shall hang in doubt before thee, and thou shalt feare both day and nyght, and shalt haue none assuraunce of thy lyfe.

67 In the morning thou shalt say, Would God it were nyght: And at nyght thou shalt say, Would God it were morning, for feare of thyne heart whiche thou shalt feare, and for the sight of thyne eyes whiche thou shalt see.

68 And the Lorde shall bryng thee into Egypt agayne with (u) shippes by the way whiche I sayde to thee, thou shalt see it no more againe: And there ye shalbe solde vnto your enemies for bondmen and bondwomen, and no man shall bye you.

(u) Because they were vnthankefull to God for his miraculous deliuering of them by the parting of the redde sea.

¶ The .xxix. Chapter.

2 The people are exhorted to obserue the commaundementes. 10 The whole people from the hyest to the lowest are comprehended vnder Gods couenaunt. 19 The punishment of hym that flattereth hym selfe in his wickednesse. 24 The cause of Gods wrath agaynst his people.

1 THese are the wordes of the " couenaunt which the Lorde commaunded Moyses to make with the childzen of Israel in the lande of Moab, beside the appoyntment which he made with them in " Horeb.

2 And Moyses called all Israel, & sayde vnto them: Ye haue seene all that the Lorde did before your eyes in the lande of Egypt, vnto Pharao and vnto all his seruauntes, and vnto all his lande,

3 The great " temptations which thine eyes haue seene, those great miracles and wonders:

4 And yet (a) the Lorde hath not geuen you an heart to perceaue, and eyes to see, and eares to heare, vnto this day.

5 And I haue led you fourtie yeres in the wildernesse: and your clothes are not waxed olde vpon you, and thy shoe is not waxed olde vpon thy foote.

6 Ye haue eaten no (b) bread, nor drunke wine or strong drynke: that ye myght knowe howe that I am the Lorde your God.

7 *And ye came vnto this place, and Sehon the kyng of Hesbon, and Og the kyng of Basan came out agaynst vs vnto battayle, and we smote them,

8 And toke their lande, and gaue it for an inheritaunce vnto the Rubenites and Gadites, and to the halfe tribe of Manasse.

9 Kepe therfore the wordes of this couenaunt, and do them, that ye may (c) vnderstande all that ye ought to do.

10 Ye stande this day euery one of you before the (d) Lorde your God: your captaynes, your tribes, your elders, your officers, and all the men of Israel:

11 Your childrē also, your wiues, and the straunger that is in thine hoast, from the (e) hewer of thy wood, vnto the drawer of thy water:

12 That thou shouldest go into the (f) couenaunt of the Lorde thy God, and into his othe which the Lorde thy God maketh with thee this day:

13 For to make thee a people vnto hym selfe, and that he may be vnto thee a God, as he hath sayde vnto thee, and as he hath sworne vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob.

14 I make not this bonde and this othe with you only: ℭ

15 But both with hym that standeth here with vs this day before the Lorde our God, and also with hym that is (g) not here with vs this day.

(g) Meaning them that were yet vnborne.

16 For ye knowe howe we haue dwelt in the lande of Egypt, and howe we came through the myddes of the nations which ye passed by:

17 And ye haue seene their abhominations, and their idols, wood and stone, siluer and golde, which were among them.

18 Lest there be among you man or woman, kinrede or tribe, whose heart turneth away this day from the Lorde our God, to go and serue the gods of these nations: and lest there be among you some (h) roote that beareth gall and wormewood.

(h) That is, fraunc: the roote wherof must speedyly be cut vp, lest afterward the bitter fruite therof do choke the soule.

19 So that when he heareth the wordes of this othe, he " blesse hym selfe in his heart, saying: (i) I shall haue peace, I wyll walke in the meanyng of myne owne heart: to put the drunken to the thirstie.

" Or, Flatter

(i) No harme shall come to me.

20 And so the Lorde wyll not consent to be mercifull vnto hym, but then the wrath of the Lorde and his gelousie shall smoke agaynst that man: and all the curses that are written in this booke shall lyght vpon hym, and the Lorde shal do out his name from vnder heauē.

(k) For as the thirstie man desireth nothyng but drynke: so he that hath disordred lustes, can not be satisfied in them.

21 And the Lorde shall seperate hym vnto euyll, out of all the tribes of Israel, accordyng vnto all the curses of the couenaunt that are written in the booke of this lawe.

22 So that the generatiō to come of your children that shall ryse vp after you, and the straunger that shall come from a farre lande, shall say, when they see the plagues of that lande, and the diseases wherwith the Lorde hath smitten it:

23 Howe all the lande is burnt vp with brimstone and salt, and that it is neither sowen, nor beareth, nor any grasse groweth therin, lyke as in the place of Gen.xix.e. ỹ ouerthrowyng of * Sodome, Gomor, Adama, and Zeboim, which the Lorde ouerthrewe in his wrath and anger.
Iere.xxii.b. 24 Euen then shal all nations say: *Wherfore hath the Lord done on this fashion vnto this lande: O howe fierse is this great wrath:
25 And men shall say: Because they haue forsaken the couenaunt of the Lorde God of their fathers, which he made with them when he brought them out of the lande of Egypt.
26 For they went and serued straunge gods, and worshipped them, gods which they knewe not, and " which had geuen them nothyng.
" Or, which had not geuen them a lawe to possesse.
27 And the wrath of the Lorde wared hot agaynst this lande, to bryng vpon it all the curses that are written in this booke.
28 And the Lorde cast them out of their lande in anger, wrath, and great indignation, and cast them into a straunge lande, as this day beareth witnesse.
29 The (1) secretes of the Lorde our God are opened vnto vs, and to our children for euer, that we may do all the wordes of this lawe.
(1) He vnderstandeth the curious searchers of thynges reserued to gods secrete knowledge, neglecting the thynges reuealed by God, in his lawe.

The. xxx. Chapter.

1 Mercie shewed when they repent. 6 The Lorde doth circumcise the heart. 11 All excuse of ignorance is taken away. 19 Lyfe and death is set before them. 20 The Lorde is their lyfe which obey hym.

A 1 When all these wordes are come vpon thee, the blessyng and the curse whiche I haue set before thee, thou shalt (a) turne vnto thine heart, among all the nations whyther the Lorde thy God hath dryuen thee,
(a) By bryngyng to mynde both his fauour and his displeasure.
2 And come agayne vnto the Lorde thy God, and hearken vnto his voyce in all these thynges that I commaunde thee this day, thou, and thy children, with all thine heart, and all thy soule:
(b) That is, wyll chaunge his purpose, wyll reconcile hym selfe to thee.
3 And the Lorde thy God (b) wyll turne thy captiuitie and haue compassion vpon thee, and wyll turne and fetche thee agayne from all the nations among which the Lord thy God had scattered
B thee.
4 Though thou wast cast vnto the extreme partes of heauen: euen from thence wyll the Lorde thy God gather thee, and from thence will he fetch thee:
5 And the Lorde thy God wyll bryng thee into the lande whiche thy fathers possessed, and thou shalt enioy it: And he wyll shewe thee kindnesse, and multiplie thee aboue thy fathers.
(c) Wyll cut away thy vngodly lustes & affections.
6 And the Lorde thy God wyll (c) circumcise thine heart, and the heart of thy seede, that thou mayest loue the Lorde thy God, with all thine heart, and all thy soule, that thou mayest lyue.
7 And the Lorde thy God wyll put all these curses vpon thine enemies, and on them that hate thee, and that persecute thee.
8 But thou shalt turne, and hearken B vnto the voyce of the Lorde, and do all his commaundementes which I commaunde thee this day:
9 (And the Lorde thy God wyll make thee plenteous in al the workes of thine hande, in the fruite of thy body, and in the fruite of thy cattell, and in the fruite of thy lande, for thy wealth: * For the Lorde wyll turne agayne and (d) reioyce ouer thee to do thee good, as he reioyced ouer thy fathers.
Iere.xxxii.f.
(d) Not that God is subiect to affections: but hereby is set forth his fauour towarde repentaunt sinners.
10 If thou hearken only vnto the voyce of the Lorde thy God, to kepe his commaundementes and his ordinaunces which are written in the booke of this lawe, and if thou turne vnto the Lorde thy God with all thine heart and all thy soule.)
11 * For the commaundement which I cõmaunde thee this day, is (e) not hidden from thee, neither farre of.
Rom.x.b.
(e) Easy to vnderstande, not separate from thee. He meaneth, that the lawe is so playne, that none can pleade ignorance.
12 It is not in heauen, that thou needest to say: Who shall go vp for vs to heauen, and bryng it vnto vs, that we may heare it, and do it:
13 Neither is it beyonde (f) the sea, that thou shouldest say: Who shall go ouer the sea for vs, and bryng it vnto vs, that We may heare it, and do it:
(f) By heauen and the sea, he meaneth places very farre of.
14 But the worde is very nye vnto thee, euen in thy mouth, and in thine heart, that that thou do it.

15 * Beholde I haue set before thee this day, (g) lyfe and good, death and euyll:

16 For where as I commaunde thee this day, to loue the Lorde thy God, to walke in his wayes, and to kepe his commaundementes, his ordinaunces, and his lawes, [yf thou so do] thou shalt lyue and multiplie, and the Lorde thy God shall blesse thee in the lande whyther thou goest to possesse it.

17 But and yf thine heart turne away, so that thou wylt not heare, but shalt go astray and worshyp straunge gods, and serue them:

18 I pronounce vnto you also this day, that ye shall surely perishe, and that ye shall not prolong your dayes vpon the lande whyther thou passest ouer Jordane to go and possesse it.

19 * I call heauen and earth to recorde this day agaynst you, that I haue set before you, lyfe and death, blessyng and cursyng: Therfore (h) choose lyfe, that both thou and thy seede may lyue:

20 That thou mayest loue the Lord thy God, and be obedient to his voyce, and cleaue vnto hym: For he is thy life, & the length of thy dayes, that thou mayest dwell vpon the (i) earth, which the Lord sware vnto thy fathers, Abraham, Isahac, and Jacob, to geue them.

Deut. iiij. d.

(g) That is to saye, the loue and obedience to God: which is not performed by our owne strength, but by gods grace working in his elect.

(h) That is to saye, shew thy loue and obedience to God: which is not performed by our owne strength, but by gods grace working in his elect.

(i) Whereby is not onely meant ỹ land of Chanaan, but also ỹ heauenly inheritaunce whereof the other was a figure.

¶ The. xxxj. Chapter.

2.7 Moyses preparyng hym selfe to dye, appoynteth Josuah to rule the people. 9 He geueth the lawe to the Leuites, that they shoulde reade it to the people. 19 God geueth them a song as a witnesse betwene hym and them. 23 God confirmeth Josuah. 29 Moyses sheweth thē that they wyll rebell after his death.

A 1 AND Moyses went and spake these wordes vnto all Israel,

2 And sayd vnto them: I am an hundred and twentie yeres olde this day, and can no more (a) go out and in: Also the Lorde hath sayd vnto me, Thou (b) shalt not go ouer this Jordane.

3 The Lorde thy God he wyll go ouer before thee, and he wyll destroy these nations before thee, and thou shalt possesse them: And Josuah he shall go before thee, as the Lorde hath sayde.

4 And the Lorde shall do vnto them, as he dyd to * Sehon and Og kynges of the Amorites, and vnto the lande of them whom he destroyed.

5 And the Lorde shall geue them ouer (c) before your face, that ye may do vnto them accordyng vnto all the cōmaundementes which I haue cōmaunded you.

6 Plucke vp your heartes therfore, and be strong, dreade not, nor be afrayde of them: for the Lorde thy God hym selfe doth go with thee, he shall not fayle thee, nor forsake thee.

B 7 And Moyses called vnto Josuah, and sayd vnto him in the sight of all Israel: * Be strong & of good courage, for thou must go with this people vnto the lande which the Lord hath sworne vnto their fathers to geue them, and thou shalt geue it them to inherite.

8 And the Lorde he doth go before thee, he shalbe with thee, he shall not fayle thee, neither forsake thee: feare not therfore, nor be discomfyted.

9 And (d) Moyses wrote this lawe, and deliuered it vnto the priestes the sonnes of Leui which bare the arke of the testament of the Lorde, and vnto all the elders of Israel.

10 And Moyses cōmaunded them, saying: Euery (e) seuenth yere, in the solempnitie of the free yere, euen in the feast of tabernacles, 11 when all Israel is come to appeare before the Lorde thy God in the place which he hath chosen: thou shalt reade this lawe before all Israel, that they may heare it.

12 Gather the people together, men, women, and children, and the straunger that is within thy gates, that they may heare, and learne, and feare the Lorde your God, and kepe and obserue all the wordes of this lawe, 13 And that their children which knowe (f) nothyng, may heare, and learne to feare the Lorde your God, as long as ye lyue in the lande whyther ye go ouer Jordane to possesse it.

14 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Beholde, thy dayes are come that thou must dye: Call Josuah therfore, and stande ye in the tabernacle of the congregation,

(a) go out and in: Also the Lorde hath sayd vnto me, Thou (b) shalt not go ouer this Jordane.

(b) Before Moyses tyme the doctrine which conteyned the maner of seruyng God, was not putin writing, but only deliuered by word of mouth, by the fathers to the children, from one generation to another.

15 And the Lorde appeared in the tabernacle, euen in the piller of the cloude: and the * piller of the cloude stoode ouer the doore of the tabernacle.

Exod.33.d.

16 And the Lorde sayde vnto Moyses: Beholde, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and this people wyll ryse vp, and go (g) a whoryng after straunge gods of the lande whyther they go, and wyll forsake me, and breake the appoyntmēt which I haue made with them.

(g) Forsaking God, to whom they had plight their troth, as to their spouse.

17 And then my wrath wyll ware hot against them in that day, & I wil forsake them, & wyll (h) hide my face from them, and they shalbe consumed, and much aduersitie and tribulations shall come vpon them, so that then they wyll say: Are not these troubles come vpon me, because God is not with me?

(h) I wyll turne my face from them, as it is sayd that God sheweth vs his countenance whē he doth fauour vs.

18 And I also wyll surely hyde away my face in that day, for all the euyls sake which they shall haue wrought, in that they are turned vnto straunge gods.

19 Nowe therfore write ye this song for you, and teache it the children of Israel, and put it in their mouthes, that this song may be my witnesse agaynst the children of Israel.

20 For I wyll bryng them into the lande which I ware vnto their fathers, that floweth with mylke and honye: and they shall eate, and fyll them selues, and ware fat, and turne vnto straūge gods, and serue them, and blaspheme me, and breake my couenaunt.

¶ 21 And when much mischiefe and tribulation is come vpon them, this song shall (i) aunswere them as a witnesse: For it shall not be forgotten out of the mouthes of their seede: for I knowe their imagination, which they go about euen nowe, before I haue brought thē into the lande which I ware.

(i) Shal testifie to thē that are thus plagued for departyng from me.

22 Moyses therfore wrote this song the same day, and taught it the children of Israel.

23 And he gaue Iosuah the sonne of Nun a charge, and sayde: * Be bolde and strong, for thou shalt bryng the children of Israel into the lande which I ware vnto them: & I wil be with thee.

Iosu.1.a. iii.Regum

24 And when Moyses had made an ende of writing the wordes of this lawe in a booke, vntyll he had finished them,

25 Moyses commaunded the Luites, which bare the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde, saying:

26 Take ye the booke of this lawe, * and put it in the (k) syde of the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde your God, that it may be there for a (l) witnesse agaynst thee.

Deut.x.a.

27 For I knowe thy rebellion * and thy stiffe necke: whyle I am yet alyue with you this day, ye haue ben disobedient vnto the Lorde, and howe much more after my death?

28 Gather vnto me all the elders of your tribes, and your officers, that I may speake these wordes in their eares, and call heauen and earth to recorde against them.

D

29 For I am sure, that after my death ye will vtterly be corrupt, and turne from the way which I haue commaunded you: and tribulation wyll come vpon you in the latter dayes, because ye shall haue wrought wickednesse in the syght of the Lorde, to prouoke hym through (m) the workes of your handes.

(m) By worshipping ydoles, which your handes haue made.

30 And Moyses spake in the eares of all the congregation of Israel the wordes of this song, vntyll he had ended them.

¶ The .xxxij. Chapter.

7 The song of Moyses concernyng Gods benefites towarde the people. 15 And their ingratitude towarde hym. 20 God menaceth them, 21 And speaketh of the vocation of the Gentiles. 46 Moyses commaundeth to teache the lawe to the children. 48 God forewarneth Moyses of his death.

(n) The wutnesses of the vnthankfulnesse of this vnsensible people.

1 HEare O ye (a) heauens, and I shal speake, and let the earth heare the wordes of my mouth.

2 My doctrine shal drop as doth the rayne: and my speache shall flowe as doth the dewe, as the shoure vpon the herbes, and as the droppes vpon the (b) grasse.

(b) For vpon the herbes lay vpon y grasse, that is, tender and pleasaunt pasture.

3 For I wyll publishe the name of the Lord: Ascribe ye honour vnto our God.

5 Frowardly

5 Frowardly haue (c) they done agaynst hym by their (d) vices, not beyng his owne children, but a wicked and frowarde generation.

6 Do ye so reward the Lord, O foolishe nation and vnwise: *Is not he thy father that hath bought thee: *hath he nat made thee, and ordeyned thee:

7 Remember the dayes of the worlde that is past, consider the yeres of so many generations: *Aske thy father, and he wyll shewe thee, thy elders, and they wyll tell thee.

8 When the most hyest deuided to the nations their inheritaunce, and when he seperated the sonnes of Adam, he put the borders of the nations accordyng to the number of the children of Israel:

9 For the Lordes part is his people, and Jacob is the portion of his inheritaūce.

10 He founde hym in a desert lande, in a voyde grounde, and in a (o) roaryng wildernesse: he led hym about, he gaue hym understandyng, and kept hym as the apple of his eye.

11 As an Egle that stirreth vp her nest, and flittereth ouer her young, & spreadeth her wynges, taketh them, and beareth them on her wynges:

12 The Lorde alone was his guyde, and there was no straunge god with hym.

13 He caryed hym vp to the hygh places of the earth, that he myght eate the encrease of the fieldes: *And he fed hym with honye out of the rocke, and with oyle out of the most harde stone:

14 With butter of kine, and mylke of the sheepe, with fat of the lambes, and fat of rammes and hee goates, with the fat of the most plenteous wheate, and that thou myghtest drynke the most pure blood of the grape.

15 But he that shoulde haue ben vpright, when he waxed fat, (o) spurned with his heele: Thou art well fed, thou art growen thicke, thou art euen laden with fatnesse: And he forsoke God his maker, and regarded not the God of his saluation.

16 They prouoked hym to anger with straunge gods, euen with abhominations prouoked they hym.

17 *They offered vnto deuils, and not to God: euen to gods whom they knewe not, to newe gods that came newly vp, whom their fathers feared not.

18 Of God that begat thee thou art vnmyndfull, and hast forgotten God that made thee.

19 The Lorde therfore sawe it, and was angry: because of the prouokyng of his sonnes (e) and his daughters.

20 And he sayde: I wyll hyde my face from them, and wil see what their ende shalbe: For they are a very frowarde generation, childrē in whom is no faith.

21 They haue angred me with that which is no god, and prouoked me with their vanities: *And I also wyll prouoke them with those whiche are no people, I wyll anger them with a foolishe nation.

22 *For fire is kindled in my wrath, and burneth vnto the bottome of hell, and hath consumed the earth with her increase, and set a fire the botomes of the mountaynes.

23 I wyll heape mischiefes vpon them, & wyll destroy them with mine arrowes.

24 They shalbe burnt with hunger, and consumed with heate, and with bitter destruction: *I wyll also sende the teeth of beastes vpon them, with the furiousnesse of serpentes in the dust.

25 Without forth shall the sworde robbe them of their children, and within in the chamber feare: both young men & young women, and the suckelynges, with the men of gray heades.

26 I haue sayde, I wyll scatter them abrode, and make the remembraunce of them to ceasse from among men:

27 Were it not that I feared the wrath of the enemie, lest their aduersaries should (f) vtterly withdrawe thē selues, and lest they shoulde say: our hye hande hath done all this, and not the Lorde.

28 For it is a nation voyde of counsayle, neither is there any vnderstandyng in them.

29 O that they were wyse, and vnderstoode this, that they woulde consider their latter ende.

30 Howe shoulde one chase a thousande, & two put ten thousand to flyght, except their maker had solde them, and except the Lorde had " shut them vp:

31 For their god is not as our God: *our enemies also them selues are iudges.

¶ The .xxxiij. Chapter.

1 Moyses before his death blesseth all the tribes of Israel. 26 There is no God lyke to the God of Israel. 29 Nor any people lyke vnto his.

A (a) which is a foreshewyng of the mercies that GOD wolde afterward shew to the Israelites.

1 This is the (a) blessyng wherwith Moyses (b) the man of God blessed the children of Israel before his death, and sayde:

(b) The instrumente of ye holy ghost.

2 (c) The Lorde came from Sinai, and rose vp from Seir vnto them, and appeared from mount Pharan, & he came with ten thousande of saintes, and in his ryght hand a lawe of fire for them.

(c) Here Moyses bringeth the people in minde of the glorious reuealyng of the lawe.

3 And he loued the people, all (b) his saintes also are in thy handes: They were smitten to go after thy feete, and to receaue of thy wordes.

(b) The children of Israel.

4 Moyses gaue vs a lawe for (c) an inheritaunce of the congregation of Jacob:

(c) To instruct vs from age to age.

5 And he was in Israel king, when the heades of the people and the tribes of Israel were gathered together.

6 Let Ruben lyue, and not dye, and be fewe in number.

7 This same also happen to Juda: And he he sayde: Heare Lorde the voyce of Juda, & bryng him vnto his people: his handes shalbe good enough for hym, yf thou helpe hym agaynst his enemies.

8 And vnto Leui he sayde: (f) Thumim and Urim shalbe with thee, and with euery one that is godly in thee: Thou dyddest proue hym also in the temptation, & striuedst with hym at the waters of stryfe.

9 He that hath sayde (g) vnto his father & to his mother (I haue not seene hym) and he that knewe not his brethren, nor knewe his owne children, those are they that haue obserued thy worde, and shall kepe thy couenaunt.

10 They shall teache Jacob thy iudgementes, and Israel thy lawe: They shall put incense before thy nose, and the burnt sacrifice vpon thine aulter.

11 Blesse Lorde his " first fruites, and accept the worke of his handes: smyte the loynes of thē that rise agaynst him, and of them that hate hym, that they ryse not agayne.

12 And of Benianin he sayde: The beloued of the Lorde shall dwell in safetie vpon hym, and the Lorde shall couer hym all the day long, and he shall dwell betweene his shoulders.

13 And of Joseph he sayde: Blessed of the Lorde is his lande for the " fruites of heauen, through the deawe & springes that lye beneath,

14 And for the sweete fruites of the increase of the sunne, and rype fruites of the moone:

15 For the first fruites of the principall mountaynes, and for the fruites that the hylles bryng foorth for euer:

16 And for the fuites of the earth, and fulnesse therof: and for the good wyll of (h) hym that dwelt in the bushe, shall the blessing come vpon the head of Joseph, and vpon the toppe of the head of hym that was seperated from among his brethren.

17 His first borne ore hath beautie, and his hornes are as the hornes of an vnicorne, and with them he shall trouble the nations together, euen vnto the endes of the worlde: These are also ten thousandes of Ephraim, and the thousandes of Manasses.

18 And vnto Zabulon he sayde: Reioyce Zabulon in thy goyng out, and thou Issachar in thy tentes.

19 They shall call the people vnto the hyll, & there they shall offer offeringes of righteousnesse: For they shall sucke of the aboundaunce of the sea, and of treasure hyd in the sande.

20 And vnto Gad he sayde: Blessed be he that inlarged Gad: he dwelleth as (i) a Lion that catcheth for a pray the arme with the head.

(i) Meanyng that this tribe shoulde be victorious.

25 Thy shoes shalbe iron and brasse, and thy strength shall continue as long as thou lyuest.

26 There is none lyke vnto the God of Israel, which though he syt vpon the heauen [as vpon an horse] yet is he thine helper, whose glorie is in the celestiall places.

27 The eternall God is thy refuge, and vnder the armes of the euerlastyng God shalt thou lyue: He shall cast out the enemie before thee, and say, destroy them.

28 Israel then shall dwell in safetie and alone, and the fountayne of Jacob shalbe vpon a lande of corne and wine, and his heauens shall drop the deawe.

29 Happy art thou O Israel, Who is like vnto thee O people, that art saued in the Lorde which is the shielde of thy helpe and sworde of thy glorie: Thine enemies haue lost their strength to thee warde, and thou shalt treade vpon their hye places.

The .vj. Chapter.

1 God geueth the citie of Jericho vnto Josuah. 6 Josuah with the priestes doth inuade Jericho. 7 Josuah commaundeth the Rubenites, the Gadites, and the Manassites, to go before the Arke in armes. 20 Jericho is taken. 22 Rahab is saued. 24 Jericho is burned. 25 Rahab and her householde do dwell among the chyldren of Israel. 26 The builder agayne of Jericho is cursed.

AND Jericho was (a) shut vp and (b) closed, because of the childrē of Israel, neither myght any man go out, or in.

2 And the Lorde sayde vnto Josuah: Behold, I haue geuen into thyne hande Jericho, and the kyng therof, and the strong men of warre.

3 And ye shall compasse all the citie, all ye that be men of warre, and go rounde about it once: & so shal you do sixe dayes.

4 And seuen priestes shall beare before the arke seuen trumpettes of (c) rammes hornes: And the seuenth day ye shall compasse the citie seuen tymes, and the priestes shal blowe with the trumpets.

5 And when they make a long blast with the rammes horne, and ye heare the sounde of the horne, all the people shall shout with a great shout: And then shall the wall of the citie fall downe, and the people shall assende vp, euery man straight before hym.

6 And Josuah the sonne of Nun, called the priestes, and sayde vnto them: Take vp the arke of the couenaunt, and let seuen priestes beare seuen trumpets of rammes hornes before the arke of the Lorde.

7 And he sayde vnto the people: (d) Go, and compasse the citie, & let hym that is harnessed go before ꝑ arke of the Lord.

8 And when Josuah had spoken vnto ꝑ people, the seuen priestes bare the seuen trumpets of rammes hornes, and went forth before the arke of the Lorde, and blewe with the trumpets: and the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde followed them.

9 And the men of armes went before the priestes that blewe with the trumpets: & the (e) gathering hoast came after the arke as they went, and blewe with trumpets.

10 And Josuah had commaunded the people, saying: Ye shall not shout, nor make any noyse with your voyce, neither shall any worde proceede out of your mouth vntyll the day I byd you shout, then shall ye shout.

11 And so the arke of the Lorde compassed the citie, and went about it (f) once: and they returned into the hoast, and lodged there.

12 And Josuah rose early in the morning, and the priestes toke vp the arke of 13 And seuen priestes bare seuen trumpettes of rammes hornes, and went before the arke of the Lorde: and goyng, blewe with the trumpettes. And the men of armes went before them: but the (g) gatheryng hoast came after the arke of the Lorde, whiche went before with the blowyng of the trumpettes.

14 And the seconde daye they passed the citie once, and returned againe into the hoast: and so they dyd sixe dayes.

15 And when the seuenth day came, they rose early [euen] with the dawnyng of the day, & compassed the citie after the same maner (h) seuen tymes: only that day they compassed the citie seuē times.

16 And at the seuenth tyme when the priestes blew with the trumpettes, Iosuah sayde vnto the people: Showt, for the Lorde hath geuen you the citie.

17 And the citie shalbe (i) accursed and al that are therin, vnto the Lorde: onlye Rahab the harlot shal liue, and all that are with her in the house, because she* hyd the messengers that we sent.

18 And in any wyse be ye ware of the accursed thinges, lest ye make your selues accursed, & take of the accursed thynges, and make the hoast of Israel *accursed, and trouble it.

19 But all the syluer, golde, vesselles of brasse and iron, shalbe (k) consecrate vnto the Lorde, and all shall come into his treasurie.

20 And the people showted, and blewe with trumpettes: And when the people heard the sound of the trumpe, they showted with a great showt, and the wall *fell downe flat, so that the people went vp into ỹ citie, euery man straight before hym, and *toke the citie:

21 And they vtterly destroyed all that was in the citie, both man and woman, young and olde, oxe, sheepe, and asse, with the edge of the sworde.

22 But Iosuah had sayde vnto the two men that had spyed out the countrey: Go into the harlottes house, and bryng out thence the woman and all that she hath, *as ye sware vnto her.

23 And the young men that were spyes, went in, and brought out Rahab, and her father and mother, & her brethren, and all that she had: and they brought out all her kynred, & put them (l) without the hoast of Israel.

24 And they burnt the citie with fire, and all that was therin: only the syluer and the golde, the vesselles of brasse & iron, they put vnto ỹ treasure of the (m) house of the Lorde.

25 And Iosuah saued Rahab the harlot, and her fathers household, and all that she had: and (n) she dwelt in Israel euen vnto this day, because she hyd the messengers which Iosuah sent to spye out Jericho.

26 And Iosuah sware at that tyme, saying: Cursed be the man before the Lord that ryseth vp, and buyldeth this citie Jericho: he shall lay the (o) foundation thereof in his eldest sonne, and in his youngest sonne shall he set vp the gates of it.

27 And so the Lorde was with Iosuah, and his fame was noysed throughout all landes.

The. vij. Chapter.

1 Achan vsurpeth of the Churche iewels. 2 Ai is searched. 4 The people of Ai smyteth Israel. 6 Iosuah weepeth before the Lorde. 7 Iosuah complayneth before the Lorde that Israel is ouercommen. 15 God commaundeth the theefe of the Churche goodes to be burnt. 21 What thynges Achan had conueyed of those which ought to haue ben burnt. 25 Achan is stoned, and all his goodes are burnt for stealyng of the Churche goodes.

A Deut.vii.d.

1 But yet the chyldren of Israel trespassed in ỹ* forbydden thyng: for Achan ỹ sonne of Charmi, the sonne of Zabdi, ỹ sonne of Zareth, of the tribe of Juda, toke of the forbydden thyng: And the wrath of the Lorde waxed hot against the chyldren of Israel.

(a) By takyng that which was cōmaunded to be destroyed.

2 And Iosuah sent men from Jericho to (b) Ai, which is beside Bethauen, on the east syde of Bethel, and spake vnto them, saying: Get you vp, and viewe the countrey. And the men went vp, & viewed Ai,

3 And returned to Iosuah, and sayde vnto him, Let not all the people go vp: but

(b) This was two Cities: One named Aroathe which was the greater, and is yet extant, the other called Ai.

but let as it were two or three thousande men go vp, and smyte Ai: and make not all the people to labour thyther, for they are but fewe.

4 And so there went vp thyther of the people about a three thousande men, and they fled before the men of Ai.

5 And the men of Ai (c) smote of them vpon a thirtie and sixe men: for they chased them from before the gate euen vnto Sebarim, and smote them in the goyng downe: wherfore the heartes of the people for feare melted away lyke water.

D 6 And Iosuah (d) rent his clothes, & fell to the earth vpō his face before the arke of the Lorde vntill the euentide, he and the elders of Israel, and put earth vpon their heades.

7 And Iosuah sayde: Alas, O Lorde God, wherfore hast thou brought this people ouer Iordane, to deliuer vs into the hande of the Amorites, & to destroye vs? would to God we had ben content, and dwelt on the other (e) side Iordane.

8 Oh Lorde what shall I say, when Israel turneth their backes before their enemies?

9 Surely the Chanaanites, and all the inhabitauntes of the lande shal heare of it, and shall conspire against vs, and destroy the name of vs out of the worlde: And what wilt thou do vnto thy mightie (f) name?

10 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah: Get thee vp, wherfore liest thou thus vpon thy face?

11 Israel hath sinned, and they haue transgressed myne appointment which I commaunded them: for they haue taken of the excommunicate thinges, and haue also stolen, and dissembled also, & put them vnto their owne stuffe.

12 And therfore is it that the children of Israel can not stande before their enemies, but shal turne their backes before their enemies, because they be excommunicate: Neither will I be with you any more, except ye (g) destroy the excommunicate from among you.

13 * Vp [therfore] and sanctifie the people, and say: Sanctifie your selues against to morowe, for so sayde the Lorde God of Israel, there is a " dampned thyng among you, O Israel: and therfore ye cannot stande against your enemies, vntyll ye haue put the dampned (h) thing from among you.

14 To morowe morning therfore ye shalbe brought according to your tribes: And the tribe which the Lorde (i) taketh, shal come according to the kinredes therof: And the kinred which the Lorde shall finde giltie, shall come by housholdes: And the housholde which the Lorde shal finde faultie, shall come mā by man.

15 And he that is founde with the accursed thing, shalbe burnt with fire, he, and all that he hath, because he hath transgressed the couenaunt of the Lord, and wrought follie in Israel.

16 And so Iosuah rose vp early in the morning, and brought Israel by their tribes, & the tribe of Iuda was caught. F

17 And he brought the kinredes of Iuda, and toke the kinred of the Zarehites: And he brought the kinred of the Zarehites man by mā, & Zabdi was caught.

18 And he brought his housholde man by man, & Achan the sonne of Charmi, the sonne of Zabdi, ỹ sonne of Zared of the tribe of Iuda, was caught.

19 And Iosuah sayde vnto Achan: My sonne, I beseche thee geue glorie to the Lorde God of Israel, and (k) make confession vnto him, and shewe me what thou hast done, hyde it not from me.

20 And Achan aūswered Iosuah, & sayd: Of a trueth I haue sinned against the Lorde God of Israel, and thus & thus haue I done.

21 I sawe among the spoyles a goodly babilonishe garment, and two hundred sicles of siluer, and a tonge of golde of fiftie sicles wayghte, and I coueted them, and toke them: and beholde they lye hyd in the earth in the middest of my tent, and the siluer is ther vnder.

22 And so Iosuah sent messēgers: Which whē they ranne vnto his tent, beholde they were hyd in his tent, and the siluer ther vnder.

23 Therfore they toke them out of the middest of his tent, and brought them vnto Iosuah, and vnto all the children of Israel, and layed them out (l) before the Lorde. G

24 And Iosuah toke Achan the sonne of Zareth, and the siluer, and the garmēt, and the (m) tonge of gold, and his sonnes, and his daughters, & his oxen, and his asses, his sheepe, his tent, and al that he had: and al Israel with him brought them vnto the valley of Achor.

26 And they cast vpon hym a great heape of stones vnto this day: And so the Lord turned from the wrath of his indignation. And the name of the place is called the valley of (p) Achor vnto this day.

3 And so Iosuah arose, and all the men of warre, to go vp agaynst Ai: And Iosuah chose out thirtie thousande strong men and valiaunt, and sent them away by nyght:

4 And he commaunded them, saying: Beholde, ye shall lye in wayte agaynst the towne on the backside thereof: Go not verie farre from the citie, but be all redie:

5 And I, and al the people that are with me, wyll approche vnto the citie: And when they come out against vs, as they dyd at the first tyme, then wyll we flee before them:

6 For they wyll come out after vs tyll we haue brought them out of the citie. For they wyll say, They flee before vs, as at the first tyme: and we will flee before them.

7 In the meane tyme shall ye ryse vp from lying in wayte, and destroy the citie: for the Lorde your God wyll deliuer lyuer it into your hande.

8 And when ye haue taken the citie, ye shall set it on fire: Accordyng to the commaundement of the Lorde shall ye do. Beholde, I haue charged you.

9 Iosuah therfore sent them forth, and they went to lye in wayte, and abode betweene Bethel & Ai, on the westsyde of the citie of Ai: But Iosuah lodged that nyght (b) among the people.

10 And Iosuah rose vp early in the mornyng, and (c) numbred the people, & went vp, he and the elders of Israel before the people, against Ai.

11 And all the men of warre that were with him, went vp, & drue nye, and came agaynst the citie, and pitched on the northsyde of Ai: and there was a valley betweene them and Ai.

12 And he toke vpon a fiue thousande men, and (d) set them to lye in wayte betweene Bethel and Ai, on the westsyde of the citie.

13 And the people set all the hoast that was onthe northsyde agaynst the citie, & the lyers in wayte on the west, against the citie: And Iosuah walked the same nyght in the myddes of the valley.

14 And when the kyng of Ai sawe it, they hasted and rose vp early, and the men of the citie went out agaynst Israel to battayle, he and all his people at a tyme appoynted, euen before the playne: and wyst not that there were lyers in wayte agaynst him on the backsyde of the citie.

15 And Iosuah & all Israel (e) as beaten before them, fledde by the way of the wildernesse.

16 And all the people of the towne were called together, to followe after them: And they followed after Iosuah, and were drawen away from the citie.

17 And there was not a man left in Ai and in Bethel, that went not out after Israel: And they left the citie open, and followed after Israel.

18 And the Lorde sayde vnto Iosuah: (f) Stretch out ỹ speare that is in thine hand towarde Ai, for I will geue it into thy hand. And Iosuah stretched out the speare that he had in his hand, towarde the citie.

19 And the vers in waite arose quickly out of their place, and ran assoone as Iosuah had stretched out his hande: and they entred into the citie, and toke it, and hasted and set the citie on fyre.

20 And when the men of Ai loked backe after them, they sawe the smoke of the citie ascend vp to heauen, and they had no "place to flee either this way or that: and the people that fled to the wildernes, turned backe againe vpon the followers. "Or, power

21 And when Iosuah & all Israel sawe that the lyers in waite had taken the citie, and that the smoke of it ascended, they turned againe and slue the men of Ai. &

22 And the other issued out of the citie against them, and so were they in the middest of Israel: for these were on the one side of them, and the rest on the other side. And they laide vpon them, so that they let none of them *escape, nor remaine:

23 And the kyng of Ai they toke aliue, and brought him to Iosuah. Deu.vii.a.

24 And when Israel had made an ende of slayeng all the inhabitantes of Ai in the fielde of the wildernesse where they chased them, and when they were all fallen on the edge of the sworde, vntill they were wasted, all the Israelites returned vnto Ai, and (g) smote it with the edge of the sworde. (g) For the strong of the citie was not to destroyte, for they should take the spoile therof for a pray: but was to signifie to Iosuah that they were entred.

25 And al that fell that day, both of men and women, were twelue thousande, euen all the men of Ai.

26 For Iosuah plucked not his hande backe againe which he stretched out vpō the speare vntil, he had vtterly destroyed al the enhabitours of Ai. F

4 Come vp vnto me, and helpe me, that we may ſmite Gibeon: foz they haue made peace with Joſuah, and with the chyldzen of Iſrael.

5 Therfoze the fiue kinges of the Amorites, the king of Hieruſalem, the king of Hebzon, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachis, and the king of Eglon, gathered them ſelues together, and went vp, they with all their hoaſtes, and beſieged Gibeon, & made warre againſt it.

6 And the men of Gibeon ſent vnto Joſuah to the hoaſt in Gilgal, ſaying: Withdrawe not thy hande from thy ſeruauntes, come vp to vs quickly, and ſaue vs, and helpe vs: foz all the kinges of the Amozites which dwell in the mountaynes are gathered together (a) agaynſt vs.

7 And ſo Joſuah aſcended from Gilgal, he and all the people of warre with him, and all the men of might.

8 And the Lozde ſayde vnto Joſuah, Feare them not: foz I haue deliuered them into thine hande, neither ſhall any of them ſtande agaynſt thee.

(a) Aſſoone as thou makeſt a league with the chyldzen of God by regeneration: thou ſhalt be ſure to haue the wicked children of the worlde in thy toppe.

9 Joſuah

9 Iosuah therfore came vnto them sodaynly, and went vp from Gilgal all nyght.

10 And the Lorde troubled them before Israel, and slue them with a great slaughter at Gibeon, and chased them along the way that goeth vp to Bethoron, and smote them to Azeka and Makeda.

11 And as they fled from before Israel, and were in the going downe to Bethoron, the Lorde cast downe great stones from heauen vpon them vntyll Azeka, and they dyed: there were mo dead with hayle(b) stones, then they were whom the children of Israel slue with the sworde.

(b) All kynde of creatures shall destroy the wicked wyth the Lord of hoastes will haue it so.

12 Then spake Iosuah to the Lorde in the day when the Lorde deliuered the Amorites before the children of Israel, & he sayd in the sight of Israel, *Sunne, stande thou styll vpon Gibeon, and thou Moone in the valley of Aialon.

Eccle. xlvi. a Esai. 28. d.

13 And the sunne abode, and the moone stoode styll, vntyll the people auenged them selues vpon their enemies. Is not this written in the booke of(c) the righteous? So the sunne [I say] abode in the middest of heauen, and hasted not to go downe by the space of a whole day.

(c) The Hebrue worde is Jasher, that is righteous: therfore some iudge, it meaneth Moyses booke, and the Chaldee text readeth, the booke of the lawe: but others thinke Jasher to be the very name of the booke which is lost, and now not extant.

14 And there was no day like that before it or after it, that the Lorde hearde the voyce of a man: for the Lorde (d) fought for Israel.

(d) By this is ment that God by his power destroyed his enemies, and destroying them with haylestones.

15 And Iosuah returned and all Israel with him, vnto the campe to Gilgal.

16 But the fiue kinges fled, and were hyd in a caue at Makeda.

17 And it was tolde Iosuah [of one] saying, The fiue kinges are founde hyd in a caue which is at Makeda.

18 And Iosuah sayd, Roule great stones vpon the mouth of the caue, and set men by it, for to kepe it:

19 And stand ye not styll, but followe after your enemies, & smite all the hindmost, and suffer them not to enter into their cities: for the Lorde your God hath deliuered them into your hande. D

20 And when Iosuah and the children of Israel had made an ende of slaying them with an exceedyng great slaughter, tyll they were wasted: the rest that remayned of them, entred into walled cities:

21 And all the people returned to the hoast to Iosuah at Makeda in peace, neither dyd any man moue his tongue agaynst the children of Israel.

22 Then sayde Iosuah, Open the mouth of the caue, and bryng out these fiue kinges vnto me out of the caue.

23 And they did so, and brought those fiue kinges vnto him out of the caue, [euen] the king of Hierusalem, the king of Hebron, the king of Jarmuth, the king of Lachis, and the king of Eglon.

24 And when they brought [the] kinges vnto Iosuah: Iosuah called for all the men of Israel, and said vnto the chiefe of the men of warre which which went with him: Come neare, & put your feete vpō the (e)neckes of these kinges. And they came neare, and put their feete vpon the neckes of them.

25 And Iosuah sayd vnto them, Be shall not feare, nor be faynt hearted: but be strong, and plucke vp your heartes, for thus shall the Lorde do to al your enemies against whom ye fight.

26 And then Iosuah smote them, and slewe them, and hanged them on fiue trees: And they hanged still vpon the trees vntill the euening.

27 And at the goyng downe of the sunne, Iosuah gaue commaundement: And they toke them downe of the*trees, and cast them into the caue wherin they had ben hyd, and layed great stones in the caues mouth, [which remayne] vntil this daye.

28 And that same day Iosuah toke Makeda, and smote it with the edge of the swoorde, & the king therof also destroyed he vtterly, with "al the soules that were therin, and let none remayne: And he dyd to the king of Makeda, * as he dyd vnto the king of Iericho.

29 Then Iosuah went from Makeda, and all Israel with him, vnto Libna, and fought agaynst Libna.

30 And the Lorde deliuered it & the king therof into the hande of Israel: and he smote it with the edge of the swoord, and all the "soules that were therin: he let none remayne in it, but dyd vnto the king therof, as he did vnto the king of Iericho.

31 And Iosuah departed from Libna, and all Israel with him vnto Lachis, and besieged it, and assaulted it.

32 And the Lorde deliuered Lachis into the hande of Israel, which toke it the seconde day, and smote it with the edge of the swoorde, & all the soules that were therin: doing according to all, as he had done to the citie of Libna.

33 Then Horam king of Geser came vp to helpe Lachis: And Iosuah smote him and his people, vntill none remayned of him.

34 And from Lachis Iosuah departed vnto Eglon, and all Israel with him: and they besieged it, and assaulted it.

35 And toke it the same day, and smote it with the edge of the swoorde: & al the soules that were therin he vtterly destroyed the same day, according to all that he he had done to Lachis. F

36 And Iosuah departed vp from Eglon, and all Israel with him, vnto Hebron: And they fought against it.

37 And when they had taken it, they smote it with the edge of the swoorde, & the king therof, and all the townes that parteined to it, and all the soules that were therin, and he left none remayning: but dyd according to all, as he had done to Eglon, and destroyed it vtterly, and all the soules that were therin.

38 And Iosuah returned, and all Israel with him to Dabir, & fought against it.

39 And when he had taken it, & the king therof, and all the townes that parteyned therto, they smote them with the edge of the swoorde, & vtterly destroyed all the soules that were therin, neither let he any remayne: Euen as he dyd to Hebron, so he dyd to Dabir and the king therof, as he had done also to Libna and her king. G

40 Iosuah therfore smote al the hil countreyes, and the south countreyes, & the valleyes, and the downes, and al their kinges, and let none remayne of them, but vtterly destroyed all that* breathed, as the Lorde God of Israel commaunded. Deut. xx. d.

41 And Iosuah smote them from Cades Barnea vnto Asah, and all the countrey of Gosan [euen] vnto Gibeon.

42 And all these kinges and their lande dyd Iosuah take at (f) one time: because the Lord God of Israel fought for Israel. (f) In one battell.

43 And Iosuah and all Israel, returned vnto the hoast that was in (g) Gilgal. (g) where the arke was, there to geue thankes for their victorie.

The .xi. Chapter.

1 Certaine kinges are gathered against Josuah. 6 God deliuereth all the kinges vnto Josuah, which had conspired against him. 7 Josuah killeth the Heuites, the Jebusites, and the rest. 10 The citie of Hazor is smitten. 14 The Israelites do deuide the praye betweene them. 15 Josuah fulfilleth al those thinges which Moyses commaunded him. 19 The Heuite. 20 God hardeneth the enemies heartes. 21 The Enachims killed.

1 AND When Jabin king of Hazor had hearde those thinges, (a) he sent to Jobab king of Madon, and to the king of Simron, & to the king of Achsaph,

2 And vnto the kinges that were by the north in the mountaynes and playnes towarde the southside of (b) Ceneroth, & in the lowe countreys, and in the borders of Dor westwarde,

3 And vnto the Chanaanites both by east and west, and vnto the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, and Jebusites in the mountaines, and vnto the Heuites that were vnder (c) Hermon in the lande of Mispah:

4 And they came out, & all their hoastes with them, a multitude of folke, euen as the sande that is on the sea shore, in a great number, with horses and charettes exceeding many.

5 And all these kinges met together, and came & pitched together at the waters of Merom, for to fight against Israel.

6 And the Lord sayde vnto Josuah, Be not afrayde at the presence of them: for to morow about this time will I deliuer them all slayne before Israel: thou shalt (d) hough their horses, and burne their charettes with fire.

7 And so Josuah came, and all the men of warre with him against them by the waters of Merom, and sodenly fell vpon them.

8 And the Lorde deliuered them into the hande of Israel, and they smote them, and chased them vnto great Sidon, & vnto (e) Misrephothmaim, & vnto the valley of Mispah whiche is eastward: and smote them, vntill they had none remaining of them.

9 And Josuah dyd vnto them as the Lorde bad him: he houghed their horses, and burnt their charettes with fire.

10 And Josuah at that time turned back, and toke Hazor, & smote the king therof with the sworde: And Hazor before time was the head of all those kingdomes.

11 And they smote all the (f) soules that were therin with ỹ edge of the sworde, vtterly destroying al, and nothing that breathed, was let remaine: And he burnt Hazor with fire.

12 And all the cities of those kinges, and all the kinges of them did Iosuah take, and smote them with the edge of the swoorde, and vtterly destroyed them, *as Moyses the seruaunt of the Lord commaunded.

13 But Israel burnt none of the cities that stoode still in their (g) strength, saue Hazor only that Iosuah burnt.

14 And all the spoyle of the sayde cities & the cattel, the children of Israel caught vnto them selues: But (h) euery mã they smote with the edge of the swoord, vntill they had destroyed them, neither left they ought that had breath.

15 As the Lorde* commaunded Moyses his seruaunt, so did Moyses* cõmaunde Iosuah, and euen so did Iosuah: * so that he minished no woorde of all that the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

16 And so Iosuah toke all that lande of the hilles, and al the south countrey, and all the lande of Gosan, and the lowe countrey, & the playne, and the (i) mountayne of Israel, and the lowe countrey of the same:

17 Euen from the mount (k) Halak, that goeth vp to Seir, vnto Baal Gad in the valley of Libanon, vnder mount Hermon: And all the kinges of the same he toke, and smote them, and slewe them.

18 Iosuah made warre long time with those kinges:

19 Neither was there any citie that made peace with the children of Israel, *saue those Hethites that inhabited Gibeon, and therfore all other they toke with battayle: Iosu ix.a.

20 For it came of the Lorde, whiche dyd harden their heartes that they should come against Israel in battell, and that they shoulde destroy them vtterly, and shewe them no mercy: but to bring them to naught, as the Lorde commaunded Moyses.

21 And that same season came Iosuah & destroyed the Anakims out of the mountaynes: as out of Hebron, Dabir, Anab, and out of al the mountaynes of Juda, and out of all the mountaynes of Israel: And Iosuah destroyed them vtterly, with their cities. D

22 There was not one Anakim left in the lande of the children of Israel: only in Asah, * Gath, and Asdod, there remayned of them. i.Sa. xvii. a.

1 The lot or part of Ephraim. 10 The Chanaanites dwelled among them.

A 1 And the lot of the children of Joseph fell frō Jordane by Jericho, vnto the water of Jericho eastwarde, & to the wildernesse that goeth vp frō Jericho throughout mount Bethel.

2 And goeth out frō (a) Bethel to *Luz, and runneth along vnto the borders of Archiataroth:

3 And goeth downe againe westward euen to the coast of Japhleti, and vnto the coast of Bethhoron the neather, & to Gazer, and the endes of their coastes leaue at the west sea.

4 And so the children of Joseph, Manasses, & Ephraim, toke their inheritaunce.

B 5 And the border of the children of Ephraim was by their kynreds. Their border on the east side was, Ataroth Adar, euen vnto Bethhoron the vpper.

6 And went out westwarde to Machmethath on the northside, and returneth eastward vnto Thaanath Silo, & past it on the eastside vnto Jonoah.

7 And went downe from Jonoah to Atharoth and Naarath, and came to Jericho, and went out at Jordane.

8 And their border went from Thaphuah westward vnto the riuer Kanah, and the endes were the west sea. This is the inheritaunce of the tribe of the children of Ephraim by their kynredes. C

9 And the seperate cities for the childrē of Ephraim, were among ỳ inheritaūce of the children of Manasses, euen the cities with their villages.

10 And they draue not out the Chanaanites that dwelt in Gazer: but the Chanaanites dwelt among the Ephraites vnto this day, and serue vnder tribute.

The. xvij. Chapter.

1. The portion of the halfe tribe of Manasse. 3. Salphaad is geuen for a possession to his daughters. 13 Chanaanites are tributaries vnto the Israelites. 14. The sonnes of Joseph, Manasse, and Ephraim, do require a larger possession.

A 1 This was the lot of the tribe of Manasses, which was the *eldest son of Joseph, to witte of Machir the eldest sonne of Manasses, which was the father of Gilead: now because he was a man of warre, he had Gilead and Basan.

2 This is the possession of the (a) rest of the children of Manasses by their kinreds: [Namely] of the children of Abiezer, the children of Helek, the children of Ariel, the children of Sichem, the the children of Hepher, the children of Semida: for these were the male children of Manasses, the sonne of Joseph by their kinredes.

3 *But Selaphead the sonne of Hepher, the sonne of Galiad, ẏ sonne of Machir, the sonne of Manasses, had no sonnes: but daughters, whose names are these, Mahala, Noa, Hagla, Melcha, and Thirsa.

4 which came before Eleasar the priest, and before Iosuah the sonne of Nun, & before the Lordes, saying: The Lord commaunded Moyses to geue vs an enheritaunce among our (b) brethren.

5 And therfore according to the commaundement of the Lorde, he gaue them an enheritaunce among the brethren of their father. And there fel ten portions to Manasses, beside the lande of Gilead and Basan, whiche were on the other side Iordane.

6 Because the daughters of Manasses dyd enherite among his sonnes: And Manasses other sonnes had the lande of Gilead.

7 And the coaste of Manasses was from Aser to Machmathath that lieth before Sichem, and went along on the right hande, euen vnto the inhabitantes of Entaphuah, 8 And the lande of Thaphuah belonged to Manasses: which (b) Thaphuah is beside the border of Manasses, beside the border of the children of Ephraim.

9 And the coaste descended vnto the "riuer Canah southwarde, euen to the riuer: These cities of Ephraim, are among ẏ cities of Manasses. The coaste of Manasses went also on the northside to the riuer, and the endes of it go out at ẏ sea:

10 So that ẏ south partained to Ephraim, & the north to Manasses, & the sea is his border: And they met together in (c) Aser northwarde, & in Issachar eastwarde.

11 And Manasses had in Issachar and in Aser, Bethsean & her townes, Ibleam and her townes, and the inhabitours of Dor, with the townes pertaining to the same, and the inhabitours of Endor with the townes of the same, and the inhabitours of Thaanach with her townes, and the inhabitours of Magedo with the townes of the same, euen three countreys.

12 Yet the children of Manasses coulde (f) not ouercome those cities: but the Chanaanites presumed to dwell in the same lande.

13 Neuertheless, assoone as the children of Israel were waxed strong, they put the Chanaanites vnder tribute, but expelled them not.

14 And the children of Joseph spake vnto Iosuah, saying: Why hast thou geuē me but one lotte and one portion to inherite, seyng I am a great people, and forasmuche as the Lorde hath (g) blessed me hytherto?

15 And Iosuah aūswered them: If thou be much people, then get thee vp to the wood [countrey] and prepare for thy selfe there in the lande of the Pherezites and (h) of the Giauntes, yf mount Ephraim be to narowe for thee.

16 And the children of Joseph sayd, The hyll is not ynough for vs: And all ẏ Chanaanites that dwell in the lowe countrey haue charettes of iron, and so haue they that inhabite Bethlean & the townes of the same, and they also that dwell in the valley of Jezreel.

17 And Iasuah sayde vnto the house of Joseph, Ephraim, & Manasses: Ye be much people, and haue great power, and shall not therfore haue one lotte.

18 Therfore the hyll shalbe yours, and ye shall cut downe the wood that is in it: and the endes of it shalbe yours, yf ye cast out the Chananaites which haue iron charettes, and are very strong.

(f) For at the first they were not couragious & after agreed with them on condition contrary to Gods cōmaundmēt.

san, thirteene cities.
7 And the childrē of Merari by their kin-redes, had out of the tribe of Ruben, & out of the tribe of Gad, and out of the tribe of Zabulon, twelue cities.
8 And the children of Israel gaue by lot vnto the Leuites these cities with their suburbes, as the Lord commaunded by the hand of Moyses.
9 And they gaue out of the tribe of the children

childzen of Juda, and out of the tribe of the childzen of Simeon, these cities by name.

10 Which the childzen of Aaron being of the kynredes of the Caathites, and of the childzē of Leui, obtained: (for theirs was the first lotte.)

11 And they gaue them Kiriath Arba of the father of Enac (which is Hebzon) in the hyll countrey of Juda, with the (b) suburbes of the same rounde about it.

(b) The suburbs were a thousande cubites from the wall of the citie rounde about. Nu. 35 a

13 And thus they gaue to the childzē of Aaron the priest, a citie to the which the slayer myght flee, euen Hebzon with her suburbes, and Libna with her suburbes,

14 And Jathir with her suburbes, and Eshtemoa with he suburbes:

18 Anatoth with her suburbes, Almon with her suburbes, foure cities.

19 All these cities of the childzen of Aaron priestes, were thirteene cities with their suburbes.

20 And the kynredes of the childzen of Caath that were Leuites, that is to say, the (c) other childzen of Caath, had cities geuen them for their lot out of the tribe of Ephzaim.

(c) That is, that were no priestes, but Leuites only.

21 For they gaue them the citie that the slear might flee vnto, Sichem with her suburbes in mount Ephzaim, and Gazer with her suburbes.

22 And Cibzaim with her suburbes, and Bethhozon with her suburbes, foure cities.

(d) which dwelled in Chanaan.

26 All the cities for the other kynredes of the childzen of Caath, were ten, with their suburbes.

27 And vnto the childzē of Gerson, which were of the kynredes of the Leuites, they gaue out of the other halfe tribe of Manasses, the citie of refuge for ẏ slear, Golan in Basan with her suburbes, & Beestherah with her suburbes, two cities.

28 And out of the tribe of Issachar, Kishon with her suburbes, and Dabereh with her suburbes:

g The Iacobs prophecie must not be forfelled, and gods prouidence performed: that not one of Israel should enter their teachery of Gods lande.

41 And all the cities that the Leuites had, (g) among the possession of the childzen of Israel, were. xlviii. with their suburbes.

obeyed my voyce in all that I cõmaun-

3 Ye haue not lefte your brethren of a long season vnto this day, but haue kept the commaundement of the Lorde your God.
4 And now that the Lorde hath geuen rest vnto your brethren as he promised them: therfore returne ye, and go vnto your tentes, and vnto the lande of your possession, which Moyses the seruaunt of the Lord *gaue you on the other side

God, and walke in all his wayes, and kepe his commaundements, and cleaue

a great multitude of cattell, with syluer and golde, with brasse, and iron, and with much rayment, and *deuide the spoyle of your enemies with your (e)

9 And the children of Ruben, the childrẽ the lande of Chanaan, to go vnto the countrey of Gilead, to the lande of their possession, which they had obtayned, according to the word of the Lorde by the hand of Moyses.

10 And when they came vnto the borders of Iordane that are in the land of Chanaan, there the children of Ruben, the children of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses buylt (f) there an aulter by Iordane, & that a great aulter to see to.

the children of Israel:

at Silo, to make (g) battell against them.
13 And the children of Israel sent vnto
the children of Ruben, and to the chil-

Manasses into the lãde of Gilead, Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar the priest, 14 And with him ten lordes, of euery tribes of Israel, which were heades of their fathers housholdes among the they spake with them, saying:

D the Lorde: What transgression is this,
that ye haue transgressed agaynst the God of Israel, to turne away this day from the Lord, in that ye haue buylded you an aulter for to rebell this day against the Lord:

in the congregation of the Lorde:

18 Ye also are turned away this day from the Lorde: And seyng ye rebell to daye against the Lorde, it wyll come to passe that to morowe he shalbe wroth with all the congregation of Israel.

19 Notwithstandyng, yf ye thynke that the lande of your possession is (i) vncleane, then come ouer vnto the lande of the possession of the Lorde, wherein the Lordes tabernacle dwelleth, and take possession among vs: But (k) rebell not against the Lorde, nor rebell against vs, to buylde you any other aulter, saue the aulter of the Lorde our God.

(k) To vse any other seruice then God alloweth, is to rebell agaynst God. 1. Sam. 15.

21 Then the chyldren of Ruben, and the chyldren of Gad, and the halfe tribe of Manasses aunswered, and sayde vnto the heades ouer the thousandes of Israel:

22 The Lorde God of gods, the Lorde
God of gods knoweth, and also Israel shall knowe, yf it be to rebell or to transgresse against the Lorde, then thou Lorde saue vs not this day.

23 Or els yf we haue buylt vs an aulter to turne from folowyng the Lorde, or to offer theron burnt offeryng or meate offeryng, or to offer peace offerynges theron, let ỹ Lord him selfe (m) require it.

(m) That is, let him punish vs, & reuenge it.

24 And yf we haue not rather done it for feare of this thyng, saying, In tyme to come your chyldren myght say vnto ours: What haue you to do with the Lorde God of Israel?

25 The Lorde hath made Iordane a of Ruben and of Gad, ye haue no part therfore in the Lorde: and so shall your chyldren make our chyldren (n) ceasse from fearyng the Lorde.

(n) Fall & away frō true religion.

26 Therfore we saide, We wyll make vs an aulter, not for burnt offering, nor for sacrifice:

27 But for a * witnesse betweene vs and you, and our generations after vs, that we should serue the Lorde with our of-ferynges, sacrifices, & peace offerynges F before him: & that your chyldren shoulde not say to ours in tyme to come, Ye haue no (o) part in the Lorde.

(o) As one excluded from the lande: for are non estemed for the Lordes seruice.

28 Therfore sayde we, that yf they should so say to vs or to (p) our generations in tyme to come: that we wolde say again,
Behold the fassion of the aulter of the Lord which our fathers made, neither for burnt offrynges nor sacrifices, but for a witnesse betweene vs and you.

(p) God regardeth that the care of his glorie be in euery man, not only for his tyme, but also that it reache to his posteritie.

29 God forbyd that we should rebell a-gaynst the Lord, & turne this day from after hym, and buylde any other aulter for burnt offrynges, oblations, or sacrifices, saue the aulter of the Lorde our God that is before his tabernacle.

30 And when Phinehes the priest, and the lordes of the congregation, & heades ouer the thousandes of Israel which were with him, hearde these wordes that the chyldren of Ruben, and the children of Gad, and the chyldren of Ma-from the chyldren of Ruben, and from the chyldren of Gad, out of the lande of Gilead, vnto the lande of Chanaan, to the chyldren of Israel, & brought them this worde agayne.

33 And the saying pleased the chyldren of Israel, and they blessed God, and dyd not entende to go agaynst thē in battell, and to destroy the lande which the children of Ruben and Gad dwelt in.

34 And the chyldren of Ruben, and the chyldren of Gad, called the aulter [Ed] for it shalbe a witnes betweene vs, that the Lorde is God.

The. xxiii. Chapter.

2 Iosuah exhorteth the people, that they ioyne not themselues to the Gentiles. 7 That they name not their idoles. 14 The promise if they feare God. 15 And threatnings, if they forsake him.

A 1 AND it came to passe, a long season after that the Lorde had geuen rest vnto Israel from al their enemies round about, that Iosuah waxed olde, and was stricken in age.

2 And Iosuah called for all Israel, and for their elders, their heades, their iudges, and officers, and sayd vnto them: I am olde and stricken in age,

3 And ye haue seene all that the Lorde your God hath done vnto all these nations (a) before you, how the Lorde your God him self hath fought for you.

4 Beholde, I haue deuided vnto you by lot these nations that remayne, to be an inheritaunce for your tribes, euen from Iordane, with all the nations that I haue destroyed, euen vnto the great sea westward.

5 And the Lorde your God shall (b) expel them before you, & cast them from out of your sight, and ye shall conquer their lande, as the Lord your God hath sayd vnto you.

6 Go to therfore, and be of a good courage, that ye take heede and do all that is written in the booke of the lawe of Moyses, * that ye bowe not aside therefrom to the right hande or to the left.

7 Neither company with these nations that is with them that are left with you, neither make * mention of the name of ther gods, nor (c) cause to sweare by them, neither serue them, nor bowe your selues vnto them.

8 But sticke fast vnto the Lorde your God, as ye haue done vnto this day.

9 So shall the Lord cast out before you great nations and mightie, as no man hath ben able to stande before you hytherto.

10 * One man of you shall chase a thousand: for the Lorde your God he fighteth for you, as he hath promised you. Leu. 26.b. De. xxxii.d

11 Take good heede therfore vnto your selues, that ye loue the Lord your God.

12 Els, if ye go backe and cleaue vnto the rest of these nations that remaine with you, & shall make mariages with them, and go in vnto them, and they to you:

13 Be ye sure that the Lorde your God will no more cast out all these nations from before you: * but they shalbe snares and trappes vnto you, and scourges in your sides, & thornes in (d) your eyes, vntill ye perishe from of this good land whiche the Lorde your God hath geuen you. Exo. xxiii.g Num 33.g Deut. vii. c. (d) Meaning, they shalbe a continuall griefe vnto you, and so the cause of your destruction.

14 And behold, this day do I (e) enter into the way of all the world, and ye knowe in al your heartes and in al your soules, that * nothyng hath fayled of all the good thinges whiche the Lorde your God promised you, but all are come to passe vnto you, and nothing hath fayled therof. (e) I declare according to the coarse of nature. Iosu. xxi.d.

15 Therfore, as al good thinges are come vpon you, whiche the Lorde your God promised you: so shall the Lorde bring vpon you all euyll, vntill he haue destroyed you frō of this good land which the Lorde your God hath geuen you.

16 When ye haue (f) transgressed the appointmēt of the Lord your God which he commaunded you, and haue gone & serued straunge goddes, & bowed your selues to them: then shall the wrath of the Lorde waxe whot vpon you, and ye shall perishe quickly from of the good lande which he hath geuen you. (f) By shewing that no euyll can come vnto man, except he offend God by disobedience.

(f) This is the true vse of Goddes benefites, to learne therby to feare & serue him.

14 Nowe therfore (f) feare the Lorde, and serue him in perfectnesse and trueth, and put away the goddes whiche your fathers serued on the other side of ỹ fludde and in Egypt, and serue ye the Lorde.

15 And yf it seeme euyll vnto you to serue the Lorde, then chose you this day whō you wil serue, whether ỹ goddes which your fathers serued (that were on the other side of the fludde) either ỹ goddes of the Amorites, in whose land ye dwel: As for me and my house, (g) we wil serue the Lorde.

(g) This teacheth vs that yf all the world would go from God, yet euery one yf vs particularly is bound to cleaue vnto him.

16 The people aunswered and sayd: God forbyd, that we should forsake the Lord, and serue straunge goddes.

17 For the Lorde our God, he it is that brought vs & our fathers out of the land of Egypt, & from the house of bondage, and whiche did those great miracles in our sight, and preserued vs in al the way that we went, and among al the people which we came thorowe.

18 And the Lord did cast out before vs all the people, euen the Amorites whiche dwelt in the lande: And therfore wil we also serue the Lord, for he is (h) our God.

(h) whom we knowledge our selues bound to serue.

19 And Josuah sayde vnto the people, Ye (i) can not serue the Lord: for he is an holy God, and a ielous God, and cannot beare your iniquite and sinne.

(i) Except ye cast away your idols.

20 Yf ye forsake the Lorde and serue straunge goddes, *he will turne and do you euill, and consume you, after that he hath done you good.

Ios.xxiii.d.

21 And the people sayde vnto Josuah: Nay, but we will serue the Lorde.

D

22 And Josuah sayde vnto the people: Ye are witnesses (k) against your selues, that ye haue chosen you the Lorde to serue him. And they sayde: We are witnesses.

(k) In this your confession of Gods benefites, and promise made to serue him, it herafter ye do the contrarie.

23 Then put away [sayde he] the (l) straūge goddes whiche are among you, & bowe your heartes vnto the Lorde God of Israel.

(l) Which you haue found & carried away from the soules of the citees that you haue wonne.

24 The people sayde vnto Josuah: The Lorde our God will we serue, and his voyce will we obey.

25 And so Josuah made a couenaūt with the people the same day, and set an ordinaunce & lawe before them in Sichem.

26 And Josuah wrote these wordes in the booke of the lawe of God: and toke a great stone, and pitched it on ende in the sayde place, euen vnder an oke that was in the sanctuarie of the Lorde.

28 And so Iosuah let the people depart, euery man vnto his inheritaunce.

29 And after these thinges it came to passe, that Iosuah the sonne of Nun, the seruaunt of the Lorde died, being an hundreth and ten yeres old.

30 And they buryed him in the countrey of his inheritaunce, euen in Thamnath Serah, whiche is in mount Ephraim, on the northside of the hill of Gaas.

31 And Israel serued the Lorde(n) all the dayes of Iosuah, and all the dayes of the elders that ouer lyued Iosuah, and whiche had knowne all the workes of the Lorde that he had done for Israel.

32 And the* bones of Ioseph whiche the childrē of Israel brought out of Egypt, buried they in Sichem, in a parcell of ground whiche Iacob bought of the sonnes of Hemor the father of Sichem for an hundreth peeces of siluer, and it became the inheritaunce of the children of Ioseph. Iosu. xiii.d.

33 And Eleazar the sonne of Aaron died, whom they buried in a hill that pertayned to Phinehes his sonne, which [hill] was geuen him in mount Ephraim.

6 And toke the daughters of them to be (b)their wiues, & gaue their own daughters to their sonnes, and serued their goddes.

7 And the children of Israel did wickedly in the sight of the Lorde, and forgat the Lorde their God, and serued Baalim and (c)Astheroth.

8 Therfore the Lorde was angry with Israel, and he solde them into the handes of Chusan Risathaim king of Mesopotamia: and the children of Israel serued Chusan Risathaim eyght yeres.

9 And when the children of Israel cryed vnto the Lorde, the Lorde stirred vp a sauer to the children of Israel, & saued them, euen Othoniel the sonne of Kenes, Calebs younger brother.

12 And the children of Israel agayne committed wickednes in the sight of the Lorde: And the Lorde (e) strengthed Eglon the king of the Moabites, against the children of Israel, because they had committed wickednes before the Lorde.

15 But when they cryed vnto the Lord, the Lord stirred them vp a sauer, Ahud the sonne of Gera the sonne of Gemini, a man lame of his right hande: and by him the children of Israel sent a present vnto Eglon the king of Moab.

16 But Ahud made him a dagger with two edges, of a cubite length, and he did gyrde it vnto his rayment vpon his right thygh,

17 And caried the present vnto Eglon the king of Moab: (And Eglon was a very fatte man.)

21 And Ahud put forth his left hande, & toke the dagger from his right thygh, and thrust it into his belly.

22 And the hafte went in after the blade: and the fatte closed the haft, so that he might not drawe the dagger out of his belly, but the dyrt came out.

23 Then Ahud gat him out into the porche, and shut the doores of the parler vpon him, and locked them.

24 When he was gone out, his seruauntes came: And when they sawe that the doores of the parler were locked, they sayde, Surely he (g) couereth his feete in his sommer chamber. (g) That is he doth his easiment.

2 And the Lorde sold them into the hand of (a) Jabin king of Chanaan, that raigned in (b) Hazor, whose captayne of warre was called Sisara, which dwelt in Haroseth of the gentiles.

3 And the children of Israel cried vnto the Lord (for he had nine hundreth charettes of yron: & twentie yeres he troubled the children of Israel very sore.)

4 And Debora a prophetisse, the wife of Lapidoth, iudged Israel the same time.

5 And the same Debora dwelt vnder a palme tree, betweene Ramath & Bethel, in mount Ephraim: And the children of Israel came vp to her for iudgment.

6 And she sent, and called * Barak the sonne of Abinoam, out of Kedes Nephthalim, and sayd vnto him: hath not the Lorde God of Israel (c) commaunded, saying: Go, and drawe toward mount Thabor, and take with thee ten thousand men of the children of Nephthalim, and of the children of Zabulon?

7 And I will bring vnto thee to the * riuer Kison, Sisara ỹ captayne of warre, vnto Jabin, with his charettes and his people, and will deliuer him into thyne handes.

9 She sayd: I will surely go with thee, but this iourney that thou takest, shall not be for thyne honour: for the Lorde shall sell Sisara into the hande of a woman. And Debora arose and went with Barak to Kedes.

10 And Barak called Zabulon & Nephthalim to Kedes, and led after him ten thousande men: and Debora went vp with him.

15 But the Lorde destroyed Sisara and all his charettes, and all his hoaste with the edge of the sworde, before Barak: so that Sisara lyghted downe of his charet, and fled away on his feete.

19 And he sayd vnto her: Geue me I pray thee a litle water to drincke, for I am thirstie. And she opened * a bottle of milke, and gaue him drincke, & couered him. Iudi v.c.

20 And agayne he sayd vnto her: Stande in the doore of the tent, and whan any man doth come and enquere of thee, whether ther be any man here, thou shalt say, naye.

21 Then Iael Habers wyfe, toke a nayle of the tent, & an hammer in her hande, and went softly vnto him, and smote ỹ nayle into the temples of his head, and fastened it into the ground (for he slumbred sore, and was wery) and so he died.

23 And so God brought Iabin the kyng of Chanaan into subiection that day before the children of Israel.

24 And the hand of the children of Israel prospered, and preuayled against Iabin the kyng of Chanaan, vntil they had destroyed Iabin king of Chanaan.

and came vp agaynst them,
4 And pitched their tentes against them, and destroyed the encrease of the earth, euen tyll thou come vnto Azah, & left no sustenaunce for Israel, neither sheepe, ore, nor asse:
5 For they went vp, they and their cattel, and came with their tentes as a multitude of grashopers, so that both they and also their camels were without number: And they entred into the land to destroy it.
6 And so was Israel exceedingly impouerysshed (b) in the sight of the Madianites, and cried vnto the Lorde.
7 And when the (c) children of Israel cried vnto the Lord, because of the Madianites,
8 The Lorde sent vnto them a prophet, which sayd vnto them, Thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel: I fet you from Egypt, & brought you out of the house of bondage.
9 And I ryd you out of the hande of the Egyptians, & out of the hand of all that oppressed you, and cast them out before you, and gaue you their land:
10 And I sayd vnto you: I am the Lord your God, * feare not the goddes of the Amorites in whose lande you dwell: But you haue not obeyed my voyce.
11 And the angel of the Lorde came and sate vnder an Oke which was in Ephrah, that parteyned vnto Joas the father of the Esrites: And his sonne Gedeon threshed wheat by the wyne presse, to hyde it from the Madianites.
12 And the angel of the Lorde appeared vnto him, and said vnto him: The Lord is with thee, thou mightie man.
13 And Gedeon aunswered him: (d) Oh my Lord, if the Lorde be with vs, why is all this come vpon vs: Yea, & where be all his miracles which our fathers tolde vs of, and sayd: Dyd not the Lord bryng vs out of Egypt: But nowe the Lord hath forsaken vs, and deliuered vs into the handes of the Madianites.
14 And the (e) Lord loked vpon him, and sayde: Go hence in this thy (f) might, and thou shalt deliuer Israel out of the handes of the Madianites: Haue not I sent thee:
15 And he aunswered him: Oh Lorde, wherwith shall I saue Israel: Behold my kinred is poore in Manasses, and I am litle in my fathers house.
16 The Lord sayd vnto him: I will be with thee, & thou shalt smyte the Madianites, as they were but one man.
17 And he aunswered him: Oh, yf I haue founde grace in thy syght, than shew me a (i) a signe, that it is thou that talkest with me:
18 Departe not hence I pray thee vntyll I come vnto thee, & tyll I bryng myne offring, and haue set it before thee. And he sayd: I will tary vntyll thou come againe.
19 And Gedeon went in, and made redy a kyd, and sweete cakes of an (k) Epha of floure, and put it with the flesh in a basket, and put the broth in a pot, and brought it out vnto him vnder the Oke, and presented it.
20 And the angel of God sayd vnto him: Take the flesh and the sweete cakes, & lay them vpon this rocke, and powre out the broth. And he dyd so.
21 Then the angel of the Lord put forth the end of the staffe that he helde in his hande, and touched the flesh and the sweete cakes, and * there arose vp fire out of the rocke, and consumed the flesh and the sweete cakes: But the angel of the Lord departed out of his sight.
22 And when Gedeon perceaued that it was an angel of the Lorde, he sayde: Alas, O Lorde God, * haue I therfore seene an angel of the Lorde face to face, [that I should dye:]
23 And the Lorde sayd vnto him: Peace be vnto thee, feare not, thou shalt not dye.
24 Then Gedeon made an aulter there vnto the Lord, and called it, The Lord of peace. And vnto this day it is yet in Ephrath, that parteyneth vnto the father of the Esrites.
25 And the same nyght the Lorde sayde vnto him: Take thy fathers young bullocke, & an other bullocke of. vii. yeres olde, and (l) destroy the aulter of Baal that thy father hath, and cut downe the groue that is by it:
26 And make an aulter vnto the Lord thy God vpon the top of this rocke in a conuenient place, and take the seconde bullocke, and offer burnt sacrifice vpō the wood of the groue which thou shalt cut downe.
27 Then Gedeon toke ten men of his seruauntes, & did as the Lord bad him: But because he feared to do it by daye for 29 And they sayde one to another: Who hath done this thing? And whan they enquered and asked, they sayd: Gedeon ỳ sonne of Joas hath done this thing.

30 Then the men of the citie sayde vnto Joas, Bring out thy sonne, that he may dye: because he hath destroyed the aulter of Baal, and cut downe the groue that was by it.

31 And Joas sayd vnto al that stoode by him: Will ye pleade Baals cause? or Will ye saue him? He that will contende for him, let him dye or the morning. If he be a God, let him pleade for himselfe against him that hath caste downe his aulter.

32 And from that day, was Gedeon called Jerobaal: because his father had sayd, Let Baal pleade for himselfe, because he hath broken downe his aulter.

33 All the Madianites therfore, and the Amalekites, and they of the east, were gathered together, & went and pytched in the valley of Jesrael:

38 And it came so to passe: For he rose vp early on the morowe, & thrust the fleece together, and wrong the dewe therout, and fylled a bowle of water.

39 And Gedeon sayde agayne vnto God: Be not angry with me, that *I speake once more, for I wil proue once agayne by the fleece. Let it be drye onely vpon the fleece, and dewe vpon al the ground.

40 And God dyd so that same nyght: For it was drye vpon the fleece only, & there was dewe on all the grounde.

¶ The.vii. Chapter.

1. The Lord commaundeth Gedeon to send away a great parte of his companie. 22. The Madianites are discomfited by a wonderous sort. 25. Oreb and Zeeb are slaine.

A 1 Then Jerobaal (who is Gedeon) and all ỳ people ỳ were with him, rose vp early, & pytched besyde the wel of Harad: so that the hoaste of the Madianites were on the northsyde of them by the hyll of Moreh in the valley.

2 And the Lord sayd vnto Gedeon: The people that are with thee, are to many for me to geue ỳ Madianites into their handes, lest Jsrael make their (a) vaunt against me, and saye: Myne owne hand hath saued me.

(a) God wyll not that any creature deprriue hym of his glorie.

3 Nowe therfore make a proclamation in the eares of people, and saye: *If any man dread or be afeard, let him returne and depart early from mount Gilead. And there returned of the people xxii. thousande, & there abode ten thousande.

Deut.xx.b. 1.Malach.3.g

4 And the Lord sayd vnto Gedeon: The people are yet to many, bryng them downe vnto the water, and I will trye them vnto thee there. And of whom I say vnto thee, this shal go with thee: the same shal go with thee. And of whom soeuer I say vnto thee, this shal not go with thee: the same shal not go.

5 So he brought downe the people vnto the water: And the Lord said vnto Gedeon, As many as lappe ỳ water with their tongues as a dogge lappeth, them put by them selues, and [so do] them that kneele downe vpon their knees (b) to drincke.

(b) They shal depart as vnmeete for this enterprise.

6 And the number of them that put their handes to their mouthes and lapped, were three hundred men: But all ỳ remnaunt of ỳ people kneeled downe vpon their their knees to drynke water.

7 And the Lorde sayd vnto Gedeon: By these three hundred men that (c) lapped will I saue you, and deliuer the Madianites into thyne hande: And let all the (d) other people go euery man vnto his place.

(c) whiche were in number, and put to the mouth at two times xxx. C. and viii. C.

8 They therfore of the people toke vittailes with them, and their trumpettes: And he sent all the rest of Israel, euery man vnto his tent, and retayned those three hundreth men: And the hoast of Madian was beneath him in a valley.

9 And the same nyght the Lorde sayde vnto him: Aryse, get thee downe vnto the hoast, for I haue delyuered it vnto thyne hand.

10 But and if thou feare to go downe, then go thou and Phara thy ladde downe to the hoast.

11 And thou shalt hearken what they say, and so shall thine handes be strong to go downe vnto ỹ hoast. Then went he downe & Phara his ladde vnto the outsyde of the men of armes that were in the hoast.

12 And

12 And the Madianites, the Amalekites, and all they of the east, lay along in the valley lyke a multitude of grashoppers, and their camelles were without numbre, euen as the sande by the sea syde in multitude.

Iud.6 c.

13 And When Gedeon was come, behold, there was a man that tolde a dreame vnto his neyghbour, and sayd: Behold, I dreamed a dreame, and me thought that a cake of barley bread tumbled into the hoast of Madian, and came vnto a tent, and smote it that it fell, and ouerturned it that the tent lay along.

℣ 14 And his felowe answered and sayd: This is nothing els saue the sworde of Gedeon ỹ sonne of Joas, a man of Israel: for into his hande hath God deliuered Madian, and all the hoast.

15 When Gedeon heard the telling of the dreame, & the interpretation of the same, he worshypped, and returned vnto the hoast of Israel, and sayde: Up, for the Lorde hath deliuered into your hande the hoast of Madian.

16 And he deuided the three hundred men into three companies, and gaue euery man a trumpet in his hande, with emptie pytchers, and (e) lampes therin.

(e) These vocall meanes God vsed, to signifie that the whole victorie came of hym.

17 And sayde vnto them, Loke on me, and do lykewyse: that When I come to the syde of the hoast, euen as I do, so do you.

18 When I blowe With a trumpet and all that are With me, blowe ye With trumpettes also on euery syde of the hoast, and say: For the Lord, and for Gedeon.

19 So Gedeon and the hundred men that were With him, came vnto the outsyde of the hoast in the begynnyng of the myddle watche, & raysed vp the watch men: And they blewe With their trumpettes, & brake the pytchers that were in their handes.

20 And the three companies blewe With trumpettes, & brake the pytchers, and helde the lampes in their left handes, and the trumpettes in their right, to blowe withal: And they cryed, The sworde of the Lorde, and of Gedeon.

21 And they stoode styll, euery man in his place rounde about the hoast: And all the hoast * ranne, and cryed, and fled. D

22 And the three hundreth blewe With trumpettes, and the Lorde set * euery mans sworde vppon his (f) neyghbour throughout all the hoast: and the hoast fled to Bethhasitah, to Zererath, and to the edge of the playne of Meholah vnto Tabbath.

A 1 AND the men of Ephraim said vnto him: Why hast thou serued vs thus, that thou calledst vs not, When thou wentest to fyght With the Madianites? And they chode With him sharpely.

(a) Which haue slayne two princes Oreb & Zeb. (b) This last act of the whole tribe, is more famous then the enterprise of one man of one familie.

2 And he sayde vnto them: What deede haue I done lyke vnto (a) yours? Is not the (b) gleaning of grapes of Ephraim, better then the vinetage of Abiezer?

3 God hath delyuered into your handes the lordes of Madian, Oreb and Zeb: And What was I able to do lyke as you haue done? And then their spirites abated from of him, When he had sayde that.

4 And Gedeon came to Jordane to passe ouer, he & the three hundred men that were With him Weery, and yet folowed the chase.

5 And

5 And he sayd vnto ẏ men of (c) Sucoth: Geue I pray you, cakes of bread vnto ẏ people that folow me, for they be fayntie, that I may folowe after Zebah, and Zalmana, kynges of Madian.

6 And the lordes of Sucoth sayde: Are the handes of Zebah and Zalmana now in thyne (d) handes, that we should geue bread vnto thyne armie?

7 Gedeon sayde: Therfore when the Lord hath deliuered Zebah and Zalmana into mine hande, I will teare the flesshe of you with the thornes of the wildernes, and with briers.

8 And he went vp thence to Phanuel, & spake vnto them lykewyse: And ẏ men of Phanuel aunswered him, as did the men of Sucoth.

9 And he sayd also vnto the men of Phanuel: when I come agayne (e) in peace, I will breake downe this towre.

10 Zebah & Zalmana were in Carcor, and their hoastes with them, vpon a fifteene thousande men, which were all that were left of all the hoastes of them of the east: For there was slaine an hundred and twentie thousande men that dreive swordes.

11 And Gedeon went thorowe them that dwelt in tabernacles on the east syde of Nobah and Iegbahah, and smote the hoaste: for the hoaste dyd cast no perylles.

12 And whan Zebah and Zalmana fled, he followed after them, and toke ẏ two kynges of Madian, Zebah and Zalmana, and discomfited all the hoaste.

13 And Gedeon the sonne of Joas, returned from battel afore the sunne was vp,

14 And caught a ladde of the men of Sucoth, & enquired of him: And he wrote him of the lordes and elders of Sucoth threescore and seuenteene men.

15 And he came vnto the men of Sucoth, and sayd: Beholde Zebah and Zalmana, with which ye dyd cast me in the teeth, saying: Are the handes of Zebah and Zalmana alredy in thyne hande, that we should geue bread vnto thy fayntie men?

16 And he toke the elders of the citie, and thornes of the wildernesse, and briers, and dyd teare the men of Sucoth with them.

17 And he brake downe the towre of *Phanuel, & slue the men of the citie.

18 And then sayde he vnto Zebah and Zalmana: what maner of men were they whom ye slue at Thabor? And they aunswered: The lykenesse of thee and them is al one, euē after the fashion of the children of a kyng.

19 And he sayd, They were my brethren, euen my (f) mothers children: As truly as the Lord liueth, if ye had saued their lyues, I would not slay you.

(f) Euen nature forceth me to reuenge their deathes.

20 And he sayde vnto Jether his eldest sonne, Up and slay them. But the ladde drue not his sworde: for he feared, because he was yet young.

21 Then Zebah and Zalmana sayde: Ryse thou, and fall vpon vs: for as (g) the man is, so is his strength. And Gedeon arose, and slue Zebah and Zalmana, and toke away the ornamentes that were on their camels neckes. ℣

(g) Meaning that they would be ryd out of their payne at once: or that they thought it dishonour to be put to death by a boy.

22 Then the men of Israel sayde vnto Gedeon: Raigne thou ouer vs, both thou, thy sonne, and thy (h) sonnes sonne, for thou hast deliuered vs out of ẏ hand of Madian.

(h) That is, thy posterite.

23 And Gedeon sayd vnto them: I wyll not raigne ouer you, neither shall my childe raigne ouer you: but the Lorde shall (i) raigne ouer you.

24 And agayne Gedeon said vnto them: I would desire a request of you, euen that you would geue me euery man the *earinges of his pray. For they had golden earinges, because they were Ismaelites.

26 And the wayght of ẏ golden earinges that he required, was a thousand and seuen hundred sicles of golde, beside chaynes and iewelles, and purple rayment that was on the kynges of Madian, and beside the chaynes that were about their camels neckes.

27 And Gedeon made an (k) Ephod therof, and put it in his citie Ephrah: And all Israel went a whoryng after it in the same place, which thing became a ruyne vnto Gedeon and to his house.

29 And Jerobaal ẏ sonne of Joas, went and dwelt in his owne house.

31 And his cõcubine that was in Sichem bare him a sonne also, whose name he called Abimelech.
32 And Gedeon the sonne of Joas dyed in a good age, and was buryed in the sepulchre of Joas his father, euen in Ephrah, that parteyned vnto the father of the Esrites.
33 But assoone as Gedeon was dead, the children of Israel turned away, & went a whoryng after Baalim, and made a couenaunt with Baal to be their God.
34 And the children of Israel thought not on the Lorde their God, which had deliuered them out of the handes of all their enemies on euery syde:

The.ix.Chapter.

1. Abimelech vsurpeth the kyngdome, and putteth his brethren to death. 7. Joatham propoſeth a parable. 23. Hatred betweene Abimelech, and the Sichemites. 26. Gaal conſpireth agaynſt him, and is ouercome. 53. Abimelech is wounded to death by a woman.

A 1 Bimelech the sonne of Jerobaal went to Sichem vnto his mothers brethren, & communed with them, & with all the kynrede of the house of his mothers father, saying:
2 Saye I pray you, in the eares of all the men of Sichem, whether is better for you, that all the sonnes of Jerobaal, (which are threescore and ten persons) raigne ouer you: either that one raigne ouer you: Remember that I am of your bone, and of your flesshe.
3 And his mothers brethren spake of him in the audience of all the men of Sichem all these wordes, & their hearte were moued to folow Abimelech: for they sayde, he is our brother.
4 And they gaue him threescore and ten peces of siluer out of the house of Baal Berith, wherwith Abimelech hyred vayne and light persons, which went with him.
5 And he went vnto his fathers house at Ephrah, * and (a) slue his brethren, the sonnes of Jerobaal, beyng threescore & ten persons, vpon one stone: Notwithstandyng, yet Joatham the youngest sonne of Jerobaal escaped, for he hyd hym selfe.
9 And all the men of Sichem gathered together, and al the house of Mello, and came and made Abimelech kyng in the playne, where the stone was in Sichem.
7 And when they tolde it to Joatham, he went and stoode in the top of mount Garizim, and lyft vp his voyce, & cryed, and sayd vnto them: Hearken vnto me you men of Sichem, that God may hearken vnto you.
8 (b) The trees went foorth to annoynt a kyng ouer them, and sayde vnto the Olyue tree: Raigne thou ouer vs.
9 But the Olyue tree sayd vnto them: Should I leaue my fatnesse wherwith by me they honour (c) God and man, & to be promoted ouer the trees?
10 And the trees sayd to the figge tree: Come thou, and be kyng ouer vs.
11 The figge tree aunswered them: should I forsake my sweetnes, and my good frute, and go to be promoted ouer the trees?
12 Then sayde the trees vnto the vine: Come thou and be kyng ouer vs.
13 The vine sayde vnto them: Should I leaue my wine wherby I cheare both (d) God and man, and go to be promoted ouer the trees?
14 Then said all the trees vnto the bryer: Come thou and raigne ouer vs.
15 And the bryer sayde vnto the trees: If it be true that ye will annoynt me kyng ouer you, then come and put your trust vnder my shadow: If no, the (e) fyre come out of the bryer, & waste the Cedar trees of Libanon.
16 Nowe therfore, if ye do truely and vncorruptly to make Abimelech kyng, and if ye haue dealte well with Jerobaal & his house, and haue done vnto hym according to the deseruing of his handes:

19 If ye then haue dealt truely and purely with Jerobaal and with his house this day, then reioyce ye with Abimelech, and let him reioyce with you.
20 But if you haue not dealt truely, then let a fire come out of Abimelech, & consume the men of Sichem, & the house of Mello: and let there come out a fire frō among the men of Sichem, & out of the house of Mello, & consume Abimelech.
D 21 And Joatham ran away and fledde, and went to Beer, and dwelt there, for feare of Abimelech his brother.
22 When Abimelech had raigned three yeres ouer Israel,
23 God (g) sent an euyll spirite betweene Abimelech, & the men of Sichem: and the citezins of Sichem brake their promise to Abimelech,
24 That the wickednes done to the three score and ten sonnes of Jerobaal might come on him, and that God might lay the blood of them vnto Abimelech their brother, which slue them, and vpon the other men of Sichem which ayded him in the killing of his brethren.
25 And the citezins of Sichem set men to lay awayte for hym in the toppe of the mountaynes, which men robbed al that came along the way by them: And it was tolde Abimelech.
26 And Gaal the sonne of Obed came with his brethren, and they gat them to Sichem: and the men of Sichem put their confidence in him.
27 And they went out into the fieldes, and gathered in their grapes, & trode them, and made mery, & went into the house of their god, and dyd eate and drinke, and cursed Abimelech.
C 28 And Gaal the sonne of Obed sayde: What is Abimelech? & what is Sichem, that we shoulde serue him? Is he not the sonne of Jerobaal? & Zebul is his officer? Serue such as come of Hemor the father of Sichem: for what reason is it that we shoulde serue him?
29 Woulde God this people were vnder my hande, then would I take Abimelech out of ỹ way. And he spake against Abimelech: Make thine hoast greater, and go out.
E 30 And when Zebul the ruler of the citie heard the wordes of Gaal the sonne of Obed, he was wroth.
31 And sent messengers vnto Abimelech priuyly, saying: Behold, Gaal the sonne of Obed and his brethren be come to Sichem, and beholde they fortifie the citie against thee.
32 Now therfore vp by night, thou and the people that is with thee, and lye in wayte in the fielde.
33 And rise early in the morning assone as the sunne is vp, and fall vpon the citie: And if he & the people that is with hym come out against thee, do to hym what thine handes shalbe able.
34 And Abimelech rose vp, and all the people that were with him, by night, and they layde awayte against Sichem in foure companies.
35 And Gaal the sonne of Obed went out, F and stoode in the entring of the gate of the citie: And Abimelech rose vp, and the folke that were with him, from lying in wayte.
36 And when Gaal sawe ỹ people, he sayd to Zebul: Beholde, there come people downe from the top of the mountaines. And Zebul sayd vnto him: (h) The shadow of the hylles seeme men vnto thee.
37 And Gaal aunswered agayne, & sayd: See, there come folke downe by ỹ middle of the land, & another company come along by the playne of the charmars.
38 Then sayd Zebul vnto him: Where is nowe thy mouth that said, What felowe is Abimelech, that we should serue him? Is not this the people that thou hast despysed? Go out now & fight with thē.
39 And Gaal went out before the citezins of Sichem, & fought with Abimelech.
40 And Abimelech chased him, that he fled before him, and many were ouerthrowen & wounded, euen vnto the entring of the gate.
41 And Abimelech dwelt at Arumah: and Zebul thrust out Gaal & his brethrē that they shoulde not dwell in Sichem.
42 And on the morow, the people wēt out into the fielde: And they told Abimelech. G
43 And he toke the people, & deuided them into three cōpanies, & layd awayte in the fielde, and loked, and behold the people were come out of the citie, and he ran vpon them, and smote them.

(h) By these wordes he mocked Gaal for the bragge he made afore against Abimelech.

D i 44 And

44 And Abimelech and the companions that were with him, rushed forward, & stoode in the entring of the gate of the citie: and the two other companions ran vpon all the people that were in the fieldes, and slue them.

45 And when Abimelech had fought against the citie al that day, he toke it, and slue the people that was therin, and destroyed the citie, and sowed (i) salte in it.

(i) That it shoulde be vnfruteful, and neuer serue to any vse.

46 And when all the men of the towre of Sichem heard that, they entred into an holde of the house of the god (k) Berith.

(k) That is of Baal Berith as afore. Chap. 8. g.

47 And it was told Abimelech, that all the men of the towre of Sichem were gathered together.

48 And Abimelech gat him to mount Zelmon, both he & all the people that were with him, & toke axes with him, and cut downe bowes of trees, & toke them and bare them on his shulder, & sayde vnto the folke that were with hym: What ye haue seene me do, speede your selues, & do lykewyse as I haue done.

49 And al the men that were among the people, cut downe bowes, and folowed Abimelech, and put them into the hold, and set the holde a fire by them: so that al the men of the towre of Sichem died also, vpon a thousande men & women.

50 Then went Abimelech to Thebez, & besieged it, and toke it.

51 But there was a strong towre within the citie, and thyther ranne all the men and women, and all the chiefe that were in the citie, and shut it to them, and gate them vp to the toppe of the towre.

52 And Abimelech came vnto the towre, and fought agaynst it, and went harde vnto the doore of ỹ towre to set it on fire.

53 And a certayne woman* cast a peece of a mylstone vpon his head, & all to brake his brayne panne. * ii. Re. xi. b.

54 Then Abimelech called hastyly vnto the young man that bare his harnesse, and sayde vnto him: Drawe thy swoorde and slea me, that men say not of me, A woman slue him: And his lad thrust him thorowe, and he died.

55 And when the men of Israel sawe that Abimelech was dead, they departed euery man vnto his owne house.

56 Thus God rendred the wickednesse of Abimelech which he dyd vnto his father, in sleyng his seuentie brethren.

57 And therto all the wickednesse of the men of Sichem, dyd God bryng vpon their heades: And vpon them came the (l) curse of Ioatham the sonne of Ierobaal.

(l) What strength the curse of hym man oppressed with wrong, hath to bryng the vengeaunce of God vpon the oppressours, may appeare by this, and likewyse by Cheus the prophet.

¶ The. x. Chapter.

2 Thola died. 5 Iair also died. 17 The Israelites are punished for their sinnes. 10 They crye vnto God, 16 And he hath pitie on them.

AFter Abimelech, there arose to defende Israel Thola the sonne of Phuah the sonne of Dodo, a man of Issachar, whiche dwelt in Samir in mount Ephraim.

* Or, gouerned.

2 And he* iudged Israel twentie & three yeres, & died, & was buried in Samir.

3 And after him, arose Iair a Gileadite, and iudged Israel twintie and two yeres.

4 And he had thirtie sonnes that rode on (a) thirtie Asse coltes, and they had thirtie cities, which are called (b) Hauoth Iair vnto this day, and are in the lande of Gilead.

(a) That was the vse of men of great authoritie and honour.
(b) Or the townes of Iair. Deut. Chap. 3.

5 And Iair died, and was buried in Canon.

6 And the children of Israel wrought wickednesse yet agayne in the sight of the Lord, and serued Baalim and Astaroth, and the gods of Syria, the gods of Sidon, and the gods of Moab, the gods of the children of Ammon, and the gods of the Philistines, and forsoke the Lorde, and serued not him.

" Or, Aram.

7 And the Lord was wroth with Israel, and he* solde them into the handes of the Philistines, and into the handes of the children of Ammon.

* Or, sold them.

8 Which from that yere foorth, pilde and oppressed the children of Israel eyghteene yeres, (c) al that were on the other side Iordane, in the lande of the Amorites whiche is in Gilead.

(c) They the Reubenites, Gadites, and half the tribe of Manasses.

9 Moreouer, ỹ children of Ammon went ouer Iordane to fight agaynst Iuda, Beniamin, and the house of Ephraim, so that Israel was sore cumbred.

10 And the children of Israel cryed vnto ỹ Lord, saying: We haue sinned against thee, for we haue forsaken our owne God,

God, and haue serued Baalim.

11 And the Lorde (o) sayde vnto the chil-dre of Israel: Dyd not I ryd you from the Egiptians and from the Amorites, from the children of Ammon, and from the Philistines?

12 The Sidonites also, and the Amale-kites, & the Maonites dyd oppresse you, and ye cryed to me, and I deliuered you out of their handes.

13 And for all *that, ye haue forsaken me and serued straunge gods, wherfore I will helpe you no more.

14 Go and crye vnto the gods whiche ye haue chosen, and let them saue you in the tyme of your tribulation.

15 And the children of Israel sayde vnto the Lord: We haue sinned, do thou vnto vs whatsoeuer please thee, deliuer vs onely we pray thee this day.

16 And they put away the straunge gods from them, & serued the Lord: And his soule had pitie on the miserie of Israel.

17 Then the children of Ammon gathered together, & pitched in Gilead: And the children of Israel gathered them together, and pitched in Mispah.

18 And the people and lordes of Gilead sayde eche to other: Whosoeuer will beginne the battell agaynst the children of Ammon, the same shalbe head ouer all the inhabitauntes of Gilead.

The. xi. Chapter.

2 Jephthah beyng chased away by his brethren, was after made captayne ouer Israel. 30 He maketh a rashe vowe. 32 He vanquisheth the Ammonites, 39 And sacrificeth his daughter according to his vowe.

1 AND there was one Jephthah a Gileadite, a strong man, the sonne of an harlot.

2 And Gilead begat Jephthah: And Gi-leads wyfe bare him sonnes, which when they were come to age, thrust out Jephthah, and said vnto him: Thou shalt not inherite in our fathers house, for thou art the sonne of a (a) straunge woman.

3 Then Jephthah fled from his brethren, and dwelt in the lande of (b) Tob: And there gathered vile men to Jephthah, and (c) went out with him.

4 And in processe of time, the children of Ammon made warre agaynst Israel.

5 And when the children of Ammon fought thus agaynst Israel, the elders of Gilead went to fet Jephthah out of the lande of Tob,

6 And sayde vnto him: Come, and (d) be our captayne, that we may fight with the children of Ammon.

7 Jephthah aunswered the elders of

(c) To make inuasions vpō the enemies of the people of God, and to liue of the spoyle.

(d) God can bryng the cast-away to haue rule ouer his oppressours: Let no man therfore exalte him selfe, and despise any man of Gods creation.

Gilead: Dyd not ye hate me, & expell me out of my fathers house: howe then come you vnto me nowe in time of your tribulation?

8 And the elders of Gilead sayde vnto Jephthah: Therfore we turne agayne to thee nowe, that thou mayest go with vs, & fight against the children of Ammon, and be our head ouer all the inhabitauntes of Gilead.

9 And Jephthah sayde vnto the elders of Gilead: If ye bring me home againe to fight against the children of Ammon, then yf the Lorde deliuer them before 10 me, shall I be your head? And the eldersof Gilead sayd to Jephthah: The Lorde be witnesse betweene vs, if we do not according to thy wordes.

11 Then Jephthah went with the elders of Gilead, and ẏ people made hym head & captayne ouer them: And Jephthah rehearsed al his wordes before the Lorde in Mispah.

12 And Jephthah sent messengers vnto the king of the children of Ammon, saying: What hast thou to do with me, that thou art come against me, to fight in my lande?

13 The king of the children of Ammon aunswered vnto ẏ messengers of Jephthah: Because Israel toke away my lande when they came out of Egypt, euen from Arnon vnto Jabok, and vnto Jordane: Nowe therfore restore those landes agayne "with faire meanes.

" Hebr. In peace.

14 And Jephthah sent messengers agayne vnto the king of the children of Ammon, 15 And sayd vnto him, thus sayth Jephthah: * Israel toke not away the lande of Moab, nor the lande of the children of Ammon.

Deut. ii. b.

16 But when Israel came vp frō Egypt, and walked thorowe the wildernesse, euen vnto ẏ red sea, they came to Cades:

17 And Israel sent messengers vnto the king of Edom, saying, Let me I praye thee go thorow thy lande: But the king of Edō would not agree therto. And in lyke maner they sent vnto the king of Moab: but he would not consent. And Israel abode stil in Cades.

18 And then they went along thorowe the wildernesse, and compassed the land of Edom, & the land of Moab, and came along by the east syde of the land of Moab, and pitched on the other side of Arnon, and would not come within the coast of Moab: for Arnon was the border of Moab.

19 And then Israel * sent messengers vnto Sehon king of the Amorites, & king of Hesbon, and sayde vnto him: Let vs passe we pray thee thorow thy land vnto our owne countrey. Deut. iic.

20 But Sehon consented not to Israel, that he shoulde go thorowe his coast: but gathered all his people together, & pitched in Jasa, & fought with Israel.

21 And the Lorde God of Israel deliuered Sehon & all his folke into the handes of Israel, and they smote them: So Israel smote them, and possessed all the land of the Amorites the inhabitauntes of that countrey. D

22 And they possessed al the coastes of the Amorites, from Arnon vnto Jabok, & from the wildernesse vnto Jordane.

23 So nowe, seyng the Lord God of Israel hath cast out the Amorites before his people Israel, shouldest thou possesse it?

24 Nay, but what people Camos thy God dryueth out, that lande possesse thou: Euen so whatsoeuer nation (e) the Lord our God expelleth before vs, that lande ought we to enioy.

(e) You can thinke that you had good right to this land, thy ye beleeue your sayne God should geue you: how much more haue we good right to this land that the true liuing lord our God hath geuen vs

25 And art thou better then Balac the sonne of Zephor king of Moab? Did he not stryue with Israel and fight against them, 26 All the whyle Israel dwelt in Hesbon and her townes, in Aroer and her townes, and in all the cities that be along by ẏ coastes of Arnon three hundred yeres: why did ye not recouer them in all that space?

27 wherfore I haue not synned agaynst thee, but thou doest me wrong to warre against me: The Lord therfore whiche is a iudge, be iudge this day betweene the children of Israel, and the children of Ammon.

28 Howbeit, the king of the children of Ammon hearkened not vnto the wordes of Jephthah, which he sent him. C

29 Then the ' spirite of the Lord came vpō Jephthah, and he passed ouer to Gilead & to Manasses, and came to Mispah that lieth in Gilead, & from thence vnto the children of Ammon.

' Or, mynde, strength, courage, power, spirit.

30 And Jephthah vowed a vowe vnto ẏ Lorde, & sayd: If thou shalt deliuer the children of Ammon into my handes,

31 Then

31 Then that thing that commeth out of the doores of my house against me, whē I come home in peace from the chil-dren of Ammon, shalbe the Lordes, and I will offer it vp for a burnt offering.

32 And so Jephthah went vnto the chil-dren of Ammon to fight against them, and the Lorde deliuered them into his handes.

33 And he smote them from Aroer tyll thou come to Minnith, euen twentie ci-ties, and so forth to the playne of the vineyardes, with an exceeding great slaughter: And thus the childrē of Am-mon were brought vnder, before the children of Israel.

34 When Jephthah came to Mispah vn-to his house, see, his daughter came out against him with (g) timbrelles and daunces, which was his onely chylde: so that beside her, he had neither sonne nor daughter.

35 And when he sawe her, he (h) rent his clothes, & sayde: Alas my daughter, thou hast brought me lowe, & art one of them that troubleth me: For I haue opened my mouth vnto the Lorde, and cannot go backe.

36 And she sayde vnto him: My father, if thou haue opened thy mouth vnto the Lorde, then do with me according to it that proceeded out of thy mouth, for as much as the Lorde hath auenged thee of thyne enemies ỹ children of Ammon.

37 And she sayd vnto her father, Do this much for me: Let me alone two mo-nethes, that I may go to the moun-taynes and (i) bewayle my virginite, I and my felowes.

38 And he sayd, go. And he sent her away two monethes: And so she went with her companions, & lamented her may-denhead vpon the mountaynes.

39 And after the ende of two monethes, she turned againe vnto her father, which dyd with her according to his vowe which he had vowed, & she had knowne no man: And it grewe to a cu-stome in Israel, 40 The daughters of Israel came yere by yere to lamēt the daughter of Jeph-thah the Gileadite, foure dayes in a yere.

(g) For it was counted as a shame in Is-rael to dye without chil-dren.

¶ The.xii. Chapter.

6 Jephthah killeth two and fourtie thousande Ephraimites. 8 After Jephthah suc-ceedeth Ibzan. 11 Elon. 13 And Abdon.

1 AND the men of Ephra-im gathered them sel-ues together, & went (a) northwarde, & sayd vnto Jephthah: wher-fore wentest thou to fight (b) against the chil-dren of Ammon, and dyddest not call vs to go with thee? We will therfore burne thine house vpon thee with fire.

2 And Jephthah sayde vnto them, I & my people were at great stryfe with the children of Ammon: And when I called you, ye deliuered me not out of their handes.

3 And when I sawe that ye deliuered me not, (c) I put my lyfe in my handes, and went vpon the children of Ammon, and the Lorde deliuered them into my handes: wherfore then are ye come vp-on me nowe, to fight against me?

4 Jephthah therfore gathered together all the men of Gilead, and fought with the Ephraites. And the men of Gilead smote the Ephraites, because they sayd: Ye Gileadites are but runneagates of Ephraim, among the Ephraites and the Manassites.

5 Moreouer, the men of Gilead toke the passages of Jordane before the Ephrai-tes: And when those Ephraites that were escaped, said, Let me go ouer: then the men of Gilead sayde vnto hym, Art thou an Ephraite? If he sayde, nay:

6 Then sayde they vnto him: Then say, (d) Schibboleth. And he sayde, Sibbo-leth: for he coulde not so pronounce. And then they toke him, and slue him at the passages of Jordane: And there were ouerthrowen at that time of the Ephraites fourtie and two thousande.

7 And Jephthah iudged Israel six yeres, then died Jephthah the Gileadite, and was buried in [one of] ỹ cities of Gilead.

8 After this man, iudged Israel one Ibzan of Bethlehem.

9 And he had thirtie sonnes and thirtie daughters, whom he sent out, and toke in thirtie daughters from abrode for his sonnes. And when Ibzan (e) had iudged Israel seuen yere, 10 He died, & was buried at Bethlehem.

13 After him, Abdon the sonne of Hellel, a Pharathonite, iudged Israel.
14 And he had fourtie sonnes, and thirtie neuewes, that rode on threscore and ten asse coltes: And when Abdon the sonne of Hellel the Pharathonite had iudged Israel eight yeres, 15 He died, & was buryed in Pharathon in the lande of Ephraim, in the mount of the Amalekites.

¶ The.xiii. Chapter.

1 Israel for their wickednesse is oppressed of the Philistines. 3 The angel appeareth to Manoahs wife. 16 The angell commaundeth him to sacrifice vnto the Lorde. 24 The birth of Samson.

A 1 AND the children of Israel "began agayne to cõmitte * wickednesse in the sight of the lord, and the Lorde deliuered them into the handes of the Philistines fourtie yeres.

"Heb. Added to commit. Iud. 2 b. 3 b. 4. a. 6. a 10. a.

2 And there was a man in Zaraah of the kinred of Dan, named Manoah, Whose wife was barren, and bare not.
3 And the angell of the Lord appeared vnto the woman, & sayde vnto her: Beholde, nowe thou art barren, & bearest not, but thou shalt conceaue, and beare a sonne.
4 And nowe therfore beware * that thou drinke no wyne, nor strong drinke, neither eate any vncleane thing:
5 For lo, thou shalt conceaue and beare a sonne, And ther may no * rasor come on his head, for ỹ ladde shalbe (a) a Nazarite vnto God euen from his byrth: And he shal beginne to saue Israel out of the handes of the Philistines.

(a) Meaning he should haue a peculiar calling to serue God in, separat from the common order of men.

6 Then the wife came, & tolde her husbande, saying: A man of God came vnto me, and the fashion of him was lyke the fashion of an angell of God, exceeding "fearful: But I asked him not whence he was, neither tolde he me his name:
7 But sayde vnto me, beholde, thou shalt be with childe and beare a sonne, & now drinke no wyne nor strong drinke, neither eate any vncleane thing, for the ladde shalbe an abstayner to God, euen from his byrth to the day of his death.
8 Then Manoah made intercession to the Lorde, and sayde: I pray thee my Lorde, let the man of God whiche thou sendedst, come agayne vnto vs, & teache vs what we shal do vnto the ladde whẽ he is borne.

" Or, wonderfull.

9 And God heard the voyce of Manoah and the angel of God came agayne vnto the wife as she sate in the felde: but Manoah her husbãd was not with her.
10 And the wife made haste, and ranne & shewed her husbande, & sayde vnto him: behold, the man appeared vnto me that came vnto me (b) to day.
11 And Manoah arose & went after his wife, and came to the (c) man, and sayde vnto him: Art thou the mã that spakest vnto the woman? And he sayde: I am.
12 Manoah sayde, Nowe let thy saying come to passe: Howe shall we order the childe, and do vnto him?
13 And the angell of the Lord sayd vnto Manoah: The woman must absteyne from all that I sayde vnto her:
14 She may eate of nothing that cõmeth of the vine tree, nor drinke wine or strong drinke, nor eate any (d) vncleane thing: but must obserue all that I bad her.
15 Manoah sayde vnto the angell of the Lorde: I pray thee let vs retayne thee vntill we haue made redy a kyd before thee.
16 And the angel of the Lord sayde vnto Manoah: Though thou make me abide, I wil not eate of thy bread: And if thou wilt offer a burnt offering, thou must offer it vnto the (e) Lorde. For Manoah wist not that it was an angell of the Lorde.
17 And Manoah sayde agayne vnto the angell of the Lord: what is thy name, that when thy saying is come to passe, we may do thee worshippe?
18 And the angel of the Lorde sayde vnto him: * Why askest thou thus after my name, which is secrete?

(b) It semeth that the angel appeared twyse in one day.
(c) Whom he thought to be a man, but was in deede an angel.
(d) That is, any thing that is forbid by the lawe.
(e) And not vnto me also to vnto.

And so Manoah toke a kyd, with a meat offring, and offred it vpon a rocke vnto vnto the Lorde: And the angell did *wonderously, Manoah and his wife lokyng vpon.

20 (f) And whē the flambe came vp toward heauen from the aulter, the angell of the Lorde ascended vp in the flambe of the aulter: And Manoah and his wyfe loked vpon it, and fell on their faces vnto the grounde.
21 (But the angel of the Lord did no more appeare vnto Manoah and his wyfe:)
And then Manoah knewe that it was an angel of the Lorde, 22 And sayd vnto his wyfe: *we shal surely dye, because we haue seene God.
23 But his wyfe sayde vnto him: If the Lord would kyll vs, he would not haue
(g) receaued a burnt offering and a meate offering of our handes, neither woulde he haue shewed vs al these thinges, nor woulde nowe haue tolde vs any suche.
24 And the wyfe bare a sonne, and called his name Samson: And ẏ ladde grewe, and the Lorde blessed him.
25 And the spirite of the Lorde began to *strengthen him in the hoast of Dan, betweene Zaraah and Esthaol.

(f) These graces that we haue receaued of God, & his accepting of our obedience, are sure tokēs of his loue toward vs: so that nothyng can hurt vs.

* Or, to come vpon hym at ỹ mes.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

2 Samson desireth to haue a wyfe of the Philistines. 6 He killeth a Lion. 12 He propoundeth a riddle. 19 He killeth thirtie. 20 His wyfe forsaketh him, and taketh another.

A 1 Samson went downe to Thamnath, and sawe a Womā in Thamnath of the daughters of the Philistines:
2 And he came vp, and told his father and his mother, & said: I haue sene a woman in Thamnath of the daughters of the Philistines: & nowe *geue me her to wyfe.
3 Then his father and mother sayd vnto him: (a) Is there neuer a woman among the daughters of thy brethren, & among al my people, but that thou must go, and take a wyfe of the vncircumcised Philistines? And Samson sayd vnto his father: Geue me this woman, for she pleaseth me well.
4 But his father and mother (b) wist not that it was the Lordes doyng, and that he sought an occasion against the Philistines: for at that time the Philistines raigned ouer Israel.
5 Then went Samson and his father & his mother downe to Thamnath, and came to the vineyardes of Thamnath: and beholde, a young Lion roared vpon him.
6 And the spirite of the Lord (c) came vpō him, and he tare him as he would haue rent a kydde, and yet had nothing in his hande: neither tolde his father and mother what he had done.
7 And he went downe, & talked with the woman, whiche seemed well fauoured in the sight of Samson.

(a) Heb. take her for me to wyfe.

(b) At ỹ first: but it is lyke they had vnderstandyng of Gods will afore they dyd consent.

(c) whereby he had strength and boldnesse.

8 And within a shorte space after, as he wēt thyther againe to take her to wife, he turned out of the way to see the carkasse of the Lion: And beholde, there was a swarme of bees and hony in the carkasse of the Lion.

9 And he toke therof in his handes, and went eating, and came to his father and mother, and gaue them also, and they did eate: But he tolde not them that he had taken the hony out of the carkasse of the Lion.

10 And so his father went downe vnto the woman, and Samson made there a (d) feast: for so vsed the younge men to do.

(d) At his marryage.

11 And whē they sawe him, they brought thirtie companions to be with him.

12 And Samson sayd vnto them, I will nowe put foorth a riddle vnto you: & yf you can declare it me within seuen dayes of the feast, and finde it out, I will geue you thirtie (e) sheetes, & thirtie chaunge of garmentes:

(e) Linnen vsed to be worne, as well in the day as in the night.

13 But and if you can not declare it me, then shal ye geue me thirtie sheetes and thirtie chaunge of (f) garmentes. And they aunswered him: Put foorth thy riddle, that we may heare it.

(f) To weare at feastes and solemne dates.

¶ 14 And he sayd vnto them: Out of the eater came meate, and out of the strong came sweetnesse. And they coulde not in three dayes expounde the riddle.

15 And whē the (g) seuenth day was come, they sayd vnto Samsons wyfe: Flatter thyne husband that he may declare vs the riddle, lest we burne thee and thy fathers house with fire: Haue ye called vs hyther, to make vs beggers: is it not so?

(g) Of the weeke, which was the fourth day of the feast.

16 And Samsons wyfe wept before him and sayd, Surely thou hatest me and louest me not: for thou hast put foorth a riddle vnto the children of my folke, and hast not tolde it me. And he sayde vnto her: Beholde, I haue not tolde it my father and my mother, and shall I tell it thee?

17 And Samsons wyfe wept before him seuen dayes, whyle the feast lasted: And the seuenth day he told her, because she lay so sore vpō him. And she tolde the riddle to the children of her folke.

18 And the men of the citie sayd vnto him the seuenth day, before the sunne went downe: What is sweeter then hony? and what is stronger then a Lion? Then sayd he vnto them: Yf ye had not plowed with my (h) heyffer, ye had not founde out my riddle.

(h) That is if ye had not vsed the artes of my wyfe.

19 And the spirite of the Lord came vpon him, and he went downe to (i) Askalon, and slue thirtie men of them, and spoyled them, & gaue chaunge of garmentes vnto them which expounded the riddle: And he was wroth, and went vp to his fathers house.

(i) Which was one of the chiefe cities of the Philistines.

20 But Samsons wyfe was geuen to one of his companions that he had taken vnto him.

¶ The.xv. Chapter.

4 Samson tyeth firebrandes to the fore tayles. 6 The Philistines burnt his father in lawe and his wife. 15 With the iawe bone of an asse he killeth a thousand men. 19 Out of a great tooth in the iawe, God gaue him water.

A 1 But within a while after, euen in the time of wheat haruest, Sāson visited his wife with a kyd, saying: I wil (a) go in to my wyfe into the chaumber. But her father would not suffer him to go in.

(a) That is I will vse her as my wyfe.

2 And her father sayde, I thought that thou haddest hated her, & therfore gaue I her to thy companion: Is not her younger sister fayrer then she? Take her I pray thee, in steade of the other.

3 Samson sayde vnto hym: Nowe am I more (○) blameles then the Philistines, and therfore will I do them displeasure.

(○) By reason of my wife.

4 And Samson went out, and caught three hundred fores, & toke firebrandes, and turned them tayle to tayle, and put a firebrand in the middes betweene two tayles.

5 And when he had set the brandes on fire, he sent them out into the standyng corne of the Philistines, & burnt vp both the reaped corne, and also the standing, with the vineyardes and oliues.

6 Then the Philistines sayd: who hath done this? And they aunswered: Samson the sonne in lawe of the Thamnite, because he had taken his wife, & geuen her to his companion. And the Philistines came vp, and (b) burnt her and her father with fire.

(b) This correction is misplaced and not blotted out, & needeth to be done to auenge her father, not for burning of her.

7 And

7 And Samson sayd vnto them: Though 15 ye haue done this, yet will I be auenged of you, and then I will ceasse.
8 And he smote them legge and thygh with a myghtie plague, and then he went & dwelt in the toppe of the rocke Etam.
9 Then the Philistines came vp, and pytched in Juda, and camped in Lehi.
10 And the men of Juda sayde: Why are ye come vp vnto vs? They answered:
To binde Samson are we come vp, & to do to hym, as he hath done to vs.
11 Then three thousande men of Juda went to the toppe of the rocke Etam, & sayde to Samson: Wottest thou not that the Philistines are rulers ouer vs?
Wherfore then hast thou done thus vnto vs? He answered them: As they dyd vnto me, so haue I done vnto them.
12 And they sayd vnto him agayne: We are come to binde thee, and to deliuer thee into ỹ hande of the Philistines. And Samson said vnto them: Sweare vnto me, that ye shall not fal vpon me your selues.

13 They aunswered him, saying: No, but we will bynde thee, & (d) delyuer thee vnto their handes: but we wyll not kyll thee. And they bounde hym with two new cordes, and brought him from the rocke.

(d) Whom god had appointed to be their deliuerer from the yoke of the Philistines.

¶ 14 And when he came to Lehi, the Philistines showted agaynst him: And the spirite of the Lord came vpon him, and the cordes that were vpon his armes, became as flaxe that was burnt with fire, so the bandes loosed from of his handes.

15 And he founde a (e) newe iawe bone of an Asse, & put forth his hande, and caught it, and slue a thousande men therwith.

(e) That is, of an asse lately dead.

16 And Samson sayde: With the iawe of an Asse, heapes vpon heapes: With the iawe of an Asse haue I slayne a thousande men.

17 And when he had left speakyng, he cast away the iawe bone out of his hande, and called the place (f) Ramath Lehi.

(f) That is, the hyghyng vp of the iawe.

18 And he was sore a thyrst, and called on the Lord, and sayde: Thou hast geuen this great victory in the hande of thy seruaunt: and nowe I must dye for thirst, and fall into the handes of the vncircumcised.

19 But God brake a great tooth that was in the iawe, & there came water therout, and when he had dronke, his spirite came agayne, & he was refreshed: Wherfore the name thereof was called vnto this day, The well of the caller on: Which came of the iawe.

20 And he iudged Israel in the dayes of the Philistines, twentie yeres.

The.xvj.Chapter.

1. Samson carieth away the gates of Azzah. 18. He was deceaued by Delila. 30. He pulleth downe the house vpon the Philistines, and dyeth with them.

A 1 Then went Samson to Azzah, and sawe there an harlot, and went in vnto her.

2 And it was tolde the Azathites, saying: Samson is come hyther. And they went about, and layde a wayte for hym there all nyght in the gate of the citie, and were styll all the nyght, saying: In the mornyng when it is day, we shall kyll hym.

3 And Samson toke his rest tyll mydnyght, and arose at mydnyght, and toke the doores of the gate of the citie, and the two postes, and rent them of with the barre and all, and put them vppon his shoulders, and caryed them vp to the top of an hyll, that is before Hebron.

4 And after this, he loued a woman by the ryuer of Sorek, whose name was Dalila.

5 Unto whom came the lordes of the Philistines, and sayde vnto her: (b) Perswade him, and see wherin his great strenght lyeth, and by what meanes we may ouercome him, that we may bynde him, and punishe hym: and euery one of vs shall geue thee a leuen hundred siluer lynges.

6 And Dalila sayde to Samson: Oh, tell me where thy great strength lyeth, and how thou myghtest be bounde and brought vnder.

7 Samson aunswered vnto her: If they binde me with seuen greene wythes that were neuer dryed, I shalbe weake, and be as an other man.

8 And then the lordes of the Philistines brought her seuen wythes that were yet greene & neuer dryed, and she bound hym therwith.

9 (Notwithstanding she had men lying in wayte with her in the chaumbre): And she said vnto him, The Philistines be vpon thee Samson. And immediatly he brake the cordes, as a stryng of towe breaketh when it fealeth fire. And so his strength was not knowen.

10 And Dalila sayde vnto Samson: See, thou hast mocked me, and tolde me lies: Now therfore tell me wherwith thou myghtest be bounde.

11 He aunswered her: If they bynde me with newe ropes that neuer were occupied, I shall be weake, and be as an other man.

12 Dalila therfore toke newe ropes, and bounde him therwith, and sayde vnto him, The Philistines be vpō thee Samson. (And there were lyers of wayte in the chamber.) And he brake them from of his armes, as they had ben but a threade.

13 And Dalila sayde vnto Samson, Hytherto thou hast beguyled me, and tolde me lyes: Yet tell me howe thou myghtest be bounde. He sayde vnto her: If thou platteste the seuen lockes of my head with the threades of the woofe.

14 And she fastened it with a pynne, and sayde vnto him: The Philistines be vpō thee Samson. And he awaked out of his sleepe, and went away with the pynne of the webbe and the woofe. ℭ

15 And she sayde vnto him agayne: How canst thou saye (c) I loue thee, when thyne heart is not with me: Thou hast mocked me this three tymes, and hast not tolde me wherin thy great strength lyeth.

16 And as she laye vpon hym with her wordes, continually veryng of him, his soule was encumbred euē vnto ẏ death.

17 And so he tolde her all his heart, & said vnto her: There neuer came rasor vpon myne head, for I haue ben a Nazarite vnto God, euen from my mothers wombe: Therfore when I am shauen, my strength will go from me, & I shall waxe weake, and be lyke all [other] men.

(b) Of the vnsatisfiable desire of Iudas hyre.

(c) For if thou lyest to me, and wouldest haue me to beleue it. O what wretched and vnsatisfiable desire are they in, that can not refrayne the company of the harlot.

18 And

18 And when Dalila ſawe that he had tolde her all his heart, ſhe ſent and called for the lordes of the Philiſtines, ſaying: Come vp yet this once, for he hath ſhewed me all his hearte. Then ỹ lordes of the Philiſtines came vp vnto her, and brought the money in their handes.

19 And ſhe made hym ſleepe vpon her knees, and ſhe ſent for a man, and he dyd ſhaue of the ſeuen lockes of his head, & began to vexe him, and his ſtrength (e) was gone from him.

(e) Not for the loſſe of his heare, but for the contempt of the ordinance of God.

20 And ſhe ſayde, The Philiſtines be vpon thee Samſon. And he awoke out of his ſleepe, and ſayde: I will go out now as at other tymes before, & ſhake my ſelfe. And he wiſt not that the Lord was departed from hym.

21 But the Philiſtines toke hym, and put out his eyes, and brought him downe to *Azzah, and bounde him with fetters of braſſe: and he dyd grynde in the priſon houſe.

D 21 Howbeit the heere of his head began (f) to growe agayne after that he was ſhauen.

(f) And ſo dyd his ſtrēgth by his repentance, prayer, and reconciliation to God.

23 Then the lordes of the Philiſtines gathered them together, for to offer a ſolempne offring vnto Dagon their God, and to reioyce: For they ſayd, Our God hath deliuered Samſon our enemie into our handes.

24 And when the people ſawe him, they prayſed their God: for they ſayde, Our God hath delyuered into our handes our enemie, and deſtroyer of our countrey, whiche ſlue manye of vs.

25 And when their heartes were mery, they ſayde: Send for Samſon, that he may make vs laugh. And they fet Samſon out of the priſon houſe, and he played before them: and they ſet hym betweene the pyllers.

26 And Samſon ſayde vnto the lad that led hym by the hande: Set me that I may touche the pyllers that the houſe ſtandeth vpon, and that I may leane to them.

27 And the houſe was full of men and women, and there were all the lordes of the Philiſtines: And there were vpon the rooke a three thouſande men and women, that beheilde whyle Samſon * played.

28 And Samſon called vnto the Lorde, and ſayde: O Lorde God I pray thee thyncke vpon me, and ſtrengthen me I beſeche thee at this tyme onelye O God, that I may be " at once auenged of the Philiſtines for my two eyes.

* Or, was mocked.

" Heb. Take one vengeaunce.

29 And Samſon caught the two middle pyllers on which the houſe ſtoode and on which it was borne vp, the one in his ryght hande, and the other in his left.

30 And Samſon ſayde: My ſoule ſhall dye with the Philiſtines, and bowed them with all his myght, and the houſe fell vpon the lordes and vpon all the people that were therin: And ſo ỹ dead which he ſlue at his death, were mo then they which he ſlue in his lyfe.

31 And then his brethren & all the houſe of his father came downe, and toke him vp, and brought hym, and buryed hym betweene Zarah and Eſthaol, in the burying place of Manoah his father: And he iudged Iſrael twentie yeres.

¶ The.xvii. Chapter.

3. Micahs mother according to her dowe made her ſonne two idoles. 5. He made his ſonne a prieſt for his idoles. 10. And after he hired a Leuite.

1 THere was a man of mount Ephraim, named Micah.

2 And he ſayde vnto his mother: The ſeuen hundred (a) ſiluerlynges that were taken from thee, about which thou curſedſt, and ſpakeſt it in myne eares, beheld the ſyluer is with me, I toke it away. And his mother ſayd: Bleſſed be thou my ſonne, in the Lorde.

(a) Sicles of ſyluer.

3 And when he had reſtored the ſeuen hundreth ſyluerlynges to his mother, his mother ſayde: I had dedicated the ſyluer vnto the Lorde of myne hande for thee my ſonne, that thou ſhouldeſt make a grauen and moulten (b) image: Now therfore I will geue it thee agayne.

(b) Contrary to the commaundement of God & true religion.

4 And when he reſtored the money vnto his mother, his mother toke two hundreth ſyluerlynges, and gaue them the founder, which made therof a grauen and moulten image, and it was in the house of Micah.

5 And the man Micah had an house of goddes, and made an (c) Ephod and (d) Theraphim, and " consecrated one of his sonnes, which became his prieste.

6 In those dayes there was no kyng in Israel, but euery man dyd that which was good in his owne eyes.

B 7 And there was a young man out of Bethlehem Juda, of the kynred of Juda, which young man was a Leuite, & sojourned there.

8 And the man departed out of the citie of Bethlehem Juda, to go dwell where he coulde fynde [a conuenient place]: And he came to mount Ephraim, to the house of Micah as he iourneyed.

9 And Micah sayde vnto him: Whence cõmest thou? The Leuite aunswered hym: I am of Bethlehem Juda, and go to dwell where I may (e) fynde [a place].

10 And Micah sayde agayne vnto hym: Dwell with me, and be vnto me a father and a prieste, and I will geue thee ten syluerlynges by yere, two garmentes, and thy meate and drynke. So the Leuite went in.

11 And ỹ Leuite was (f) content to dwell with the man, and was vnto hym as one of his owne sonnes.

12 And Micah consecrated the Leuite, & the young man became his priest, and was in the house of Micah.

13 Then sayde Micah: Now I am sure that the Lord will be (g) good vnto me, seing I haue a Leuite to my prieste.

(c) In this that the Leuite wandereth to seke a liuing, it is manifest that Gods lawe & true religion which prouide for the Leuite was vtterly neglected and out of place.

(f) For the belly sake altogether against Gods lawe.

(g) When men in religion wander beside Gods word, they thynke they please God, when in deede they offend hym.

The.xviii.Chapter

2. The children of Dan send men to searche the land. 11. Then come the six hundreth and take the gods and the priest of Micah awaye. 27. They destroy Lais. 28. They build it agayne. 30. And set vp idolatrie.

A 1 IN those dayes there was (a) no kyng in Israel, and in those dayes the tribe of Dan sought them an inheritaunce to dwell in: For vnto that tyme all their inheritaunce had not fallen vnto them among the tribe of Israel.

2 And the children of Dan sent of their kynred fyue actiue men in feates of warre out of their coastes, euen out of Zaraah & Esthaol, to vieWe the lande and searche it out, and sayde vnto them: Go, and searche out the lande. Which whan they came to mount Ephraim, euen to the house of Micah, they lodged there.

3 And when they were in the house of Micah, they knewe (b) the voyce of the young man the Leuite: And when they turned in thyther, they sayde vnto him: Who brought thee thyther? what makest thou in this place? and what hast thou here?

4 And he aunswered them: Thus and thus dealeth Micah with me, and hath hyred me, and I am become his priest.

5 And they sayd vnto hym agayne: Aske counsell now of God, that we may knowe whether the way which we go shalbe prousperous, or no.

6 And the priest sayde vnto them: (c) Go in peace, for the Lorde guydeth your way which ye go.

7 Then the fyue men departed, & came to Lais, and sawe the people that were therin, howe they dwelt careleße, after the maner of the Sidons styll, & without castyng of perils, and that no man " made any trouble in the lande, or vsurped any dominion: but were farre from the Sidons, and had no busyneße with other men.

8 And they came agayne vnto their brethren to Zaraah and Esthaol, and their brethren sayde vnto them: what haue ye done?

9 And they aunswered: Aryse, that we may go vp agaynst them, for we haue seene the lande, surely a very good one: And do ye syt styll? Be not slouthfull to go and entre to possesse the lande.

10 If ye will go, ye shall come vnto a people that casteth no perils, and it is a very large countrey, which God hath geuen into your handes: It is also a place which doth lacke nothing that is in the worlde.

11 And there departed thence of the kynred of the Danites, euen out of Zaraah and and Eſthaol, fiue hundred men appoynted with inſtrumentes of warre.

12 And they went vp, and pytched in Kiriath iarim, whiche is in Juda: wherfore they called the place, = Mahaneh Dan, vnto this day, and it is on ỹ backſyde of Kiriath iarim.

13 And they went thence vnto mount Ephraim, & came vnto the houſe of Micah.

¶ 14 Then aunſwered the fiue men that went to ſpye out the countrey of Lais, and ſaide vnto their brethren: Wot ye not that there is in theſe houſes an Ephod, Theraphim, and a grauen and a moulten image? Nowe therfore (d) conſider what ye haue to do.

(d) For it were expedient that we ſhoulde take them away to our owne vſe.

15 And they turned thytherwarde, and came to the houſe of the young man the Leuite, euen vnto the houſe of Micah, and ſaluted hym peaceablie.

16 And the fiue hundred men girded with weapons of warre, which were of the childzen of Dan, ſtoode by the entryng of the gate.

(e) Suche is their blyndeneſſe that thei beleue that theſe idols which by robbery and violence they take away, may helpe thē.

17 And the fiue men that went to ſpye out the lande, went in thyther, & (e) toke the grauē image, & the Ephod, Theraphim, and the moulten image: (And the prieſt ſtoode in the entryng of the gate with the fiue hundred men that were appointed with weapons of warre.)

18 Whyle the other went into Micahs houſe, and fet the carued image, the Ephod, Theraphim, and the moulten image: Then ſaide the prieſt vnto them, What do ye?

(f) For he regarded not neither Gods honour, nor his owne honeſtie: but all his care was for his belly.

19 They aunſwered hym: Holde thy peace, lay thine hande vpon thy mouth, and come with vs, to be our father and prieſt: Is it better for thee to be a prieſt vnto the houſe of one man, then to be a prieſt vnto a tribe or kynred in Iſrael?

(g) With his idols imitatyng the maner of the carriage of the arke of the Lorde.

20 And the prieſtes hearte (f) was glad, and toke the Ephod, and Theraphim, and the grauen image, and went (g) in the middeſt of the people.

D 21 And they turned and departed, and put the childzen, the catell, and their other ſubſtaunce before them.

22 And whē they were a good way from the houſe of Micah, the men that were in the houſes neare to Micahs houſe, gathered together, & followed after the childzen of Dan:

23 And called vnto them, and they turned their faces, & ſaid vnto Micah: What ayleth thee, that thou makeſt an outcrye?

24 And he ſayd: Ye haue taken away my goddes which I made, and alſo ỹ prieſt, and go your wayes: and (h) What haue I more? How then ſaye ye vnto me, What ayleth thee?

(h) The later may ſee his gods ſtole: but the worſhipper of the true God ſeyng God can neuer be ſerued.

" Eyther, which haue their hearts bent.

26 "And ſo the childzen of Dan went their wayes: And when Micah ſawe that they were to ſtrong for hym, he turned and went backe vnto his houſe.

27 And they toke the (i) thinges which Micah had made, and the prieſt which he had, and came vnto Lais, euen vnto a people that were at reſt and without myſtruſt, and ſmote them with the edge of the ſworde, & burnt the citie with fire.

28 And there was no man to = helpe, becauſe (k) Lais was farre from Sidon, & they had no medlyng with any other man: And it was in the valley that lyeth by Bethrehob.

" Or, deliuer them.

(k) which afterwarde was called Cęſarea Philippi.

29 And they buylt them there a citie, and dwelt therin, & called it Dan after the name of Dan their father, which was borne vnto Iſrael: Howbeit, the name of the citie was Lais at ỹ begynnyng.

30 And the chyldzen of Dan ſet them vp the grauen image: And Jonathan the ſonne of Gerſom, the ſonne of Manaſſes, and his ſonnes, were the prieſtes in the tribe of Dan, vntyl the day of the (l) captiuitie of the lande.

4 And his father in lawe, the damosels father, retayned hym, and he abode with hym three dayes: and so they dyd eate and drinke, and lodged there.

5 The fourth day whan they arose early in the morryng, the man stoode vp, to depart. And the damosels father sayde vnto his sonne in lawe: Comfort thyne heart with a morsell of bread, and then go your way.

6 And they sate downe, and dyd eate and drincke both of them together. And the damosels father sayde vnto the man: Be content I pray thee, and tary all nyght, and let thyne heart be mery.

11 And when they were fast by Jebus, the day was sore spent, and the young man sayde vnto his maister: Come I pray thee, and let vs turne in into this citie of the Jebusites, and lodge al night there.

12 His maister answered him: We wyll not turne into a (c) straunge citie that are not of the children of Israel, we will go foorth to Gibea.

17 And when he had lyft vp his eyes, he sawe a wayfaryng man in the streate of the citie: And the olde man sayde, whyther goest thou? and whence commest thou?

18 He answered hym: We come from Bethlehem Juda towarde the syde of mount Ephraim, from thence am I: and I went to Bethlehem Juda, and go nowe to the (e) house of the Lorde, and there is no man that receaueth me to house.

¶ The .xx. Chapter.

1 The Israelites assemble in Mispah, to whom the Leuite declareth his wrong. 13 They sende for them that dyd the villanie. 25 The Israelites are twyse ouercome, 26 and at length get the victorie.

1 Then* all the chyldren of Israel went out, and the congregation was gathered together as (a) one man, euen from Dan to Beersheba, with the lande of Gilead, vnto the Lorde in Mispah.

Ose.x.b.

(a) That is, all with one consent.

2 And there assembled the chiefe men of all the people, [and] of all the tribes of Israel, in the congregation of the people of God, foure hundred thousande footemen that drewe swordes.

3 (Nowe the chyldren of Beniamin heard that the chyldren of Israel were gone vp to Mispah) Then (b) sayde the chyldren of Israel: Tell vs howe this wickednes is committed:

(b) Or the Leuite.

4 And the Leuite the womans husband that was slayne, aunswered and saide: I came into Gibea that is in Beniamin with my concubine, to lodge all nyght:

5 And

5 And the men of Gibea rose against me, and beset the house rounde about vpon me by night, & thought to haue slayne me, and my concubyne haue they forced, that she is dead.

6 And I toke my concubine, & cut her in peeces, and sent her throughout all the countrey of the inheritaunce of Israel: For they haue committed abhominacion and villanie in Israel.

7 Beholde ye are all children of Israel, geue your aduice and counsel herein.

8 And all the people arose as one man, saying: There shal not a man of vs go to his tent, neither turne into his (c) house.

9 But this shalbe it that we will do to Gibea: [we will go vp] by lot against it:

10 And we will take ten men of the hundred throughout all the tribes of Israel, and an hundred of the thousande, and a thousand out of ten thousand, to fetch vitayle for the people, that they may do when they come to Gibea Beniamin, according to all the abhomination that they haue wrought in Israel.

11 And so all the men of Israel gathered together against the citie, knyt together as one man.

12 And the tribes of Israel sent men thorowe all the tribe of Beniamin, saying: *What wickednesse is this that is committed among you:

13 Nowe therfore deliuer vs the men, those children of belial whiche are in Gibea, that we may slea them, and put (d) away euill from Israel.

14 Neuerthelater, the children of Beniamin would (e) not hearke vnto the voyce of their brethren the children of Israel: But the children of Beniamin gathered the selues together out of the cities vnto Gibea, to come out and fight agaynst the children of Israel.

15 And the children of Beniamin were numbred at that time out of the cities, twentie & fiue thousand men that drewe swordes, beside the inhabitauntes of Gibea, which were numbred seuen hundred chosen men.

16 And among all these folke, were seuen hundred chosen men beyng left handed, whiche euery one coulde flyng stones at an heere breadth, and not misse.

17 And the children of Israel beside Beniamin, were numbred foure hundred thousand men that drewe swordes, and were all men of warre.

18 And the children of Israel arose, and wēt vp to (f) the house of God, and asked of God, saying: (g) whiche of vs shall go vp first to the battel against the children of Beniamin: And the Lorde sayd: Iuda shall begin.

19 And the children of Israel stoode vp early, and camped against Gibea.

20 And the men of Israel went out to battell against Beniamin, and the men of Israel put thē selues in aray to fight against them, beside Gibea.

21 And the children of Beniamin came out of Gibea, and destroyed downe to the ground of the Israelites that day twentie and two thousand men.

22 And the people the men of Israel plucked vp their heartes, and set their battel againe in aray, in the same place where they dyd the first day.

23 (And the children of Israel went vp, and wept before the Lorde vnto euen, and asked of the Lord, saying: Shal we go agayne to battell against the children of Beniamin our brethrē: And the Lord sayde: Go vp against them.)

24 And the children of Israel came neare against the children of Beniamin the seconde day.

25 And the children of Beniamin went against them out of Gibea the seconde day, and destroyed to the earth of the childrē of Israel once againe eyghteene thousand men that drewe swordes euerie man of them.

26 Then al the children of Israel, and all the people, went vp and came vnto the house of God, and wept, and sate there before the Lord, and fasted the same day vnto euen, and offered burnt offerynges and peace offerynges before the Lorde.

27 And the children of Israel asked the Lord: (for there was the arke of the appoyntment of God, in those dayes:

28 And Phinehes the sonne of Eleazar, the sonne of Aaron (h) stoode before it at that time) saying: Shal I get me vp to go out any more to battell against the children of Beniamin my brethren, or shal I ceasse: The Lorde sayde: Go vp, for to morow I wil deliuer them into your handes.

29 And Israel set lyers awayte round about Gibea.

(c) Beyng sworne that no man should do this.

(d) That is, punish the wicked doers according to their desertes.

(e) Therein declaring them selues guilty of the wickednesse committed, and therfore worthy punishment of the same.

(f) That is, the tabernacle wherin ye arke of God was, which o then was in Silo.

(g) They presume so much of their number & strength, that they aske no councell of God for the victorie: they finde therefore successe therafter.

(h) That is, serued in the priestes office.

30 And

E 30 And the childzen of Israel went vp against the childzē of Beniamin the third time, & put themselues in aray against Gibea, as tWyse before.

31 And the childzen of Beniamin came out against the people, & (l) were drawen away from the citie, & they began to smite of ỳ people, dead as tWise before, by tWo hye Wayes in the fielde (of Whiche one goeth vp to the house of god, & the other to Gibea) vpon a thirtie men of Israel.

(l) By the pollicie of the childzen of Israel.

32 (And the childzen of Beniamin sayde: They are fallen before vs, as at the first. But the childzen of Israel sayd: Let vs flee, and plucke them away from the citie, vnto the hye Wayes.)

33 And all the men of Israel rose vp out of their place, & put themselues in aray at Baal Thamar: And lykeWyse the liers in Wayte of Israel came foozth out of their places, euen out of the medoWes that Were about Gibea, 34 And came against Gibea ten thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and there Was a soze battel: But (k) they Wist not that (l) euyll Was neare them.

(k) To wit the Beniamites.

(l) They knewe not that gods iudgement was at hand to destroye them.

35 And the Lozd plagued Beniamin before Israel, and the childzen of Israel destroyed of the Beniamites the same day tWentie and fyue thousand and an hundzed men, that dzue swozdes euerie one of them.

F 36 And the childzen of Beniamin sawe that they Were put to ỳ stricken doWne: foz the men of Israel (m) gaue place to ỳ Beniamites, because they trusted vnto the lyers in Wayt Which they had layde beside Gibea.

(m) Retired to drawe thē after.

37 And the lyers in Wayte hasted, & brake foozth against Gibea, & the embushment (u) dzeWe themselues along, and smote all the citie With the edge of the swozde.

(u) Or, made along sound. with a trumpet.

38 And an appoyntment had the men of Israel from the lyers in Wayt, that they should make a great flambe [and] smoke ryse vp out of the citie.

39 And When the men of Israel retired in ỳ battell, Beniamin began (n) to smyte dead of the childzen of Israel about a thirtie persons, and sayde: Surely they are stricken doWne before vs, as in the first battell.

(n. Beginneth to smite the first man.)

40 But When there began to aryse out of the citie a flambe as a piller of smoke, the Beniamites loked backe, & behold the flambe of the Whole citie began to ascende vp to heauen.

41 When the men of Israel also turned (o) agayne, the men of Beniamin Were abashed, foz they sawe that euyll approched them:

(o) To wit, stand their enemies.

42 And therfoze they turned their backes before the men of Israel, vnto the Way that leadeth to the Wilderneſſe, but the battel ouertoke them: And besyde that, they Which came out of the citie, destroied thē (p) in the middle of thē.

(p) For they had copassed them rounde about.

43 And thus they compassed the Beniamites about, and chased them at Menuha, and ouerranne them, euen ouer against Gibea on the east syde.

44 And there Were slayne of Beniamin eyghteene thousand men, Whiche were men of warre.

45 And they turned & fled to the Wyldernes Ward, & vnto the rocke of Rimmon: and they (q) gleaned by ỳ Way of the rest of them, fiue thousande men: & pursued after them, vntyll they came to Gidom, and slue tWo thousand men of them.

(q) They ſet them here as they found them scattred abrode.

46 So that al that Were slayne that same day of Beniamin (r) Were tWentie & fyue thousand men that dzue swozdes, Which Were all men of warre:

(r) Beside eleuen hundzed that had ben slayne the former battell.

47 Onely sixe hundzed men turned and fled to the Wildernes, vnto the rocke of Rimmon, and abode in the rocke of Rimmon foure monethes.

48 And the men of Israel turned backe againe vnto the childzen of Beniamin, and smote them With the edge of the swozd in the cities, both man & beast, and al that came to hande, and set on fyze all the (s) cities that they coulde come by.

(s) Which belonged to the Beniamites.

The. xxi. Chapter.

2 The Israelites sWeare that they Wil not mary their daughters to the Beniamites.
10 They slay them of Jabes Gilead, and geue their virgins to the Beniamites.

A 1 ND the men of Israel (a) sWare in Mispah, saying: Ther shal none of vs geue his daughter vnto any of Beniamin to Wife.

(a) This othe came of rashnes, for after they brake it, by a subtill deuise.

2 And the people came to the house of God, and abode there till euen, before God, & lift vp their voyces, and Wept sore,

3 And sayde: O Lozde God of Israel, Why is this come to passe in Israel, that there shoulde be this day one tribe lacking in Israel?

4 And

4 And on the morowe the people rose vp betyme, and made there an (b) aulter, and offered burnt offeringes and peace offeringes.

5 And the children of Israel sayd: Who is he among al the tribes of Israel, that came not vp with the congregation vnto the Lorde: for they had made a great othe concerning him that came not vp to the Lord to Mispah, saying: He shall surely dye.

6 And the children of Israel (c) had pitie on Beniamin their brethren, and sayde: There is one tribe cut of from Israel this day:

7 what shall we do vnto the remnaunt of them, that they may haue wiues: We haue sworne by the Lorde, that we wyl not gene thē of our daughters to wiues.

8 And they sayde: Is there any of the tribes of Israel, that (d) came not vp to Mispah to the Lord: And behold, there came none of Iabes Gilead vnto the hoaste and congregation.

9 For the people were viewed, and beholde there were none of the inhabitauntes of Iabes Gilead there.

10 And the congregation sent thyther twelue thousand men of the "strongest, and commaunded them, saying: Go, and smyte the inhabitauntes of Iabes Gilead with the edge of the sworde, both women and children.

11 *And this is it that ye shall do: ye shall vtterly destroy all the males, and al the women that haue lyen by men.

12 And they found among the inhabitaūtes of Iabes Gilead foure hundred damoselles, virgins, ỹ had knowne no man, by lyeng with any male: And they brought them vnto the hoast to Silo, whiche is in the lande of Chanaan.

13 And the whole congregation sent and (e) spake with the children of Beniamin that were in the rocke of Rimmon, and called peaceably vnto them.

14 And Beniamin came againe at that time, and they gaue them wyues which they had saued alyue of the woman of Iabes Gilead: But they (f) suffised them not.

15 And the people were sory for Beniamin, because that the Lord had made a breache in the tribes of Israel.

16 And then the elders of the congregation, sayd: What shall we do to the remnaunt of them, to get them wiues: seyng all the women of Beniamin are destroyed:

17 And they sayde: There must be (g) an inheritaunce for them that be escaped of Beniamin, that a tribe be not destroyed out of Israel.

(g) Beniamin muste be reserued to haue the twelfth portion of the inheritaunce of Iacob.

18 Howbeit, We may not geue thē wyues of our daughters. For the children of Israel had sworne, saying: Cursed be he that geueth a wyfe to Beniamin.

19 Then they sayde: Behold, there is a feast of ỹ Lorde yerely in Silo, Which is on the northside of Bethel, & on the east side of the way that goeth from Bethel to Sichem, and south from Libanon.

20 Therfore they commaunded the children of Beniamin, saying: Go, and lye in wayte in the vineyardes.

21 And when ye see that the daughters of Silo come out to daunce in daunces, thē come ye out of the vineyardes & catche you euery man a wyfe of the daughters of Silo, & go to the lande of Beniamin.

22 And when their fathers or brethren come vnto vs to complayne, We will say vnto them, Haue pitie on vs for their sakes: because we reserued not to eche man his wyfe in tyme of warre, neither haue ye geuen vnto them, that ye should sinne at this time.

23 And the children of Beniamin did euē so, and toke them wyues according to the numbre of them that daūced, whom they caught: and they went, and returned vnto their inheritaunce, and repayred the cities, and dwelt in them.

24 And the children of Israel departed thence at that tyme, & went euery man to his tribe, and to his kinred, and went out from thence euery man to his inheritaunce.

25 *In those dayes there was no king in Israel: but euery man dyd that whiche seemed right in his owne eyes. Iud xvii.b. & xviii.a. xix.a.

The booke of Ruth.

¶ The fyrst Chapter.

1 Elimelech goeth with his wyfe and children into the lande of Moab. 3 And his sonnes dye. 19 Naomi and Ruth come to Bethlehem.

A 1 IT came to passe that whē the iudges "ruled, there fel a dearth in the (a) land, & a certein man of Bethlehē (b) Juda went for to sojourne in the countrey of Moab, he and his wyfe, and his two sonnes.

"Heb. Iudged.

(a) That is, the lande of Canaan.

(b) In the tribe of Juda: for there was an other Bethlehem in the tribe of Zabulon.

2 The name of the man was Elimelech, and the name of his wyfe Naomi, and the names of his two sonnes were Mahlon and Chilion, Ephraites out of Bethlehem Juda: And whē they came into the lande of Moab, they continued there.

3 And Elimelech Naomies husbande died, and she remayned with her two sonnes.

(c) By this wonderfull prouidence of God, Ruth became one of Gods household, of whō Christ came.

4 Whiche toke them wyues, (c) Moabitesses, of the Moabites: the ones name was Orpha, and the others Ruth: And they dwelled there about a ten yeres.

5 And Mahlon & Chilion died also euen both of them, and the woman was left (d) destitute of her two sonnes and of her husband.

(d) A wofull case, and yet this and the lyke is woont to be full of, whiche the children of men do loue so much.

6 Then she arose with her daughters in lawe, and returned from the countrey of Moab: for she had heard say in the countrey of Moab, howe that the Lorde had visited his people, and geuen them bread.

B 7 Wherfore she departed out of the place where she was, and her two daughters in lawe with her: And they went on their way to returne vnto the lande of Juda.

(e) Declaring by your kyndnesse to me their mother, howe dearely you loued the when they were alyue, and what affection you bare towards them, and the remembrance of them nowe that they are dead.

8 And Naomi said vnto her two daughters in lawe, Go & returne eche of you vnto your mothers house: & the Lorde deale as kindly with you, as ye haue dealt with the (e) dead, and with me:

9 And the Lord gene you, that you may fynde rest, either of you in the house of her (f) husbande. And when she kyssed them, they lift vp their voyce and wept,

(f) She wisheth them neither riches, wealth, nor gyft of sole lyfe: but matrimonie agreeable to Gods institution.

10 And sayde vnto her: Surely we will returne with thee vnto thy folke.

11 And Naomi sayde, Turne againe my daughters: for what cause will you go with me: Are there any moe children in my wombe, to be your husbandes:

12 Turne againe my daughters, go your way, for I am to olde to haue an husbande: And if I sayd, I haue hope, if I toke a man also this night, yea & though I had alredy borne sonnes:

13 would ye tary after them, till they were of age: or would ye for them so long refrayne from taking of husbandes: Not so my daughters: for it greeueth me much for your sakes, that the hand of the Lorde is gone out (g) against me.

C 11 Or, mary them you. (g) By taking away my two sonnes, that were your husbandes.

14 And they lift vp their voyces, & wept againe: and Orpha (h) kissed her mother in lawe, but Ruth abode still by her.

(h) Taking her leaue and departing.

15 And Naomi said: See, thy sister in law is gone backe againe vnto her people, & vnto her gods: returne thou after her.

16 And Ruth answered: Entreat me not to leaue thee, and to returne from after thee: for whyther thou goest, I will go also, & where thou dwellest, there I wil dwell: Thy people shalbe my people, and thy god my god:

17 where thou diest, there will I die, and there wyl I be buried: The Lord do so to me and more also, if ought but death depart thee and me.

18 When she sawe that she was stedfastly minded to go with her, she left speaking vnto her.

19 And so they wēt both, vntil they came to Bethlehē: And whē they were come to Bethlehem, it was (i) noysed of them thorow all the citie, and they sayde: Is not this Naomi:

(i) Whereby appeareth that she was of a great familie, and of good reputation.

20 And she answered them: Cal me not "Naomi: but call me "Mara, for the almightie hath made me verie bitter.

" Or, beautifull. " Or, bitter.

21 I went out full, and the Lorde hath brought me home agayne emptie: why then call ye me Naomi, seying, the Lord hath humbled me, & the almightie hath brought me vnto aduersite:

D

23 And so Naomi with Ruth the Moabitesse her daughter in lawe, returned out of the countrey of Moab, and came to Bethlehē, in the beginning of (k) barlie haruest.

The. ii. Chapter.

1 Ruth gathered corne in the fieldes of Booz. 15 The gentilnes of Booz toward her.

1 AND Naomies husbād had a (a) kinsman, a mā of power and wealth [which was] of the kinred of Elimelech, named Booz.

2 And Ruth the Moabitesse sayd vnto Naomi: Let me nowe go to the fielde, & gather eares of corne after any man in whose sight I finde grace. And she sayde vnto her: Go my daughter.

3 And she went, and came to the fielde, and gathered after the reapers: and so it was, that the same fielde parteyned vnto Booz, whiche was of the kinred of Elimelech.

4 And beholde, Booz came from Bethlehem, and sayde vnto the reapers: The Lorde be with you. And they aunswered him: The Lorde blesse thee.

5 Then sayde Booz vnto his "young man" that stode by the reapers: Whose damosel is this?

6 And the young man that stode by the reapers aunswered, and sayd: It is the Moabitishe damosel, that came with Naomi out of the countrey of Moab,

7 And she sayde vnto vs, I pray you let me gleane and gather after the reapers, amongst the sheaues: and so she came, and hath continued euen from the morning vnto nowe, saue that she taried a litle in the house.

8 Then sayd Booz vnto Ruth: Hearest thou my daughter? Go to no other fielde to gather, neither go from hence, but abyde here by my maydens.

9 Let (b) thyne eyes be on the fielde that they do reape, & go thou after the [maydens:] Haue I not charged the young men, that they shall do thee no hurte? Moreouer, when thou art a thyrst, go vnto the vessels, & drinke of that (c) which the laddes haue drawen.

10 Then she fell on her face, and bowed her selfe to the ground, and sayde vnto him: Howe is it that I haue founde grace in thyne eyes, & that thou shouldest knowe me, seing I am (d) an aliaunt?

11 And Booz aunswered and sayde vnto her: Al is tolde & shewed me that thou hast done vnto thy mother in law sence the death of thyne husband: howe thou hast left thy father and thy mother and the land where thou wast borne, and art come vnto a people which thou knewest not in time passed.

12 The Lord quyte thy worke, and a full reward be geuen thee of the Lord God of Israel, vnder whose (e) winges thou art come to trust.

13 Then she sayde: Let me finde fauour in thy sight my lord, thou that hast comforted me, and spoken "comfortably vnto thy mayde, whiche yet am not lyke vnto one of thy maydens.

14 Booz sayde vnto her agayne: At the meale tyme come thou hyther, and eate of the bread, and dyp thy morsel in the vineger. And she sat besyde the reapers: and he reached her parched corne, & she dyd eate, and was suffised, & left (f) part:

15 And when she was rysen vp to gather, Booz cōmaunded his young men, saying: Let her gather euen among the sheaues, and (g) rebuke her not.

16 And leaue her some of the sheaues for the nonce, and let it lye, that she may gather it vp, and rebuke her not.

17 And so she gathered in the fielde vntil euen, and threshed that she had gathered, and it was in measure vpon an *Epha of barlye.

18 And she toke it vp, and went into the citie: and when her mother in lawe had seene what she had gathered, she plucked out also, & gaue to her that she had reserued when she had eaten enough.

19 And her mother in lawe sayde vnto her: Where hast thou gathered to day? and where wroughtest thou? blessed be he that knewe thee. And she shewed her mother in lawe howe she had wrought with him, and sayde: The mans name with whom I wrought to day is Booz.

20 And Naomi said vnto her daughter in lawe: Blessed be he of the Lord, for he ceasseth not to do * good to the lyuing & to the (h) dead. And Naomi sayd agayne vnto her: The man is nye vnto vs, and of our affinitie.

21 And Ruth the Moabitesse sayd: he sayd vnto me also, Thou shalt be with my young men, vntil they haue ended al my harueste.

23 And ſo ſhe kept her by the maydens of Booz, to gather, vnto the ende of barlye harueſt and of Wheate harueſt alſo, & dwelt with her mother in lawe.

The .iii. Chapter.

1 Naomi geueth Ruth councel. 8 She ſleepeth at Booz feete. 12 He acknowledgeth him ſelfe to be her kinſeman.

A 1 When Naomi her mother in lawe ſayde vnto her: My daughter, ſhal I not ſeke (a) reſt for thee, ẏ thou mayeſt proſper:

(a) Meaning that ſhe would prouide her of an husband, with whom ſhe might liue quietly.

2 And is not Booz our kinſman, with whoſe maydens thou waſt: Beholde, he winnoweth barlie to night in the threſhing "flooze.

" Or, in the barne.

3 Waſhe thy ſelfe therfore, and annoynt thee, and put thy rayment vpon thee, & get thee downe to the flooze: but let not the man knowe of thee, vntill he haue left eating and drincking.

4 And when he goeth to ſleepe, marke the place where he layeth him downe, and then go and lyft vp the clothes that are on his feete, & lay thee downe there: and he ſhall tel thee what thou ſhalt do.

5 And ſhe aunſwered her: All that thou biddeſt me, I will do.

6 And ſhe went downe vnto the flooze, and dyd according to al that her mother in lawe bad her.

B 7 And when Booz had eaten and drunken, & cheared his heart, he went to lye downe at the ende of the heape of corne: and ſhe came ſoftly, and lift vp the clothes of his feete, and layed her downe.

8 And at midnight, the man was afraide, and caught holde: and beholde, a woman lay at his feete.

9 And he ſayde: what art thou? She aunſwered, I am Ruth thyne handmayde: Spreade the wing of thy [garment] ouer thyne handmayde, for thou art the kinſman.

10 He ſayde: Bleſſed be thou in the Lord my daughter, for thou haſt ſhewed more goodneſſe in the latter ende, then at the beginning, inaſmuche as thou folowedſt not young men, whether they were poore or riche.

11 And nowe my daughter feare not, I C will do to the all that thou requireſt: for all the citie of my people doth knowe, that thou art a woman of vertue.

12 And it is true that I am of thy nert kinne, howbeit there is one nier then I.

13 Tary this night, and when morning is come, if he wil (b) perfourme the part of a kinſman vnto thee, it is good, let him do the kinſmans part: but if he wyl not do the kinſmans part, then wyl I do the duetie of a kinſman, as the Lorde liueth: ſleepe vntil the morning.

(b) That is, if he will take it, ce to be his wyfe by the title of affinitie according to Gods lawe Deut. 25.a.

14 And ſhe lay at his feete vntill the morning: and ſhe aroſe vp before one coulde knowe another. And he ſayde: Let no man knowe that there came any woman into the flooze.

15 And he ſayde againe: Bring the man- D tel that thou haſt vpon thee, & holde it. And when ſhe held it, he mette in ſixe meaſures of barlye, and layde it on her: And ſhe gat her into the citie.

16 And when ſhe came in, to her mother in lawe, ſhe ſayde: who art thou, my daughter? And ſhe tolde her all that the man had done to her, 17 And ſayde: Theſe ſixe meaſures of barlye gaue he me, and ſayde: Thou ſhalt not come emptie vnto thy mother in lawe.

18 Then ſayde ſhe: My daughter, ſit ſtill vntil thou knowe howe the matter will fall: for the man will not be in reſt, vntill he haue finiſhed the thing this ſame day.

The. iiij. Chapter.

1 Booz speaketh to Ruths nert kinseman touching her mariage. 7 The auncient custome in Israel. 10 Booz marieth Ruth, of whom he begetteth Obed. 18 The generation of Pharez.

1 THen went Booz vp to the (a) gate, and sat him downe there: and beholde, the kinsman of which Booz spake, came by, vnto whom, he sayde: (b) Ho, suche one, come, sit downe here. And he turned, & sat downe.

2 And he toke ten men of the elders of the citie, and said: sit ye downe here. And they sat downe.

3 And he sayd vnto the kinsman: Naomi that is come agayne out of the countrey of Moab, will sel a parcell of lande, which was our brother Elimelechs.

4 And I thought to do thee to wyt, and byd the bye it before thee inhabitauntes and elders of my people. If thou wilt redeeme it, redeeme it: but & if thou wilt not redeeme it, then tell me, that I may knowe: For there is none to redeeme it, (c) saue thou, and I next thee. And the other aunswered: I will redeeme it.

5 Then sayd Booz: What day thou biest the fielde of the hande of Naomi, thou must bye it also of Ruth the Moabite the wyfe of the dead, to stirre vp the name of the dead vpon his (d) inheritaunce.

6 The kinsman aunswered: I can not redeeme it, for marring of myne owne inheritaunce: redeeme thou my right to thee, for I cannot redeeme it.

7 Nowe this was the maner of olde time in Israel concerning redeeming & chaunging, for to stablishe al thing: that a man must plucke of his shoe, & geue it his neyghbour: And this was a sure (e) witnesse in Israel.

8 Therfore the kinsman sayde to Booz, Bye it thou: and so drue of his shoe.

9 And Booz sayde vnto the elders and vnto all the people: Ye are witnesses this day, that I haue bought all that was Elimelechs, and all that was Chilions, and Mahalons, of the hande of Naomi.

10 And moreouer, Ruth the Moabite the wyfe of Mahalō, haue I purchased to be my wyfe, to stirre vp the name of the dead vpon his inheritaunce, & that the name of the dead be not put out frō among his brethren, and from the gate of his (f) place: ye are witnesses this day.

(f) Or, of the citie wherof he was.

11 And all the people that were in the gate, and the elders, sayde, We are witnesses: The Lord make the womā that is come into thyne house, lyke Rahel and Lea, whiche twayne dyd buylde the house of Israel: & that thou mayest do worthyly in (g) Ephrata, and be famous in Bethlehem.

(g) Ephrata and Bethlehem are both one.

12 Thy house be like the house of Pharez (whom Thamar bare vnto Juda) euē of the seede whiche the Lord shall geue thee of this young woman.

13 And so Booz toke Ruth, and she was his wyfe: And when he went in vnto her, the Lorde gaue, that she conceaued and bare a sonne.

14 And the women sayde vnto Naomi: ℭ Blessed be the Lorde, the whiche hath not left thee this day without a kinsman, and his name shalbe continued in Israel.

15 And that shall bring thy lyfe agayne, and cherishe thyne olde age: For thy daughter in lawe whiche loueth thee, hath borne vnto hym, and she is better to thee then (h) seuen sonnes.

(h) Meaning many sonnes.

16 And Naomi toke the child, & layed it in her lappe, and became nurse vnto it.

17 And the women her neyghbours gaue it a name, saying: There is a child borne to Naomi, & called it Obed: the same is the father of Jsai, the father of Dauid.

The first booke of Samuel, called the first booke of the kinges.

The first Chapter.

1 The genealogie of Elkana father of Samuel. 2 His two wiues. Hanna was baren and prayed to the Lorde. 15 Her aunswere to Eli. 20 Samuel is borne. 24 She doeth dedicate him to the Lorde.

A 1 THere was a man of one of the two (a) Ramathaim Zophim, of moũt Ephraim, named *Elkana, the sonne of Jeroham, the sonne of Elihu, the sonne of Thohu, the sonne of Zuph, an Ephrathite:

(a) There were two Ramathes, so that in this citie in mount Ephraim were Zophim, that is, the learned men and prophetes 1. Par. 6. c.

2 (b) Which had two wyues, the one called Hanna, & the other Phenenna: And Phenenna had children, but Hanna had no children.

(b) With the promise of multiplication of seede, came in the priuiledge of two wyues: The promise performed and ended in Christ, the priuiledge ceaseth, and Gods lawe taketh place, which teacheth two in one flesh, and no more. Gen. 2. d

3 And this man went vp out of his citie euery yere, to worship and to sacrifice vnto the Lord of hoastes in Silo, where were the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehes, the Lordes priestes.

4 And it fel on a day, that Elkana offered, and gaue to Phenenna his wyfe, and to all her sonnes and daughters, portions.

5 But vnto Hanna he gaue a (c) worthy portion: for he loued Hanna, & the Lorde had made her barren.

(c) To cheare her, for he knewe that she was sorowful, because she was barren.

6 And her enemie [Phenenna] vexed her sore, forasmuche as she vpbrayded her, because the Lord had made her barren.

B 7 (And so dyd he yere by yere) and as oft as she wẽt vp to the house of the Lord, thus she vexed her, that she wept, and dyd not eate.

8 Then sayde Elkana her husband to her: Hanna, why wepest thou: and why eatest thou not: and why is thine hearte troubled: Am not I better to thee then ten (d) sonnes:

(d) Let this suffice thee, that I loue thee no lesse then if thou haddest many children.

9 So Hanna rose vp after that they had eaten and dronke in Silo. (And Eli the priest sate vpon a stoole by one of the postes of the temple of the Lorde.)

10 And she was troubled in her minde, and prayed vnto the Lord, & wept sore,

11 And vowed a vowe, and sayd: O Lord of hoastes, if thou wilt loke on the trouble of thyne handmayde and remembre me, and not forget thyne handmayde, but geue vnto thyne handmayde a man childe, I will geue him vnto the Lorde all the dayes of his lyfe, and there shall no rasor come vpon his head.

12 And as she continued praying before the Lord, Eli marked her mouth.

13 For Hanna spake in her hearte, & her lippes did but moue onely, but her voyce was not hearde, & therfore Eli thought she had ben dronken.

14 And Eli sayde vnto her: Howe long wilt thou be dronken: Put away from thee "the wine that thou hast.

C

"Or, Thy drunkennes.

15 Hanna aunswered, and sayde, Not so my Lord: I am a woman of a "sorowful hearte, I haue dronke neither wine nor strong drincke, but haue powred out

"Hebr. Of a harde spirite.

16 my soule before the Lorde:

Count not thine handmayde "for a wicked woman: for out of the aboundaunce of my heauynesse & griefe, haue I spoken hytherto.

"Or, for a daughter of Belial.

17 Eli aunswered her againe, and sayde: Go in peace, the God of Israel graunt thee thy petition that thou hast asked of him.

18 She said: Let thyne handmayde finde (e) grace in thy sight. And so the woman went her way, and dyd eate, and loked no more sad.

(e) That thou wouldest pray vnto the Lord for me.

19 And they rose vp early, & worshipped before the Lorde, and then returned, & came to their house to Ramath: And when Elkana knewe Hanna his wyfe, the Lorde (f) remembred her.

(f) According to his promes

20 For in processe of time it came to passe, that she conceaued, and bare a sonne, & called his name Samuel, [saying:] Because I haue asked him of the Lorde.

D

21 And the man (g) Elkana and all his house, went vp to offer vnto the Lorde the yerely sacrifice, and also his vowe.

(g) This Elkanah was a leuite 1. Par. 6. b as some write, once a yere there accustomed to make sacrifice vnto the Lorde with other the people.

22 Neuertheless, Hanna wẽt not vp, but sayde vnto her husband: I will tary vntill the lad be weaned, and then I will bring bryng hym, that he may appeare before the Lord, and there abyde for euer.

23 Elkana her husband aunswered her: Do what seemeth thee best, tary at home vntyll thou hast weaned him, and I beseche the Lord to make good (b) his saying. And so the woman abode, and gaue her sonne sucke, vntyll she weaned hym.

24 And when she had weaned hym, she toke hym with her, with three bullockes, and an Epha of floure, and a bottle of wine, and brought hym vnto the house of the Lorde in Silo, and the child was " young.

24 And they slue a bullocke, and brought in the lad to Eli.

" Heb. A child.

26 And she sayd: Oh my Lorde, as thy (i) soule lyueth my Lorde, I am the woman that stoode before thee here praying vnto the Lorde.

(i) That is, most certeynly

27 For this lad I prayed, and the Lorde hath geuen me my desyre whiche I asked of him:

28 And therfore I haue geuen him vnto the Lord, as long as he liueth he shalbe geuen to the Lorde. And he (k) worshipped the Lorde there.

(k) Meaning Eli gaue thankes to God for her.

The.ii.Chapter.

1. The song of Hanna. 12. The sonnes of Eli, wicked. 13. The newe custome of the priests. 18. Samuel ministreth before the Lorde. 20. Eli blesseth Elkana and his wyfe. 23. Eli reproueth his sonnes. 27. God sendeth a prophete to Eli. 31. Eli is menaced for not chastisyng his children.

AND Hanna prayed, & sayde: Myne heart reioyceth in the Lorde, and myne (a) horne is exalted in the Lorde: My mouth is (b) wyde open ouer myne enemies, for I reioyce in thy saluation.

2 There is none holy as the Lorde: for without thee is nothing, neither is there any of strength as is our God.

3 Talke no more proudly, let not arrogancie come out of your mouthes: for the Lorde is a God of knowledge, and his purposes come to passe.

4 The bowe with the mightie men are broken, and they that were weake haue gyrde them selues with strength.

5 They that were full, haue hyred out them selues for (c) bread, and they that were hungry, (d) ceasse, tyll the barren hath borne = seuen, and she that had many children, is waxed feeble.

6 *The Lord kylleth and maketh alyue, bryngeth downe to the graue & fetcheth vp agayne.

7 The Lord maketh poore, and maketh rythe, bringeth lowe, and heaueth vp on hye.

8 He rayseth vp the poore out of the dust, and lyfteth vp the beggar from the dounghyll, to set them among (e) princes, and to make them inherite the seate of glory: For the pyllers of the earth are the lordes, and he hath set the worlde vpon them.

9 He wyll (f) kepe the feete of his saintes, and the wicked shall kepe silence in darkenesse, and *in his owne myght shal no man be strong.

(f) That they neither walke, nor fall to any euyll.

10 The lordes aduersaries shal be destroyed of hym, & out of heauen shall he thunder vpon them: The Lorde shall iudge the endes of the worlde, and shall gyue myght vnto his king, and exalt the horne of his annoynted.

11 And Elkana went to Ramath to his house, and the lad dyd minister vnto the Lorde (g) before Eli the priest.

(g) According to the appointment, and commaundement of Eli the priest.

12 But the sonnes of Eli were children of (h) Belial, and (i) knewe not the Lord.

(h) Or, wicked men. (i) That is, they regarded not his ordinaunces.

13 And the priestes custome toward the people was, that whensoeuer any man offered any offring, ỹ priestes lad came whyle the flesshe was a seethyng, and a flesshooke with three teeth in his hande:

14 And thrust it into the panne, kettle, caldren, or pot: and (k) all that the flesshooke brought vp, that the priest toke for hym self: And so they dyd vnto all the Israelites that came thyther to Silo.

(k) Transgressyng the order appoynted in ỹ lawe. Leuit. 7. for their bely sake

15 Yea, and thereto before they burnt the (l) fat, the priestes lad came and sayde to the man that offered, Geue flesshe, that I may rooste it for the priest: for he wyll not haue soddē flesshe of thee, but rawe.

(l) Which was cōmaunded first to haue ben offered to God.

16 And yf any man sayde vnto hym, Let them burne the fat according to the = custome, and then take as much as thyne hearte (m) desireth: Then he would aunswere hym, Yea, thou shalt geue it me nowe: and if thou wilt not, I wyll take it with = Or, lawe.

(m) Not passing so much for their profit, as that Gods lawe was not obserued.

it with violence.

(n) Seeing the horrible abuse thereof.

17 And the sinne of the young men was very great before the Lord: For men (n) abhorred the offering of the Lord.

D 18 But the childe Samuel ministred before the Lorde, girded with a linnen Ephod.

19 Moreouer, his mother made him a litle coate, and brought it to him from yere to yere, when she came vp with her husband to offer the yerely sacrifice.

20 And Eli blessed Elkana and his wife, and said: The Lorde geue thee seede of this woman, for the (o) petition that she asked of the Lord. And they went vnto their owne home.

(o) Asking a sonne to serue the Lorde, & bestowing of him to the Lordes seruice.

21 And the Lorde visited Hanna, so that she conceaued, and bare three sonnes, & two daughters: And the childe Samuel grew (p) before the Lorde.

(p) That is being in the seruice of the Lorde.

22 Eli was very olde, and heard all that his sonnes did vnto Israel, & how they lay with the women that wayted at the doore of the tabernacle of the congregation.

23 And he saide vnto them: Why do ye such thinges? For of all these people I heare euill reportes of you.

E 24 Oh, nay my sonnes: For it is no good report that I heare, how that ye make the Lordes people to trespasse.

25 If one man sinne against another, the Iudge shall iudge it: But if a man sinne against the Lord, who will be his (q) dayseman? Notwithstanding, they hearkened not vnto the voyce of their father, because the Lorde would slay thē.

(q) No man, nor mans doings can pacifie gods wrath for sinne. But though the lawe hath no helpe in this case: the gospell sheweth Iesus Christ that taketh away the sinnes of the worlde.

26 (The childe Samuel profited & grew, and was in fauour both with the Lord and also with men.)

27 And there came a man of God vnto Eli, and sayde vnto hym, thus saith the Lorde: Dyd not I playnely appeare vnto the house of thy father, when they were in Egypt in Pharaos house?

(r) That is, Aaron thy father.

28 And I chose (r) him out of al the tribes of Israel to be my priest, for to offer vpon mine aulter, and to burne incense, *and to weare an Ephod before me: and I gaue vnto the house of thy father, all the offerynges made by fire of the chyldren of Israel.

Leuit. x d. Deut. xii. b.

F 29 Wherefore (f) treade ye downe my sacrifice and mine offering which I (t) cōmaunded in the tabernacle, and honorest thy chyldren aboue me, to make your selues fat of the first fruites of all the offerynges of Israel my people?

(f) That is, why haue you contemned my sacrifices, and vsed them vnder feete. (t) To dwell.

30 Wherefore the Lorde God of Israel saith: I sayde, that thy house and the house of thy father should (b) walke before me forever: But nowe the Lorde saith, That be farre frō me: For them that worship me, I wyll worship, and they that despise me, shall come to shame.

(b) That is, should execute the office of the high priest in my tabernacle.

31 Behold, the dayes come, that I wyll cut of thine (x) arme, and the arme of thy fathers house, that there shall not be an olde man in thine house.

(x) Thy power, and authoritie.

32 And thou shalt see thine enemie in the habitation [of the Lorde] and in all the wealth which [God] shall geue Israel, and there shall not be an olde man in thyne house for euer.

G 33 Neuertheless, I wyll not destroy euery one that come of thee from mine aulter, to make thine eyes to fayle, and to make thine heart sorowfull: And all they that be multiplied in thine house,* shall dye (y) [when they be] men.

i. Reg. xi. b

(y) Shall dye when they come to mans age. i. Reg. ii. g.

34 And this shalbe a signe vnto thee, that shal come vpon thy two sonnes *Hophni and Phinehes: euen in one day they shall dye both.

35 And I wyll stirre me vp a (z) faythfull priest, ẏ shall do according to my heart and minde, and I wil builde him a sure house, and he shall walke before mine annoynted for euer.

(z) Meaning Sadoc who succeeded Ebiathar, and was the figure of Christe.

36 And all that are left in thyne house, shall come and crouch to him for a peece of siluer and a morsell of bread, and shal saye: Put me (I pray thee) in one office or other among ẏ priestes, that I may eate a morsell of bread.

¶The. iij. Chapter.

1 There was no manifest vision in the tyme of Eli. 4 The Lorde calleth Samuel three times. 11 And sheweth what shall come vpon Eli & his house. 18 The same declareth Samuel to Eli.

A 1 AND the chylde Samuel ministred vnto the Lorde before Eli, and the worde of the Lord was (a) precious in those dayes, neither was there any open vision.

(a) Because men were desirous to haue prophecies to declare Gods pleasure.

2 And as at that tyme Eli lay in his (b) place, his *eyes began to waxe dymme that he coulde not see.

(b) In the temple were certayne chambers to lye in.

* Gen.xlviii.c.

3 And yer the lampe of God went out, Samuel layde hym downe to sleepe in the temple of the Lord, where the arke of God was.

4 And the Lorde called Samuel. And he aunswered, I am here.

5 And he ran vnto Eli, and sayde: Here am I, for thou calledst me. And he said, I called thee not, go againe and sleepe. And he went, and layde hym downe to sleepe.

6 And the Lorde called once againe, B Samuel. And Samuel arose and went to Eli, and sayde: I am here, for thou diddest call me. And he aunswered: I called thee not my sonne, go againe and sleepe.

(c) He was yet afore this vsed to heare the Lorde speake.

7 Samuel (c) knewe not yet the Lorde, neither was the worde of the Lorde yet opened vnto hym.

8 And the Lorde went to, and called Samuel the thirde tyme. And he arose and went to Eli, and saide: I am here, for thou hast called me. And Eli perceaued that the Lord had called the chylde.

9 Therefore Eli sayde vnto Samuel: Go and sleepe, and yf he call thee, then say: Speake Lorde, for thy seruaunt heareth thee. So Samuel went, and slept in his place.

10 And the Lorde came, and stoode and called as before, Samuel, Samuel. Then Samuel aunswered: Speake, for thy seruaunt heareth.

11 And the Lorde saide to Samuel: Beholde, I wyll do a thing in Israel, that both the eares of as many as heareth it shall (d) tyngle.

(d) God declareth what sodayne feare shall come vpon men when they shal heare that the arke is taken, and also see that Eli his house is destroyed. i Reg.ii.g.

12 In that day, I wyll rayse vp against Eli all thynges whiche I haue spoken concernyng his house: When I begyn, I wyll also make an ende.

13 I haue tolde hym* that I wyll iudge his house for euer, for the wickednesse which he knoweth: For whē [the people] cursed his sonnes for ꝑ same [wickednesse] he hath not corrected them. C

14 And therfore I haue swore vnto the house of Eli, that the wickednesse of Elies house shall not be purged with sacrifice nor offeryng for euer.

15 Samuel slept vntyl the morning, and opened the doores of the house of the Lorde: and Samuel feared to shewe Eli the vision.

16 Then Eli called Samuel, and sayde: Samuel, my sonne. And he aunswered: Here am I.

17 He saide: What is that the Lord hath saide vnto thee? I pray thee hyde it not from me: * (e) God do so to thee, & more also, if thou hyde any thyng from me of all that he sayde vnto thee.

Ruth.i.c.

(e) God punyshe thee after this or that sort, excepte thou tell me the trueth.

18 And Samuel tolde hym euery whyt, and hyd nothyng from hym. And he saide: It is the Lord, let hym do what D seemeth hym good.

19 And Samuel grewe, and the Lorde was with hym, and left none of his wordes " vnperfourmed.

" Or, fall to the grounde.

20 And all Israel, from Dan to Beerseba, wyst that faythfull Samuel was the Lordes prophete.

21 And the Lorde appeared againe in Silo: for the Lorde opened him selfe to Samuel in Silo, through the worde of the Lorde.

The. iiij. Chapter.

10 The arke of the Lorde is taken. 11 Eli and his chyldren dye.

A 1 AND Samuel spake vnto all Israel: And Israel (a) went out against the Philistines to battell, and pitched beside the "Eben ezer, and the Philistines pitched in Aphec,

(a) From the departure of the Israelites out of Egypt, vnto this time of Samuel, were about three hundred and fourscore yeres.

" Or, stone of helpe

2 And put them selues in aray against Israel: and when they ioyned the battell, Israel was smytten downe before the Philistines, and the Philistines slue of the armie in the fielde about a foure thousande thousand men.

3 And when the people were come into their tentes, the elders of Israel sayde: (b) wherfore hath the Lorde caste vs downe this day before the Philistines: let vs fetch the arke of the appoyntmẽt of the Lorde out of Silo vnto vs, that when it cõmeth among vs, it may saue vs out of the hand of our enemies.

4 And so the people went to Silo, and fet from thence the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde of hoastes, which (c) dwelleth betweene the cherubims: And there wer the two sonnes of Eli, Hophni and Phinehes, with the arke of the appoyntment of God.

(b) Samuel as it is of som affirmed, consulted with the Lord before this was taken in hand, and for that cause thei aske this question.

(c) This he saith, because of the mercy seate that was betweene the Cherubins.

5 And when the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde came into the hoast, all Israel showted a mightie showte, so that the earth rang againe.

B 6 And when the Philistines heard the noyse of the showte, they saide: What meaneth the sounde of this mightie showte in the hoast of the Ebrues? And they vnderstode howe that the arke of the Lorde was come into the hoast.

7 And the Philistines were afraide, and saide: God is come into the hoast. And they said againe: (d) Wo vnto vs, for it was neuer so before this.

8 Wo vnto vs, Who shall deliuer vs out of the hand of these mightie goddes? these are the goddes that smote the Egyptians with many plagues in the (e) Wildernes.

9 Be strong and quite your selues lyke men, O ye Philistines, that ye be no seruaunts vnto the Ebrues, * as they haue ben to you: Be of a manly corage therfore and fight.

10 And the Philistines fought, and Israel was smitten downe, and fled euery man into his tent: And there was an exceeding great slaughter, for there were ouerthrowen of Israel (f) thirtie thousand footemen.

11 And the arke of God was taken, and the two sonnes of Eli, * Hophni & Phinehes, were dead.

12 And there ran a man of Beniamin out of the armie, and came to Silo the same day with his clothes (g) rent, and earth vpon his head.

13 And when he came, lo, Eli sat vpon a stoole by the way side, wayting: for his heart feared for the (h) arke of God. And when the man came into the citie, and tolde it, all the citie cryed.

14 And when Eli heard the noyse of the crying, he saide: What meaneth this noyse of the tumult? And the man came in hastyly, and tolde Eli.

15 Eli was .xcviii. yeres olde, & * his sight failed, him that he could not see.

16 And the man said vnto Eli: I am he that came out of the armie, & fled this day out of the hoast. And he said: What thing is done my sonne?

17 The messenger answered, and said: Israel is fled before the Philistines, & D there

(d) Before thei fought against men, & now God is come to fight against vs.

(e) For in the red sea in the wildernes the Egyptians were destroyed, which was the last of all his plagues. Iudi. xiii. a

(f) This ouerthrow was not for lacke of sufficient number of men: but for lacke of Gods fauour. 1. Reg ii. g.

(g) The common gesture of such as fell to calamitie, for sorow, or heauines.

(h) Lest it should be taken of the enemies.

there hath ben a great slaughter among the people, and thy two sonnes Hophni and Phinehes are dead, and the arke of God is taken.

18 And when he made mention of the arke of God, Eli fell from of his stoole backward by the side of the gate, and his (t) necke brake, and he dyed: For he was an olde man and heauy, and (u) iudged Israel fourtie yeres:

19 And his daughter in lawe Phinehes wyfe was with childe, and nye the (w) birth: And when she heard the tidinges that the arke of God was taken, and that her father in law and her husband were dead, she bowed her selfe, and trauayled, for her paynes came vpon her.

20 And about the tyme of her death, the women that stoode about her, saide vnto her: Feare not, for thou hast borne a sonne. But she aunswered not, nor regarded it.

21 And she named the childe (x) Ichabod, saying: The glorie is departed frō Israel, (because the arke of God was taken, and because of her father in lawe and her husband.)

22 And she saide againe: The glorie is gone from Israel, for the arke of God is taken.

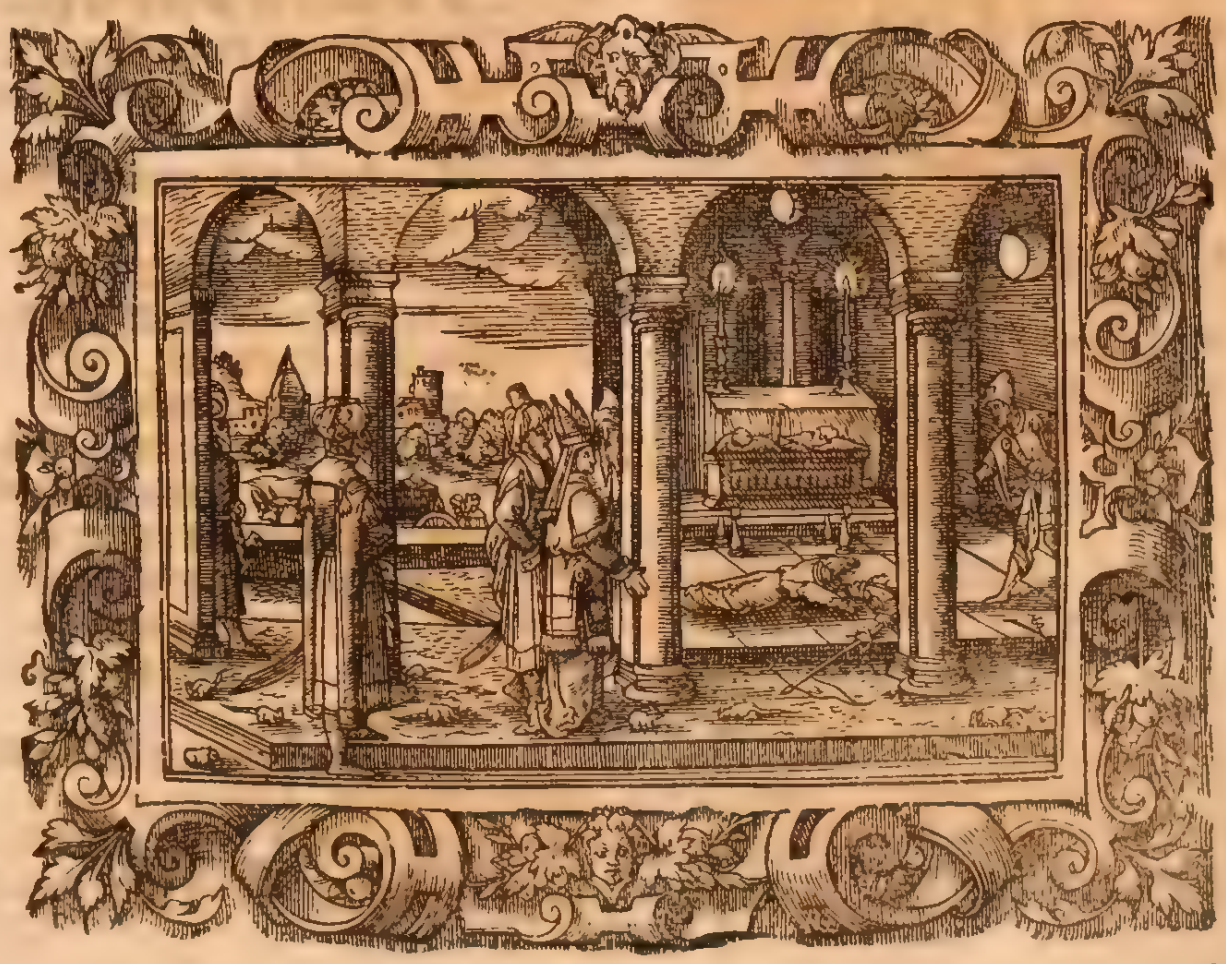
(x) Whiche is by interpretation no glorie, where as the glorie.

The. v. Chapter.

2 The Philistines bring the arke into the house of Dagon. 6 The men of Asdod are plagued. 8 The arke is caryed into Gath, and after to Acron.

1 AND the Philistines toke the arke of God, and caryed it from the Eben ezer vnto Asdod.

2 Then the Philistines toke the arke of God, and brought it into the house of (a) Dagon, and set it by Dagon.



3 And when they of Asdod were vp in the next daye in the morning, beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the earth before the arke of the Lorde: And they toke Dagon, and set him in his place agayne.

4 And when they were come earlie in the next morning, beholde, Dagon was fallen vpon his face on the grounde before the arke of the Lorde, and his head and his two handes cut of vpon the threshold, that onely the stumpe of Dagon was left to him.

5 And therfore is it, that the priestes of Dagon, neither any man that commeth into Dagons house, (b) treade not on the threshold of Dagon in Asdod, vnto this day.

6 But the hand of the Lorde was heauie vpon them of Asdod, and he destroyed them, and smote them with emerodes, both Asdod, and all the coastes thereof.

(b) Passe ouer it, and not another.

7 And when the men of Asdod sawe that it was so, they saide: The arke of the God of Israel shal not abide here with vs, for his hand is sore vpon vs, & vpon (c) Dagon our God.

(c) This is a lamentable blindnes, they cleaue stil to that idol which lyeth vpon the grounde like a blocke, and is not able to helpe neither them nor hym selfe.

8 They sent therfore, and gathered all the lordes of the Philistines vnto them, and saide: What shall we do with the arke of the God of Israel? They answered: Let the arke of the God of Israel be caryed about vnto Gath. And they caried the arke of the God of Israel about.

9 And when they had caryed it about, the hand of the Lorde was agaynst the citie with a very great destruction, and he smote the men of the citie both small and great, and they had emerodes in their secrete partes.

10 Therfore they sent the arke of God to Acaron: and assoone as the arke of God came to Acaron, the Acaronites cryed out, saying: They haue brought the arke of the God of Israel to vs, to slea vs, and our people.

11 And so they sent, and gathered together al the lordes of the Philistines, and saide: Send (d) away the arke of the God of Israel, to go agayne to his owne place, that it slea vs not, and our people. For there was a destruction and death throwout all the citie, and the hand of God was exceeding sore there.

(d) The wicked worketh not like effect in the wicked as in the godly: In the one grudge, and desperation, in the other repentance and reconciliation.

12 And the men that dyed not, were smitten with the emerodes: And the crye of the citie went vp to heauen.

¶ The .vi. Chapter.

1 The time that the arke was with the Philistines, which they sent againe with a gift. 12. It commeth to Bethsames. 17. The Philistines offer golden emerodes. 19. The men of Bethsames are stricken for loking into the arke.

1 AND the arke of the Lord was in the countrey of the Philistines seuen monethes.

2 And the Philistines called for the priestes and the soothsayers, saying: What shall we do with the arke of the Lord? Tell vs wherewith we shall sende it home againe:

(a) For that you haue consumed to carrie it away frō Israel.

3 They sayde: If you send away the arke of the God of Israel, send it not emptie: but rewarde it with sinne (a) offeryng, and then ye shall be whole, and it shall be knowen to you, why his hand departeth not from you.

4 Then sayd they: And what shalbe the sinne offering, which we shall rewarde him with? They answered: Fiue golden emerodes, and fiue golden myce, according to the number of the princes of ỹ Philistines: For one plague was on you all, and on your princes.

(b) Where they are forced to knowledge the true liuing God, & his mightie hand, and yet because of their idolatry haue not the grace to conuert and worship him.

5 Wherfore ye shall make images like to your emerodes, & images like to your myce that corrupt the land, and ye shall geue glorie vnto the God of Israel, that he may take his hand from of you, and from of your (b) goddes, and from of your land.

6 Wherfore do ye harden your heartes, as the Egyptians and Pharao hardened their heartes? which when he wrought wonderfullie among them, did they not let the people go, and they departed?

7 Now therfore, make a newe cart, and take two melche kyne, on whom there hath come no yocke, and tye the kyne to the carte, and bring the calues home from them. B

8 And take the arke of the Lorde, and lay it vpon the cart, and put the iewels of golde whiche ye rewarde him with for a sinne offering, in a coffer by the side thereof, and send it awaye, that it may go.

9 And if ye see that he go vp by the way of his owne coaste to Bethsames, then it is he that did vs this great euill: If no, we shall knowe then that it is not his hand that smote vs, but it was a (c) chaunce that happened vs.

(c) The wicked attribute almost all thinges to fortune and chaunce: wherein is vnder there is nothing done without gods prouidence & decree.

10 And the men did euen so: And toke two kyne that gaue milke, & tyed them to the cart, and kept the calues at home.

11 And they layde the arke of the Lorde vpon the cart, and the coffer with the myce of golde, and with the images of their emerodes.

12 And the kyne toke the strayght way to Bethsames, & went on the strayght way: and as they went, lowed, and turned neither to the ryght hande nor to to the left: And the princes of the Philistines went after them, vnto the (b) borders of Bethsames.

13 And they of Bethsames were reaping their wheate harueſt in the valley: And they lyft vp their eyes, and ſpied the arke, and reioyced when they ſawe it.

14 And the carte came into the fielde of one Jehoſua, a Bethſamite, and ſtoode ſtill ther. There was alſo a great ſtone: And (c) they claue the wood of the carte, and offred the kyne a burnt offring vnto the Lorde.

15 And the Leuites toke downe the arke of the Lorde, and the coffer that was with it, wherein the (d) ieWels of golde were, and put them on the great ſtone: And the men of Bethſames ſacrificed burnt ſacrifice, and offered offeringes the ſame day vnto the Lorde.

16 And when the fiue princes of the Philiſtines had ſeene it, they returned to Acaron the ſame day.

17 And theſe are the golden emerodes which the Philiſtines gaue for a ſinne offering to the Lord: for (g) Asdod one, for Gaza one, for Aſcalon one, for Gath one, and for Acaron one.

18 And golden myce, accordyng to the number of al the cities of the Philiſtines [belongyng] to the fyue lordes, both of walled townes, and of townes vnwalled, euen vnto the great [ſtone] of Abel, whereon they ſet downe the arke of the Lorde vnto this day, in the fielde of Jehoſua the Bethſamite.

19 And he ſmote of the men of Bethſames, becauſe they had (h) loked in the arke of the Lorde, and he ſlue among the people fiftie thouſand and three score and ten men: And the people lamented, becauſe the Lorde had ſlaine the people with ſo great a ſlaughter.

(h) For it was not lawfull to any other to touch or to ſee into it: ſaue onely to Aaron and his ſonnes. Num. 4. b.

20 Wherfore the men of Bethſames ſaid: Who is able to ſtand before this holie Lorde God: And (i) to whom ſhall he go from vs:

21 And they ſent meſſengers to the inhabitaunts of Kiriathiarim, ſaying: The Philiſtines haue brought againe the arke of the Lord, come ye downe and fet it vp to you.

The .vii. Chapter.

1 The arke is brought to Kiriathiearim. 3. Samuel exhorteth the people to forſake their ſinne, and turne to the Lord. 10. The Philiſtines fight againſt Iſrael and are ouercome. 16 Samuel iudgeth Iſrael.

1 AND ſo the men of (a) Kiriathiarim came and fet vp the arke of the Lorde, & brought it into the houſe of Aminadab in the hyll, and ſanctified Eleazar his ſonne, to keepe the arke of the Lorde.

2 And while the arke abode in Kiriathiarim, the tyme was long, for it was twentie yeres: & all the houſe of Iſrael (g) lamented after the Lorde.

3 And Samuel ſpake vnto al the houſe of Iſrael, ſaying: If ye be come againe vnto the Lorde with all your heartes, then *put away the ſtraunge gods and Aſtaroth from among you, and prepare your heartes vnto the Lord, and ſerue him *onely: For he ſhall ryd you out of the hand of the Philiſtines.

4 Then the children of Iſrael dyd put away Baalim and Aſtaroth, and ſerued the Lorde onely.

5 And Samuel ſayde: Gather all Iſrael to (c) Miſpah, and I wyll praye for you vnto the Lord.

(c) For Silo was nowe deſolate, becauſe the philiſtines had taken thence the arke.

6 And they gathered together to Miſpah, and (d) drewe water, and poured it out before the Lorde, and faſted the ſame day, and ſayd there: We haue ſinned againſt the Lorde. And Samuel iudged the children of Iſrael in Miſpah.

(d) After the expoſition of ſome of the learned, it meaneth that they wept before the lorde.

7 When the Philiſtines heard that the children of Iſrael were gathered together to Miſpah, the princes of the Philiſtines went vp againſt Iſrael: And when the children of Iſrael hard that, they were afrayde of the Philiſtines.

8 And the children of Iſrael ſayd to Samuel: (e) Ceaſſe not to crye vnto the lord our God for vs, that he may ſaue vs out of the hand of the Philiſtines.

Eccl xlvi. b.

(e) Now they haue learned, not to truſt in them ſelues, but in God: & to ſeke help not at ỹ arke, but at his hand alone.

9 And Samuel toke a ſucking lambe, and offered it altogether for a burnt offering vnto the Lorde, and cryed vnto the Lorde for Iſrael, and the Lorde heard him.

10 And as Samuel offered the burnt offering, fering, the Philistines came to fight against Israel: But the Lorde thundred a great thunder the same day among the Philistines, & scattered them, that they were slaine before Israel.

11 And the men of Israel went out of Mispah, and pursued the Philistines, & smote thē vntill [they came] vnder Bethchar.

Iosua xviii.f. (f) Whiche was a great rocke ouer against Mispah.

12 And then Samuel * toke a stone, and pitched it betweene Mispah & (f) Shen, and called the name thereof Eben ezer, saying: Hitherto hath the Lorde helped vs.

13 And so the Philistines were brought vnder, and they came no more into the coaste of Israel: and the hande of the Lorde was against the Philistines all the dayes of Samuel.

14 Therto the cities which that the Philistines had taken from Israel, were restored to Israel euen from Acaron to Gath, and the coastes of the same dyd Israel deliuer out of the handes of the Philistines: And there was peace betweene Israel and the (g) Amorites.

(g) Meaning the Philistines.

15 Samuel iudged Israel all the dayes of his life:

16 And went about yere by yere to Bethel, Gilgal, and Mispah, and iudged Israel in all those places.

17 And came againe to Rama, for there was his house, and there he iudged Israel also, & there he buylt an (h) aulter vnto the Lorde.

(h) Which was not contrary to the lawe: for as yet a certeine place was not appoynted.

The .viii. Chapter.

1 Samuel maketh his sonnes iudges ouer Israel, who follow not his steps. 5. The Israelites aske a king. 11. Samuel declareth in what state they should be vnder the king. 19. Notwithstanding they aske one still, and the Lorde willeth Samuel to graunt vnto them.

A 1 When Samuel was old, he (a) made his sonnes iudges ouer Israel.

(a) Because he was not able to trauel and take the paynes in his olde age.

2 The name of his eldest sonne was (b) Joel, and the name of the seconde Abia, and they were iudges in Beersebа.

(b) Who was also called Vshni. 1.Chro.6.b.

3 And his sonnes (c) walked not in his wayes, but turned aside after lucre, and * tooke rewarde, and peruerted the ryght.

(c) That is, they obserued not the iustice, equitie, vprightnes, and godlynes, of their father.

4 Then all the elders of Israel gathered them together, and came to Samuel vnto Rama,

5 And sayd vnto him: Beholde, thou art olde, and thy sonnes walke not in thy wayes: Now therfore * make vs a king to iudge vs, as all other nations [haue]

Deut.xvii.c i.Reg. xii.c. Osee.xiii.c. Actes. xiii.d

6 But the thing displeased Samuel when they said, geue vs a king to iudge vs: And Samuel prayed vnto the lorde.

B 7 And the Lorde saide vnto Samuel, Heare the voyce of the people in all that they say vnto thee: For they haue not cast thee away, but they haue cast me away, that I should not raigne ouer them.

8 And as they haue euer done sence I brought them out of Egypt vnto this day, and haue forsaken me, and serued other gods, euen so do they vnto thee.

9 Now therefore hearken vnto their voyce: howbeit yet testifie vnto them, & shewe them * the maner of the king that shall raigne ouer them. Deut.xvii.c

10 And Samuel tolde all the wordes of the Lorde vnto the people that asked a king of him,

11 And he said: This shal be the (d) maner of the king that shall raigne ouer you, * he will take your sonnes and put them to his charets, and make his horsemen of them, to run before his charet.

(d) Except such as shall haue y feare of God before their eyes, & wyll follow the statutes and lawes, as Dauid, Salomō, Ezechias, and Josias.

12 And will make him of thē captaines ouer thousandes and ouer fifties, and will set them to eare his grounde, and to gather in his harueste, & to make instrumentes of warre, and thinges that serue for his charets.

13 And he will take your daughters, and make them appoticaries, cookes, and bakers. C

41 And he shall take your fieldes, * and your vineyardes, and your best oliue trees, and geue them to his seruauntes. iii.Re.xxi.a

15 And he shall take the tenth of your seede, and of your vineyardes, and geue it to his eunuches, & to his seruauntes.

16 And he shal take your men seruauntes, and maide seruauntes, young men, and the chiefe of your asses, and put them to his worke.

17 And he shall take the tenth of your sheepe, and ye shall be his seruauntes.

18 And

18 And ye shall crie out at that time, because of your king Whiche ye shall haue chosen you, & the Lorde Wil (c) not heare you at that day.

19 Neuertheleſſe, the people wouldе not heare the voyce of Samuel, but did say, Nay, not so: But there shalbe a king ouer vs, 20 That we may be lyke other nations, and that our king may iudge vs, and go out before vs, and fight our battailes.

21 Therfore when Samuel hearde all the wordes of the people, he rehearsed them in the eares of the Lord. D

22 And the Lord sayd to Samuel: Hearken vnto their voyce, and make them a king. And Samuel said vnto the men of Israel: Go euery man vnto his citie.

The ix. Chapter.

1 Saul seeking his fathers asses, by the counsell of his seruaunt goeth to Samuel. 9 The Prophetes called Seers. 15 The Lord reuealeth to Samuel Sauls comming, commaunding to annoynt him king. 22 Samuel bringeth Saul to the feast.

A 1 There was a man of Beniamin named Cis the sonne of (a) Abiel, the sonne of Zeror, ỹ sonne of Bechorath, the sonne of Aphiah, the sonne of a man that was a Jeminite, (b) mightie in power.

2 And the same had a sonne called Saul, a goodly young man and a faire, so that among the children of Israel there was none goodlier then he: From the shoulders vpwarde he was hygher then all the other people.

3 And the asses of this Cis Sauls father were lost, and Cis sayd to Saul his sonne: Take one of the laddes with thee, and arise, go and seke the asses.

4 And he went through mount Ephraim, and passed through the lande of Salisa: but they founde them not. Then they went through the lande of Salim, and there they were not. When they went also through the land of Jemini, they found them not.

5 At the last, when they were come to the lande of (c) Zuph, Saul sayde to his lad that was with him: Come, let vs returne, lest my father leaue caring for the asses, and take thought for vs.

6 He sayde vnto him: Behold, there is in this citie a man of God, & he is an honorable man, all that he sayth, commeth suerly to passe: Now then let vs go thyther, if so be he can shewe vs what way we may go.

B 7 Then sayde Saul to his lad: If we will go, what shall we bring the man? For the bread is spent in our vessels, & there is no other present to bring the man of God: what haue we?

8 And the lad aunswered Saul againe, and sayde: Behold I haue found about me the fourth part of a (d) sicle of siluer, that will I geue the man of God, to tell vs our way.

(d) Whiche is, about fiue pence.

9 (Before time in Israel when a man went to seke an aunswere of God, thus wyse he spake, Come and let vs go to the (e) Seer: For he that is now called a prophete, was in the olde tyme called a Seer.

(e) Because he sawe gods will reuealed vnto him by his diuine spirite, and for that he forsawe thinges to come.

10 Then sayde Saul to his lad, Wel sayd of thee: Come, let vs go. And so they wēt vnto the citie where the man of God was.

11 And as they went their way vp the hil to the citie, they met with damosels that came out to drawe water, and sayd vnto them: Is there here a Seer?

12 And the maydens aunswered them, and sayd: yea, behold he is before you, make haste nowe, for he came this day to the citie, for ther is an (f) offring of the people this day in the hill.

(f) That is, a feast after the offering,

13 When ye be come into the citie, ye shall finde him strayghtway yer he go vp to the hil to eate: for ỹ people will not eate vntil he come, because he doth (g) blesse the offring, and then eate they that be bydden to the feast: Nowe therfore get you vp, for this day shal ye finde him.

(g) That is, geue thankes & distribute the meate accordinge to the custome.

14 And they went vp into the citie: And when they were come into the middes of the citie, behold Samuel came out agaynst them, for to go vp to the hill. C

15 But the Lorde had tolde Samuel in his eare (a day before Saul came) saying:

16 To morowe this tyme I wyll sende thee a man out of the lande of Beniamin, him shalt thou annoynt to be captaine ouer my people Israel, that he may saue my people out of ꝑ handes of the Philistines: for I haue loked (h) vpon my people, and their (i) crie is come vnto me.

(h) That is, vpon the affliction and oppression of my people.
(i) Wherin they seeke helpe & deliuerance at me.

17 When Samuel therfore sawe Saul, the Lorde aunswered him: See, this is the man whom I spake to thee of, this same shall raigne ouer my people.

18 Then went Saul to Samuel in the middle of the gate, and sayd: Tell me I pray thee where the sears house is:

19 Samuel aunswered Saul and sayd, I am the sear: Go vp before me vnto the hil, for ye shall eate with me to day, and to morowe I will let thee go, and wil tel thee all that is in thyne (k) heart.

(k) That is, al that thou desirest to knowe.

20 And as for thyne asses that were lost three dayes ago, care not for them, for they are founde: And (l) whose shall the beawtiful thinges of Israel be? Belong they not to thee, and vnto all thy fathers house?

(l) whom God hath chosen to be their king.

D 21 But Saul aunswered and sayde: Am not I the sonne of a Iemmite, of the smallest tribe of Israel? and my kinred is the lest of all the kinredes of the tribe of Beniamin? wherfore then speakest thou so to me?

22 And Samuel toke Saul and his lad, and brought them into the (m) parler, and made thē sit in the chiefest place among them that were bidden, whiche were vpon a thirtie persons.

(m) Where the feast was.

23 And Samuel sayde vnto the cooke: Bring foorth the portion which I gaue thee, and of which I said vnto thee, kepe it with thee.

24 And the cooke toke vp the shoulder, & that which was (n) vpon it, and set it before Saul. And Samuel sayd: Behold that which is left, put it before thee and eate: for hytherto hath it ben kept for thee, saying: Also I (o) called the people. And so Saul dyd eate with Samuel that day.

(n) That is, ꝑ sholder with the rest which the priest had for his familie in all peace offerynges. Leui. vii.c.

(o) That beyng by the ofserynge of the people and by the meate prepared for it, thou mygheste vnderstande that I knewe of thy comyng.

25 And when they were come downe frō the hyghe place into the citie, Samuel communed with Saul vpon the (p) top of the house.

(p) For after the maner it was flat, that men myght walke together vpon it.

26 And when they arose earely about the spring of the day, Samuel called Saul vpon the toppe of the house, saying: Vp, that I may send thee away. And Saul arose, and they went out, both he and Samuel.

27 And when they were come almost out of the towne, Samuel sayde to Saul: Bid the lad go before vs (and he went before) but stande thou stil a whyle, that I may shewe thee the (q) worde of God.

(q) That is, Gods commaundement as concerning thee.

The. x. Chapter.

6 Saul is annoynted king by Samuel. 9 God chaungeth Sauls heart, and he prophesieth. 19 Samuel assembleth the people, and sheweth them their sinnes. 21 Saul is chosen king by lot. 25 Samuel writeth the kings office.

A 1  ND thē Samuel toke a vessell of (a) oyle, and powred it vpon his head, and* kissed him, and sayd: Hath not the Lord annoynted thee, to be captaine ouer his (b) inheritaunce?

(a) Here begynneth the vse of annoyntyng of kynges with oyle by gods cōmaundement. Act. xiii.d.

(b) That is, the chyldren of Israel, which only he would possesse as his inheritaunce.

2 When thou art departed from me this day, thou shalt finde two men by (c) Rahels sepulchre in ꝑ border of Beniamin, euen at Zalezah, and they wil say vnto thee, ꝑ asses which thou wētest to seke, are found: And lo, thy father hath left the care of the asses, & soroweth for you, saying: What shal I do for my sonne?

(c) Of whom Beniamin the yongest sonne of Jacob was borne, of the which ꝑ tribe of Beniamin, wherof kyng Saul was, bare their name.

3 Then shalt thou go foorth frō thence, & shalt come to the "playne of Thabor, and ther shal meete thee three mē going vp to God to Bethel, one carying three kiddes, & another carying three loues of bread, & another carying a botel of wine.

5 After that, shalt thou come to the (d) hil of God, wher is the garison of the Philistines: And when thou art come thyther to the citie, thou shalt meete a companie of prophetes comming downe frō the hyghe place, with a psalter, a timbrell, a pype, & a harpe before them, and they shal prophesie.

(d) which was in the tyme tabernacle, where the arke was. Chapt. vii.

6 And the spirite of the Lorde wil come vpon thee also, and thou shalt prophsie with them, & shalt be turned into another man.

7 Therfore when these signes are come vnto thee, do what thou hast to do, for God is with thee.

B 8 And

8 And thou shalt go downe before me to Gilgal, and I also will come downe vnto thee to sacrifice burnt sacrifices, & to offre peace offringes: * Tary for me seuen dayes till I come to thee, & shewe thee what thou shalt do.

9 And when he had turned his "backe to go frō Samuel, God gaue him another (e) hearte, and all those tokens came to passe that same day.

10 And when they came thyther to the hill, beholde, the companie of prophetes met him, and * the spirite of God came vpon him, & he (f) prophecied among thē.

11 And all that knewe him before, when they sawe that he prophecied among the prophetes, they sayd eche to other: What is this that is come vnto the sonne of Cis: * Is Saul also among the prophetes:

12 And one of the same place aunswered, and sayde: Who is their (g) father: And therof came ỹ prouerbe: What is Saul also among the (h) prophetes:

13 And whē he had made an ende of prophecying, he came to the hyghe place.

14 And Sauls vncle sayde vnto him, and to his lad: Whyther went ye: He sayde, To seke the asses: And when we sawe that they were no where, we came to Samuel.

15 And Sauls vncle sayde: Tell me, I pray thee, What Samuel sayd vnto you:

16 Saul aunswered his vncle: He tolde vs plainely that the asses were found. But of ỹ kingdome wherof Samuel spake, tolde he him not.

17 And Samuel called the people together vnto the Lorde to Mispah, 18 And sayd vnto the children of Israel: Thus sayde the Lorde God of Israel, I brought Israel out of Egypt, and deliuered you out of the hand of the Egyptians, and out of the handes of al kingdomes that troubled you.

19 And ye haue this day cast away your God, who onely deliuereth you out of al your aduersities and tribulations. And ye haue sayd vnto him: No, but make a king ouer vs. Nowe therfore stande ye before the Lorde by your tribes, & your thousandes.

20 And when Samuel had assembled together all the tribes of Israel, the tribe of Beniamin was (i) taken.

(i) That is, by casting of lot.

21 When he had assembled together the tribe of Beniamin by their kinredes, the kinred of Matri was caught, and at the last Saul the sonne of Cis was caught: And when they sought him, he coulde not be founde.

22 Therfore they asked the Lord further, if the man should yet come thyther: And the Lord aunswered: Behold (k) he hath hyd him selfe among the stuffe.

(k) As though he were vnworthy, and vnwilling.

23 And they ranne and fet him thence, and when he stoode among the people, he was hygher then any of the people from the shoulders vpwarde.

24 And Samuel said to al the people: See ye not him whom the Lorde hath chosen, and howe there is none lyke him among all the people: And all the people shouted, and sayd: God "saue the king.

"Heb. Let the king lyue.

25 Then Samuel tolde the people the (l) duetie of the kingdome, & wrote it in a booke, and laide it vp before the Lord, and sent all the people away, euery man to his house.

(l) As it is written. Deut.17.c.

26 And Saul also went home to Gibea, and there followed him a band of men, whose hearts God had touched.

27 But the children of Belial sayd: Howe shall he saue vs? And they despised him, and, brought him no presentes: And he (m) held his tongue.

The. xii. Chapter.

1 Samuel declaring to the people his integritie, reproueth their ingratitude. 19 God by miracle causeth the people to confesse their sinne. 20 Samuel exhorteth the people to followe the Lord.

1 AND Samuel sayd vnto al Israel: Beholde, I haue (a) hearkened vnto your voyce in all that ye sayde vnto me, and haue made a king ouer you.

2 Nowe therfore, your king walketh before (b) you: and I am olde and graye headed, and beholdmy sonnes are with you, & I haue walked before you from my childehod vnto this day.

3 Beholde here I am, beare recorde of me before the Lorde & before his (c) anoynted: (d) whose ore haue I taken? or whose asse haue I taken? whom haue I done wrong to? whom haue I hurt? Or of whose hande haue I receaued any bribe, to blind myne eyes therwith? and I will restore it you.

4 They sayde: Thou hast done vs no wrong, nor hurt vs, neither hast thou taken ought of any mans hande.

5 He sayd vnto them againe: The Lord is witnesse against you, and his annoynted is witnesse this day, that ye haue found naught in my handes. And they answered: He is witnesse.

6 And Samuel sayd vnto the people: It is the Lorde that (e) made Moyses and Aaron, and that brought your fathers out of the lande of Egypt.

B 7 Nowe therfore stand still, that I may reason with you before the Lorde, according to all the righteousnesses of the Lorde, whiche he shewed both you and your fathers.

8 *After ỹ Jacob was come into Egypt, and your fathers cryed vnto the Lord, *the Lord sent Moyses & Aaron, which brought your fathers out of Egypt, and made them dwel in this place.

11 And ỹ Lord sent Jerobaal, (g) *Bedan, Jephthah, and Samuel, and deliuered you out of the handes of your enemies on euerie side, and ye dwelled safe.

12 And for all that, when you sawe that Nahas the king of the children of Ammon came against you, ye sayd vnto me: Not so, but a king shall raigne ouer vs: when yet thy Lord your God was your king.

13 Nowe therfore behold the king whom ye haue chosen, and whom ye haue desired: lo, ỹ Lorde hath set a king ouer you.

18 And so Samuel called vnto the Lord, and the Lorde sent thunder and rayne the same day: And all the people feared the Lord and Samuel exceedingly.

19 And al the people sayd vnto Samuel: Pray for thy seruauntes vnto the Lord thy God, that we dye not: for we haue sinned in asking vs a king, beside all our [other] sinnes.

20 And Samuel sayde vnto the people, feare not (ye haue in deede done al this wickednesse, yet (l) depart not from folowing of the Lorde, but serue the Lorde with all your heartes:

The. xiii. Chapter.

3 The Philistines are smitten of Saul and Jonathan. 13 Saul being disobedient to Gods commaundement, is shewed of Samuel that he shal not raigne. 19 The great slauerie wherin the Philistines kept the Israelites.

A 1 Saul now had ben king (a) one yere (& he raigned two yeres ouer Israel.)

(a) Whyles these thinges were done.

2 And Saul chose him three thousand men of Israel: Two thousand were with Saul in Michmas and in mount Bethel, and a thousand with Jonathan in Gibea Beniamin: and the rest of the people he sent euery man to his tent.

3 And Jonathan smote the garison of the Philistines that was in the (c) hill, and it came to the Philistines eares: And Saul blewe ỹ (d) trumpet throughout al the land, saying: Let the Hebrues heare.

(c) Kiriathiarim, where the arke was. Chap. 10. a.

(d) That euery man should prepare him self to warre.

4 And all Israel hearde say howe that Saul had destroyed a garison of ỹ Philistines: wherfore Israel was had in abomination with ỹ Philistines. And the people gathered together after Saul to Gilgal.

5 The Philistines also gathered them selues together to fyght with Israel, thirtie thousand charettes, & sixe thousand horsemen, with other people lyke the sand by the seas side in multitude, & came vp, and pitched in Michmas, eastwarde from (e) Bethauen.

(e) Whiche is Bethel, and of the prophetes called Bethauen, because of the idolatrie committed there.

6 And when the men of Israel sawe it, they were in a strayte (and the people were in a distresse) & the people hyd thẽ selues in caues, and in holdes, and in rockes, and in hye places, and in pittes.

B 7 And some of the Hebrues went ouer Jordane to go vnto the land of (f) Gad and Gilead: And Saul was yet in Gilgal, and all the people being afrayde, followed him.

(f) Where the two tribes & the halfe remayned.

8 And he taried seuen dayes, euen vnto the time that Samuel had appoynted: But Samuel came not to Gilgal, and the people were therfore (g) skattered from him.

(g) Thinking that the absence of the prophet was a signe that they should lose the victorie.

9 And Saul sayde: Bring a burnt sacrifice to me, and peace offeringes. And he offered a burnt sacrifice.

19 And assoone as he had made an ende of offering the burnt sacrifice, beholde Samuel came, and Saul went against him, to "salute him.

"Heb. blesse him.

11 And Samuel sayde: what hast thou done? Saul sayde: Because I sawe that the people skattered from me, and that thou camest not within the dayes appointed, and that the Philistines gathered them selues together to Michmas:

12 Therfore sayde I, The Philistines shal come downe nowe vpon me to Gilgal, and I haue not made supplication vnto the Lord: I was bolde therfore, & offred a burnt offring.

13 And Samuel sayd to Saul: Thou art become a foole, thou hast not kept the commaundemẽt of the Lord thy (h) God which he commaũded thee: For at this time woulde the Lorde haue stablished thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer.

(h) Who willed thee to obey him, and rest vpon his worde.

14 But nowe, thy kingdome shal not continue: The Lorde hath sought him a (i) man after his owne heart, and the Lord hath commaunded him to be captayne ouer his people, because thou hast not kept that whiche the Lorde commaunded thee.

(i) That is, Dauid.

15 And Samuel arose, & gate him vp from Gilgal (k) in Gibea of Beniamin, and Saul numbred the people that were found with him, and they were about a sixe hundred men.

(k) And went to his owne Ramah.

16 And Saul and Jonathan his sonne, & the people that were found with them, had their abiding in Gibea of Bemamin: but ỹ Philistines pitched in Michmas.

17 And there came out of the hoast of the Philistines three cõpanies to destroye: one companie turned vnto the way that leadeth to Ophra vnto ỹ lande of Sual:

18 And

18 And another companie turned the way to Bethoron: And the thirde companie turned to the way of the coast that is seene aboue ỹ valley of Zeboim toward the wildernesse.

19 There was no smith founde throughout all the lande of Israel: For the Philistines sayde, Lest the Hebrues make them swordes or speares.

20 But all the Israelites went downe to the Philistines, to mende euery man his share, his mattocke, his axe, & weeding hooke.

21 Yet they had a file for the shares, for the mattockes, for the pickforkes, and for the axes, and for to sharpen to goades. D

22 And so in time of battel there was neither (1) sword nor speare found in the handes of any of the people that were with Saul and Jonathan: But with Saul & Jonathan his sonne was there found.

(1) To declare that the victorie came only of God.

23 And the garison of the Philistines came out, to go ouer vnto Michmas.

The. xiiii. Chapter.

14 Jonathan and his harnesse bearer put the Philistines to flight. 24 Saul bindeth the people by an othe, not to eate till euening. 32 The people eate with the blood. 38 Saul would put Jonathan to death. 45 The people deliuer him.

A 1 Then on a time Jonathan the sonne of Saul sayde vnto his young man that bare his harnesse: (a) Come, & let vs go ouer to the Philistines garison that are yonder on the other syde: and he tolde not his father.

2 And Saul taried in the vttermost part of Gibea vnder a pomegranate tree which is in Migron: and the people that were with him were vpō a sixe hundred men.

3 And Ahia the sonne of Ahitob, Ichabods brother, the sonne of Phinehes the sonne of Eli, was the Lordes (b) priest in Silo, and ware an Ephod: And the people wist not that Jonathan was gone.

4 And in the middes of the passage by which Jonathan sought to go ouer vnto the Philistines garison, there was a sharpe rocke on the one syde, & a sharpe rocke on the other syde: the one called Bozez, and the other Sene.

5 The forefront of the one leaned northwarde towarde Michmas, & the other was southward toward Gibea.

6 And Jonathan sayd to the young man that bare his harnesse: Come, and let vs go ouer vnto the garison of these vncircumcised, it may be that the Lorde will worke with vs: for it is no hardnesse with the Lord to saue either in manie or in fewe.

7 And his harnessebearer said vnto him, Do all that is in thyne heart: Go where it pleaseth thee, behold I am with thee as thyne heart lusteth.

8 Then sayd Jonathan: Beholde, we go ouer vnto these men, and shall shewe our selues vnto them.

9 If they say on this wyse to vs, Tarie vntil we come to you: then we wil stand still in our place, & not go vp vnto them.

10 But and if they say, Come vp vnto vs: then we wil go vp, for the Lorde hath (c) deliuered them into our handes: And this shalbe a signe vnto vs.

11 And they both shewed them selues vnto the garison of the Philistines. And the Philistines sayde: See, the Hebrues come out of the (d) holes where they had hyd them selues in.

12 And the men of the garison answered Jonathan & his harnesse bearer, & sayd: Come vp to vs, and we will shewe you a thing. And Jonathan sayde vnto his harnesse bearer: Come vp after me, for the Lorde hath deliuered them into the hande of Israel.

13 And Jonathan clymed vp vpon (e) handes and feete, and his harnessebearer after him: And they fell before Jonathan, & his harnesse bearer slue thē after him.

14 And that first slaughter whiche Jonathan & his harnesse bearer made, was vpon a twentie men, within the compasse as it were about an halfe aker of land which two [oren plowe.]

15 And there was a feare in the hoast, in the field, & among al ỹ people: insomuch that they that were gone out of the garison to robbe, were afrayde also, & the (f) earth trembled, for the feare that was sent of God.

17 Then sayd Saul vnto the people that was with him: Searche, and see who is gone away from vs. And when they had numbred, beholde, Jonathan and his harnesse bearer were not there.

18 And Saul sayd vnto Ahia: Bring hyther the (g) arke of God. (For the arke of God was at time with the children of Israel.)

(g) By whiche is meant the Ephod which was set vp with the arke, which ỹ priest should put on to aske counsel, and to tell of thinges to come. Num. 27 d.

(h) Let the Ephod alone, for I haue no leysure now to aske councell of God.

20 And Saul ioyned him selfe vnto al the people that were with him, & they came to the battell, and behold * euery mans sword was against his felow, and there was a very great discomfiture.

Iud. vii. f.

21 Moreouer, the Hebrues that were with the Philistines before that tyme, & were come with them into all partes of the hoaste, turned to be with the Israelites that were with Saul and Jonathan.

22 And all the men of Israel also, whiche had hyd thẽ selues in mount Ephraim, assoone as they hearde howe that the Philistines were fled, they folowed after them in the battel.

23 And so the Lorde saued Israel that day: and the battel continued vnto Bethauen.

24 And when the men of Israel were kepte downe with hunger that day, Saul charged the people with an oth, saying: (i) Cursed be the man that eateth any foode vntill night, till I be auenged of myne enemies. And so none of the people tasted any sustenaunce.

(i) Such was his hypocrisie and arrogancie, that he thought to attribute to his policie, that whiche God had geuen by the hande of Jonathan.

25 And al they of the land came to a wood, where honie lay vpon the grounde.

26 And the people came into the wood: And behold, the honie dropped, and no man moued his hand to his mouth: for the people feared the (k) oth.

28 Then aunswered one of the people, and sayde: Thy father made the people to sweare, saying: Cursed be the mã that eateth any sustenaunce this day. And the people were "faynt.

" Or, weary.

29 Thẽ sayd Jonathan, My father hath (m) troubled the lande: See howe myne eyes hath receaued sight, because I tasted a litle of this honie:

(m) By medling this mortal latter.

30 Howe muche more then to day, if the people had eaten of the spoyle of their enemies whiche they found? And had there not ben then a muche greater slaughter among the Philistines?

31 And they smote the Philistines that day, from Michmas to Aialon: And the people were exceeding faynt.

32 And the people gat them to the spoyle, and toke sheepe, oxen, and calues, & slue them on the ground, and the people dyd eate them with the blood.

33 Then men tolde Saul, saying: Behold, the people sinne against the Lorde, in that they eate with the blood. And he sayde, Ye haue trespassed: Rolle a (n) great stone vnto me this day.

(n) That the blood of the beastes that shalbe slayne, may be preserued out bpon it.

34 And Saul sayde againe: Go abrode among the people, and bid them bring me euery man his oxe, and euery man his sheepe, and slay them here, and eate, and sinne not against the Lorde in eating with the blood. And the people brought euery man his oxe in his hande that night, and slue them there.

35 And Saul made an aulter vnto ỹ Lord: And that was the "first aulter that he made vnto the Lorde.

" Or, of the stone he began to build an aulter.

36 And Saul sayde: Let vs go downe after the Philistines by night, and spoyle them, vntil it be day in the morning, and let vs not leaue one man of them. And they sayde: Do whatsoeuer thou thinkest best. Then sayde the priest: Let vs (o) come hyther vnto God.

(o) To aske councell of hym.

37 And Saul asked of God: Shall I go downe after the Philistines? Wilt thou deliuer them into the handes of Israel? But he aunswered him not at that time.

38 And Saul sayde: Let al the "chiefe of the people come hyther, and knowe and see by whom this sinne is done this day.

" Hebr. corner.

39 For as the Lorde liueth, whiche saued Israel, though it be in Jonathan my sonne, he shal dye the death. But there was no man among all the people that aunswered him.

40 Then he sayde vnto al Israel: Be ye on one syde, and I and Jonathan my sonne sonne will be on the other syde. And the people saide vnto Saul: What thou thinkest best, that do.

41 Therfore Saul saide vnto the Lorde God of Israel, geue a (p) perfect lot. And Saul and Jonathan were caught: but the people scaped free.

42 And Saul said: Cast lot betweene me and Jonathan my sonne. And Jonathan was caught.

43 Then Saul saide to Jonathan: Tell me what thou hast done. And Jonathan tolde him, and sayde: I tasted a litle honie with the ende of the rod that was in myne hand, & lo, I (q) must dye.

44 Saul aunswered: *God do so & more also to me, thou shalt dye the death Jonathan.

45 And the people said vnto Saul: Shal Jonathan dye, which hath so mightilie deliuered Israel? God forbid. As the Lord lyueth,* there shall not one heere of his head fall to ỹ ground, for he hath wrought with God this daye. And so the people deliuered Jonathan, that he dyed not.

46 And then Saul departed vp from following the Philistines: And the Philistines went to their owne place.

47 And so Saul helde the kingdome ouer Israel, and fought against all his enemies on euery side, against Moab, against the children of Ammon, against Edom, against the kinges of Zoba, and against the Philistines: And whyther soeuer he turned him selfe, he put them to the worse.

48 And he gathered his hoast together, & smote the (r) Amalekites, & rid Israel out of the handes of them that spoyled them.

49 The sonnes of Saul were, Jonathan, (s) Jessui, and Melchisua: And his two daughters were thus named, the elder was called Merob, and the younger (t) Michol.

50 And the name of Sauls wife, was Ahinoa, the daughter of Ahimaaz: and the name of his chiefe captaine, was Abner the sonne of Ner, Sauls vncle.

51 And *Cis was Sauls father: & Ner the father of Abner, was the sonne of Abiel.

(e) Against the commaundement of god by Samuel.

Gene.vi.c. 11 It *repenteth me that I haue made Saul king: For he is turned from me, & hath not perfourmed my commaundementes. And Samuel was euill apayed, & cryed vnto the Lord all night.

12 And whē Samuel rose early to meete Saul in the morning, it was tolde Samuel that Saul was come to Carmel, and beholde, he hath made him there a place, and is returned, and departed and gone downe to (f) Gilgal.

(f) There to offer vp sacrifice for the victorie gotten.

13 And Samuel came to Saul, & Saul said vnto him, Blessed be thou in the Lorde: I haue fulfilled the (g) cōmaundement of the Lord.

(g) This is the maner of hypocrites, & when they forsake their owne deuises to say they haue fulfilled gods commaundemēts.

14 Samuel sayde: What meaneth then the bleating of the sheepe in mine eares and the lowing of the oxen which I heare?

15 Saul answered, They haue brought them from the Amalekites: For the people spared the best of the sheepe, and of the oxen, to sacrifice them vnto the Lorde thy God, and the remnaunt haue we destroyed vtterlie.

16 Samuel said to Saul: Let me tell thee what the Lorde hath saide to me this night. And he sayd vnto him: saye on.

D 18 And the Lorde sent thee on a iourney, and said: Go, and vtterly destroy those sinners the Amalekites, & fight against them vntyll thou destroy them.

19 And wherfore hast thou not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde? but hast turned to the praye, and hast done that which is wicked in the syght of the Lorde?

20 And Saul sayde vnto Samuel: Yea, I haue hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde, and haue gone the way which the Lord sent me vnto, & haue brought Agag the kyng of Amalek, and haue destroyed the Amalekites.

21 But the people toke of ỹ spoyle, sheepe, oxen, and the chiefest of the thynges whiche shoulde haue ben destroyed, to offer vnto the Lord thy God in Gilgal.

22 And Samuel sayde: Hath the Lorde as great pleasure in burnt sacrifices and offerynges, as when the voyce of the Lorde is obeyed? Beholde, to obey, is better then sacrifice: and to hearken, is better then the fat of rammes.

23 For (i) rebellion is as the sinne * of witchcraft, and stubbernesse is as the wickednes of idolatrie: Because thou hast cast away the worde of the Lorde, therefore he hath cast away thee also from being king.

(i) To vexe the minde of Saul, with the anguishe of an euill conscience, wherebi blacke colier and phrensie is ingendred, 15 And Sauls seruauntes said vnto him: Beholde, an euill spirite [sent] of God vexeth thee.

16 Let our Lorde therefore commaunde thy seruauntes (that are before thee) to seeke a man that is a cunnyng player with an harpe: that when the euill spirite of God commeth vpon thee, he may play with his hande, & thou shalt be eased.

17 Saul sayd vnto his seruauntes: Prouide me a man then that can play well, and bring him to me.

18 Thē answered one of his seruauntes and said: Beholde, I haue seene a sonne of Isai the Bethlehemite, that can play vpon instrumentes, and is strong, valiaunt, and a man of warre, and prudent in doing of feates, and well made, and the Lorde is with him.

19 Wherefore Saul sent messengers vnto Isai, and said: Sende me Dauid thy sonne, which is with the sheepe.

20 And Isai tooke an asse [laden] with bread, and a flacket of wine, and a kyd, and sent them by Dauid his sonne vnto Saul.

(k) By good prouidence, that he might be traded in practise and warlike affayres, before he should take vpō him the office of a prince.

21 And (k) Dauid came to Saul, and " stoode before him, and he (l) loued him very well, & he was made his harnesse bearer.

" Or serued him.

(l) His mind not yet corrupted with enuie, which quencheth loue, as water doth fyre.

22 And Saul sent to Isai, saying: Let Dauid nowe remaine with me, for he hath founde fauour in my sight.

23 And so when the [euill] spirite of God came vpon Saul, Dauid toke an harpe and played with his hand: and so Saul was (m) refreshed, & did amende, and the euyll spirite departed from him.

(m) which benefite to his greater condemnation he recompenced with cruelte and hatred.

A 1 THe Philistines gathered their hoast to battayle, and came together to Socho which is in Juda, and pytched betweene Socho and Azekah, in the coaste of "Dammim.

" Or Ephes Dammim.

2 And Saul & the men of Israel came together, and pytched in the valley of " Elah, and put them selues in battaile aray, to meete the Philistines.

" Or of the Oke.

3 And the Philistines stoode on a mountaine on the one syde, and Israel stoode on a mountaine on the other syde, and there was a valley betweene them.

(a) That is betweene the two campes.

4 And there came a man betweene thē (a) both, out of the tentes of the Philistines, named Goliath, of Gath: (b) sixe cubites and a handbreadth long:

(b) A man of tyme considers, is a wonder in the worlde, this Goliath is a cubite and a handbreadth more then a wonder.

5 And had an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and a coate of male about him. And the weight of his coate of mayle, was fiue thousand (c) sicles of brasse.

(c) That is 156. lib. 4. ounces after halfe an ounce the sicle, and 600. sicles weight amounteth to 18. lib. 3. quarters.

6 And he had bootes of brasse vpon his legges, and a shielde of brasse vpon his shoulders.

B 7 And the shaft of his speare was lyke a weauers beame, and his speare head wayed sixe hundred sicles of iron: And one bearing a shielde went before him.

8 And he stoode and cryed against the hoast of Israel, and sayde vnto them: Why are ye come to set your battaile in array? am not I a Philistine, and you seruauntes to Saul? choose you a man for you, and let hym come downe to me.

" Or fight.

9 And if he be able to fyght with me, & to " kill me, then will we be your seruauntes: But if I can ouercome hym & beate him, then shal ye be our seruaūtes and serue vs.

10 And the Philistine sayde: I defie the hoast of Israel this day, geue me a man, that we may fight together.

(d) For the spirite of courage, and right handling of matters was taken away from Saul.

11 When Saul and all Israel heard those wordes of ỹ Philistine, they were discouraged, and greatly (d) afraide.

" Or, he was counted among them that bare office.

12 Dauid was the sonne of an Ephrathite of Bethlehem Juda, named Isai, which had eyght sonnes, & this " man was taken for an olde man in the dayes of of Saul.

13 And the three eldest sonnes of Jsai went, and folowed Saul to the battell: And the names of his three sonnes that went to battaile, were: Eliab the eldest, and the next Abinadab, and the thyrd Samma:

14 And Dauid was the leaste. And the three eldest, went after Saul.

15 Dauid also went, and departed from Saul, to (e) feede his fathers sheepe at Bethlehem.

16 And the Philistine came foorth in the morning and euening, and continued fourtie dayes.

17 And Jsai sayd vnto Dauid his sonne: (f) Take for thy brethren an Epha of this partched corne, & these ten loaues, and runne to the hoast to thy brethren.

18 And cary these ten freshe cheeses vnto the captayne, and loke howe thy brethren fare, and fet out their (g) pledge.

19 And Saul and they and all the men of Jsrael were in the valley of Elah, fyghtyng with the Philistines.

20 And Dauid rose vp early in ỹ morning, and left the sheepe with a keper, & toke, and went as Jsai had commaunded him, and came within the compasse of the hoast: And the hoast went out in array, and shouted in the battaile.

21 For Jsrael and the Philistines had put them selues in array armie against armie.

22 And Dauid left the thinges which he bare, vnder the handes of the keper of the vessels, and ran into the hoast, and came, and saluted his brethren.

23 And as he talked with them, behold, there stoode a man in the middes (Goliath the Philistine by name, of Gath) out of the armie of the Philistines, & spake (h) such wordes: and Dauid heard it.

(h) As are aboue rehersed.

24 And all the people of Jsrael, when they sawe the man, ranne away from him, and were sore afrayde.

25 And euery man of Jsrael said: Sawe ye not this man that commeth vp: euen to reuile Jsrael is he come:* And to him that killeth him, will the king geue great ritches, and will geue him his daughter thereto, yea and make his fathers house (i) free in Jsrael.

Ios.xv.c.

(i) From tares, & paymentes.

26 And Dauid spake to ỹ men that stoode by, and sayd: What shall be done to the man that killeth this Philistine, and taketh awaye the shame from Jsrael: And what is this vncircumcised Philistine, that he shoulde reuile the hoast of the liuing God:

27 And the people answered him (after this maner) saying: So shall it be done to the man that killeth him.

28 And Eliab his eldest brother heard when he spake vnto the men, and Eliab was angrye with Dauid, & sayde: Why camest thou downe hyther: and with whom hast thou left those fewe sheepe in the wildernes: I know thy pride and the malice of thyne heart, that thou art come come downe to see the battel.

(k) For he came at his fathers commaundemẽt, and was also moued by Gods spirit to take that enterprise against Goliah.

29 And Dauid sayde: And what haue I nowe done? is there not a (k) cause?

30 And he departed from him into the presence of another, and spake of the same maner: and the people aunswered him againe, as before.

31 And they that heard the wordes which Dauid spake, rehearsed them before Saul, which caused him to be fet.

32 And Dauid sayde to Saul: Let no mans heart fayle him because of him: Thy seruaunt will go, and fight with yonder Philistine.

(l) Dauid about to performe ỹ worke of God, and motion of his spirit, is temted by the ministers of Sathan, the enuye of his brother, and the misdeuise of Saul. Iud xiiii.b.

33 And Saul sayde to Dauid againe: Thou art (l) not able to go against yonder Philistine, to fight with him: For thou art but a childe, but he is a man of warre euen from his youth.

34 Dauid aunswered vnto Saul: Thy seruaunt kept his fathers sheepe, & ther came *a lion and likewise a beare, and toke a sheepe out of the flocke:

F

35 And I went out after him, and smote him, and toke it out of his mouth: And whē he arose against me, I caught him by the bearde, and smote him, and slue him.

36 And so thy seruaunte slue both the lion, and the beare: And truelie this vncircumcised Philistine shalbe as one of them, seing he hath rayled on the hoast of the liuyng God.

37 And Dauid spake moreouer: The Lord that deliuered me out of the hand of the lion, and out of the hande of the beare, he shal deliuer me also out of the hand of this Philistine. And Saul sayd vnto Dauid: (m) Go, and the Lorde [shall] be with thee.

(m) For by these examples he saw that the power of God was with him.

38 And Saul put his rayment vpon Dauid, and put an helmet of brasse vpon his head, and put a coate of mayle vpon him.

39 And gyrded Dauid with his owne sword vpon his rayment, and he assayed to go, and because he neuer proued it, Dauid saide vnto Saul: I cannot go with these, for I haue not vsed my selfe thereto. And Dauid put them of him,

(n) As the weapon that he coulde best handle.

40 And toke his (n) staffe in his hand, and chose him fiue smoth stones out of a brooke, and put them in a shepheardes bagge which he had, that is in a scrippe, and his sling was in his hande, and he went to the Philistine.

41 And the Philistine came and drewe neare against Dauid, and the man that bare the shielde went before him.

42 And when the Philistine loked about & sawe Dauid, he disdayned him: for he was but young, ruddie & of a comly face.

43 And the Philistine sayd vnto Dauid: Am I a dogge, that thou commest to me with staues? And the Philistine (o) cursed Dauid in ỹ name of his goddes.

(o) So that he was terrible not onely by stature, strength, and armour: But also by reuiling, cursing, and threatning wordes.

44 And the Philistine sayde to Dauid: Come to me, and I wyll geue thy flesh vnto the foules of the ayre, and to the beastes of the fielde.

45 Then sayde Dauid to the Philistine: Thou commest to me with a sword, a speare, & a shielde: But I come to thee in the name of the Lord of hoastes, the God of the hoast of Israel, whom thou hast rayled vpon.

(p) His truth is so constant, that neither friend nor foe is able to make him boaste of the victory that Gods spirite had assured him of.

46 (p) This day shal the Lorde close thee into my hand, and I shall smite thee, & take thyne head from thee, & will geue the carkases of the hoast of the Philistines this daye vnto the foules of the ayre, & to the beastes of the earth, that all they which be in the worlde, maye knowe that there is a God in Israel:

47 And all this congregation shal know that the Lorde saueth not with sword, & speare (For the battaile is ỹ Lordes) and he shall geue you into our handes.

G

48 And when the Philistine arose to come and drawe nye to Dauid, Dauid hasted, and ran to fight against the Philistine,

49 And Dauid put his hand in his bagge, and toke out a stone, and slang it, and smote the Philistine in his forehead, that the stone suncke into his forehead,* and he fell groueling to the earth. Eccle. xvii.a

50 And so Dauid ouercame the Philistine with a sling and a stone, and smote the Philistine, & slue him, euen when Dauid had no sword in his hand.

51 But Dauid ran and stoode vpon the Philistine, and toke his sword, and drue it out of his sheathe, & slue him, and cut of his head therewith. And when the Philistines sawe that their champion was dead, *they fled. Iud. vii.f.

52 And the men of Israel and of Juda arose, and showted, and followed after the Philistines, vntill they came to the valley, and vnto the gates of Acaron: And the Philistines fell downe wounded by the way to Saaraim, euen vnto Gath, and Acaron.

53 And

53 And the children of Israel returned from chasing after the Philistines, and spoyled their tentes.

54 And Dauid toke the head of the Philistine, and brought it to Hierusalem, but he put his armour in his * tent.

55 When Saul sawe Dauid go forth against the Philistine, he sayd vnto* Abner the captaine of his hoast: Abner,(q) whose sonne is this young man? Abner aunswered: As thy soule liueth (O king) I cannot tell.

56 And the king sayde: Enquire thou whose sonne the youngling is.

57 And whē Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Philistine, Abner toke him, & brought him before Saul, with the head of the Philistine in his hand.

58 And Saul sayde to him: Whose sonne art thou, thou young man? Dauid aunswered: I am the sonne of thy seruaunt Isai the Bethlehemite.

The .xviii. Chapter.

3 The amitie of Jonathan and Dauid. 8. Saul enuieth Dauid for the prayse that the women gaue him. 11. Saul would haue slaine Dauid. 17. He promiseth him Merab to wife, but geueth him Michol. 27. Dauid deliuereth to Saul two hundred forskinnes of the Philistines. 29. Saul feareth Dauid, seeing that the Lord is with him.

AND whē he had made an end of speaking vnto Saul, the (a) soule of Jonathan was knit with the soule of Dauid, and Jonathan loued him as his owne soule.

2 And Saul toke him that daye, and wouldе let him go no more home to his fathers house.

3 Then Jonathan and Dauid made a couenaunt, because he loued him as his owne soule.

4 And Jonathan put of the robe that was vpon him, and gaue it to Dauid, and thereto his garmentes, euen to his sword, and to his bowe, and to his girdel.

5 And Dauid went out whythersoeuer Saul sent him, and behaued him selfe (b) wysely: And Saul set hym ouer his men of warre, and he was accepted in the sight of all the people, & in the sight of Sauls seruauntes.

6 And as they came againe when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the (c) Philistine, the women came out of all cities of Israel, singing and daūsing, to meete king Saul, with timbrels, with ioy, and with [instrumentes of] musicke.

7 And the women (d) aunswered one another in their play, and sayde:* Saul hath slaine his thousand, and Dauid his ten thousand.

8 And Saul was exceeding (e) wroth, and the saying displeased him, and he sayd: They haue ascribed vnto Dauid ten thousand, & to me but a thousande: and what can he more haue, saue the kingdome?

9 Wherfore Saul had an eye on Dauid from that day forwarde.

10 And on the morow, the euyll spirite sent of God came vpon Saul, and he (f) prophesied in the middes of ỹ house: And Dauid played with his hand, like as at other tymes: & there was a iauelyn in Sauls hand.

11 And Saul toke the iauelyn, and sayd: I will nayle Dauid to the wall with it. And Dauid auoyded out of his presence two times.

12 And Saul was afrayde of Dauid, because the Lorde was with him, & was departed from Saul.

13 Therefore Saul put him from him, and made him a (g) captaine ouer a thousand, and he went out and in before (h) the people.

14 And Dauid behaued him selfe wisely in all his wayes, and the Lorde was with him.

15 Wherefore when Saul sawe that he was so exceeding wise, he was afrayde of him.

16 But all Israel and Juda loued Dauid, because he went out and in before them.

17 And Saul sayde to Dauid: Beholde my eldest daughter Merob, her I will geue thee to wife: Onely be a valiaunt sonne vnto me, & fight the Lordes battayles. For Saul thought: Mine hand shall not be vpon him, but the hande of the the Philistines shalbe vpon him.

18 And Dauid aunswered Saul: What am I? and what is my lyfe or the kynred of my father in Israel, that I should be sonne in lawe to the king?

19 Howbeit, When the time was come that Merob Sauls daughter shoulde haue ben geuen to Dauid, she was geuē vnto (f) Adriel a Meholathite, to wife.

(f) To whom she bare seuen sonnes, which Dauid put to death at the request of the Gibeonites. 2. Sam. 21.

20 Howbeit, Michol Sauls daughter loued Dauid: and they shewed Saul, and the thing pleased him.

21 And Saul sayde: I will geue him her that she may be a snare to him, and that the hand of the Philistines may be against him. Wherefore Saul sayde to Dauid: Thou shalt this day be my sonne in lawe in the one of the twayne.

22 And Saul cōmaunded his seruaūtes to come with Dauid secretely, & to say: Behold, the king hath a fauour to thee, and all his seruaūtes loue thee: be now therefore the kinges sonne in lawe.

23 And Sauls seruauntes spake those wordes in the eares of Dauid. And Dauid said: (k) seemeth it to you a light thing to be a kinges sonne in lawe? seeing that I am a poore man, and of smal reputation.

(k) Meaning that he was not able to endow his wyfe with riches according.

24 And the seruauntes brought Saul word againe, saying: Of this maner spake Dauid.

25 And Saul sayde, This wise shall ye saye to Dauid: The king careth for no other dowry, but for an hundred foreskinnes of the Philistines, to be auenged of the kynges enemies. But Saul thought to make Dauid fall into the handes of the Philistines.

26 And when his seruauntes tolde Dauid these wordes, (l) it pleased Dauid wel to be the kinges sonne in lawe: And the dayes were not expired.

(l) Because he thought hym selfe able to conquere the kynges requeste.

27 Afterward Dauid arose with his men, and went and slue of the Philistines two hundred men, and Dauid brought their foreskinnes, and (m) they gaue them wholly to the king, that he might be the kinges sonne in lawe: * Wherefore Saul gaue him Michol his daughter to wife.

ii. Reg iii. g.

28 And Saul saw and vnderstoode how that the Lorde was with Dauid, and that Michol his daughter loued him:

29 And he was the more (n) afrayde of Dauid, and Saul became alway Dauids enemie.

(n) Lest he would depryue him of his kingdome.

30 The Lordes of the Philistines vsed to go forth, and whē they went forth Dauid behaued him selfe more wysely then all the seruauntes of Saul, so that his name was much set by.

The .xix. Chapter.

2 Jonathan declareth to Dauid the wicked purpose of Saul. 11. Michol his wife saueth him. 18. Dauid commeth to Samuel. 23. The spirite of prophesie commeth on Saul.

(a) He layeth a vile hypocrisie, & nowe bursteth out to open crueltie.

2 But Jonathā Sauls sonne had a great fauour to Dauid, & Jonathan tolde Dauid, saying, Saul my father goeth about to slay thee: Nowe therfore I pray thee take heede to thy selfe vntyll the morning, and abyde in some secrete place, and hyde thy selfe:

Reg. 18. a.

3 And I wyll go out, and stande by my father in the fielde where thou art, and wyll commune with my father of thee, and whatsoeuer I see, I wyll tell thee.

4 And Jonathan spake good of Dauid vnto Saul his father, and sayde vnto him: Let not the king sinne against his seruaunt, against Dauid: for he hath not sinned against thee, and his workes haue ben to theewarde very good.

5 For he dyd *put his life in "his hande, and slue the Philistine, and the Lorde brought to passe a great health for all Israel: Thou sawest it, and thou reioycedst: wherfore then wilt thou sinne against innocent blood, and slay Dauid without a cause?

* An Hebruephrase, whereby is meant he put his lyfe in daunger.

6 And Saul hearkened vnto the voyce of Jonathan, and Saul (b) sware, as the Lorde lyueth he shall not dye.

(b) Being perswaded & perceiued by the tyme by Jonathans oration.

B

7 And Jonathan called Dauid, & Jonathan shewed hym all those wordes: & Jonathan brought Dauid to Saul, & he was in his (c) presence as in tymes past.

(c) That is, he serued hym

8 And the warre began againe, and Dauid went out, and fought with the Philistines, and slue them with a great slaughter, and they fled from hym.

9 And the euyl spirite of the Lorde was vpon vpon Saul as he sate in his house, hauing a iauelin in his hand: And Dauid (b) played with his hand.

10 And Saul entended to smyte Dauid to the wall with the iauelyn: But he eyd him selfe out of Sauls presence, as he smote the speare into the walle: And Dauid fled & was saued the same night.

11 Saul also sent messengers vnto Dauids house, to watch him, and to slay him in the morning: And Michol Dauids wyfe tolde it him, saying: If thou saue not thy selfe this night, to morowe thou shalt be slayne.

12 And so * Michol (c) let Dauid downe through a windowe: and he went and fled, and was saued.

13 And Michol toke an image, and layde it in the bed, & put a pillowe stuffed with goates heere vnder the head of it, and couered it with a cloth.

¶ 14 And when Saul sent messengers to fetche Dauid, she said, he is sicke.

15 And Saul sent the messengers againe to see Dauid, saying: Bring him to me bed and all, that I may slay him.

16 And when the messengers were come in, behold there lay an image in the bed, with a pillowe of goates heere vnder the head of it.

17 And Saul sayde vnto Michol: why hast thou mocked me so, and sent away mine enemie, that he is escaped? Michol aunswered Saul: For he sayd vnto me, let me go, or els I will kill thee.

18 And so Dauid fled, and escaped, & came to Samuel to Rama, and tolde him all that Saul had done to him: And he and Samuel went and dwelt in (f) Naioth.

19 And one tolde Saul, saying: Behold, Dauid is at Naioth in Rama.

20 And Saul sent messengers to fet Dauid: And when they sawe a company of prophetes prophecying, & Samuel standing as (g) appoynted ouer them, the spirite of God fell vpon the messengers of Saul, and they (h) prophecied to.

21 And when it was tolde Saul, he sent other messengers, and they prophecied lykewyse. And Saul sent messengers yet againe the third time, and they prophecied also.

22 Then went he him selfe to Rama, and came to a great well that is in Sechu, and he asked and sayde: Where are Samuel & Dauid? And one sayd: Behold, they be at Naioth in Rama.

23 And he went thyther euen to Naioth in Rama, and the spirite of God (i) came vpon him also, and he went prophecying vntill he came to Naioth in Rama.

24 And he stript of his clothes & prophecied before Samuel in lyke maner, and fell naked al that day and all that nyght: And therof it is that they say, Is Saul also among the prophetes?

(f) It was a schoole where gods law was studied and taught, neare to Rama.

(g) For he was their teacher, and ruler of that schoole

(h) They song psalmes with the prophetes and prayed God, leauing of to take after Dauid.

The.xx. Chapter.

2 Jonathan comforteth Dauid. 3 They renue their league. 33 Saul would haue killed Jonathan. 38 Jonathan aduertiseth Dauid by three arrowes, of his fathers fury.

A 1 AND Dauid fled from Naioth Whiche is in Rama, and came, and said before Jonathan, What haue I done? wherin am I faultie? what is the sinne that I haue committed before thy father, that he seketh my lyfe?

2 He sayde vnto him: God forbid, thou shalt not dye: Behold, my father wil do nothing either great or smal, but that he will "shewe it me: And howe should my father hyde this thing from me? he will not do it.

"Heb. Reueale it in myne eare.

3 And Dauid sware againe, and sayde: Thy father knoweth that I haue found grace in thyne eyes, & therfore he thinketh, Jonathan shall not knowe it, lest he be sory: And in very deede, euen as the Lorde lyueth, and as thy soule liueth, there is but a (a) steppe betweene me and death.

(a) That is, I am in great daunger of death.

4 Then sayde Jonathan vnto Dauid: Whatsoeuer thy soule "desireth, that I will do vnto thee.

"Heb. sayth

5 And Dauid sayd vnto Jonathan: Behold, to morowe is the (b) beginning of the moneth, and I should sit with the king at meate: But let me go, that I may hide my selfe in the fieldes vnto the thirde day at euen.

(b) And therfore a solemne feast, and solemne sacrifices belonging therto. Num. 28. b.

6 If thy father speake of me, then say: Dauid asked leaue of me, that he might go to Bethlehem to his owne citie, for there is holden a yerely feast for all the kinred.

B 7 And if he say it is well done, then thy seruaunt shal haue peace: But and if he be angry, then be sure that wickednesse is vtterly concluded of him.

8 And then thou shalt shewe mercy vnto thy seruaunt for thou hast ioyned thy seruaunt into a (c) couenant of the Lord with thee: Notwithstandyng, if there be in me iniquitie, slay me thy selfe: for why shouldest thou bring me to thy father?

(c) Because it consisted in all godly and honest matters, and for that it was confirmed of both parties by an oth in the name of the Lorde.

9 And Jonathan answered, God kepe that from thee: For if I knewe that wickednesse were (d) concluded of my father to come vpon thee, woulde not I tel it thee?

(d) That he were fully determined to kill thee.

10 Then sayd Dauid to Jonathan: who shall tell me? howe [shall I knowe] if thy father answere thee cruelly?

11 And Jonathan sayde vnto Dauid: Come, and let vs go out into the fielde. And they went out both of them into the fielde.

12 And Jonathan sayde vnto Dauid: O Lorde God of Israel, When I haue groped my fathers mynd, as this time to morowe, or within these three dayes, and if it be wel with Dauid, and I then sende not vnto thee, and shewe it thee:

13 The Lord do so (e) and muche more vnto Jonathan, But if my father haue pleasure to do thee euyll, I will shewe thee also, and send thee away, that thou mayest go in peace, and the Lorde be with thee, as he hath ben with my father.

(e) That is, the Lord punishe me most greuously.

14 And [I require] not whiles I liue, (for I dout not) but thou wilt shewe me the mercie of the Lord, that I die not:

15 But [I require] that thou cut not of thy mercy from my house for euer, no not when the Lord hath destroyed the enemies of Dauid, euery one from the face of the earth.

16 And so Jonathan made a bonde with the house of Dauid, [saying:] Let the lord require it at the handes of Dauids enemies.

17 And Jonathan sware againe vnto Dauid, because he loued him (For he loued him as his owne soule)

18 Then sayde Jonathan to Dauid: To morowe is the first day of the moone, and thou shalt be "missed, because the place where thou wast wont to sit, shall be emptie.

"Or, Mooned.

19 Therfore thou shalt hyde thy self three dayes, [then] thou shalt go downe quickly, and come to the place where thou diddest hyde thy selfe when the busines was in hande, and shalt remayne by the stone "Esel.

"Hebr. Of the way, because it serued as a signe to shewe the way.

20 And I wil shoote three arowes on the syde therof, as though I shot them at a marke,

21 And I wil sende a lad, and byd him go seke the arrowes. And if I say vnto the lad, See, the arrowes are on this side thee, bring them: then come thou, for it is peace and no hurt, as the Lorde lyueth:

23 And as touching this which thou and I haue spoken, behold the Lorde be betweene thee and me for euer.

24 And so Dauid hid him selfe in the fielde: And when the newe moone was come, the king sate him downe to eate meate.

25 And the king sate as at other times vpon his seate, euen vpon his seate by the wall: And Jonathan arose, and Abner sate by Sauls syde, and Dauids place was emptie.

26 Neuertheless, Saul sayde nothing at all that day: For he thought, Some thing hath befallen him, (f) though he were cleane.

27 But on the morowe, whiche was the second day of the newe moone, Dauids place was emptie againe: And Saul sayde vnto Jonathan his sonne, Wherfore commeth not that sonne of (g) Jsai to meate, neither yesterday nor to day?

28 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul: Dauid asked licence of me to go to Bethlehem.

29 For he sayd: Let me go I pray thee, for our kinred doth hold an offering in the citie, and my brother hath sent for me: and therfore if I haue found fauour in thyne eyes, let me go I pray thee, and see my brethren. This is the cause that he commeth not vnto the kinges table.

30 Then was Saul angry with Jonathan, and sayd vnto him: Thou (h) sonne of the wicked rebellious woman, do not I knowe that thou hast chosen the sonne of Jsai vnto thyne owne rebuke, and vnto the rebuke and shame of thy mother?

31 For as long as the sonne of Jsai liueth vpon the earth, thou shalt not be stablished, nor yet thy kingdome: wherfore nowe send and fet him vnto me, for he is the childe of (i) death.

32 And Jonathan answered vnto Saul his father, and sayde to him: Wherfore should he dye? what hath he done?

33 And Saul lift vp a speare to hit him, Wherby Jonathan wist well that it was vtterly determined of his father to slay Dauid.

34 And so Jonathan arose from the table in a great anger, and did eate no meate the seconde day of the moneth: for he was sory for Dauid, because his father had done him shame.

35 On the next morning, Jonathan went out into the fielde, at ỹ (k) time appoynted with Dauid, and a litle lad with him.

36 And he sayde vnto his boy: Runne, and seke out myne arowes whiche I shote. And as the boy ran, he shot an arowe beyond him.

37 And when the lad was come to the place whyther Jonathan had shot the arrowe, Jonathan cryed after the lad, & sayd: Is not the arrowe beyond there?

38 And Jonathan cried after the lad againe: Make (l) speede, haste, & stand not still. And Jonathans lad gathered vp the arrowes, and came to his maister.

39 But the lad wist nothing of the matter, only Jonathan an Dauid wist it.

40 And Jonathan gaue his (m) instrumētes vnto the lad that was with him, and sayd vnto him: Go, and carry them to the towne.

41 And assoone as the lad was gone, Dauid arose out of a place that was towarde the south, & fel on his face to the ground, & bowed him selfe three times, And they kissed either other, and wept together, so long till Dauid (n) exceeded.

42 And Jonathan sayd to Dauid, Go in peace: And the thinges which we haue sworne both of vs in ỹ name of the lord, saying, the Lord be betweene thee & me, and betweene thy sede & myne: let them stand for euer. And he arose, & departed: And Jonathan went into the towne.

The .xxii. Chapter.

1 Dauid hideth him selfe in a caue. 2 Many that were in trouble came vnto him. 9 Doeg accuseth Ahimelech. 18 Saul causeth the priests to be slayne. 20 Abiathar escapeth.

A 1 DAuid therfore departed thence, & escaped to the caue (a) Adullam: whē his brethren also & his fathers house heard it, they went downe thyther to him.

2 And there gathered vnto him all men that were in combraunce, and in det, and troubled in their mindes, & he became a captayne ouer them: And there were with him vpon a foure hundred men.

3 And Dauid went thence to Mispah in the land of (b) Moab, and sayde vnto the king of Moab: Let my father and my mother (I pray thee) come foorth vnto you, till I knowe what God wyl do for me.

(b) For there were in other places called Moab.

4 And he (c) brought them before the king of Moab: and they dwelt with him all the whyle that Dauid kept him selfe in the (d) holde.

(c) To awaye his parentes & kin from the rage of Saul.

(d) That is, in Mispah, whether was a strong hold.

5 And the prophete Gad sayde vnto Dauid: Abyde not in the hold, but depart & go into the land of Juda. Then Dauid departed, & came into the forest Hareth.

6 And Saul hearde that Dauid was discouered, and also the men that were with him: and Saul sat in Gibea vnder a tree in Rama, hauing his speare in his hande, and all his men stoode about him.

B 7 And Saul sayde vnto his seruauntes that stoode about him, Heare I pray you, ye sonnes of (e) Jemini: Will ỹ sonne of Jsai geue euery one of you fieldes and vineyardes, and make you all captaines ouer thousandes and ouer hundredes, (e) Ye that are of my tribe and kinde.

8 That ye haue also conspired agaynst me, & there is none that telleth me that my sonne hath made a couenaunt with the sonne of Jsai, and there is none of you ỹ is sory for me, or sheweth me that my sonne hath stirred vp my seruaunt to lye in wayte agaynst me [as appeareth] this day:

9 Then aunswered Doeg the Edomite (which was appoynted by ỹ seruauntes of Saul) and sayd: I sawe the sonne of Jsai, when he came to Nob to Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitob, 10 Whiche asked councel of the Lorde for him, and gaue him vittayles, and the sword of Goliath the Philistine also.

11 Then the king sent and called for Ahimelech the priest the sonne of Ahitob, & all his fathers house [that is to saye] the (f) priestes that were in Nob: And they came all to the king.

(f) which were the remnaunt of the house of Eli, whose house God threatened to punishe.

12 And Saul sayde: Heare nowe thou sonne of Ahitob. He aunswered: Here I am, my lorde.

13 And Saul sayde vnto him: Why haue ye conspired agaynst me, thou, and the sonne of Jsai, in that thou hast geuen him vittayle, and a sworde, and hast asked councel of God for him, ỹ he shoulde aryse against me, and lye in waite for me [as appeareth] this day:

14 Ahimelech aunswered the king, and ℭ sayde: Who is so faithfull among all thy seruauntes, as Dauid, and therto the kinges sonne in lawe: and goeth at thy bidding, and is had in honour in thyne house:

15 Haue I this day begun first (g) to aske councell of God for him: That be farre from me: Let not the king impute any thing vnto his seruaũt, nor to all ỹ house of my father: For thy seruaunt knewe nothing of all this, either lesse or more.

(g) when he went about thy affaires.

16 The king sayde, Thou shalt surely die Ahimelech, thou, & al thy fathers house.

17 And the king sayde vnto the footemen that stoode about him: Turne, and slay the priestes of the Lorde: both because their hand is with Dauid, and because they knewe when Dauid fled, and shewed it not to me. But the seruauntes of the king (h) would not moue their hãdes to fal vpon the priestes of the Lorde.

(h) Because they feared to sheade innocent blood.

18 And the king sayde to Doeg: Turne thou, & fall vpon the priestes. And Doeg the Edomite turned, and ranne vpon the priestes, & slue that same day fourescore and fiue persons that did weare a linnen Ephod.

19 And Nob the citie of ỹ priestes, smote he with the edge of the sword, both men and women, children and sucklinges, oxen and asses, & sheepe, with the edge of the sworde.

20 And one of the sonnes of Ahimelech the sonne of Ahitob, named Abiathar, escaped, and fled to Dauid.
21 And Abiathar shewed Dauid howe that Saul had slayne ỹ Lordes priestes.
22 And Dauid sayde vnto Abiathar: I wist it the same day, when Doeg the Edomite was there, that he would tel Saul: and I am cause of the death of all the persons of thy fathers house.
23 Abyde thou with me, and feare not: For he that seketh my lyfe, he shall seke thine also, with me thou shalt be in safegarde.

The. xxiii. Chapter.

1 Then they tolde Dauid, saying: Beholde, the Philistines fight against (a) Keila, and spoyle the barnes.
2 Therefore Dauid asked counsell of the lord, saying: Shal I go and smyte these Philistines: And the Lord aunswered vnto Dauid: Go, and smite the Philistines, and saue Keila.
3 And Dauids men said vnto him, See, We be afrayde here (b) in Juda: howe much more then if we come to Keila against the hoast of the Philistines?
4 Then Dauid asked counsell of the Lorde agayne. And the Lorde aunswered him, and sayd: Aryse, and go downe to Keila, for I will deliuer the Philistines into thyne hande.
5 And so Dauid and his men went to Keila, and fought with the Philistines, and brought away their cattell, & smote them with a great slaughter, and so Dauid saued ỹ inhabitauntes of Keila.
6 And when Abiathar the sonne of Ahimelech fled to Dauid to Keila, he brought an (c) Ephod with him in his hande.
7 And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was come to Keila: And Saul sayde, God hath deliuered him into myne hande: For he is shut in, now that he is come into a towne that hath gates and barres.
8 And Saul called all the people together to warre, for to go downe to Keila, and to besiege Dauid and his men.
9 And Dauid hauing knowledge that Saul imagined mischefe agaynst him, sayde to Abiathar the priest: (d) Bring the Ephod.
10 Then sayde Dauid: O Lorde God of Israel, thy seruaunt hath heard that Saul is about to come to Keila to destroye the citie for my sake:
11 Will the lordes of Keila deliuer me into his hande? And will Saul come downe, as thy seruaunt hath heard, O Lorde God of Israel? I beseech thee tell thy seruaunt. And the Lorde sayde: He wil come downe.
12 Then sayde Dauid: Will the lordes of Keila deliuer me and the men that are with me into the hand of Saul? And the Lorde sayde: They wil deliuer thee vp.
13 Then Dauid, & his men, which were vpon a sixe hundred, arose and departed out of Keila, and went (e) whyther they coulde: And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was fled from Keila, and he let the iourney alone.
14 Dauid abode in the wildernesse in strong holdes, and remained in a mountayne in the Wildernesse of Ziph: And Saul sought him euery day, but God (f) deliuered him not into his hande.
15 And Dauid sawe that Saul was come out to seke his lyfe: And Dauid was in the wildernesse of Ziph in the wood.
16 And Jonathan Sauls sonne arose and went to Dauid into the wood, and comforted his (g) hande in God, 17 And sayd vnto him: Feare not, for the hand of Saul my father shall not finde thee, & thou shalt be king ouer Israel, and I shall be next vnto thee: and that doeth Saul my father knowe.
18 And they made a bond both of them together before the Lorde: And Dauid taried still in the wood, and Jonathan went to his house.
19 Then came the Ziphites to Saul to Gibea, saying: Doth not Dauid hyde him selfe fast by vs in strong holdes, in the wood in the hill of Hachila, on the right side of "Jesimon?

1 Dauid hid in a caue, spareth Saul. 10 He sheweth to Saul his innocencie. 18 Saul acknowledgeth his fault. 22 He causeth Dauid to sweare vnto him to be fauourable to his.

A 1 When Saul was come againe frō folowing after ỹ Philistines, there were which told him, saying: Behold, Dauid is in the wildernesse of (a) Engadi.

2 Then Saul toke three thousand chosen men out of all Israel, and went to seke Dauid and his men in the heyght of the rockes "where wilde goates remayne.

3 And he came to the sheepe coates by the way, where there was a caue, & Saul went in to "do his easement: And Dauid and his men remayned in the "inward partes of the caue.

4 And the men of Dauid sayd vnto him: See, the day is come, of which the Lord sayde vnto thee, Behold I will deliuer thyne enemie into thyne hand, and thou shalt do to him as it shall seeme good in thy sight. Then Dauid arose, and cut of the lappe of Sauls garment priuily.

5 And afterwarde Dauids heart smote him, because he had cut of the lap of Sauls garment.

6 And he sayd vnto his men: The Lorde kepe me from doyng that thing vnto my maister the lordes annoynted to lay myne hande vpon him, seing he is the (b) annoynted of the Lorde.

7 And so Dauid kept of his seruauntes with these wordes, and suffred them not to rise against Saul: But Saul rose vp out of the caue, and went away. B

8 Dauid also arose afterward, and went out of the caue, and cryed after Saul, saying: My Lorde king. And when Saul loked behind him, Dauid stowped [with] his face to the earth, and bowed him selfe.

9 And Dauid sayde to Saul: wherfore geuest thou an eare to mens wordes that say, beholde Dauid seketh euyll against thee:

10 Behold, this day thyne eyes haue seene howe that the Lord hath deliuered thee this day into myne hande in the caue: And some bad me kill thee, but I had compassion on thee, and sayd: I will not lay myne handes on my maister, for he is the Lordes annoynted.

11 And moreouer my father, beholde and see yet the lap of thy garment in my hand: Inasmuch as I killed thee not when I cut of the lap of thy garment, vnderstand therfore, & see that there is neither euyll nor wickednesse in me, and that I haue not sinned against thee: And yet thou huntest after my soule to take it.

1 Samuel dieth. 3 Nabal and Abigail. 38 The Lord killeth Nabal. 43 Abigail and Ahinoam Dauids wyues. 44 Michol is geuen to Phalti.

A 1 AND* Samuel died, and all the Israelites gathered together, and lamented him, and buried him in his owne (a)house at Rama. And Dauid arose, & went downe to the wildernesse of Pharan.

1.Reg. 28.a.

(a) That is, among his owne kynred.

2 And ther was a man in (b)Maon, whose possession was in Carmel, and the man was exceeding mightie, and had three thousande sheepe & a thousand goates: And he was shearing his sheepe in Carmel.

(b) Maon & Carmel, were cities in the tribe of Iuda. Carmel the mountaine was in Galilee.

3 The name of the man was Nabal, and the name of his wyfe was Abigail, and she was a woman of a singuler wysedome, and beautifull: But the man was churlishe, and of shrewde conditions, & was of the kinred of Caleb.

4 And Dauid hearde in the wildernesse, that Nabal did sheare his sheepe.

"Heb. aske him in my name of peace.

5 And Dauid sent out ten young men, and sayd vnto them: Get you vp to Carmel, and go to Nabal, and "greete him in my name.

B 6 And ye shal say: So mayest thou lyue, peace be to thee, peace be to thyne house, and peace be vnto all that thou hast.

7 Beholde I haue hearde say that thou hast shearers: Nowe, thy shepheardes (e)were with vs, & we did them no spite, neither was there ought missing vnto them al the while they were in Carmel:

(e) That is, were conuersaunt with vs in the wyldernesse.

8 Aske thy laddes, & they will shewe thee: wherfore let these young men finde fauour in thyne eyes (for we come in a good "season) & geue I pray thee whatsoeuer (d)commeth to thyne hande vnto thy seruauntes, and to thy sonne Dauid.

"Heb. In a good day, that is, the day that thou makest a feast for thy shearers.

(d) That is, whatsoeuer thou hast redy for vs.

9 And when Dauids young men came, they told Nabal all those wordes in the name of Dauid: and helde their peace.

10 And Nabal answered Dauids seruauntes, and said: (e)who is Dauid: and who is ỹ sonne of Isai: There is plentie of seruauntes now a dayes that breake away euery man from his maister.

(e) Nabal lacketh no wit nor ryches: but yet by this his answere, it appeareth that he lacketh discretion & honestie.

11 Shal I then take my bread, my water, and my flesche that I haue killed for my shearers, and geue it vnto men whom I wot not whence they be?

12 And so Dauids seruauntes turned their way, and went againe, and came and tolde him all those sayinges. ¶

13 And Dauid sayd vnto his men: Girde euery man his sword about him. And they girded euery man his sword about him, and Dauid was girded with his sword: And there followed Dauid vpon a foure hundred men, and two hundred abode by the stuffe.

But

14 But one of the laddes tolde Abigail Nabals wyfe, saying: Beholde, Dauid sent messengers vnto our maister out of the wildernesse to salute him: and he rayled on them.

15 And yet the men were very good (t) vnto vs, and dyd vs no displeasure, neither missed we any thyng as long as we were conuersaunt with them when we were in the fieldes.

16 They were (g) a wall vnto vs both by night and day, all the while we were with them keping sheepe.

17 Now therefore take heede, & see what thou shalt do: for surelie euyll will come vpon our maister and al his housholde, for he is so wicked, that a man can not speake to him.

D 18 Then Abigail made haste, and tooke two hundred "loaues, and two bottels of wine, and fiue sheepe redie dressed, and fiue measures of parched corne, and an hundred "frailes of reasynges, and two hundred cakes of hygges, & laded them on asses, 19 And sayde vnto her young men: Go before me, beholde I come after you. But she tolde her husband Nabal nothing thereof.

20 And as she rode on her asse, she came priuylie downe the syde of the hill, and behold Dauid and his men came downe against her, and she met them.

21 And Dauid saide: Surelie in vayne haue I kept all that this felow hath in the wildernes, so that nothing was missed of all that pertayned vnto him: and he hath quite me euill for good.

22 So and more also do God vnto the enemies of Dauid, if I leaue of all that pertayne to him by the dawnyng of the day, any that (h) pysseth against the wall.

23 And when Abigail sawe Dauid, she hasted and lyghted of her asse, and fell before Dauid on her face, and bowed her selfe to the grounde, E 24 And fell at his feete, and sayde: Let this iniquitie be counted myne my lorde, and let thyne handmaide I praye thee speake in thyne "audience, & heare the wordes of thy handmayd.

25 Let not my lorde I pray thee regarde this wicked "man Nabal: For as his name is, so is he: Nabal is his name, & folly is with him: But I thyne handmayd sawe not the young men of my lorde whom thou sendedst.

26 Now therefore my lorde, as the Lord lyueth, and as thy soule liueth, euen the Lorde that hath withholden thee from comming to [shed] blood, and saued thee thyne (i) hand: So nowe, I pray God that thyne enemies, & they that intende to do my lorde euyll, may be as Nabal.

(t) Innocent and cleane from blood.

27 And now this "blessing which thyne handmayd hath brought vnto my lord, let it be geuen vnto the young men that folowe my lorde.

" Or, present.

28 I praye thee forgeue the trespasse of thyne handmayd: for the Lorde will make my lord a (k) sure house, because my lorde fighteth the battailes of the Lord, and there could none euill be found in thee in all thy dayes.

(k) That is, will confirme his kingdome to his posteritie.

29 And yet a (l) man hath rysen to persecute thee, and to seeke thy soule: but the soule of my Lorde shall be bound (m) in the bundel of the lyuyng with the Lord thy God, and the soules of thy enemies shall God cast out, euen as out of the middle of a slyng.

30 And when the Lorde shall haue done to my lord al the good that he hath promysed thee, and shall haue made thee ruler ouer Israel: F

31 Then shall it be no griefe vnto thee, nor offence of mynde vnto my lorde, that thou hast not shed blood causeleslie, and that my lord hath not auenged him selfe: But when the Lorde shall haue dealt well with my lord, then thinke on thyne handmayde.

32 And Dauid said to Abigail: Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which sent thee this day to meete me.

33 Blessed is thy saying, and blessed art thou which hast kept me this day from comming to shed blood, & from auenging my selfe with myne owne hande.

34 For in very deede, as the Lorde God of Israel lyueth, which hath kept me backe from hurting thee: except thou haddest hasted and met me, surely there hadde not ben left vnto Nabal by the dawnyng of the day, any that pysseth against the wall.

35 And so Dauid receaued of her hande that which she had brought him, and sayde vnto her: Go vp in peace to thyne house, beholde I haue heard thy voyce, and haue graunted thy petition. G

36 And Abigail came to Nabal, and beholde, he held a feast in his house lyke the feast of a king, and Nabals heart

(n) As a man that had no reason to consider the daunger,

37 But in the morning when the wine was gone out of Nabal, his wyfe tolde him these wordes, and his heart dyed within him, and he became as a stone.

38 And vpon a ten dayes after, the Lord smote Nabal, that he dyed.

39 And when Dauid heard that Nabal was dead, he sayd: Blessed be the Lord that hath * iudged ỹ cause of my rebuke of the hand of Nabal, & hath kept his seruaunt from euill: For the Lord hath recompenced the wickednes of Nabal vpon his owne head. And Dauid sent to commune with Abigail, to take her to his wyfe.

* Or, reuenged.

40 And when the seruauntes of Dauid were come to Abigail to Carmel, they spake vnto her, saying: Dauid sent vs vnto thee, to take thee to his wyfe. And she arose, & bowed her selfe on her face to the earth, and saide: Beholde, let thy handmayd be a seruaunt, to washe the feete of the seruauntes of my lorde.

41 And Abigail hasted, and arose, & gate her vpon an Asse, with fiue damosels of hers that (o) went at her feete, and she went after the messengers of Dauid, & became his wyfe.

1 Dauid was discouered vnto Saul by the Ziphites. 12. Dauid taketh away Sauls speare, and a cruse of water that stoode at his head. 21. Saul confesseth his sinne.

THe Ziphites came againe vnto Saul to Gibea, saying: Doth not Dauid hide him selfe in the * hill of Hachilia, which is before * Jesimon?

1

* Or, in Gibea.

* Or, the wildernesse.

2 Saul arose, & went downe to the wildernes of Ziph, hauing three thousand (a) chosen men of Israel with him, for to seke Dauid in the wildernesse of Ziph.

(a) That is, of the most skilfull and valiant souldiers.

3 And Saul pitched in the hil of Hachilia, which is before Jesimon by the way side: But Dauid dwelt in the wildernesse, and he sawe that Saul came after him into the wildernesse:

4 Dauid therefore sent out spies, & vnderstoode that Saul was come in very deede.

5 And Dauid arose, & came to the place where Saul had pitched: & Dauid beheld the place where Saul lay, & Abner the sonne of Ner which was his chiefe captayne: for Saul lay in the fort, & the people pytched rounde about him.

6 Then

6 Then aunſwered Dauid, and ſpake to Ahimelech the Hethite, and to Abiſai the ſonne of Zaruia, & brother to Joab, ſaying: who wyll go downe with me to Saul to the hoaſt? And Abiſai ſaide: I wyll go downe with thee.

7 And ſo Dauid and Abiſai came downe to the people by night, and behold Saul lay ſleepyng within the fort, and his ſpeare ſtacke in ỹ grounde at his "head: but Abner and the people lay rounde about hym.

8 Then ſaide Abiſai to Dauid, God hath cloſed thyne enemie into thyne hand thys day: Nowe I pray thee let me ſmite him once with my ſpeare to the earth, & I will not (b) ſmite him the ſecond tyme.

9 And Dauid ſaide to Abiſai, Deſtroye him not: For who can laye his hand on the Lordes annoynted, and be giltleſſe?

10 And Dauid ſayd furthermore: As the Lorde lyueth, the Lorde ſhall ſmyte him or his day ſhall come to dye, or he ſhall deſcend into battaile, and periſhe.

11 The Lorde kepe me from laying myne hand vpon the Lordes annoynted: But I praye thee take thou nowe the ſpeare that is at his head, and the cruſe of water, and let vs go.

12 And ſo Dauid toke the ſpeare and the cruſe of water from Sauls head, and they gat them away, and no man ſawe it, nor marked it, neither awaked: For they were all aſleepe, becauſe the "Lorde had ſent a dead ſleepe vpon thē.

13 Then Dauid went ouer to the other ſyde, and ſtoode on the toppe of an hill a farre of (a great ſpace being betweene them:)

14 And Dauid cryed to the people, and to Abner the ſonne of Ner, ſaying: "Heareſt thou not Abner? Abner aunſwered and ſayd: Who art thou that cryeſt to the king?

15 And Dauid ſayde to Abner: Art not thou a (c) man? and Who is lyke to thee in Iſrael? Wherefore then haſt thou not kept thy lorde the king? For there came one of the folke in to deſtroye the king thy lorde.

16 It is not well done of thee: As the Lorde lyueth, "ye are "worthy to dye, becauſe ye haue not kept the Lordes annoynted: And nowe ſee where the kinges ſpeare is, and the cruſe of water that was at his head. 1.Reg.xx.f. "Hebr. ſonnes of death.

17 And Saul knewe Dauids voyce, and ſayd: *Is this thy voyce my ſonne Dauid? And Dauid ſayde: It is my voyce my lorde, O king. 1.Reg.24.d.

18 And he ſayde: Wherefore doth my lorde thus perſecute his ſeruaunt? for What haue I done? or What euyll is in myne hand?

19 Nowe therefore I praye thee, let my lorde the king heare the wordes of his ſeruaunt: If the Lorde haue ſtirred thee vp againſt me, (d) let him ſmell the ſauour of a ſacrifice: But and if they be the (e) children of men, curſed are they before the Lorde, for they haue caſt me out this day from abidyng in the inheritaunce of the Lorde, (f) ſaying: Go, ſerue other goddes. (d) That is, let the worke that thou haſt in hande, be accepted before ỹ Lorde. (e) That haue ſtirred thee vp againſt me. (f) By their deedes, although not in plaine wordes.

20 Now therefore let not my blood fall to the earth before the face of the Lorde: For the king of Iſrael is come out to ſeeke a flea, as When one doth hunt a partridge in the mountaynes.

21 Then ſaide Saul, I haue ſinned: Come agayne my ſonne Dauid, for I will do thee no more harme, becauſe my ſoule was (g) precious in thyne eyes this day: Beholde, I haue played the foole, and haue erred exceedinly.

(g) Becauſe thou hanoredſt my lyfe this day.

22 And Dauid aunſwered and ſaid: Beholde the kinges ſpeare, let one of the young men come ouer and fet it.

23 The Lorde rewarde euery man according to his righteouſnes, and faythfulneſſe: For the Lorde deliuered thee into my hand this day, but I would not lay mine hand vpon the Lordes annoynted.

24 And behold, like as thy life was much ſet by this day in myne eyes: ſo be my lyfe ſet by in the eyes of the Lorde, that he deliuer me out of all tribulation.

25 Then Saul ſaide to Dauid: Bleſſed art thou my ſonne Dauid, for thou ſhalt do great thinges and preuaile. And ſo Dauid went his way, and Saul turned to his place agayne.

The .xxvii. Chapter.

2 Dauid fleeth to Achis king of Gath, who geueth him Ziklag. 8. Dauid destroyeth certayne of the Philistines. 10. Achis is deceaued by Dauid.

A 1 AND Dauid sayd in his heart, I shall perishe one day by the hand of Saul: therefore is there nothing better for me, then to flee and saue my self in the land of the Philistines, and Saul shall ceasse and seeke me no more in all the coastes of Israel, and so shall I escape out of his hand.

2 And Dauid arose, and he and the sixe hundred men that were with him, went vnto Achis the sonne of Maoch, king of Gath.

3 And Dauid dwelt with Achis at Gath, both he and his men, euery man with his housholde, and Dauid with his two wiues, Ahinoam the Jezrahelite, and Abigail Nabals wyfe the Carmelite.

B 4 And it was tolde Saul that Dauid was fled to Gath, and he sought no more for him.

5 And Dauid sayde vnto Achis: If I haue now founde grace in thyne eyes, (a) let them geue me a place in some towne in ỹ countrey, that I may dwell there: For why should thy seruaunt dwell in the head citie of the kingdome with thee?

(a) That is, let thyne officers appoynt me a place.

6 Then Achis gaue him (b) Ziklag that same day, for which cause Ziklag pertayneth vnto the kinges of Juda vnto this day.

(b) Dauid which aduentured his frendes could haue no sure dyspyng: by the ꝓuidence of God, euery his enemies hyndreth ꝓtection, & ceaseth to dwell in. C

7 And the tyme that Dauid dwelt in the countrey of the Philistines, was foure monethes, and certaine dayes.

8 And Dauid and his men went vp and inuaded the Gesurites, the Gerzites, & the Amalekites: For those natiõs were from the beginnyng the inhabitauntes of the lande, as men go to Sur, vnto the land of Egypt.

9 And Dauid smote the lande, & left neither man nor woman alyue, and droue away the sheepe, the oxen, the asses, camelles, and clothes, and returned, and came to Achis.

10 And Achis saide: Where haue ye ben a rouing this day? And Dauid answered: Against the south of Juda, and against the south of the (c) Jerameelites, and against the south of the (d) Kenites.

D (c) which were a familie of the tribe of Juda. 1. Chron: 2. (d) which were the kenite or Jethro Moyses father in law.

11 And Dauid saued neither man nor woman alyue to bring to Gath, saying: lest they should tell on vs, saying, so dyd Dauid, and so will be his maner all the whyle he dwelleth in the countrey of the Philistines.

12 And Achis beleued Dauid, saying: He hath made his people Israel vtterly to abhorre him, & therefore he shalbe my seruaunt for euer.

The .xxviii. Chapter.

2 Dauid hath the chiefe charge promysed about Achis. 8. Saul consulteth with a witch, and she causeth him to speake with Samuel. 18. who declareth his ruine.

A 1 AND in those dayes, the Philistines gathered theyr hoast together to warre, to fight with Israel: And Achis sayd to Dauid, Be sure thou shalt go out with me to battayle, thou and the men that are with thee.

2 And Dauid sayde to Achis: Surelie thou shalt knowe what thy seruaunt can do. And Achis said to Dauid: Then I will make thee keper of my head for euer.

3 Samuel was then dead, and all Israel had lamented him, and buried him in Rama his owne citie: And Saul had put (a) away the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land.

(a) According to Gods commaundement. Exod. xxii.

4 And the Philistines gathered together, and came, and pytched in Sunem: And Saul gathered all Israel together, and they pytched in Gilboa.

5 And when Saul sawe the hoast of the Philistines, he was afrayde, & his heart was sore astonied.

6 And when Saul asked councell of the Lorde, the Lorde answered him not, B neither by dreames, nor by Urim, nor yet by prophetes.

7 Then

7 Then sayd Saul vnto his seruaũtes: Seeke me a woman that hath a familier spirite, that I may go to her, and aske of her. And his seruauntes sayd to him: Beholde, there is a woman that hath a familier spirite at Endor.

8 And Saul chaunged him selfe, and put on other rayment, and then went he & two men with him, and they came to the woman by nyght, and he sayde: I pray thee coniecture vnto me by the familier spirite, & bring me him vp whom I shall name vnto thee.

9 And the woman saide vnto him: Beholde, thou knowest what Saul hath done, how he hath destroyed the sorcerers, and the soothsayers out of the land: wherfore then layest thou a snare for my soule, to cause me to die?

10 And Saul sware to her by the Lord, saying: As the Lorde lyueth, there shall no harme come to thee for this thyng.

11 Then saide the woman: whom shall I fetch vp vnto thee? he answered: Bring me vp Samuel.

12 When the woman sawe Samuel, she cryed with a loude voyce, and spake to Saul, saying: why hast thou deceaued me? for thou art Saul.

13 And the king saide vnto her: Be not afrayd: what sawest thou? The woman saide vnto Saul: I sawe "gods ascending vp out of the earth.

14 He saide vnto her againe: what fashion is he of? She answered: There cõmeth vp an olde man with a mantel vpon him. And Saul perceaued that it was (b) Samuel, and he stowped with his face to the ground, and bowed him selfe.

15 And Samuel said to Saul: why hast thou vnquieted me, to make me be brought vp? Saul answered: I am sore encumbred, for ỹ Philistines make warre against me, and God is departed from me, and answereth me no more, neither by prophets, nor by dreames: And therefore I haue called thee, that thou mayest (c) tell me what I shall do.

16 Then saide Samuel: wherefore doest thou aske of me, while the Lord is gone from thee, and is become thyne enemie?

17 Truelie the Lord hath done to (d) him, euen as he spake by my "hand:* For the Lorde hath rent the kingdome out of thyne hand, and geuen it thy neyghbour Dauid.

18 Because thou obeyedst not the voyce of the Lorde, nor executedst his fierce wrath vpon the Amalekites, therefore hath the Lord done this vnto thee this day.

19 And moreouer, the Lord will deliuer D Israel with thee into the handes of the Philistines:* To morrowe shalt thou and thy sonnes be (e) with me, and the Lorde shall geue the hoast of Israel into the handes of the Philistines.

20 Then Saul fell straightway all along on the earth, and was sore (f) afrayde because of the wordes of Samuel. And there was no strength in him: for he had eaten no bread all the day, nor all the night.

21 And the woman came vnto Saul, & sawe that he was sore troubled, & sayde vnto him: See, thyne handmayde hath obeyed thy voyce, * & (g) haue put my soule in my hand, and haue hearkened vnto thy wordes which thou sayedst vnto me.

22 Nowe therefore I pray thee hearken thou also vnto the voyce of thyne handmayde, and let me set a morsell of bread before thee, that thou mayest eate, and get thee strength, & then go on thy iourney.

23 He refused, and sayde: I will not eate. But his seruauntes and the woman together compelled him, and he hearkened vnto their voyce: And so he arose from the earth, and sat on a bed.

24 The woman had a fat calfe in the house, and she hasted and killed it, and tooke floure and kneded it, and did bake vnleauened bread thereof:

25 And brought them before Saul, and before his seruauntes: And when they had eaten, they stoode vp, & went away the same night.

4 The princes of the Philistines cause Dauid to be sent backe from the battaile against Israel, because they mistrusted him.

3 Thē sayd the princes of the Philistines, What do these Ebrues, here? Achis said vnto the princes of the Philistines: Is not this Dauid, the seruaunt of Saul the king of Israel, Which hath ben with me these dayes, or these yeres, and I haue found no fault in him, since he fell vnto me, vnto this day?

4 And the princes of the Philistines were wroth with hym, and the princes of the Philistines sayde vnto hym: Make this felowe returne, that he may go againe to his place which thou hast appoynted hym, and let hym not go downe with vs to battayle, lest in the battayle he be an aduersarie to vs: For Wherewith shoulde he obtayne the fauour of his master? shoulde it not be With the (b) heades of these men?

(b) Would not Saul reseaue him to fauour if he could betraye vs.

5 Is not this Dauid, to whom they sang in daunces, saying: Saul slue his thousande, & Dauid his ten thousande?

6 Then Achis called Dauid, and sayde vnto him: As the Lorde lyueth, thou hast ben honest, and good in my sight, when thou (c) wentest out and in With me in the hoast, neither haue I founde euyll with thee sence thou camest to me, vnto this day: Neuertheless, the a princes fauour thee not.

8 And Dauid sayde vnto Achis: And what haue I done? what hast thou founde in thy seruaunt as long as I haue ben with thee vnto this day, that I may not go fight against the enemies of my lorde the king?

9 Achis answered and sayd to Dauid: I know that thou art (d) good in my sight, as an angell of God: Notwithstanding, the princes of the Philistines haue sayde, Let him not go vp with vs to battaile.

(d) I phisit, in meaning thou pleasest me.

10 Wherefore now ryse vp earlie in the morning with thy (e) maisters seruaūtes that are come to thee: and whē ye be vp earlie, assoone as ye haue lyght, departe.

¶ The.xxx. Chapter.

1 The Amalekites burne Ziklag. 5. Dauids two wiues are taken prisoners. 6. The people would stone him. 8. He asked councell of the Lorde, and pursuing his enemies, recouereth the pray. 24. He deuideth it equally. 26. And sendeth part to his frendes.

A 1 BUt when Dauid and his men were come to Ziklag the third day, the Amalekites had inuaded vppon the south, euen vnto Ziklag, and had (a) smitten Ziklag, and burnt it With fyre.

(a) That is, destroyed the citie.

2 And had taken the women that were therein prisoners, both small and great: but slue not a man, saue carryed them away, and went their wayes.

3 So Dauid and his men came to the citie, and beholde it was burnt With fyre: and their wiues, their sonnes, and their daughters were taken prisoners.

4 Then Dauid & the people that were With him, lift vp their voyces and wept, vntill they could weepe no more.

5 And Dauids two wiues were taken prisoners also, Ahinoam the Jezrahelite, and Abigail the wyfe of Nabal the Carmelite.

6 And Dauid was in great cumbraunce: For

For the people (b) entended to stone him, because the heartes of all ỳ people were vered euery man for his sonnes and for his daughters: But Dauid toke a good courage to him in the Lorde his God,

7 And * sayde to Abiathar the priest Ahimelechs sonne: I pray thee, bring me the Ephod. And Abiathar brought the Ephod to Dauid.

8 And Dauid asked councel at the Lord, saying: Shall I follow after this company: shall I ouertake them: And he answered him: Folowe, for thou shalt surlie ouertake them, and (c) recouer all.

9 So Dauid and the sixe hundred men that were with him, went and came to the ryuer Besor, where a parte of them abode.

10 But Dauid and foure hundred men followed: (For two hundred abode behinde, being to weery to go ouer the ryuer Besor)

11 And they founde an Egyptian in the fielde, and brought him to Dauid, * and gaue him bread, & he did eate, and water to drinke.

12 And gaue him a fewe fygges, and two clusters of reasinges: And when he had eaten, his spirite came againe to him: For he had eaten no bread nor druncke any water in three dayes and three nightes.

13 And Dauid said vnto him: To whom belongest thou: and whence art thou: He sayd: I am a young man of Egypt, and seruaunt to an Amalekite, and my maister left me, because three dayes agone I fell sicke.

14 We came a rouyng vpon the south of Chretus, and vpon the [coast] belonging to Juda, and toward the south of Caleb, and we burnt Ziklag with fyre.

15 And Dauid saide to him: Canst thou bring me to this company: And he said: (d) Sweare vnto me by God, that thou wilt neither kill me, nor deliuer me into the handes of my maister, and I will bring thee to this company.

16 And when he had brought him thyther, beholde they laye scattered abrode vpon all the earth, (e) eating, and drynking, & daunsing, because of al the great praye that they had carried away out of the land of the Philistines, and out of the land of Juda.

17 And Dauid layde vpon them from the twylight, euen vnto the euening of the next morowe: so that there escaped not a man of them, saue foure hundred young men which rode vpon cammels, and fled.

18 And Dauid recouered all that the Amalekites had carryed away, and Dauid rescued his two wyues:

19 So that there was nothing lacking to them, small or great, sonne or daughter, or of the spoyle of all that they had taken away, Dauid recouered them all. D

20 And Dauid tooke all the sheepe, and the oxen, and they drane them before his cattaile, and saide: This is Dauids (f) pray. (f) which the Amalekites had taken of others, and Dauid from them beside the goodes of Ziklag.

21 And Dauid came to the two hundred men, that were to weery for to followe Dauid, whom they had made also to abyde at the ryuer Besor: And they came to meete Dauid & the people that were with him: And when Dauid came to the people, he saluted them.

22 Then answered all the wicked and the vnthryftes of the men that went with Dauid, and saide: Because they went not with vs, therfore wil we geue them none of the pray that we haue recouered: But let euery man take his wife and his children, those let them carry away and departe.

23 Then sayd Dauid: Ye shall not do so my brethren with that which the Lord hath geuen vs, who hath preserued vs, and deliuered the company that came against vs, into our handes.

24 For who will hearkē vnto you in this matter: * But as his parte is that goeth downe and fighteth, so shall his parte be that tarryeth by the stuffe: they shall parte alyke.

25 And so from that day forward, was that made a statute and lawe in Israel, vnto this day, E

26 When Dauid therefore came to Ziklag, he sent (g) of the pray vnto the elders of Juda and to his friendes, saying: See, there is a blessing for you of the spoyle of the enemies of the Lorde. (g) He rewardeth them with gifres, with whom he had ben succoured in the time of his persecution.

27 He sent to them of Bethel, to them of south Ramoth, to them of Jathir, 28 To them of Aroer, to them of Sephamoth, to them of Esthema, 29 To them of Rachal, to them of the cities of Jerahmeel, to them of the cities of the Kenites,

The fyrst Chapter.

4 It was tolde Dauid of Sauls death. 15 He causeth him to be slayne that brought the tidings. 19 He lamented the death of Saul and Jonathan.

A I After the death of Saul, when Dauid was returned from the slaughter of the Amalekites, and had ben two dates in Ziklag:

2 Beholde, there came a man the thirde day out of the hoast from Saul, with his (a) clothes rent, & earth vpon his head: And when he came to Dauid, he fell to the earth, and did obeysaunce.

3 Dauid sayde vnto him: Whence cõmest thou? He sayde vnto him: Out of the hoast of Israel I am escaped.

4 And Dauid sayde vnto him: And what is done I pray thee? tell me. He sayde: The people is fled from the battell, and many of the people are ouerthrowen and dead, and Saul and Jonathan his sonne are dead also.

5 And Dauid sayd vnto the young man that tolde it him: Howe knowest thou that Saul and Jonathan his sonne be dead?

6 The young man that tolde him, aunswered: (b) As I came vnaduisedly to mount Gilboa, beholde Saul leaned vpon his speare: and lo, the charettes and "horsemen followed hard after him.

B 7 And when he loked backe, he sawe me, and called me. And I aunswered: here am I.

8 And he sayde vnto me: Who art thou? I aunswered him: I am an (c) Amalekite.

9 He sayde vnto me agayne: I pray thee come vpon me, and slea me: For anguyshe is come vpon me, because my life is yet whole in me.

10 And so "I stoode vpon him, and slue him, and because I was sure that he coulde not liue after that he had fallen, I toke the crowne that was vpon his head, and the braselet that was on his arme, and haue brought them hyther vnto my lorde.

11 Then Dauid toke holde on his clothes, *and rent them, and so did all the men that were with him. 2. Reg 3. f.

12 And they mourned, and wept, and fasted vntil euen for Saul and Jonathan his sonne, & for the people of the Lorde, and for the house of Israel, because they were ouerthrowen with the sworde.

13 And Dauid sayd vnto the young man that brought him these tidings: Whence art thou? He aunswered: I am the sonne of an aliaunt, an Amalekite.

14 And Dauid sayde vnto him: Howe is C it that thou wast not afrayde to lay thyne hande on the lordes annoynted, to destroy him?

15 And Dauid called one of his young mẽ, and sayd: Go to, and fall vpon him. And he smote him, that he died.

16 Then said Dauid vnto him, Thy blood (d) be vpon thyne owne head: For thyne owne mouth hath testified against thee, saying, I haue slayne the lordes annoynted.

(d) By shedding of blood, thou hast deserued that thy blood be shedde.

17 And Dauid mourned with this lamentation ouer Saul and ouer Jonathan his sonne,

3 And the men that were with (c) him did Dauid cary vp also, euery man with his housholde: And they dwelt in the townes of Hebron.
4 And the men of Juda came, and there they annoynted Dauid kyng ouer the house of Juda: And they tolde Dauid, saying, It is the men of Jabes Gilead that buried Saul.
5 And Dauid sent messengers vnto the men of Jabes Gilead, and sayde vnto them: Blessed are ye vnto the lord, that ye haue shewed suche kindnesse vnto your lord Saul, and haue buried him.

8 But Abner the sonne of Ner that was captayne of Sauls hoaste, toke Isboseth the sonne of Saul, and brought him to (f) Mahanaim,

10 And Isboseth Sauls sonne was fourtie yeres olde when he began to raigne ouer Israel, and raigned two yeres: But the house of Juda folowed Dauid.

12 And Abner the sonne of Ner, and the seruauntes of Isboseth the sonne of Saul wēt out of Mahanaim to Gibeon
13 And Joab the sonne of Zaruia, and the seruauntes of Dauid, went out and met one another by the poole of Gibeon: And they sate downe, the one on the one side of the poole, and the other on the other side.

15 Then there arose & went ouer twelue of Beniamin by numbre, which pertayned to Isboseth the sonne of Saul, and twelue of the seruauntes of Dauid.
16 And euery one caught his felowe by ỹ head, & thrust his swoord in his felowes (i) side, and so they fell downe together: wherefore the place was called " Helkath hazzurim, which is in Gibeon.
17 And there was an exceeding cruell (k) battel that same day: For Abner and the men of Israel fell before the seruauntes of Dauid.

18 And there were three sonnes of Zaruia there: Joab, Abisai, and Asahel: And Asahel was as light of foote as a wilde Roe.

19 And Asahel followed after Abner, and in goyng he turned neither to the right hande nor to the left, from Abner.

20 Then Abner loked behynd him, and sayde: Art thou Asahel? He aunswered: Yea.

21 Abner sayd: Turne thee either to the right hande or the left, and catche one of the young men, and take thee his "weapons. But Asahel would not depart from him.

22 And Abner sayd agayne to Asahel, Depart frō me: (l) wherfore should I smite thee to the grounde, and not be able to holde vp my face to Joab thy brother?

23 Howbeit, When he would in no wyse depart, Abner with the hynder ende of the speare smote him vnder the (m) fyft ribbe, that the speare came out behinde him, that he fell downe in the same place, and died there: And as many as came to the place where Asahel fell downe and died, stoode still.

24 Joab also and Abisai pursued after Abner: And the sunne went downe when they were come to the hil Amma, that lyeth before Giah, by the way of the wildernesse of Gibeon.

25 And the children of Beniamin gathered them selues together after Abner, & were on a heape, and stoode on the top of an hill.

26 Then Abner called to Joab, and said: Shall the (n) sword deuour for euer? Knowest thou not, that it wil be bitternesse in the latter ende? Howe long then shall it be yer thou bid the people returne from folowing their brethren?

(n) Shall we not make an ende of murthering.

27 And Joab sayde: As God lyueth, if thou haddest not spoken, surely euen in the morning the people had departed, euery one from persecuting his brother.

28 And so Joab blewe a trumpet, and all the people stoode still, and pursued after Israel no more, neither fought they any more.

29 And Abner and his men walked all that night through the "playne, & went ouer Jordane, & past through all Bethhoron, till they came to Mahanaim.

"Or, Wilderneſſe.

30 And Joab returned from persecuting Abner, and when he had gathered all the people together, there lacked of Dauids seruaūtes nineteene men, & Asahel.

31 But the seruauntes of Dauid had smitten of Beniamin and of Abners men, [so that] three hundred and threescore men died.

32 And they toke vp Asahel, and buried him in the sepulchre of his father, which was in Bethlehem: And Joab and his men went all night, and the day arose to them at Hebron.

The. iii. Chapter.

1 Long warre betweene the houses of Saul and Dauid. 2 The children of Dauid in Hebron. 12 Abner turneth to Dauid. 27 Joab killeth him.

1 There was then (a) long warre betweene the house of Saul, and the house of Dauid: But Dauid waxed strōger and stronger, and the house of Saul waxed weaker and weaker.

2 And vnto Dauid were children borne in Hebron: his eldest sonne also was Amnon of Ahinoam the Jesraelite:

3 The seconde, (b) Cheleab of Abigail the wyfe of Nabal the Carmelite: the third, Absalom the sonne of Maacha the daughter of Thalmai, the king of Gessur:

4 The fourth, Adonia the sonne of Haggith: the fyft, Sephatia the sonne of Abital:

5 And the sixt Jethream, by Egla Dauids wyfe: These were borne to Dauid in (c) Hebron.

6 And whyle there was warre betweene the house of Saul and the house of Dauid, Abner "held vp the house of Saul.

"Heb. Fortified him selfe for the house of Saul.

7 And Saul had a concubine named Rispha, the daughter of Aia: And Isboseth sayd to Abner, wherfore hast thou gone in vnto my fathers concubine?

8 Then was Abner very wroth for the wordes of Isboseth, and sayde: Am I (d) a dogges head, Whiche against Juda do shewe mercie this day vnto the house of Saul thy father, and to his brethren and frendes, & haue not deliuered thee into the hande of Dauid: and thou fyndest a fault in me this day for this woman?

(d) Doest thou esteeme me no more then a dogge, for all my seruice done to thy fathers house

9 So do God to Abner, and more also, except as the Lorde hath sworne to Dauid, euen so will I do to him,

10 To bring the kingdome frō the house of Saul, that the throne of Dauid may be stablished ouer Israel and ouer Juda, euen from Dan to Beersheba.

11 And he coulde geue Abner neuer a worde to aunswere, because he feared him.

12 And Abner sent messengers to Dauid secretly, saying: whose is the land? who should [also] say, Make a bond with me, and beholde my hande is with thee, to bring all Israel vnto thee.

13 He sayde: well, I will make a bonde with the: But one thing I require of thee, that is, that thou see not my face, except thou first bring Michol Sauls daughter, when thou cōmest to see me.

14 And Dauid sent messengers to Isboseth Sauls sonne, saying: Deliuer me my wife Michol, Whiche I maried for an hundred foreskinnes of ỹ Philistines.

15 And Isboseth sent, and toke her from her husband Phalti the sonne of Lais.

16 And her husband went with her, and came weeping behinde her, til they came to Bahurim. Then sayde Abner vnto him, Go and returne. And he returned.

17 And Abner had communication with the elders of Israel, saying: Ye sought for Dauid in times past, that he might be your king:

18 Nowe then do it: for the Lorde hath spoken of Dauid, saying: By the hande of my seruaunt Dauid, I will saue my people Israel out of the handes of the Philistines, and out of the hande of all their enemies.

19 And Abner spake in the eares of Beniamin: and afterward Abner went to speake in the (e) eares of Dauid in Hebron all that Israel was content with and the whole (f) house of Beniamin.

(e) An Hebrue maner of speaking, which signifieth to speake to.

20 And so Abner came to Dauid to Hebron, hauing twentie men with him: & Dauid made him & the men that were with him a feast.

21 And Abner sayde vnto Dauid: I will vp, & go gather all Israel vnto my lorde the king, that they may make an appoyntment with thee, and that thou mayest raigne ouer all that thyne heart desireth. And when Dauid had let Abner depart, he went in "peace.

" Or, without harme.

22 And behold, the seruauntes of Dauid and Joab came from the (g) campe, and brought a great pray with them: (But Abner was not with Dauid in Hebron, for he had sent him away to depart in peace.)

23 When Joab and al the hoast that was with him were come, men tolde Joab, saying: Abner the sonne of Ner came to the king, and he hath sent him away, that he is gone in peace.

24 Then Joab came to the king, and said: (h) what hast thou done? Behold, Abner came vnto thee, and why hast thou sent him away, and he is quyte gone?

(h) As though he would say, thou hast done foolishly.

25 Thou knowest Abner the sonne of Ner, for he came to deceaue thee, and to knowe thy outgoyng and ingoyng, and to knowe all that thou doest.

26 And when Joab was come out from Dauid, he sent messengers after Abner, which brought him againe from the well of Sira, vnknowing to Dauid.

27 And when Abner was come againe to Hebron, Joab toke him aside in the gate to speake with him "peaceably, and smote him vnder the fyft ribbe, that he died for the blood of Asahel his brother.

" Or, secretly.

28 And when afterwarde it came to Dauids eare, he sayde: I and my kingdome are (i) giltlesse before the Lord for euer concerning the blood of Abner the sonne of Ner.

(i) Being innocent, neither knowing nor consenting to his death.

29 Let the blood fall on the head of Joab and on all his fathers house, that the house of Joab be neuer without one or other that hath running issues or leper, or that leaneth on a staffe, or that doth fall on the sword, or that lacketh bread.

33 And the king lamented ouer Abner, and ſayde: Died Abner as a (m) foole dieth?

34 Thy handes were not bounde, nor thy feete brought into fetters of braſſe: but as a man falleth before wicked children, ſo felleſt thou. And all they that were of the people, wept yet more ouer him.

35 And when all the people came to cauſe Dauid (n) eate meate whyle it was yet day, Dauid ſware, ſaying: So do God to me and more alſo, if I taſte bread or ought els tyll the ſunne be downe.

36 And all the people wiſt it, and it pleaſed them: as whatſoeuer the king did, pleaſed all the people.

37 For all the people and all Iſrael vnderſtoode that day, how that it was not the kinges deede that Abner the ſonne of Ner was ſlayne.

38 And the king ſaid vnto his ſeruauntes: Knowe ye not howe that there is a prince and a great man fallen this day in Iſrael?

39 And I am this day tender and newly annoynted king, and theſe men the ſonnes of Zaruia be to hard for me: The Lorde reward the doer of euyll, according to his wickednesse.

The. iiii. Chapter.

5 And the ſonnes of Rimmon the Berothite, Rechab and Baanah, went and came in the heate of the day to the houſe of Iſboſeth (whiche ſlept on a bed at noone.)

6 And behold, they came into the middes of the houſe, as though they (e) woulde haue fetched wheate, and Rechab and Baanah his brother ſmote him vnder the fyft ribbe, and fled.

7 For when they came into the houſe, he ſlept on his bed in his bed chamber, and they ſmote him and ſlue him, & beheaded him, and toke his head, & gat them away through the plaine all the night.

" Or, wilderneſſe.

8 And they brought the head of Iſboſeth vnto Dauid to Hebron, and ſayde to the king: Behold, there is the head of Iſboſeth Sauls ſonne thyne enemie whiche ſought after thy lyfe, and the Lorde hath auenged my lorde the kyng this day of Saul and of his ſeede.

9 And Dauid aunſwered Rechab and Baanah his brother ỹ ſonnes of Rimmon the Berothite, and ſaid vnto them: As the Lorde lyueth, whiche hath deliuered my ſoule out of all aduerſites:

11 Howe much more when wicked men haue ſlayne a righteous perſon in his owne houſe and vpon his bed: Shal I not nowe therfore (f) require his blood of your hande, & take you from the earth?

12 And Dauid commaunded his young men, and they ſlue them, and cut of their handes and feete, and hanged them vp ouer the poole in Hebron: But they toke the head of Iſboſeth, & buried it in the ſepulchre of Abner in Hebron.

the houſe of Obed Edom, a (d) Gethite.
11 And the arke of the Lord continued in the houſe of Obed Edom the Gethite three monethes: and the Lord bleſſed
Obed Edom, and all his houſholde.
12 And one tolde king Dauid howe that the Lord had bleſſed the houſe of O-

Dauid went, and (e) brought the arke of God from the houſe of Obed Edom, into the citie of Dauid with gladneſs.
13 And when they that bare the arke of the Lord, had gone ſixe paces, he offered an oxe and a fat beaſt.
4 And Dauid daunced befoꝛe the Lord with all his might, & was girded with a linnen (f) Ephod.
15 So Dauid and all the houſe of Iſrael brought the arke of the Lord with ſhowting and trumpet blowing.
16 And as ỹ arke of the Lord came into the citie of Dauid, Michol Sauls daughter loked through a windowe, and ſawe

17 And when they brought in the arke of the Lord, they ſet it in his place, euen in the middes of the tabernacle that Da-uid had pitched foꝛ it: and Dauid offered burnt offeringes & peace offeringes befoꝛe the Lord.
18 And aſſoone as Dauid had made an ende of offering burnt offeringes and peace offeringes, he bleſſed the people in the name of the Lord of hoaſtes, 19 And gaue among all the folke, euen among the whole multitude of Iſrael, aſwel to the women as men, to euery one a cake of bread, & a peece of fleſſhe, and a flacked of wine: And ſo al the people departed euery one to his houſe.
20 Then Dauid returned to (h) bleſſe his houſholde, and Michol the daughter of Saul came out to meete Dauid, & ſayd:
O howe glorious was the king of Iſ-rael this day, Whiche was vncouered to day in the eyes of the maydens of his ſeruauntes, as a foole vncouereth him ſelfe!
21 And Dauid ſayd vnto Michol: It was befoꝛe the (i) Lord, Whiche choſe me ra-and commaunded me to be ruler ouer all the people of the Lord, euen ouer Iſrael, and therefoꝛe will I play be-

The. vii. Chapter.

2 Dauid woulde buylde God an house, but is forbidden by the prophet Nathan. 8 God putteth Dauid in minde of his benefites. 12 He promiseth continuaunce of his kingdome and posteritie.

AFterward when the king sate in his house, & the Lord had geuen him rest round about from all his enemies,

2 The king sayde vnto Nathan the prophete: Beholde, I dwell nowe in an house of Cedar trees, but the arke of God dwelleth within the (a) curtaynes.

(a) That is, within the tabernacle couered with skinnes. Exo. 26. b.

3 And Nathan sayde to the king: Go, and do all that is in thyne heart, for the Lord is with thee.

4 And the same night the worde of the Lorde came vnto Nathan, saying:

5 Go, and tell my seruaunt Dauid, thus sayeth the Lorde: (b) shalt thou buylde me an house to dwell in:

(b) Meaning he should not, although of force without counsell of the Lorde he had permitted him

6 For I haue not dwelt in any house, since the time that I brought the children of Israel out of Egypt, vnto this day: but haue walked in a tent and tabernacle.

7 In all the places wherin I haue walked with all the childrē of Israel, spake I one worde with any of ỹ tribes of Israel, when I commaunded [the iudges] to feede my people Israel, saying, Why build ye not me an house of Cedar trees?

8 Now therfore, so say vnto my seruaunt Dauid: thus sayeth the lord of hoastes, I toke thee from the sheepe coate as thou wast folowing sheepe, that thou mightest be ruler ouer my people ouer Israel.

9 And I was with thee in all that thou wentest to, and haue destroyed all thyne (c) enemies out of thy sight, & haue made thee a great (d) name, lyke vnto the name of the great men that are in the earth.

(c) Both outward, as the Philistines & Moabites, as Saul and his house

10 (Also I will appoynt a place for my people Israel, and will plant it, that they may dwell in a place of their owne, & (e) moue no more: neither shall wicked people trouble them any more, as before time,

(e) He promiseth them quietnes, if they will walke in his feare and obedience.

11 And sence the time that I set iudges ouer my people of Israel) And I will geue thee rest from all thyne enemies: And the Lorde telleth thee, that he will make thee an house.

12 And when thy dayes be fulfilled, thou shalt sleepe with thy fathers, and I will set vp thy seede after thee, whiche shall proceede out of thy body, and will stablyshe his kingdome.

13 He shall buyld house an for my name, & I will stablyshe the throne of his kingdome for euer.

14 I will be his father, and he shalbe my sonne: If he sinne, I will chasten him with the (f) rodde of men, and with the plagues of the children of men.

(f) That is, gently, as the father vseth to chastise his children.

15 But my mercy shall not depart away from him, as I toke it from Saul, whō I put away before thee.

16 And thyne house, and thy kingdome shall be stablished for euer before thee, [euen] thy (g) throne shalbe stablished for euer.

(g) This was begonne in Solomons a figure, but accomplished in Christ.

17 According to all these wordes and according to all this vision, so dyd Nathan speake vnto Dauid.

18 Then went king Dauid in, and sat him downe before the Lord, and sayde: Who am I, O Lorde God: and what is my house that thou hast brought me (h) hyther to:

(h) This is so great dignitie.

19 And this was yet a small thing in thy sight O Lorde God: but thou hast spoken also of thy seruauntes house for a great whyle: but "doth this appertayne to man, O Lorde God:

"Heb. is this the law of man?

20 And what can Dauid say more vnto thee: for thou Lorde God knowest thy seruaunt.

21 Euen for thy wordes sake, & according to thyne owne heart, hast thou done all these great thinges, to make them knowen vnto thy seruaunt.

22 Wherfore thou art great, O Lorde God: for there is none like thee, neither is there any God besides thee, according to al that we haue heard with our eares.

23 And

23 *And what one people in the earth is lyke thy people, lyke Israel, whose God went and redeemed them to hym selfe, that they myght be his people, and that he myght make hym a name, and do for you (t) great thynges and terrible for thy lande, O Lorde [euen] for thy people *which thou redeemedst to thee out of Egypt [euen] from the (u) nations and their gods.

(t) O Israel.

Exo.xii.d. (u) From the Egyptians, and their gods. 1 Of the first election.

24 For thou hast (x) ordeyned thy people Israel to be thy people for euer, and thou Lorde art become their God.

25 And nowe Lorde God, the worde that thou hast spoken concernyng thy seruaunt and his house, make it good for euer, and do as thou hast saide:

26 And let thy name be magnified for euer of men that shall say, The Lorde of hoastes is the God ouer Israel: and let the house of thy seruaunt Dauid be stablished before thee.

27 For thou, O Lorde of hoastes, God of Israel, (m) hast tolde in the eare of thy seruaunt, saying, I wyll buylde thee an house: And therefore hath thy seruaunt founde in his heart to pray this prayer vnto thee.

7 Joab is sent against the Ammonites.

A 1 AFter this, the king of the children of Ammon dyed, and Hanon his sonne raigned in his steade.

2 Then saide Dauid: I will shewe kindnesse vnto Hanon the sonne of Nahas, as his father shewed (a) kindnesse vnto me. And Dauid sent to comfort him by the (b) hand of his seruauntes, ouer his father: And Dauids seruauntes came into the land of the children of Ammon.

mon sayde vnto Hanon their lorde: "Thinkest thou that Dauid doth honor thy father, that he hath sent comfortours to thee? Hath not Dauid rather sent his seruauntes vnto thee, to searche the citie, and to spie it out, and to ouerthrowe it?

4 Wherefore Hanon toke Dauids seruauntes, and shaued of the one (c) halfe of their beardes, & cut of their garmētes in the middle, euen hard to the buttockes of them, and sent them away.

5 When they tolde it vnto Dauid, he sent to meete them (for they were men exceedingly ashamed) and the king said: Tary at Jericho vntill your beardes be growen, and then returne.

6 And when the children of Ammon sawe that they (d) stancke in the sight of Dauid, they sent & hyred the * Syrians of the house of Rehob, and the Syrians of Zoba. xx. thousand footemen, and of king Maacha a thousand men, and of Istob twelue thousand men.

8 And the children of Ammon came out, and put their armie in aray at the entring in of the gate: and the Syrians of Zoba, of Rehob, Istob, and Maacha, were by them selues in the fielde.

9 Whē Joab sawe that the front of the battaile was against him before and behinde, he chose of all the choyse of Israel, and put them in aray against the Syrians.

10 And the rest of the people he deliuered into the hand of Abisai his brother, that he might put them in aray against the children of Ammon.

11 And he saide: If the Syrians be stronger then I, thou shalt helpe me: But if the children of Ammon be to strong for thee, I will come and succour thee.

12 Therefore quite thee lyke a man, and let vs be valiaunt for our people and for the cities of our God: And the Lorde do that which is good in his owne eyes.

13 And Joab proceeded forth, & the people that was with him, to fight against the Syrians: but they fled before him. ¶

14 And when the children of Ammon sawe that the Syrians were fled, then fled they also before Abisai, and entred into the citie: And so Joab returned from the children of Ammon, and came to Hierusalem.

15 And whē the Syrians saw that they were smitten before Israel, they gathered them together.

16 And Hadarezer sent, and brought out the Syrians that were beyond the * ryuer, and they came to Helam: & Zoba the captayne of the hoast of Hadarezer went before them.

5 And the Woman conceaued, and sent and (d) tolde Dauid, & sayde: I am With childe.

6 And Dauid sent to Joab, saying: Send me Urias the Hethite. And Joab sent Urias to Dauid.

B 7 And whē Urias was come vnto him, Dauid demaunded of him howe Joab did, and how the people fared, and how the warre prospered:

(e) Dauid thought by this meanes to cloke his fault.

8 And Dauid sayde to Urias: (e) Go downe to thy house, & Washe thy feete. And Urias departed out of the kinges palace, and there followed him a present from the king.

9 But Urias slept at the doore of ỹ kinges palace, With all the seruauntes of his lorde, and went not downe to his house.

10 Which When they had tolde Dauid, saying, Urias went not downe vnto his house: Dauid sayde vnto Urias, Camest thou not from thy iourney? Why diddest thou not go downe then vnto thyne house?

11 Urias aunswered Dauid: The arke, & Israel, and Juda dwell in paulions, and my lorde Joab and the seruauntes of my lorde abyde in the open fieldes, and shall I then go into myne house, to eate, and drinke, & lye With my Wyfe? By thy lyfe, and by the lyfe of thy soule, I Will not do this thing.

2 Reg.14.c.

12 And Dauid sayde vnto Urias: Tary here this day also, and to morow I wil let thee departe. And so Urias abode in Hierusalem that day, and the morow.

13 And When Dauid had called him, he did eate and drinke before him, and he made him (f) drunke: And at euen he went out to lye on his couch With ỹ sernaūtes of his lorde, but went not downe to his house.

15 And he wrote thus in the letter: (g) Put ye Urias in the forefront of the sharper battaile, and come ye backe from him, that he maye be smytten, and dye.

16 So When Joab besieged the citie, he assigned Urias vnto a place where he wist that strong men were.

17 And the men of the citie came out, and fought With Joab: And there were certayne ouerthrowen of the people of the seruauntes of Dauid: & Urias the Hethite dyed also.

18 Then Joab sent, and tolde Dauid all the thinges concerning the warre:

19 And charged the messenger, saying: When thou hast made an ende of telling the matters of the warre vnto the king:

20 If the kinges anger arise, and he say vnto thee, Wherfore approched ye so nye vnto the citie When ye did fight? Wist ye 21 Who smote Abimelech sonne of (b) Jerubesheth? * Did not a woman cast a peece of a mylstone vpon him from of the wall, and he dyed in Thebes? why went ye nye the wall? Then say thou: Thy seruaunt Urias the Hethite is dead also.

22 So the messenger went, & came and shewed Dauid all that Joab had sent him for.

23 And the messenger saide vnto Dauid: The men preuailed against vs, & came out vnto vs into the fielde, & we "pursued them, euen vnto the entring of the gate:

24 And the shooters shotte from the walles vpon thy seruauntes, and some of the kinges seruauntes be dead, and thy seruaunt Urias the Hethite is dead also.

26 And when the wyfe of Urias heard that her husband was dead, she mourned foꝛ him.

¶ The .xiii. Chapter.

14 Ammon Dauids sonne defileth his sister Thamar. 19 Thamar is comforted by her brother Absalom. 29 Absalom therefore killeth Ammon.

A 1 After this, so it was that Absalom the sonne of Dauid had a fayre sister, named (a) Thamar, whom Ammon ẏ sonne of Dauid loued.

(a) Thamar was Absaloms sister both by father and mother, and Ammons oncly by father.

2 And he was so sore vexed, that he fell sycke for his sister Thamar: for she was a (b) virgin, and he thought it hard for him to do any thing to her.

(b) And therfore kept in her fathers house, as virgins were accustomed.

3 But Ammon had a frende called Jonadab, the sonne of Simah, Dauids brother: And Jonadab was a very subtile man.

4 And he said vnto him: How commeth it it, that thou being the kinges sonne, art thus consumed from day to day: Wylt thou not tell me: Amnon answered him: I loue Thamar my brother Absaloms sister.

5 Jonadab saide vnto him, (c) Lay thee downe on thy bed, and make thy selfe sicke: And when thy father is come to see thee, saye vnto him: I pray thee let my sister Thamar come, and geue me meate, and dresse it in my syght, that I may see it, and eate it of her hand.

6 And so Amnon laye downe, and made him selfe sicke: And when the king was come to see him, Amnon saide vnto the king: I pray thee let Thamar my sister come, and make me a coople of (d) cakes in my sight, that I may eate of her hand.

B 7 Then Dauid sent home to Thamar, saying: Go now to thy brother Amnōs house, and dresse him meate.

8 So Thamar went to her brother Amnons house, & he was layed downe: And she toke floure, and kneaded it, and made cakes in his sight, and dyd bake them.

9 And toke a panne, and (e) powred them out before him: but he would not eate. And Amnon saide: Haue out all men from me. And they went all out from him.

10 And Amnon saide vnto Thamar: Bring the meate into the chamber, that I may eate of thyne hand. And Thamar toke ỹ cakes which she had made, and brought them into the chamber to Amnon her brother:

11 And whē she had set them before him to eate, he toke her, and saide vnto her: Come, lye with me my sister.

12 And she answered him: Nay my brother, do not force me, for there hath no such thing ben done in Israel: Do not thou this folly.

C 13 And I, "whyther shall I cause my shame to go: And thou shalt be as one of the fooles in Israel: Now therefore, I pray thee speake vnto the king, and he wyll not denie me vnto thee.

14 Howbeit, he would not hearken vnto her voyce: but being stronger then she, * forced her, and lay with her.

15 And then Amnon hated her exceedingly, so that the hatred wherewith he hated her, was greater then the loue with which he before loued her: And Amnon saide vnto her: Up, and get thee hence.

16 She answered him, "There is no cause: This euill that thou putte st me away, is greater then the other that thou diddest vnto me. Neuertheles se, he would not heare her:

17 But called his " boye that serued him, and saide: Put away this woman from me, and bolt the dooze after her.

18 And she had a garment of (f) diuers colours vpon her: for with such wer the kinges daughters (that were virgins) appareled. Then his seruaunt brought her out, and locked the dooze after her.

19 And Thamar toke and put ashes on her head, and rent her garment of diuers colours that was on her, & layed her hand on her head, and so went, and as she went, cryed.

20 And Absalom her brother saide vnto her: Hath Amnon thy brother ben with thee: Now yet be still my sister, he is thy brother, let not this thing greeue thyne heart. And so Thamar remayned desolate in her brother Absaloms house.

21 But when king Dauid heard of all these thinges, he was very wroth.

22 And Absalom sayde vnto his brother Amnon neither good nor bad: Howbeit, Absalom hated Amnon, because he had forced his sister Thamar.

23 And after the tyme of two yeres, Absalom had* sheepe shearers in the " playne of Hazor beside Ephraim, & bade all the kinges sonnes.

24 And came to the king, and saide: Beholde, thy seruaunt hath sheepe shearers, I pray thee that the king with his seruauntes come to thy seruaunt.

25 The king answered Absalom: Nay my sonne, I pray thee let vs not go all, lest we be chargeable vnto thee. And Absalom laye sore vpon him: howbeit he would not go, but "blessed him.

26 Then saide Absalom: but I pray thee shall not my brother (g) Amnon go with vs: And the king answered him: What needeth it that he go with thee:

27 But Absalom made such instaunce, that he let Amnon & all the kinges children go with him.

28 Now had Absalom commaunded his young men, saying: Marke when Amnons (h) heart is mery with wine, and when I bid you smyte Amnon: then kil him, and feare not: haue not I bidden you: be bolde therfore, & play the men.

The woman aunswered, and sayde: As thy soule liueth my lorde the king, I wil not turne to the right hande nor to the left from ought that my lorde the king hath spokē: for euen thy seruaunt Joab bad me, and he put all these wordes in the mouth of thyne handmayde:

25 But in al Israel there was none to be so muche praysed as Absalom for beautie: from ỹ sole of his foote to the toppe of his head, there was no blemishe in him.

26 And when he polled his head (for at euery yeres ende he polled it, because the heere was heauy on him therfore he polled it) he weighed the heere of his head at two hundreth (n) sicles, after the kinges wayght.

27 And Absalom had three sonnes borne him, and one daughter named Thamar, whiche was a fayre woman to loke vpon.

29 Therfore Absalom sent for Joab to haue sent him to the king, but he would not come to him: And when he sent againe, he would not come.

30 Therfore he sayde vnto his seruauntes: Behold, Joab hath a field by my "place, & he hath barlye therin: Go, & (o) set it on fyre. And Absaloms seruauntes set it on fire. "Or, possession.

31 Then Joab arose, and came to Absalom vnto his house, and sayd vnto him: wherfore haue thy seruauntes burnt my fielde with fire?

32 And Absalō aunswered Joab: Behold, I sent for thee, desiring thee to come, because I woulde haue sent thee to the king, for to say, wherfore am I come from Gesur? It had ben better for me to haue ben there still: Nowe therfore would I see the kinges face: And if ther be any (p) trespasse in me, let hym kil me.

26 But if he thus say, I haue no lust vnto thee: beholde (o) here am I, let hym do with me what semeth good in his eyes.

27 The king sayde also vnto Sadoc the priest: Art not thou a Sear? Returne into the citie in peace, and take your two sonnes with you, Ahimaaz thy sonne, and Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar.

28 Behold, I will tary in the fieldes of the E wilderneſſe, vntil there come some word from you to be tolde me.

29 Sadoc therfore and Abiathar caried the arke of God againe to Hierusalem, and they taried there.

30 And Dauid went vpon mount Oliuet, and wept as he went vp, and had his head (p) couered, & went barefoote: And all the people that was with him, had euery man his head couered: & as they went vp, they wept.

31 And one tolde Dauid, saying: Ahithophel is one of them that haue conspired with Absalom. And Dauid sayde: O Lorde I pray thee, turne the (q) counsell of Ahithophel into foolishnes.

32 When Dauid was come to the toppe of the mount, he worshipped God: and beholde, Husai the Arachite came against him, with his coate torne, and hauing earth vpon his head.

35 And hast thou not there with thee Sadoc and Abiathar the priestes? therfore whatsoeuer thou shalt here out of the kings house, thou shalt shewe to Sadoc and Abiathar the priestes.

36 And behold, they haue there with them their two sonnes, Ahimaaz Sadocs sonne, and Jonathan Abiathars sonne: by them also shal ye sende me all that ye can heare. F

8 The Lord hath brought vpon thee all the (d) blood of the house of Saul, in whose steade thou hast raigned, and the Lorde hath deliuered the kingdome into the hande of Absalom thy sonne: And beholde, thou art come to thy mischiefe, because thou art a bloodsheder.

(d) This he sayde, because of the death of Isboseth and Abner, suspecting Dauid to be guilty to the same.

9 Then sayde Abisai the sonne of Zaruia vnto the king: Why doth this dead dogge curse my lord the king? let me go nowe, and take of the head of him.

10 And the king sayde: What haue I to do with you ye sonnes of Zaruia? for he curseth euen because the Lord hath (e) bidden him curse Dauid: Who dare then say, Wherfore hast thou done so?

(e) Dauid felt that this was the iudgement of God for his sinne, and therfore humbleth him selfe to his rod.

11 And Dauid sayde to Abisai, and to all his seruaūtes, Behold, my sonne which came of myne owne bowels, seketh my lyfe: how much more then may this sonne of Jemini do it? Suffre him to curse, for the Lorde hath bidden him.

12 It may be that the Lorde will loke on myne "affliction, and (f) do me good for his cursing this day.

"Heb. On myne eye.
(f) Meaning that the lorde will sende comforte to his, when they are oppressed.

13 And as Dauid and his men went by the way, Semei went along on the hilles syde ouer against him, & cursed as he went, and threwe stones at him, and cast duste.

14 And the king and all that were with him came weery, and refreshed them selues (g) there.

(g) Or rest at Bahurim

15 And Absalom & al the people the men of Israel came to Hierusalem, and Ahithophel was with him.

16 And assoone as Husai the Arachite Dauids frend, was come vnto Absalō, Husai sayde vnto Absalom: God saue the king, "God saue the king.

"Heb. Let the king lyue.

17 And Absalom sayde to Husai: Is this the kindnesse to thy (h) frende? why wentest thou not with him?

(h) Meaning Dauid.

18 Husai answered vnto Absalom, Nay not so: But whom the Lorde and this people and all the men of Israel choose, his will I be, & with him wil I dwell.

19 And "moreouer, vnto whom shal I do seruice? not to his sonne? And as I was seruaunt before thy father, so will I before thee.

"Heb. The seconde time.

20 Then spake Absalom to Ahithophel: Geue counsel what we shall do.

21 And (i) Ahithophel said vnto Absalom: Get thee in vnto thy fathers cōcubines whiche he hath left to kepe the house, and all Israel shal heare, that thou art abhorred of thy father: then shall the hādes of al that are with thee, be strong.

(i) Suspecting the possibilitie of reconciliation betwixt the father, and the sonne, & consequently his owne destruction: he geueth such counsell that is like to barre frendshippe for euer.

22 And so they spread Absalom a tent vpon the toppe of the house, and Absalom went in vnto his fathers concubines in the sight of all Israel.

23 And the counsel of Ahithophel whiche he counseled in those dayes, was as a man had asked counsel (k) at the oracle of God: euen so was all the counsel of Ahithophel, both with Dauid and with Absalom.

(k) It was so esteemed for the successe therof.

The. xvii. Chapter.

7 Ahithophels counsel is ouerthrowen by Husai. 14 The Lorde had so ordeined. 19 The priestes sonnes are hid in the wel. 22 Dauid goeth ouer Iordane. 23 Ahithophel hangeth him selfe. 27 They bring vittayles to Dauid.

1 Ahithophel also said vnto Absalom: (a) Let me choose out nowe twelue thousand men, and I wil vp and folowe after Dauid this night:

(a) As though he would say, geue me authoritie to choose.

2 And I wil come vpō him whyle he is weery and weake handed, and will feare him: And all the people that are with him, shall flee, and so will I smite the king only,

3 And wil bring againe all the people vnto thee: and when al shall returne, the (b) man whom thou seekest [beyng slayne] all the people shalbe in peace.

(b) Meaning Dauid.

4 And the saying "pleased Absalom wel and al the elders of Israel.

"Heb. was right in the eyes of Absalom.

5 Then sayde Absalom: Cal nowe Husai the Arachite also, and let vs heare lykewyse "what he sayth.

"Heb. what is in his mouth.

6 When Husai was come to Absalom, Absalom spake vnto him, saying: Ahithophel hath geuen "such counsel: Shal we do after his saying, or no? tell thou.

"Or. Spoken thus.

7 Husai answered vnto Absalom: The counsel that Ahithophel hath geuen, is not good at this time.

8 For sayde Husai, thou knowest thy father & his men howe that they be strong men, and they be chafed in their mindes,

and

and are euen as a Beare robbed of her whelpes in the fielde: Thy father is a man also practised in warre, and wil not lodge with the people.

9 Behold he is hyd nowe in some caue, or in some other place: And though some of his men be ouerthrowen at the first brunt, yet they that heare it, will say: The people that followeth Absalom, be "put to the worse.

10 And he also that is valiaunt, whose heart is as ỹ heart of a Liõ, shal "shrink and faynt: For all Israel knoweth, that thy father is a mightie man, and they which be with him are "stout men.

11 Therfore my counsell is, that al Israel be gathered vnto thee frõ Dan to Beersheba, as the sande of the sea in number, and that thou go to battayle in thyne owne person.

12 For so shall we come vpon him in one place or other where we shal finde him, and we wil fal vpon him, euen as thicke as the deawe falleth on ỹ ground: And of al the men that are with him, we shal not leaue him one.

13 Moreouer, if he be gotten into a towne, then shall al the men of Israel bring ropes to that citie, and we will drawe it into the riuer, vntil ther be not one small stone founde there.

14 And Absalom and all the men of Israel sayde: The counsel of Husai the Arachite, is better then the counsell of Ahithophel. For "it was euen the Lordes determination to destroy the (c) good counsell of Ahithophel, that the Lorde might (d) bring euyll vpon Absalom.

15 Then sayde Husai vnto Sadoc & Abiathar the priestes: Of this & that maner did Ahithophel and the elders of Israel counsel Absalom, and thus & thus haue I counsayled.

16 Nowe therfore send quickly, & shewe Dauid, saying: Tarie not this night in ỹ fieldes of the wildernesse, but get thee (e) ouer, lest the king be deuoured, & all the people that are with him.

17 Now Jonathan and Ahimaaz abode by the well Rogel: (for they might not be seene to come into the citie) and a wench went and (f) told them: And they went, and shewed king Dauid.

18 Neuertheless, a lad sawe them, and tolde it to Absalom: But they went both of them away quickly, & came to a mans house in Bahurim, which had a well in his yarde, into the whiche they went downe.

19 And the wyfe toke and spread a couerlet ouer the welles mouth, & spread ground corne theron: and the thing was not spied.

20 And when Absaloms seruauntes came to the wyfe to the house, they sayde: Where is Ahimaaz & Jonathan? The woman answered thẽ: They be gone ouer the brooke of water. And whẽ they had sought them, and coulde not finde them, they returned to Hierusalem.

21 And assoone as they were departed, the other came out of the wel, and went and tolde king Dauid, and sayde vnto him: Up, and get you quickly ouer the water, for (g) suche counsel hath Ahithophel geuen against you.

22 Then Dauid arose, and all the people that were with him, & they were come ouer Jordane (h) by that it was day: so that there lacked not one of them that was not come ouer Jordane.

23 And when Ahithophel sawe that his counsel was not followed, he sadled his Asse, and arose and gate him home to his owne house, and to his owne citie, & put his housholde in order, and (i) hanged him selfe, and died, and was buried in the sepulchre of his father.

24 Then Dauid came to Mahanaim, And Absalom passed ouer Jordane, he and all the men of Israel with him.

25 And Absalom made Amasa captaine of the hoast in stede of Joab: Which Amasa, was a mans sonne named Jethra an Israelite, that went in to Abigail the daughter of (k) Nahas, sister to Zaruia Joabs mother.

26 So Israel and Absalom pitched in the land of Gilead.

27 And when Dauid was come to Mahanaim, Sobi the sonne of Nahas, out of Rabba of the children of Ammon, & Machir the sonne of Ammiel out of Lodeber, and Barzellai the Gileadite out of Rogelim,

28 (l) Brought beddes, basens, earthen vessels, wheat and barly, floure & parched corne, beanes, lentiles, & parched pulse,

29 Hony, butter, sheepe, & cheese of kyne, for Dauid and for the people that were with him, to eate: For they sayde, The people is hungry, weery, and thirstie, in the wildernesse.

(g) To wit, to pursue the with all hast.

(h) So ỹ they trauayled all night, and by mourning had all their company passed ouer.

(i) Thus God sometimes in this lyfe executeth iudgement vpon the cruel persecutor of the innocent, to admonishe vs what iudgement al suche shal haue in the worlde to come.

(k) Who was also called Jithi Dauids father.

(l) God by them succourig the necessitie of his faithfull seruaunt in his trouble and affliction.

The .xviii. Chapter.

2 Dauid deuideth his armie into three partes. 9 Absalom is hanged, slayne, and cast in a pit. 33 Dauid lamenteth the death of Absalom.

AND Dauid numbred the people that were with him, and set captaynes of thousandes and of hundredes ouer them.

2 And Dauid sēt foorth the third part of the people vnder the hande of Joab, and the third part vnder the hand of Abisai the sonne of Zaruia Joabs brother, and the other third part vnder the hand of Ithai the Gethite: And the king said vnto the people, I will go with you my selfe also.

3 And the people answered, Thou shalt not go foorth: for if we flee away, they will not care for vs, neither shal they regard vs, though halfe of vs were slaine: but thou (a) art nowe worth ten thousande of vs, wherfore it is better that thou succour vs out of the citie.

(a) Signifiing that a good gouernour ought to be fodeere vnto his people, that they will rather lose their liues then that ought shoulde come vnto him

4 And the king sayde vnto them: what seemeth you best, that will I do. And the king stoode by the gate syde, and all the people came out by hundredes, and by thousandes.

5 And the king commaunded Joab, and Abisai, and Ithai, saying: Intreate the young man Absalom gently for my sake. And all the people hearde that the king gaue all the captaynes charge concerning Absalom.

6 And so the people wēt out into the fielde against Israel (and the battel was in the (b) Wood of Ephraim)

(b So called, because the Ephraimites (as some say) fed their cattel beyond Jordane in this wood.

7 Where the people of Israel were slaine before the seruauntes of Dauid: & there was a great slaughter that day, euen of twentie thousande men.

8 For the battell was scattered ouer al the countrey: And the wood deuoured mo people that day, then dyd the sword.

9 And Absalom mette the seruauntes of Dauid ryding vpon a mule, whiche caried him vnder the thycke bowes of a great oke, and his head was caught of the oke, and he was (c) lift vp betweene the heauen and the earth: and the mule that was vnder him, went away.

(c) By gods prouidence, that this might be an example for euer, what it is afore God, the sonne to rebel against the father.

10 And one that sawe it, tolde Joab, saying: Beholde, I sawe Absalom hange in an oke.

11 And Joab sayd vnto the man that told him: If thou diddest see him, why diddest not thou there smite him to the ground, and I would haue geuen thee ten sicles of siluer, and a gyrdle.

12 The man sayd vnto Joab: Though I should "receaue a thousande sicles of siluer in myne hande, yet would I not stretche out myne hand against ỳ kinges sonne:

"Heweigh vpon myne hand.

sonne: For we heard with our eares when the king charged thee, & Abisai, and Ithai, saying: Beware that none touche the young man Absalom.

13 Moreouer, if I had done it, I shoulde haue done against mine owne lyfe: for there is no matter hyd from the king, yea & thou thy selfe wouldest haue ben against me.

¶ 14 Then sayde Joab, I may not stand thus tarying with thee: And he toke three dartes in his hande, & thrust them "through Absalom whyle he was yet alyue in the middes of the oke.

15 And ten seruauntes that bare Joabs weapons, turned and smote Absalom, and slue him.

16 And Joab blew the trumpet, and the people returned from folowing Israel: for Joab (b) held backe the people.

17 And they toke Absalom, and cast him into a great pyt in the wood, and layed a mightie great heape of stones vpon him: And all Israel fled euery one to their tentes.

18 And this Absalom yet in his lyfe time toke and reared vp a piller, whiche is in the kinges dale: For he sayd, I haue no (c) sonne to kepe my name in remembraunce, and he called the piller after his owne name, and it is called vnto this day Absaloms place.

19 Then sayd Ahimaaz the sonne of Sadoc: Let me runne nowe and beare the king tydinges, how that the Lord hath (d) iudged him quyte of the hande of his enemies.

20 And Joab sayd vnto him: Thou art no man to beare (e) tidinges to day, thou shalt beare tydinges another time: but to day thou shalt beare none, because the kinges sonne is dead.

¶ 21 Then sayd Joab to Chusi: Go and tell the kyng what thou hast seene. And Chusi bowed him selfe vnto Joab, and ranne.

22 Then sayd Ahimaaz the sonne of Sadoc againe to Joab: What I pray thee, if I also runne after Chusi?
And Joab sayde: Wherfore wilt thou runne my sonne, seyng that thou hast no tydinges to bring?

23 Yet What if I runne? he said vnto him: Runne. Then Ahimaaz ranne by the way of the playne, & came before Chusi.

24 And Dauid sate betweene the two (b) gates: And the watchman went vp to the roofe ouer the gate vnto the wal, and lift vp his eyes and sawe, & beholde there came a man runnyng alone.

(b) He sate in the gate of the citie of Mahanaim.

25 And the watchman cryed, & tolde the king. And the king sayd: If he be alone, there (f) is tydinges in his mouth. And he came a pace, and drewe neare.

(f) That is, he bringeth tydinges.

26 And the watchman sawe another man running, and the watchman called vnto the porter, and sayd: Behold, there commeth another man running alone. And the king sayd: He is also a tydinges bringer.

27 And the watchman sayde: "Me thinketh the running of the formost, is lyke the running of Ahimaaz the sonne of Sadoc. The king sayde: He is a (g) good man, and commeth with good tidinges.

"Heb. I see the running

(g) He had had experience of his fidelitie. Chap. 17. c.

28 And Ahimaaz called & said vnto ỳ king, peace be with thee: And he fell downe to the earth vpō his face before the king, and sayd: Blessed be the Lord thy God, which hath "shut vp the mē that lift vp their handes against my lorde the king.

"Or. Deliuered vp.

29 And the king sayd: Is the young man Absalom safe? Ahimaaz answered: When Joab sent the kinges seruaunt, and me thy (i) seruaunt, I sawe a great tumult, but I wote not what it was.

(i) To wit Chusi, who was an Ethiopian.

30 And the king sayde vnto him: Turne aside, and stand here. And he turned aside, and stoode styll.

31 And beholde, Chusi came also, and sayd: "Tydinges my lorde the king, for the Lord hath "deliuered thee this day out of the hande of al them that rose against thee.

"Hebr. Tidinges bro "ged.

32 And the king sayde vnto Chusi: Is the young man Absalom safe? Chusi answered: The enemies of my lorde the king, and all that ryse against thee to do thee hurt, be as that young man is.

33 And the king was (in) moued, and went vp to the chamber ouer the gate, and wept: and as he went, thus he sayde, O my sonne Absalom, my sonne, my sonne Absalom: Would God I had died for thee, O Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

(in) The rebellion of his sonne, could not quenche his fatherly affection.

The. xix. Chapter.

7 Joab encourageth the king. 8 Dauid is restored. 23 Simei is pardoned. 24 Miphiboseth meeteth the king. 39 Barzelai departeth. 41 Israel striueth with Juda.

AND it was told Joab, beholde the king weepeth, & mourneth for Absalom.

2 And the "victorie of that day was turned into mourning vnto al the people: for the people heard say that day howe ỹ king sorowed for his sonne.

"Hebr. Saluation or deliueraūce.

3 And the people went that day into the citie by stealth, as people confounded to conuey them selues when they flee in battell.

4 But the king (a) hyd his face, and cryed with a loude voyce: O my sonne Absalom, O Absalom my sonne, my sonne.

(a) As they do that mourne.

5 And Joab came into (b) the house to the king, and sayd: Thou hast shamed this day the faces of all thy seruaūtes, which this day haue saued thy life, & the liues of thy sonnes, and of thy daughters, & the liues of thy wyues, and of thy concubines,

(b) At Mahanaim.

6 In that thou louest thyne enemies, and hatest thy frendes: For thou hast declared this day, that thou regardest neither thy "princes nor seruauntes: And this day I do perceaue, that if Absalom had lyued, and all we had died this day, that had "pleased thee well.

9 And al ỹ people were at (d) strife throughout all the tribes of Israel, saying: The king saued vs out of the hand of our enemies, & he deliuered vs out of the hande of the Philistines, and nowe he is fled out of the lande for Absalom:

(d) Who should first bring home the king.

10 But Absalom whom we annoynted ouer vs, is dead in battell: Therefore, why are ye so still, that ye bring not the king agayne?

11 And king Dauid sent to (e) Sadoc & Abiathar the priestes, saying: Speake vnto the elders of Juda, and say: Why are ye behinde to bring the king againe to his house (seyng that such tydinges is come from all Israel vnto the king, euen to his house?)

(e) As to them whose office is to tell the people their dutie.

12 Ye are my brethren, my bones, and my flesh: wherfore then are ye the last that bryng the king againe?

13 And say ye to Amasa: Art thou not of my bone and of my flesh? God do so to me and more also, if thou be not captayne of the hoast to me for euer in the (f) roome of Joab.

14 And he bowed the heartes of all the men of Juda, euen as the heart of one man, so that they sent [this word] to the king: Returne thou with all thy seruauntes.

15 So the king returned, and came to Jordane: And Juda came to Gilgal for to go to meete the king, and to conuey him ouer Jordane.

16 And (g) Simei the sonne of Gera the sonne of Jemini, whiche was of Bahurim, hasted and came downe with the men of Juda to meete king Dauid.

(g) Who had before reuiled him. Cha. 16.

17 And there were a thousand men of Beniamin with him, and Ziba the seruaunt of the house of Saul and his fyfteene sonnes and twentie seruauntes with him, and they went ouer Jordane before the king.

18 And there went ouer a boate to carie ouer the kinges housholde, and to do him pleasure: And Simei the sonne of Gera fel before the king as he was come ouer Jordane, 19 And sayde vnto the king: Let not my lorde impute wickednes vnto me, nor remembre the thinges that thy seruaunt dyd (h) wickedly when my lord the king departed out of Hierusalē, that the king should take it to his heart.

(h) For in his aduersitie he was his most cruell enemie, although more in his prosperitie he fetcheth his flatterers to creepe into fauour.

20 For thy seruaunt doth knowe howe that I haue done amisse: And therfore behold, I am the first this day of all the house of (i) Joseph, that am come downe to meete my lorde the king.

(i) By Joseph is commonly vnderstanded Ephraim. Manasses & Beniamin, wherof this was because their three were vnder one standard. Num. 2.

21 But Abisai the sonne of Zaruia answered, and sayd: Shall not Simei dye for this, because he cursed the Lordes annoynted?

22 And

22 And Dauid sayde: What haue I to do with you ye sonnes of Zaruia: For this day ye be aduersaries vnto me: Shall there any man dye this day in Israel: Do not I knowe that I am this day kyng ouer Israel:

23 And therfore the kyng sayde vnto Simei, Thou shalt not dye: and the kyng sware vnto hym.

24 And Miphiboseth the sonne of Saul came downe to meete the kyng, and had neither washed his feete, nor dressed his beard, nor (m) washed his clothes, from the tyme the kyng departed, vntyll he came againe in peace.

25 And When he (n) Was come to Hierusalem and met the kyng, the kyng sayde vnto him: Wherfore Wentest not thou with me Miphiboseth:

26 He answered: My lorde O king, my seruaunt deceaued me: For thy seruaunt saide, I Would haue myne asse sadled to ryde thereon, for to go to the king: because thy seruaunt is lame.

27 And he hath accused thy seruaunt vnto my lorde the king, and my lorde the king is as an (o) angell of God: do therfore What seemeth (p) good in thine eyes.

28 For all my fathers house were but (q) dead men before my lorde the king, and yet diddest thou put thy seruaunt among thē that dyd eate at thyne owne table: what right therfore haue I yet to crye any more vnto the king:

29 And the king said vnto him: Why speakest thou any more of thy matters: I haue saide, Thou and Ziba deuide the (r) landes betweene you.

30 And Miphiboseth sayd vnto the king: yea, let him take all, forsomuch as my lord ỹ king is come againe in peace vnto his owne house.

31 And Barzellai ỹ Gileadite came downe from Roglim, and Went ouer Jordane With the king, to conduct him ouer Jordane.

32 Barzellai Was a very aged man, euen foure score yeres olde, and prouided the king of sustenaunce While he laye at Mahanaim: for he Was a man of very great substaunce.

33 And the king said vnto Barzellai, come ouer with me, & I Will feede thee With me in Hierusalem.

34 And Barzellai saide vnto the king: "How long haue I to liue, that I shuld go vp With the king vnto Hierusalem: " Ebre how many dayes are the yeres of my lyfe?

35 I am this day foure score yeres olde: & can I deserne betweene good or euyll: Hath thy seruaunt any taste in that he eateth or drinketh: Can he heare any more the voyce of syngyng men and women: wherfore thē should thy seruaunt be yet a burthen vnto my lord the king:

36 Thy seruaunt Will go a litle Way ouer Jordane With the king: & Why Wyl the king recompence it me With such a reWarde:

37 O let thy seruaunt turne backe agayne, that I may dye in myne owne citie, and [be buryed] in the graue of my father & of my mother: Beholde, here is thy seruaunt (s) Chimham, let him go With my lorde the king, and do to him What shall please thee. (s) My sonne.

38 And the king answered: Chimham shall go With me, and I Will do to him that thou shalt be content With: And What soeuer thou shalt "require of me, that same Will I do for thee. " Or, chase.

39 And al the people Went ouer Jordane: and Whē the king Was come ouer Jordane, he kissed Barzellai, & "blessed him, & he Went backe againe vnto his owne place. " Or, bad him farewell.

40 And then the king Went to Gilgal, & Chimham Went With him: And al the people of Juda, conducted the king, and also halfe the people (t) of Israel. (t) Which had taken part with the king.

41 And beholde, all the men of Israel came to the king, & saide vnto the king: Why haue our brethren the men of Juda stolen thee away, and haue brought the king and his household and all Dauids men With him ouer Jordane:

42 And all the men of Juda answered the men of Israel, Because the king is neare of kinne to vs: Wherefore be ye angry for this matter: Haue We eaten of the kinges cost: or haue We taken any bribes:

43 And the men of Israel answered the men of Juda, and saide: We haue ten partes in the king, and haue therto more ryght to Dauid then ye: Why then did ye despise vs, that our aduise should not be first had, in restoring our king: And the wordes of the men of Juda were fiercer thē the wordes of the men of Israel.

11 And one of Joabs men stoode by him, and saide: He that beareth any fauour to Joab, or good will to Dauid, let him go after Joab.

12 And Amasa wallowed in blood in the middes of the way: And when the man sawe that* all the people stoode still, he remoued Amasa out of the way into the fielde, and cast a cloth vpon him, because he saw that euery one that came by him stoode still. C 18 Then she spake thus: (e) They spake in the olde tyme, saying, They should aske of Abel: And so haue they continued.

(e) She sheweth that the olde custome was not to destroy a citie, before peace was offered. Deu. xx. c.

19 I am (f) one of them that are peaceable & faithfull in Jsrael, and thou goest about to destroy a citie, and a mother in Jsrael: why wilt thou deuour the inheritaunce of the Lorde?

(f) She speaketh in the name of the citie. D

20 And Joab answered, and sayd: God forbyd, God forbid it me that I should either deuour, or destroy.

21 The matter is not so: But a man of mount mount Ephraim (Seba the sonne of Bichri by name) hath lyft vp his hand against the king, euen against Dauid: Delyuer vs him onely, & I wyll depart from the citie. And the woman said vnto Joab: Behold, his head shalbe throwen to thee ouer the wall.

22 And then the woman went vnto all the people with her wisedome, and they smote of the head of Seba ỹ sonne of Bichri, and cast it out to Joab: * And he blew a trumpet, & they "retyred from the citie, euery man to his tent: And Joab returned to Hierusalem, vnto the king.

18 And yet after this, there was a battaile with the Philistines at (n) Gob, and then Sibbechai the Husathite slue (o) Saph which was one of ỳ sonnes of the giauntes.

2 Dauid after his victories prayseth God. 8 The anger of God toward the wicked.
44 He prophecieth of the reiection of the Jewes, and vocation of the Gentiles.

A 1 AND Dauid spake the wordes of this (a) song vnto the Lorde, What time the Lorde had deliuered him out of the hand of al his enemies, and out of the hand of Saul.

2 And he saide: The Lorde is my rocke, and my castell, and my deliuerer.

" Or, rocke. 3 God is my " strength, in him will I trust: he is my shielde, and the horne of my saluation, my hie towre, and my refuge, my sauiour, thou hast saued me from wrong.

Psal.xviii.a. 4 *I will call on the Lorde which is prayse worthy: and so shall I be saued from myne enemies.

" Or, vngodlynes. 5 For the panges of death closed me about: the fludes of " Belial put me in feare.

" Or, graue. 6 The sorowes of " hell compassed me about, the snares of death ouertoke me.

7 In my tribulation did I call vppon the Lorde, and crye to my God: and he dyd heare my voyce out of his temple, and my crye [did enter] into his eares.

(a) wherein he prayseth God for the victories and benefites he receaued at his handes.

B 8 The earth trembled and quaked: the foundations of heauen moued & shooke when he was angry.

9 Smoke went out at his nosthyrls, & consuming (b) fyre out of his mouth: coles were kindled thereat.

(b) Lightning & thunderbolt.

10 And he bowed heauen & came downe: and there was darkenesse vnder his feete.

11 And he rode vpon Cherub and did flee: he was seene vppon the winges of the winde.

12 He made darknes a tabernacle rounde about him: with waters gathered together in thicke cloudes. C

13 Through the brightnes of his presence were (c) the coles of fyre kindled.

(c) By this description of a tempest, he declareth the power of god against his enemies.

14 The Lorde thundred from heauen: & he that is most hie, put out his voyce.

15 He shot arrowes, and scattered them: [to wit] lyghtning, & ouerthrew them. D

16 The chanels of the sea appeared: and the foundatiōs of the world were seene, by the reason of ỳ rebuking of the Lord, and through the blasting of the breath of his nosthyrls.

17 He sent from aboue and toke me: he drew me out of many waters.

18 He

18 He deliuered me from my mightie enemie, and from them that hated me: for they were to strong for me.

D 19 When they had (e) preuented me in the daye of my calamitie: the Lorde stayed me vp.

(e) When I was so beset that all meanes failed to saue.

20 For he brought me out into roomth: he deliuered me, because he had a fauour vnto me.

21 The Lorde rewarded me according to my (f) righteousnesse: according vnto the pureues of my hands he recompensed me.

(f) Whereby Dauid being his enemie, was forced to say Thou art more righteous then I. Gen. xxxviii.

22 For I haue kept the wayes of ỹ Lord: and did not wickedly agaynst my God.

23 For all his lawes were in my sight: & his statutes, I did not depart therefr õ.

24 In his sight also haue I ben vpright: and haue kept me from myne owne iniquitie.

25 And the Lorde did to me againe according to my righteousnesse: euen after my pureues in his eye sight.

E 26 With the godly thou shalt be godlie: and with the man that is vpright, thou shalt be vpright.

27 With the pure thou shalt be pure: and with the froward thou wilt shewe thy selfe (g) froward.

(g) Their wickednesse maketh that thou seemest to beare thy wonted mercy.

28 And the poore people thou wilt saue: but thyne eyes are vpon the proude, to bring them downe.

29 For thou art my lyght, O Lorde: and the Lorde shall light my darkenesse.

30 For by thee I shall breake through an hoast of men: and by my God wyll I spring ouer a wall.

31 God is vncorrupt in his way, the word of the Lord is tryed in the fyre: he is a shielde to all them that trust in him.

32 For who is a God saue the Lord: and who is mightie saue our God:

F 33 God strengthneth me in battaile: & rydeth the way cleare before me.

(h) Swyft to ouercome all danger.

34 He maketh my feete lyke (h) hyndes feete: and setteth me vpon my hie places.

35 He teacheth my handes to fight: that euen a bowe of steele is broken with myne armes.

36 Thou hast geuen me the shielde of thy saluation: and with thy louing mekenesse thou doest multiplie me.

37 Thou hast enlarged my steps vnder me: and my legges shall not faile me.

38 I haue followed vpon myne enemies, and destroyed them: and turned not againe, vntill I had consumed them.

39 I haue wasted them, and wounded them, that they shal not be able to aryse: yea, they shall fall vnder my feete.

G 40 Thou hast gyrded me about with might to battayle: and them that rose against me, hast thou subdued vnder me.

41 And thou hast geuen me the neckes of myne enemies: that I might destroye them that hate me.

42 They loked about, but there was none to saue them: [euen] vnto the Lorde, but he heard them not.

43 Then did I beate them as small as the dust of the earth: I did stampe them as the clay of the streate, and did spreade them abrode.

44 Thou also hast deliuered me from the discention of my people, thou hast kept me to be an head ouer nations: the people which I knew not, do serue me.

H 45 Straunge childrē (i) dissemble with me: at the hearing of the eare, they obey me.

(i) Are forced for feare of my power to faine and professe subiection and obedience vnto me against their heart.

46 Straunge children wil shrinke away: and they shall be smytten with feare in their priuie chamber.

47 Let the Lord lyue, and blessed be my strength: magnified be God [euen] the force of my saluation.

48 It is God that geueth me [power] to reuenge me: & bringeth downe the people vnder me.

49 He deliuereth me from myne enemies, thou also hast lyft me on hie from them that rose against me: thou hast delyuered me from the wicked man.

50 And therefore I wyll prayse thee O Lorde among the nations: and wyll sing vnto thy name.

51 He is the towre of saluation for his king, and dealeth mercyfully with his annoynted: euen with Dauid, and with his seede for euermore.

1 Dauid causeth the people to be numbred. 10 He repenteth, and chooseth to fall into Gods handes. 15 Seuentie thousand perishe with the pestilence.

AND agayne the Lorde was wroth against Israel, and (a) he moued Dauid agaynst them, in that he sayde: * Go number Israel & Juda.

2 For the king sayde to Joab the captaine of the hoast which was with him: Go thou about nowe throughout all the tribes of Israel, euen from Dan to Beerseba, and number ye the people, that I may knowe the (b) number of them.

3 And Joab saide vnto the king: The Lorde thy God encrease the people an hundreth folde mo then they be, & that the eyes of my lorde the king may see it: And what is the cause that my lorde the king hath a lust to this thyng?

4 Notwithstanding, the kinges word preuayled agaynst Joab & against the captaines of the hoast: And Joab & the captaynes of the hoast, went out from the presence of the king, to number the people of Israel.

5 And they passed ouer Jordane, & pitched in Aroer on the right syde of the citie that lyeth in the myddest of the "valey of Gad, and toward Jazer.

6 And then they came to Gilead, and to the "land Tahtim hodshi, & from thence they came to Dan Jaan, and about to Sidon.

7 And came to the strong hould of Tyre, and to all the cities of the Heuites and of the Chanaanites: & then went out to the south of Juda, euen to Beerseba.

8 And so when they had ben abrode throughout all the land, they returned to Hierusalem, after the end of nine monethes and twentie dayes.

9 And Joab deliuered the number and summe of the people vnto the king, and there were in Israel eyght hundred thousand men of might that drewe swordes: and the men of Juda were fiue hundred thousand men.

10 And Dauids heart smote him, after that he had numbred the people: And Dauid saide vnto the Lord, I haue sinned exceedingly in that I haue done: And nowe I beseche thee Lord take away the trespasse of thy seruaunt, for I haue done very foolishly.

11 And when Dauid was vp in the morning, the word of the Lorde came vnto the prophet Gad Dauids (c) seer, saying:

12 Go and say vnto Dauid, thus sayth the Lorde: I offer thee three thynges, choose thee which of them I shall do vnto thee.

14 ℭ And Dauid saide vnto Gad, I am in a wonderfull strayte: Let vs fall now into the hand of the Lorde (for much is his mercy) and let me not fall into the hand of man.

15 And so the Lorde sent a pestilence in Israel, from the morning vnto the time appoynted: And there dyed of the people from (e) Dan to Beersheba seuentie thousand men.

(e) From the one syde of the countrey to the other.

16 And when the angel stretched out his hand vpon Hierusalem to destroy it, the Lorde repented him of the euill, & saide to the angel that destroyed the people: It is now sufficient, holde thyne hand. And the angell of the Lord was by the threshing place of Areuna the Iebusite.

17 And Dauid spake vnto the Lorde, when he saw the angell that smote the people, and saide: Lo, it is I that haue sinned, and that haue done wickedlie: But these sheepe, what haue they done? Let thyne hand I pray thee be against me, and against my fathers house.

18 And Gad came the same day to Dauid, and said vnto him: Go vp and reare an aulter vnto the Lorde in the threshing floore of (f) Areuma the Iebusite.

(f) Called also Ornan. 1.Chro.21.6.

19 And Dauid according to the saying of Gad, went vp as the Lorde commaunded.

20 And Areuna loked, and sawe the king and his seruauntes comming toward him: and Areuna went out, and bowed him selfe before the king on his face vpon the ground.

21 And Areuna sayde: wherefore is my lord the king come to his seruaunt? Dauid aunswered: To bye the threshing floore of thee, and to make an aulter vnto the Lord, that the plague may ceasse from the people.

22 And Areuna saide vnto Dauid: Let my lorde the king take and offer what seemeth him good in his eyes: Beholde, here be oxen for burnt sacrifice, and charets, and the other instrumentes of the oxen for wood.

23 All these thinges did Areuna as a king geue vnto the king, & said moreouer vnto the king: The Lorde thy God accept thee.

(g) There, abouenamed, for as long tyme, he was king of Hierusalem before Dauid from the time.

24 And the king saide vnto Areuna: Not so, but I will bye it of thee at a price, and wil not offer sacrifice vnto the Lord my God of the which doth cost me nothing. And so Dauid bought the threshing floore and the oxen for (h) fiftie sicles of siluer.

(h) Some write, that euery tribe gaue fifte, which make 600. of that after were he bought as much as cost to, 550. sicles. 1.Chro.21.25.

4 And the damoſell was exceeding faire, and cheriſhed the king, and miniſtred to him: But the king knewe her not.

5 And "Adonia the ſonne of Haggith exalted him ſelfe, ſaying: I wilbe king. And he gat him charettes and horſemen, and (c) fyftie men to runne before him.

6 And his father for his time would not diſpleaſe him, to ſay why haſt thou done ſo? And he was a very goodly man: and his mother bare him next after Abſalom.

B 7 And he toke counſell at Joab the ſonne of Zaruia, and at Abiathar the prieſt: and they (d) helped forward Adonia:

8 But Sadoc the prieſt, "Banaiah the ſonne of Jehoiada, Nathan the prophete, Semei, and Rei, and the men of might which were with Dauid, they were not with Adonia.

9 And Adonia ſacrificed ſheepe, and oxen, and fat cattel, by the ſtone of Zoheleth, whiche is by the well of Rogel, and called all his brethren the kinges ſonnes, and all the men of Juda the kinges ſeruauntes:

10 But Nathan the prophete, and Banaiah, and the mightie men, and "Solomon his brother he called not.

" Salomon: or, Salomoh.

11 Wherefore Nathan ſpake vnto Bethſabe the mother of Solomon, ſaying: Haſt thou not hearde that Adonia the ſonne of Haggith doth raigne, and Dauid our lorde knoweth it not?

12 Nowe therfore come, and I will geue thee counſell howe to ſaue thyne owne lyfe, and the (e) lyfe of thy ſonne Solomon.

(e) For Adonia will deſtroy thy ſonne and thee if he raigne.

13 Go and get thee in vnto king Dauid, & ſay vnto him: Diddeſt not thou my lorde O king, ſweare vnto thy handmayde, ſaying, Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſonne ſhall raigne after me, and he ſhall ſit vpon my ſeate: why is then Adonia king?

C

14 Beholde, whyle thou yet talkeſt there with the king, I wil come in after thee, and (f) confirme thy wordes.

(f) By declaring ſuche thinges as may further the ſame.

15 And Bethſabe went in vnto the king into the chamber: And the king was very olde, and Abiſag the Sunamite miniſtred vnto the king.

16 And Bethſabe ſtouped & made obeyſaunce vnto the king: And the king ſayd, What is thy matter?

17 She anſwered: My lorde, thou ſwareſt by the Lorde thy God vnto thine handmayde [ſaying] Aſſuredly Solomon thy ſonne ſhall raigne after me, and he ſhall ſit vpon my ſeate.

18 And beholde, nowe is Adonia king, & nowe thou my lord the king knoweſt it not.

19 And he hath offered oxen, fat cattel, and many ſheepe, and hath called all the ſonnes of the king, and Abiathar the prieſt, and Joab the captayne of the hoaſt: But Solomon thy ſeruaunt hath he not bydden.

B I 20 And

20 And nowe my lorde O king, the eyes of all Israel wayte on thee, that thou shouldest tell them who ought to sit on the seate of my lord the king after him:

D 21 For els when my lorde the king shall sleepe with his fathers, I & my sonne Solomon shalbe(g) synners.

(g) That is, shalbe reputed as sinners, and condemned to death as traitors

22 And lo whyle she yet talked with the king, Nathan the prophet came also.

23 And they told the king, saying: Behold, [here commeth] Nathan the prophet. And when he was come in to the king, he made obeysaunce before the king vpō his face on the grounde.

24 And Nathan sayde: My lord (O king) hast thou sayde, Adonia shall raigne after me, and he shall sit vpon my seate:

25 For he is gone downe this day, & hath slayne oxen, & fat cattell, and sheepe a great meany, & hath called al the kinges sonnes, and the captaynes of the hoast, and Abiathar the priest: And beholde, they eate & drinke before him, and say: God "saue king Adonia.

"Heb. Let the king Adonia lyue.

26 But me thy seruaunt, and Sadoc the priest, and Banaiah the sonne of Iehoiada, & thy seruaunt Solomon, hath he not called.

27 Is this thing done of my lord the king, and thou hast not shewed it vnto thy (h) seruaunt who should sit on the seate of my lorde the king after him:

(h) Meaning that he ought in such affaires enterprise nothing except he had consulted with the Lorde.

28 Then king Dauid aunswered, & sayd: Cal me Bethsabe. And she came into the kinges presence, and stoode before him.

E 29 And the king sware, saying: As the Lord lyueth that hath ryd my soule out of all aduersite, 30 Euen as I sware vnto thee by the Lord God of Israel, saying, Assuredly Solomon thy sonne shal raigne after me, & he shal sit vpon my seate for me: so will I certeinly do this day.

31 Then Bethsabe bowed on her face to the earth, and dyd reuerence vnto the king, & sayde: I pray God that my lorde king Dauid may lyue for euer.

32 And king Dauid sayde: Call me Sadoc the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Banaiah the sonne of Iehoiada. And they came before the king.

33 The king also sayde vnto them: Take

(f) Meaning the kinges seruauntes & suche as were of his garde.

with you the (f) seruauntes of your lord, & set Solomō my sonne vpon myne owne mule, and cary him downe to Gihon:

34 And let Sadoc the priest and Nathan the prophet annoynt him there king ouer Israel: And blowe ye with trumpettes, & say, God saue king Solomon.

35 And then ye shall come vp after him, that he may come and sit vpō my seate, for he shalbe king in my steade: and I haue "commaunded him to be captayne ouer Israel and Iuda.

"Or, Ap-poynted.

36 And Banaiah the sonne of Iehoiada aunswered the king, and sayde, Amen: And the Lord God of my lorde the king say so to.

37 And as the Lorde hath ben with my lord the king, euē so be he with Solomō also, also, and make his seate greater then the seate of my lord king Dauids hath ben.

38 And so Sadoc the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Banaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and the Cerethites, and Phelethites went downe, and set Solomon vpon king Dauids mule, and brought him to Gihon.
39 And Sadoc the priest toke an horne of (k) oyle out of the tabernacle, & annoynted Solomon: And they blew the trumpettes, and al the people sayde: God saue king Solomon.
40 And all the people came vp after him, pyping with pypes and reioysing greatly, so that the earth "rang with the sounde of them.
41 And Adonia and al the ghestes that he had called vnto him, hearde it [euen] as they had made an ende of eating. And when Joab hearde the sounde of the trumpet, he sayde: What meaneth this noyse and vproze in the citie?
42 And as he yet spake, beholde Jonathan the sonne of Abiathar the priest came, and Adonia said vnto him: Come in, for thou art a valiant man, and bringest good tydinges.
43 And Jonathan answered and sayde to Adonia: Verily our lorde king Dauid hath made Solomon king.
44 And the king hath sent with him Sadoc the priest, and Nathan the prophet, and Banaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, & the Cerethites, and the Phelethites, & they haue set him vpõ the kinges mule.
45 And Sadoc the priest & Nathan the prophete, haue annoynted him king in Gihon. And they came vp from thence, & reioyced, that the citie did sounde againe: And that is the noyse, that ye haue hearde.
46 And Solomon sitteth on the seate of the kingdome.
47 And moreouer, the kinges seruauntes came to (l) blesse our lorde king Dauid, saying: God make the name of Solomõ more honorable then thy name, & make his seate greater then thy seate. (m) And the king bowed him selfe vpon the bed.
48 And thus sayd the king: Blessed be the Lord God of Israel, which hath made one to sit on my seate this day, myne eye seyng it.
49 And al the ghestes that were with Adonia were afrayde, and rose vp, & went euery man his way.
50 And Adonia fearing the presence of Solomon, arose, and went and caught hold on the hornes of the aulter.
51 And one tolde Solomon, saying: Behold, Adonia feareth king Solomon: for lo he hath *caught hold on the hornes of the aulter, saying: Let king Solomon sweare vnto me this day that he wil not slay his seruaunt with the sword.
52 And Solomõ said: If he wil shew him selfe a worthy mã, ther shal not an heer of hym fal to the earth: But & if wickednesse be founde in him, he shall dye.
53 And so king Solomon sent, and they brought him from the aulter, and he came and did obeysaunce vnto king Solomon: And Solomon sayde vnto him, Get thee to thyne house.

(k) Of the tabernacle.

Exod. xxi. b

The ii. Chapter.

1 Dauid exhorteth Solomon, and geueth charge as concerning Joab, Barzellai, and Semei. 10 The death of Dauid. 17 Adonia asketh Abisag to wyfe. 25 He is slayne. 35 Sadoc was plased in Abiathars roome.

1 THe dayes of Dauid drew nie that he should dye, & he charged Solomon his sonne, saying:
2 (a) I go the way of al the earth, * be thou strong therfore, & shewe thy selfe a man.
3 Kepe thou the watch of the Lorde thy God, that thou walke in his wayes, and kepe his statutes, and his preceptes, his iudgementes, and his testimonies, euen as it is written in the lawe of Moyses: that thou mayst prosper in all that thou doest, and in euery thing that thou medlest withall.
4 That the Lorde also may make good his worde which he spake vnto me, saying: If thy children take heede to their way, that they walke before me in trueth, with all their heartes, & with al their soules, *thou shalt not (saith he) be without a man on the seate of Israel.
5 *Moreouer, thou wottest howe Joab the sonne of Zaruia serued me, and what he did to the two captaynes of the hoastes of Israel, vnto Abner the sonne of Ner, and vnto Amasa the sonne of Jether, whom he slue, and shed blood in time of peace (euen as it had ben in warre) & put the blood of warre vpon his girdle that was about his loynes, and in his shoes that were on his feete.

6 Deale with him therefore according to thy wisdome, and bring not his hoore head downe to the graue in peace.

ii Re. xix. f. B 7 *But shewe kindnes vnto the sonnes of Barzellai ỹ Gileadite, that they may eate at thy table: For they came to me whē I fled from Absalom thy brother.

ii. Re. xvi. b. 8 *And behold, thou hast with thee Semei the sonne of Gera the sonne of Jemini of Bahurim, whiche cursed me with an horrible curse, in the day when I went to Mahanaim: But he came to meete me at Jordane, & I sware to him by the Lord, saying: I wil not slay thee with the sworde.

9 But thou shalt not count him as vngiltie: For thou art a man of wisdome, and knowest what thou oughtest to do vnto him, his hoore head shalt thou bring to the graue with blood.

Act. ii. c. 10 And so *Dauid slept with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid.

11 And the dayes whiche Dauid raigned vpon Israel were fourtie yeres: seuen yeres raigned he in Hebron, & thirtie and three yeres raigned he in Hierusalem.

i. Pa. xxix. f 12 *Then sate Solomon vpon the seate of Dauid his father, and his kingdome was stablished mightyly.

13 And Adonia the sonne of Haggith came to Bethsabe the mother of Solomon, and she sayde: *Cōmest thou peaceably? ii. Re. xvi. b. And he sayde, peaceably.

℄ 14 He sayde moreouer: I haue somwhat to say vnto thee. She sayd: Say on.

15 And he sayd: Thou knowest that the kingdome was myne, & that all Israel set their faces on me, that I shoulde raigne: howbeit, the kingdome is turned away, and geuen to my brother: for it is appoynted him of the Lorde.

16 And nowe I aske a petition of thee, deny me not. And she sayde vnto him: Say on.

17 And he said: Speake I pray thee, vnto Solomō the king (for he wil not say thee nay) that he geue me Abisag the Sunamite to wyfe.

18 And Bethsabe sayd: wel, I wil speake for thee vnto the king.

19 Bethsabe therfore went vnto king Solomon, to speake vnto him for Adonia: And the king rose vp to meete her, and bowed him selfe vnto her, and sate hym downe on his seate, & there was a seate set for the kinges mother, & she sate on his right syde.

20 Then she sayd: I desire a litle petition of thee, I pray thee say me not nay. And the king sayd vnto her: Aske on, my mother, for I will not say thee nay.

21 She sayde: Let Abisag the Sunamite be geuen to Adonia thy brother to wyfe. D

22 And king Solomon answered and sayde vnto his mother: why doest thou aske Abisag the Sunamite for Adonia? (b) aske for him the kingdome also: for he is myne elder brother, and hath for him Abiathar the priest, and Joab the sonne of Zaruia.

(b) Meaning that if he should haue graunted Abisag, he wold afterward haue aspired to the kingdome.

23 Then king Solomon sware by the Lord, saying: God do so and so to me, if Adonia haue not spoken this worde against his owne lyfe.

24 Nowe therefore, as the Lorde lyueth, which hath ordeyned me, and set me on the seate of Dauid my father, and made me an house as he promised, Adonia shall dye this day.

25 And king Solomon sent by the hande of Banaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, and he smote him that he died.

26 And vnto Abiathar the priest sayd the king: Get thee to Anatoth vnto thine owne fieldes, for thou art worthy of death: but I will not at this time kill thee, because thou barest the arke of the Lorde God before Dauid my father, and because thou hast suffered with my father in all his afflictions.

(c) King Solomon deposeth the high priest. i. Sam. ii. 27 (c) And so Solomon put away Abiathar from beyng priest vnto the *Lord: that he might fulfill the wordes of the Lord, which he spake ouer the house of Eli in Silo.

28 Then tydinges came also to Joab (for Joab had turned after Adonia, though he turned not after Absalom) and Joab fled vnto the tabernacle of the Lorde, and caught holde on the hornes of the aulter. ℄

29 And

29 And it was told king Solomon howe that Joab fled vnto the tabernacle of the Lorde, and beholde he is by the aulter: Then Solomon sent Banaiah the sonne of Jehoiada, saying: Go and fall vpon him.

30 And Banaiah came to the tabernacle of the Lorde, and sayde vnto him: Thus sayeth the king, Come out. And he sayde: Nay, but I will dye euen here. And Banaiah brought the king word againe, saying: Thus sayde Joab, and thus he aunswered me.

31 And the king sayde vnto him, (a) Do euen as he hath sayd: Smite him, & burie him, that thou mayest take away the blood which Joab shed causeleſſe, from me, and from the house of my father.

32 And the Lorde shall bring his blood vpon his owne head: for he smote two men righteouser and better then he, and slue them with the sworde, my father Dauid not knowing therof, euen Abner the sonne of Ner captayne of the hoast of Israel, and Amasa the sonne of Jether captayne of the hoast of Juda.

33 Their blood shal therfore returne vpon the head of Joab, & on the head of his seede for euer: But vpon Dauid, & vpon his seed, & vpon his house, & vpō his seat shall there be peace for euer of the Lord.

34 So Banaiah the sonne of Jehoiada went vp, & he fel vpon him and slue him, and buried him in his house in the wilderneſſe.

35 And the king put Banaiah the sonne of Jehoiada in his roome ouer ỹ hoast, and put Sadoc the priest in the roome of Abiathar.

36 And the king sent and called Semei, & sayde vnto him: Buylde thee an house in Hierusalem, and dwell there, & see that thou go not forth thence any whyther.

37 For be thou sure, that the day that thou goest out, and passest ouer the riuer of Cedron, thou shalt dye that day, and thy blood shalbe vpon thyne owne head.

38 And Semei sayde vnto the king, This saying is good: As my lorde ỹ king hath sayde, so will thy seruaunt do. And Semei dwelt in Hierusalem many a day.

39 And it chaunced after three yeres, that two of the seruauntes of Semei ranne away vnto Achis sonne of Maacha king of Geth: And they told Semei, saying, Behold, thy seruauntes be in Geth.

40 (c) And Semei stoode vp, and sadled his asse, and gat him to Geth to Achis to seke his seruauntes: And Semei wēt & brought his seruauntes againe from Geth.

(c) His couetous mynde made him venter his life.

41 And it was tolde Solomon, howe that Semei had gone from Hierusalem to Geth, and was come againe.

42 And the king sent & called Semei, and said vnto him: Did I not charge thee by the Lorde with an oth, & testified vnto thee, saying: Be sure, that whensoeuer thou goest out & walkest abroade any whyther, thou shalt dye the death: And thou saydest vnto me: It is good tydinges that I haue heard.

43 Why then hast thou not kept the oth of the Lorde, and the commaundement that I charged thee withall?

44 The king sayde moreouer to Semei: *Thou remembrest all the wickednesse which thyne heart knoweth, and that thou diddest to Dauid my father: the Lorde also shall bring thy wickednesse vpon thyne owne head: ii.Re. xvi.b.

45 And king Solomon shalbe blessed, and the seate of Dauid stablished before the Lorde for euer.

46 So the king commaunded Banaiah the sonne of Jehoiada: which went out, and smote him that he died: And the kingdome was stablished in the hande of Solomon.

The iii. Chapter.

1 Solomon taketh Pharoes daughter to wyfe. 5 The Lord appeareth to him and geueth him wisdome. 17 The pleading of the two harlottes, and Solomons sentence therin.

A 1 SOlomon made affinitie with Pharao king of Egypt, & toke Pharaos daughter, and brought her into the (a) citie of Dauid, vntil he had made an ende of buylding his owne house, and the house of the Lorde, and the wall of Hierusalem round about.

2 Onely the people sacrificed in (b) hygh places, because there was no house built vnto the name of the Lorde vntill those dayes.

(b) Where aulters were appointed before the temple was buylt, to offer vnto the Lord.

3 And Solomon loued the Lorde, walking in the ordinaunces of Dauid his father: saue onely that he sacrificed and offered incense vpon aulters in hygh places.

ii. Par. i. a. 4 *And the king went to Gibeon, to offer there, for that was the speciall hygh place: And a thousande burnt offringes dyd Solomon offer vpon that aulter.

5 And in Gibeon the Lorde appeared to Solomon in a dreame by night, and God sayd: Aske what thou wilt, that I may geue it thee.

6 And Solomon sayde: Thou hast shewed vnto thy seruaūt Dauid my father great mercie, When he walked before thee in trueth, in righteousnesse, and in plainnesse of heart with thee, and thou hast kept for him this great mercy, that thou hast geuen him a sonne to sit on his seate, as it is come to passe this day.

B ii. Par. i. b. 7 *And nowe O Lord my God, it is thou that hast made thy seruaunt king in steade of Dauid my father: * And I am but young, & (c) wote not howe to go out and in.

8 And thy seruaunt is in the middest of thy people which thou hast chosen: and verily the people are so many, that they cannot be told nor nūbred for multitude.

9 (d) Geue *therfore thy seruaunt an vnderstanding heart to iudge thy people, that I may discerne betweene good & bad: For Who is able to iudge this thy so mightie a people?

Sap. i. a. (d) Sauerment meneth to men of wisedome and vnderstanding.

10 And this pleased the Lorde well that Solomon had desired this thing,

11 And God sayde vnto him: Thou hast not asked for thy selfe long lyfe, neither hast asked riches for thy selfe, nor hast asked the lyfe of thy enemies, but hast asked for thy selfe vnderstanding & discretion in iudgement:

12 Behold, I haue done according to thy wordes, lo I haue geuen thee a wyse & an vnderstanding heart, so that there was none lyke thee before thee, neither after thee shal any arise lyke vnto thee.

13 And

13 And I haue also geuen thee that which thou hast not asked, euen ryches and honour, so that ther shalbe no king lyke vnto thee all thy dayes.

14 And if thou wilt walke in my wayes, to kepe myne ordinaunces and my commaundementes, *as thy father Dauid dyd walke, I will lengthen thy dayes.

15 When Solomon awoke, (e) beholde it was a dreame: * And he came to Hierusalem and stoode before the arke of the couenaunt of the Lorde, & offred burnt offringes and peace offringes, and made a feast to all his seruauntes.

16 Then came there two women that were harlottes, vnto the king, & stoode before him.

17 And the one woman sayde: Oh my lorde, I and this woman dwell in one house, and I was deliuered of a childe, with her in the house:

18 And the thirde day after that I was deliuered, she was deliuered also: and we were together, & no straunger with vs in the house, saue we two.

19 And this wiues childe died in the night, for she smothered it.

20 And she rose at mndnight and toke my sonne from my syde while thyne handmayde slept, and layde it in her bosome, and put her dead childe in my bosome.

21 And when I rose in the morning to geue my chylde sucke, beholde it was dead: But when I had loked vpon it in the morning, beholde, it was not my sonne which I dyd beare.

22 And the other woman sayd: It is not so, but my sonne liueth, and thy sonne is dead. And she sayde againe: No, but thy sonne is dead, and my sonne is alyue. And thus they pleaded before the king.

23 Then sayde the king: The one sayth, this that is alyue is my sonne, and the dead is thyne: And the other sayth, nay: but thy sonne is the dead, and the liuing childe is myne.

24 And the king sayde: (f) Bring me a sworde. And they brought out a sworde before the king.

(f) The wisedome of king Solomon.

25 And the king sayde: Deuide the liuing child in two, and geue the one halfe to the one, and the other to the other.

26 Then spake the woman whose the liuing childe was, vnto the king (for her bowelles yerned vpon her sonne) and sayde: I beseech thee my lorde geue her the liuing childe, and in no wyse slay it: But the other sayde, Let it be neither myne nor thyne, but deuide it.

27 Then the king aunswered and sayde: *Geue her the liuing childe, and slay it not, for she is the mother therof. Luk. vii. a 28 And all they of Israel hearde of the iudgement which the king had iudged, and feared the king: for they sawe that the wysdome of God was in him to do iustice.

3 Thou knowest * howe that Dauid my father could not buyld an house vnto the name of the Lorde his God for the warres which were about him on euery syde, syde, vntill the Lorde put them vnder

the soles of his feete.
4 But now the Lorde my God hath geuen me rest on euery syde, so that there is neither aduersarie nor euill to resist.
5 And beholde,* I am determined to build an house vnto ỹ name of the Lord my God, as the Lord spake vnto Dauid my father, saying: Thy sonne whom I wil set vpon thy seate for thee, he shal build an house vnto my name.
6 Now therefore commaund thou that they hewe me Cedar trees out of Libanon, & my seruaũtes shalbe with thyne, and vnto thee wyll I geue the hyre for thy seruauntes, according to all such thinges as thou shalt appoynt: for thou knowest that there are not among vs that can skyl to hewe tymber, lyke vnto the Sidones.
7 (a) And it came to passe, when Hiram heard ỹ wordes of Solomõ, he reioyced greatly, & said: Blessed be the Lord this day, which hath geuen vnto Dauid a wyse sonne ouer this mightie people.
8 And Hiram sent to Solomon, saying: I haue considered the thinges which thou sentest to me for, & wyl accomplishe all thy desyre concerning tymber of Cedar trees and firre.
9 My seruauntes shall bring them from Libanon to the sea, and I wyl conuey them by sea in floates vnto the place that thou shalt shew me, and wil cause them to be discharged there, and thou shalt receaue them: and thou shalt do me a pleasure againe, if thou minister foode for myne house.
10 And so Hiram gaue Solomon Cedar trees and firre trees according to all his desyre.
11 And Solomon gaue Hiram twentie thousand quarters of wheate for foode to his housholde, and twentie buts of pure oyle: Thus much gaue Solomon to Hiram yere by yere.
12 And the Lorde gaue Solomon wisedome as he promysed him: And there was peace betweene Hiram and Solomon, & they two were confedered together.
13 And king Solomon raysed a summe out of Israel, and the summe was thirtie thousand men: ℂ
14 whom he sent to Libanon, ten thousand a moneth by course: so that when they had ben one moneth in Libanon, they abode two monethes at home: And * Adoniram was ouer the summe. iii. Re. iiii. a.
15 And Solomon had threescore and ten thousand that bare burdens, and foure score thousand masons in the mountaines:
16 Besides the lordes whom Solomon appoynted to ouersee the worke, euen three thousand & three hundred, which ruled the people [& them] that wrought in the worke.
17 And the king commaunded them to bring great stones, costly stones, & hewed stones, for the foundatiõ of the house.
18 And Solomons masons, and the masons of Hiram did hewe them, and the stone squarers: And so they prepared both tymber and stones, for the building of the house.

¶ The .vi. Chapter.

1 The buylding of the temple, and the fourme thereof. 12 The promyse of the Lorde to Solomon.

1 AND it came to passe, that in the foure hundred & fourescore yere, after the childrẽ of Israel were come out of the land of Egypt, and * in the fourth yere of the rayne of Solomon vpon Israel, & in the moneth " Zif, which is the second moneth, * he began to build the house of the Lorde. i. Par. iii. a. * Ipsil. Act. v. a. t.
2 And the house which king Solomon built for the Lorde, was threescore cubites long, and twentie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites hie.
3 And he made a porche before the temple of the house, which was twentie cubites long, after ỹ breadth of the house, and ten cubites brode, [euen] in the fore front of the house.
4 And in the house he made " windowes, broade without, and narow within.
5 And by the wall of the house he made chambers round about [euen] in the walles of the house round about the temple & the quier: and he made chambers round about.
6 The neathermost chamber was fiue cubites

" Some of the learned Iewes suppose that the windowes were narowe without, and brode within.

cubites broade, & the middle was fyue cubites broade, & the third was seuen cubites broade: For without in the wall of the house he made restes round about that [the beames of the chambers] shoulde
B not be fastened in ỹ walles of the house.
7 And the house was built of stone, made perfect aforehande before it was brought thyther: so that there was neither hammer nor axe, either any toole of iron heard in the house while it was in buylding.
8 The doore of the middle chamber was in the ryght syde of the house: and men went vp with wyndyng stayres into the middle chamber, and out of the middle into the third.
9 And so he built the house, and finished it: and he roofed the house vaultly with beames of Cedar tymber.
10 And then he built chambers to all the temple fiue cubites heyght, & they were ioyned to the house with beames of Cedar.
11 And the word of the Lorde came to Solomon, saying:
12 Concerning the house which thou art in building, if thou wilt walke in myne ordinaunces, and execute my lawes, and kepe all my commaundementes to walke in them: then wyll I make ii.Reg.vii.b. good vnto thee my promise * which I promysed Dauid thy father:
Exo.xxv.b. 13 *And I will dwell among the children of Israel, and will not forsake my people Israel.
14 Solomon therefore built the house, C and finished it.
15 And seeled the walles of the house within with boordes of Cedar tree: euen frō the pauement of the house vnto the roofe did he seele the walles of it within with Cedar tree: and boorded the floore of the house with planckes of firre.
16 And he builded twentie cubites in the fydes of the quier of the temple both floore & walles with boordes of Cedar: and dressed it within the secret place of the temple, euen in the most holy.
17 But the house, that is the temple before it, was fourtie cubites [long.]
18 And the Cedar of the house within, was carued with knoppes, and grauen with flowres: & all was Cedar timber, so that no stone was sene.
19 And the quier that was within the temple he prepared, to set there the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde. D 20 And the quier "before was twentie cu- "Or, within.
bites long, & twentie cubites in breadth, and twentie cubites in height: And he couered it with pure golde, and boorded the aulter with Cedar.
21 So Solomon couered the house within with pure golde: And he made golde barres runne along the quier, which he had couered with golde.
22 And the whole house he ouerlayde *with golde vntil he had ended it: also al the aulter that was in the quier he ouer-

layde

layde with golde.

23 And within the quier he made two* Cherubims of " Oliue tree ten cubites hie.

24 Fiue cubites long was a wing of the one Cherub, & fiue cubites long was a wing of the other Cherub: so that from the vttermost part of one wing, vnto the vttermost part of the other, were ten cubites.

25 And the other Cherub was ten cubites hie also: so that both the Cherubs were of one measure, and one size:

26 For the height of the one Cherub was ten cubites, and so was it of the other.

27 And he put the Cherubs within the inner house:* And the Cherubs stretched out their winges, so that the one wing of the one touched the one wall, and the one wing of the other touched the other wall: And the other two winges of them touched one another in the middest of the house.

28 And he ouerlayde the Cherubs with golde.

29 And in all the walles of ỹ house round about, he made figures of carued & seeled worke: [asnamely] pictures of Cherubs, & paulme trees, & grauen flowres, [both] within [in the quier] and without [in the temple.]

30 And the floore of the house he couered with golde, [both] within [in the quier] and [also] without [in the temple.]

31 And in the entering of the quier, he made two doores of Oliue tree: And both the vpper & two side postes were fiue square.

32 The two doores also were of oliue tree, & he graued them with grauing of Cherubs and paulme trees and grauen flowres, & couered them with golde, & layde thinne plates of golde vpon the Cherubs and paulme trees.

33 And so made he for the doore of the temple, postes of Oliue tree foure square.

34 The two doores were of firre tree, and either doore with foulding leaues.

35 And he graued thereon Cherubs, paulme trees, & carued flowres: and couered the carued worke with golde finelie wrought.

36 And he built the inner court with three rowes of hewed stone, and one rowe of Cedar wood.

37 In the fourth yere was the foundation of the house of the Lorde layde, euen in the moneth " Zif. * April.

38 And in the leuenth yere, in the moneth " Bul (which is the eyght moneth) was the house full finished throughout all the partes thereof, according to all the fashion of it: And so was he seuen yeres in building it. * October.

1 The buylding of the houses of Salomon. 15 The excellent workemanship of Hiram in the peeces which he made for the temple.

1 BVT Solomon was buildinge his owne house thirteene yeres, and finished it all.

2 And he built ỹ house in the wood Libanon, an hundred cubites long, and fiftie cubites broade, and thirtie cubites hie: And it stoode vpon foure rowes of Cedar pillers, and Cedar beames were layde vpon the pillers.

3 And the roofe was Cedar aboue vpon the beames that laye on the pillers, euen .xlv. beames in fifteene rowes.

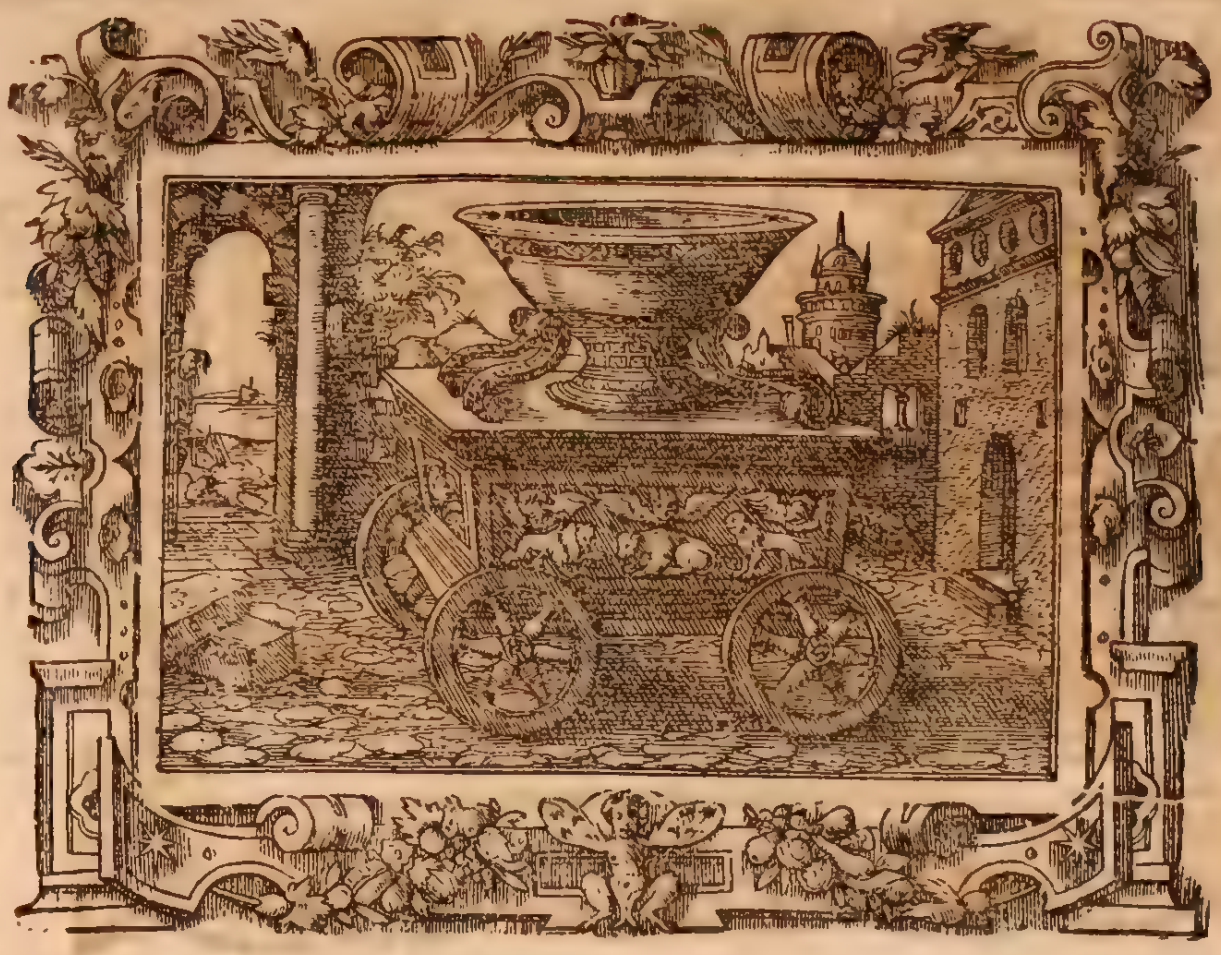
4 And there were windowes in three rowes, and the windowes were one against another three folde.

5 And al the doores with the syde postes & the vpper postes were foure square, and had windowes one against another three folde.

6 And he made a porche by the pillers [that bare vp the house] fiftie cubites long, and thirtie cubites broade, and the porche was before those and the other pillers: for there was a thicke tree set before them.

7 Then he made a porche to sit & iudge in, euen a porche of iudgmēt, seeled with Cedar throughout all the pauementes.

8 And his house wherein he dwelt had an other hall, more inward then the porche, of lyke worke: And then Solomō made an house for Pharaos daughter (*whom he had taken to wyfe) lyke vnto the fashion of the porche. iii. Reg. iii. a.



9 And all these were of the best stones, hewed after a measure and sawed with sawes within and without, from the foundation vnto the " beames that laye aboue, after the measure, and euen so on the out syde toward the great court. " These beames were layde vpon frames, that hanged out on the vpper of the wall the breadth of a hand.

10 And

10 And the foundation was layde vpon rich stones, and that very great stones, whereof some were ten cubites, and some eyght cubites.
11 And aboue were riche stones, squared after a certayne rule, and couered with Cedar.
12 And the great court round about, was with three rowes of hewed stones, and one rowe of Cedar planckes, after the maner of the inner court of the house of the Lorde, and of the porche of the temple.
a.Par.ii.a. 13 *And king Solomon sent and fet one
C Hiram out of Tyre,
14 A widowes sonne of ỹ tribe of Nephthalim, his father being a man of Tyre:
which Hiram was a craftesman in brasse, *ful of wisedome, vnderstanding, Exo.xx.a. and cunning, to worke all maner of worke in brasse: And he came to king
Solomon, and wrought all his worke.
Iere.xi.c. 15 For he cast * two pillers of brasse of eyghteene cubites hie a peece: & a string of twelue cubites did compasse either of them about.
16 And he made two pommels of moul-ten brasse, [after the fashion of a crowne,] to set on the toppes of the pillers: The height of the one head peece contayned fiue cubites, and the height of the other head peece contayned fiue cubites also.
17 He made networke, & wrythen worke like chaines for the pommels vpon the head peeces that were on the top of the pillers: euen seuen [rowes] vpon the one head peece, and seuen vpon the other.
18 And so he made the pillers, and two D rowes of pomegranets rounde about in the one networke to couer the pommels that were vpon the top: and this he did also, for the other head peece.
19 And the pommels that were on the top of the pillers, were after lillie worke in the porche foure cubites.
20 And the pommels vpon the two pillers had also aboue ouer against the middest within the networke: [pomegranets] and vpon the second head peece were there two hundred pomegranets in [two] rowes round about.
21 And he set vp the pillers in the porch of the temple: And when he had set vp the right piller, he called the name ther-of Jachin: and when he had set vp the left piller, he called the name thereof Boaz.
22 And vpon the top of the pillers [were] lillie worke: & so was the workmanship of the pillers finished.
23 And he made a moulten lauatorie ten cubites wide from brim to brim, round in compasse, and fiue cubites hie: And a string of thirtie cubites did compasse it about.
24 And vnder the brim of it there were knoppes round about, ten in one cubite, and they compassed the lauatorie round C about: And the knoppes were cast with it in two rowes when it was cast.

25 And

25 And it stoode on twelue oxen, of which three loked toward the north, three toward the west, three toward the south, and three toward the east: and the lauatorie stoode vpon them, and al their hinder partes were inward.

26 It was an hand breadth thicke, and the brym was wrought lyke the brym of a cup with flowres of lilies, and it contained two thousand battes.

27 And he made ten feete of brasse: foure cubites long, and foure cubites broade a peece, and three cubites hie.

28 And the worke of the feete was on this maner: They had sides, and the sides were betweene the ledges.

29 And on the sides that were betweene the ledges, were lions, oxen, and Cherubs: and likewise vpō the ledges that were aboue: and beneath the lions and oxen, were certayne additions made of thynne worke.

30 And vnder euery foote were foure brasen wheeles, and " boordes of brasse: and in the foure corners thereof vnder the lauatorie, were vndersetters moulten at the side of euery addition.

31 And the stalke of the lauatorie was in the middle of it, and aboue one cubite: But the stalke thereof was round after the worke of the foote, a cubite & a halfe: and also vpon the stalke were graumgs with their bands, foure square and not round.

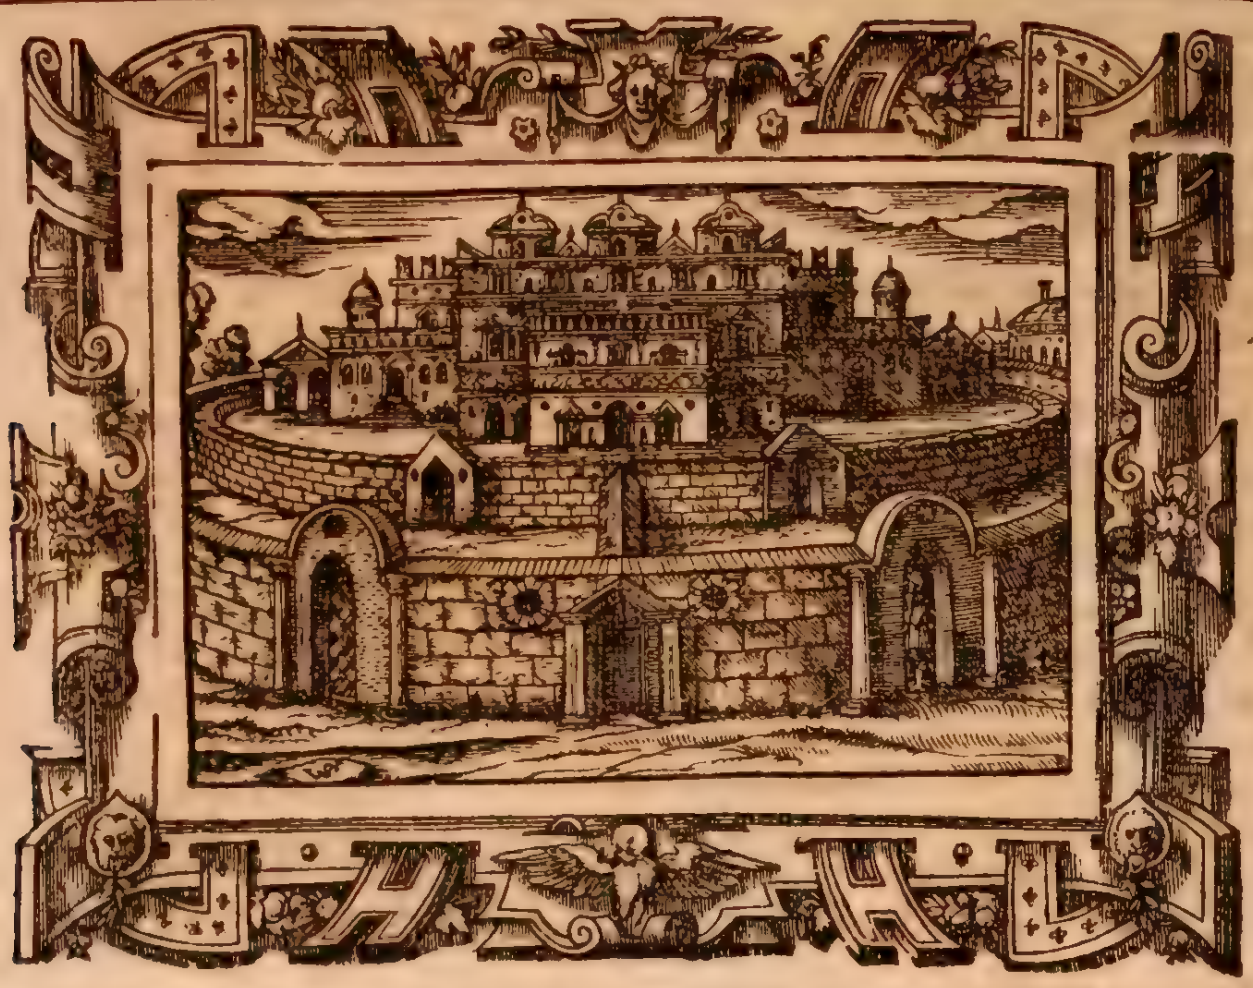
32 And vnder the sydes were foure wheeles, and the axeltrees ioyned fast to the bottome, and the height of euery wheele was a cubite and an halfe.

33 And the workmanship of the wheeles was lyke the worke of a charet wheele: and the axeltrees, the naueiles, spokes, and shaftes, were al moulten.

34 And there were foure vndersetters in the foure corners of one foote, & the vndersetters were of ỹ very bottome selfe.

35 And in the height of the bottome was there a rounde compasse of halfe a cubite hie: and in that height of the bottome there proceeded both ledges and sydes out of the same.

36 For in the boordes of the ledges and on the sydes, he had grauen pictures of Cherubims, lions, & paulme trees, one by another rounde about.



37 Thus made he the ten feete after this maner: and they had all one fashion of casting, one measure, and one syse.

38 Then made he ten lauers of brasse, one lauer containing fourtie battes: and euery lauer was foure cubites, & vpon euery one of the ten feete, he put one lauer.

39 And he put fiue of those feete on the ryght syde of the house, and other fiue on the left: and he set the lauatorie on the right syde of the house eastward, and toward the south.

40 And Hiram made pots, shouels, and basons, & so finished all the worke that he made king Solomon for the house of the Lorde:

41 That is to say, two pillers, and two round round head peeces that were to be set on the toppes of the two pillers.

42 And foure hundred pomegranates for the two networkes, euen two rowes of pomegranates in one networke to couer the two head peeces that were to be set on the toppes of the pillers:
43 And the ten feete, and ten lauers on the feete:
44 The lauatorie, and twelue oxen vnder it:
45 And pottes, shouels, and basons: And all these vessels which Hiram made to king Solomõ for the house of the Lord, were of bright brasse.
46 In the playne of Jordane did the king cast them [euen] in the thicke claye, betweene Socoh and Zarthan.
47 And Solomon left all the vessels [vnwayed] because they were so exceeding many, neither founde they out the waight of the brasse.
48 And so Solomon made al the vessels that parteyned vnto the house of the Lorde, the golden aulter, and the golden table wheron the shew bread was:
49 And fiue candelsticke for the ryght side, and fiue for the left before the quier, of pure golde, with flowres, lampes, and snuffers of golde.
50 And bowles, flat peeces, basons, spoones, & masours, of pure golde: and hyndges made he of golde, both for the doores of the quier the place most holy, and for the doores of the temple also.
51 And so was ended all the worke that king Solomon made for the house of the Lorde: And* Solomon brought in the thinges which Dauid his father had dedicated, euen the siluer, golde, and vessels, and layde them vp among the treasures of the house of the Lord. ii.Par.iiii.

¶ The .viii. Chapter.

4 The arke is borne into the temple. 10 A cloude filleth the temple.
15 The king blesseth the people.

1 Then* Solomon gathered the elders of Israel, & al the heads of the tribes, and them that were captaynes amõg the fathers of the children of Israel, vnto him in Hierusalem, that they might bring vp the arke of the appoyntment of the Lorde* out of the citie of Dauid, which is Sion. i.Par.v.a. ii.Reg.vi.
2 And all the men of Israel assembled vnto king Solomon to the feast that falleth in the moneth* Ethanim, which is the seuenth moneth. *September.
3 And al the elders of Israel were come, and and the priestestooke vp the arke,

4 And they bare the arke of the Lorde, the tabernacle of the congregation, and all the holy vessels that were in the tabernacle: those dyd the priestes and the leuites beare.
5 And king Solomon and all the congregation of Israel that were assembled vnto him and went with him before the arke, did offer sheepe and oxen, that could not be tolde nor numbred for multitude.
6 And so the priestes brought the arke of the appoyntment of the Lord vnto his place euen into the quier of the temple and place most holy, vnder the winges of the Cherubs:
7 For the Cherubs stretched out their winges ouer the place of the arke, and couered both it and also the staues therof a hie vpon it.
8 And they drew out the staues, that the endes of them might appeare out of the holy place within the quier, but they were not seene without, and there they haue ben vnto this day.
9 And there was nothing in the arke * (a) saue the two tables of stone, which Moyses put there at Horeb, in ỹ which [tables] the Lorde made an appoyntment with the children of Israel when he brought them out of the lande of Egypt.
10 And it fortuned that when the priestes were come out of the holy place, the cloude filled the house of the Lorde, 11 That the priestes could not stand and minister because of the cloude: for the glory of the Lorde had filled the house of the Lorde.
12 Then spake Solomon: The Lorde* saide that he would dwell in the darke cloude.
13 I haue built thee an house to dwell in, an habitation for thee to abyde in for euer.
14 And the king turned his face, and blessed all the congregation of Israel: and all the congregation of Israel stoode still.
15 And he saide: Blessed be the Lorde God of Israel, which spake with his mouth vnto Dauid my father, * & hath with his hand fulfilled it, saying:
16 Sence the day that I brought my people Israel out of Egypt, I chose no cite of all the tribes of Israel to build an house, that my name might be therein:
But I haue chosen * Dauid to be ruler ouer my people of Israel.
17 And it was in the heart of Dauid my father to build an house for the name of the Lorde God of Israel:
18 And the Lorde saide vnto Dauid my father: Whereas it was in thyne heart to build an house vnto my name, thou diddest well that thou wast so minded:
19 Neuertheless, thou shalt not build the house: but thy sonne that shall come out of thy loynes, he shall build the house vnto my name.
20 And the Lorde hath made good his word that he spake, and I am risen vp in the roome of Dauid my father, and sit on the seate of Israel, as the Lorde promysed, and haue built an house for the name of the Lorde God of Israel:
21 And I haue prepared therein a place for the arke, wherein is the couenaunt of the Lorde which he made with our fathers when he brought them out of the lande of Egypt.
22 Solomon stoode before the aulter of the Lorde in the sight of all the congregation of Israel, and stretched out his handes toward heauen, and sayde:
23 * Lord God of Israel, there is no God like thee in heauen aboue, or in the earth beneath, thou that kepest couenaunt & mercy for thy seruauntes that walke before thee with all their heart.
24 Thou that hast kept with thy seruaũt Dauid my father that thou promisedst him: Thou spakest also with thy mouth and hast fulfilled it with thyne hand, as it is come to passe this day.
25 Therfore now Lorde God of Israel, keepe with thy seruaunt Dauid my father that thou promisedst him, saying, * Thou shalt not be without a man in my sight to syt on the seate of Israel: so that thy childrẽ take heede to their way, that they walke before me, as thou hast walked in my sight.
26 And now O God of Israel, let thy word be verified which thou spakest vnto thy seruaunt Dauid my father.
27 Will God in deede dwell on the earth? Beholde, * the heauens and heauens of all heauens are not able to contayne thee: and how should then this house do it that I haue builded?
28 Haue thou therefore respect vnto the prayer of thy seruaunt, and to his supplication O Lorde my God, to heare the crye and prayer which thy seruaunt

30 And regarde thou the supplication of thy seruaunt and of thy people Israel when they pray in this place: and heare thou in heauen thy dwelling place, and when thou heareſt haue mercy.
ii.Par.vi.d. 31 * If any man trespasse against his neyghbour, & there go an oth betweene them, and the one compel the other, and come, swearing before thyne aulter in this house:

iii.Reg.18.a. 35 *If heauen be shut vp, and there be no rayne, because they haue sinned against thee: yet if they pray in this place, and knowledge vnto thy name, and turne from their sinne through thy scourging of them:
36 Then heare thou in heauen, and be mercyfull vnto the sinnes of thy seruauntes, and of thy people Israel, that thou shewe them a good way to walke in, and geue rayne vpon the lande that thou hast geuen to thy people to inherite.

44 If thy people go out to battell against their enemie whythersoeuer thou shalt send them, and shal pray vnto the Lord *[toward] the way of the citie which thou hast chosen, and [toward] the house that I haue built for thy name: Dan.vi.c.

48 And so turne agayne vnto thee with all their heart and all their soule in the laude of their enemies which led them away captiue, and pray vnto thee, [toward] the way of their land which thou gaueſt vnto their fathers, and [toward] the citie which thou hast chosen, and [toward] the house which I haue built for thy name:

haue sinned against thee, and vnto all their iniquities wherby they haue done wickedly against thee, & get thou them the fauour of those whiche led them away captiue, that they may haue compassion on them.

51 For they be thy people, and thyne inheritaunce, whiche thou broughtest out of Egypt, euen from the middest of the fornace of iron.

52 And let thyne eyes be open vnto the prayer of thy seruaunt, and vnto the prayer of thy people Israel, *to hearken vnto them in all that they call for vnto thee.

53 For thou dyddest seperate them from among all the nations of the earth to be thyne owne inheritaunce, as thou saydest by the hande of Moyses thy seruaunt, when thou broughtest our fathers *out of Egypt O Lorde God.

54 *And when Solomon had made an ende of praying all this prayer and supplication vnto the Lorde, he arose from before the aulter of the Lorde, (b) & from kneling on his knees, & from stretching of his handes vp to heauen,

55 And stoode & blessed all the congregatiō of Israel, with a loude voyce, saying:

56 Blessed be the Lorde that hath geuen rest vnto his people Israel, according to al that he promised: *there hath not fayled one worde of all the good promise which he promised by the hand of Moyses his seruaunt.

57 The Lorde our God be with vs, as he was with our fathers, and forsake vs not, neither leaue vs:

58 But that he may bowe our heartes vnto him, that we may walke in all his wayes, & kepe his commaundementes, his statutes, and his lawes whiche he commaunded our fathers.

59 And these my wordes whiche I haue prayed before the Lorde, be nye vnto the Lorde our God day and night, that he defende the cause of his seruaunt, and the cause of his people Israel, what thing soeuer chaunce at any time:

60 That al nations of ỹ earth may knowe that the Lord is God, and none but he.

61 Let your heart therfore be perfect with the Lord our God, that ye walke in his statutes, and kepe his commaundementes, as this day.

62 And the king and al Israel with him offered offeringes before the Lorde.

63 *And Solomon offered a sacrifice of peace offringes whiche he offered vnto the Lorde [to wit] twentie and two thousande oxen, and an hundred and twentie thousande sheepe: And so the king and all the children of Israel dedicated the house of the Lorde. *ii. Par. vii. a.

64 The same day dyd the king halowe the middle of the court that was before the house of the Lord: for there he offered burnt offeringes, meate offeringes, and the fat of the peace offeringes: because the brasen aulter that was before the Lorde, was to litle to receaue the burnt offringes, meate offeringes, and the fat of the peace offeringes.

65 And Solomon helde that same time an hye feast, and all Israel with him, a verie great congregation, euen from the entring in of Hemath vnto the riuer of Egypt before the Lorde our God (c) seuen dayes, and seuen dayes, euen foureteene dayes.

(c) Seuen dayes for the dedication, and seuen for the feast.

66 And the eyght day he sent the people away, & they blessed the king, and went vnto their tentes, ioyous and with glad heart, because of all the goodnesse that the Lorde had done for Dauid his seruaunt, and for Israel his people.

The .ix. Chapter.

2 The Lorde appeareth the seconde time to Solomon. 11 Solomon geueth cities to Hiram.
20 The Chanaanites become tributaries. 26 He sendeth foorth shippes for golde.

1 AND when Solomon had* finished the buylding of the house of the Lorde, and the kinges palace, and all that he had in his minde & was appoynted to make:

2 The Lorde appeared to Solomon the second time, as he appeared vnto him at Gibeon.

3 And ỹ Lord said vnto him, I haue heard thy prayer & thy intercession that thou hast made before me: For I haue halowed this house, which thou hast built to put my name there for euer, & mine eies & myne hearte shalbe there perpetually.

4 And if thou wilt walke before me, as Dauid thy father walked, in purenes of heart and in righteousnes, to do all that I haue commaunded thee, and wilt kepe my statutes, and my lawes:

5 Then will I stablishe the seate of thy kingdome vpon Israel for euer, as I promised to Dauid thy father, saying: *Thou shalt not be without a mā vpon the seate of Israel.

6 But and if ye and your children turne away from me, and will not kepe my commaundementes and my statutes whiche I haue set before you, but go and serue other gods, & worship them:

7 Then will I weede Israel out of the lande which I haue geuen them, and this house which I haue halowed * for my name, will I cast out of my sight, and Israel shalbe a prouerbe and a fable among all nations,

8 And this " house shalbe taken away: so that euery one that passeth by it, shalbe astonied, and shall hysse, and they shall say: *why hath the Lord done thus vnto this lande, and to this house?

9 And they shal aunswere: Because they forsoke the Lorde their God, whiche brought their fathers out of the land of Egypt, and haue taken hold vpon other gods, and haue worshipped them, and serued them: therfore hath the Lorde brought vpon them all this euyll.

10 *And it fortuned, that at the ende of twentie yeres when Solomon had finished the buylding of the two houses, [that is to wyte,] the house of the Lorde and the kinges palace, 11 (And Hiram the king of Tyre brought Solomon timbre of Cedar, & firre trees, golde, and whatsoeuer he desired) Then Solomon gaue Hiram twentie cities in the lande of Galilee.

12 And *Hiram came out from Tyre to see the cities whiche Solomon had geuen hym, and they pleased him not.

13 And he sayde: what cities are these which thou hast geuen me my brother? And he called them the lande of barren vnto this day.

14 And Hiram sent the king fyre score talentes of gold.

15 (And this is the summe whiche king Solomon raysed for a tribute when he buylded the house of the Lorde, and his owne house, and Millo, and the wall of Hierusalem, and Hazor, and Megeddo, and Gazer.

16 For Pharao king of Egypt went vp, and toke Gazer and burnt it with fire, and slue the Chanaanites that dwelt in the citie, and gaue it for a present vnto his daughter, Solomons wyfe.

17 And Solomon buylt Gazer & Bethhoron the neather,

18 And Baalath and Thamar in the wildernesse in the lande:

19 And all the treasure cities that Solomon had, and cities for his charettes, and cities for his horsemen, and all that Solomon desired, and would buyld in Hierusalem, in Libanon, and in all the lande of his dominion)

20 And al the people that were left of the Amorites, Hethites, Pherezites, Heuites and Jebusites, whiche were not of the children of Israel, 21 Their children that were left after them in the lande, whom the children of Israel also were not able to destroy: those dyd Solomon compell to bring tribute, vnto this day.

22 But of the children of Israel dyd Solomon * make no bondmen: But they were men of warre, his ministers, his lordes, his captaynes, and rulers of his charettes, and his horsemen.

23 And these were the lordes that were set ouer Solomons worke [euen] fiue hundred were they and fiftie, and they ruled the people that wrought ỹ worke.

24 And Pharaos daughter came vp out of the citie of Dauid, vnto her house which Solomon had buylt for her: and then dyd he also buylde Millo.

25 And thryse a yere did Solomon offer burnt offrynges & peace offrynges vpon the aulter whiche he buylt vnto the Lorde, and he burnt incense vpon the aulter that was before the Lord, and so he finished the house.

26 And king Solomon made a nauie of shippes in Azion Gaber, which is beside Eloth, on the brinke of the red sea, in the lande of Edom.

27 And Hiram sent by shippe also of his seruauntes, that were shipmen and had knowledge of the sea, with the seruauntes of Solomon:

28 And they came to Ophir, and set from thence (a) foure hundred and twentie talentes of golde, and brought it to king Solomon.

The.x. Chapter.

1 The queene of Saba commeth to heare the wysdome of Solomon. 18 His royall throne. 23 His power and magnificence.

1 AND the *queene of Saba hearing the fame of Solomon (concerning the name of the Lord) came to proue him with harde questions.

*1.Reg.10.a. Mat.xii.d. Luc.xi.a.

2 And she came to Hierusalem with a verie great trayne, with camels that bare sweete odours, and gold exceeding much, & precious stones: And she came to Solomon, and communed with him of al that was in her heart.

3 And Solomon declared vnto her all her questions, so that there was not one thing hyd from the king which he expounded not vnto her.

4 And the queene of Saba considered al Solomons wysdome, & the house that he had buylded,

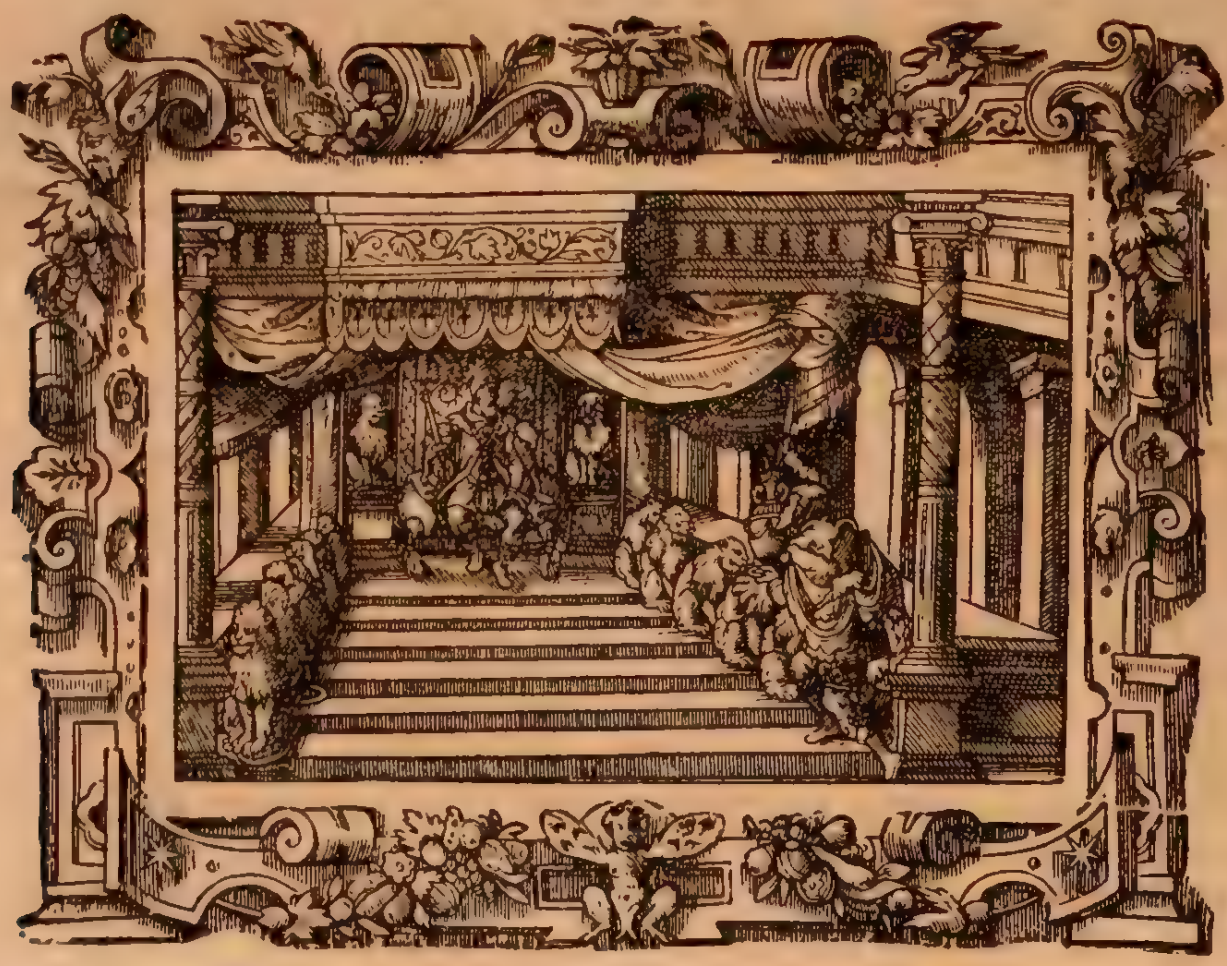
5 And the meate of his table, and the sitting of his seruauntes, the order of his ministers & their apparell, & his drinke, and his burnt sacrifices that he offred in the house of the Lorde: and she was astonied.

6 And she sayde vnto the king: It was a true word that I heard in myne owne land of thy sayinges, & of thy wisdome.

7 Howbeit I beleued it not, till I came & sawe it with myne eyes: And beholde, B the one halfe was not tolde me: for thy wysdome and prosperitie exceedeth the fame which I heard of thee.

8 Happy are thy men, and happy are these thy seruauntes whiche stand euer before thee, and heare thy wysdome.

9 Blessed be the Lorde thy God, whiche loued thee, to set thee on the seate of Israel, (a) because the Lorde loued Israel for euer, & made thee king (b) to do equite and righteousnes.



(a) God loueth that people to whom he geueth a wyse ruler.
(b) The office of a king.

10 And she gaue the king sixe score talentes of golde, and of sweete odours exceeding much, and precious stones: There came no more suche aboundaunce of sweete odours, as the queene of Saba gaue to king Solomon.

11 The naue also of the *shippes of Hiram (that caried golde from Ophir) brought lykewyse great plentie of Almuge trees, and precious stones from Ophir.

*1.Reg.9.c

12 And the king made of the Almuge trees pillers for the house of the Lorde and for the kinges palace, and made harpes and psalteries for singers: There came no more suche Almuge trees, nor were any more seene vnto this day.

13 And king Solomon gaue vnto the queene of Saba according to all her desire whatsoeuer she asked, besides that he gaue her of a free wil with his owne hande: And so she returned vnto her owne countrey, both she and her seruauntes.

℣ 14 The waight of golde that came to Solomon in one yere, was sixe hundred threescore and sixe talentes of golde, 15 Besydes that he had of marchauntes, and of the marchaundises of the spices, and of all the kinges of Arabia, & of the lordes of the countrey.

16 And king Solomon made two hundred targettes of beaten golde: sixe hundred sicles of golde went to a target.

17 And he made three hundred shieldes of beaten golde: three pounde of gold went to one shielde, and the king put them in 3.Reg 17.a. the *house of the wood of Libanon.

18 And the king made a great seate of iuorie, and couered it with the best golde.

19 And the seate had sixe steppes, and the toppe of the seate was rounde behinde, & there were pommelles on either syde on the place of the seate, and two lions stoode besyde the pommelles.

20 And there stoode twelue lions on the steppes, sixe on a syde: There was none lyke worke seene in any kingdome.

℣ Deu.xvii.d. 21 *And al king Solomons drinking vessels were of golde, and lykewyse all the vessels of the house of the wood of Libanon were of pure golde: And as for siluer, it was nothing worth in the dayes of Solomon:

22 For the kinges naue of shippes went on the sea vnto Tharsis with the naue of Hirams shippes: euen once in three yeres went the naue to Tharsis, and brought golde and siluer, Elephantes teeth, apes, and peacockes.

23 *And so king Solomon exceeded al the ii.Par.ix.f. kinges of the earth both in ryches and wysdome.

24 And all the worlde resorted to Solomon, to heare his wysdome which God had put in his heart:

25 And brought him euery man his present, vessels of siluer, & vessels of golde, rayment, harnesse, and sweete odours, and horses, and mules, yere by yere.

26 And Solomon gathered together charettes and horsemen: and he had a thousande and foure hundred charettes, and twelue thousande horsemen, whom he bestowed in the charet cities, and with the king at Hierusalem.

27 *And the king made siluer in Hierusa- ii.Par.i.d. lem as plenteous as stones, and Cedar as plenteous as the wilde fegge trees that growe aboundauntly in the fieldes.

28 Also Solomon had horses brought out of Egypt, and fine linnen: the kinges marchauntes receaued the linnen for a ℣ price.

29 A charet came vp out of Egypt for sixe hun-hundred sicles of siluer, that is, one horse for an hundred and fiftie: And euen so for al the kinges of the Hethites, and for the kinges of Syria, did they bring them out through their handes.

The .xi. Chapter.

1. Solomon hath a thousand wyues and concubines, which bryng him to idolatrie.
14 His God rayseth vp aduersaries against him. 43 He dieth.

BVt king * Solomō loued many outlandishe women, & the daughter of Pharao, and women of the Moabites, Ammonites, Edomites, Zidonites, & Hethites:

A 1 Iosue 23.

2 wher as yet concerning these nations, the Lorde sayd vnto the children of Israel: *Go not ye into them, nor let them come into, els will they turne your hartes after their gods: Neuertheless, Solomon claue vnto them in loue.

Exo 34. b.

3 (a) And * he had seuen hundred queenes, and three hundred concubines: and his wyues turned away his heart.

Deu. xvii. d. (a) God forbade to his people Israelites plurality of wyues as well to increase of their race, as also in the mistery. For Agar was Sara Abrahams wyfe, Lea and Rachel Iacobs wyues, were figures of the Synagoge, and of the true church: but Christ hath added vs to perfect vnitie saying: there shalbe two in one flesh. Mat. 19. Mar. 10.

4 For it came to passe when Solomon was olde, his wyues turned his heart after other gods: and his heart was not perfect with the Lord his God, as was the heart of Dauid his father.

5 For Solomon followed Astaroth the god of the Zidons, and Milcom the abhomination of the Ammonites.

6 And Solomon wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and followed not the Lorde perfectly, as dyd Dauid his father.

B 7 For then dyd Solomon buylde an hye place for Chamos the abhomination of Moabim the hill that is before Hierusalem, & vnto Moloch the abhomination of the children of Ammon.

Where it appeareth what hurt straunger is to vse with infidels and wyues of straunge religion.

8 (b) And lykewyse dyd he for all his outlandishe wyues, which burnt cense and offered vnto their gods.

iii Reg. iii. a. xxi. x.

9 And the Lorde was angry with Solomon, because his heart was turned frō the Lord God of Israel * which had appeared vnto him twyse,

10 And gaue him a charge concerning this thyng, that he shoulde not followe other gods: But he kept not that which the Lorde commaunded him.

11 Wherfore the Lorde sayde vnto Solomon: Forasmuche as this is done of thee, and thou hast not kept myne appoyntment, and my statutes whiche I commaunded thee, I wil rent the kingdome from thee, and will geue it to thy seruaunt.

12 Notwithstanding, in thy dayes I will not do it, because of Dauid thy father: but wil take it frō the hand of thy sonne.

13 Howbeit, I will not take away all the kingdome: But will geue one (c) tribe to thy sonne, because of Dauid my seruaūt, and because of Hierusalem whiche I haue chosen.

(c) Because the tribes of Iuda and Beniamin had their possessions annexed, they are here taken as one tribe.

C 14 And the Lorde stirred vp an aduersarie vnto Solomon, euen one Hadad an Edomite, of the kinges seede, whiche was in Edom.

15 For when Dauid was in Edom, and Joab the captayne of the hoast was gone vp to burie them that were slaine, he smote all the men children in Edom:

16 (For sixe monethes dyd Joab remayne there, and all Israel, till he had destroyed all the men children of Edom.)

17 And this Hadad fled, and certaine other Edomites of his fathers seruaūtes with hym, to come into Egypt, Hadad beyng yet a litle childe.

18 And they arose out of Madian, & came to Paran, and toke men with them out of Paran, and came to Egypt vnto Pharao king of Egypt, Whiche gaue him an house, and appoynted him vittailes, and gaue him lande.

19 And Hadad gat great fauour in the sight of Pharao, so that he gaue him to wyfe the sister of his owne wyfe, euen the syster of Thahpenes the queene.

20 And the sister of Thahpenes bare him Genubath his sonne, whō Thahpenes norished in Pharaos house: And Genubath was with Pharaos housholde among the sonnes of Pharao.

D 21 And when Hadad hearde in Egypt that Dauid was layde to sleepe with his fathers, & that Joab the captayne of the hoaste was dead also, he sayde to Pharao: Let me depart, that I may go to myne owne countrey.

22 Pharao sayde vnto him: what hast thou lacked here with me, that thou wouldest thus go to thyne owne countrey? he answered, Nothing: howbeit, let me go.

23 And God stirred him vp another aduersarie, one Rezon the sonne of Eliada, whiche fled from his lorde Hadadezer king of Zoba:

24 And he gathered men vnto him, and became captayne ouer the companie when Dauid slue them: And they went to Damasco, and dwelt there, and raigned in Damasco.

25 Therfore was he an aduersarie to Israel all the dayes of Solomon, and this was the mischiefe, in that Hadad dyd abhorre Israel and raigned ouer Syria.

26 And Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, an Ephrathite of Zareda (whose mother was called Zeruah, whiche was a wydowe) and he Solomons seruaunt, lyft vp his hande against the king.

27 But this was the cause that he lift vp his hande against the king: Solomon buylt Mello, and mended the broken places of the citie of Dauid his father.

E 28 And this felowe Jeroboam was a man of strength & courage: And Solomon sawe the young man that he was able to do the worke, he made him ruler ouer all the charge of the house of Joseph.

29 And it chaunced at that season that Jeroboam went out of Jerusalem, and the prophete Ahia the Silonite met him by the way, hauing a newe mantel on him, and they two were alone in the fielde.

30 Ahia taught the newe mantel that was on him, & rent it in twelue peeces, 31 And sayd to Jeroboam, Take thee ten peeces: For thus sayth the Lorde God of Israel, Behold, I will rent the kingdome out of the handes of Solomon, and will geue ten tribes to thee.

ii. Par. vii. c. 32 *And he shal haue one for my seruaunt Dauids sake, and for Hierusalem, the citie which I haue chosen out of all the tribes of Israel:

33 Because they haue forsaken me, & haue worshipped Astharoth the god of the Zidons, and Chamos the god of the Moabites, & Milcom the god of the children of Ammon, & haue not walked in my wayes, to fulfill my pleasure, my statutes, and my lawes, as dyd Dauid his father.

34 I will not take the whole kingdome out of his hand: But I will make him chiefe all his lyfe long for Dauid my seruauntes sake whom I chose: because he kept my commaundementes and my statutes:

35 *But I will take the kingdome out of his sonnes hande, and will geue it vnto thee, euen ten tribes of it: 3 Reg. xi. Psal. lxxxviii.

36 And vnto his sonne will I geue one tribe, that Dauid my seruaut may haue a light allway before me in Hierusalem, the citie which I haue chosen me to put my name there. F

37 And I will take thee, and thou shalt raigne according to all that thy soule desireth, and shalt be king ouer Israel.

38 And if thou hearken vnto all that I commaunde thee, and wilt walke in my wayes, and do that is right in my sight, that thou kepe my statutes and my commaundementes as Dauid my seruaunt dyd, then will I be with thee, and buyld thee a sure house, as I buylt for my seruaunt Dauid, and will geue Israel vnto thee:

39 And I will for this [offence whiche Solomon hath committed] vexe the seede of Dauid, but not for euer. G

40 Solomon sought therfore to kil Jeroboam, and Jeroboam arose, and fled into Egypt, vnto Silac king of Egypt, and continued there in Egypt vntill the death of Solomon.

41 The rest of the wordes that concerne Solomon, and all that he dyd, and his wysdome, are they not written in the booke of the wordes of Solomon?

42 The tyme that Solomon raigned in Hierusalem vpon al Israel was fourtie yeres.

43 And Solomon slept with his fathers, and was buried in the citie of Dauid his father: and Rehoboam his sonne raigned in his steade.

The xii. Chapter.

1 Rehoboam succeedeth Solomon. 8 He refuseth the counsel of the auncient. 20 Jeroboam raigneth ouer Israel. 21 God commaundeth Rehoboam not to fight. 28 Jeroboam maketh golden calues.

A 1 AND* Rehoboam went to Sichē: for all Israel were come to Sichem, to make him king.

2 And when Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat whiche was yet in Egypt, heard of it:* for he fled to Egypt from the presence of king Solomon, and dwelt in Egypt.

3 So they sent, and called him: and Jeroboam and all the congregation of Israel came, & spake vnto Rehoboam, saying:

4 Thy father made our yocke greeuous, nowe therfore make thou the greenous seruice of thy father and his sore yocke whiche he put vpon vs, lighter, and we will serue thee.

5 And he sayde vnto them: Depart yet for the space of three dayes, and then come againe to me. And the people departed.

6 And king Rehoboam toke counsel with the olde men that stoode before Solomon his father, while he yet lyued, and sayd: what counsel geue ye, that I may haue matter to aunswere this people?

B 7 And they sayd vnto him: (a) If thou be a seruaunt vnto this people this day, and folowe their mindes, and aunswere them, & speake kinde wordes to them, they will be thy seruauntes for euer.

8 But he forsoke the counsell that the old men had geuen him, and called vnto his counsel young men, that were growē vp with him and wayted on him,

9 And he sayde vnto them: what counsell geue ye, that we may aunswere this people? for they haue communed with me, saying: Make the yocke whiche thy father did put vpon vs, lighter.

10 (b) And ỹ young men that were growen vp with him, spake vnto him, saying: Thus shalt thou speake vnto this people that haue sayd vnto thee, thy father made our yocke heauy, but make thou it vs lighter: Euen thus shalt thou say vnto them, My litle finger shalbe waygh-tier then my father was in the loynes.

11 And nowe where as my father did lade you & put a greeuous yocke vpon you, I will make it heauier: My father hath chastised you with roddes, but I will correct you with scourges.

12 And so Jeroboam and all the people came to Rehoboam the thirde day, as the king had appoynted, saying, Come to me againe the thirde day.

13 And the king aunswered the people churlishly, and left the old mens counsel that they gaue him:

14 And spake to them after the counsel of the young men, saying: My father made your yocke greeuous, and I will make it greeuouser: My father also chastised you with roddes, but I will chastise you with scourges. C

15 And the king hearkened not vnto the people: for it was the ordinaunce of God, that he might* perfourme his saying, whiche the Lord spake by Ahia the Silonite vnto Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat. iii.Re.xi.f.

16 And so when all Israel sawe that the king regarded them not, the people aunswered the king with these wordes, saying: *what portion haue we in Dauid? We haue no inheritaunce in the sonne of Isai: * To your tentes O Israel, nowe see to thyne owne house Dauid. And so Israel departed vnto their tentes. ii.Reg.xx.a ii.Para. x.d.

17 Howbeit, ouer the children of Israel which dwelt in the cities of Juda, dyd Rehoboam raigne still.

18 The king Rehoboam sent Aduram the receauer of the tribute, and all they of Israel stoned him to death: But king Rehoboam made speede to get him vp to his charet, and to flee to Hierusalem.

19 And they of Israel rebelled against the house of Dauid, vnto this day.

20 And when al Israel heard that Jeroboam was come againe, they sent, and called him vnto the multitude, and made him king ouer al Israel: and there was no tribe that folowed the house of Dauid, but Juda onely.

21 *And when Rehoboam was come to Hierusalem, he gathered all the house of Juda, with the tribe of Beniamin, an hundred and fourescore thousande of chosen men which were good warriours, to fight against the house of Israel, and to bring the kingdome againe to Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon. ii.Par.xi.a.

D 22 And the worde of God came vnto Semaia the (c) man of God, saying:

(c) The prophet of God.

23 Speake vnto Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon king of Juda, & vnto all the house of Juda and Beniamin, & to the remnaunt of the people, saying:

24 Thus sayeth the Lorde, Ye shall not go vp, nor yet fight against your brethren the children of Israel: returne euery man to his house, for this thing is my doyng. They hearkened therfore to the worde of the Lorde, and returned to depart, according to the word of the Lord.

25 Then Jeroboam buylt Sichem in mount Ephraim, and dwelt therin: and went from thence, *and buylt Penuel.

Iud.viii.d.

26 And Jeroboam thought in his heart: nowe shall the kingdome returne to the house of Dauid.

(d) worldlie politike against gods word.

27 (d) For if this people go vp and do sacrifice in the house of the Lorde at Hierusalem, then shall the heart of this people turne againe vnto their lorde Rehoboam king of Juda, and so shal they kill me, and go againe to Rehoboam king of Juda.

Tob.i.a. Ecc.xlvii.d. Ex.xxxii.d

28 *Wherupon the king toke counsel, and made two calues of golde, and sayd vnto them, It is muche for you to go vp to Hierusalem: *Behold O Israel, these are thy goddes, which brought thee out of the lande of Egypt. Ex.xxxii.a

29 And he set the one in Bethel, and the other set he in Dan.

30 And this thing turned to sinne: for the people went (because of the one) as farre as Dan.

31 And he made an house of hill aulters, *and made priestes of the lowest of the people, which were not of the sonnes of Leui. Num.iii.a. iii.xvi.g

32 And Jeroboam made a feast the fyfteene day of the eyght moneth, lyke vnto the feast that is in Juda, and offered on the aulter: And so did he in Bethel, to offer vnto the calues that he had made: And he put in Bethel the priestes of the hill aulters which he had made.

33 And he went vp to the aulter to burne incense Whiche he had made in Bethel the fyfteene day of the eyght moneth, euen in the moneth whiche he had imagined of his owne hearte: and made a solemne feast vnto the children of Israel, and offered vpon the aulter, and burnt incense.

The .xiii. Chapter.

1 Jeroboam is reprehended of the prophete. 4 His hand drieth vp. 15 The prophete is seduced, 24 And is killed of a lion. 33 The obstinacie of Jeroboam.

1 AND behold, ther came a (a) man of God out of Juda by the worde of the lord, vnto Bethel: and Jeroboam stoode by the aulter to put incense.

(a) A prophete

2 And he cried against the aulter in the worde of the Lorde, and sayd: O aulter aulter, thus sayeth the Lorde: Behold, a childe shall be borne vnto the house of Dauid, Josia by name, and vpon thee shall he offer the priestes of the hill aulters that burnt incense vpon thee, and mens bones shalbe burnt vpon thee.

3 And he gaue a token the same time, saying: This is the token that the Lorde hath spoken it: Beholde, the aulter shall rent, and the ashes that are vpon it shall fall out.

4 And when the king hearde the saying of the man of God Whiche had cryed against the aulter in Bethel, he stretched out his hande from the aulter, saying, Holde him: And his hand which he put foorth against him dried vp, & he coulde not pull it in againe to him.

5 The aulter also claue asunder, and the ashes fell out from the aulter, according to the token which the man of God had geuen by the worde of the Lorde.

6 And the king aunswered, and sayd vnto the man of God: * Oh pray vnto the Lorde thy God, and make intercession for me, that my hande may be restored me againe. And the mā of God besought the Lord, and the kinges hand was restored againe, and became as it was afore. Ephe.viii.b. Num.xxi.b Act.viii.c.

7 And the king sayde vnto the man of God: Come home with me, that thou mayest dine, and I will geue thee a reward.

8 And the man of God sayde vnto the king: If thou wouldest geue me halfe thyne house, I will not go in with thee, neither will I eate bread, nor drinke water in this place:

9 For

9 For so was it charged me through the word of the Lord, saying: Eate no bread nor drinke water, nor turne agayne by the same way that thou camest.
10 And so he went another way, and returned not by the way that he came to Bethel.
11 And there dwelt an olde prophet in Bethel, and his sonnes came and tolde him al the workes that the man of God had done that day in Bethel, and the wordes which he had spoken vnto the king tolde they their father also.
12 And their father sayde vnto them:
what way went he? And his sonnes shewed him what way the man of God went which came from Juda.
℄ 13 And he saide vnto his sonnes: Saddle me the asse. which when they had sad-led, he gat him vp thereon, 14 And went after the man of God, and founde him sytting vnder a tree, and he said vnto him: Art thou the man of God that camest from Juda? And he sayde,
I am.
15 He sayde vnto him: Come home with me, and eate bread.
16 He aunswered: I may not returne with thee, to go in with thee: neither wyl I eate bread, or drinke Water with thee in this place.
17 For it was saide to me in the word of the Lord: Thou shalt eate no bread, nor drinke water there, nor turne againe to go by the way that thou camest.
18 He saide vnto him: I am a prophet al-

the prophet that brought him againe:

vnto thee, Thou shalt eate no bread, nor had eaten bread, and droncke, he sadled cast in the way, and the asse and the lion stoode by the corse, and the lion had not eaten the carcasse, nor hurt the asse.

29 And the prophet toke vp the body of the man of God, and layde it vpon the asse, and brought it againe: and the olde prophet came to the citie to lament, and to burie him.
30 And he layde his body in his owne

ing] Alas my brother.
31 And when he had buryed him, he ℣ spake to his sonnes, saying: when I am dead, see that ye burie me in the sepul-

14 Moreouer, the Lord shal stirre him vp a king ouer Israel which shall destroy the house of Jeroboam in that day: But what is it now?

15 For the Lorde shall smyte Israel as when a reede is shaken in the water, & he shall weede Israel out of this good lande which he gaue to their fathers, & shall scatter them beyond "the ryuer, "Or, Euphrates. because they haue made them groues, and angred the Lorde.

16 And he shall geue Israel vp because of the sinnes of Jeroboam, which did sinne, and made Israel to sinne.

17 And Jeroboams wyfe arose, and departed, and came to Thirzah: & When she came to the threſsholde of the doore, the childe was dead.

18 And al Israel buried him, and lamenting him, according to the worde of the D Lorde which he spake by the hande of his seruaunt Ahia the prophet.

21 Rehoboam the sonne of Solomon raigned raigned in Juda: and Rehoboam was fourtie and one yeres olde when he began to raigne, & he raigned seuenteene yeres in Hierusalem, the citie which the Lorde did choose out of all the tribes of Israel, to put his name there: His mothers name was Naama, an Ammonite.

22 And Juda wrought wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and angred him in mo thinges then their fathers dyd in their sinnes which they sinned.

23 For they also made them hie places, images, and groues on euery hie hill, and vnder "euery thicke tree.

24 And there was a stewes of male children in the lande, and they did according to all the abhominations of the nations which the Lord cast out before the children of Israel.

27 In whose steade king Rehoboam made brasen shieldes, and committed them vnto the handes [of the keping] of the captaynes of the garde, which wayted at the doore of the kinges house.

1 Of Baasa. 6 Ela. 9 Zimri. 16 Amri. 31 Achab maryeth Jezebel.
34 Jericho is built againe.

A1 THen the worde of the Lorde came to Jehu the sonne of Hanani against Baasa, saying:

2 Forasmuch as I exalted thee out of the duste, and made thee captayne ouer my people Israel, and thou hast walked in the way of Jeroboam, and hast made my people Israel to sinne, to anger me with their sinnes:

3 Beholde, I will roote out the posteritie of Baasa, and the posteritie of his house: and will make thy house lyke the house of Jeroboã the sonne of Nabat.

4 * That man of Baasa which dyeth in the citie, him shall the dogges eate: and that man of him which dyeth in the fieldes, shall the foules of the ayre eate.

5 The rest of the wordes that concerne Baasa, and what he did, & his power, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Israel?

6 And so Baasa slept with his fathers, and was buried in Thirza, and Ela his sonne raigned in his steade.

B 7 And by the hande of the prophet Jehu the sonne of Hanani, came the worde of the Lord against Baasa, and against his house, & against all the wickednesse that he did in the sight of the Lorde, in angryng him with the worke of his owne handes, that he should be like the house of Jeroboam, and because he killed (a) him.

8 The twentie & sixth yere of Asa king of Juda, began Ela the sonne of Baasa to raigne ouer Israel in Thirza, two yeres.

9 And his seruaunt Zimri (which was captayne of halfe his charets) conspired against him as he was in Thirza drinking, and was druncken in the house of Arza, steward of his house in Thirza.

10 And Zimri came, and smote him, and killed him in the twentie & seuenth yere of Asa king of Juda, and raigned in his steade.

11 And it fortuned that when he was king* and sat on his seate, he slue al the house of Baasa, not leauing thereof one to pysse against a wall: yea, he slue his kinsefolkes and freendes also.

12 And thus did Zimri destroy all the house of Baasa, according to the worde of the Lorde, which he spake against Baasa by the hande of Jehu the prophet,

13 For all the sinnes of Baasa and sinnes of Ela his sonne which they sinned, and made Israel to sinne and angre the Lorde God of Israel with their vanities. C

14 The rest of the wordes that concerne Ela & all that he did, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Israel?

15 In the twentie & seuenth yere of Asa king of Juda, did Zimri raigne seuen dayes in Thirza: & the people was then in the hoast besiegng Gibbethon, a citie of the Philistines.

16 And the people in the hoast heard [one] saye, Zimri hath conspired, and slayne the king: wherefore all they of Israel made Amri the captayne of the hoast, king ouer Israel that same day, euen in the hoast.

17 And Amri departed vp from Gibbethon, and all Israel with him, and they besieged Thirza.

18 And when Zimri sawe that the citie must needes be taken, he went into the palace of the kinges house, (b) and burnt him selfe & the kinges house with fyre, and so dyed (b) The ende of treason.

19 For his sinnes which he sinned, in doing that which is euill in the sight of the Lorde, and in walking in the waye of Jeroboam, and in his sinnes which he did, and in that he made Israel to sinne. D

20 The rest of the wordes that concerne Zimri, & the treason that he wrought, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Israel?

21 Then were the people of Israel deuided into two partes: for halfe the people folowed Thibni the sonne of Ginath, making him king: and the other halfe folowed Amri.

22 But the people that folowed Amri, preuayled against the people that folowed Thibni the sonne of Ginath: And so so Thibni dyed, and Amri raigned.

23 In the thirtie and one yere of Asa king of Juda, began Amri to raigne ouer Israel twelue yeres: Sixe yeres raigned he in Thirza.

24 He bought the hill [n] Schomron of one Schemar for two talents of siluer, and buylt in the hill, and called the name of the citie which he buylt, after the name of Schemar, which had ben owner of the hill Schomron.

[n] Or, Samaria.

25 But Amri wrought that which is euil in the eyes of the Lorde, and did worse then all that were before him.

26 For he walked in all the way of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, and in his sinnes, that made Israel sinne, to anger the Lorde God of Israel with their vanities.

27 The rest of the wordes that concerne Amri, & al that he did, and his strength that he shewed, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Israel?

E 28 And so Amri slept with his fathers, and was buried in Samaria, & Ahab his sonne raigned in his steade.

29 In the thirtie and eyght yere of Asa king of Juda, began Ahab the sonne of Amri to raigne ouer Israel, & the same Ahab the sonne of Amri raigned ouer Israel in Samaria twentie and two yeres.

30 And Ahab the sonne of Amri did euill in the sight of the Lorde aboue all that were before him.

31 For (c) it seemed vnto him but a light thing to walke in the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat: he toke Jezabel also the daughter of Ethbaal king of the Sidomites to wyfe, and * went and serued Baal, and worshipped him.

(c) Some reade it interrogatiuely.

32 And he reared vp an aulter for Baal in the temple of Baal which he had builded in Schomron:

33 And Ahab made a groue, and proceeded further in angring the Lorde God of Israel then all the kinges of Israel F that were before him.

34 In his dayes did Hiel of Bethel build Jericho: he layde the foundation therof in Abiram his eldest sonne, and set vp the gates thereof in his youngest sonne Segub, according vnto the word of the Lorde * which he spake by Josuah the sonne of Nun.

4 Thou shalt drinke of the ryuer, and I haue commaunded the rauens to feede thee there.

5 And so he went, and did according vnto the word of the Lorde: for he went, and dwelt by the brooke Cherith that is before Jordane.

6 (a) And the rauens brought him bread and flesh in the morning, and likewyse bread and flesh in the euening: and he dranck of the brooke.

Luk. iiii. c.

10 So he arose, and went to Zarphath: and when he came to the gate of the citie, beholde the widow was there gathering of stickes: And he called to her, and said: *fet me I pray thee a litle water in a vessel, that I may drincke.

Iudi. iiii. c.

11 And as she was going to fet it, he cryed after her, and saide: bryng me I pray thee a morsell of bread also in thyne hand.

euen an handful of meale in a barrel, & a litle oyle in a cruse: And beholde, I am gathering two stickes, for to go in and dresse it for me and my sonne, that we may eate it, and dye.

C 13 And Elias saide vnto her, Feare not, go, and do as thou hast saide: but make me thereof a litle cake first of all, & bring it vnto me, and afterward make for thee and thy sonne.

14 For thus saith the Lord God of Israel: The meale in the barrel shall not be wasted, neither shal the oyle in the cruse be minished, vntil the Lorde haue sent rayne vpon the earth.

15 And she went, and did as Elias sayde: And she, and he, and her house, did eate a good space.

16 And the meale wasted not out of the barrell, neither was the oyle spent out of the cruse, according to the word of the Lorde which he spake by the hande of Elias.

17 And after these thinges, it happened that the sonne of the wyfe of the house fel sicke, & his sickenesse was so sore that there was no breath left in him.

18 And she said vnto Elias: What haue I to do with thee O thou man of God: Art thou come vnto me to call my sinne againe to remembraunce, and to slay my sonne?

19 He saide vnto her: geue me thy sonne. And he toke him out of her lap, & caried him vp into a loft where he abode, and layde him vpon his owne bed: D

20 And called vnto the Lorde, and saide: O Lorde my God, hast thou punished also this wydow with whom I dwell as a straunger, & hast slaine her sonne?

21 *And he stretched him selfe vpon the childe three tymes, and called vnto the Lorde, and saide: O Lorde my God, I pray thee let this childes soule come into him againe. iiii.Re.iiii.f.

22 And the Lord heard the voyce of Elias, & the soule of the childe came into him againe, and he reuiued.

23 And Elias toke the boye, and brought him downe out of the chamber into the house, and deliuered him vnto his mother: And Elias saide, Behold, thy sonne lyueth.

24 And the woman said vnto Elias: Now I know we that thou art a man of God, and that the worde of the Lorde in thy mouth, is true.

2 And Elias went to shewe him selfe vnto Ahab: and there was a great famishment in Samaria.

3 And Ahab called Obadia, which was the gouernour of his house: (and Obadia feared God greatly.

4 For when Jezabel destroyed the prophets of the Lord, Obadia toke an hundred prophets, and hid them by fiftie in a caue, and prouided bread and water for them.)

5 And Ahab saide vnto Obadia: Go into the lande, vnto all fountaines of water, and vnto all brookes, if happyly we may finde grasse to saue the horses and mules aliue, and that we destroy not [some of] the beastes.

6 And so they deuided the lande betweene them to walke through it: Ahab went one way by him selfe, and Obadia went another way by him selfe.

7 And it chaunced that as Obadia was in the way, beholde Elias met him, and he knew him, and fell on his face, and saide: Art not thou my lorde Elias? B

8 And he aunswered him, I am he: Go, and tel thy lorde, beholde, Elias is here.

9 He saide: What haue I sinned, that thou wouldest delyuer thy seruaunt into the hande of Ahab, to slay me?

10 As the Lorde thy God liueth, there is no nation or kingdome, whyther my lord hath not sent to seeke thee: And when they saide, he is not there: he toke an oth of the kingdome and nation when he found thee not.

11 And now thou sayest, Go, and tell thy lorde that Elias is here.

12 And

12 And assoone as I am gone from thee, the spirite of the Lorde shall carrie thee into some place that I do not knowe, and so when I come and tell Ahab, and he can not finde thee, he shall slay me: But I thy seruaunt feare the Lorde from my youth vp.

℣ 13 Was it not tolde my lorde what I did, when Iezabel slue the prophets of the Lorde: how I hid an hundred men of the Lordes prophets, fiftie men in one caue, and fiftie in another, and prouided them of bread and water:

14 And thou sayest, Go thou now & shewe thy lorde, beholde Elias is here: that he may slay me.

15 And Elias saide: As the Lorde of hoastes liueth before whom I stand, I wyll shewe my selfe vnto him this day.

16 So Obadia went to meete Ahab, and tolde him: And Ahab went to meete Elias.

17 And it fortuned that when Ahab sawe Elias, he saide vnto him: Art thou he that troubleth Israel?

18 He answered: It is not I that haue troubled Israel, but (a) thou and thy fathers house, in that ye haue forsaken the commaundements of the Lorde, & thou hast followed Baal.

(a) The minister of gods word ought to be faithfull and bolde in Gods cause.

19 Now therefore send, and gather to me all Israel vnto mount Carmel, and the prophets of Baal * foure hundred and fiftie, and the prophets of the [idols] groues foure hundred, which eate at Iezabels table.

℣ iii. Reg. 22. a.

20 So Ahab sent vnto all the children of Israel, and gathered the prophets together vnto mount Carmel.

21 And Elias came vnto all the people, and said: how long (b) halt ye betweene two opinions? If the Lorde be God, followe him: but if Baal be he, then go after him. And the people answered him not one worde.

(b) Religion is not an indifferent thing, but wholy to be embraced, and constantly professed.

22 Then saide Elias vnto the people [again] I onely remayne a prophete of the Lorde: but Baals prophets are foure hundred and fiftie.

(c) Baal hath more prophetes then God.

23 Let them therefore geue vs two oxen, and let them choose the one, & cut hym in peeces, and lay him on wood, and put no fire vnder: and I wyll dresse the other oxe, and laye him on wood, & wyll put no fyre vnder.

℣ F

24 And call ye on the name of your gods, & I wyl call on the name of the Lorde: and then the God that answereth by fire, let him be God. * And all the people answered and saide, It is wel spoken.

i Reg. ix. c.

25 And Elias saide vnto the prophets of Baal: Choose you an oxe, & dresse him first, for ye are many: & call on the name of your gods, but put no fire vnder.

26 And they toke the one oxe that he dyd geue them, and they dressed it, * and called on the name of Baal from morning to noone, saying, O Baal heare vs. But there was no voyce, nor one to answere:

Math. vi. a.

swere : And they lept vpon the aulter that they had made.

27 And at noone Elias mocked them, and sayde: Crye lowde, for he is a God, peradventure he is talking, or occupied in folowing vpon his enemies, or is in his iourney, or happyly he slepeth, and must be awaked [with your crie.]

28 And they cried lowde, and cut them selues as their maner was with knyues & launcers, till the blood folowed on thē.

29 And it chaunced, that when midday was passed, they prophesied vntill the time of the euening sacrifice: But there was neither voyce, nor one to answere, nor any that regarded them.

30 And Elias said vnto all the folke: Come to me. And all the people came to him: *And he repaired the aulter of the Lord that was broken.

31 *And Elias toke twelue stones, according to the number of the twelue tribes of the sonnes of Jacob, vnto whom the word of the Lorde came, saying: *Israel shalbe thy name.

32 And with the stones he made an aulter in the name of the Lorde: And he made a ditch about the aulter, as great as would conteyne two measures of seede.

33 And he put the wood in order, and hewed the oxe in peeces, and layed him on the wood, and said: Fill foure barrels with water, and powre it on the burnt sacrifice, and on the wood.

34 And he sayde: Do so againe. And they dyd so the seconde time. And he sayde againe: Do it the thirde time. And they dyd it the thirde time:

35 And the water ran round about the aulter, & he filled the pitte with water also.

F 36 And it fortuned, that when they should offer the euening sacrifice, Elias the prophete came, and sayde: Lorde God of Abraham, Isahac, and of Israel, it shalbe knowen this day that thou art the God in Israel, & [that] I [am] thy seruaunt, and that I haue done all these thinges at thy commaundement.

37 Heare me O Lord, heare me, that this people may knowe that thou art the Lorde God, and [that] thou hast turned their heart againe nowe at the last.

38 *And the fire of the Lord fel, and consumed the burnt sacrifice, and the wood, and the stones, and the duste, and licked vp the water that was in the pit. Iud.vi.d. Eccl.xlviii.a i.Macha.i.a.

39 And when all the people sawe it, they fell on their faces, and sayde: The Lord he is God, the Lorde he is God.

40 And Elias sayd vnto them: Take the prophetes of Baal, and let not one of them escape. And they toke them, and Elias brought them vnto the brooke Kison, (b) and slue them there. (b) Elias slue Baals prophets.

41 And Elias sayde vnto Ahab: Get thee vp, eate and drinke: for there is a sounde of much rayne.

42 And so Ahab went vp to eate and to drinke, and Elias went vp to the top of Carmel, and he layde him selfe flat vpō the earth, and put his face betweene his knees, 43 And sayde to his seruaunt: Go vp [I pray thee] and loke towarde the way of the sea. And he went vp, and loked, and sayde: There is nothing. And againe he sayde: Go againe seuen times.

44 And it fortuned that at the seuenth time, he sayde: Beholde there aryseth a litle cloude of the sea lyke a mans hand. He sayde: Go, and say vnto Ahab, Make fast [thy charet] and get thee downe, that the rayne stoppe thee not. G

45 And it came to passe, that in the meane whyle the heauen was blacke with cloudes and winde, & there was a great rayne: And Ahab gat vp, and came to Jezrahel.

46 And the hande of the Lorde was on Elias, and he girded vp his loynes, and ranne before Ahab, till he came to Jezrahel.

The .xix. Chapter.

1 Elias fleing from Jezabel, is nourished by the angel of God. 15 He is commaunded to annoynt Hazael, Jehu, and Elisa.

A1 AND Ahab tolde Jezabel all that Elias had done, and how he had slayne al the prophetes with the sworde.

2 Then Jezabel sent a messenger vnto Elias, saying: *So and so let the gods do to me, if I make not thy soule lyke one of theirs by to morowe this time. iii.Reg. ii.b.

3 When he sawe that, he arose, and went for his life, and came to Beersheba in Juda, and left his seruaunt there.

M i 4 But

4 But he him selfe went a dayes iourney into the wildernesse, and came and sat downe vnder a Juniper tree, and desired for his soule that he might dye, and sayde: *It is nowe enough O Lorde, take my soule, for I am not better then my fathers.

Iona.iiii.c. Daniel. xii.

5 And as he lay and slept vnder the Juniper tree: behold an angel touched him, and sayde vnto him: Vp, and eate.

6 And when he loked about him, beholde there was a cake baken on the coales, and a bessell of water at his head: And he dyd eate and drinke, and layde him downe againe to sleepe.

7 And the angel of the Lord came againe the seconde time, and touched him, and sayde: Vp, and eate, for thou hast yet a great iourney.

8 And he arose, and dyd eate and drinke, & walked in the strength of that meate *fourtie dayes and fourtie nightes, euen vnto Horeb the mount of God.

Exo.34.d. Mat.iiii.d.

9 When he came thyther vnto a caue, he lodged therein al night: And behold, the word of the Lord came to him, and sayd vnto him: what doest thou here Elias?

10 And he answered, I haue ben ielous for the Lorde God of hoastes sake: For the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenaunt, *broken downe thyne aulters, and slayne thy prophetes with the sword: and I onely am left, and they seke my lyfe to take it away.

Rom.xi.a.

11 And he sayd: Come out and stand vpon ỹ mount before the Lorde. And behold, *the Lorde went by, & a mightie strong winde that rent the mountaynes and brake the rockes before the Lorde, but the Lord was not in the winde: And after the winde, came an earthquake, but the Lorde was not in the earthquake:

Ec.xlviii.a.

12 And after the earthquake came fire, but the Lorde was not in the fire: And after the fire, came a small still voyce.

13 And when Elias hearde, he couered his face with his mantle, and went out, and stoode in the entring in of the caue: And beholde, there came a voyce vnto him, & said: What doest thou here Elias?

14 And he answered: I haue ben ielous for the Lorde God of hoastes sake, because the children of Israel haue forsaken thy couenaunt, cast downe thyne aulters, and slayne thy prophetes with the sworde: and I onely am left, & they seke my lyfe to take it away.

15 And the Lord sayde vnto him: Go, and turne thy way to the wildernesse vnto Damasco: & when thou commest there, annoynt *Hazael king ouer Syria:

4.Reg.8.d.

16 And *Jehu sonne of Nimsi shalt thou annoynt king ouer Israel: And Elisa the sonne of Saphat of Abel Meholah shalt thou annoynt to be prophete in thy roome.

4.Reg.9.b.

17 And it shall come to passe, that whoso escapeth the sworde of Hazael, him shall Jehu slay: & if any man scape the sword of Jehu, him shall Elisa put to death.

18 And [therto] I *haue left me seuen thousande in Israel, of whiche neuer man (a)bowed his knees vnto Baal, nor kissed him with his mouth.

19 So he departed thence, & found Elisa the sonne of Saphat plowing, & hauing twelue yocke of oxen before him, and he with the twelue: And Elias went by him, and cast his mantle vpon him.

20 And he left the oxen, and ranne after Elias, and sayde: *Let me I pray thee kysse my father and my mother, & then I will folowe thee. He sayde vnto him: Go backe againe, for what is it that I haue done to thee?

Luk.ix.g.

21 And when he went backe againe from him, he toke a couple of oxen, and slue them, and dressed the flesh with the instrumentes of the oxen, and gaue vnto the people, and they dyd eate: And then he arose and went after Elias, and ministred vnto him.

The.xx. Chapter.

1 Samaria is besieged. 13 The Lord promiseth the victorie to Ahab by a prophet. The king of Israel made peace with Benhadad, and is reproued therfore by the prophete.

AND Benhadad the king of Syria gathered all his hoast together, hauing thirtie & two kinges with him, and horses and charets: and went vp and besieged Samaria, & warred against it.

A 1

2 And he sent messengers to Ahab king of Israel into the citie, and sayde vnto him, thus saith Benhadad.

3 Thy siluer & thy gold is myne, & the fayrest of thy wiues & of thy children be mine.

4 And the king of Israel answered and said: My lord king, according to thy saying, I am thyne and all that I haue.

5 And

5 And when the messengers came againe, they sayd, thus sayth Benhadad:
Forasmuch as I haue sent vnto thee, saying, Thou shalt deliuer me thy siluer and thy golde, and thy wyues, and thy children:
6 I will therfore send my seruauntes vnto thee to morowe this time: and they shall searche thyne house, & the houses of thy seruauntes, and whatsoeuer is pleasaunt in thyne eyes, they shall take it in their handes, and bring it away.
B 7 Then the king of Israel sent for all the elders of the land, and said: Take heede
I pray you, and see howe this felowe goeth about mischiefe: For he sent vnto me for my wiues, for my children, for my siluer, and for my golde, and I denyed him not.
8 And all the elders and all the people said: Hearken not vnto him, nor consent.
9 wherfore he sayde vnto the messengers of Benhadad: Tell my lord the king, all that thou dyddest send for to thy seruaũt at the first time, that I will do: but this thing I may not do. And the messengers departed, and brought aunswere againe.
10 And Benhadad sent vnto him againe, and sayde: Thus and thus do the gods vnto me, if the dust of Samaria be enough for al the people that folowe me, to take euery man an handfull.
11 And the king of Israel aunswered, and sayd: Tell him, let not him that putteth on his harnesse boast him selfe, as he that putteth it of.
12 And it fortuned, that when Benhadad heard that tydinges, as he was with the kinges drinking within the paunlions, and he saide vnto his seruauntes, Put your selues in order. And they set them selues in aray against the citie.
13 And beholde, there came a prophete vnto Ahab king of Israel, saying, thus sayeth the Lord: Hast thou seene all this great multitude? beholde, I will deliuer it into thyne hand this day, & thou shalt knowe that I am the Lorde.
C 14 And Ahab sayd: By whom? He sayde:
Thus sayth the Lorde, euen by the seruauntes of the gouernours of ỹ shyres.
He sayd againe: Who shall order the bat-tayle? And he aunswered: Thou.
15 Then he numbred the seruauntes of the gouernours of the shyres, & they were two hundred and thirtie and two: And after them also he numbred all the people of the children of Israel [euen] seuen thousande.
16 And they went out at noone: but Ben-hadad dyd drinke till he was dronken in the paullions, both he and the kinges:
euẽ thirtie & two kinges, that holpe him.
17 And the seruauntes of the gouernours of the shyres went out first, and Benha-dad sent out, & they shewed him, saying:
There are men come out of Samaria.
18 He sayde: whether they be come out for peace, take them alyue: or whether they be come out to fight, take them yet alyue.
19 And so those young men of the gouer-nours of the shyres came out of the citie,
and the hoast after them:
20 And they slue euery one his enemie
[that came in his way:] and the Syrians fled, & they of Israel folowed after thẽ:
And Benhadad the king of Syria sca-ped on a horse, with his horsemen.
21 And the king of Israel went out, and D smote the horses and charettes, & with a great slaughter slue he the Syrians.
22 (And there came a prophete to the king of Israel, and said vnto him: Go forth, and play the man, be wyse, & take heede what thou doest: for when the yere is gone about, the king of Syria will come vp against thee.)
23 And the seruauntes of the king of Syria sayde vnto him: The gods of the hilles are their gods, and therefore they had the better of vs: but let vs fight against them in the playne, and [for what ye will] we shall haue the better of them.
24 And this do: Take the kinges away euery man out of his place, & put dukes in their roomes:
25 And do thou number thee an hoast, lyke
the hoast that thou hast lost, such horses and suche charets, and we will fight against them in the plaine, and thou shalt see vs get the better of thẽ. And he hearkened vnto their voyce, and dyd euen so.
26 And it fortuned, that after the yere was goue about, Benhadad numbred the Syrians, and went vp to Aphet to fight against Israel.
27 And the children of Israel were num-bred, & with their whole number went they against them, and the children of Israel pitched before them lyke two litle flockes of kiddes: but the Syrians filled the countrey.

E 28 And there came a man of God, and sayd vnto the king of Israel, thus sayth the Lorde: Because the Syrians haue sayd, the Lorde is but God of the hilles, and not God of the valleys: therfore wil
I deliuer all this great multitude into thyne hande, and ye shall knowe that I am the Lorde.
29 And they pitched one ouer against the other seuen dayes: and it came to passe, that in the seuenth day the battaile was ioyned, and the children of Israel slue of the Syrians an hundred thousande footemen in one day.
30 But the rest fled to Aphec into the citie, and there fell a wall vpon twentie and seuen thousande of the men that were left: And Benhadad fled, and came into the citie, from chamber to chamber.
31 And his seruauntes said vnto him: Behold, we haue heard say that the kinges of the house of Israel are mercyfull kinges: We will therfore put sackcloth about our loynes, and ropes about our heades, and go out to the king of Israel, if happyly he will saue thy lyfe.
32 And so they girded sackcloth about their loynes, & put ropes about their heades, and came to the king of Israel, and said:
Thy seruaunt Benhadad sayth, I pray thee let me lyue. He sayde: Is he yet a-lyue: he is my brother.
33 And ỹ men toke that word for good lucke and hastyly caught it out of his mouth, and sayd: Yea thy brother (a) Benhadad.
(a He is alliue) He sayde: Go, bring him hyther. And Benhadad came out vnto him, and he caused him to come vp into the charet.
34 And he said vnto him: The cities which my father toke from thy father, I will restore agayne, and thou shalt make streates for thee in Damasco, as my father dyd in Samaria: And I wil make an appoyntment with thee, & send the away. And so he made an appoyntment with him, and sent him away.
35 And there was a certayne man of the F children of the prophetes, whiche sayde vnto his neyghbour in the Word of the Lord: Smyte me I pray thee. And the man woulde not smyte him.
36 Then sayd he vnto him: Because thou hast not hearkened vnto the voyce of the Lorde: beholde, assoone as thou art departed frō me, a lion shal slay thee. And 3.Regn.c. it came to passe, that assoone as he was departed from him, *a lion found him, and slue him.
37 Then he founde another man, & sayde:
Smyte me I pray thee. And the man smote him, so that in smyting he wounded him.
38 So the prophete went foorth, & wayted for the king by the way, and put him selfe out of knowledge with ashes whiche he layed vpon his face.
39 And when the king came by, he cryed vnto the king, and sayde: Thy seruaunt wēt out in the middes of the battel, and behold there went away a man, whom another man brought vnto me, & sayde, Kepe this man: and if he be myssed or lost, thy lyfe shall go for his, or els thou shalt pay a talent of siluer.
40 And as thy seruaunt had here & there to do, he was gone. And the king of Israel sayde vnto him: Euen so shall thy iudgement be, as thou hast defined it thy selfe.
41 And he hasted, & toke the ashes away G from his face, and the king of Israel knewe him, that he was of ỹ prophetes.
42 And he sayde vnto him, Thus sayth the Lorde: Because thou hast let go out of thy hande a man that is in my curse, thy lyfe shall go for his lyfe, and thy people for his people.
43 And the king of Israel went to his house wayward and in displeasure, and came to Samaria.

The.xxi.Chapter.

A

8 Iezabel commaundeth to kill Naboth for the vineyard that he refused to sell to Ahab.
19 Elias reproueth Ahab, and he repenteth. i.Re.vii.b.

1 AFter these thinges, it chaunced, that Naboth the Iezraelite had a vineyard in Iezrahel, hard by the palace of Ahab king of Samaria.
2 And Ahab spake vnto Naboth, saying: *Geue me thy vineyarde, that I may make me a gardē of herbes thereof, because it lyeth so nye my house, and I wil geue thee for it a better vineyarde then it is: or rather if it please thee,
I will geue thee the worth of it in money.
3 And

3 And Naboth sayd to Ahab: The Lord forbid that from me, that I should geue the inheritaũce of my fathers vnto thee.
4 And Ahab came into the house heauy and euyll apayde because of the worde whiche Naboth the Jesraelite had spoken to him, for he had sayde: I will not geue thee the inheritaunce of my fathers. And he layde him downe vpon his bed, and turned away his face, and woulde eate no bread.
5 But Jezabel his wyfe came to him, and sayde vnto him: Why is thy spirite so wayward that thou eatest no bread?
6 And he sayd vnto her: For I spake vnto Naboth the Jezraelite, and said vnto him, Geue me thy vineyarde for money: Or els if it please thee, I will geue thee [another] vineyarde for it. And he aunswered: I will not geue thee my vineyarde.
B 7 And Jezabel his wyfe sayde vnto him: (a) Doest thou nowe gouerne the kingdome of Jsrael? vp, and eate bread, and set thyne heart at rest: I wil geue thee ỹ vineyarde of Naboth the Jezraelite.
8 And so she wrote a letter in Ahabs name, and sealed it with his seale, and sent the letter vnto the elders, and to the nobles that were in his citie dwelling with Naboth.
9 And she wrote in the letter, saying: Proclayme a (b) fast, and set Naboth on hye among the people:
10 And set two vnthriftes before him, to beare witnesse against him, saying, Thou dyddest blaspheme God and the king: And then carie him out, and stone him to death.
11 And (c) the men of his citie, euen the elders and gouernours whiche dwelt in his citie, dyd as Jezabel had sent vnto them, and as it was written in the letter whiche she had sent vnto them.
12 They proclaymed a fast, and set Naboth among the chiefe of the people.
13 And there came in two men the children of Belial, and sate before him: And the [two] vnthriftie persons witnessed against Naboth in the presence of the people, saying: Naboth dyd blaspheme God and the king. *And they caried him out of the citie, & stoned him with stones, that he died.
C 14 And then they sent to Jezabel, saying: Naboth is stoned to death.
15 And it fortuned, when Jezabel hearde that Naboth was stoned to death, she sayde to Ahab: Up, and take possession of the vineyarde of Naboth the Jezraelite, whiche he denied to geue for money: for Naboth is not alyue, but dead.
16 And when Ahab hearde that Naboth was dead, he stoode vp to go downe to the vineyarde of Naboth the Jezraelite, and to take possession of it.
17 And the worde of the Lorde came vnto Elias the Thesbite, saying:
18 Up, and go downe to meete Ahab king of Jsrael, whiche is in Samaria: Beholde he is in the vineyarde of Naboth, whyther he is gone downe to possesse it.
19 And therfore shalt thou say vnto him, thus sayth the Lorde: Hast thou killed & also gotten possession? And thou shalt speake vnto him, saying, thus sayth the Lord: *In the place where dogges licked the blood of Naboth, shall dogges licke euen thy blood also. 3.Reg.22.f.
20 And Ahab sayde to Elias: Hast thou founde me, O thou myne enemie? He aunswered: I haue founde thee, for thou hast sold thy selfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde.
21 Behold, I will bring euyll vpon thee, & wil make cleane riddaunce of thy posteritie, and wil *destroy frõ Ahab, [euen] him that maketh water against the wal, and him that is shut vp, & left behind in Jsrael. D 4.Reg.9.b.
22 And will make thyne house lyke the house of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat, & lyke the house of Baasa the sonne of Ahia, for the prouocation wherwith thou hast prouoked, and made Jsrael to synne.
23 And of Jezabel spake the Lord, saying: The dogges shall eate Jezabel by the wall of Jezrahel, 24 *And he that dieth of Ahab in ỹ towne, him shall dogges eate: and he that dieth in the fielde, him shal the fowles of the ayre eate. Osee.ix.d. iii.Re.ix.b. iii Re.xxi.c xv.g. and.xvi.a.
25 But there was none lyke Ahab, which dyd euen sell him selfe to worke wickednesse in the sight of the Lorde, and that because Jezabel his wyfe pricked hym forwarde.
26 He dyd exceeding abhominablie in following foule idols, according to all thinges as dyd the Ammontes* whom the Lorde cast out before the children of Jsrael. Num.xxi.f.

27 And it fortuned, that whē Ahab heard those wordes, *he rent his clothes, and Gen.37 g. put sackcloth about his flesh, and fasted, and lay in sackcloth & went " bare foote.
" Or, Softe. in token of mourning.
28 And the worde of the Lorde came to Elia the Thesbyte, saying:
29 Seest thou howe Ahab humbleth him selfe before me: because he so submitteth him selfe before me, I wil not bring that euil in his dayes: but in his sonnes dayes will I bring euyll vpon his house.

The .xxii. Chapter.

2 Iehosaphat and Ahab fight against the king of Syria. 15 Michea sheweth the king what shal be the successe of their interprise. 24 Zedekia the false prophet smiteth him. 34 Ahab is slayne.

A 1 AND they cōtinued three betweene Syria & Israel.

2.Par.18.a. 2 And *in the third yere dyd Iehosaphat the king of Juda come downe to the king of Israel.
3 (And the king of Israel sayde vnto his seruauntes: Know ye not that Ramoth [in] Gilead is ours, and we sit still, and take it not out of the hande of the king of Syria:)
4 And he sayde vnto Iehosaphat: Wilt thou come with me to battayle against
4. Reg 2.a. Ramoth [in] Gilead? And Iehosaphat sayde vnto the king of Israel: *I am as thou art, my people as thy people, and my horses as thy horses.
5 And Iehosaphat sayde vnto the king
(a) In all our enterprises we ought first to aske counsell of God.
of Israel: (a) Aske counsel I pray thee at the worde of the Lorde to day.
6 And then the king of Israel gathered
3.Reg 18.c. the prophetes together, vpon * a foure hundred men, & sayde vnto them: Shall I go against Ramoth [in] Gilead to battayle, or shall I let it alone? And they sayde, Go vp: for the Lorde shall deliuer it into the handes of the king.
7 And Iehosaphat sayd: Is there here
B neuer a prophete of the Lord more, that we might inquire of him?
8 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Ie-hosaphat: There is yet one man (Michea the sonne of Jimla) by whom we may aske counsell of the Lorde: But I hate him, for he doth not prophecie good vnto me, but euyll. And Iehosaphat sayde: Let not the king say so.
9 Then the king of Israel called a cham-berlayne, & sayde: Fet Michea the sonne of Jimla hyther at once.
10 And the king of Israel, and Iehosa-phat the king of Juda, sate eyther in his seate, and their apparell on them, in a voyde place besyde the entring in of the gate of Samaria, and all the prophetes prophecied before them.
11 And Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana made hornes of iron, and sayde, thus sayth the Lord: With these [hornes] shalt thou pushe the Syrians, vntill thou haue made an ende of them.
12 And all the prophetes prophecied euen so, saying: Go vp to Ramoth [in] Gilead, and prosper: for the Lorde shall deliuer
it into the kinges hande.
13 And the messenger that was gone to cal Michea, spake vnto him, saying: Be-holde, the wordes of ỹ prophetes speake good vnto the king with one mouth:
Let thy worde therefore I pray thee, be lyke the worde of euery one of them, to speake that whiche is good.
14 And Michea sayde: As the Lorde C lyueth, whatsoeuer the Lord sayth vnto me, (b) that will I speake.
(b) The true prophete will speake no other, then that he hath learned of God.
15 And so he came to the king, & the king sayd vnto him: Michea, ought we to go against Ramoth [in] Gilead to battayle, or to be stil? he answered to him: (c) Go,
(c) He speaketh this in derision.
and prosper, the Lorde shall deliuer it into the hande of the king.
16 And the king sayde vnto him: So and so many times do I charge thee that thou tell me nothing but that whiche is true, in the name of the Lorde.
17 He sayd: I saw all them of Israel scattered vpon the hilles, as sheepe that haue not a sheepheard. And the Lorde sayde: These haue no maister, let euery man returne to his house in peace.
18 (And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iehosaphat: Dyd I not tell thee, that he would prophecie no good vnto me, but euyll?)
19 And

19 And he sayd againe: Heare thou therefore the word of the Lorde. I sawe the Lord sit on his seate, and all the hoast of heauen stoode about him on his right hande and on his left.

20 And the Lorde sayde: *who shall persuade Ahab, that he may go and fall at Ramoth [in] Gilead? And one sayde on this maner, and another on that.

21 And there came foorth a certayne spirite, and stoode before the Lorde, and sayde: I will persuade him. And the Lorde sayde vnto him: Wherwith?

22 And he sayde: I will go out, and be a false spirite in the mouth of all his prophetes. He sayde, Thou shalt persuade him and preuayle: Go foorth then, & do euen so.

23 Nowe therefore beholde * the Lorde hath put a lying spirite in the mouth of all these thy prophetes, and the Lorde hath spoken euyll towarde thee.

24 But Zedekia the sonne of Chanaana went to & smote Michea on the cheke, and sayde: When went the spirite of the Lorde from me, to speake vnto thee?

25 And Michea sayde: Behold, thou shalt see in that day when thou shalt go from chamber to chamber to hyde thee.

26 And the king of Israel sayde: Take Michea and cary him vnto Amon the gouerner of the citie, and vnto Joas the kinges sonne, 27 And say: Thus sayeth ỳ king: Put this felow in the prison house, and feede him with bread of affliction, and with water of trouble, vntill I returne in peace.

28 And Michea sayde: If thou returne in & peace, the Lord hath not spoken by me. And he sayde: Hearken ye people euery one of you.

29 And so the king of Israel, and Iehosaphat the king of Juda, went vp to Ramoth [in] Gilead.

30 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Iehosaphat: I wil chaunge my apparell, and will enter into the battel, but put thou on thyne apparell. And the king of Israel chaunged him selfe, and went to battell.

31 But the king of Syria commaunded the thirtie and two captaynes that had rule ouer his charettes, saying: Fight neither with small nor great, saue onely against the king of Israel.

32 And when the captaynes of the charets saw Iehosaphat, they sayd: Surely it is the king of Israel. And they turned to fight against him: And Iehosaphat cryed.

33 And so it came to passe, that when the captaynes of the charettes sawe that he was not the king of Israel, they turned backe from him.

34 And a certayne man drewe a bowe ignorantly, & smote the king of Israel betweene the ribbes and his harnesse: wherfore he sayd vnto the driuer of his charettes, Turne thy hand, and cary me out of the hoast, for I am hurt.

35 (And the battel encreased that day: and the king stoode still in his charet against the Syrians) and died at euen: And the blood ran out of the wounde into the middes of the charet.

G

36 And there went a proclamation throughout the hoast about the going downe of the sunne, saying: Euery man to his citie, and to his owne countrey.

37 So the king died, and was brought to Samaria, and they buried the king in Samaria.

38 And one washed the charet in the poole of Samaria, & the dogges licked vp his blood: and they washed his armour, according vnto the worde of the Lorde whiche he spake.

4 Wherefore thus ſaith the Lorde: Thou ſhalt not come downe frō the bed on which thou art gone vp, but ſhalt die the death. And Elias departed.

5 And when the meſſengers turned backe againe vnto him, he ſaide vnto them: Why are ye now come againe?

6 They anſwered him: There came a man vp againſt vs, and ſayde vnto vs: Go, & turne againe vnto the king that ſent you, and ſaye vnto him, thus ſaith the Lorde: Is there not a God in Iſrael, that thou ſendeſt to enquyre of Beelzebub the God of Ekrom? 4 And Elia saide vnto him: Elisa, tary here I praye thee, for the Lorde hath sent me to Jericho. He saide: As the Lorde lyueth, and as thy soule lyueth, I will not leaue thee. And so they came to Jericho.

5 And the children of the prophetes that were at Jericho came to Elisa, and said vnto him: Knowest thou not, that the Lorde wil take away thy maister from thy head this day? He answered: I know it also, holde ye your peace.

9 And it fortuned, that assoone as they were ouer, Elias saide vnto Elisa: Aske what I shal do for thee, yer I be taken away from thee. And Elisa saide: I pray thee let thy spirite be double vpon me.

10 And he said, Thou hast asked an hard thing: Neuertheless, if thou see me whē I am taken away from thee, thou shalt haue it so: yf thou do not, it shall not be.

15 And when the childrē of the prophetes which were at Jericho sawe him from a farre, they sayde, The spirite of Elias doth rest on Elisa: And they came to meete him, and fel to the grounde before him,

1 The raigne of Jehoram. 6 He and Jehosaphat go to warre against Moab which rebelled. 13 Elisa reproueth him, 17 and geueth their hoast water. 24 The Moabites are ouercome. 27 Their king sacrificeth his sonne.

A 1 NOw Jehoram the sonne of Ahab began to raigne vpon Israel in Samaria the eyghteenth yere of Jehosaphat king of Juda, and raigned twelue yeres.

2 And he wrought euil in the sight of the Lorde, but not lyke his father and lyke his mother: for he put away the images of Baal that his father had made.

3 Neuertheless, he cleaued vnto the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therefrom.

4 And Mesa king of Moab was a lorde of sheepe, and rendered vnto the king of Israel an hundred thousand lambes,

and

and an hundred thousand rammes with the wooll.

5 But when Ahab was dead, it fortuned that the king of Moab rebelled against the king of Israel.

6 And king Iehoram went out of Samaria the same season, and numbred all Israel:

7 And went, & sent to Iehosaphat the king of Juda, saying: The king of Moab hath rebelled against me, wilt thou come with me against Moab in battell? He aunswered, I will come vp: for as I am, so art thou: and as my people be, so are thy people: & thy horses, as myne.

8 And he saide: what way shall we go vp? And he aunswered: The way through the wildernesse of Edom.

9 And so the king of Israel toke his iourney, and the king of Juda, and the king of Edom: And when they had compassed the way seuen dayes, they had no water for the hoast, and for the cattayle that followed them.

10 And the king of Israel saide: Alas, the Lorde hath called these three kinges together, to deliuer them ouer into the hande of Moab.

11 But Iehosaphat said: * Is there not here a prophete of the Lorde, that we maye enquire of the Lord by him? And one of the king of Israels seruauntes aunswered and saide: Here is Elisa the sonne of Saphat, which powred water on the handes of Elias.

iii.Re.22.a.

12 And Iehosaphat saide: The word of the Lorde is with him. And so the king of Israel, & Iehosaphat, and the king of Edom went downe to him.

13 And Elias saide vnto the king of Israel: what haue I to do with thee? Get thee to the prophetes of thy father, & to the prophetes of thy mother. And the king of Israel saide vnto him, Oh naye: for the Lorde hath called these three kinges together, to deliuer them into the hand of Moab.

14 And Elias saide: As the Lorde of hoastes liueth, in whose sight I stande, and it were not that I regarde the presence of Iehosaphat the king of Juda, I would (a) not loke towarde thee, nor yet see thee.

(a) God suffereth his word to be declared to the wicked, because of the good that are among them.

15 But now bryng me a minstrell. And when the minstrell played, the hand of the Lorde came vpon him:

16 And he sayde, thus saith the Lorde: Make this valley full of ditches:

17 For thus saith the Lorde: Ye shall see neither wynde nor rayne, yet the valley shall be filled with water, that ye maye drinke, both ye, and your beastes, & your cattayle:

18 And this is yet but a small thing in the sight of the Lorde, forasmuch as he wil geue ouer the Moabites also into your handes.

19 And ye shal smite euery strong towne, and euery goodly citie, and shal fell euery pleasaunt tree, and stop euery well of water, and marre euery good platte of ground with stones.

20 And in the morning when the meate offering was offered, beholde, there came water by the way of Edom, and the cuntrey was filled with water.

21 And when al the Moabites heard that the kinges were come vp to fight against them, they gathered all that was able to put on harnesse, and stoode in the border of the lande:

22 And they were vp earlie in the morning, and the sunne shone vpon the water, that the Moabites sawe the water a farre of as red as blood.

23 And they saide, This is the blood of slaughter: The kinges are slaine, & one haue smitten another: Now therefore Moab get thee to the spoyle.

24 And when they came to the hoast of Israel, the Israelites stoode vp & smote the Moabites, so that they fled before them: but they followed vpon them and smote Moab,

25 And they ouerthrew the cities, and on euery good parcell of lande cast euery man his stone, and filled it, & they stopt all the welles of water, and feld all the good trees, onely in Kirharaseth left they the stones thereof: howbeit they went about it with slinges, & smote it.

26 And when the king of Moab saw that the battaile was to sore for him, he toke with him seuen hundred men that drew ỹ sword, to haue gone through [euen] vnto the king of Edom: but they could not.

27 And then he toke his eldest sonne that should haue raigned in his steade, and offered him for a burnt offering vpon the wall: And there was (a) great indignation against Israel, and they departed from him, and returned to their owne lande.

(a) The Israelites were greatly offended, because of the cruelnes of the fact.

31 Gehezi went before them, and layed the staffe vpon the face of the childe, but ther was neither voyce nor any feeling: wherfore he went againe to meete him, and tolde him, saying: The childe is not awaked. ℣

32 And when Elisa was come into the house, behold the childe was dead, and layde vpon his bed.

33 He went in therefore, & shut the dooze vpon them twayne, & prayed vnto the Lorde, 34 * And went vp, and laye vpon the lad, and put his mouth on his mouth, & his eyes vpon his eyes, & his handes vpon his handes, & when he so laye vpon the childe, the flesshe of the childe waxed warme. ii.Reg.iv.d.

35 And he went againe, and walked once vp and downe in the house, & then went vp, & layde him selfe vpon him againe: And then the childe * gasped seuē times, and opened his eyes. * Or, sneesed.

36 And he called Gehezi, and saide: Call for this Sunamite. So he called her: which when she was come in vnto him, he saide vnto her: * Take thy sonne. Luk.v.c.

37 Therfore she went in, and fell at his feete, and bowed her selfe to the ground, & toke vp her sonne, and went out. ℣

38 Elisa came againe to Gilgal, and there was a dearth in the lande, and the children of the prophetes dwelt with him: And he saide vnto his seruaunt, Set a great pot on [the fyre] and make potage for the children of the prophetes.

39 And one went out into the fielde to gather herbes, and found a wylde vine, and gathered therof wylde gourdes his lap ful, and came and shred them into

to the pot of pottage: for they knew it not.

40 So they powred out for the men to eate: And it fortuned, that when they tasted of the pottage, they cryed out and said, O thou man of God, there is death in the pot. And they could not eate thereof.

41 But he saide: bring meale. And he cast it into the pot, and he saide: Fill for the people, that they may eate. And there was no more harme in the pot.

42 There came a man from Baal Salisa, and brought the man of God bread of the first frutes, euen twentie loaues of barlye, & full eares of corne in the huske: And he said, Geue vnto the people, that they may eate.

43 And his minister answered: Why shall I set this before an hundred men? He said againe, Geue it vnto the people, that they may eate: For thus saith the Lorde, *They shall eate, and there shal be left ouer. Iohn.vi.a.

44 And so he set it before them, and they did eate, and left ouer, according to the word of the Lorde.

1 Naaman the Syrian is healed of his leprosie. 16 Elisa refuseth his giftes. 27 Gehezi is striken with leprosie, because he toke money and rayment of Naaman.

A1 Naaman captayne of the hoast of the king of Syria, was a great man, and honorable in the sight of his maister, because that by him the Lorde had geuen health vnto Syria: he was also a mightie man, & expert in warre [but he was] a leaper.

2 And the Syrians had gone out by companies, & had brought out of the countrey of Israel a litle mayde, & she was with Naamans wyfe.

3 And she saide vnto her lady: I would to God my lorde were with the prophet that is in Samaria, for he would delyuer him of his leprosie.

4 And he (a) went in, and tolde his lorde, saying: Thus and thus saide the mayd that is of the lande of Israel.

5 And the king of Syria saide: Go thy way thither, and I wyll send a letter vnto the king of Israel. And he departed, and toke with him ten talentes of siluer, and fiue thousand peeces of golde, and ten chaunges of raymentes,

6 And brought the letter to the king of Israel, conteyning this tenour. Now, when this letter is come vnto thee, beholde I haue therewith sent Naaman my seruaunt to thee, that thou mayest ridde him of his leprosie.

B7 And it fortuned, that when the king of Israel had red the letter, he rent his clothes, and saide: * Am I God, that I should slay, and make a lyue? For he doth send to me that I should delyuer a man from his leprosie: wherefore consider I pray you, & see how he seeketh a quarell against me.

8 Which when Elisa the man of God had heard how that the king of Israel had rent his clothes, he sent to the king, saying: Wherefore hast thou rent thy clothes? Let him come now to me, and he shall knowe that there is a prophet in Israel.

9 And so Naaman came with his horses and with his charets, and stoode at the doore of the house of Elisa.

10 And Elisa sent a messenger vnto him, saying: Go, and washe thee in Iordane seuen tymes, and thy flesshe shall come againe to thee, and thou shalt be cleansed.

11 But Naaman was wroth, and went away, and saide: Beholde, I thought with my selfe, he would surely come out, and stande and call on the name of the Lord his god, & put his hand on the place, that he may heale the leprosie.

12 Are not Abana and Pharphar riuers of Damasco, better then all the waters of Israel? If I washe me also in them, shal I not be cleansed? And so he turned him, and departed with displeasure. C

13 And his seruauntes came, and communed with him, and saide: Father, if the prophet had byd thee do some great thing, oughtest thou not to haue done it? How much rather then when he saith to thee, washe, and be cleane?

14 Then went he downe, & washed him selfe selfe seuen tymes in Jordane, according to the saying of the man of God, and his flesshe came againe lyke vnto the flesshe of a litle childe,* and he was cleansed. Luk iiii.e.

15 And he turned againe to the man of God, he and al his company, and stoode before him, and saide: Behold, I know nowe that there is no God in all the worlde, but in Israel: Now therfore I pray thee take a " blessing of thy seruaunt:

" Or, reward.

iii.Re.xvii.a 16 But he saide:* As the lorde lyueth before whom I stande, I wyll receaue none: And when the other would haue constrayned him to receaue it, he would not.

17 And Naaman saide: Shall there not be geuē to thy seruaunt as much of this earth as two mules may beare: For thy seruaunt wyll hencefoorth offer neither burnt sacrifice nor offering vnto any other God, saue vnto the Lorde.

18 But herein the Lorde be mercyfull to thy seruaunt, that when my maister goeth into the house of Rimmon for to worshyp there, and leaneth on my hand, and I bowe my selfe in the house of Rimmon: when I do bowe downe I say in the house of Rimmon, the Lorde be mercyfull vnto thy seruaunt because of this thing.

(a) The prophet did not approue his act, but after the common maner of speache byd him farewell.

19 Unto whom he saide: (a) Go in peace. And when he was departed from him as it were a furlong of grounde, 20 Gehezi the seruaunt of Elisa the man of God, said: Beholde, my maister hath spared Naaman this Syrian, that he would not receaue at his hande those thinges that he offered: As the Lorde lyueth, I wyll runne after him, & take somewhat of him.

21 And so Gehezi folowed Naaman: And when Naaman saw him running after him, he light downe from the charet to meete him, and saide:* Is all well? iiii.Re.iiii.d.

22 He aunswered, All is well: Beholde, my maister hath sent me, saying: See, there be come to me euen nowe from mount Ephraim two young men of the children of the prophetes: Geue them I pray thee one talent of siluer, and two chaunge of garmentes. ℭ

23 And Naaman said: with a good will, take two talentes: And he constrained him, & bounde two talentes of siluer in two bagges, with two chaunge of garmentes, and laide them vpon two of his seruauntes, to beare them before him.

24 And when he came to the lower place, he toke [them] from their hand, and bestowed [them] in the house, and he let the men go, and they departed.

25 But he went in and stoode before his maister: And Elisa said vnto him, whēce commest thou Gehezi? He saide: Thy seruaunt went no whyther.

26 But he saide vnto him: (b) Went not myne heart [with thee] When the man turned againe from his charet to meete thee? Is it nowe a tyme to receaue money, to receaue garmentes, olyue trees, vineyardes, sheepe, and oxen, men seruauntes, and mayde seruauntes. (b) was not I present with thee in spirite

27 (c) The leprosie therefore of Naaman shal cleaue vnto thee, and vnto thy seede for euer. * And he went out from his presence a leper as white as snowe. (c) Correction vpon thee. iiii.reg xv.

The .vj. Chapter.

6 Elisa maketh iron to swimme aboue the water. 8 He discloseth the king of Syrias counsel to the king of Israel. 13 who sending certaine to take him, were kept faste in Samaria. 24 Samaria is besieged and endureth extreme famine.

1 The children of the prophetes saide vnto Elisa: Beholde we pray thee, the place where we dwell with thee is 2 to litle for vs: Let vs go we pray thee vnto Jordane, & take thence euery man a beame, & build vs a place to dwel in. And he aunswered, Go.

3 And one saide: Be content I pray thee, and come with thy seruauntes. And he aunswered: I wyll come.

4 And so he went with them: And when they came to Jordane, they cut downe wood.

5 But it fortuned, that as one was felling downe of a tree, the axe head fell into the water: And he cryed, and saide, Alas maister, it was lent me.

6 And the man of God saide: where fell it? And he shewed him the place: And he cut downe a sticke, and cast it in thyther, and immediatly the iron did swymme.

B 7 Therfore sayde he: Take it vp. And he stretched out his hand, and toke it vp.
8 But the king of Syria warred against Israel, and toke counsell with his seruauntes, and sayde: In such and such a place shalbe my campe.
9 And the man of God sent vnto the king of Israel, saying: Beware that thou go not ouer to such a place, for there the Syrians are lurkyng.
10 Therfore the king of Israel sent to the place which the man of God tolde him and warned him of, (a) and saued him selfe from it, not once, nor twyse.
(a) God hath many waies the craftie counsell of the wicked.
11 And the heart of the king of Syria was troubled for this thing, and he called for his seruauntes, and said vnto them: Will ye not shewe me, Whiche of our men [betrayeth me] to the king of Israel?
12 And one of his seruauntes sayde, None my lorde O king: But Elisa the prophet that is in Israel, telleth the king of Israel, yea euen the wordes that thou speakest in thy priuie chamber.
13 He sayde: Go, and spie where he is, that I may sende and fet him. And one told him, saying: Behold, he is in Dothan.
C 14 Therefore sent he thyther horses and charets, and a mightie hoast: and they came by night, and compassed the citie about.
15 And when the seruaunt of the man of God rose vp early to go out: beholde, there was an hoast rounde about the towne with horses & charets: And his seruaunt sayde vnto him, Alas maister, what shall we do?
2 Par. 32.a. 16 He answered, *Feare not: for they that be with vs, are mo then they that be with them.
17 And Elisa prayed and sayd: Lord I beseech thee open his eyes that he may see. And the Lorde opened the eyes of the young man, and he loked: and beholde the mountayne was full of horses, and charets of fire round about Elisa.
18 And when they came downe to him, Elisa prayed vnto the Lord, and sayde: Smyte this people I pray thee with Gene xix c. 2 p. xxv. c. *blindnesse. And he smote them with blindnesse, according to the worde of Elisa.
19 And Elisa sayd vnto them: This is not the way, neither is this the towne: followe me, & I will bring you to the man whom ye seke. But he led them to Samaria.
20 But it fortuned that when they were come to Samaria, Elisa sayde: Lorde, open their eyes that they may see. And the Lorde opened their eyes, and they sawe, & behold they were in the middes of Samaria.
D 21 And the king of Israel sayde vnto Elisa when he sawe them: My father, shall I smyte them, shall I smyte them?
22 And he answered, Thou shalt not smyte them: But smyte those that thou hast taken with thine owne sworde, and with thyne owne bowe: But rather set bread and water before them, that they may eate & drinke, & go to their maister.
23 And he prepared a great refection for them, and when they had eaten and dronke, he sent them away, & they went to their maister: And so the souldiours of Syria came no more into the lande of Israel.
24 After this it chaunced, that Benhadad king of Syria gathered al his hoast and went vp, and besieged Samaria.
25 But there was a great dearth in Samaria: and beholde, they besieged it, vntill an asses head was sold for foure score siluer pence, and the fourth part of a (b) cab of doues doung for fiue peeces of siluer.
(b) The Hebrues write, that they burned it in the siege for lack of wood.
26 And as the king of Israel was goyng vpon the wal, there cryed a woman vnto him, saying: Help me my lord O king.
27 He sayde: If the Lorde do not succour thee, wherwith can I helpe thee? With the barne, or with the wine presse?
28 And the king sayde vnto her: What E wilt thou? She answered: Yonder woman sayd vnto me, Bring thy sonne, that we may eate him to day, and we will eate myne to morowe.
Leui. 26. d. Deut 28 f. Thren. 4. b. 29 *And so we dressed my sonne, and dyd eate him: And I sayde to her the other day, bring thy sonne, that we may eate him: And she hath hyd her sonne.
30 And it came to passe, that when the king heard the wordes of the woman, he rent his clothes, and went vp on the wall, and the people loked, and beholde he had a sackcloth vnder (c) vpon his flesche.
(c) Thus hypocrites seing gods iudgement, think to please him with outward ceremonies, whō in prosperitie they will not knowe.
31 Then he sayd: *God do so & more also to me, if the head of Elisa the sonne of Saphat shall stande on him this day.
3. Re. 19. a.
N 1 32 But

32 But Elisa sate in his house(& the elders sate by him) And the king sent a man before him: but yer the messenger came to him,he sayd to the elders:haue ye not seene howe that the sonne of this murtherer hath sent to take away myne head?Be circumspect when the messenger commeth,and shut the dooze , and hold him at the dooze: Is not the sound of his maisters feete behynde him?

33 Whyle he yet talked with them:behold, the messenger came downe vnto him, & sayd, Behold,this euyl is of the Lozde: And what mozе shall I loke foz of the Lozde?

The vii. Chapter.

1 Elisa prophecieth plentie of vittayle and other things to Samaria. 6 The Syrians run away and haue no man folowing them. The prince that woulde not beleue the wozde of Elisa is troden to death.

THen Elisa saide: Heare ye the wozd of the lozd, thus sayth the Lozde: *To mozow this time [shall] a bushell of fyne flowze [be solde] foz a sicle, and two bushels of barlye foz a sicle in the gate of Samaria.

4.Re.7.a.

2 Then a certayne lozde(on whose hand the king leaned) aunswered the man of God,and sayde: Beholde,if the Lozde would make windowes in heauē,might this saying come to passe?he sayde: Behold, thou shalt see it with thyne eyes, but shalt not eate therof.

3 And there were foure leperous men at the entring in of the gate:And they sayd one to another, Why sit we here vntill we dye?

4 If we say, we will enter into the citie: behold,the dearth is in the citie, and we shal die therin:And if we sit stil here,we dye also . Nowe therfoze come, and let vs fall vpon the hoast of the Syrians: If they saue our liues, we shall lyue: If they kill vs,then are we dead.

5 And they rose vp in the twylight to go to the hoast of the Syrians : And when they were come to the vtmost part of the hoast of Syria, behold there was no man there.

6 Foz the Lozde had made the hoast of the Syrians* to heare a noyse of charets, & a noyse of hozses, & the noyse of a great hoast: Insomuch that they sayde one to another, Lo ,the king of Israel hath hyred against vs the kinges of the Hethites, and the kinges of the Egyptians,to come vpon vs.

Mach.v.a. Esa.xvii.a.

7 Wherfoze they arose, and fled in the twylight , and left their tentes, their hozses,and their asses , and the fielde which they had pitched ,euen as it was, (a) and fled foz their lyues.

(a) The wicked neede no greater enemie, then their owne conscience to pursue them.

8 And when these lepers came to the edge of

of the hoast, they went into a tent, and did eate and drinke, and caried thence siluer, and golde, and rayment, & went and hyd it: and came againe and entred into another tent, and caried thence also, and went and hyd it.

9 Then sayde one to another: we do not well this day, forasmuche as it is a day to bring good tydinges, and we holde our peace. If we tarie till the day light, some mischiefe wil come vpon vs: Now therfore come, that we may go and tell the kinges housholde.

10 And so they came, and called vnto the porter of the citie, and told them, saying: We came to the pauillions of the Syrians, and see there was no man there, neither voyce of man, but horses & asses tyed, and the tentes were euen as they were wont to be.

11 And so the man called vnto the porters, and they told the kinges house within.

12 And the king arose in the night, & sayde vnto his seruauntes: (b) I wil shewe you nowe what the Syrians haue done vnto vs: They knowe that we be hungrie, and therefore are they gone out of the pauillions to hyde them selues in the fielde, saying: when they come out of the citie, we shall catche them alyue, and get in to the citie.

13 And one of his seruauntes answered, and sayde: Let men take I pray you fyue of the horses that remayne and are left in the multitude: (Beholde they are euen as all the multitude of Israel that are left in the citie: Beholde [I say] they are euen as all the multitude of the Israelites that are consumed) and we will send, and see.

14 They toke therfore the horses of two charets, and the king sent after the hoast of the Syrians, saying: Go, and see. C

15 And they went after them euen vnto Iordane, and lo, all the way was full of clothes, and vessels, which the Syrians had cast from them in their haste: And the messengers returned, and tolde the king.

16 And the people went out, and spoyled the tentes of the Syrians: And so it came to passe that a bushell of fyne flowre was solde for a sicle, and two bushelles of barlye for a sicle, *according to the worde of the Lorde. 4. Re. 7. a.

17 And the king appoynted that lorde (on whose hand he leaned) to be at the gate: And the people (c) trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed according to the word of the man of God which he sayde when the king came downe to him. (c) The fulfilling of gods prophete punished

18 And so came the thing to passe, that the man of God had spoken to the king, saying: Two bushels of barlye for a sicle, and a bushell of fyne flowre for another shalbe *to morowe this tyme in the gate of Samaria. 4 Re. 7. a.

19 Whervnto that lorde answered the man of God, and sayde: Yea and if the Lorde made windowes in heauen, might it come to passe? And he sayd: Beholde, thou shalt see it with thyne eyes, and shalt not eate thereof.

26 And euen so chaunced it vnto him: For the people trode vpon him in the gate, and he dyed.

The. viii. Chapter.

1 Elisa prophecied vnto the Sunamite the dearth of seuen yeres. 11 He prophecieth to Hazael that he shalbe king of Syria. 15 He raigneth after Benhadad. 16 Ioram raigneth ouer Iuda. 20 Edom falleth from Iuda. Ohozias succedeeth Ioram.

A 4 Reg. 7. a.

1 THen spake *Elisa vnto the woman (whose sonne he had restored to lyfe againe) saying: Vp, and go thou and thyne house, and sojourne where so euer thou canst: For the Lord hath called for a dearth, and the same shall come vpon the lande seuen yeres.

2 And the woman arose, and dyd after the saying of the man of God, and went both she and her housholde, & sojourned in the land of the Philistines seuē yeres.

3 And at the seuen yeres ende, it fortuned that the woman came againe out of the land of the Philistines, and went out to call vpon the king for her house and for her lande.

4 And the king talked with Gehezi the seruaunt of the man of God, saying: Tel me I pray thee al the great deedes that Elisa hath done.

5 He told the king howe he had restored a dead body to lyfe againe: but in the meane time the woman whose sonne he had rayſed vp againe, cryed to the king for her houſe, and for her land: And Gehezi ſayde, My lorde O king, this is the woman, and this is her ſonne whom Eliſa rayſed vp againe.

6 And when the king aſked the woman, ſhe tolde him: And ſo the king deliuered her a chamberlayne, ſaying, Reſtore thou vnto her all that are hers and all the (a) fruites of the fielde, ſence the day that ſhe left the land, vnto this tyme.

3. Reg. 14. a. 8 And the king ſayd vnto Hazael: * Take a preſent in thyne hande, and go meete the man of God, that thou mayeſt inquire of the Lord by him, ſaying: Shal I recouer of this diſeaſe?

9 And ſo Hazael went to meete him, and toke the preſent with him, and of euery good thing of Damaſcon, euen as much as fourtie camels coulde beare: & came and preſented him ſelfe before him, and ſaid: Thy ſonne Benhadad king of Syria hath ſent me to thee, ſaying: Shal I recouer of this diſeaſe?

10 And Eliſa ſayde vnto him: Go, and ſay vnto him, Thou ſhalt (b) recouer: howbeit, the Lorde hath ſhewed me that he ſhall ſurely dye.

(b) Meaning that he ſhould not dye of that diſeaſe, yet he ſhoulde dye by the hande of Hazael the meſſenger.

11 He loked vpon him ſtedfaſtlie, vntill he was aſhamed: & the man of God wept.

12 And Hazael ſayde: Why weepeth my lorde? He aunſwered: For I knowe the euyl thinges that thou ſhalt do vnto the children of Iſrael: for their ſtrong cities ſhalt thou ſet on fire, and their young men ſhalt thou ſlay with the ſword, and ſhalt daſhe out the braynes of their ſucking children, and al to teare their women with childe.

13 But Hazael ſayd: What is thy ſeruaunt a dogge, that I ſhoulde do this great thing? And Eliſa aunſwered: The Lord hath ſhewed me that thou ſhalt be king of Syria.

C 14 And ſo he departed from Eliſa, & came to his maiſter: Which ſayd to him, What ſayde Eliſa to thee? He aunſwered: He tolde me, that thou ſhouldeſt recouer.

15 And on the morowe it fortuned, that he toke a thycke cloth, and dipt it in water, and (c) ſpread it on his face: & he died, and Hazael raigned in his ſteade.

(c) Hazael vnder pretence to refreſhe the king ſtyfled him with this cloth.

16 The fyft yere of Joram the ſonne of Ahab king of Iſrael, Jehoſaphat being alſo king of Juda, Joram the ſonne of Jehoſaphat king of Juda began to raigne.

22 But Edom rebelled, ſo that he woulde not be vnder the hande of Juda vnto this day: Then Libnah rebelled that ſame time. D

23 The reſt of the wordes that concerne Joram, and al that he dyd, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Juda?

24 And Joram reſted with his fathers, and was buried beſyde his fathers in the citie of Dauid: And * Ahaziahu his ſonne raigned in his ſteade. 2. Par. xxi. d.

25 In the twelfth yere of Joram the ſonne of Ahab king of Iſrael, dyd Ahaziahu the ſonne of Joram king of Juda begin to raigne.

26 Two and twentie yeres old was Ahaziahu when he began to raigne, and he raigned one yere in Hieruſalem: and his mothers name was Athaliahu, the daughter of Omri king of Iſrael.

27 But he walked in the way of the houſe of Ahab, and dyd euyll in the ſight of the Lorde [euen] as dyd the houſe of Ahab: for he was the ſonne in law of the houſe of Ahab.

28 And he went with Joram the ſonne of Ahab, to warre againſt Hazael king of Syria in Ramoth Gilead, and the Syrians wounded Joram. E

2 And when thou commest thyther, loke wher is Jehu the sonne of Jehosaphat the sonne of Nimsi, and go to him, and make him arise vp from among his brethren, & cary him to a secrete chamber.

3 Then take the boxe of oyle, and powre it on his head, and say, thus saith the Lord, I haue annoynted thee to be king ouer Israel: And then open the doore, and flee, without any tarying.

4 And so the seruaunt of the prophete gat him to Ramoth Gilead:

5 And when he came in, beholde, the captaynes of the hoast were sitting together: And he sayde, I haue an errand to thee, O captayne.

6 And Jehu sayd: Unto whiche of al vs? he sayd: To thee, O captayne. And he arose, and went into the house, and he powred the oyle on his head, and sayde vnto him: Thus saith the Lord God of Israel, * I haue (a) annoynted thee to be king ouer the people of the Lorde, euen ouer Israel.

10 And as for Jezabel, * the dogges shall eate her in the fielde of Jezrahel, and there shalbe none to burie her. And he opened the doore, and fled.

iiii. re. xix. f

11 Jehu came out to the seruauntes of his lord, and one sayd vnto him: Is al well:

wherfore came this madde felowe to thee: And he sayd vnto them: Ye knowe what maner of man it is, and what his communication is.

12 They said vnto him againe: It is not so, tell vs. He said: Thus & thus spake he to me, saying, thus saith the Lord: I haue annoynted thee to be king ouer Israel.

13 Then they hasted, and toke euery man his garment, and put it vnder him on the toppe of the staires, and blewe with trumpettes, saying: Jehu is king.

℣ 14 And so Jehu the sonne of Jehosaphat the sonne of Nimsi, conspired against Joram: (Joram kept Ramoth Gilead, he and al Israel, because of Hazael king of Syria:

4.Re.viii.g. 15 And *king Joram returned to be healed in Jezrahel of the woundes which the Syrians had geuen him when he fought with Hazael king of Syria) And Jehu sayde: If it be your mindes, then let no man depart and escape out of the citie, to go and tell in Jezrahel.

16 So Jehu gat vp [into a charet] & went to Jezrahel where Joram lay: and Ahaziahu king of Juda was come downe thyther to see Joram.

17 And the watchman that stoode on the towre in Jezrahel, spied the companie of Jehu as he came, and sayde: I see a companie. And Joram sayde: Take an horsman, and send to meete them, that he may aske whether it be peace.

18 And so there went one on horsbacke to meete him, and sayde: Thus sayth the king: is it peace? And Jehu sayd: What hast thou to do with peace? turne thee behind me. And the watchman told, saying: The messenger came to them, but he commeth not againe.

19 Then he sent out another on horsbacke, whiche came to them, and sayde: Thus sayth the king: is it peace? Jehu answered: What hast thou to do with peace? turne thee behynd me.

20 And the watchman tolde, saying: he came to them also, and commeth not againe: And the driuing, is lyke the driuing of Jehu the sonne of Nimsi: for he driueth the charet as he were mad.

D 21 And Joram sayde: Make redy. And the charet was made redy. And Joram king of Israel, and Ahaziahu king of Juda, went out eyther of them in his charet against Jehu, and met him in the fielde of Naboth the Jezrahelite.

22 And it fortuned, that when Joram sawe Jehu, he sayd: Is it peace Jehu? He answered: what peace should there be, so long as the whordoms of thy mother Jezabel and her wytchcraftes are so great?

23 And Joram turned his hande, and fled, and sayde to Ahaziahu: There is falshood O Ahaziahu.

24 And Jehu toke a bow in his hande, and smote Joram betweene the armes, & the arrowe went through his heart, and he fell downe flat in his charet.

25 Then said Jehu to Bidkar a captayne: Take [him] and cast him in the plat of the ground of Naboth the Jezrahelite: For I remember that when I & thou rode together after Ahab his father, the Lorde layed this heauy burthen vpon him:

26 I haue seene yesterday the blood of Naboth & the blood of his sonnes, sayde the Lord: and I wil quite it thee in this ground sayth the Lord. Nowe therfore take [him] and cast him in the plat of ground, according to ỹ word of the Lord.

27 But when Ahaziahu the king of Juda sawe this, he fled by the way of the garden house: And Jehu followed after him, and sayde, Smyte him also in the charet, at the goyng vp to Gur by Jebleam. And he fled to Megiddo, and ther died.

28 And his seruauntes caryed him in a charet to Hierusalem, and buried him there in his sepulchre with his fathers in the citie of Dauid. ℣

29 And in the eleuenth yere of Joram the sonne of Ahab, began Ahaziahu to raigne ouer Juda.

30 And when Jehu was come to Jezrahel, Jezabel hearde of it, & paynted her face, and tired her head, and loked out at a wyndowe.

31 And as Jehu entred at the gate, she sayd: Had (b) Zimri peace, which slue his maister?

32 And he lift vp his eyes to the windowe, and sayde: who is of my side, who? And there loked out to him two or three chamberlaynes.

33 And he sayd: Throwe her downe. So they threwe her downe, & her blood dasshed toward the wall, and towarde the horses: and he troade her vnder foote.

34 And when he was come in, he dyd eate and drinke, & sayd: Go and visite I pray you ponder cursed creature, and burie her: *for she is a kinges daughter. 3.Reg.16.g.

35 And so when they came to burie her, they founde no more of her then the skull, and the feete, and the palmes of her handes.
36 Wherfore they came againe, and tolde him: And he sayd, This is the worde of the Lorde whiche he spake by the hand of his seruaunt Elias the Thesbite, saying: *In the fielde of Jezrahel shall dogges eate the flesshe of Jezabel. 3.Reg.21.f.

The.x. Chapter.

6 Jehu causeth the seuentie sonnes of Ahab to be slayne. 11 And after that, fourtie and two of Ahaziahs brethren. 25 He killeth also all the priestes of Baal. 35 After his death his sonne raigneth in his steade.

1 Ahab had *threescore & ten sonnes in Samaria: And Jehu wrote letters, and sent to Samaria, vnto the rulers of Jezrahel, to the elders, and to them that brought vp Ahabs children, saying: *al.viij.g.
2 Nowe when this letter commeth to you (ye that haue with you your maisters sonnes, ye haue with you both charets and horses, a strong citie haue ye also, and harnesse)
3 Loke which of your maisters sonnes is best and most meete, and set him on his fathers seate, and fight for your lordes house.
4 But they were exceedingly afrayde, & sayde: See, two kinges were not able to stande before him: howe shall we then be able to stande?
5 And he that was gouernour of Ahabs house, & he that ruled the citie, the elders also, & the tutours, sent to Jehu, saying: We are thy seruauntes, & will do all that thou shalt byd vs, we wil make no man king: therefore do thou what seemeth good in thyne eyes.
6 Then he wrote another letter to them, saying: If ye be myne, and wil hearken vnto my voyce, then take the heades of the men that are your maisters sonnes, and come to me to Jezrahel by to morowe this time: (And the kinges sonnes were threescore and ten persons, and they were with the great men of the citie which brought them vp.)
7 And when the letter came to them, they toke the kinges children, and slue them, euen threescore and ten persons, & layed their heades in baskettes, and sent them to him to Jezrahel.
8 And there came a messenger, and told him, saying: They haue brought the heades of the kinges sonnes. And he said: Let them lay them on two heapes in the entring in of the gate, vntill the morning.
9 And when it was day, he went out, and stoode, and sayde to al the folke, Ye be righteous: Behold, I conspired against my maister, and slue him: But who slue all these?
10 Learne here that there shall fall vnto the earth nothing of the worde of the Lorde, whiche he spake concerning the house of Ahab: For the Lorde hath brought to passe ỹ thinges that he spake by the hande of his seruaunt *Elias. 3.Reg.u.f.
11 And so Jehu slue all that remayned of the house of Ahab in Jezrahel, and all that were great with him, and his kinsfolkes, and his priestes, so that he let nothing of him remayne.
12 And he arose, & departed, and came to Samaria: And when Jehu was in the way of the house where the sheepheardes dyd sheare their sheepe, 13 He met with the brethren of Ahaziahu king of Juda, and sayde: What are ye? They answered: The brethren of Ahaziahu are we, and go downe to salute the children of the king & of the queene.
14 And he said: Take them alyue. Whom when they had taken them alyue, they slue them at the wel whiche was beside the house where the sheepe are shorn, euen two and fourtie men, neither left he any of them.
15 And when he was departed thence, he met with Jehonadab the sonne of *Rechab comming against him, and he blessed him, & sayde to him: Is thyne heart right, as myne heart is true with thine? And Jehonadab answered: Yea that it is. Then geue me thyne hand. And when he had geuen him his hande, he toke him vp to him into the charet, Ier.xxv.a.
16 And sayde: Come with me, and see the zeale that I haue for the Lord. And so they made him ride in his charet.
17 And when he came to Samaria, he slue al that remained vnto Ahab in Samaria, till he had wiped him out, according to the saying of the Lord which he spake to Elias.

18 And Jehu gathered all the people together, and sayd vnto them: * Ahab serued (a) Baal a litle, but Jehu shall serue him more.

* 3 Re. xvi. g.

(a) Baal signifieth Astaroth, the idoll of the Sidonians.

19 Now therfore call vnto me all the prophetes of Baal, all such as serue him, and al his priestes, & let none be lacking: For I haue a great sacrifice to do to Baal, & therefore whosoeuer is missed he shall not lyue. But Jehu dyd it for a sutteltie, to the intent that he might destroy the seruauntes of Baal.

20 And Jehu sayde: Proclayme an holy conuocation for Baal. And they proclaymed it.

21 And Jehu sent vnto all Jsrael, and al the seruauntes of Baal came, that there was not a man left behind that came not: And they came into the house of Baal, and the house of Baal was full from one ende to another.

22 And he sayde vnto him that was the keper of the vestrie: Bring forth garmentes for all the seruauntes of Baal. And he brought them out garmentes.

23 And when Jehu went with Jehonadab the sonne of Rechab into the house of Baal, he sayd vnto the seruauntes of Baal: Searche, & loke that ther be here with you none of the seruauntes of the Lord, but the seruauntes of Baal only.

24 And when they went in to offer sacrifice and burnt offring, Jehu appointed foure score men without, and sayde: If any of ỹ men whom I haue brought vnder your handes escape, he that letteth him go, shall dye for him.

25 And it fortuned, that assoone as he had made an ende of offring the burnt sacrifice, Jehu sayd to the men of warre and to the captaynes: Go in, and slay them, let none come out. And they smote them with the edge of the sword: And the men of warre & the captaynes cast them out, & went to the citie of the temple of Baal, 26 And fet the images out of the temple of Baal, and burnt them.

27 And they brake the image of Baal, and brake the house of Baal, & made a draft house of it vnto this day.

28 And so Jehu destroyed Baal out of Jsrael. E

29 But from the sinnes of Jeroboam the sonne of Nabat whiche made Jsrael to sinne, Jehu departed not from them [neither from] the golden calues that were in Bethel and in Dan.

30 And the Lorde sayde vnto Jehu: Because thou hast done right wel, in bringing to passe the thing that is right in myne eyes, and hast done vnto the house of Ahab according to all thinges that are in myne heart, therefore shall thy* children vnto the fourth generation sit on the seate of Jsrael. 4. Regn.

31 But Jehu cared not for this, to walke in the lawe of the Lorde God of Jsrael with all his heart: for he departed not from the sinnes of Jeroboam whiche made Jsrael to sinne.

32 In those dayes the Lorde began to cut Jsrael short, * and Hazael smote them in all the coastes of Jsrael, 4. Reg. x.c.

33 From Jordane eastward, euen all the land of Gilead, the Gadites, the Rubenites, and them that were of Manasses, from Aroer (which is by the ruer Arnon) euen Gilead and Basan.

34 The rest of the wordes that concerne Jehu, and al that he did, & al his power, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Jsrael?

35 And Jehu slept with his fathers, and they buryed him in Samaria, & Jehoahas his sonne raigned in his steade.

36 And the time that Jehu raigned vpon Jsrael in Samaria, is twentie & eyght yeres.

5 And he commaunded them, saying, This is it that ye must do: One third part of you, whose duetie is to come in on the Sabbath day, shall keepe the watch of the kinges house:

6 And another third part shal keepe the gate of Sur: And another third part shall keepe the gate which is behinde them of the garde: and so shall ye keepe the watch of the house of Messah.

B 7 And two partes of you, that is, al that go out on the Sabbath day, shall keepe the watch of the house of the Lorde about the king.

8 And ye shall compasse the king round about, & euery man shall haue his weapon in his hand: And whosoeuer commeth within ỹ ranges, let him be slaine: And see that ye be with the king as he goeth out and in.

9 And the captaynes ouer the hundredes did according to all thinges that* Jehoiada the priest commaunded: and they toke euery man his men that were to come in on the Sabbath day, with them that should go out on the Sabbath, and came to Jehoiada the priest. *2 Par.23.a.

10 And to the captaynes ouer hundredes, did the priest geue king Dauids speares and shieldes, that were in the temple.

11 And they of the garde stoode, and euery man had his weapon in his hande rounde about the king, from the ryght corner of the temple to the left, along by the aulter and the temple.

12 And he brought out the kinges sonne, and put the crowne vpon him, and deliuered him* (a) the witnesse, & made him king, & annoynted him: And they clapt their handes, and saide: God saue the king. (a) Meaning the law of God. *Deu.xvii.d.

15 But Jehoiada the priest commaunded the captaines of the hundredes that had the rule of the hoast, and saide vnto them: Haue her forth of the ranges, & if any folowe her, kill him with the sword. For the priest had saide: she may not be slaine in the house of the Lorde.

16 And they layde handes on her, till she came into the way by the which the horses went in to the kinges palace, and there was she slaine.

17* And Jehoiada made a bond betweene the Lorde and the king and the people, that they should be the Lordes people, and also betweene the king and the people. * 2 Par.23.c.

18 And all the people of the lande went into the house of Baal, and destroyed it, his aulters also, and his images brake they downe lushylie, and slue Mathan the priest of Baal before the aulters: And the priest set watch ouer the house of the Lorde.

D 16 And toke the rulers ouer hundredes, the captaines, and them of the gard, and all the people of the lande, and they brought the king from the house of the Lorde, and came by the way of the gate of them of the gard to the kings palace, and he sat him downe on the seate of the kinges.

20 And all the people of the lande reioyced, and the citie was in quiet: And they slue Athalia with the sword, beside the kinges palace.

¶ The .xii. Chapter.

6 Iehoas maketh prouision for the repairing of the temple. 16 He stayeth the king of Syria by a present from comming against Hierusalem. 20 He is killed by two of his seruauntes.

21 AND Iehoas began to raigne in the seuenth yere of Iehu, foure tie yeres raigned he in Hierusalem: & his mothers name was Zebiah of Beersheba.

2 And he did that which was good in the sight of the Lorde, as long as (a) Iehoiada the priest enfourmed him.

(a) So long as rulers geue eare to the true ministers of God, they prosper.

3 But the high places were not taken away: for the people offred and burnt incense yet vpon the high places.

4 And Iehoas sayde to the priestes: All the siluer of the dedicate thinges that be brought to the house of the Lorde, that is, the money of them that were numbred, the money that euery man is set at, and all the money that euery man with a willing heart geueth and bringeth into the house of the Lorde:

5 Let the priestes take it to them, euery man of his acquayntaunce, to repayre the broken places of the house wheresoeuer any decaye is founde.

6 And so it came to passe, that vnto the three and twentith yere of king Iehoas, the priestes had mended nothing that was decayed in the temple.

7 Then king Iehoas called for Iehoiada the priest, and the other priestes, and sayde vnto them: Why repaire ye not the broken places of the temple? Now therfore, see that ye receaue no more money of your acquayntaunce, except ye deliuer it to repaire the temple withall.

8 And the priestes consented to receaue no more money of the people, except to repaire the decayed places of the temple.

9 But Iehoiada the priest toke a chest, and bored a hole in the lyd of it, and set it beside the aulter, on the right syde as euery man commeth into the temple of the Lorde, and the priestes that kept the vessels put therein all the money that was brought into the house of the Lorde.

10 And it fortuned, that when they saw ther was much money in the chest, *the kinges scribe & the hye priest came vp, and tolde the money that was found in the house of the Lorde, and put it into a bagge.

11 And they gaue the money sealed into the handes of them that executed the worke, and that had the ouersight of the house of the Lorde: and they brought it out to the carpenters and builders that wrought vpon the house of the Lorde,

12 And to masons, and hewers of stone: And they bought timber and free stone to repaire the decaye in the house of the Lorde, and to al that went out to mend the temple. ℂ

13 Howbeit, there was not made for the house of the Lorde bowles of siluer, instrumentes of musicke, basons, trumpets, or any vessels of golde, or vessels of siluer, of the money that was brought into the house of the Lorde.

14 But they gaue that to the workemen, and repaired therewith the house of the Lorde.

15 Moreouer, they reckened not with the men into whose handes they deliuered that money to be bestowed on workmē: for they did their busines faithfully:

16 Howbeit, trespasse money, and sinne money, was not brought into the house of the Lorde, for it was the priestes.

17 Then came Hazael king of Syria vp, and fought against Geth, and toke it: And Hazael set his face to go vp to Hierusalem.

18 And Iehoas king of Iuda, toke all the halowed thinges that Iehosaphat, Iehoram & Haziahu his fathers kinges of Iuda had dedicate, and that he him selfe had dedicated, and al the gold that was founde in the treasures of the house of the Lorde and in the kinges house, and sent it to Hazael king of Syria, & so he departed from Hierusalem. ℗

21 Iozachar

12 Iozachar the sonne of Semaath, and Iehozabad the sonne of Somer his seruauntes, smote him, and he dyed: And they buryed him with his fathers in the citie of Dauid, and Amaziahu his sonne raigned in his steade.

The .xiij. Chapter.

3 Iehoahaz the sonne of Iehu is delyuered into the handes of the Syrians. 5 He prayeth vnto God and is delyuered. 9 Ioas his sonne raigneth in his steade. 24. Hazael dyeth. 26 Elisa dyeth.

A 1 IN the three & twentith yere of Ioas the sonne of Ahaziahu king of Iuda, Iehoahaz the sonne of Iehu began to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria seuenteene yeres.

2 And he wrought that which was euil in the sight of the Lorde, and folowed the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat which made Israel to sinne, and departed not therfrom.

3 And the Lorde was angry with Israel, and delyuered them into the hand of Hazael king of Syria, & into the hand of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael all their dayes.

4 And Iehoahaz besought the Lord, & the Lorde heard him: For he considered the trouble of Israel, wherewith the king of Syria troubled them.

5 (And the Lord gaue Israel a deliuerer, so that they went out from vnder the subiection of the Syrians: And the children of Israel dwelt in their tentes as before tyme.

6 Neuertheless, they departed not from the sinnes of the house of Ieroboam which made Israel sinne, but walked in them: And there remayned an idols groue still also in Samaria.)

B 7 Neither did he leaue of the people to Iehoahaz but fiftie horsemen, ten charets, and ten thousand footemen: * for the king of Syria destroyed them, and made them lyke threshed dust. *4.Reg.xiii.b

10 In the thirtie and seuenth yere of Ioas king of Iuda, began Iehoas the sonne of Iehoahaz to raigne ouer Israel in Samaria sixteene yeres.

11 And did that which is euill in the sight of the Lorde, and departed not from all the sinnes of Ieroboam the sonne of Nabat that made Israel sinne: for he walked therein.

12 The remnaunt of the wordes that concerne Ioas, and all that he did, and his power wherewith he fought against Amaziahu king of Iuda, are they not written in the booke of the cronicles of the kinges of Israel:

13 And Ioas slept with his fathers, and Ieroboam sat vpon his seate: And Ioas was buryed in Samaria among the kinges of Israel. C

14 When Elisa was fallen sicke of his sickneesse whereof he dyed, Ioas the king of Israel came downe vnto him, and wept before him, and saide: * O my father, my father, the charet of Israel, & the horsemen of the same. *iiii.Reg.ii.e.

15 Elisa saide vnto him: Take bowe and arrowes. And he toke vnto him bowe and arrowes.

16 And he saide to the king of Israel: Put thyne hand vpon the bowe. And he put his hand vpon it: And Elisa put his handes vpon the kinges handes, 17 And said: Open a windowe eastward. And when he had opened it, Elisa sayd: shoote. And he shot: And he saide, The arrowe of health of the Lorde, and the arrowe of health against Syria: For thou shalt smyte Syria in Aphek, till thou haue made an ende of them.

18 And he saide: Take the arrowes. And he toke them: And he said vnto the king of Israel, Smyte the grounde. And he smote thrise, and ceassed. D

19 And the man of God was angry with him, and saide: Thou shouldest haue smitten fiue or sixe tymes, and then thou haddest smytten Syria till thou haddest made an end of them: where now thou shalt smyte Syria but thrise.

20 And so Elisa dyed, & they buried him: and the souldiers of the Moabites came into the lande (a) the same yere. (a) Other reade the yere following, which agreeth with the Hebrue.

21 And it chaunced as some of them were burying a man, and spyed the souldiers, they cast ỹ man into the sepulchre of Elisa: And when the man was roulled downe, and touched the bones of Elisa, he reuiued, and stoode vpon his feete.
22 But Hazael king of Syria vexed Israel all the dayes of Iehoahaz.
23 And the Lorde had mercie on them, and pitied them, and had respect vnto them, because of his appoyntment made with Abraham, Isahac, and Iacob, and would not destroy them, neither cast he them from him as yet.
24 So Hazael the king of Syria dyed, & Benhadad his sonne raigned in his steade.
25 And Iehoas the sonne of Iehoahaz went againe, and toke out of the hande of Benhadad the sonne of Hazael, the cities which he had taken away out of the hande of Iehoahaz his father in warre: For three times did Ioas beate him, and restored the cities vnto Israel againe.
